The Cabinet Company to Rebuild on the Old Site—Cement Block Walls

One of Buchanan's recent acquisitions is the general mail order business C. A. Davis has instituted there. In the conduct of which he employs a large force of girls, and the publication there of the Household Gem, a monthly magazine of 16 pages, which is edited by C. A. Hudson of Chicago, at the Argus office. This magazine has 12,500 subscribers. It is printed on a Potter double-headed press, with two beds, is fed from a roll and runs off 12,000 an hour. Within a few weeks, a new bindery, a 16 page folder and four horse power engine will be installed. At present a day and night force is employed. Another important recent acquisition

LADY IS ATTACKED

THE ASSAILANT'S MOTIVE

May Have Been Robbery—Husband Went in Search of Culprit, but Hunt Was Fruitless

Thursday evening about 9 o'clock Mrs. Albert Pears, who resides on Sycamore street, was nearing her home, when a man struck her twice on the head with a walking stick, or some similar instrument, dazing her but not to such an extent that she could not give an alarm. The lady who was within a few steps of her home, screamed for help as she ran toward the house.

Upon sufficiently recovering from the fright and the effect of the blows, which fell upon a heavy felt hat that she wore, and which thus saved her from serious injury, Mrs. Pears told her husband of the attack and he immediately started out in pursuit of

Romantic Wedding
Another romantic marriage was added to the St. Joseph record before daylight Thursday at 8 a. m. when Andrew H. Crawford, a millionaire in his own right, being the youngest son of the late Andrew H. Crawford, paid a multi-millionaire, who gained a fortune of over $15,000,000 in Chicago street railway bonds, was married to Miss Evelyn Wright, a do Chicago society belle. Rev. H. S. Roblee performed the ceremony in the parlors of the hotel Whitcomb.

The groom is the owner of the yacht Nantine and the bride the owner of the Lady Evelyn. Last summer when the Nantine was crossing the lake to Chicago, Mr. Crawford noticed a yawl floating on the lake; the Nantine was stopped and the boat recovered and was taken to the Chicago yacht club, where Miss Wright recovered it.

It is supposed that Miss Wright who had recovered the boat, and the acknowledgement she sent to Mr. Crawford was the beginning of the love affair that culminated in the marriage. Both the bride and groom are popular young people and have a host of friends in the Twin Cities.

Has Busy Day
County Clerk Miners has established a new week day record for the gretna green. Wednesday was the heaviest week day for this business that was ever recorded. Twelve licenses were issued at the clerk's office between 8 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. Of this number the majority were to parties outside of the state, going as far east as Virginia and New Jersey. The number included every class from farmer boys and country lassies to a millionaire.

He also filed five suits for divorce and one law case, issued naturalization papers for one party and handed out three hunters' licenses.

her assailant. Mr. Pears had not gone far when he encountered a colored bootblack, George Berry by name. Upon observing the approach of Mr. Pears, Berry is said to have said out: "What's the matter? What's the matter?" Mr. Pears explained what had happened and asked Berry where he broke his cane and how, whereupon the colored man is quoted as having replied that he broke it a long time ago. When asked if he had heard the woman cry out, Berry answered that he did, but that he saw no one. A moment later he said, it is reported that he saw a tall man, apperelled in a long coat, run across the road. Mr. Pears made a diligent search, but was unable to find any trace of the man Berry claimed to have seen. Mrs. Pears is unable to describe her assailant. Today a warrant was issued for Berry, at the instance of Albert Pears, who accuses the colored man with attempted highway robbery. Mr. Pears has the head of the cane, with which his wife was struck. Berry denies his guilt, and says he threw away the broken cane he had with him last night. He was placed under $600 bonds, pending the result of a preliminary examination, which will be held in Justice Beaver's court tomorrow, and in default of bail, was locked up in the city bastille. It is said that Berry has been reading dime novels of late, hence vile literature of this kind may have inspired the act, with which he is charged.—Niles Star.

Sixteen-year-old Roy Gentle, of Pontiac, was probably fatally shot by Max Davis, a boy of about the same age, while they were hunting on the banks of Elizabeth lake, four miles north of here last Friday. A shell in a .22-caliber rifle had stuck, and Davis was trying to extract it when the cartridge exploded, and the bullet struck young Gentle. It entered near the spinal column, took a downward course and may have pierced the kidneys, and if such is the case the accident will prove fatal. Both of Roy's legs are paralyzed. Young Davis had a similar accident about two years ago, when he accidentally shot Morris Thatcher in the leg.

Mrs. Eya Marsh, whose home was in Three Oaks, committed suicide Friday at Frankfort, Mich., by swallowing a quantity of chloroform. Letters found on her person indicated that she had been deserted by her husband, and that she had left her home in Three Oaks to go to relatives in Tennessee, and that giving way to despondency she determined to end her life.

Three children, the oldest not much more than 3 years old, were snatched from death by Miss Florence Button, who saw them standing on the D., G. IN some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. Spiro's Overcoat Exhibition

There is a distinct difference in the kind of overcoats we can show you. This hasn't come by guess or by chance but by the gathering together of a stock that will please the very best dressed men in the community.

Every garment possesses a style that is individual and is foreign to the usual ready-to-wear.

You can easily suit your taste in style, fabric or price from this by far the largest stock of overcoats in South Bend.

The Twin City Telephone Co., Expects to Put Wires Underground

The Twin City Telephone company proposes to spend at once the sum of $33,000 in putting its wires in the main part of the city underground, and making the plant here the best equipped in the world.

Friday Engineers Boyce and Williams from Detroit were here looking over the ground and making plans and estimates for the work. It is roughly estimated that the work will cost $33,000. Over half a mile of underground conduit will be laid and in order to do the work it will be necessary to tear up the asphalt pavement, permission for which must be secured from the city.

Value of Cream.
Cream is without exception the best of all fats for nourishing both adults and children. Of course, it is not needed equally by all persons, and there are many who cannot digest it. When a fat is needed and it can be digested cream should be tried, and it may be "pushed" to the greatest extent the digestion will allow.

THE THIRTY CLUB

Met at the Home of Mrs. H. F. Kingery
Wednesday Afternoon

The 30 Club met at the home of Mrs. H. F. Kingery, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. The afternoon was opened with music, after which a leaf contest was engaged in, Mrs. Mudgett winning the honors. The report of the delegates to the recent convention was heard:

The 11th annual convention of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs was held in Kalamazoo. The delegates from different clubs were welcomed to the city with addresses by the Mayor and Presidents of the entertaining clubs and responded to in a graceful manner by our State President, Mrs. Lois Felker.

The principal feature of Tuesday evening was a lecture by Miss Cawfield on America Art and Art in America. No one can doubt the existence of American Art after listening to her fine lecture and looking at her artistic slides.

Wednesday morning the report of the officers of the Federation on the work that was done the past year by the different clubs was heard, and it was interesting to note what noble aims nearly all the clubs have, and what they have accomplished, notable among these are the work done for charity, flowers and help to the sick and home town improvements. The past year saw the completion of the Lucinda Hinsdale Stone Memorial fund which amounted to $5000 00 given to Ann Arbor University for the education of girls. The 30 club are pleased to say they contributed their mite to this fund. Mrs. Spencer the originator of the Traveling Library in Michigan, gave an address on "The Relation of the State Library to Club Women." Mrs. Emma A. Fox, author of Parliamentary Usage for Club Women, gave a fine address.

on that subject. Bishop Gillespie spoke on "What Women's Clubs may do for Poorhouses." This was followed by a few excellent remarks on the same subject by Rev. Caroline Bartlett Crane. This opens up an avenue of work that all clubs may take part in. The street car company gave the delegates a ride to all points of interest in the city. In the evening a reception was held in the Elks Temple for the visiting ladies.

The address by Mrs. Janny C. Hardy on "The Reforms in Australia and New Zealand," put the reforms of our own country in the shade. Mrs. Howard Murry Jones, gave a finely appreciated address on "The Making of a Patriot." The convention closed with an address by Judge V. Mark, of Chicago on "The Juvenile Court."

The 30 Club feels that they can and will be greatly benefitted by belonging to the Federation.

Attempted to Blow Open the Safe at Michigan Central Freight Office

Saturday morning, our village was again awakened to the fact that it would be safer to have a double lock on every accessible entrance, for fear some of those easy going people would take the liberty to invade your premises without an invitation or permit.

Last Friday night some unknown party broke into the Michigan Central freight office and by the aid of a heavy iron bar attempted to break open the safe which contained the sum of $500, but without success. It is thought to be a local party for had it been a professional thief they would not have done the blundering job that was shown the next morning, when Mr. Herman Hattenback opened the office Saturday to assume his daily routine. He discovered several large grease spots on the floor which were thought at first to have been caused by nitro-glycerin, also that the safe had been tampered with. This unknown party succeeded in breaking the safe combination, and the handle. At the present time they have not been able to open the safe. This case as well as the many other robberies which have occurred in our village should be thoroughly investigated.

School Notes

The High school pupils whose average are below 90 per cent the first two months are taking their quarter ly examinations this week.

The 9th graders are enjoying their new books for supplementary reading.

The 6th grade had their first lesson in water colors Thursday. As a result our art corner is decorated with autumn leaves.

Donald Hosford of the 6th grade will enter the South Bend school this week. We will miss Donald, but wish him success in his work.

Lillian Shaw's work in drawing will be framed in sixth grade this coming month. Her work was considered the best by the grade.

Fifth grade observed autumn, Friday p. m. The room was appropriately decorated and the following program was given:

held in this County.

A Buchanan man who took a Chicago paper in preference to a local paper, because he got more paper for his money, was attracted by the advertisement of a fire escape which would be forwarded on receipt of two dollars. He sent the cash and in a few days received a copy of the New Testament.

Mrs. B. Brant most pleasantly entertained a number of her friends at her home on Main street, Monday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in games and social chat. Mrs. Mae Fuller captured the prize. Dainty refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, voting Mrs.
Brant a royal entertainer.

Elmer Butts experienced a dashing runaway Saturday evening. He had driven to the Big Four depot for a lady friend and in coming up Front street the horse became frightened, ran into a bus, tearing the harness
to pieces and smashing the buggy.
Both occupants were thrown out, but fortunately neither was seriously injured.—Niles Star.

Mary J. Myler has commenced suit in the circuit court against her son, Chas. Myler and wife to recover her home, which she alleges was secured by her son by unlawful and irregular means. The parties live in Buchanan and it is charged that while the plaintiff was sick and not competent to take proper care of her property she was induced to give the son and his wife a deed to her home, which was about all the property she owned. The son in return was to give her a home and provide for her the remainder of her life. Now the aged lady seeks to have the deed set aside and her home restored to her.—News

ERIE RAILWAY COMPANY

Are Now the Sole Owners of the Entire Pere Marquette System

With the acquisition of the C. H. & D. and the Pere Marquette system, the Erie Railroad, which was the first railroad in the country to reach from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic Ocean, now becomes one of the chief trunk lines of the country. The seventy-seven minor roads which made up the old system of 2,552 miles, extends from New York on the East to Chicago on Lake Michigan, with terminals at Cleveland, Dunkirk and Buffalo on Lake Erie, Lake Ontario also being reached by way of its Rochester Division.

The Erie Runs through one of the best manufacturing districts of the Central States and also a country rich in varied agricultural products. It also taps the richest dairy district, perhaps, in the United States, that of Orange and Sullivan counties, New York.

How great its passenger business has been is well shown by the fact that in the fiscal year just ended the number of passengers carried over its lines equalled the combined population of the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Its freight business is best shown, perhaps, by the statement that the tonnage last year exceeded the loading capacity of all sea-going vessels and Great Lake carriers in the world.

When united with the Great Central System, which taps the rich agricultural, mineral and timber regions of the states through which it runs, it gives those interested in its development a right to believe that this acquisition will make it one of the most important railroad systems of the country.

On the first of November the American Locomotive Company will deliver to the Erie Railroad the sixteen new passenger engines of what is known as the 2510 type, the largest locomotives ever built exclusively for passenger service; This will complete the delivery of the 150 locomotives ordered for the Erie System for the present year. With the other rolling stock, box cars, refrigerator cars, gondolas and other equipments that was absolutely imperative for delivery before winter sets in, the Erie will have expended fifteen million dollars for locomotives, rolling stock, orders for which were placed within the past twelve months. This will give the road a better working equipment than it has ever had in its existence.

For machine shops, round houses, machinery and the equipment of the repair shops and tool houses, one million and a half is now being expended, and the greater part of the work will be completed before Jan. 1st, next.

A round million has been expended this year in the erection of new bridges, and the reconstruction and rebuilding of old ones. Two hundred thousand dollars is to be expended immediately in increasing the facilities of the transfer houses and other equipment of the terminal yards at Marion, O. and Hammond Ind.

Orders have just been placed with the Pressed Steel Car Company and the Standard Steel Car Company, for 2,200 self-cleaning hopper gondolas to care for the steadily increasing coal traffic. Delivery of these cars will begin in January or February next.

Lansfield in Chicago

The greatest dramatic event of the year in America or England takes place on the stage of the Grand Opera House, Chicago, next week beginning Monday when the foremost living actor, Richard Mansfield, makes his first appearance there in the first production in the English language of Schiller's masterpiece, "Don Carlos." It is a marvelous production, glowing with the wealth and color and beauty of Madrid in the golden age of Spain. The Mansfield season is limited to seven appearances and terminates Saturday Nov. 4 as he will not break contracts with managers who have his promise of six appearances in Indianapolis, Peoria, Des Moines and Denver before he begins his California season November 20 in San Francisco.

Mansfield stands alone today among the actors. He stands not only for the highest expression of his art, but for a leadership which has made America's first stage in the world, for the whole art of the drama which includes the judgment to select, the skill to edit, the taste to produce, the knowledge of illusion as well as a genius for the high interpretation of human emotions, passions and characters. The example of his lofty and steadfast endeavor and the magic of his success, his unflinching fealty to the drama which amuses and fascinates by the exploiting of historical characters of universal interest or typical figures with human-wide appeals, and always on a plane and in a way to discount the unworthy assumption that the stage is a place to discuss what may not be discussed at home, all this has marked his career as one of signal service to his generation and to the stage.

Richard Mansfield's repertoire is a notable monument to his genius. Its variety is a brief for his versatility and its fullness confirms his devoted energy in his art. It presents the work of Shakespeare, Moliere and Schiller among the classics and the pioneer and usually the best works of modern dramatists.

This year Mansfield has performed another notable service to the theatre. This he has done not only in the fineness of his newest characterization, or in the elaborate beauty of his production as always, or in the superior character of his company and the balanced esprit de corps which distinguishes it, but because he draws attention again to the fact that the best entertainment and the most enjoyable diversion to the eyes, the ear and the mind is entirely compatible with a performance of a noble classic which opens history in a graphic way and acquaints the audience with a literary masterpiece.

On Nov. 13, 14 and 15, the Pere Marquette will sell tickets to Traverse City for $7.15 for the round trip. Good to return Nov. 20, on account of the Michigan State Sunday School Convention.
