A Moonlight Festivity

Held by the Members of the
Auf Weider Sehen Dancing Club

The Auf Weider Sehen Dancing club participated in one of the grandest social affairs of the season at the Pears-East hall last night.

The hall was artistically draped in bunting and other beautiful decorations. Jack o lanterns painted to represent the moon were much in evidence in all parts of the hall.

The lights of blue and red added much to the originality of the scene, and caused a semi-darkness.

About fifty or sixty couples were in attendance and danced the light fantastic to the music played by Charles Fisher and his World's Fair orchestra of Kalamazoo.

A large crowd was present from Niles, South Bend, Three Oaks and Dowagiac.

A most delightful evening was enjoyed by all in attendance.

A GRAND SUCCESS

The Peerless Minstrel Last
Friday Night Was Well Attended

PLAYED TO A FULL HOUSE

The Production Was Greatly Enjoyed by all Who Were Present

The Peerless Minstrel Co., that has been so long looked for by the theatre goers of this village, appeared before a large audience last Friday evening and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

The opening scene was the black faced minstrels in a circle, dressed in black dress suits and white ties, while the six end men were attired in white duck suits, blue shirts and black neck ties. In the rear, the orchestra was stationed on a small platform, being dressed in the land uniforms.

The jokes sprung by the end men were all new and caused the greatest amusement. The various solos were thoroughly enjoyed and each one received repeated encores. The minstrels received beautiful bouquets from their friends, showing their appreciations.

The second part consisted of a monologue act by Mr. Woodworth, fifteen minutes of magic by Mr. Henderson, Frank Cooper in his buck and wing dancing and Mr. Hanlin in his original hoosier monologue.

The above were greatly enjoyed and Mr. Hanlin, who made his first appearance on the stage in Buchanan was greeted with a very enthusiastic audience, who more than appreciated the originality of his acting. Mr. Woodworth in his monologue act was attired in a costume, that showed his originality, and his songs and jokes were new and original.

Mr. Henderson, who has had a great deal of experience in slight of hand performing, did a number of wonderful tricks that bespeaks highly of his ability in this art.

The buck and wing dancing by Mr. Cooper was great, and received a repeated encore. He is indeed an artist in this line. All in the second part received the heartiest applause.

The last scene of this evening's entertainment closed with a laughable farce entitled, "The Mystery of Moccasin Bluff or Dashed to Death on the Pere Marquette" and was one of great delight to all. The scene was carried out by three individuals, Messrs. Hanlin, Weldon and Diggins. The plot was thrilling as well as laughable. Mr. Hanlin, who is not new to the stage, took the part of the villain and as a usual thing expired on the stage having been shot by the hero, Mr. Weldon.

Mr. Weldon did the heroic act to perfection in his saving the life of Miss Lillian Russell, nee Diggins. It being impossible for him to rescue Miss Russell before being run over by the fast approaching train on the Pere Marquette, he heroically grappled with the Engine, (No. 13) and held the train from moving onward until Lillian released herself and thus happily ending the "Mystery of Moccasin Bluff."

The company went to New Carlisle the following evening and played to a well filled house, and received continual applause to each and every act. After the play they received the hearty congratulations of all. The boys are highly elated over their success and are pleased to state that they came out on top in the financial part.

BETTER NO SALES THAN A DISAPPOINTED CUSTOMER.

It is a satisfaction to know that we have won the leadership in the clothing business in South Bend, but we realize the large responsibility that is put upon us.

At no other clothing store in this vicinity are you so sure of correct styles and right prices in wearing apparel. Take New York, Chicago or Indianapolis. There is always one store that leads in its line. Look about South Bend. Just this one big store is absolute authority on Men's and Boy's clothing.

We never sell a garment that is not up to the Spiro standard. That will not add to the good name of this store. We'd better throw out the back door, a hundred suits, if they were of a bad style or unreliable materials, than to sell them even at a profit.

People don't forget. Neither do they fail to appreciate right treatment and an honest endeavor to give satisfaction. You can always depend upon what you buy here. Our word is back of it.

Remember, please that we always reduce stock at this time of year. It is good business to do it—and get ready for the next season. Clearances big reductions—ends of good lines, are now to be found all through the store. The loss is ours—the saving yours—and they are well worth looking into.

"The man who occupies Gen. Grosvenor's seat" may be inquired for by visitors to the next Congress.

Admitting it to be true that China is awake, Empress An ought to be willing to thank Uncle Sam for pinching her.

A New York paper contends that forty stories ought to be the skyscraper limit. The allowance somehow keeps on crawling up.

It is suggested that only the one-man power can build the Panama canal, but Uncle Sam has accomplished considerable on another system during his career.

Last year's tobacco crop in the United States was 638,000,000 pounds worth at the farm $53,000,000. It is said that weeds are plants misunderstood, but tobacco has been interpreted to some purpose.

Senator Tillman was one of the four members who voted against the pure food bill. The South Carolinian has enjoyed himself so long in a minority that a majority must seem to him like a bucking broncho.

NOTICE

At the election to be held on the first Monday in April, 1906, the question of calling and holding a convention, for the purpose of making a general revision of the Constitution of this State, will be submitted to the qualified electors.

The ballots upon which this question will be submitted will be separate and distinct from all other ballots used at this election.

If a majority of the qualified electors, voting at such election, shall decide in favor of calling a convention for the purpose of revising the Constitution, it will become the duty of the legislature at the next session to provide by law for the election of delegates to such convention, whose duty it will be to prepare a general revision of the Constitution, which shall be submitted to the qualified electors at some future time for adoption or rejection.

STORY OF UNION PACIFIC.

Building of the First Trans-Continental Railroad in This Country.

In Harper's Magazine, Frank H. Spearman, the well-known railroad authority, tells the dramatic story of the building of the Union Pacific railroad. His description of the completion of the enterprise and the attendant ceremonies is most interesting:

"Surely no such story is written anywhere on the records of our railroads," says Mr. Spearman. "The days when Dodge ran the line, Jake Casement laid the rail, Leland Stanford drove the spike and Bret Harte supplied the poem can never return. Literature and the railroad had not become wholly divorced when the California poet wrote: 'What the Engines Said.' From the stage of theaters and on the first pages of newspapers particular announcement was made of the celebration to come on the next day. The rejoicing in San Francisco reached the extravagance of a kermess. In the bay the shipping was bright with bunting, and between gayly decorated buildings processions of jubilant citizens marched all day. What matters it that we know now the electric current suffered a stage fright and the ring of the sledge on the last spike could not be made to repeat beyond Omaha? Is it not enough that the chief operator was equal to the occasion and drove the heavy blows in dignified clicks at the telegraph office on the Missouri river? What is of consequence is the way in which the clicks were received—the blows repeated at San Francisco on the great bell of the city hall, and cannon booming with the last stroke off Fort Point; and on Capitol Hill in Omaha a hundred guns following the explosion of bombs and the screaming of steam whistles. Capitalists, prominent citizens, volunteer firemen and horse-shoers could still walk happily in one tiresome procession when the last Pacific railroad spike was driven. Grant took the news in the white house, Chicago turned out a parade four miles long, New York was saluting the Pacific coast with salvos of artillery and Trinity chimes were ringing 'Old Hundred', and Trinity voices were chanting Te Deum when the earliest transcontinental line was finished; and in Philadelphia the old bell was ringing in Independence hall. For American railroading surely those were the golden days."

SALARIES OF MAYORS HIGH

Executive of Gotham Draws $15,000
Per Annum While Dallas Official Gets $1,000.

The standard of salaries of mayors of American cities is generally high compared with the pay of members of congress, members of the various state legislatures and of the cabinet and of state officers generally.

The mayor of New York receives $15,000, $5,000 more than the governor. The salary of the mayor of Philadelphia is $12,000, $2,000 more than is paid the governor of Pennsylvania.

The salary of the mayor of Boston is $10,000, $2,000 more than is paid the governor of Massachusetts. The mayor of San Francisco receives $8,000, the amount paid the governor of California.

Denver pays its mayor $5,000, while Colorado pays its governor the same amount. St. Louis pays its mayor $5,000, the same salary paid the governor of Missouri. The salary of the mayor of Chicago is $10,000; the governor of Illinois is paid $6,000.

New Orleans pays its mayor $6,000 a year. Cincinnati and Cleveland have the same rate of pay. Allegheny City pays $7,500, and Baltimore the same. The mayors of Louisville, Jersey City, Buffalo, Providence, Newark and Detroit receive $5,000 a year each.

The mayor of New Haven receives $3,500, and the mayor of Worcester, Mass., $2,500; the mayor of Minneapolis, $2,000; the mayor of Binghamton, $1,500, and the mayor of Dallas, $1,000.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, itching of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, diseased stomach, and a general degeneration of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogey" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Patents. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleaned and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Thrilling Experience

Cousin of Mrs. J. C. Beach, of This Place is Principal in Exciting Contest

Mrs. J. C. Beach is the recipient of a newspaper clipping that has the following thrilling account of an experience of her cousin, Otis Marsh, of Edenville, that he recently engaged in with a big black bear:

"While Mr. Beurmann and Otis Marsh were running out and looking over a tract of land to ascertain the value of land and timber, they ran across a bear's den occupied by a very large black bear. As Mr. Beurmann had no arms except a small revolver and Mr. Marsh only a small blazing hatchet to mark lines with; they hardly knew what to do about tackling it, but they could not endure the idea of going off and leaving it, seeing it was such a cold day and cold country, and the bear had such a beautiful coat and robe that they needed so much in that cold country. They finally concluded they would tackle it anyway, let it cost what it would. So they prepared for battle. The man with the gun was to try first, and if he didn't succeed in killing it, then Marsh was to go for it with the hatchet, so they squared themselves to do battle.

"Mr. Beurmann thinking he did not wish to injure the hid by shooting it in the body, concluded to break its neck, so fired, but on account of his nervous condition he only gave it a flesh wound, but enough to make the bear think it time to get out of there, and she did in a hurry. Seeing she was not hurt much, and they were going to lose their robe, both took after post haste. They were both very strong, quick active men, and it was a race for life and death. Through the cedar swamps, tangled underbrush, over logs and down timber, back and forth like a tornado, limbs and brush smashing, and flying in every direction, clothes and hide a-tearing. As the men were about to get ahead, the bear would change its course, and they close after it, until finally Mr. Marsh being the faster runner, jumped in just ahead of the bear.

"As a man jumps in ahead of a bear, thereby cutting off his retreat, it serves to turn all its fear to vicious anger, and its sole purpose and determination is the destruction of its adversary as quickly and as completely as possible, and a man who takes this position, takes his life in his own hands, against a mighty and terrible foe, with ten or twenty times the strength of any man and vitality equal to its strength.

"It is the invariable habit of a bear in attacking a man, to rear up on its hind feet to make the attack, and a large bear will tower two feet above the largest men, and the idea of a man only armed with a small hatchet giving battle to such a formidable foe, seems preposterous, but some men have no fear. If the bear succeeds in landing, the first blow it is all over with the man. Not so with the man, he may make twenty blows, and if he don't hit the vital spot, it only enrages his antagonist, even if he sinks the blade of his axe to the handle in the bear's body each stroke. Marsh knowing this, and knowing also that his only chance of life was to get the first blow, besure to drive his axe in the bear's brain or on the nose. The first would kill dead, and the second would daze him to such an extent that he could dispatch him at his leisure. The bear make the assault with glaring eyes, open mouth snorting and froth flying. Marsh stood firm, nerves strained to the utmost tension, with muscles lightened, and hatchet poised ready to strike the fatal blow as soon as the bear was near enough to make it sure. The crash came, the blow was struck and with such precision and force, that he almost made two bear heads out of one, taking it square between the eyes. The bear fell quivering to the ground.

"Mr. Marsh secured the skin and started home. As the bear's den was between where they were and Newberry, they concluded to go that way, and when they got to it they found two cubs about two weeks old, which they put in their pockets and took home with them and which they are now raising on a bottle in Newberry."

T. H. Mugford, of Detroit is lying in a critical condition at Milbrook. His worst injury is a four-inch fracture of the skull. Mr. Mugford met C. A. Sawkins, of St. Louis Big Rapids, both being agents of Grinnell Bros. Together they went to Milbrook and engaged a horse and buggy to visit the country to pursue their work. Before leaving the village the horse became frightened at a load of furniture. Both men were thrown out. Sawkins was not seriously hurt, but Mugford sustained three bad cuts on the head and the fracture heretofore referred to.

George Mack, of Cheboygan, was shot and badly wounded Thursday night by Cal. Wallanger. Mack called to see Wallanger's wife, supposing Wallanger to be away. The latter opened fire on him with a rifle Mack had been arrested and fined a few days before, for hanging around the Wallanger home.

Richard Sommes, of Hancock street, Port Huron, plunged into the icy waters of St. Clair river at the rapids and rescued Johnny McDonald from drowning Friday. McDonald was standing on a thin ledge of ice, dipping herring out with a scoop net, when the ice broke underneath him. Sommes was standing near and made a quick plunge, but nearly lost his life in the heroic effort. Though only 18 years old, Sommes has saved the lives of two young boys.

A very unusual thing for this time of the year was the destruction by lightning of the barn of Alphonse Farrer, of Olive township, St. Johns, Friday. The barn was torn to pieces by the bolt and several head of cattle killed. The only thing which caught fire was a buggy top, but strangely enough, this burned out without setting fire to a nearby haynow or any of the debris.

Burglars entered the general store of Robert Shankland at Dixboro during Friday night, dynamited the safe and stole $100, but missed $28, which was found in the wreckage in the morning. The safe was blown to bits. There is no clue to the robbers. At times Mr. Shankland has as much as $2,000 in the safe, as he is also one of the owners of the Dixboro creamery. It is thought the burglars were aware of this and figured on making a big haul.

Mrs. Harry Parkhurst, of Grand Rapids, with her four children, all less than 5 years old, was forced out in a driving sleet storm by fire in the house Thursday night. All had narrow escapes from suffocation before they could get into their clothes and out of the house. The children were all asleep and had to be awakened. The damage to the house is $400.

GEORGE DECKER, Prop.

International Theatre, Chicago.

The business done at the International Theatre since W. S. Cleveland assumed charge, has broken all records among Chicago theatres. The return to "greater vaudeville" which made the International famous during the time Mr. Cleveland had it, has brought the Manager's friends and patrons back, as well as thousands of new ones, and he house has become firmly established as the most popular Vaudeville Theatre in the city.

Mr. Cleveland has secured at a great expense, "Le Domino Rouge", "the girl in the red domino", and she will not be seen elsewhere in America before she returns to Paris. Her production, together with her retinue of servants, supporting cast, scenery, mirrors, etc., requires to transport two sixty-foot baggage cars, a dining cafe car, her carmine red compartment palace car, and one sleeper. They will leave New York March 1st, coming direct to Chicago, by special train for her engagement at the International the week of March 5th. Le Domino Rouge was the reigning sensation of Paris, and the amusement event of the year in New York, where she appeared all last Spring, Summer and early Fall. She is a wonderful dancer, and the mystery surrounding her identity is made complete by the fact that she always wears a red mask both on the stage before her "mystic mirrors" and on the street as well. On the same bill will be seen the eight English Shetlands, the remarkably artistic troupe of dancers. May Ward, known as the sprightliest girl in Vaudeville.

Weedon's Lions from the Cirque De Hiver, Paris, in startling tricks; The Garnellas, eccentric comedy acrobats and Madame Oterio Mexican Operatic Prima Donna; Maggie Cline in new repertoire; Bertha Allison, and the six musical Cutties, have been reengaged for the present week. The Bi-optiscope with new motion pictures completes a wonderful bill.

Delinquent Taxes Small

St. Joseph, March 3.—There were mailed out yesterday 210 notices of properties delinquent for taxes of 1903 and subject to sale at the May tax sale. So far Mr. Schultz has succeeded in securing 90 per cent of the addresses of owners of lands marked as delinquent.

The county treasurer's office is a very busy place at the present time, County Treasurer Schultz and his assistant, Miss Edith Storms, are busy checking up with the treasurers of townships, cities and villages and settling up delinquent taxes for the quarter ending Dec 31, 1905. Collections for this quarter have been exceptionally light, being the lowest of the entire year.

MUST PAY TWICE

Niles Citizens Aroused Because Transfers are Refused by Interurban

TERMS ARE MISCONSTRUED

Residents of Third City Want the Same Privileges That are Accorded by Street Railways in Twin Cities and Other Towns

The city council of Niles will have the question of transfers from the street railway to battle with in the near future unless the interurban line changes its tactics. The matter has never been discussed officially as yet, but it was the presumption when the company was granted a franchise to use the streets of Niles that passengers would be carried from one end of the city to the other upon the payment of a single fare. The cars do not at present run through the city, but it is necessary to transfer at the corner of Main and Second streets, and every passenger who changes cars here must pay another fare.

City officials construed the franchise granted the company relating to this point to mean that 5 cents would entitle one to ride the entire length of the city limits, the same as is done in South Bend, Benton Harbor, St. Joseph and other cities, but they seem to be mistaken. If the franchise reads as the railway men claim a new situation has arisen which must be studied carefully.

After the road is completed through to St. Joseph and cars make a continuous passage through the city of Niles then it is plain the company cannot refuse to carry passengers within the city limits for only one fare, and city officials cannot see why their should be any difference now, except that the company may not have provided transfer tickets.

Bought Big Ranch

The Record office is in receipt of a Grand Encampment Herald from Encampment Wyoming, which has the following article concerning one of Buchanan's former highly respected citizens:

"A. W. Roe and Alex McKay have purchased the Wm. Collins ranch on Beaver creek and will take possession in a few days. Mr. Roe has resigned his position in the Encampment Mercantile Co. store and will move his family out to the ranch within a couple of weeks and Mr. McKay will follow early in the spring. It is understood that the former owner, Mr. Collins, intends to go east for the present. The Collins ranch is considered to be one of the most valuable pieces of ranch property in the valley, it being well watered, nicely located and very productive soil."
