HONOR THE DEAD HEROS

Memorial Day Will be Properly Observed in Buchanan

EXERCISES IN AFTERNOON

Program as Arranged by Committees of The G. A. R.

Next Tuesday is Memorial Day and the day will be properly observed in Buchanan. The arrangements are in charge of Wm. Perrott Post G. A. R. A very appropriate program has been arranged and is printed below.

All soldiers and sailors are invited to meet at the Post room at 1 o'clock p. m. and organize. At 1:30 p. m. will march to the Engine house and receive flowers. The line will be formed by Comrads, John Perrott, officer of the day, in following order and march at 2 p. m.

- 1 Band
 - 2 Members of Post, soldiers and sailors.
 - 3 Ladies of circle.
 - 4 School children.
 - 5 Citizens on foot and in carriages.
- At the cemetery the column will divide and strew flowers on soldiers' graves and then assemble on the soldiers' monument ground for the exercises.

EXERCISES AT CEMETERY

- 1 Music by Band.
- 2 Song.
- 3 Prayer by Chaplain.
- 4 Song.
- 5 Address by Rev. Darling.
- 6 Song.
- 7 Decorating graves of unknown dead, and close by audience singing "America" with band accompaniment; march back to the Post room and disband.

We know it will be quite difficult to procure flowers for decoration day and it will be necessary to make an extra effort to procure enough, but we hope our ladies will bear this in mind and bring all the flowers they can to the engine house on the morning of May 30th so they can be used in making wreaths and bouquets before the exercises in the afternoon.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY

E. B. Miller, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller Passed Away in Detroit

Buchanan people were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Ed B. Miller, which occurred in Detroit. The remains were taken to Elkhart Sunday and the funeral was held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. S. J. Smith and daughter Miss Maud, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller and Chas. Miller went from Buchanan to Elkhart and attended the funeral.

Speaking of the death, the Detroit Tribune of Saturday morning said: In a shed in the rear of the saloon at 113 Bates street was found the body of a man, supposed to be E. B. Miller, for many years a hotel employee and believed to reside in Buchanan, Mich.

But a few minutes before the man came to his death two young men who were passing through the ally noticed the man, apparently in a stupor, and offered him car fare with which to reach his home, but, seeing he was unable to care for himself, placed him on a chair in the shed and started to notify the police.

They were but a few feet from the door of the shed when they heard Miller fall from the chair. He was dead when they reached him.

The police believe the fall was only an indirect cause of death, as it is supposed heart disease was the direct cause.

Detective Sergeants Steinhebel and Dillon investigated the man's death and had the body conveyed to Blake's morgue, 15 Abbott street.

There employees of the Waldorf hotel, Woodward avenue and Larned street, identified the body. They said Miller had worked at the hotel for some weeks, but left a few days ago and was supposed to have been drinking heavily since.

MICHIGAN WINS SUIT

Wanty Decides Against Railroads' Attempt To Invalidate Law

MUST NOW PAY MILLIONS

In Taxes Which They Had Refused to Pay—Roads Will Appeal The Case

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 20.—United States Circuit Court Judge George P. Wanty has handed down a decision sustaining the validity of the railroad tax law of 1901, which provides that all railroad property shall be taxed on its assessed valuation instead of by a percentage of their earnings as provided by the old law. Twenty-eight railroads are the plaintiffs in the suit, which they brought over three years ago to restrain by injunction the auditor-general from levying taxes under the new law. One company, the Grand Trunk, is exempted from the terms of the decision, Judge Wanty holding that the act of 1901 does not repeal or impair the territorial act of 1884 that limited taxes on the Detroit & Pontiac Railroad Co., whose rights the Grand Trunk holds, to 1 per cent of the capital stock.

None of the companies have paid any taxes under the 1901 act, so unless the United States supreme court reverses Judge Wanty—and they will undoubtedly appeal to that tribunal the 28 must jointly pay into the state treasury about $4,000,000, which is the accumulated taxes, and interest at 1 per cent a month, of which $2,000,000 will go to the state primary fund.

Fred W. Stevens, general counsel for the Pere Marquette, says that the decision means that the railroads lose in their contention that all other property in the state is underassessed about 18 per cent as compared with their property. The case was tried at the March term of the circuit court for the western district of Michigan, although for some two years commissioners had been taking testimony. The suit has cost the state about $60,000, mostly for special counsel. It is the case in which Atty. Gen. Blair asked Gov. Bliss to remove Tax Commissioners Freeman and Sayre for making affidavits for railroad attorneys to help beat the state.

Judge Wanty, in overruling the point of the railroads that the act contravenes the fourteenth amendment of the federal constitution, held that this amendment is not designed to prevent any state from changing its system of taxation; and that any statute passed by a state of the levy and collection of taxes cannot be held void by a federal court unless it is so clearly an illegal encroachment upon private rights as to leave no doubt as to its invalidity.

To the claim that every tax law must state for what purpose the tax is to be applied. Judge Wanty replied that the state constitution provides for the application of all such taxes, collected in the state, and that they go through regular channels according to the fundamental laws of the state. The application of all taxes is unalterably fixed, and specifically designed. He dismisses the railroads' objections that they were not given a hearing before the tax was imposed by saying that, "if a definite rate of taxation is imposed by the constitution of the state there can be no possible reason for granting a hearing, because the result could not be changed in any way."

Continuing Judge Wanty decides that the state has the right to tax railroad property in a different class and at a different rate from other property. The constitution provides that all property bearing ad valorem taxes shall be taxed in cash value, no matter by what board of officers the assessment is made, and if the officers do their duty there is necessarily an equalization of assessment. The statute cannot be declared invalid on the ground that the officers acting under them failed to properly perform their duties. If discriminated against by a fraudulent or systematic failure on the part of the officers to perform their duty, the railroads must seek relief in a court of equity."

As to the claim that the railroads are assessed by a different method than other property, the decision is that all railway properties, including credits, may be taxed under different methods from that applied to other property. Concluding Judge Wanty holds: "The failure of the complainants to show a fraudulent systematic undervaluation of property now assessed under the statutes under which the taxes are levied, makes a determination of the undervaluation of railway properties unnecessary."

The Girl Diver Of The Great Lakes

Pretty, well educated and only twenty years of age, Miss Frances Baker, of Detroit, has won the reputation of being one of the most fearless and resourceful divers along the Great Lakes, and within the last three years has accumulated almost twenty five thousand dollars in a profession that heretofore only the most courageous and physically perfect of men have dared to follow. The story of this girl's success, of her thrilling adventure and discovery of treasure reads almost like a chapter in an exciting book of fiction, and the element of romance was completed a few months ago, when Miss Baker discovered and raised fifty thousand dollars' worth of copper from the treasure-ship W. H. Stevens, which sank in eighty feet of water in Lake Erie several years ago.

From Duluth to Buffalo this courageous Michigan girl is now known as the Girl Diver of the Great Lakes and wherever she goes she is regarded as the especial protegee of the lake seamen. Miss Baker's love for the wild and dangerous life of the diver is inherent. For a father she has the greatest captain of divers that ever worked in the big inland seas, a man who was never known to fail, and to whom the first alarm-calls usually come when ships need aid in Lake Erie and Lake Huron. But it is doubtful if even this great man of the Lakes, Capt. H. W. Baker, has had more thrilling or romantic experiences than his daughter.—Woman's Home Companion for June.

Saved by Dynamite

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting, a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At all drug stores, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

To-day would be a good time to buy one of those $15.00 Grey Worsted Suits at Spiro's.

They have caught the fancy of the best dressed men in town.

We have sold these suits to men, this season, who had never before attempted to get suited in ready to-wear clothes. But there is a reason, of course. Our hand tailored suits are so different from others. They own every kind of good tailoring that is also good style--they retain their shape, and are very much superior to some of "the cheap tailor" products turned out around town.

Having tried all other expedients for getting into the Union, Oklahoma now proposes to blow in.

An English admiral pronounces the Missouri the finest battle ship in the world. Now let the St. Louis prepare to take the cosmopolitan horns among the new cruisers.

The job of digging a canal on the isthmus has always been known to be a big one. Uncle Sam is ready to tackle the difficulties and to dispose of fresh ones if they arise.

A new oil district has been struck within twenty miles of Pittsburg, and prospectors are rushing there in large numbers. Uncle Sam's farm is a good producer, both on and under the surface.

A man of 70 has entered Missouri's state university to study engineering. The Missourian's motto, "Show Me," is proof that he proposes to understand his business and never considers himself too old to learn.

The 120 young women who drew homesteads of 160 acres each in the Rosebud agency, South Dakota, are offered numerous options on husbands but are careful not to commit themselves without applying the rule that there ought to be more in the man than in the land.

If the people of Buchanan are interested in base ball, we feel that we can safely say, that there will be a very interesting series of games played here this season, and we hope that the base ball public will give their support to the home team in the way of large attendance. (meaning large gate receipts.)

The "Gold Brick Club."

The sporting editor of the Niles Star, who holds the position of historian for the "Gold Brick Club" of Buchanan, will now have an opportunity to write another chapter of the club's history. The club members, or at least certain ones of them, have become very enthusiastic of late over the pastime of launching. B. R. Desenberg, W. A. Palmer and C. F. Pears especially take great pride in their handsome crafts. Mr. Desenberg has not as yet attempted to launch his boat, but has it in dry dock in the old wagon shop building where he is experimenting with his gasoline engine. In fact he has had all the local experts and some from a distance working in a vain endeavor to make the gasoline engine run with water, so far all attempts have proved unsuccessful and the experts give it as their opinion that gasoline must be used, to obtain the desired results. Now that this point is settled, the boat may be launched at any time.

With the Palmer-Pears boat it is different, this beautiful hull was launched yesterday, and 'tis said

Play Ball

At last the base ball fans have got together and the result is that Buchanan is going to have a team, and when we say team, we do not mean a crowd of fancy suits with hair parted in the middle, we mean a team of ball players.

With Cap. Ashby on 3rd, Herb Roe short, Will Brodrick 2nd, big lengthy Brant 1st and old Hungry Hanover picking them off the bat, we have an infield that cannot be beat, and Richardson has some queer twisters that will bother the best sticks on any team.

The first game will be played with Berrien Springs and if the boys show up as well in actual play as they do in practice, Berrien should be easy picking, even though they have a team slightly above the average.

Below we give the line up: J. Hanover, C.; Richardson, P.; Brant 1st B.; Brodrick, 2nd; Roe, S. S.; Ashby, 3rd B.; Fuller, L. F.; Boynton, C. F.; Butler, R. F.; Morris, Sub.

The old park ball ground has been rented for the season and will be put in shape at once.

School Notes

HIGH SCHOOL

Some changes have been made in the commencement program for this year. There will be no speaker and the program will be furnished by the members of the class. The exercises will be held in Rough's Opera House on Tuesday June 12 8 p. m.

The pupils in the grades will march to the cemetery on Memorial Day with flags and bouquets.

SEVENTH GRADE

B class wrote some very interesting compositions Monday. The subject was a "Real or an Imaginary Excursion." The best one was written and read by Fleda Mittan.

Harvey Bupp leaves school. We are sorry to lose one more of our members.

SIXTH GRADE

B class has started the general review work in geography.

We are very glad to report that most of our number is back and we hope they will remain with us.

Mrs. Chas. Bainton visited us Monday. Come again Mrs. Bainton and bring another with you.

FIFTH GRADE

The regular members are enrolled again in school. We are glad to have them back.

The pupils are greatly interested in the stories read from the book entitled "Animals at Home."

A class have taken up review work in arithmetic.

FOURTH GRADE

Mrs. Chas. Bainton visited us Monday afternoon.

We have a wall picture of "Madonna of the Chair" bought with money earned by the children making holders.

Among our pose and landscape drawings in the schoolroom are three very good ones by Winifred Andrews.

Winifred Andrews, Ine Burks, Anna Keller and Norah Barr have best standings in spelling for the past three weeks work.

THIRD GRADE

Mrs. Bainton visited the grade Monday.

The pupils of the B class are reading from "Leaves and Flowers." Last week the pupils were interested in reading of the children of Arabia.

Terrible Threat.

"And if I should break the engagement," said the Hyde Park Romeo, "tell me truly, what would you do?"

"I should take poison!" cried the beautiful girl.

"You would really go to the nearest pharmacy and get poison?"

"No, no! Worse than that. I should allow a young man who smokes cigarettes to kiss me."—Chicago Daily News.

Its Disadvantages.

"If we economize," said the husband, "we will soon have a house of our own instead of having to live in rented property."

"But, I'm not sure I should like that," answered the wife. "I couldn't drive nails anywhere I please in the walls or woodwork of our own house, you know."—St. Louis Republic.

Motherly Precaution.

"George," said Mrs. Ferguson, hurrying out, "can't you put up those window screens without using the kind of language you have been using for the last ten minutes?"

"No!" snapped Mr. Ferguson.

Unclaimed letters remaining P. O. at Buchanan for week ending May 23. Postals: Mr. Lester Fedore, G. C. Vary. G. W. Noble, P. M

The editor is indebted to W. J. Hunter, who resides just across the river, for a box of fine strawberries of the Early Mitchell variety. They were delicious and exceptionally sweet for so early. Thanks Brother Hunter.

Governor Warner has just signed a bill authorizing townships, cities and villages to appropriate money to celebrate Memorial Day. This, it is believed, will tend a great deal to perpetuate the observance of a day, whose celebration has for many years devolved upon the old soldier still living. It has grown quite a burden for the few who remain to solicit funds but it is left to the state to prevent the custom from dying.

Newspaper men always know a great deal more than they write, they always shield more than they express; they are always more merciful than cruel, truly remarks an exchange. The man who trusts a newspaper man may rely on the fact that he will be treated fairly. It is the mean contemptible, suspicious hypocrite that the newspaper men are always after. No manly man was ever hurt by a newspaper. And no one is quicker to see the manner of a man who studies men and their actions day unto day.

Ex-Deputy Sheriff Harry O. Pierce offers his household goods for sale and contemplates permanent removal from Niles to some point in the west. He is undecided where he will go. It may be that he will go back to the Missouri Pacific Railway company, for whom he worked several years ago in the claims department, resigning the position when he was transferred to Little Rock, Ark., as the climate did not agree with him. He also has in his mind locating in the far west where Wirt Stevens is established.—Niles Sun.

A small wreck occurred at the Michigan Central depot Sunday morning at 5:15. A fast freight west bound was coming down the grade at a rapid rate when the front trucks under one of the cars became loosened and jumped the track, they run this way for about twenty car lengths, when they caught on the ties, and raising the car until it became caught on the car ahead of it, jumped clear out from under the car and away from the track. A wrecking crew from Niles and the section men from Galien and Buchanan cleared the wreck up, it taking them until about 10:30 in the forenoon. No great amount of damage was done.

The raiding of flower beds is an act of vandalism that is decidedly offensive to Buchanan citizen, and one that will bring the perpetrators trouble. Wednesday night a flower bed at A. F. Howe's was raided, mention of which was made in our Friday issue, and Friday Rev. night Tarrant's flower beds were raided and the plants pulled up by the roots. The act was committed, not for a desire to possess the pretty blossoms, as they were torn to pieces and scattered along the sidewalk. The guilty parties better take warning and stop such actions or they will have to suffer the consequences.

GRANGE HALL

"The day is cold and dark and dreary; It rains, and the wind is never weary; Be still, sad heart! and cease repining; Behind the clouds is the sun still shining; Thy fate is the common fate of all; Into each life some rain must fall, Some days must be dark and dreary."

HENRY W. LONGFELLOW

Harner and Leiter of Benton Harbor have bought the Parrot farm at Lighton and will set it to fruit.

Wallace Burgoyne has rented the Mike Van Patten farm one half mile north of the old Wilson mill. He has moved and begun operations for the season's crops.

Mr. Kenney has bought from Gus Harner sixty acres of the Aaron Van Patten farm.

W. W. McCracken has workmen from St. Joe who have moved the old Shemolia house a few feet to the south and west. It stood on the line between him and Julius Pelky. He is also fitting up the barn he moved last fall.

Geo. Parketon has moved the old house on top of the hill, down behind his residence and the granary and cornered out near his barn.

Saut. Carpenter has put a new roof on his porch.

Elmer D. Clark has enlarged his peach orchard by several acres.

Miss Nellie Philip of Three Oaks closed her year's school at the Burke, Dist. No. 4 last Friday.

Mrs. Carrie Schriver run a nail in her foot causing a painful wound.

Pearl Schriver is one of the jurors this term of court.

I. Helmick, J. L. Perkins, W. W. McCracken and F. Kinney are patronizing The Buchanan Creamery. They hope to enlarge the company as it is a long haul.

Mr. Ben Diamond is able to get out of the house again. He has had a long painful siege.

Mrs. H. A. Beach entertained the Woman's Foreign Missionary of Berrien Springs at their May meeting.

Rev. E. Tench gave his lecture "Banquets—Ancient, Modern and Prospective" at the Hall Wednesday evening.

A number of Bessie Gray's friends gave her a pleasant surprise on the evening of May eleventh. It was the day that marked off fourteen years of her life.

The Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Dean Clark next Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the church will give an ice cream social at the hall Friday evening May 26th for the benefit of the pastor Rev. E. Tench.

The prospect is fair for a large crop of fruit. Every vine, shrub and tree has been filled with blossoms and the fruit is well set.

Look out now for the canker worm the little fellows are already appearing. When once they are well located in an orchard they are hard to fight.

John Hollenbeck and daughter Mrs. Frank Ford who spent the winter in New Mexico start for home this week. They will stop a couple of weeks in Council Bluffs, Iowa and visit relatives.

State Items

George W. Burns, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the house, from Calumet, has received notice that he has been appointed by the Isthmian canal commission as a foreman miner at a salary of $150 in gold per month. Burns was for many years a miner in the deep shaft of the Calumet & Hecla mine.

The case of Frank T. Pines against the city of Owosso for $10,000 damages for alleged false imprisonment was begun in the United States court Friday morning. Pines is an old man who travels the country buying old precious metals. In June, 1904, he claims, he was arrested in Owosso and thrown into jail. He claims the quarters were damp and exceedingly filthy, and that within a couple of days he developed severe rheumatism, from which he has suffered since.

Representative Vankeuren, who has been securing franchises for an electric railway in Howell, Fowlerville, Brighton and other places in Livingston county, says that he has behind him a company with unlimited capital which proposes to build a line from Detroit to Lansing parallel with the Pere Marquette railroad. He says the road will be rock ballast, and that the line will be equipped with the heaviest rails and first-class rolling stock. He declines to state for whom he is acting.

General Manager Clark, of the T. N. A. & L. says, that one of the next moves along the line of improvement of the road will be the establishment of stations along the line about a mile apart where patrons can take the car. This will do away with the present plan of stopping at any point where a passenger may wish to board a car, and will materially shorten the time of the run between terminals.

The jury in the case of Glenn Morse, administrator of Owosso, vs. the Grand Trunk R. R. Co., in which plaintiff sues for $50,000 damages for the death of his child, brought in a verdict Friday afternoon for $4,500 damages. The court instructed the jury not to consider the recent law enacted by the legislature affecting the causes for receiving damages by reason of railway accidents, as in the present case the accident occurred prior to the enactment of the law.

A mysterious robbery occurred in Battle Creek, Thursday night during a fire at the residence of John S. Southworth. The fire was in a back room, and a large number of people entered the house. It was discovered later that a quantity of silverware had been taken from the house. Friday the things were found under the back steps of the house, done up in brown paper. Bloodhounds were put on the trail, but as yet nothing has been learned of the thieves' identity.

The government's suit against the General Paper Co., which includes all paper companies in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, has so alarmed the defendant companies that they are beginning to get from under. The Petoskey Paper Co., of Petoskey, Mich., was the first to leave, having it developed at the anti-trust case hearing Friday, refused to renew its contract with the General Paper Co. for the exclusive agency of its business. The publication of the contract by which the general company is allowed to fix a monopolistic price on print paper caused this action, it is understood.

Seven years ago a man giving his name as VanKnocker appeared at Elkhart with a woman who, it later developed bore the name of Pennock. They were elopers, he having abandoned a wife and Mrs. Pennock her husband. The woman kidnapped her infant child, which was abandoned at Elkhart, and placed by the authorities in a private family. Recently the authorities began an investigation with a view of finding the child's parents, and have found in William Pennock, of Temple, Mich., the father, who had mourned his child as dead. The child, now 9 years of age, will be restored to the father.

Charles Peters, city councilman, of Deckerville, was burned to death in the destruction of a big hay barn by fire Friday afternoon. He was working with C. K. Bedient, owner of the barn, inside the structure when a switch engine dumped some ashes a few feet away and the wind carried some of the coals into the building. The two men hurried out of the barn, but Mr. Peters reentered, probably for a book, and was immediately enveloped by a mass of roaring flames. He was never seen again. The property loss amounts to about $4,000. Mr. Peters is survived by a widow and four children.

Mistake of No Consequence.

"That is false logic," said Congressman Hepburn in the course of an address. "Such logic as that reminds me of the reasoning of a certain surgeon."

"This surgeon, one Saturday afternoon, performed before a large class, some thirty swift operations. At the end, as he was washing his hands, a young assistant tiptoed over to him and whispered in his ear:

"In the Higgins case, sir, there appears to have been some mistake."

"A mistake in the Higgins case? I think not," said the surgeon.

"Yes," the other insisted. "You cut off Higgins' wrong leg, sir."

"Oh, well, that is of no consequence," said the surgeon. "We can cure the other one, so it comes to the same thing in the end."

Terrific Race With Death

"Death" was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed by all druggists; price 50c.
