We clean house right after Christmas each year. What we mean by that is, we get out all the "old soldiers," what we call stayers, and stand them in rows along the counters and ask them a few questions, such as, "How long have you been here?" "Do you like it here?" "Don't you want to move?" etc. Invariably they remonstrate and say, "This is a good warm place with plenty of water and matches, and we would rather stay right here," but we clean out the goods each year. You can buy many useful and good things cheap, for we must have the space they occupy for new goods, as each season we want seasonable goods—see?

COMING COMING

Watch Out for the Chicago Glee Club, Which Will be Here Soon.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON

And the Citizen's in Our Village Should Not Miss The Best Number on the Course

The long looked for Glee Club is to appear in our village at an early date, and we want one and all to give them a cordial reception.

The Glee Club is the fourth number on the Lecture Course, and gives promise of being above the ordinary.
Already we have had three numbers on this Course, and all who have attended have left the hall well satisfied that this is the best Lecture Course, Buchanan has ever been able to obtain.

The citizens have not attended the different numbers, as well as the Buchanan Band Boys would desire, but by a little perseverance we trust that there will not be even standing room at this, next to the last number.

Words of approval on all sides are heard in regard to the three numbers we have had, and we are perfectly satisfied that the remaining numbers will receive as much, if not more praise than the previous ones.

The Glee Club offers a decidedly novel feature in the form of a Quartet of Slide Trombones. The trombone is conceded to be the king of wind instruments, and the effect produced by the four, quite approaches in sweetness and volume the quality and power of a pipe organ. With these instruments, supplementing the male quartet, the club is able to present a varied and artistic evening.

The Glee Club will appear at the Rough Opera House. When? Soon, soon.

Mother's Tears In Vain

Maxwell, Diamond Thief, Sentenced to Six Months to Five Years at Jackson Prison

In vain did the mother of James Maxwell, the convicted diamond thief, weep and shed tears before Judge Cooledge, Tuesday morning to save her son from the penitentiary.
Like a vain was the eloquence of Attorney James O'Hara to have the prisoner let off with a jail sentence.
Maxwell was sentenced by Judge Cooledge to a term of five years at Jackson prison. The court, however, recommended that the term be one year.

Maxwell took his sentence without the slightest display of emotion. His aged mother, however, cried aloud while the court was addressing the prisoner and begged that her son be given one more chance.

Prosecuting Attorney White and Assistant I. W. Riford made but short reply to the plea of Attorney O'Hara.

It is possible that a legal fight will be made over the disposition of the $500 cash bail, forfeited by Maxwell.
The prisoner made an assignment of the cash to W. C. Hicks, but Prosecuting Attorney White refuses to give up the amount. Attorney Hicks holds that it is illegal for the state to appropriate a cash bail. Sheriff Tennant will take Maxwell to Jackson.

HORRIBLE CRIME

Clarence Barnum, of Rochester, Mich., Kills Wife, Son and Daughter.

USES AX ON HIS VICTIMS

Then Places Shot Gun Muzzle in His Mouth and Blows off Top of His Head

Rochester, Mich., Jan. 3.—The discovery of the dead bodies of Clarence A. Barnum, his wife, son and daughter, at their home, two and one-half miles south of this place last evening, points to one of the worst crimes in the history of the state. Everything indicates that the husband and father killed his wife and two children with an ax and then blew his own brains out with a shotgun.

The body of the wife was found in the woodshed, that of the son in the kitchen, while the bodies of the father and daughter were a few feet from each other in the dining room.

It would appear that Barnum chased his three victims all over the house and killed them one by one, finishing up his work by placing his shotgun between his knees with the muzzle in his mouth and blowing off the top of his head.

An ax was found with blood upon the handle and it is thought that it was with this instrument that the crime was committed. The heads of all three victims were smashed and their brains spattered over the walls and ceiling.

No cause can be assigned for the horrible deed. Barnum came to Rochester last April from Homer, Mich., and purchased the W. M.
Norton farm. The corps were a failure and it was known that he was despondent over this. A letter found in his pocket and addressed to his brother at Waterloo, N. Y. bears out the supposition that he was in a despondent mood.

There are three children of Barnum still living. Mary is at Albion, Mich.
William at Ann Arbor, where he is the editor of the College News Letter.

The other son, John, lives at Coldwater, Mich.

The Key to the Situation

Mark Twain has told many good stories of himself, and the circumstances make it likely that he was the original teller of the following.
His sense of humor would give the incident its full value.

While at his summer residence he prepared one evening to take a drive and expecting to remain out until late told his hostler that he need not wait for him. He instructed the man, however, when he had finished his work to lock the stable and place the key under a stone, the location of which Mr. Clemens described with much exactness.

When the humorist reached home after his drive, he was surprised to find that the key was not in the place selected. He was obliged to rouse the hostler, who explained, as he started for the missing key. "Mr.
Clemens, I found a better place to hide it."

Not a Question of Money.

There are many strange ideas of business. The young woman whose application is accorded in the Kansas City Times, may have been a sister of the wife who applied for admission to the New York Medical College on the plea that she wanted to do something to occupy her spare moments.

"This morning a young lady came in here," said the man in charge of the book department of a large store,
"and asked for a position to sell books. I explained I had nothing to give her and then I said, pleasantly,
'I'm awfully sorry.'
"Oh," she said, turning to go, "you needn't be sorry. I really don't need the money. I simply wanted to work here so I could read the books."

Burglars entered the residence of Asel Bennett, aged 75, at Greenville, Monday night, chloroformed the old man, and abstracted $58.90. G. A.

Bennett is treasurer of the local Grand Army corps. He has recovered from the chloroform. The police

The large woodenware factory of Henry Richerds burned Tuesday at Bellare, with a loss of $26,000, with $10,000 insurance. It was the second large factory fire for Bellare within sixty days. Seventy-five men are out of work. Origin of the fire is unknown.

The cash balance in the state treasury at Lansing, at the close of the year was $913,335.23, but of this sum $558,000 is money deposited by receivers of banks and does not form a part of the state funds. The state treasury will be at its lowest until January 15, after which settlement will begin to be made by county treasurers.

Choking little girls on the street of Muskegon, is the peculiar form of assault in which some person, described as a big man, seems to revel.
Bessie Cone, aged 5, saved her sister Grace, aged 13, from possible death by crying for help Monday night.
As it was, the older girl was choked into insensibility. The two girls were walking home in a thickly populated part of the city. They were talking and laughing over something, when a heavily built man, wearing no overcoat, ran up to them, taking Grace by the arm and walking along with her. Suddenly he seized her by the throat and began choking her. He was frightened when the younger sister gave vent to three or four screams, and ran away, leaving the little form prostrate and unconscious on the walk.

The presence of mind of Robert Strauss, a street car motorman, at Kalamazoo, probably saved the lives of three passengers in his car at noon Tuesday. Strauss was on the West Main street hill coming toward the city. Three squares away from the Michigan Central tracks he noticed the approach of a passenger train.
He reversed the power and put on the brakes. The wheels slipped on the icy rails. He turned to the passengers and told them to jump. He followed and was barely off the car when it ran into the tract in front of the train and was demolished.

Uncle Sam's next battle ships are planned for 18,000 tons, a speed of twenty-one knots. Naval strategists are working for greater swiftness in all classes of war vessels, battle ships having been moved up to speed formerly obtained only in cruisers. Anything that makes a ship faster will be approved, even by the peace societies.

The funeral services were delayed pending the arrival of Mrs. Edna Quick the daughter of the deceased from Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Quick arrived Monday. All the other relatives were already here. The remains were taken to Niles for interment in Silver Brook cemetery.

The body of the late Frank Phiscator will be brought from San Francisco and laid to rest in a vault in the Baroda village cemetery. Frank Narrington, a nephew of the dead man, left Wednesday for San Francisco to take charge of the remains and accompany them to Berrien county. The body cannot reach Baroda for ten days. Narrington, who twice visited the Klondike with the gold king, is well informed concerning Phiscator's business affairs. He may assume charge of the estate. A report from San Francisco states that Phiscator spent $80,000 within the month preceding his death.

CITY JAILS AND LIBRARIES.

Difference Invested in Each by Some of the Larger Municipalities.

If reading is a preventive of criminality, as some persons declare, some American cities are slow about putting this remedy for crime into effective operation, says the New York Sun. New York city, for instance, has $8,500,000 invested in jails and correctional institutions, and less than $6,000,000 in libraries.

Philadelphia has $2,150,000 in jails to $360,000 in libraries. Cleveland has $350,000 in jails and $325,000 in libraries.

These are the notable exceptions: Boston has $2,600,000 invested in jails, and $5,200,000 in libraries. Chicago has $1,000,000 in jails and $2,500,000 in libraries. St. Louis has an almost equal amount, $850,000, invested in each.

Pittsburg and Milwaukee have more than a million each in libraries, and Pittsburg stands fourth in this particular, exceeded only by Boston, Chicago and New York. Allegheny City, which is geographically a part of Pittsburg, has $730,000 invested in libraries, and Newark has $515,000. Baltimore, Buffalo and New Orleans have only a small investment in library buildings. San Francisco has $275,000, and Omaha, a much smaller city, $315,000.

NERVE OF THE "SOONERS"

Methods Taken by the Adventurers Who Try to Beat to the Front.

For many persons, a newly discovered fact is simply a spring-board from which they dive into a bottomless sea of speculation, says Samuel McChord Crothers, in Atlantic. They pride themselves on their ability to jump at conclusions, forgetting that jumping is an exercise in which, the lower orders excel their betters. If an elephant could jump as far, in proportion to his weight, as a flea, there would be no holding him on this planet. Every new discovery is followed by a dozen extravagances, engineered by the Get-wise-quick people. There is always some Young Napoleon of Philosophy who undertakes to corner truth-market. It's like what happened at the opening of Oklahoma territory. Before the day set by the government when they all were to start fair in their race for farms, a band of adventurers called "Sooners" smuggled themselves across the line. When the bona fide settler arrived on his quarter-section, he found an impudent "Sooner" in possession. You can't find any fresh field of investigation that isn't claimed by these sooners. It all comes because people are no longer educated logically.

SLOW CURE FOR INSOMNIA

The Victim Took Beer for It, But in Extremely Moderate Quantity.

"Speaking of homeopathy," said the doctor, according to the Philadelphia Record, "reminds me of the case of Miss N—, who traces her ancestry back through a long line of Puritans, and has imbibed from them strong and unyielding principles as regards saloons and liquor. Miss N— has been troubled with insomnia, and has tried all sorts of remedies. Finally, she told me of her trouble. I suggested that beer might help her to woe sleep. She was horrified, but at last a beer peddler stopped at her door and left a dozen bottles.

"The beer man returned in about three days for the empty bottles.

"My dear man," said Miss N—, "the bottles are not yet empty."

"The beer man waited several days more and again appeared.

"Your bottles are perfectly safe," Miss N— told him, and then a thought struck her, "but if you need them I have one nearly empty which you may have."

"I guess you don't drink it very fast," suggested the man.

"Why," replied Miss N—, "I take two teaspoons twice a day."

SCOURGE OF STOCKMEN.

Ravages of the Big Gray Wolf Far Worse Than Those of the Coyote.

Big wolves are found in both Texas and Oklahoma, but they are rare compared to the coyotes; and they are great wanderers, says Theodore Roosevelt, in Scribner's. Alone or in parties of three or four or half a dozen they travel to and fro across the country, often leaving a district at once if they are molested. Coyotes are more or less plentiful everywhere throughout the west in thinly settled districts and they often hang about in the immediate neighborhood of towns. They do enough damage to make farmers and ranchers kill them whenever the chance offers.

But this damage is not appreciable when compared with the ravages of their grim, big brother, the gray wolf, which, wherever it exists in numbers, is a veritable scourge to the stockmen.

We are in receipt of an elegant calendar from Harry Papson, of Buffalo, N. Y. Harry is now engaged in the commission business at Buffalo, he being successor of C. S. Dudley. We are more than pleased to hear of his success, and the Record, and many friends trust he will meet with great prosperity in this new enterprise. Thanks, Harry for the beautiful souvenir.

P. M. FOR CENTRAL

Vanderbilt System is to Assume Control of The Road

EFFECT OF THIS CHANGE

L. G. Smith, it is understood, is to Be Agent for Three Lines in Benton Harbor

The Vanderbilt system is to take over the control of the Pere Marquette and the line is to be placed under the management of the Michigan Central.

This well authenticated report comes from the offices of both roads. It is strengthened by the report in the twin cities that John Eagan, at present agent for the Michigan Central in St. Joseph, has been asked to take the agency of both lines in St. Joseph and is now engaged in picking his new force. Mr. Eagan denies any knowledge of the report. In the consolidation of the interests of the two roads, the report says that L. G. Smith, present agent for the Big Four in this city, is to become agent for the three roads.

The acquisition of the Pere Marquette by the Vanderbilt interests will give this system complete control of all railroad traffic in the twin cities, and in fact, in all Michigan. Within the past two weeks a multitude of rumors have been afloat concerning the ultimate fate of the Pere Marquette but the most persistent have been those linking the New York Central lines with the purchase of the road. These reports said that with the Pere Marquette tied to the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton it would be impossible for the Vanderbilts to consider such a move. The debt burden of the Ohio road was too much to shoulder and at any rate there was nothing to be gained in taking over this line. When the formal separation of the two roads was announced by Receiver Judson Harmon, authorities in railroad matters were more certain than ever that the Vanderbilts were to become owners of the Pere Marquette.

With the Pere Marquette in the hands of the Michigan Central many local changes will be brought about. It is understood that the policy to be pursued in selecting the new staff of employees will be to give the older employees on both roads the preference.

The Michigan Central spur between St. Joseph and Benton Harbor is to be abandoned for passenger service and all Michigan Central trains will enter Benton Harbor over the Pere Marquette tracks from St. Joseph.

St. Joseph is to be given a $25,000 union depot and all trains on the Buchanan division are to start from that city.

The formal change in the management of the roads is not likely to be made until spring.

L. G. Smith agent for the Big Four, thinks it quite likely that the Vanderbilt lines will assume control of the Pere Marquette but he could not say anything regarding his appointment as agent for the three roads in Benton Harbor. He stated this afternoon:

"There have been many reports regarding the disposition of the Pere Marquette and it seems to me quite likely that the Vanderbilt system may purchase the line. However, in that case, I had understood that the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern would assume the management." —News Palladium.

Henry Blodgett, of Main street, Buchanan, Mich., proprietor of the Tile and Brick works, says: "After a careful and varied experience I have not the slightest hesitation in endorsing the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills. At intervals for over two years I was not only annoyed but I actually suffered from severe pain in the small of my back and it was always worse if I did a hard day's work. Any cold I caught aggravated the pain, weakened my kidneys and too frequent action of the kidney secretions ensued. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, got a box at W. N. Brodrick's drug store and took them with the result that the back-aches entirely disappeared, and my kidneys were strengthened. Mrs. Blodgett also used Doan's Kidney Pills with the same good result. We both are pleased to recommend so valuable a remedy."

BLOOD DISEASED MEN

If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the vicious poison has been eradicated from the system. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore throat, ulcers on the tongue or in the mouth, hair falling out, aching pains, itching of the skin, sores or blotches on the body, eyes red and smart, dyspeptic stomach, sexual weakness—indications of the secondary stage. Don't ruin your system with the old foggy treatment—mercury and potash—which only suppresses the symptoms for a time only to break out again when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our New Method Treatment for over 20 years. No names used without written consent.

Mr. E. A. C. writes: "Your remedies have done me more good than Hot Springs and all the doctors and medicines I had previously tried. I have not felt any of those pains or seen any ulcers or blotches for over seven years and the outward symptoms of the loathsome disease have entirely disappeared. My hair has grown in fully again and I am married and happy."

Dramatic Story.

Irving Grinnell treasurer of the Church Temperance society of New York, told at a temperance meeting a dramatic story.

"A woman entered a barroom," he said, "and advanced quietly to her husband, who sat drinking with three other men.

"She placed a covered dish on the table and said:

"Thinkin' ye'd be too busy to come home to supper, Jack, I've fetched it to you here."

"And she departed.

"The man laughed awkwardly. He invited his friends to share the meal with him. Then he removed the cover from the dish.

"The dish was empty. It contained a slip of paper that said:

"I hope you will enjoy your supper. It is the same your wife and children have at home."
