THE LOST IS FOUND

Man Supposed to Have Been Murdered Turns Up

HE IS SAID TO BE INSANE

Aged George Shetterly, Well-to-do Farmer, Has Been Wandering About in the West

A tremendous sensation was created here last July by the mysterious disappearance of George Shetterly, a well known and well-to-do Pokagon farmer, who started to walk to Bertrand, where one of his sons resides, after drawing several hundred dollars at a local bank. Shetterly, who is 70 years of age, was last seen midway between here and Bertrand, and after several days had elapsed and he did not return to his home, and investigation was set on foot.

A number of farmers turned out and a diligent search of the surrounding country was made, but no trace of the missing man was found. Finally it was decided that he must have been waylaid, robbed and murdered and his body hidden away, perhaps in the underbrush in some of the wooded land in the vicinity of Bertrand. The searchers were of the opinion that later in the year, when the bushes and trees would be denuded of their foliage, the old man's body would be found, hence the search was about to be renewed in the vicinity of Bertrand recently, when it became rumored that a man answering to Shetterly's description had been seen in the vicinity of Glendora, this county, after the aged man left here.

A search was instituted at Glendora, with the result that what was supposed to be a freshly made grave was discovered in a lonely spot. The grave was opened and a badly decomposed body was found therein. The body could not be identified, but some of the relatives of Shetterly are said to have been satisfied that the remains were those of the missing man. The next step would probably have been toward having the supposedly dead man's large estate distributed, but the mystery has suddenly been cleared up with the return of Shetterly.

Last evening a Mr. McNally, who resides near Dayton, was enroute home from Michigan City, when to his great surprise he found Mr. Shetterly on the train. The old man was irrational at times, hence Mr. McNally took him home with him and Wednesday morning brought him to Buchanan.

According to the old gentleman's story he went from here to Pennsylvania, thence to Kansas and from there to Missouri, where he had since remained. He is said to be in a very bad physical as well as mental condition.

Mr. Shetterly has always been looked upon as an eccentric man. For some years he lived alone in a house in the country near Galien, and seldom mingled with the people thereabouts, preferring to live the life of a recluse.—Niles Star.

MARSHALL FIELD IS NO MORE

Chicago's Merchant Prince a Victim of Pneumonia.

New York, Jan. 16.—Marshall Field the multi millionaire merchant of Chicago, who was stricken with pneumonia in this city a week ago, died at 4:08 o'clock this afternoon.

It was recognized early this afternoon that the last hope of a rally had disappeared and that he had but a few hours on earth at most. All his family were at the bedside when the end came. He sank rapidly and peacefully.

We wish to again call attention to the quarter page ad, offering the BUCHANAN RECORD and the Chicago Daily Inter Ocean to new subscribers $2.50, and renewals for $3.50

PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

The Citizens of Buchanan Are Jubilant Over the Future Outlook

ENCOURAGING PROSPECTS

Meeting Held Wednesday Afternoon to Form Organization

The citizens of Buchanan are once more awake to the fact that we can accomplish as much as some of our neighboring cities, and so once more a meeting was called in regard to locating other factories.

At the present time the people of Buchanan feel more encouraged to go ahead, for with the re-building of the Cabinet Company, the future prospects are even brighter than we expected.

Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 a meeting was called at the First National Bank by W. A. Palmer for the purpose of considering a proposition of a factory that wishes to locate in Buchanan. This proposition met the approval of all who were in attendance, and every available inducement will be put forth to have this new concern, numbered among our other enterprising establishments.

Already we have a number of flourishing business concerns and we trust that we may be fortunate enough to add a few more of the same, and make this a thriving village.

W. A. Palmer was chosen to act as president, and E. S. Roe, secretary of the association and with these men, who have the welfare of Buchanan at hand we hope to do much in this ensuing year. We trust that all the citizens will extend a helping hand, and let the members of the association know that we appreciate their earnest efforts.

CELERY AND ONIONS Failure of These Crops to be Worst in Years About Kalamazoo

The year 1906 will go down in the history of the celery growers of Kalamazoo as one of the worst, if not the worst in their experience in this line of business. Only half a crop is the verdict generally handed down and that of a poor quality and not by any means up to the grade of the succulent relish that has made Kalamazoo famous as the celery city of the world.

Coupled with the failure in celery is that of the onion crop, usually a very large and remunerative one resulting in some very hard raps for the thrifty and industrious Holland Americans who have done so much to advance the importance of the town commercially.

It has indeed been a tough season and all due to the heavy rains early in the season, just at the planting time, it is said. Now that the season is practically closed, the workers, (growers and shippers) are counting up the losses and find themselves hundreds of thousands of dollars shy at the close of the year's work.

QUIT-OLD INDUSTRY.

Convicts Will Stop Making Boxes at Jackson Prison.

Jackson, Jan. 16.—Some changes are being made in prison contracts, and one of the oldest state employments is to be abolished because competition makes it unprofitable. This is the manufacture of packing boxes, which has been a source of employment to a large number of convicts.

The table contract is now employing 100 convicts, and has yet attained its full maximum strength. New machinery is being installed, and a full complement of work will be turned out in a short time.

The Illinois Broom factory, and Hill Stone & Marble company contracts are in full operation. In each of these industries the secret of good work is said to be held out to convicts to make overtime, for which they are paid amounts ranging from 15 cents to 50 cents per day.

ALGER IN RACE
United States Senator Will Seek Another Term in Upper House
HIS HEALTH NOW GOOD
Congressman William Alden Smith Will Not Enter the Race But Will Support the Present Senator

Washington, January 15.—(Special.)—Senator Alger this afternoon made the announcement to The Detroit Free Press correspondent that he would be a candidate to succeed himself as United States senator from Michigan. For some time it has been generally known that he desired another term, but he decided that it was best to make a public announcement which would remove all doubt and place himself openly before the people of Michigan as a candidate.

Friends of the senator have for some time been urging him to make this announcement, but he has refrained from doing so upon the advice of his physicians. His own judgment, too, told him he should be fully convinced that his health has so greatly improved that there is no reason why the announcement should not be made.

Senator Alger talked with some of the house members after he had decided to make his announcement and he received their congratulations. Among them was William Alden Smith, who has been talked of as a candidate for some time. Mr. Smith told the senator that he was pleased to learn that he had decided to seek another term.

Later Representative Smith stated to The Free Press correspondent that he would not be a candidate as long as Senator Alger wished to succeed himself. Early in December, Representative Smith stated that he expected to enter the contest, but did not wish to do so formally at that time. He says that it was his understanding then that Senator Alger would not be a candidate.

The members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor, will give a candy social at the home of E. S. Roe, Saturday-night. Ladies are requested to bring boxes, and the men to bring their pocket books.

"He drove me to it, I could stand it no longer," cried the 18-year-old wife of Joseph Bannister, a farmer, two miles south of Almont, when the neighbors tried to save her Tuesday after she had swallowed three ounces of carbolic acid. She was married two years ago, when only 16 years of age, and leaves a baby about one year old. Bannister's first wife secured a divorce on the ground of neglect and cruelty. He is considerably older than the girl wife who ended her life. She was formerly Miss Maude Hickey.

The rapid recovery of Mrs. Ella Soules, of Battle Creek, who is alleged to have been shot by her husband, is a marvel. She is a frail, slender woman, and within twenty-four hours underwent the amputation of her leg and gave birth to a child. Her death was hourly expected, but to the surprise of everybody, she rallied and will recover. The biggest surprise, it is said, will come to Soules, when his wife is put upon the witness stand, as he has been making a great effort to convince people that his wife shot herself.

Robert McClellan of Forest, Ont., who was taken off the Grand Trunk express Tuesday night, at Battle Creek, having become insane upon the train, attempted suicide in a most desperate manner. He bit a piece of tin about two inches square out of the tin cup in his cell, and with it attempted to sever his jugular vein. Not succeeding, he took hold of the vein with his fingers and attempted to pull it apart. He gave that up and then battered his head against the iron bars until exhausted.

It is believed that William Smith of Hickory street, Owosso, who was kicked by a cow on Monday, is fatally injured. He was loading the animal into a wagon, intending to bring it to Owosso to sell. It launched out suddenly with a hind leg, and the hoof struck Smith fairly in the mouth with terrific force. Smith was knocked fifteen feet and alighted squarely on his head, concussion of the brain resulting.

Roslyn, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sykes, of Charlotte, was terribly burned and died Tuesday night. The mother left the child alone to go to the dentist's. On her return she found the child still alive, but dangerously burned. The wonderful presence of mind on the part of the little girl was shown by the fact that a small pail used as a plaything was partly filled with water, indicating that she had attempted to put out the flames.

R. L. Hubbard of Cheboygan, Mich., committed suicide Tuesday night by leaping from the third story of a private hospital at Buffalo. He was an epileptic and became violent while suffering from a severe attack.

M. L. CLUB

The M. L. Club met Jan. 15 with Mrs. Kent. After the usual opening exercises, a paper on the "Life and Works of Correggio" was read by Mrs. Geo. Howard. His masterpiece was described by Mrs. Knight. Miss Ella Hahn gave "The England of Shakespeare's Youth." Music, an instrumental solo by Miss Vera Fritz. She responded to an encore, with "I Love You," a whistling solo. Roll call, famous paintings and the artists. Reading, selected, Mrs. Dodd. The lesson in Shakespeare was led by Mrs. Phelps.

The club meets Jan. 22 with Mrs. Graham. Tuesday afternoon the club met at the Patrician Hall to view and study the Horace Turner exhibit of pictures and consider it an afternoon well spent.

Record readers get all the news, all the time.

A Pleasant Affair.

Occurred at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Howe, Monday Night.

Messrs. George Richards, Gus Stearns, Ben, Sig and Lou Desenberg, Jake Rough and Jesse Filmar entertained their lady friends in a most unique manner last Monday night.

The crowd of young people gathered at Desenberg's store at an appointed time and were escorted to the cloak department, where their wraps were removed. After removing the wraps, one of the gentlemen in the party informed them it was time to move, so accordingly all donned their wraps, and started out in the rain and mud, to Mrs. Crotser's, from her place to Batchelor's livery barn, back to Desenberg's store, where they once more removed their wraps.

Shortly after, the announcement was again made that it was time to move, so once more all put on their wraps and then proceeded to the Dr. J. A. Garland residence, through his premises, down the ally, and then through the back yard of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Howe's place, in the back door through the woodshed, down the steps into the sitting room, where they again removed their wraps. The order was again sounded, to don their wraps, but it was almost as quickly countermanded.

After the guests had rested a short time after their journey through the mud and rain, they were invited into the dining room that was made beautiful with decorations of palms and ferns, and also in one corner, a conspicuously looking barrel stood on a table, but to the disappointment of all, it was empty. The table was a picture of itself as it bore every evidence of a dutch lunch, such as sauer kraut, onions, limberger cheese, herring, pretzels, rye bread, etc all being served on wooden plates.

The guests were then invited to the two parlors, and shortly they were summoned to the dining room where the table was decorated with red carnations, and two candleabra's, bearing five red candles in each, which were placed at each end of the table. The guests were then served with oysters on the half shell, celery, salad, wafers, olives, etc after which they were again invited to the parlor and again returned to partake of a fish supper, when they again departed from the dining room.

The fourth and last time they were invited to the dining room, they were served with most tempting viands. The center of the table bore a large server laden with oranges, bananas, apples and California grapes, besides the fruit, two kinds of cake, fruit salad with whipped cream and coffee were much in evidence and all did ample justice to all.

They all departed at a late hour thanking Mr. and Mrs. Howe for their kindness and hospitality, and also thanking their gentlemen friends for the royal manner they were entertained.

"A Texas Steer"

The engagement of Tim Murphy at the Grand Opera House, Chicago, for the week beginning Sunday evening, January 21, is one of interest to those who remember the great success attained by all of the Hoyt comedies at that theatre a decade ago.

During the lifetime of Chas. H. Hoyt, when that master of comedy had the field almost to his own liking he presented many most original and interesting plays but none more so than "A Texas Steer," which jumped into immense popularity on its first presentation, (which by the way was given on the stage of the Grand Opera House just fifteen years ago last September,) through the notable portrayal of one of its principal characters by Tim Murphy. Supplying his story of "A Texas Steer" with a delightful atmosphere of prairie life, as well as a comedy review of political conditions at our National Capitol, Mr. Hoyt conceived as a central figure the Hon. Maverick Brander, ranch-owner of Texas, who, much against his own wishes, was elected and forced to take his seat in Congress to satisfy the ambitions of his family who desired to shine in Washington society. In this character of Brander Mr. Hoyt gave to the stage a type that has never been equaled for its originality, and as portrayed by Tim Murphy instantly made the success of the piece, and placed "A Texas Steer" so far above contemporary comedies of that time as to make it almost a classic in itself.

The production is equipped with all the requirements as to scenic embellishment and artistic costuming. Mr. Murphy has the assistance of Dorothy Sherrod in the part of "Bossy" and many other clever players.

HAND-PRESSED LEMON OIL.

Only Way of Extracting the Flavoring Matter from the Rind of the Fruit.

"This oil of lemon," said the spice merchant, "is an exquisite thing. It is hand-pressed—pressed by hand out of lemon rind. Smell it."

The odor of the clear oil, says our informant, suggested 'sunlit lemon groves miles in extent on a mountain side overlooking the blue sea.

"I'll tell you how the oil of lemon is extracted," he said. "A man sits with a sponge in one hand and a piece of fresh lemon peel in the other. He presses the peel against the sponge, giving it finally a certain difficult and dextrous twist, and this breaks the cells in the rind, and the oil—there's only a half drop of it—comes reluctantly out upon the sponge.

"When the sponge has taken up the dribblings of about a hundred rinds, it is wet enough to be squeezed out. An ounce or so of clear and fragrant oil then flows from it.

"There is no way to extract this oil within a lemon rind except by squeezing and twisting the rind by hand. It takes the rinds of about 1,200 lemons to make one pound of oil.

"Did you, by the way, ever watch a bartender hold a piece of lemon peel over a cocktail, and give the peel a sudden, quick twist? Well, he was then flavoring the cocktail with oil of lemon, though the quantity he extracted was so small as to be quite invisible.

"Imagine doing that bartender twist until you had collected a quart or so of this rare oil."

SCENTED LUBRICATING OIL.

Used for the Bearings of the Delicate Drills Employed by Dentists.

"No, we don't perfume axle grease, nor do we scent the oil used on the journals of freight cars" said the dealer, "but there is one lubricating oil that we do scent, and that is the fine oil used on dentists' drills.

"Such drills, tiny little drills of beautiful workmanship, are made nowadays for use in every possible position. There are drills that project from the shaft at a right angle, this being made possible by the daintiest little bevel gearing you ever saw, within the drill head. Others are set at an obtuse angle, and others, again, are set at an acute angle.

"With one or another of these various drills you can drill out a hole in any tooth in any direction, up or down or from the front or the back or the side, but, of course the little drills wouldn't run smoothly or nicely without lubrication, and you wouldn't want to put fish oil in a patient's mouth, already suffering enough, probably.

"So here is where scented lubricating oil is used, on dentists' drills—on the solid part, within the casing that constitutes the handle, attached to the end of the flexible shaft and on the dainty gearing at the head of the drill itself—fine oil that is scented with just a touch of attar of roses.

BOOKS WRITTEN IN PRISON

Some of the Most Famous Writers Did Their Best Work Behind Bars.

A publisher was talking about Oscar Wilde's strange book, "De Profundis," with its pathetic decoration of a bird beating its wings against the bars of a cell.

"Wilde's is not the first good book to have been written in jail," he said. "Jail, in fact, seems to be a good place to write books in. Literary men surpass themselves there.

"John Bunyan wrote 'Pilgrim's Progress' in jail.

"Cervantes wrote 'Don Quixote' in prison.

"Defoe laid the plans for 'Robinson Crusoe' during a term of confinement imposed on him for the writing of a pamphlet called 'The Shortest Way with the Dissenters.'

"Leigh Hunt wrote 'Rimini' in jail.

"Sir Walter Raleigh, during 'Eis 14 years' imprisonment in the tower of London, wrote his excellent 'History of the World.'

"Silvio Pellico and Tasso both did their best work in jail."

Sheep in Spain.
There are about 10,000,000 of migratory sheep in Spain, which each year travel some 200 miles from the plains to the mountains. Their march, resting places and behavior are governed by special regulations, dating from the fourteenth century. At certain times no one may travel the same route as the sheep, which have the right to graze on all open and common land on the way. For this purpose a road 90 yards wide must be left on all enclosed and private property. The shepherds lead their flocks, which are accompanied by provision mules, and by large dogs, to guard against a night attack by wolves.

Theater Banks.
New York is to have a bank, near the chief theaters, which will be open all night, so that ladies attending entertainments will be able to deposit their jewels for safe-keeping ere returning home.

Nearing Completion.

The Grading on the Side Track is all Finished

We are pleased to inform our readers that the new sidetrack that is being laid from the main tracks of the Michigan Central to the Cabinet Co's. old site is progressing rapidly, and it is thought at the expiration of a week the entire work will be accomplished.

At present writing the tracks have been laid as far as the stock yards, and the grading is comparatively finished. Already 12 freight cars have been backed in on the new siding.

In order to have a straight route from Chicago street to the factory, the course of the creek running along that line was changed, and the creek now runs across the back part of the Ray property.

The work of re-building the Cabinet Company's factory was started in earnest, yesterday morning, the contract having been let to Frank L. Hartsell, of Dowagiac. Mr Hartsell will push this work as fast as possible, and it is hoped that it will be in running order in a short period. The work on the foundation is expected to be started the latter part of next week.

Miss Goldie Paul of Glendora, and Mr. Wm. Kiley of Galien, came to our quiet little village last Wednesday evening, when they wended their way to the Evangelical parsonage, and at 8:30 o'clock were united in wedlock by the Rev. J. A. Halmhuber. The young and happy couple have the best wishes of their friends, who join the RECORD in extending congratulations

We wish to inform you all that the time has been extended on a number of our club offers. The time of the Chicago Tribune has been extended to February 1st; The Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean has been extended to February 15th, and the Chicago Daily Inter Ocean has been extended to March 1. Anyone desirous of obtaining any of these papers at the extremely low price we are offering, had better improve that opportunity for at the expiration of the time above mentioned this offer is closed.

The water was turned off in the city mains yesterday at about 10 o'clock owing to the fact that one of the mains near the power house was broken. The men working on the new sidetrack, near the bridge on Oak street, just south of Chicago street, let a heavy stone fall and burst the heavy pipe, so it was necessary to shut off the water in all mains until this could be repaired. The men worked yesterday afternoon in repairing the leakage, but did not finish the job, so it was necessary to again shut off the water this morning.

Lewis Walters, of Niles, who is employed on an extra gang on the new sidetrack had an epileptic fit on our streets this morning at about 8:30 o'clock and fell in front of Mr. Rouse's barber shop, striking on his head, causing him to have a badly bruised face, and a deep cut in his upper lip. He was knocked senseless by the force of his fall. Assistance was at once at hand, and the patient was removed to Dr. Curtis' office where he received medical attention. At first it was thought he had broken his skull but after a careful examination it was found such not the case. We are thankful to state he is getting along nicely, although a trifle weak. The gentleman in question is subject to these spells.

This Will Interest Every Resident of Buchanan

You can readily verify the following particulars, for the gentleman supplying them will be only too pleased to answer any inquiries by mail. If you suffer from disorder of the kidneys or bladder and desire to be cured, write him about Doan's Kidney Pills and learn that the following statement is true in every particular:

O. Stafford, of Niles, says: "Like a great many who follows my calling I was troubled with backache. I know it arose from some derangement of the kidneys, and happening to see Doan's Kidney Pills guaranteed to cure just such an annoyance as I had, I procured a box. They did me a great deal of good and I believe they are a reliable and worthy remedy. My kidneys gained in strength, had a more healthy action and my physical condition was better. Local Liquor Dealers Stands Pat Despite

EFFORTS OF HIS LAWYER

At Buchanan to Bluff Him Into Parting With His Coin—Another Letter Received

A local liquor dealer, against whom there are two suits pending, which were instituted by Attorney Sanders, of Buchanan, for Charles Diggins and one Best, who allege that the dealer sold their minor sons liquor, is in receipt of the following letter from Sanders:

Buchanan, Mich., Jan. 14, 1906.
Dear Sir:
Charles Diggins will commence suit by Thursday for sale of liquor to his son, Kern, on Sept. 8th, last, if the matter is not satisfactorily settled by that time.

Yours very respectfully,
F. R. Sanders,
Attorney for Diggins.

Despite the fact that the liquor dealer has the written statement of a young man who accompanied young Diggins to Niles on the night of Sept. 8 on which the alleged offense for which the dealer has been sued took place, to the effect that the youth was drunk before he left Buchanan, it is claimed he got his liquor here.

Other similar threats have been made, it is claimed, but the liquor dealer won't allow himself to be bluffed and will go into court and fight what he terms a game to 'hold him up.'—Niles Star.
