THE ANGEL OF DEATH

Again Visits our Village and Takes From Our Midst Miss Fleta McFallon

WILL BE DEEPLY MOURNED

By Loving Father, Mother, Three Sisters and a Host of Friends.

Again our village is wrapped in the deepest mourning for the Angel of Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McFallon, Monday morning near 8 o'clock and took from their midst, Miss Fleta, their 18 year old daughter.

Miss Fleta, although of a very quiet disposition, had numerous friends, who deeply mourn her sudden departure. She always had a bright smile, and pleasant word for all her friends and was loved by all with whom she came in contact.

Miss McFallon has been employed as cashier of the Buchanan Cash Grocery since Jan. 5, and in that time won the love of all around her, and was held in the highest esteem by her employers. She was always trustworthy and performed her duties most faithfully.

Out of the high respect in which Miss McFallon was held, the Cash Grocery will close for the funeral and not open until the next day.

About two years ago Fleta received injuries in the back, caused from playing basket ball and has been afflicted more or less since that time.

Cause of her death is thought to be heart failure. Up to Friday evening she could be seen at her desk attending to her duties as diligently as ever, and although not being able to, she would not give up until she found it absolutely necessary.

She leaves to mourn her untimely departure a loving father, mother, three sisters, besides a host of friends.

Funeral services will be held from her home on Front street, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The family has the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

The Misses Ethel and Georgie Beistle, Edna Bates, Elma Kemenski and Fayette Bloome will act as pallbearers.

IN A SUIT CASE

Disembodied Body of Woman Found in the Ocean

The police of Boston and the state are giving their combined efforts in an attempt to unravel the mystery which surrounds the crime discovered Thursday by the finding of the disembodied trunk of a woman in a dress suit case floating in the water off the Winthrop Yacht club's pier.

A squad of police, assisted by residents and members of the Winthrop Yacht club, spent the morning in examining the harbor and Winthrop shores searching for the head, arms and legs of the woman.

The body was removed to an undertaking establishment in this city, where an autopsy was performed by Medical Examiner Harris. His preliminary examination strengthened the theory that the woman had been the victim of an unsuccessful surgical operation and that the dismembering of the body had been the work of skilled hands. The police of Winthrop assert that the victim probably was not a resident of that town, as they know of no one missing.

Early in the morning four officers went to the office of a physician on Howard street, in the west end of Boston, where nearly half an hour was spent in a search of the premises. No arrests followed.

ELABORATE BANQUET

Given By The Royal Neighbors of This Place to Four Visiting Cities

110 WERE IN ATTENDANCE

And a Royal Good Time Was Enjoyed By Both the Local and Visiting Members

The Royal Neighbors, of Buchanan entertained visitors from Dowagiac, Edwardsburg, Dayton and Niles, at their hall last Friday evening.

The visitors began arriving early Friday afternoon and were met and entertained by members of our local order until 5 o'clock when they were escorted to Mrs. Nettie Lister's, where a banquet was served to 64 in all.

Mrs. Lister had her inviting dining room elaborately decorated in the colors of the order, purple and white. Around the walls was purple and white bunting artistically draped and dotted here and there with purple and white china asters. The tables were beautiful to look at, they being decorated in flowers, and cakes with white icing and R. N. A. in purple on the top of each one, besides the purple and white grapes. A souvenir consisting of purple and white china asters, tied with the same colors of ribbon were placed at each visitors plate and were wore by the ladies during the evening.

After the 5 o'clock banquet was over they were escorted to the Royal Neighbor hall, which had been made beautiful with flowers and autumn leaves.

Two new members were initiated into the order and during the business meeting the local oracle, called on the oracle of each visiting order, who responded and, was greatly enjoyed by all present.

A musical program then followed, after which the 110 present, were served with refreshments, consisting of two kinds of cake and fruit. A most enjoyed time was had by all present and the guests departed at a late hour wishing for many more of those happy events.

NEW DUTIES FOR SHERIFF

Will Look After Truants and Keep Them in School

New duties have been added to the sheriff's office and beginning next Monday every deputy in the county will be put to work. The new state truant law makes the sheriff, the truant officer of the entire county, at all times subject to the orders of the county school commissioners. The new law is already in effect, but there has been a delay in the arrival of the necessary blanks and no visits have yet been made. The census list of every school district has been compiled and a copy will be furnished the sheriff, whose duty it will be to see that every pupil is enrolled. The work will begin next Monday and every school will be visited. In the townships where there are no deputies special truant officers will be appointed by the sheriff.

The penalty for parents who fail to keep their children in school during the entire year is a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment in the city or county jail for not less than two or more than ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment

The school authorities and the health department, of Kalamazoo, have entered into a compact to keep down contagious diseases in the city this winter. The teachers will, hereafter, when finding a child ill, send for the health officer before sending the child home. The health authorities claim that much of the contagion starts in the schools, and when children are sent home they know nothing about it until the disease is spread.

Charles Christiansen, a section foreman on the south Shore road, died in the hospital at Marquette, Mich., the result of a peculiar accident. He was struck by a flying piece of the maul with which a laborer was driving a spike. The particle of steel was smaller than a lima bean, but it cut through Christiansen's clothing, entering the abdominal walls and puncturing the intestines.

Battle Creek, the healthiest city in the world, is badly scared for fear of typhoid inoculation. A new analysis of Lake Gogunac water, the present source of the city's supply, heretofore reported as pure, shows a bad change in the situation. Water taken from a well on the shore of the lake shows many colon bacilli and another at an entirely different point, though near the lake, indicates a record just half as bad. The tests were made in the laboratory of the Battle Creek Sanitarium.

Leo Crambeau's 7 year-old son, of Menominee, Mich., testified at the inquest on the death of his baby sister last Friday: "I did not want to take care of her, so I burned her up." The baby had been left in the little boy's charge. He grew tired of the work, got some matches and set fire to the clothing as the baby lay in its cradle. The little girl was charred before the fire was discovered by the mother.

During a fit of insane jealousy Mrs. M. E. Switzer, of Leaton, five miles northeast of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., shot her husband, Dr. John H. Switzer at 4 o'clock last Wednesday morning. She fired four shots, the first going through his hat, the next two missing him, and the fourth entering his body just below the heart and lodging in his spine. He is living but it is not thought that he can recover, as the lower part of his body and his legs are paralyzed. She has been arrested and awaits her trial in the jail for murder.

Riots in Russia and Japan are simply a means of "letting the old cat die."

If locks are to be used on the Panama canal, they might also be employed on the mouths of some of the commissioners.

Both the Japanese and Russian envoys anticipate chilly reception at home. Conditions at Portsmouth and Sagamore Hill are serene and salubrious.

Aguinaldo has violated his oath of allegiance and is trying to start another insurrection in the Philippines. Gen. Funston may have to go over and recapture him.

The recent report of the state banking commissioner makes the statement that for the first time in the history of our state the total deposits in the banks directly under his supervision, which does not include national banks, show a total footing of more than two hundred million dollars. This is an increase in state bank deposits of more than thirteen million dollars during the past year. It is probable that the status of affairs in Michigan, which the bank deposits reveal, had something to do with the fact that the only representatives from this state at the recent tariff, changing conference in Chicago, were one or two avowed free traders and two or three past and prospective democratic candidates.

For the Recovery of Alvah
Sherwood, Who Received
Injuries at Grand Rapids Fair

The latest advices from Grand Rapids as to the condition of County Treasurer Sherwood are the most encouraging reports yet received since the man's injury. Mr. Sherwood is reported decidedly improved, he spent a comfortable day Sunday, and though his condition is very critical the physicians hope for his recovery.

Mr. Sherwood is one of the leading republican politicians in the southwestern part of the state. His home is at Three Oaks, Mich., from where he was elected county treasurer of Berrien county. Since his election he has resided in St. Joseph. He was noted as a fine horseman and judge of horseflesh and was selected as superintendent of horses for the West Michigan fair purely for his qualifications in that line. He was leading one of the prize stallions at the beginning of the cavalcade when the accident happened, near the turn into the home stretch of the track. It was all over so quickly that few could say just how it happened.

The animal, after chafing and giving Mr. Sherwood considerable trouble, suddenly reared and struck. Experienced as he was, Mr. Sherwood only partly avoided the blow. While towering on its hind legs the animal lost its balance and crashed over backward, rolling upon the body of the prostrate man.

Mr. Sherwood was picked up and carried into Pratt's dining hall. Following the injury the severe shock all but caused his immediate death before Dr. T. M. Koon arrived. The effects of the shock was offset by prompt treatment, and the injured man was later taken to U. B. A. hospital in an ambulance. He spent a restless night of agony. He is believed to have suffered severe internal injuries in addition to the hurt spine.

Mrs. Sherwood and her daughter are in the city and the wife is constantly at the bedside of the suffering man. There is one other child, a son in St. Joseph. The injured man is 46 years of age.

Chairman Shonts of the Panama canal is sure they have at last secured a first class hotel keeper on the isthmus. This great international work, like others of equal importance, has been awaiting a Boniface. Owen Meredith expressed a great truth in saying: We can live without art, we can live without books, but civilized men cannot live without cooks.

Secretary Shumway of the state board of health gives notice of the fact that health officers in various parts of the state are failing to enforce the quarantine regulations prescribed by law, and he suggests the danger that Michigan may be visited by another smallpox outbreak if this neglect is continue. It would seem that those who are responsible for the enforcement of township and village and city health laws could hardly afford to accept the responsibility which failure to do their full duty might involve, regardless of their individual views in the matter. It is certainly true that the desire of the great majority of the people of our state is for the full enforcement of the measures provided for the prevention of disease and for its limitation so far as adequate means in that direction will provide. The best efforts of one community can be made of little value through the carelessness of another. Enforcement of health laws is a matter of statewide importance and is deserving of statewide attention and respect.

An important case to villages concerning taxation has just been decided by the supreme court. The supervisors of the township of Stephenson Menominee county, spread the highway tax upon the roll over all the property in the village and township. The village refused to pay and suit was brought to enforce collection. The case was carried to the supreme court and the result was in favor of the village.—True Northerner.

"George, dear," said the bride of three short months, "as the freight payer of the combine was about to start for his office, 'I wish you would let me have a little pin money as I want to go shopping today.' 'Never mind, Nellie,' replied the other half of the sketch. 'It's going to be an awful hot day and you had better not venture down town. So instead of giving you the money I'll bring home half a dozen papers of pins tonight.'"

Miss Ruby Eldredge was pleasantly surprised last Saturday evening, when about 18 of her friends called to remain a few hours with her, and occasionally remind her of her birthday. Games were indulged in the greater part of the evening after which a three course supper was served. Miss Ruby was the recipient of a number of birthday remembrances. The guests departed at a late hour having spent a most enjoyable evening, and wishing their little hostess many more happy birthdays.

ONE BOY A YEAR THERE.

Situation Given as Cause for Fact That Most Children Born Are Girls.

The startling fact has just been brought out that of all the births that have occurred at Carson City, the capital of Nevada, during the past year, only one boy has been born. The total number of births according to statistics, was 57; 56 of these young Nevadans are girls. Physicians state that it is not unusual for the ratio to be uneven, and in favor of the girls, but they cannot recall where the percentage has been so great. They offer no explanation for the strange condition.

"It just happened that way, I guess," said one of the Carson doctors. "We noticed the shortage in the number of births so far as boys were concerned, but, really, until a few days ago, gave the matter but little thought. It was brought to my attention by Controller Sam Davis. I have since tried to solve the mystery, but without result."

Environment is given as a solution by one resident of Carson. The city, naturally isolated, is beautifully situated in a valley; trees and shrubbery and pretty homes abound. Except during the session of the legislature, there is seldom anything out of the ordinary going on. These quiet conditions, it is argued, naturally result in a feminine temperament, the preponderance of girls in the birth records resulting.

COURT OPENED MONDAY

Criminal Cases Will Occupy First Three Weeks of October

The September term of the Berrien circuit court convened yesterday for the hearing of criminal cases, and about three weeks will be required for this part of the calendar. There are twenty-nine cases to come under this head. Of these cases, eleven prisoners are now in jail awaiting trial, and many others are out on bail. James Maxwell, the alleged diamond thief, who jumped his bond and skipped to Rhode Island, was reported the first of the week to have been arrested at Providence, but the Berrien county officials have as yet heard nothing from him and it is surmised that he was released there on bail and has eluded the officers. Sheriff Tennant has been looking for a letter every day, but up to this time has received no word.

John Laird, who is charged with stealing a cow, is booked as the first to come for trial. Laird is considered one of the worst criminals now incarcerated within the county jail having a record behind him. In the assignment of cases, Daniel Hawkins, charged with burglary, follows the Laird case. This morning comes the cases of The People vs Chauncey Jackson for aiding a ward of the industrial school to escape People vs. John Ward, assault with intent to do great bodily harm; and People vs. Wm. Hill.

There is a disposition on the part of all the criminals to stand trial, but it is believed that a few of them will plead guilty, which will shorten the time for the criminal cases.

The assignment of jury civil cases will be made in two weeks.

The supervisors will meet on Monday, Oct. 2, for the regular October session, and many matters of importance will come up for discussion aside from the usual routine of work.

FOUND IN FACTORY

Didn't Want to go to College and Preferred to Peel Peaches at Small Wages

Because her parents wanted her to attend college, Miss Ethel Shoemaker, a pretty 19 year-old Chicago girl, ran away from home last week and was not heard of again until the police located her, the girl having secured a position in one of the South Haven canning factories, Friday under the assumed name of Ethel Gilbert.

The girl's father is a wealthy manufacturer in Chicago, and hoped to send his daughter to an institution of learning this fall, but when preparations were being made she disappeared.

All went smoothly until an elderly man called at the factory and asked if a Miss Shoemaker was there. Upon being informed that no such name was on the pay roll, he produced a picture of the missing girl, whom the clerk recognized as Miss "Gilbert."

KEEPING "JOHN" AT HOME.

Wife of Clubman Solves Problem of Making Fireside Attractive for Spouse.

Less than two years after his marriage Gayman began to overlook his promise to stay away from the club after he reached home at night, says the New York Times. At first he moved cautiously, pleading a business appointment there and promising to be back in an hour. Soon that promise began to slip his mind, and he came home at all hours. He did not even give an excuse for going. Mrs. Gayman did not rush home to her mother. She did not appeal to his mother. She played her own game. One evening, when Gayman showed no inclination to leave the house, she said: "John, dear, you'll be late at the club."

"How do you know I'm going?" he asked.

"Not going? Oh,"—affecting intense confusion—"it would be most awkward, that is—but of course you're going."

"Well," he replied, "I must just run around, for I have an appointment. But I shall be back in two hours."

He was back in one hour, and seemed astonished to find his wife alone, reading. He was glum all the evening, showing frequent disposition to go out again. But the same game has worked ever since.

JEWISH NEW YEAR

Marks Beginning of Year 5,666 Dating Back to Creation in Hebrew Calendar

"Rosh Hashona," or the Jewish New Year, will be celebrated in Detroit and the world over Saturday, September 30.

The New Year festival is one of the most important on the Jewish calendar of religious observances. It is known as the feast of trumpets, and the "Shofer" or ram's horn occupies a very conspicuous place in the day's worship.

The first day of "Rosh Hashona" marks the beginning of the year 5666, which period dates back to creation. The Jewish calendar being computed by the lunar system, the date of the Jewish New Year does not always fall upon the same date on the Christian calendar. For instance, the Jewish New Year in 1904 occurred September 10. The first lunar month of the Jewish year is the month of "Tishri."

Orthodox Jews observe two days of the New Year festival, beginning next Friday evening at sundown and continuing until sundown Sunday evening. In reformed circles, the festival closes at sundown Saturday.

Ten days after the first day of the New Year occurs the "Yom Kippur," or Day of Atonement. The day is observed with fasting and prayer, and is looked upon as the most solemn and universally recognized festival observed by the Jews throughout the world.

"Rosh Hashona," too is universally observed. Where other Jewish festivals are lost sight of in many communities, the New Year and Day of Atonement retain a sacred place in Jewish life.

Many Detroit business houses, the heads of which are Jews, will be closed to all business on both of these occasions.

In the orthodox synagogues, Beth David, Beth Jacob, B'nai Israel and Sha'are Zedek, services will be held Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday while in Temple Beth El, services will be conducted Friday evening and Saturday.

Aside from these regular places of worship, services will be held by orthodox bodies in several halls on the east side. These additional places are necessitated by the vast multitude of worshipers who observe these festivals.

It is a noteworthy incident, that during the Russo-Turkish and other wars of recent years, Jewish soldiers have been given furloughs on those festivals that they might spend the day in worship on the battle field. During the Spanish-American war, the United States government extended a similar furlough, which was taken advantage of by nearly 2,000 Jewish soldiers serving Uncle Sam.

Attention is called to the offer made in this issue, whereby the Record and The Weekly Inter Ocean can be secured for the small sum of $1.05. This offer is good only until Nov. 1st and should be taken advantage of before that time. See the advertisement in this issue.
