A Farewell Gathering

Was the Event Last Monday Evening at the Home of Mrs. Tom Brown on Front Street

At the home Mr. of Mrs. Tom Brown, on Front street was the occasion of a complete surprise on the mistress of the house last Monday evening.

About 40 of her lady friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Wm. Pears on Front street, about 7 o'clock and they in a body went to the home of Mrs. Tom Brown and took possession of the whole house. This occasion was a well planned one and creditably carried out, for Mrs. Brown had not the dimmest suspicion of such an event.

The evening was spent most enjoyably in games. The guests report a most delightful evening although mingled with the sadness of losing their hostess, who is to take up her future residence in Dixon, Ill., next Saturday.

Mrs. Clara Richards recited a very appropriate selection, composed by Mrs. T. Merrill, after which a token of remembrance, consisting of a solid silver spoon was presented to Mrs. Brown.

Light refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, speaking highly of Mrs. Brown's ability as an entertainer, and wishing her every success in her new home.

POSTALS OBSCENE

Post Office Department Directs Post Masters to Withdraw Them

Washington, Oct. 3.—The growth of the obscene postal card, that has made its appearance in the souvenir craze, is bothering the postal authorities greatly. The second call to arms in the form of a formal letter has just been issued to postmasters by the department.

In noticing the large number of objectionable cards in the mails the letter directs postmasters to withdraw every card bearing a picture or language that is obscene, indecent, or improperly suggestive, and forward without delay to the dead letter office. In case of doubt it is directed that the card should be sent to the first assistant postmaster general.

30 Club

The 30 club met with Mrs. Fitch, Wednesday, Oct. 4, 1905. Mrs. Sanders had charge of the lesson, "Giovanni Bellini." Miss Artie Logan read a very funny paper on "How a Woman's Club was formed in Pottstown." Roll call was responded to with quotations from Longfellow, after which Mrs. Allen read a very interesting paper on "American Pottery." Club adjourned to meet with Miss Logan, Oct. 11.

IN MEMORIAM

ABIGAIL N. BATES

Abigail N. Bates was born in Norton Township, Summit County, Ohio, Oct. 20, 1823, and died Oct. 3, 1905, at Buchanan, Mich.

She was married in 1842 to Dr. William Hamlin and was the mother of seven children, four of whom still survive her: Mrs. E. S. Hopkins, of Tacoma, Wash., Charles S. Hamlin, of Los Angeles, J. A. Hamlin, of Chicago and L. B. Hamlin, of Elgin, Ill.

They came to Michigan about 1869 and have lived here ever since, with the exception of about five years. When quite young she united with the Methodist church but, later she and her husband joined the Christian church of which she has been a faithful member. She died in hope of a glorious immortality at the coming of Christ.

Funeral services were conducted at her late home Thursday at 10 a. m. Rev. Chas. A. Shook officiating.

BENTON HARBOR JUBILANT

For They Feared the Fair Would Prove a Failure, on Account of Lateness in the Season

Nearly fifteen thousand people were on the grounds of the Southern Michigan State fair Wednesday afternoon Benton Harbor, the first real day of the fair. Of this number six thousand were children. The two thousand children in the Benton Harbor schools were there, one thousand came over from St. Joseph in the afternoon, three hundred came from the schools of Watervliet township, one hundred from New Buffalo, seventy-five from Baroda, and the schools of Eau Claire, Sodus, Coloma and every district in this part of the country were well represented.

The Big Four railroad did not expect much of a crowd until Thursday and Friday and they did not make any preparations. When the morning train reached Eau Claire there was a mob of people waiting and the train was held thirty minutes while the agent sold excursion tickets. Every inch of space was taken and many passengers were left on the platform. When Sodus and Hartman were reached the squeezing process was resumed and scores of passengers were taken on at those stations. The conductor was unable to collect all the tickets before reaching Benton Harbor and as soon as the yard limits were reached the doors of the coaches were locked while the tickets were being taken up.

Secretary Foeltzer and his assistants worked all night and it was nearly 2 o'clock Wednesday morning when the last entry was properly recorded. Several entries that were belated were made in the morning. Other articles before entered did not reach the grounds until Thursday morning.

The trains on the Pere Marquette, the Big Four and the Michigan Central were all loaded down with fair visitors.

Elbel's famous South Bend band arrived a little before noon Wednesday and were at the grounds in the afternoon and will remain the remaining days of the fair.

The great attendance at the Southern Michigan State fair Wednesday was duplicated with compound interest yesterday, and there is every indication the estimate of 20,000 was made good.

The show is pleasing to the public. It is what the management has all along claimed, that it would be the best 25 cent show ever given in the state. And the public agrees that the promise has been made good. The fair goers of yesterday were so well pleased that on the grounds could be heard the statement on every side, "I am coming again tomorrow."

The races are the best ever seen in this part of the state. South Bend people came up 500 strong today to witness the horse races. Col. Studebaker has his famous Major Woodland entered. In the same race is Jack Riley, Dr. Bonine's horse.

At the urgent request of the jurors, Judge Coolidge adjourned the circuit court at noon yesterday, to give all an opportunity of attending the fair.

The business at the circuit court is so urgent that it was only on one condition they were granted their request, and that was all should return for a night session.

Today is the last day of the fair and it is thought the grounds will be over crowded. The weather has been excellent all through and the Benton Harbor people are more than jubilant over their success of this fair.

A Patient

Sufferer

Passed Away at Her Home, Wednesday Afternoon After Eleven Weeks Suffering

Mrs. Alva Morley, residing one mile north of Hill's Corners, who has been a patient, suffering for over eleven weeks, caused from being severely burned, by a gasoline explosion while visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Smith, of this place, passed into eternal rest, Wednesday afternoon about 1:15 o'clock. She has been a patient sufferer, and every thing in the medical service was done for her, but proved useless. The skin grafting was practiced but without result.

Mrs. Morley was 50 years old and leaves to mourn her demise, a husband, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Phillips, of New Buffalo; one brother, Edwin Phillips, of Chicago; one sister, Mrs. Inez Weed, of New Buffalo; two children, one daughter, Mrs. Henry Smith, of this place and a son, Homer Morley, of Hills Corners, besides three step-daughters, Misses Etha, Winifred and Bernice Morley.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Baptist church at Glendora.

Attention is called to the offer made in this issue, whereby the Record and The Weekly Inter Ocean can be secured for the small sum of $1.05. This offer is good only until Nov. 1st and should be taken advantage of before that time. See the advertisement in this issue.

Carnival Week At White City

In order to fittingly complete an unexampled season of prosperity which has resulted from the efforts of the White City Management to properly amuse Chicago's millions, it has been decided to hold a carnival of gaiety, lasting from Oct. 9th until Sunday, Oct. 15th, the closing date for the resort.

An additional stage is being constructed at the north end of the Plaza and during carnival week at White City the entire afternoon and evening of each day will be completely occupied with an interesting program. Over the Lagoon will be located Herr Granada and Alma Fedora in their death defying feats on the high cable during which they introduce their trained elephant act. A quartette of skilled Log Rollers will entertain the people in the waters of the Lagoon, and there will be other acts at this particular place. On the two enormous stages in the Plaza, each of which will be provided with a special circus band, will be exhibited acrobatic feats, feats of skill and strength, pantomines, funny clowns, trained elephants, etc.

White City will be brilliantly decorated with thousands of gay colored Chinese lanterns, while fountains of red fire will brilliantly illuminate the festive surroundings.

Any person visiting Chicago during carnival week should not fail to participate in the joy and fun which will prevail at this wonderful amusement resort.

A pumpkin pie and candy social will be held at the U. B. parsonage Saturday evening, it being a farewell to the pastor and family. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder moved to Adamsville, Tuesday.

Mr. E. Dolen, of Chicago spent Thursday and Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rough.

Miss Bertha Crego, spent a week at Berrien Center with her parents.

Miss Cora Pangborn, of Chicago, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Housewerth.

Miss Lula Moyer, spent Sunday with her parents near Buchanan.

Quite a number from this place attended the State fair at Benton Harbor.

A Complete Surprise

A very enjoyable and complete surprise party was held at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Kingery Thursday. Mrs. Kingery being the victim of the huge joke. Friends from South Bend and Niles, numbering eleven arrived on the 10:48 train in the morning, and very cautiously and unceremoniously found their way into the parlor and took possession. Mrs. Kingery unmindful of all the happenings in the front part of the house was in the kitchen up to her elbows making grape butter when Miss Elsie Sellers informed her there was a lady in the parlor, that wished to see her. She pulled down her sleeves, then off her apron, smoothed her hair and in an undertone said all that might be expected and smilingly entered the parlor. At one glance she took it all in, but like a wise woman that she was, said nothing. As usual on such occasion the larder was low but the guests had provided for just such an emergency. After the hostess regained consciousness, explanations followed and all united in saying they had a delightful day. The friends from South Bend were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller, Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Sellers and son George, Mrs. Brownfield, Mrs. Fredrickson, Miss Clara Miller, and from Niles, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, from Buchanan Mr. and Mrs. Alf Richards, Mrs. John Kingery, Misses Kit Kingery, Carrie Boyle, Effie and Elsie Sellers, H. F. Kingery and sons, and last but not least Mrs. Hattie Kingery.

Press Notes For November Designer

Advance illustrations of handsome fur garments are shown in The Designer for November, so, too, are Tailor made costumes and Toilettes, some of these being designed especially for those in mourning, while others are for elderly women. "Fashionable Fivolities for Feminine Fancies" pictures and describes new styles in belts and bags, and "Forewords regarding Fashions and Fabrics" displays the picturesque bolero in many forms and materials. The Millinery lesson tells how to make a mourning toque, and "Points on Dressmaking" gives instruction in finishing cloth skirts. The regular styles of the month embrace every desirable garment now in vogue, from the out-of-door wrap to underwear. Two most excellent short stories are among the miscellany presented: "The Little Schemes of Mrs. Shen," and "The Face Framed in Tears," by Edith Livingston Smith. "In the Good Old Days," by Anna Stahl Allendorf, describes in charming fashion the quaint relics of a New England town, and a companion feature is a "A New England Thanksgiving Dinner," presented in a series of reproductions from photographs. "The Convalescent Nurse," Part VI of "In the Interest of Bread Winning" series, by Bertha Hasbrook, gives another thoroughly practical suggestion for the woman who has no trade at her finger tips, and the second instalment of "Jiu Jitsu Training for Women," by Saki Sugaki, will be welcomed heartily by all who read the opening chapter in the October Designer. "German Housekeeping," by Laura B. Starr, forms part X in housekeeping all over the world, and Mary Kilsyth this month discusses "Clocks and Plaster Casts." Really useful novelties to be made of leather and decorated with the pyrographic pen, and numerous exceedingly pretty small things in "Advance Suggestions for Christmas" are given, and both are augmented by directions for knitting and crocheting sweaters, kimonos, etc. In the entertainment line is a laughable parlor farce for four actors. "While Brother Phil was Walking," by C. Leona Dalrymple, "A Pie Plant," and Thanksgiving verse. Among the cookery recipes are savory gingerbread dainties, and novel ways of preparing cranberries. Jessie Garwood Fritts, in her talks on silver, describes some of the larger table accessories made of the precious metal. Myra Emmons continues Etiquette Hints, and Jane Eliot gives further advice for feminine beautifying.

BEN'S MAGNET STORE

The Advent Christian Church will hold Harvest Home exercises on Sunday, both morning and evening. The morning services will be for the old and the evening for the young folks. The church will be appropriately decorated and a special program has been prepared. All are cordially invited.

"It is seldom that one has the opportunity of hearing a family of ten in concert, where everyone is a genius and can play upon almost any instrument, recite, sing and entertain with such pleasing variety."

The Ladies Mite Society of the Advent Christian church will give a supper, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 11 from 5 to 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. L. Emerson. All are cordially invited.

By Order of President.

Don't forget the Salisbury Family Entertainers that will be at the Presbyterian church, Saturday evening, Oct. 7. Rev. John Brant, of St. Louis says: "I know them to be natural musicians, and successful in charming and entertaining others with their fine music."

Harry E. Walker, southern Michigan representative of the Stafford System, of Chicago, with headquarters at Niles, manufacturer of custom made clothing, arrived in this place Thursday, and will remain until Tuesday of next week in the interest of this company.

Mr. James Curran, of Chicago, but formerly a Buchanan boy, was united in marriage to Miss Rose Reinke, of Chicago, Tuesday afternoon at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride. They took the train immediately after the ceremony to this place, and after a pleasant visit in this and surrounding vicinities they will return to Chicago, where they will go to housekeeping on the west side. The RECORD with the many friends of the happy groom wish him and his bride success and prosperity.

Monday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Salisbury on Roe street, was the scene of a pleasant occasion, it being the 12th birthday of their son Glenn. A number of his friends were invited to spend the evening, and make this birthday a memorable one. The little one's played games, after which refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake was served. The little host was the recipient of a number of presents. The guests departed at a late hour, voting they had had a pleasant evening and trusting Master Glenn would have many more pleasant birthdays.

The short apple crop has been somewhat of a blessing to this county after all. It has brought to the attention of cider manufacturers the fact that good cider vinegar can be made from peaches as well as from apples. The cider made from peaches, this year has already been placed on the market and it makes a better test than the vinegar made from apples. Heretofore the soft and wind-fall peaches have been a total loss. From now on they will be an item of considerable revenue to the peach growers. It is the by-product that produces the profit in these days of commercial economy, both in packing pork and the more delightful pursuit of growing peaches.

In last Friday's issue we mentioned the fact of Will Wood bringing in an old RECORD dated Feb. 8, 1877, but last Tuesday Mrs. J. B. Stryker brought in a still older edition, dated Nov. 26, 1875. This not only shows they appreciate the RECORD but keep them as relics.

The Rev. Arthur B. Strickland, pastor of the first Baptist church of Niles, was a delegate to the World's Baptist Congress, London England. While in England he made a thorough study of the great Welsh Revival, visiting the places where the greatest interest was manifest.

Tuesday evening Oct. 10, at the Evangelical church he will tell the story of its need, origin, characteristics, etc. He will also show 80 beautiful stereopticon views, illustrating the great sights of England. Mr. Strickland is an interesting speaker in the spirit of the subject he presents.

One of the most interesting events of the theatrical season is announced for Rough's Opera House Thursday Oct. 12 in Callahan's big production "A Romance of Coon Hollow," with the same scenery and effects used during its triumphant season at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, New York. All of this scenery and every effect is carried, no house scenery being used, and besides a strong company, the organization includes the Coon Hollow serenaders, a troupe of colored singers and dancers, boys and girls who give a dancing Carnival simply wonderful. Unique electric and calcium displays are also features, but the play depends rather on a vigorous plot, and well portrayed characters, true to nature, than its scenic features. It has been a great success from New York to San Francisco and New Orleans to Minneapolis and all the leading cities East and West. The play is in its eleventh season of success and the dramatic company is everywhere commended. The scenery is entirely new.

NEXT DOOR—A boy asked his father who lived next door to him and when he heard the name, inquired if he was a fool. "No, my little one, he is not a fool, but a sensible man; but why did you ask the question?" "Because," replied the boy, "Mother said the other day that you were next door to a fool!"

Tom Brown has resigned his position as manager of the Axle Factory and will move his family to Dixon, Ill., Saturday, where he has accepted a position with the Reynolds Wire Cloth Co. Their many friends regret their departure, but wish them all the success attainable in their new home.

On Tuesday evening Miss Pearson was pleasantly surprised at the home Mrs. Geo. Westgate, when her pupils came to spend the evening with her. They all gathered at the home of Dr. Emmons, on Front street, from which place they went to her home. Games were indulged in the greater portion of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. A most enjoyable evening is reported by all present.

Specialists in the Treatment of Nervous, Blood, Skin and Special Diseases of Men and Women. Established 25 years. No names used without written consent. Cures Guaranteed.

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are annually swept to a premature grave through excesses. Chas. Anderson was one of the victims, but was rescued in time. He says: "I sowed my 'wild oats' when young. A change came over me. I could feel it; my friends noticed it. I became nervous, despondent, gloomy, had no ambition, easily tired, evil forebodings, poor circulation, pimples on face, back weak, restless at night, tired and weak mornings, burning sensation. To make matters worse, I became reckless and contracted other diseases. I tried many doctors and medical firms—all failed till Drs. Kennedy & Korgan took my case. In one week I felt better, and in a few weeks was entirely cured. They are the only reliable and honest Specialists in the country."

READER—We guarantee to cure you or no pay. You run no risk. We have a reputation and business at stake. Beware of frauds and impostors. We will pay $1,000 for any case we take that our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will not cure. We treat and cure Nervous Debility, Varicocele, Stricture, Blood Poisons, Weakness, Kidney and Bladder Diseases. FLIT GAILY OVER WALL

Two More Convicts Escape From Jackson

THEY ARE STILL AT LARGE

Fred Beals and Fleming Postel Bid Warden Vincent Adieu—Affair Well Planned

Jackson, Oct. 3.—Two more escapes have been chalked up against the Vincent administration at Jackson prison. The latest flitting bee took place Sunday evening.

When the count was taken at 6:30 o'clock it was discovered that Fred Beals and Fleming Postel were absent, and a hurried examination of the yards failed to reveal their whereabouts. Then the guards started out on the usual hunt.

A ladder taken from the Withington & Cooley shops was found resting against the north wall, and dangling from the other side were a number of ropes taken from the Whitehead & Kales contract shops. The mute evidence was sufficient. Guards are now trailing about Leslie looking for men.

Beals, alias Frank Howaind, was employed in the kitchen, and was not under the close surveillance placed on the ordinary convicts. Beals, was in the carpenter shop and he did not lock up at 5 o'clock, the hour for the minority. It is thought the men had been planning the affair for some time, as there was no hitch in their plans.

Postel, who is 27 years old, was sent up from Tuscola, Sept. 9, 1899, for 12 years for incest. He is five feet nine inches tall, and weighs 185 pounds; light hair and sallow complexion. Beals was received from Ottawa, Aug. 20, 1895 for 15 years for burglary. He is 41 years old, weighs 165, and is 5 feet, 9 1/4 inches tall, and of dark complexion. Both men wore their prison suits at the time of their escape.

THE SHOOTING IS GREAT

Game Wardens Will See That no More Than Twenty-Five Chickens Are Killed Per Day

Iowa—Prairie chickens or pinnated grouse until December 1, squirrels until January 1, wild ducks, geese, snipe and brant until April 15.

South Dakota—Prairie chickens, grouse of any variety, woodcock or quail until January 1; plover or curlew until May 15; beaver or otter, killed or captured until May 1.

Nebraska—Prairie chickens and grouse until December 1.

Minnesota—Turtle dove, snipe, prairie chickeas, pinnated, white breasted or sharp tailed grouse, woodcock, upland plover and golden plover until November 1; wild duck of any variety, wild goose, brant or any variety of aquatic fowl until December 1.

North Dakota—Prairie chickens and grouse, any variety, woodcock until October 15; wild duck, goose, brant or crane until May 1; quail, English or Chinese pheasant or wild swan until October 15.

The lid is off in the best hunting states of the northwest! Once more a man can dine like his American ancestors on the game brought down with his own arrows. A dinner can be perfected with rare roast beef, domestic duck stuffed with onions, clams on the shell, spatchcock or anchovy on toast, the appetite can be whetted with half a dozen stimulants, but such things are the end of a hollow mockery. What a man wants is some prairie chicken, brought down with the gun of a friend who has the time and inclination to go up into the fields of South Dakota, or along the fences of Nebraska, and stir up a meal. Friends can keep you in game now. The days of leanness are past. There is corn in Egypt again.

Not only can you have game, but you can make enough to pay your hunting license in South Dakota by killing a few wolves; or you might pay your expenses by bringing back among your dainty quail, a few polecat, mink or otter pelts. All these things you are allowed to do, according to the just and beneficent laws of Nebraska, Iowa, South and North Dakota and Minnesota.

But you must not let gross commercialism enter into the sport or the game wardens will assess you a few "william's" that will make the game rather expensive. In Iowa no game must be killed for traffic, and you can't kill more than twenty-five birds in a day. The law considers that a load and you will be governed accordingly. In South Dakota, where the fields are wide, unfenced, and the birds are apt to be thicker than mosquitoes in New Jersey, you must limit your shooting to fifteen birds a day.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway has issued a neat booklet of the game laws of the states in the northwest, giving the laws in detail, which will save you from troubling your friends to get you out of jail, if you secure and study it as you would your time table and expense account. F. A. Miller, General Passenger Agent of Chicago, will send you a copy if you write to him for it. Many hunters are now going to South Dakota and the baggage cars on the morning trains into the Dakotas had little room for trunks or coffin boxes, being entirely occupied by a dozen different varieties of dogs—Sioux City, Iowa Tribune.
