FRIGHTFUL R. R. ACCIDENT

At the Michigan Central Depot
Yesterday Afternoon.

BOTH FIREMEN INJURED

Two Wrecks by Same Train in One Day.
Wrecking Crew Started Work
This Morning.

Yesterday afternoon was an unfortunate one for the Michigan Central at Buchanan, and especially for the crew of an extra east bound freight.

This train with Conductor Tom Frowley, engineer Wm. H. Howland, and fireman Rolla Munro, left Michigan City with twenty-three cars just after noon. When near Galien a box car was discovered to be on fire and when Dayton was reached the train was stopped and the fire extinguished. When the train passed Galien the operator at that place reported to the dispatcher at Michigan City that the train was on fire. The dispatcher at once wired the Buchanan operator to stop the train here. Mr. Drier flagged the train which was making a great run to get out of the way of the Grand Rapids flyer, due here at 3:16 when they were stopped, they backed into the south siding to let the Grand Rapids train pass. The conductor was not on the rear end of his train, so the engineer did not know how far he was backing in on the siding, until the cars struck the bumping post. They were going with such momentum, that the post, which was in a rotted condition, was broken off and the waycar and a flat car were backed off the end of the track.

The train crew worked alone until after five o'clock and had succeeded in getting the flat and part of the way car onto the track, when the wrecking crew came from Niles and finished the work.

In the mean time the east bound passenger No. 14, due here at 5:19 came along and was flagged by a brakeman from the freight crew. After the passenger went through the flagman came in.

As soon as the passenger train had gone the freight engineer started to run out onto the main track in order to get the rest of their train which had been placed on the north side of the yards, out of the way, while they were working on the derailed cars. Just as they pulled out onto the main track another east bound freight came around the curve, and as the flagman had come in, as stated above, they did not know the track had been obstructed. Engineer Howland saw them coming and called to fireman Munro, who was running the engine, No. 259, to back onto the siding and do it quick. Mr. Munro reversed his lever and pulled the throttle wide open. The engine shot back onto the siding, but not in time to avoid the crash. The right cylinder of engine No. 609, pulling the east bound train struck the rear corner of the tank of No. 259 and raised it up in the air, tipping it on its side on the bank just across from the passenger depot.

Engineer Howland jumped but as the tank turned over he was buried by the coal, up to his shoulders, and held against the bank. Fireman Munro stayed by the engine and went over with it. He was struck on the right hip by the cab, causing a complete dislocation of the hip joint.

Engine No. 609 was in charge of engineer Ed White and fireman Wm. Zick, while conductor Andy Jenness had charge of the train. Fireman Zick jumped from the cab of his engine and struck his head and face on the ties and gravel, cutting and scratching him up, but nothing seriously. Engineer White stayed by his engine and escaped without injury.

The injured men were taken charge of by kind hands from the crowd that gathered and medical aid was telephoned for. Mr. Zick was taken to M. J. Kelling's residence and Dr. Curtis dressed his wounds.

Mr. Munro was taken to John Shook's home and Dr. J. A. Garland came to his assistance. When the doctor discovered the nature of his injuries he had Dr. L. E. Peck called to assist him and in the meantime Dr. Curtis, having cared for Mr. Zick, also came and the three put the dislocated hip in place. Mr. Munro was taken to his home in Jackson this noon and although suffering much pain is getting along as nicely as can be expected, and will be all right in a short time. Mr. Zick was taken to Jackson last night.

One strange thing was, that although Engineer Howland was buried to his shoulders in coal he escaped injury except for a few bruises. The coal came against him so hard however, that the heels of his shoes were torn loose. The right cylinder of engine 609 was taken off as clear as if cut with a knife, the front trucks under the pilot were derailed, and the pilot demolished, aside from this it was unharmed. Engine 259 was damaged to quite an extent but can be repaired. The sidetrack was also torn up for a considerable distance. The disabled engine 609 was cleared from its wreckage and taken from the main track about 11:30 o'clock last night and the track was cleared for traffic. The large steam wrecking derrick arrived from Jackson this morning and at this writing is working upon the wreck.

Both train crews that were in the wreck are from Jackson, and Mr. Munro's relatives were notified, his uncle A. J. Munro, and two friends Cass Wagant and Fred Parr, all of Jackson came this morning.

The news of the wreck spread very rapidly and soon hundreds of people were at the scene, some of them staying until after midnight.

While it was a bad wreck, the trainmen had a most miraculous escape from instant death and are to be congratulated.

Burglary at Stevensville

Probably Work of a Gang of Tramps—
Men's Clothes Taken.

Some time Friday night the store of E. S. and E. Z. Smith of Stevensville was broken into and a large amount of goods taken. There is no clue which can thus far be established which would lead even to a suspicion of who the guilty parties are.

It is not known at what hour the work was done. Mr. Smith closed the store at the usual time Friday night and when he opened it Saturday morning everything was in confusion and the entry and exit of the thieves was plainly marked, there being no effort made to cover up the tracks.

The thieves entered the store through a rear window, and at once proceeded to help themselves. An inventory hastily taken indicates that they took 20 to 25 pairs of men's pants ranging in price from $1.50 to $2.50, also 5 to 10 mens suits worth from $2.00 to $5.00 mostly mixed goods. From 19 to 25 pairs of men's shoes worth about $2.50 are also missing.

Also 12 to 15 hats, black and white worth from 50 cents to $2.00 and 6 or 8 razors that would sell for $1.25 to $2.00. A 32 caliber pistol, 25 knives $2.00 in pennies and 20 cents in stamps are also gone.

It is thought that much other plunder of more or less value was carried away in a wagon, as the tracks are plainly visible.—St. Joseph Press.

DREAM OF STEWART

Grand Rapids Paper Gives the Tribune Scheme a Boost.

COMING TO LIFE AGAIN

Lake Michigan Steamboat People Still at Idea.

The Grand Rapids Press gives life to the hope of Capt. John Stewart of the new City of Benton Harbor, while other captains still laugh at the idea. The Grand Rapids paper says:

From Chicago to St. Joe on Lake Michigan in ninety minutes, to South Haven in two hours, to Holland in three hours. The idea is not the dream of an imaginative fresh water sailor nor a passage from a Jules Verne novel, but is a plan, the foundation for which is now being carefully laid by marine men of wide experience and enough executive ability to carry it through.

The formal announcement of the personnel of the company undertaking this revolution in lake passenger service will be made before the end of the present marine season.

Within a short time a fleet of magnificent turbine power steamers will be operating out of Chicago to Michigan ports. The boats will be finer than any ever seen on fresh water, and are made possible by the rapidly increasing excursion and tourist business out of the lake metropolis, which now taxes to its capacity the fleet of boats in use.

The idea was born years ago, when turbine steamers were first used, Capt. John Stewart being its first advocate. It has been gradually assuming shape until it is now stated in Chicago marine circles that nothing stands in the way of its realization. The plan leaked out through the efforts of a representative of the men interested when he endeavored to get an option on a piece of dock property in an east shore port.

For a year men have been silently at work looking after these options. They have visited Michigan City, St. Joe, South Haven, Holland, Grand Rapids and Muskegon. A part of the plan is to furnish a veritable Coney Island resort at one of these points for the amusement of the Chicago hordes who leave the city Sundays. It will be in the nature of an Americanized Monte Carlo, providing the promoters can find a location where there would be no legal interference, but this is very doubtful.

The first operating point of the turbine steamer company will probably be Michigan City, as it is the point nearest Chicago, and a boat could make several trips a day. It is the plan to gradually extend the steamer service northward until all of the aforementioned ports are reached.

The plans for the first steamer of the fleet are now in the hands of a well-known shipbuilder, and a marine architect has been in Europe studying the construction of the turbine engines, which send the King Edward through the water at a maximum speed of forty miles an hour. He will make the necessary arrangements for the use of the Parson's turbine engine, the highest and best engine for great speed that human ingenuity has yet produced. The hulls and cabins of the steamers will be built on the great lakes, but the engines will be constructed at the shops in England.

The new boats will be a radical departure from the plans of present lake steamers of any class. They will be equipped with bilge keels to prevent rolling and will have a shell deck forward, in torpedo boat style, running from the stem to the lower edge of the pilot house. The tremendous speed will cover the forward part of the vessel with spray.

The interiors of the steamers will be decorated to a point not yet reached, excepting on the finest ocean greyhounds. The main deck will be one of the attractive features of the boats, owing to the intention of the promoters to burn liquid fuel, thus doing away with the smoke and soot so noticeable on the present style of steamers. The liquid fuel system is already being used with great success on the Pacific ocean.

The turbine steamers will attain a speed which will outstrip the railroad schedules from Chicago to points on the shore of Michigan.

The first steamer to be built will be 310 feet in length over all, with a forty foot beam. The engines will have 4,800 horse power. The boats will be built entirely of steel and will be absolutely fireproof. Some of the leading marine men on lake Michigan are interested in the success of the venture.

One of the steamers, at least, will usher in the season of 1905.

M. C. FIGHTS R. R. MERGER

Will Run Trains Detroit to Cincinnati.

Cleveland, O. Aug. 27.—At a meeting held by officials of the Big Four, Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroads a passenger and freight service was arranged for from Detroit to Cincinnati over the Michigan Central, Hocking Valley and Big Four roads. The freight will go by way of the Michigan Central and Lake Shore to Clyde, O., and thence by the Big Four. This arrangement reveals a split between the Vanderbilt lines and the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, over which line the Michigan Central has been running its parlor and sleeping cars into Cincinnati. The merger of the C. H. & D. and the Pere Marquette made this arrangement displeasing to the Vanderbilt lines.

The arrangement will go into effect Sept. 4. Three through trains will be operated daily between Detroit, Toledo and Cincinnati.

Mystery of Many Years

Miss Julia Michael of Dowagiac, Mich. a pension agent, has undertaken to solve a mystery of just a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Matthew Brimmingstool of Dowagiac, the second wife of her husband, now deceased, seeks a widow's pension, but to obtain it must prove the death of the first wife.

Brimmingstool and his family consisted of his wife and several small children, were in the habit of taking long wagon trips every summer, sometimes remaining away from home weeks at a time. From one of these trips Brimmingstool and children returned without Mrs. Brimmingstool. When asked about her whereabouts, he replied that she died on the trip and that he had buried her in the woods. Brimmingstool died refusing to tell the burial place of his first wife, and Miss Michael is now seeking to solve the mystery. A son of Brimmingstool lives somewhere in Indiana.

Where the responsibility for the wreck yesterday should be laid we are unable to say, as a great many opinions have been advanced, as is always the case, but such criminal carelessness, and that was all it was, should be thoroughly investigated by the company, and the guilty party made to suffer.

The man who has suggested local optian in Berrien county must have been persuing the joke book of one Joseph Miller. If only the saloon keepers of St. Joe, Benton Harbor and Niles voted against the proposition, it would be lost.—Grand Rapids Press.

"U. S. Corn Cure for ladies is good for men too. I travel all over the United States but have found nothing equal to it, one bottle took the soreness out of two very bad corns and took the corns out in a few days." Mr. M. P. Fox, New York City. Price 15c or two bottles for 25c at Dr. E. S. Dodd & Son.

The action of St. Joseph township in refusing to issue bonds for the construction of a $20,000 bridge across the St. Joseph river is to result in legal action asking the supreme court to issue a mandamus to compel court to issue a mandamus to compel the financial assistance of the township. A long drawn out fight is promised.

A prominent dentist of Niles recently received a letter from a young farmer who wanted a set of false teeth made and sent to him. He wrote for the teeth in some such way as this: "My mouth is three inches across, five eighth inches threw the jaw. Some hummocky on the edge. Shaped like a hoss shew, toe forward. If you want me to be more particular I shall have to come thar."

The City of Benton Harbor carried 37,000 packages of fruit Friday night, the largest load ever carried out on one steamboat from Benton Harbor. It is true that 50,000 packages have been carried on a single boat but that was in grape time when grapes were put up in little baskets. The load Friday night consisted of barrels and bushels and the smallest packages were the fifth baskets of peaches.

It is rumored that the Band Boys will give a concert and dance, Labor day, Monday, Sept. 5. We are also informed that the business men intend to lend a helping hand by putting on a ball game, races and other attractions. A pleasant afternoon and evening with the always welcome strains of band music as rendered under the able direction of Prof. Dickinson will be a real treat. Come to Buchanan and enjoy your self.

A whale is said to be rustivating in the placid waters of the St. Joseph river between Union City and Sherwood, and he has scared the life half out of a dozen fishermen who have caught glimpses of the monster. All efforts to catch him have so far been in vain, and now they propose to build a dam on either side of his favorite haunt and go after him with harpoons and a complete whaling outfit.

A novel industry exists around Union City whereby many people who live in the vicinity of the numerous marshes surrounding inland lakes secure quite a summer income. Every marsh is overgrown with bulrushes, similar to those in which the infant Moses was found in Biblical times. These bulrushes are cut and packed in bales weighing 30 pounds each and are then shipped to New York and Ohio vineyards, where they are used in tying up the heavy laden grape vines. The vineyard people formerly used twine, but it was expensive and soon rotted when exposed to the weather. The bulrushes are strong, almost impervious to the effects of weather, and are very much cheaper than the manufactured twine. Thousands of bales are shipped during August and September.

There has been quite a change made in the telephone gang that has been working in this place the past few months. Friday superintendent of construction Beamer, of Detroit, came to town and after looking over the work decided that the crew that had been working were too slow, so he informed them that their services were no longer needed. A new gang started to work Saturday morning with Frank Beasore as for man, and it looks as if something was doing. The electric power was shut down Sunday and the linemen took this opportunity to remove the old wires from the down town district. We are informed that the work in town will be completed in about two weeks.

The frequent deaths at the Flying Rollers headquarters is calling out some anxiety among those who belong to the House of Israel. Some are inclined to believe that there is a Jonah in the crowd, while others insist that Jehovah is chastising them as he did the children of Israel under the leadership of Moses. As stated in these columns three have been removed by death and as the Banner Register goes to press three more are reported near death's door. That the place is infested with tuberculosis, is surmised by some physicians, in fact Benjamin is branded as a victim of this disease and it is only a question of time until he will respond to the grim monster's call.—Banner Register.

The Michigan Wood Pulp company will start work bright and early Monday morning on the head gates at their dam, which may very properly be termed the "new" dam, on account of the great outlay of money they have made there this summer in the effort to strengthen the dam, so that all risk of wash outs by high water will be minimized. The concrete abutments at each end of the dam and at the tail race outlets are massive formations and with the stone filling should be able to resist any flood that can ever swell the St. Joseph river. The close call this dam had last spring from a complete washout determined the company to take no chances on the destruction of their main source of power supply.—Niles Sun.

Jottings on Riverside Camp Ground

There were about 225 persons in regular attendance.

Nearly all the ministers from St. Joseph district were present, making the meetings very interesting, being very instructive both mentally and spiritually.

Rev. H. A. Kramer from Cleveland, O. arrived Tuesday evening and had charge of all the evangelistic services. Every morning at 10:00 o'clock, Rev. Kramer conducted the Bible study. These meetings were very instructive, as the leader is a very efficient teacher. Those that missed those meetings missed a rare treat.

Several were converted during the week and four on Sunday.

A district male quartet rendered music during the services. The Mizpah male quartet from South Bend, were on the grounds to furnish music over the last Sunday. They sang beautifully.

This year was the best year for several years, on last Sunday about 4,000 people were on the grounds.

The meeting closed with and old fashioned circle around—the tent-hand-shaking, while the male quartet sang "We'll Never say Goodby in Heaven."

The State Fair.

We are informed by the secretary that everything is ready for another fine exposition of the agricultural and manufactured products of this state at Pontiac, Sept. 12-16. Several new features are introduced. Among them are public sales of live stock, live stock demonstrations in the evening and state grange headquarters on the grounds.

This great annual gathering is well worth the attention and patronage of our readers.

CONSTIPATION, INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA CURED

The person who really wants to be cured, who would like to be free from the constant ailments due to indigestion in its varied forms, should take advantage of this offer—and for our free sample and give it a fair trial.

The tonic effect of "Nature's Remedy" on the mucous membrane and muscular fibres of the stomach, and alimentary canal, gives tone and thereby cures Constipation and Indigestion. It is a simple vegetable compound, perfectly harmless and has never failed to effect a cure, no matter how bad.

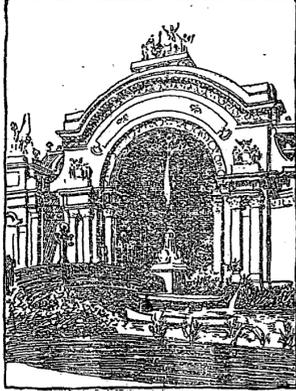

WRITE TO-DAY—We will send you a large sample box of "Nature's Remedy." Not an ordinary one or two does affair, but enough to last several days; enough to do you good and convince you that "Nature's Remedy" will cure you. We have thousands of testimonials, but the best test is the remedy itself, therefore, write to-day for a sample and booklet.

REPRESENTATIVE MEN ON THE WORLD'S FAIR

What Distinguished Statesmen and Others Say of the Educational and Inspiring Exposition at St. Louis.

The public utterances of distinguished men who have visited the world's fair have but one note, and that of emphatic praise. Here are some of their comments:

Hon. John Hay, secretary of state: "I have never seen nor heard of anything so fine."

Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury: "Any father of a bright boy can afford to send him to the Fair simply to study any one of at least a thousand exhibits."

Hon. Charles H. Grosvenor of Ohio: "A visit of ten days by a man of ordinary aptness and appreciative capacity to the Fair is almost equal to a postgraduate course in a university."

Hon. Benjamin B. Odell, governor of New York: "St. Louis has been badly misrepresented by accounts which say that her weather is unbearable. The fair is wonderful."

Hon. George C. Pardee, governor of California: "The governor of the Golden State, who has spent all his life within her borders, finds that he knew only a little about his state until he came to the Fair and saw all her varied products assembled together."

Hon. Albert B. Cummins, governor of Iowa: "The Louisiana Purchase Exposition is on the grandest scale of any exposition the world has ever seen."

Hon. Richard Yates, governor of Illinois: "The more I see of the Exposition the more I enjoy it."

Hon. Fennimore Chatterton, governor of Wyoming: "I wish the Fair the greatest success. It certainly deserves it."

Hon. Franklin Murphy, governor of New Jersey: "It is well worth coming from New Jersey to see even a small part of this Fair."

Hon. A. B. White, governor of West Virginia: "I cannot speak too strongly of the greatness of this Fair."

Hon. William J. Bryan: "The Exposition is an unparalleled wonder."

Hon. John Sharp Williams, member of congress from Mississippi: "The most wonderful thing of its kind."

Hon. Hoke Smith of Georgia, formerly secretary of interior under President Cleveland: "I am highly pleased with the Exposition and believe it to be one of the triumphs of modern civilization."

Hon. Perry Belmont of New York: "In magnitude and beauty the Fair is wonderful. It is worth coming a long distance to see."

Hon. Daniel J. Campau, chairman of the Michigan delegation to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis: "It is positively sinful for parents to fail to bring their children to see the Fair."

M. Paul Dupuy, editor of Le Petit Parisien of Paris, France: "I admire the Exposition for its immensity, its spirit of the sublime, its general beauty and its completeness."

Prince George of Bavaria: "I have never seen anything prettier than the St. Louis World's Fair buildings when outlined at night with their millions of electric lights."

Hon. Louis E. McComas of Maryland: "The greatest fair in the world."

Hon. John F. Dryden of New Jersey: "The people have no idea of the greatness of the Exposition. Every American should see it."

T. P. Shants, president of the Clover Leaf route of Chicago: "The Fair is a big success and will continue to become a greater success as it progresses."

Permanently Ineligible. "Mr. Bliggins has just inherited a fortune," said the woman who knows all the news. "I suppose he will now succeed in getting into the smart set."

"No," answered Miss Cayenne. "Before he was rich they said he had more brains than money. Now they will say he has more money than brains."—Washington Star.

The Tramp's Taste. Tramp (at the kitchen door)—Can you give me something to eat, lady? Lady—There's the wood pile. Tramp—I can't eat wood, lady. Lady—You can see it, can't you? Tramp—I'd rather eat it, lady. Good morning!—Detroit Free Press.
