

Geo. Wyman & Co.

We consider it a great pleasure to be able all the year round to sell you dependable merchandise for less than anyone else, and have the goods to deliver that are advertised. When we advertise shirts and drawers for men, women and children worth 25c each for 15c each, you can depend on what we say; we have the goods and you can depend on their being worth 25c, see! In other words we are honest with ourselves as well as being honest with you. We think honesty is the best policy in everything. We have found that it will win in the long run.

Dress Goods.

We offer 24-inch Black Taffeta Silk 50c yard; 27-inch, 60c; 36-inch Black Taffeta, 85c a yard.
One lot of Wool Dress Goods, all kinds and widths, worth up to $1.00, to close at 42 1/2c a yard.

Hosiery & Underwear.

We offer a very complete line of A. C. Staley Mfg. Co's Underwear for men. We offer 25c underwear for 15c. Men's 50c fleece Underwear for 25c, but not a full line of sizes.

We offer Ladies' Misses' and Children's fleeced Stockings at 10c pair.

JEWELRY and DRUGGISTS' SUNDRIES.

We offer our Rose Perfume at 50c oz. Beautiful line of packages of fine Perfumes, 25c and 50c.
All sizes in black, 50c Corsets, 25c.

Some people carry a rabbit's foot in their pocket to give them good luck. Other people carry a horse chestnut in their pocket to keep them from getting bald-headed. We would suggest that you inaugurate a thought department in each household, with a chairman, secretary and treasurer; when you do that you will buy more goods at Wyman's, for our goods are first-class and we stand behind them, besides, we sell them for less than anyone else. Our aim is not to see how much we can get for goods, but how cheap we can sell them.

Come and see us.

BREAKS IN POSTOFFICE

Sneak Thieves Broke Into the Postoffice Last Saturday Night

ALSO SECURED PLUNDER

From the Bakery Belonging to Mr. John Portz, the Same Evening

A sneak thief or thieves entered the local postoffice and the bakery belonging to John Portz last Saturday night, and took plunder from both places.

They entered postoffice by way of a window on the west side. There was a small piece of glass broken out of the window in upper sash, by which means they opened the window and entered the office. After transacting the money order drawer, which contained a large number of receipts and also a number of dime pieces, they left everything, and went to the money drawer near the front window, and took a number of nickles and stamps.

They also entered John Portz's bakery, and took a 100 pound sack of flour.

There can be no doubt in the minds of the citizen's, but what this is a local party or parties and a careful watch should be kept on all suspicious people.

DENVER THE CENTER OF CORSET PERFECTION

Many of The Most Noted Actresses Have Their Corsets Made Here

The RECORD is the recipient of "The Denver Post" from Denver, Colo., which has the following article concerning one of Buchanan's old residents, Mrs. Dr. Berrick.

"Has Denver become the one city in this country at least to which women who want a perfect fitting corset must come or send in order to secure it? A Denver corsetiere, Mme. Berrick, at 1529 California street, has certainly made a reputation for making perfect corsets which extends from New York to San Francisco, and so extensively has her business grown that frequently for days at a time all new orders are refused.

Mme. Berrick came to Denver from New York City several years ago to regain her health, and after accomplishing that, decided to remain and engage in business here. Possessing naturally and from long experience peculiar ability in the art of fitting and making corsets which decreased the figure of the stout woman and rounded out that of the thin woman she rapidly became known and in a short time the best dressed Denver woman were forsaking the ready-made corset bought in the stores and using the ones which were especially designed for them by Mme. Berrick to the infinite improvement of their appearance.

A number of the theatrical women of the country who had her make corsets for them when she was in New York never failed to give an order upon reaching Denver, and in this way her reputation spread until at present a week never passes without at least two or three actresses who are playing at local houses going to her with orders for corsets. In this way Denver has become known as the place to get corset perfection and it is rapidly gaining a reputation for women with beautiful figures. Mme. Berrick's whole theory in reference to corsets is that each figure has an individuality of its own, which must be properly taken into account if the desired results are to be secured."

The Record has the largest circulation and is the best advertising medium in the county.

Niles Pioneer Passes Away

George A. Correll Died Monday Afternoon

George A. Correll, one of the most prominent farmers of Bertrand township, died at 12:15 Monday afternoon, after fourteen weeks' illness of Bright's disease. Deceased was one of the most prominent republican politicians of the south end of Berrien county. He served as county agent for several years, was highway commissioner of Bertrand for a long time and represented his township on the board of supervisors. At the time of his death he held the position of past regent of the Royal Arcanum lodge of Niles. Besides his wife he leaves five children, George E.; a real estate and insurance agent in Niles; Horace, a mail clerk on the Michigan Central; Mrs. Thomas Hance, Mrs. F. M. Cameron and Mrs. James McGee. He was 59 years old and one of the best known men in the county.

WIVES PRELIMINARY

William Maitland, Former Niles Barber, Bound Over on a Robbery Charge

The following is a dispatch from Niles, to the Kalamazoo Gazette dated Nov. 16. William Maitland has waived examination in a St. Joseph justice court and has been bound over to the circuit court on the charge of burglary. Maitland, who is a former Niles man, was arrested a few days ago in South Bend by Deputy Sheriff Martin Dawn. The charge against him was the burglary of the home of R. H. Decker in Lake township, which occurred May 28, last. Maitland is said to have entered Decker's house and to have stolen a quantity of clothing, and other articles. A warrant was sworn out for him soon after the offense was committed, and the officers have been on the lookout for him since. Maitland was at one time a barber in Niles.

IT IS CASEY'S MOVE

Niles Saloon Man is Sued for Selling Liquor to Indian

Mrs. Frank Sawalk, whose husband was arrested for placing ties on the Michigan Central tracks after a bout with Niles whiskey, has sued William Casey, of that city for $5,000, that being the amount she thinks she suffered, and being the man she thinks furnished the liquor to her husband.

Sawalk was charged with putting 150 ties on the tracks while walking a mile or two, and within an hour if Casey's whiskey would make a fellow work that way at cutting cord wood it would be worth while.

In the mean time Mrs. Sawalk has employed Atty. C. W. Ketcham to secure her rights, and the sympathy of the public is with her.

M. L. CLUB

The M. L. Club met at the home of Mrs. Alice Rose, on Day's avenue, yesterday, and a very interesting afternoon was indulged in with the following program:

A very entertaining paper, "Michael Angelo as a Painter," was read by Mrs. Dodd.

A Description of his Master Piece Mrs. Emery.

Michael Angelo as a Sculptor, Mrs. Howard.

Roll call, noted musicians.

Music, "Chimes of Missions Dolores" by Mrs. Garland, which was exceptionally fine.

Paper, character sketch, "Portia" Mrs. Stryker.

The Shake speare lesson was conducted by Mrs. Worthington.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard, at which time the 5 o'clock Thanksgiving dinner will be served.

School Notes

The desks in the highroom have been arranged so that they face the west wall.

Clarence Rowe entered the 9th grade this morning. He comes from the Dowagiac school.

Friday morning in 6th grade four girls rendered "Americo" with Beatrice Gage, organist after which followed a male quartette, assisted by Willie Hershenow and his guitar.

Harvey Sherwood of the 3rd grade won in the spelling contest Friday. Storehouses, is the subject of the nature talks this week in the 3rd grade.

The Children's Hour, is being studied in the 3rd grade.

Fugitive From Justice Bagged at Niles Friday

Benjamin F. Chadsy, a Brooklyn attorney arrested in 1902 on the charge of embezzling funds of his clients, was arrested at Niles, Friday by Detective J. Edward Orr of Brooklyn. Chadsy jumped his bail and has been a fugitive from justice for years.

The man arrested is traveling under the name of Paul Hamilton and his wife is with him. The detective, however, insists that he has the right man. Governor Warner will be asked for a requisition.

The sixth grade science work last week was on the beaver.

Profits on Shoes

The only consideration in a lot of shoe stores in a good many towns is "how much profit for us."

Our method and first consideration is always "how much profit for the buyer."

Come and let us demonstrate this.

An Innovation In Sleeping Car Equipment.

New compartment sleeping cars for service between Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis in The Pioneer Limited trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. are under construction. The new cars are a departure from any compartment cars heretofore built in this respect, that formerly of drawing rooms have been located at the end of the cars "over the wheels" whereas in the cars the drawing rooms are in the "center" of the cars. Two of new cars, the "Onalaska" and the "Ontonagon" will be placed in service on "The Pioneer" at once. They are the first cars of this pattern ever built.

Plainwell Sage Sees Roosevelt Universal Nominee in 1908

Plainwell, Mich., Nov. 12.—According to a prediction made by Prof. H. Allen, the famous Plainwell astrologer, William R. Hearst will win out in his fight for the mayoralty of New York and a recount will show that Hearst was elected by a comfortable majority over McClellan. Allen also predicts that Roosevelt will be nominated by both Republican and Democrat parties in 1908 and will be elected, but four years later Bryan will again run for the presidency and will be elected.

Here the producer of meat can see what has been done by others, can ascertain the value of newer and better methods and can go home a stronger and more capable man in his particular line. The coming session of this school is to be held under circumstances which give it marked advantages over any held heretofore. In the manner in which the object lessons will be displayed and comparison facilitated it will be ahead of anything of the kind that we have seen. The exhibits promise to surpass in every respect any heretofore given and the comfort and convenience under which the whole may be seen will certainly appeal to the comfort and pleasure of every intelligent live stock man. I sincerely hope for the good of the live stock interests that the attendance may be of a character commensurate with the effort which has been put forth under your management, and from every hand I hear nothing but the most encouraging speculation as to the result.

A dispatch from Niles States that the first car on the north extension of the South Bend & Southern Michigan road was run for a short distance Friday. The car was used to draw a wire for making the connection between the South Bend line and the St. Joseph division. The line is completed as far as Berrien Springs and is ready for the cars as soon as the bridge is completed. Next week it is expected that the workmen on the line will be taken from Niles on one of the cars of the interurban. The bridge is practically completed and in a very short time the cars will be running between Niles and Berrien on a regular schedule. From Berrien to the Advent college the line is completed and work on the extension to St. Joseph is progressing rapidly. If the severe weather holds off a little while longer a large part of the grading as far as St. Joseph will be done.

QUAIL SEASON OPEN

Hunting Laws Stricter Than Ever This Year

Hunters have anxiously awaited the advent of November 10, the date upon which it became lawful to commence shooting the elusive, toothsome quail. The closed season has been longer this year than ever before in our effort to protect the number of birds.

The law has the hunter down to a pretty fine point these days and there are many little details to be observed if the hunter would avoid arrest. It is first necessary for him to have a hunter's license if he wishes to hunt outside of the borders of the township in which he resides. In addition the license must bear a photograph of the rightful person. The law also requests that a hunter must obtain the consent of the owner before hunting upon his land. On account of so many resolutions, there are so many nimrods heard to remark, that they will cut the hunting out altogether, rather than observe such iron clad rules.

James Lott, an aged farmer of De Witt, fell from the seat of his wagon, last Wednesday night. His head was caught between the wheel and the wagon box. The horses not stopping the movement of the wheel ground away the man's scalp and bone until a section of the brain was exposed. The patient is making a remarkable rally, although it is not believed he can recover.

While hunting on St. Joseph Island, near Sault Ste Marie, Mich., Edward Foster, a merchant of Richards Landing, was taken for a deer by a hunter whose name is unknown and shot through the neck and killed. He was a single man 34 years old.

Elvin Turnbull, of Lapeer, Mich., was kicked in the breast by a horse Friday. It was thought he had been killed, and his wife was so notified. Some time later he regained consciousness. No bones were broken but he is in a critical condition. He is the junior member of the firm of Robert Turnbull & Son, millers.

A peculiar accident befell Earl Brower, of Jackson, aged 17 years. He was playing football with other boys, and when in the act of kicking the ball he fractured his hip so severely that it will be months before he is again able to be about.

Danced on Enemy's Grave

"I have danced on the grave of the man who is my worst enemy and thus filled a promise made nearly twenty years ago," said a well-dressed gentleman to an acquaintance at the Reading terminal. "I came from my home, 100 miles away, for that purpose and I'm going back satisfied." Pressed for details, he said: "I became involved in a business deal when young and inexperienced and was robbed of my last penny by a merchant who turned a deaf ear to my parents for mercy. He was clearly within the law, but any other man would have given an ambitious youngster another chance. When he laughed at me I told him I'd live to dance on his grave, and he laughed again.

"Five years ago he retired from business and came to Philadelphia; six weeks ago he died. When I heard of his death I remembered my threat. The world is using me well, and neither expense or time interfered with a determination to fulfill my pledge. I came here last Saturday and on Sunday went to the cemetery where my enemy is buried. When I found the burial plot I waited until there were few persons near by, then slipped over the iron railing and did a dozen steps on the new grave. I felt better right away."

TO ERECT GALLOWES

Mrs. Rogers to Hang for Crime Early in December

Rutland, Vt., Nov. 18.—Deputy Sheriff D. D. Hazen, of South Royalton, has received official notice from Governor Bell to prepare at once for the execution of Mrs. Mary Rogers, Dec. 8. Work will begin at once erecting the gallows for the third time at Windsor prison.

The governor's order is taken to mean that the state officials have little hope of the United States supreme court allowing the petition for a writ of habeas corpus for Mrs. Rogers.

Entertained Thursday and Friday

Mrs. Maryette Mansfield and daughter, Miss Beatrice entertained about 50 guests at their home on Day's avenue last Thursday and Friday afternoon. The principal feature of both afternoons was cards and social chat.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. G. E. Smith and Mrs. A. Richards were tied on the prize, and upon cutting the cards Mrs. Smith was awarded the prize. Mrs. Tammerson Merrill was the prize winner for Friday afternoon.

A two course luncheon was served each afternoon. The guests all report a royal good time, and look forward to many more of these happy events.

RESIGNS HIS PLACE

Superintendent Light of County Farm Soon to Retire

St. Joseph Press: After years of faithful service as poor master at the county farm, Isaac Light, who for 25 years has well and truly served Berrien county as poor master at the county farm in Berrien township, has tendered his resignation to the commissioners of the poor. This resignation takes place the first day of March, 1906, just 25 years to the day since Mr. Light became poor master. He thinks a quarter of a century is long enough for any man to hold such a position and wishes to retire to his own home in Sodus township where his declining years may be spent in peace.

Berrien county may be fortunate enough to sometime secure as good a man for the place as Mr. Light has been, but we will never find a better or more trustworthy and conservative gentleman as this public servant has been.

We hope that peace and plenty will follow Mr. Light through the balance of his useful life.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more Indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable." "The one magazine I feel I must take." "The world under a field-glass." "An education in public affairs and current literature."—these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read the Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is the Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read the Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section; it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly.

Probably the most useful section of all is Dr. Albert Shaw's illustrated "Progress of the World," where public events and issues are authoritatively and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "This department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The unique cartoon department, depicting current history in caricature, is another favorite. The Review of Reviews covers five continents, and yet is American, first and foremost. Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided that it is "indispensable."

ADVERTISE IN THE RECORD

Entertains, Day's Avenue Club

Mrs. Frank Raymond was the hostess of the Day's Avenue Club last Saturday afternoon. The members of the above club besides a number of other invited guests spent a very pleasant afternoon at her home.

The afternoon was indulged in games. Pedro was the predominant game. Mrs. John Morris was the prize winner, and was awarded by a beautiful deck of cards.

Refreshments were served in two courses by Miss Vera Fritz, consisting as follows: First course, sandwiches, pickles, cranberries, escalloped oysters, macaroni and coffee. Second course, brick ice cream and two kind of cake.

The guests departed voting Mrs. Raymond, and daughter Miss Cecil royal entertainers, and declaring this event one of the jolliest occasions of the season.

Fire Alarm Sounded Monday Morning

At about 9:30 yesterday morning the fire whistle gave forth its shrill shrieks, and upon investigation the fire was discovered to be the Argus office. Mr. Graffort was attempting to start the gasoline engine, which furnishes the power to run the machinery in his establishment, and had the gasoline and sparker both turned on, when the sparker ignited the gasoline and blew the head out of the cylinder of the engine. By the immediate use of a fire extinguisher, the fire was soon put out and a badly scorched wall is the only evidence left of so recent a fire, which might have resulted in a dangerous one.

Ted's Beginning

The new assistant rector was trying to impress upon the mind of his young son the difference between his own position and that of his superior. "Now, Ted," he ended, "I want you to remember to be very polite to the rector. We are strangers, and I am only the assistant; it becomes us to be extremely courteous. Some day, perhaps, I shall be rector myself."

The next day the boy was walking with his father when they met the dignified rector.

"Hello!" promptly began Ted. "Pop's been tellin' me 'bout you—how you're the real thing, an' he's just the hired man an' we got to knuckle under. But some day he may be it himself, an' then you'll see!"—Woman's Home Companion for November.

Sam Jones Can't Lose.

Sam Jones, the evangelist, told the following story in the course of a sermon: "Before I was a Christian I learned one thing, and I want you to hear this. I was away from home and was robbed on a train. I had all the money of both my friend and myself. He did not have any and they got mine, and we got off at a station. That was when I was a sinner. He was a steward in a Methodist church, and I was just a plain, common, simple sinner.

"When we got off at the station we staid around there a minute or two. He says, 'Sam, I wonder if there's a Mason in town.' 'I said, 'A Mason?' He says, 'I can find a Mason.'" I said "Why don't you go to the Methodists?"

"O shucks," he said, "I will go to the Masons." And he struck out and after a few minutes came back and I said, "How did you come out?" "All right," he said, "Sam, if you want to go to heaven you join the Methodists, but if you hold down here, join the Masons." So when I started in I just joined both, and tonight I am a Methodist and a Mason and I am getting along well for both worlds."

Account of Thanksgiving
