Find Use for Appendix in Cure of Dysentery

Washington, March 15.—A new cure for tropical dysentery, which has carried off thousands of American soldiers in the Philippines, is being tried at Washington barracks hospital in this city, where it has met with such success as to warrant the belief that the dread Oriental disease may be stamped out.

Some time ago Sergt. Mould of the engineer corps returned from the Philippines and was brought to Washington for treatment. Ordinary methods of effecting a cure proved unavailing. It was then that the new scientific treatment was tried.

Under the direction of Maj. Borden the man's appendix was reached by an incision through the walls of the abdomen. A delicate operation was performed, the appendix was drawn through the opening in the body and stretched there, and was allowed to heal outside the abdominal wall.

Using the appendix much as if it had been a funnel, the surgeon then flushed the patient with a quinine solution, pouring the medicine through the appendix. The quinine reached the vital organs affected without passing through the stomach.

After treatment lasting for a few days Sergt. Mould, who had been confined to his bed, was convalescent and is now able to walk, although the cure is not entirely complete. The man's appendix still remains outside his body, where it has healed in the most unnatural position, but the operation of replacing it when he is pronounced well will be a simple one.

This case is said to be the first of its kind on record, and is believed to be the only occasion for the use of the appendix in this manner. The idea is said to be the invention of Dr. Wyeth of New York, who theoretically discovered it two years ago, although he never put his theory into practice.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good, so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease, by all druggists, at 50c a bottle.

THE LADY MINISTRELS

Given at Rough's Opera House Last Friday Night

WAS COMPLETE SUCCESS

Show Will Be Repeated in the Near Future

The long looked for Lady Minstrels, given under the auspices of the Eastern Star, arrived at Rough's opera house last Friday evening, and was greeted by a full house.

When the curtain went up at 8:30 o'clock a gorgeous spectacle met the eye. A circle of sixteen ladies of rather 'dark' complexion with only one lady in white. The contrast was decidedly striking and could be compared to a setting of a beautiful white pearl, surrounded by dusky diamonds.

Mrs. E. S. Roe acted as interlocutor, and was ably supported by Mrs. J. R. Bishop, Miss Georgia Wilcox, Mrs. F. A. Stryker, Mrs. Chas. F. Pears, Mrs. R. J. Blake and Mrs. Tom Brown as end ladies.

The show consisted of the usual jokes and songs given by a minstrel performance and kept the audience in good humor throughout. Time and space will not permit us to give a special mention of each one who took part as all were good. The song of Miss Georgia Wilcox however is worthy of especial mention.

The second part consisted of several specialties. First was a song by Herbert Troemel, then an exhibition in magic by Mr. Henderson, a quartette song by four dusky belles. Mrs. Casey's experience at the Eucher Party by Mrs. Stryker and a good night song.

The ladies cleared $40. from the entertainment. They expect to repeat the performance with a change of program in the near future.

The New Ezra Kendall Play

"Weatherbeaten Benson," the new Ezra Kendall play, which returns to the Grand Opera House Chicago, on Sunday, March 26, for a week's engagement, was inspired by scenes and incidents of a remarkable chapter in American history, namely the Oklahoma "rush" of 1889. In that year the government opened up the territory lands of the southwest for homestead claims and the hurry of tens of thousands of people to reach the most desirable portion of this fertile and promising locality was as picturesque as it was astonishing. The present city of Guthrie, I. T., was the settling point of 10,000 homestead seekers in a single day. The opening act of the Kendall play introduces the "rushers" on their journey to the promised land.

Kendall is supported by a very strong company and his return engagement in Chicago promises to be as successful as the original appearance in November. Liebler & Co., have provided him with a beautiful scenic production.

WILL PROTECT BASS

Measure Has Been Introduced in the Legislature

There is now a state bill before the legislature to close the season on black bass from January 15 to June 15 of every year.

It is the state game warden's own bill and it is backed by large numbers of fishermen all over the state. Rep. Robinson of Detroit introduced it.

This bill is designed to cover every lake and pond in the state of Michigan which will of course mean Cass and Berrien counties' many inland lakes where the season now opens May 20.

One clause of this bill which is meeting with general favor with local and state fishermen is one which makes it unlawful to take black bass caught in Michigan waters outside of the state.

Fishermen from outside the state have been rapidly depleting these bodies of water of their bass within the past few years and the stopping of the practice would be hailed with much satisfaction throughout Cass and Berrien.

Another clause makes it illegal to retain a black bass that is not twelve inches or more in length. This would make it necessary for the fisherman to throw back anything which weighed less than a pound.

30 Club

The ladies of the 30 club entertained their gentlemen and lady friends at the beautiful home of Miss Blanche Peck, last Wednesday evening. The entertainment in question, took on the literary name of "Shakespeare Evening." The guests arrived and were ushered into the spacious rooms where they saw in the front parlor, seated on a throne, the great bard in whose honor this evening planned. The guests greeted this great personage and he in return presented each one with a miniature picture of himself. These pictures proved to be very good likenesses indeed, but it was soon discovered that the man on the throne was not William Shakespeare but our popular physician, Dr. Orville Curtis.

A musical program had been arranged and Miss Clara Hubbell played a very beautiful instrumental solo, as the first number. The ladies trio, Mesdames Blake, Perrott and Bishop sang a selection which was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Sig Desenberg favored the company with a vocal solo highly enjoyed. For the last number Mr. Chas. Pears, Mrs. Merrill and Mr. Glen Smith marched in to slow music and stationed themselves before Dr. Curtis, alias Shakespeare; both gentlemen named were attired in gay colored togas and carried very long handled fans which they slowly waved above the head of Mr. Shakespeare while Mrs. Merrill read an original poem which was very comical and was highly enjoyed as all her selections have been.

A guessing contest came next in which Mr. and Mrs. Fitch won first prizes but as the premiums were identical, Mrs. Fitch presented hers to Mrs. Mayme Boyle who had the next highest number of correct answers. Partners were formed by matching cut pictures and they were seated at small tables; the catering committee then served a most delicious two course luncheon.

The guests numbering about 60, departed near midnight, extending their thanks for the enjoyable evening, to their hostess and Misses Mansfield, Logan, Mesdames Sanders, Allen and Kingery, who were the entertainment committee, also to the catering committee; Mesdames Curtis, Weaver, Mudgett, Misses Sellers and Peck.

IF YOU USE A TELEPHONE

You Must Be Civil and Reasonable or Services Can Be Withdrawn

A very novel suit has just been concluded in the circuit court.

Phillip Yund sued to compel the Brambridge Telephone company to replace a telephone in his residence, which the company had refused to do on the ground that Yund had been unreasonable in the use of the company's lines and had made a general nuisance of himself and was a disturber, and that they were justified in taking the instrument out and refusing the service to him.

Judge Coolidge stated that this was the first mandamus case that had been tried before a jury while he has been on the bench. There were some facts at issue that made a jury necessary. The only question involved for the twelve men was whether or not Mr. Yund had been unreasonable in his use of the defendant's telephone. The court wrote out this question and each juror signing his name answered "Yes."

Attorney Southworth, representing the plaintiff, at once made a motion for the writ of mandamus regardless of the verdict. The court denied the motion and gave costs to defendant.

Attorney I. W. Riford appeared for the defendant.

The case may be appealed.

IN MEMORIAM

ROSA SIMPSON

Nee Andrews, the second child of Fred and Mary Andrews was born on August 7, 1864, at the Fred Andrews homestead one and one-fourth miles southwest of Buchanan and departed from this life on March 18, 1905, at 2:00 a. m.

On April 7, 1889, the deceased married Chas. Simpson, her now mourning husband. They became the parents of 5 children, Eva, Aline and Chas, an infant son about four months old and 2 that died in infancy.

Mrs. Simpson's life was lived in and around Buchanan, excepting the first two years of her married life which were spent in Grand Rapids. She was a true, kind friend, a pleasant neighbor, and a devoted wife and mother which endeared her not only to her family but to every one who knew her. Her departure so soon, and rather unexpected, has cast a deep gloom over the entire village.

Mrs. Simpson was first taken ill March 6, 1905, and after a few days of terrible suffering began to amend. Last Wednesday she took a relapse and grew rapidly worse and in spite of all that loving hands and hearts could do she fell asleep last Saturday morning, aged 40 years, 11 months, 11 days. The cause of her death is given as cerebro spinal meningitis.

She leaves to mourn her loss a grief stricken husband and three children, who seem to need her so much; her aged father, 5 brothers and 4 sisters. Our loss is her gain. We extend to these bereaved ones our sincere sympathies and pray that they realize that comfort which comes from trusting Him whose love and care for us is infinite. May a glad meeting follow this sad, sad parting.

The funeral services were held from the Evangelical church Monday, March 20, at 1:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. J. A. Halmhuber and interment was made in Oak Ridge cemetery.

"O. K." Sunday Show

The managers of "Hooligan's Troubles," which recently showed in Buchanan, advertised to repeat its Saturday's show at Owosso on Sunday afternoon, drew a large crowd to the opera house, but the mayor of the city gave orders that warrants be issued for the arrest of the members of the company if an attempt was made to open the show. The company would not run the risk, and the police officers took the opportunity to spring a joke on the audience waiting outside the opera house for admission. The doors were thrown open and the announcement made that a free performance would be given, whenever available seat was soon taken. As soon as all were seated, the curtain was rung up and the salvation army was found to be seated on the stage, the police having smuggled them in through the back door. The audience saw the joke, and in a body started for the doors, but found every exit guarded by a policeman, who ordered them back, and all were compelled to sit out the entire service. They took it with good grace, however, were quiet and attentive, and at the close of the service the salvation army found that its treasury had been enriched by the collection of $50.

TRAINLOAD OF LOGS

Are Sent by Michigan Man Directly to Scotland.

Vermontville, March 18.—Jesse D. Dancer, who for several seasons has been buying and shipping timber to various points in both the United States and the old country, has just sent eastward to Glasgow, Scotland, a full trainload comprising 28 carloads of selected Michigan hard maple and rock elm logs, none of them measuring less than 24 inches in diameter and from that size up. A large number of these choice logs were 40 feet long and perfectly straight, many of the logs are scaling over 1,000 feet apiece. The maple logs are used in making rollers which are used in the printing of calico and wall paper while the rock elm are used for shipbuilding purposes and other uses that demand extra good material.

The freight on this shipment will amount to $4,000 or over. The train will make the 1,000 mile trip to the seaboard on express time.

A Postoffice Joke

Every once in a while something new happens at the Michigan City postoffice general delivery window. A few days ago a man presented at the window and said "Linsed Oil." "Nothing," replied the clerk with a grave face, supposing the stranger was trying to hand him the hot end of a joke. The next two days the incident was repeated. Finally the clerk said to him: "Stranger, I understand that you are working a josh on me but just what it is I can't understand. If you want any mail give me your name and I'll make a search for it, but if you're only joking you had better cut it out or put me wise." At this the patron grew a bit indignant and said: "I'm not joking you at all; my name is Lin C. Doyle, and if you have any mail for me I want it." He got it.

EFFICIENCY OF TURBINE.

Performance of the Great Machine at the World's Fair—Has No Parallel.

On the morning following the close of the St. Louis exposition great interest attached to the shut-down and inspection of the 600-horse power steam turbine generating unit in the Palace of Machinery after a continuous run of over 3,962 hours—a performance which has had no parallel in steam turbine history, says the Scientific American. This machine, which is of the Westinghouse-Parsons type, was started on its long run on the morning of Monday, June 20, shortly after its installation at the fair, and was stopped on the morning of Friday, December 2. During the five and a half months that the unit was in operation it supplied current for light and power in the various buildings of the exposition.

Several engineers connected with the builders of the turbine and with the machinery department of the world's fair were present when the engine was stopped and examined. It was found to be in perfect condition, as shown by the fact that there were no signs of wear, and that the bearings still retained the tool marks which they carried when they came from the shops.

The remarkable feature of this performance, of course, was the maintenance under load of a speed of 3,600 revolutions per minute for such a long period. Every day from 8:30 in the morning to 10:30 in the evening during the continuous run, the load varied from 25 per cent. underload to 25 per cent. overload. The total number of revolutions was but little below one billion.

HE KNEW THEY WOULD FIT

Misunderstanding of a Negro Calls Forth Remark Telling the Real Situation.

A Mississippi congressman, says the New Orleans Picayune, once owned a handsome pair of light gray trousers which were much admired by his colored neighbors. Unfortunately they became spotted.

"Here, Charlie," said the congressman to a negro servant who had long coveted them, "take these trousers and clean them."

Charlie took them home, and after two days of careful inactivity brought them back.

"Scuse me, boss," he said, "but 'clah to gracious, seem like Ah can't git dat spot out no way."

"Did you brush it?"

"Yasseh."

"Scrub it?"

"Yasseh."

"Scour it?"

"Yasseh." "Pear like Ah done ev'rything, but Ah jes' can't git it out no way."

"Well, did you try ammonia?"

"No, seh! No, seh!" exclaimed Charlie, with a delighted snicker. "Ah didn't try 'em on yit, sah, but Ah knows dey'd fit!"

"Ah," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "I had your husband hors de combat last night."

"Did you?" replied Mrs. Packenham. "He told me that he was going to the automobile show, but Josiah always did have a soft spot for horses. You know he got his start in life runnin' a dray."—Chicago Record-Herald.

KING IS A LOTTERY WINNER

Carlos of Portugal Captures Big Stake in National Institution of That Country.

The king of Portugal is an all-round sportsman, an adept at every outdoor pastime; he is equally successful at the card table, and on his recent visit to Windsor as well as Chatsworth and Welbeck, his bridge playing was exceptionally brilliant and his winnings heavy. At Chatsworth his principal partner was the duchess of Devonshire, a devoted bridge-player, and their continued luck and skill, produced, it is said, such handsome results that the king felt quite embarrassed. He presented the duchess with a set of gold-jeweled bridge-markers as a memento of his visit. During his stay in England, King Carlos received the gratifying news from Lisbon that he was the winner of a prize of $12,500 in the national lottery. It has been the custom of the king for many years to subscribe for several tickets, always selecting the same numbers, one of which, 2,305, proved a winner this year.

Incredible Brutality

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy" he writes, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at all drug stores.

The executive committee of the Berrien county Sunday school association will meet in the M. E. church in Niles on Tuesday, Mar. 21, to plan for the work of the current year.

There are strong signs that the Japanese flanking operations were based on a study of Sherman's campaigns. The Jap bands ought to play "Marching Through Georgia."

Fifteen years ago Minnesota started a binder-twine factory in the penitentiary and has made a success of it. A similar state factory has just begun operations in Missouri. There are some encouraging precedents for the idea.

By preaching and practicing the virtues of a vegetarian diet, the society women of Washington are doing their share in the great work of eradicating the meat trust. Commissioner Garfield should take notice of this dangerous bit of aggression in his next report.

In 1871 all the British troops in Canada were withdrawn, except 2000 infantry, artillery and engineers at the naval bases of Halifax and Esquimaux. On July 1 these remaining troops will be ordered to some other part of the world, and their place taken by Canadian garrisons. This year, therefore, will mark the disappearance of the last British soldier on duty in North America. Outside of lack of power to make treaties, Canada will become this year almost wholly self-governing.

Since 1882 Prussia has spent $90,000,000 in cutting canals from the large rivers to the leading cities and in canalizing rivers, and an additional expenditure of $70,000,000 for the same object is planned. Germany now has 9000 miles of navigable inland waters. In the last thirty years France has allotted $100,000,000 to the construction of canals free from tolls, and proposes to spend $110,000,000 in the same manner. With 3000 miles of canals, and 7000 miles of navigable rivers, many of which are canalized, France still calls for more canals.

Base Ball

Those fine warm days we had last week were enough to give any one the base ball fever. The old veterans seem to be getting it rather early this year, so the prospects for a local team grow brighter. They were in the alleys and back of the stores hustling the sphere that they may be better able to defend Buchanan's honor this season.

A base ball team here would pay for itself after it was once started. In Schoolcraft, a little town of about 900, there were nearly 1,200 people who attended one of the games there last season. Dr. Beistle, a former Buchanan boy, handles the curves for the Schoolcraft team.

If our local business men would rent the old base ball park for the season and help to organize and equip a local team we could have some fine sport here this summer.

The A. R. C. Club was very delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Morris, of Marion street. There were 30 present. At cards first prizes were awarded to Frank Curry and Mrs. Frank Johnson. The consolations went to Mrs. John Drew and Frank Johnson. Cut flowers were generously arranged throughout the house. Late in the evening the guests enjoyed an elaborate four course menu. Instrumental music was rendered during the evening. Mesdames John Drew and Max Bleisner, of Laporte, were present.—Elkhart Truth. Mr. Morris was a former Buchanan resident and is a brother of John Morris. The above gathering was to celebrate Mr. Morris' birthday, and those present gave him a fine silk umbrella to remind him of the occasion.

The whole interior of the building is to be painted, varnished and frescoed. The interior walls are to be done in imitation marble. New upholstered seats are to be placed in the waiting rooms. In addition to this a smoking room is to be built on the north end of the men's waiting room with a finely equipped lavatory annexed. A Reading plumber applied the hot solder to a supposedly empty gasoline tank, picked himself out from under his work bench ten feet away from where he thought he was, and remarked: "Huh, I'll get an order for a new tank, anyway."

The editor of the Ingham County Democrat turns the trick on the nervy subscriber in the following manner: "Will the lady who sent us the anonymous request to publish one of Longfellow's poems kindly send us a nicely dressed chicken for our Sunday dinner, one that weighs four or five pounds, a roll of butter and a dozen eggs."

Hon. T. J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids, who was recently appointed by President Roosevelt as minister to Denmark, states that he expects to leave for Copenhagen April 15. Mrs. O'Brien and Miss O'Brien will accompany him.

There is a mean little echo in the court room of the Adrain county building that persists in talking back to the lawyers when they are in the throes of passion, sentiment or pathos and they want it removed. Architects say that it would cost about $1,500 to loosen it from the hall of justice and the supervisors think it is harmless and will probably let it remain.

The contract has just been let to Detroit parties for the construction of a five mile line of railroad near Lansing, connecting the Grand Trunk railroad with the Pere Marquette and Michigan Central at North Lansing.

When John Wheelock and wife, who live near Honor, rushed out of their house to save their burning barn Wednesday, an unknown incendiary placed a lot of hay against the house and fired it. In the excitement the house was ransacked and Mrs. Wheelock's purse containing $60 taken. The stock was saved from the barn. The barn fire was also of incendiary origin. The house was saved.

Mrs. Nettie Clark, aged 64 years, has commenced a $20,000 suit against the Michigan Central railroad. She is a Chicago woman. She says that at about 8 o'clock on the morning of June 26 last the brakeman told her after leaving Battle Creek that the next stop would be Jackson. When the train stopped she started to alight but the cars suddenly jerked forward and threw her to the ground. She was injured and has been in Ann Arbor for treatment ever since.

Ira Orent Wyman and Miss Alta

Hoard and Leander Latham and Miss Armenia Sutton were the participants in a double wedding which was performed by Judge Hopkins of the Kalamazoo probate court Saturday. A singular incident in connection is that all the young people are neighbors in the country, and each couple knew that the other was going to be married, but neither knowing when or where Mr. Wyman and Miss Hoard had been in the court room but a few minutes when the other couple appeared, also with a marriage license. Each couple acted as attendant for the other.

Before leaving his farm for Pentwater Friday afternoon, John Lambrix left word for his hired man to open a potato pit ten feet from his barn. The hired man began digging and two feet down struck a hard substance which proved to be a human skull. He became frightened, ran to the house and would not go back until Mr. Lambrix returned after dark. The body must have been buried for fifty years and was evidently an Indian. The supervisor was notified and may hold an inquest.

The deal has been closed by which the Rapid Motor Vehicle Co., of Detroit, will locate in Pontiac. Max Grabowski will be manager, and the stockholders in the enterprise there will be A. G. North, H. G. Hamilton and F. G. Jacobs. The company is capitalized at $100,000, and will move from Detroit in April, locating in the Hodges factory on South Saginaw street, adjoining the Airline railway. The company will manufacture a line of delivery wagons propelled by 16-horse power gasoline motors. The concern has orders booked ahead to keep the plant running for a long time. This is the same firm that wanted to locate in Buchanan about six weeks ago. They wanted to sell $20,000 worth of stock in this place.

The Jones & Reynolds Telephone Co. which has operated a telephone exchange in Cassopolis, was reorganized Friday under the laws of Michigan as the Cassopolis Telephone Co. An electric storm at Fremont caused a peculiar accident. Wm. Fowler was sitting on a chair, his right foot resting against a stove, when a bolt of lightning struck the roof, ran down the chimney into the stove and out into Fowler's leg. The member was paralyzed and turned black. Fowler was unconscious for several hours and will lose the use of the leg.

Monroe this year will not experience a flood, as at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon practically all the ice there had made its way down the river and the entire mass is now lodged between the Grand Trunk bridge and the Cole dock, where it is beautifully gorged. Every year this town is visited by a flood caused, more or less, by a large gorge that is formed just below the Macomb street bridge, but fortunately this ice passed down a couple of days ago, thus giving the rest from above a clear channel and placing it in a neighborhood where no bad results will follow. Many of the residents in the district usually flooded had stored their goods in higher quarters, but they are jubilant as the danger has passed.

The bill of Senator Brown of Lapeer, which in effect extends the time in which appeals may be made in chancery cases from one month to one year, has passed the house and senate. It will, when it becomes a law, make divorced persons who marry again as soon as the ink on their decrees is dry, take a bigger gamble with fate. As it is now, they are safe in their subsequent matrimonial adventures after 30 days have expired, but the amendment to the law will make it inadvisable to marry for a year. If the case should be appealed within the time and be reversed by the supreme court, a divorced person marrying in the interval would be guilty of bigamy.
