WILL CLOSE FOR FAIR

Thursday Will Be Benton Harbor Day—Friday For Home Comers

Thursday, October 4th, the third day of the Southwestern Michigan State fair, will be observed as Benton Harbor day, when the largest crowd will be in attendance. The business men of the city have taken up the question of closing their stores in the afternoon Tuesday night the business men's association will hold a meeting, at which time the subject will be discussed, and it is more than likely that every business

HON. EDWARD L. HAMILTON

house will be closed in the afternoon.
A number of the largest merchants have declared their willingness to do everything in their power for the success of the fair and to make Thursday the banner day. It is the hope of the managers of the exhibition that every citizen of the twin cities will take especial interest in the fair on this day and make the attendance as large as possible.

President O. B. Hipp Monday a. m. received a telephone message from Congressman E. L. Hamilton stating that he was making his plans to be at the fair on Friday, Oct. 5, which will be the special day for the "Home Comers." Not until Monday would the congressman give the fair association any assurance that he could attend.

Wednesday, children's day; Thursday, Benton Harbor day; and Friday "Home Comers" day, will be the three best days of the fair. On Wednesday the schools of the county will be closed and the pupils will attend the fair in company with their teachers.

Monday morning word was received from the general passenger agent of the Pere Marquette railway that they would extend the distance from Benton Harbor on which they will sell excursion tickets for the fair. The limit was placed at 50 miles, but this road has decided that they will make one fare rate from Holland and Grand Rapids on the north and as far south as Michigan City. From all the intervening points on this road and from all points on the Buchanan division low rates will be made and every train will bring big crowds to the big fair.

Curtis A. Pearl has been appointed and has accepted the position of superintendent of buildings and grounds at the fair. He is an ideal man for the place and the association secured him only after a great effort.

The tents to be used on the grounds was shipped from Madison, Wis., Tuesday morning with tracer attached.

Excursion

The M. C. R. R. Co. will sell round ber 9 and 10, limited to return Octo-

WILL TRY TO PROVE ALIBI

Sheriff opens Examination of Fair Prisoner but Fails to Get Any Disclosures
From Her

Relatives of William Smith, who within a few days may be formally charged with the murder of Lloyd A.
Dynes, the Galien telegraph operator, have come to his rescue.

Richard Doehrer, cousin of the accused man, with whom he boarded in Galien, declares that Smith was at home the night of the murder.

Other members of the family substantiate Mr. Doehrer's statement but Sheriff Tennant declares that the proof of the alibi is weak. The authorities anticipating such a move on the part of the defense strengthened their position before the arrests were made by getting evidence of the actions of Smith the early part of the evening, preceding the midnight attack on the operator.

It is true that Smith was at home in the evening but the Doehrer family, the officers say, can only give testimony of his whereabouts up to 10 o'clock. Smith departing from his usual custom returned home very early that night. He chatted a few minutes with members of the family and then threw himself on the lounge in the sitting room, with his clothes on and was apparently sleeping when the rest of the family retired for the night. Sheriff Tennant does not think that any member of the family will testify that they heard Smith arise and go to his bedroom that night. It is the theory of the detectives that if Smith shot Dynes, it was planned hours before the crime was committed and the fact that the Doe-her family say that he was resting on the lounge when they retired is a strong point in their theory. It was a part of Smith's plan to lie on the lounge apparently asleep until the family had retired and then quietly leave the house on his mission.

The Doehrer family declare that the young man often took naps on the lounge in the evening.

Corda Swank is an enigma to the officers. They cannot analyze her emotions, they cannot fathom her moods, they cannot penetrate her indifference.

Mrs. Swank was brought from her cell last night and in the presence of Sheriff Tennant and two deputies a searching examination was commenced. At the close of an hour's talk the woman had completely baffled the officers and was returned to her cell to await the second and more severe quiz.

The woman is most versatile. She can sob one minute, laugh the next and in quick succession get angry be-jolly and serious. Part of the time she seems to be in a trance unmindful that there is any charge being over her head, at other times she seems to be deliberately planning to throw the officers off the track.

SHOT DAUGHTER TO AVOID DISGRACE

Girl Agreed That It Was Better to Die

Powder Springs, Ga., Sept 25.— Discovering that his 16-year-old daughter, Ruth, was to become a mother, John Bullard, a well-to-do planter, shot the girl to death. He fired six shots, three bullets entering her head, the other three taking effect in her body. Bullard immediately went to his brother and told him what he had done.

"Ruth is better dead than living with such shame coming to her," said Bullard. "When she told me, I decided there was nothing to do but kill her, and she agreed with me." Bullard is a widower and the girl was his only child. Bullard himself is in the last stage of consumption.

PAYNE IS GUILTY

Negro Convicted of Murder in Second Degree by Jury

Thomas Payne, negro, was found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury in the circuit court early Tuesday afternoon.

The verdict was returned after deliberations lasting but a few minutes.
The prisoner was remanded to the county jail to await his sentence. He received the finding of the jury without a sign of emotion.

Payne, following a quarrel, shot Henry Walker, another negro, on the Handy farm in Sodus township several weeks ago. He was captured at Decatur, Ill.

The trial opened Monday afternoon. Prosecuting Attorney White conducted the case for The People and Harry Plummer defended Payne.

The defense made an effort to show that Walker did not die as the result of wounds made by the bullets but rather from improper medical treatment.

A portion of Walker's lung was torn away by the bullet of 38 caliber.
The wound healed and he lived for a month. Dr. W. C. Bastar, as witness for the defense testified that in his opinion the attending physicians should have detected the formation of pus on the lungs and drawn it. Even then, he admitted, there was but an even chance the victim would have recovered.

It was brought out that Walker did not bear a good reputation and that he was quarrelsome but all the witnesses to the crime declared that Payne did not shoot Walker in self defense.

Payne fled after the killing and when he was located by Sheriff Tennant was serving time in the county jail at Decatur, Ill. Some difficulty was experienced in securing extradition papers for him.

Thomas Payne, convicted Tuesday of the murder of Henry Walker, was sentenced Wednesday morning by Judge Coolidge from 15 to 30 years in the state prison at Jackson, with recommendation of 25 years.

The prisoner took his sentence without saying a word. To all the questions put to him by the court he shook his head and when the sentence was pronounced turned and walked unconcernedly from the court room with the office. He will be taken to Jackson within a few days.

SANDBURR IN THROAT

Taken Into Windpipe While Eating an Apple and is Firmly Lodged

Claude Kaser, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carolus T. Kaser, 317 East Milton street, South Bend, while eating an apple last Tuesday, swallowed a sandburr. On returning home from the Studebaker school, which he attends, the lad at first said nothing of what had occurred and gave it little attention. Irritation then set in and a physician was consulted.

The boy's efforts to swallow the sandburr forced it into the vocal cords and although Dr. W. A. Hager has succeeded in locating the obstruction it is lodged so firmly that there is danger of forever destroying the power of speech in its removal. The lad was taken to Epworth hospital where every effort is being made to relieve his intense suffering.

ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

Mrs. H. R. Adams Was Hostess to About 55 Guests
Last Evening

Last evening the spacious home of Mrs. H. R. Adams was the scene of a happy occasion, as she entertained about fifty-five of her lady friends.

The house was decorated throughout with asters, and the large hall was enclosed in potted plants. In the midst of these potted plants, Mrs.
F. Poyser's mandolin club were seated, and furnished music during the luncheon hour from 6:30 to 7:30.

After luncheon, which was served by Misses Grace Mutchler, Edna Kean Master George Adams and Mrs.
Adams, the tables were cleared, and the remainder of the evening was passed in playing progressive pedro.
The honors were, a sterling silver coffee spoon for first prize, being carried away by Mrs. C. D. Kent, and the second prize, a sterling silver chocolate spoon, was taken care of by Mrs. Sig Desenberg.

The evening was a grand success and as the guests departed, they one and all thanked Mrs. Adams for the happy evening, and the royal manner in which they were entertained.

Concerning Fall Clothing

We have sold a lot of fall clothes already. That is proof that there are men who come to our store right at the start of every season because they know what we tell them about right styles, good materials and correct patterns, can be depended upon.

We were the first store in South Bend to talk clothing for the new season. We were so well cleaned up on all our summer stocks we had to begin talking about fall goods—our summer suits were all gone. Another proof that patrons like our clothing.

This coming season, the standard of quality in Spiro clothing will be moved up a peg—it will be as near perfection as all these years of experience and high ideals can bring it. One hundred per cent wool, best of workmanship, best of style. New fall suits in dark tones of mixed Cheviots, Velours and Worsted.

CORRESPONDENCE

GLENDORA

Mrs. A. C. Bartlett, of Dayton, and Mrs. Geo. D. Baker, of Chicago, visited the Walter Best family Tuesday and Wednesday.

The house of Henry Kempton is fast nearing completion.

The farmers are busy cutting corn and hauling off peaches.

The Hills Corners school has a present enrollment of thirty-three. This week ends the first month of the work with Walter S. Best, teacher.

Many are planning to attend the state fair.

GRANGE HALL

Sept. 30 is the day set apart by this state for decorating and caring for the rural cities of our dead. Let those in this community carry flowers and evergreen to the Burke and Storick cemeteries. Four o'clock p. m. would be a convenient hour for many to go. Let us fall in line and beautify these resting places of our departed friends and citizens. We owe them much we can never pay, but can keep alive their memory.

The first quarterly meeting for this charge will be held at Berrien Springs next Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Rogers of near Chicago, is visiting her brother, Thomas J. Crandall, and her sisters Mesdames F. R. Gray and O. M. Taber.

Mrs. Elizabeth Churchill, of Buchanan, visited her sister Mrs. Louisa Harner, last week.

Mesdames Edith Schell and Augusta Clark visited South Bend and Mishawaka last week.

D. A. Crane's entertained a party of fishermen from St. Joe and Niles last week. It was a poor week for fish, but a few small ones were taken.

Mrs. Stephen Harner is on the sick list.

The annual Helmick reunion was held Saturday at the Grange Hall. Five deaths were reported.

Superintendent Jennings visited Burke school last Monday.

Cornelius Voorhees has sold his place to a Mr. Brant, of Chicago who will take possession in October.

Mesdames S. M. Taber and A. Potter are visiting Mrs. Wm. McCracken St. Joe.

Most of the wheat is sown and corn is cut.

Mrs. Ambrose Helmick died at her home near Hinchman, Tuesday night. She never recovered from the shock of her children's death. Her funeral was held Thursday afternoon.

Miss M. L. Mills, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, is suffering from a severe siege of diphtheria.

BROCEUS SCHOOL DIST.

The society of the Brethren church will hold their annual communion meeting at the church by the Wagner School house, Saturday evening, Sept. 29.

Clover seed, hulling and sowing wheat is the order of the day in the country.

Mrs. Mary Beckwith has returned from Idaho, where she has been visiting her son. She was accompanied on her return by her daughter-in-law who will make an extended visit in this place.

For Fall Hats

Both very large and very small hats will be worn this fall and winter. The favorite trimming will be ostrich plumes. Among the novelty ostrich feathers is the long, wavy ostrich plume with a drooping shaded tip. Then there is the ostrich plume having the one side in a curled boa effect while the other side is uncurled. Ostrich pompons are also fashionable, and many paradise feathers, ospreys, and stiff and sweeping aigrettes will be used. For very smart tailored hats large wings, tinted in every imaginable hue will be fashionable, laid flat on the brim of the hat, or spread out over the sides, and the crown. French quills, marabout and pheasants' breasts are all among the favorite trimmings.

The fashionable millinery colors are bronze brown, and cinnamon brown, a new soft peacock blue, empire and platache green, terra-cotta, and all the tones of red, such as cherry, ruby and claret. The hat to match the gown in color is the most fashionable hat of the season, with the exception of the all black hat, which is the style leader for all occasions.

Ribbons will be much used on the autumn hats. The exquisitely shaded pompadore ribbons will be fashionable, and taffeta and soft satins in plain colorings. Dark shades will be used in preference to the very bright colors. In selecting the ribbon to trim a hat use one or two tones lighter than the color of the hat. Velvet ribbons in all widths and in all colors will be extensively used for small bows and rosettes for bandeau trimmings.

The French hats show many flowers charmingly combined with tulle, velvet and ostrich. Many of the small hats suitable for evening wear consist of little roses with tiny buds and foliage artistically arranged in among a ruffling of tulle and lace. An aigrette may be the finishing touch at the side. Forget-me-nots in velvet shading from a light blue to a pale lavender are used in forming wreaths for trimming, with knots of velvet ribbon around the crown for small hats.

Fruit continues in vogue for hat trimmings. Cherries in many shades of red and green are liked, and grapes are particularly fashionable. Colored grapes are now used more than black. Many of the autumn hats show the draped crown—Madame Cullinane in Woman's Home Companion for Oct.

State Items

Mrs. Fred Hunt, nee Miss Mary C. Mauren, a stenographer for the Curtis Advertising Co., of Detroit, has lost confidence in girl chums. She told one with much secrecy that she was married Monday. When she returned to work on Tuesday, a card bearing the inscription, "It's no secret" stood out conspicuously amidst a huge pile of old shoes and clothes on the top of her desk. When she sat down to weep at being betrayed, a tornado of rice checked the outburst. She was soon coaxed into an amicable mood by the congratulations of her fellow workers.

The fire underground in the North Kearsarge branch of the Osceola mine at Calumet, is still raging. All shafts have been closed over at the surface, in order to cut off the air. The burning property is the most important producer of the Osceola company. It was shipping 1,500 tons of rock daily, and 800 men are made idle by the fire.

A circuit court jury, at Jackson, Tuesday awarded Stewart Wheaton, a former employe of the Wagner Lake Ice & Coal Co., of Sandusky, damages of $1,500 for the loss of an eye. Wheaton was cutting ice at Norvelt in January, 1905, when the tongs which were being used slipped and gouged out his eye. He sued for $10,000 damages, alleging that the tongs furnished by the company were defective. The case has been on trial for two days and has been stubbornly contested. The Wagner company will appeal.

Mrs. Fannie Bookes, of Charleston township, near Kalamazoo, objected to telephone poles being set on her property, and backed up her objections with a shotgun. The telephone gang of thirty men backed down and proceeded with their work further along the line. This was Saturday, and the telephone poles yet remain to be set, Mrs. Bookes still standing on her shotgun argument.

Willie Borgeau, Adolph Knorr and George Tobin, of Bay City, all between 12 and 14 years old, left Tuesday for Ann Arbor, where they will be treated for hydrophobia at the Pasteur institute. Four boys were last week bitten and scratched by a cat, and word was received from Ann Arbor, where the head and spine of the animal was sent, that the feline had a well developed case of rabies.

Cook Brothers' brass foundry, at Traverse City, was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. The loss is $4,000; insurance, $1,250. It will be rebuilt as soon as possible. The cupola was full of melted iron and the water in the boiler was very low making the fire an extremely hazardous one to fight. Luckily neither

WOUNDY HAS BEEN ACQUITTED

After Hours of Deliberation Jury Frees Him
Shortly before 2:30 yesterday p. m. the jury in the case of The People vs. John Woundy, charged with assault with intent to kill less than the crime of murder, filed into the circuit court room and announced their verdict of not guilty.
Woundy's acquittal was looked for by those who have followed the case. He shot Fred Sieman, a Bridgman farmer, when the latter refused to move when he was warned to leave the circus grounds. The testimony introduced by the prosecution was not damaging, while Woundy's witnesses all gave evidence to show that he was not the aggressor in the row. Woundy was defended by Attorney James O'Hara and the legal representative of Van's dog and pony show.
The Record has the largest circulation and is the best advertising medium in the county.

The means adopted to pacify Cuba will include nothing under the name of a trocha.

Gen. Funston is expected in Cuba. Now will those excitable persons with machetes be reasonable?

Secretary Taft may be all right as a peacemaker, but he will be slow to enter the lists as a peacemaker.

One of the troubles of the Cuban insurgents is that their demands grow more unintelligible every time they try to explain them.

Australian horses are being shipped to the Philippines and Kansas ponies are in demand in Cuba. The Missouri mule has a foothold everywhere.

This must be a very bad year for oratory. It is claimed that all of the spellbinders are hurting the particular party or cause for which they spellbind.

Texas is struggling with the question of how far a favorite son may be permitted to draw the line between serving a trust as a lawyer and representing a state as a senator.

Why isn't there something done toward the building of a walk in front of the Cabinet Co's., building is the question that arises before the citizens in general? We have been informed that plans have been made and O. K'ed, but still everything remains in the same old way. Why don't the proper authorities wake up, and get this attended to, before the freezing weather comes on, and makes it impossible for the cement to dry. Wake up and get busy. Now is the time, not tomorrow.

A Michigan exchange presents the following as a warning to other of its subscribers: Terrible disasters have recently happened to three of our delinquent subscribers. One of them said, "I will pay you Saturday night, if I live." He's dead, now. Another said, "See you tomorrow." He's blind. Still another said, "I hope to pay this week or go to hades." He's gone.

Wednesday afternoon Justice Braeflin married at his office Joseph I. York and Sue Smith. Both parties reside in Buchanan, and the bride was a blushing lady of sixty-six, while the groom was fifty-seven years of age. They left the Justice's office happy.—St. Joseph Press.

Exciting Novel by Oppenheim

Novel readers everywhere will be glad to have a tip on the brilliant new romance, "The Great Secret," by E. Phillips Oppenheim, author of "A Prince of Sinners," "The Mysterious Mr. Sabin" and other noted books. It is one of the most fascinating tales of mystery and action in recent fiction. If you read the first page you simply can't get away from the magic spell of the story till the mystery is solved in the last chapter.

Suppose you were quietly undressing in your room at a London hotel when suddenly a terrified man rushed in, locked your door, and told you that the men outside were going to kill him. Suppose you liked the man's looks, so that your fighting blood was up to defend him. What would you do when his enemies burst in your door and tried to drag him off without law or warrant? And suppose the man possessed some momentous secret which made him the victim of an international conspiracy and that a beautiful American girl seemed to be one of the conspirators. Interesting, is it not? Well, that is only a hint of the first chapter, and the story carries one along in a whirlwind of mystified excitement to the end.

Mr. Oppenheim is a wizard with the pen. Americans are only beginning to realize that he is one of the greatest masters of exciting narratives in this decade. He is an Englishman with an American wife, and characters from both countries figure in his novels. "The Great Secret" is a marvel of its kind. The first installment will appear in the Sunday Magazine of The Chicago Record-Herald, Sept. 30.

The Record has the largest circulation and is the best advertising medium in the county.

The apportionment of the primary school money for the year will be at least $11 for each child of school age. One dollar of this amount was paid on May 10 last, and the other $10 will be paid on Nov. 10, in accordance with the law. It is probable that the November apportionment will be $11 per capita, but it is certain that it will not be less than $10 per capita.

A Letter

The other neighbor is Mrs. Shier, cousin to the P. E. Shier, of Detroit, herself and husband were in Chinese mission in China, but in Chinese mission, in San Francisco, during the earthquake. They hope to return to China.

How did I spend the sabbath. I went to Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Taught a class of young ladies. Listened to sermon from text, "For me to Live is Christ." I haven't met the pastor yet. He is well liked. I got home at 12 and read my Sunday school paper, "The Young People." In the evening or a little after sunset, we all went up on the foot-hills to see the town lighted up and watch the stars come out, also to view the beautiful sunset.

We are surrounded by mountains. Those on the west as far as eye can reach, both north and south are very high, but look like a tableland, they are so level on top. They are called mezas. Those on the south, east and north, especially on the northeast, look as though mother-earth was piled up in such masses that your portion away over there is very insignificant. These two are very beautiful with their changing light and shade. They might properly be called "Blue Mts." since that is the prevailing color, yet at times, we have all the colors of the rainbow. I enjoy them and yet they give one a feeling almost to homesickness, as they seem to bar friends out.

We were no University Heights about a mile from Ph'y church, which is on the other side of town. While we were on the foot-hills, Miriam and I decided we would go there to church. We were a little early and wanting a drink, we went out of our way a block into the R. R. depot to get it. A long passenger train had just pulled in and the usual throng were taking a little rest from the cars as they waited. How tired it made me feel. We went along down by the Indian building and there as usual on the ground, sat the Indians with their fruits and curios. We went into the building, and though it was Sunday, we saw the women carding and spinning, and the little girls weaving. A baby with bare legs lay on the floor near its mother. I would think they would all be paralysed sitting all the time on the ground with their legs curled under them.

O, it is pitiful, and that dear little six year old girl with her long claw like fingers, to be kept at night and day, (with her weaving) just for our amusement.

Well we went into a restaurant for our drink and then to church to what proved to be a praise service. The church was crowded. By the way, the occasion of concert and then the present crowds, is a new pipe organ, a present from our next door neighbor who is reputed to be the richest man in town, probably a millionaire. Mr. Baldwin, said to be the greatest organist in the U. S., probably you have seen him at dedications of other organs in Michigan. He was here and performed wonderful feats on the organ. He took our old hymns and played them with a dozen variations. But you would have been shocked to hear the talking. Many acted as though it was the thing to do to make comments as they would at any show.

May and I have been to school twice with Cornell the first day and then yesterday. The principal of his building is a lady. She has been here a long time. She speaks Mexican and is half Mexican herself. The Mexican mothers came with their little ones for the first time. Mrs. Butts the principal, is also the first grade teacher and there are seven other grades in the building, up to the ninth. You would see the necessity for a knowledge of Mexican language.

For some reason Cornell does not like to go to school. His mother is perplexed as to what to do. He went to kindergarten last year and liked it, but he does not like it here. He is afraid the teacher will scold, though she never scolds him and says he is good. We decided that it was her manner, it was so different from the kindergarten. Then, too, from our opportunity of judging she is not adapted for this grade, and is away off in methods, though she is an institute instructor. I do not know what my chances are. I think not very good. If Mr. Clark had his way they might be, but I am informed that the Board interferes, did in two instances this last year. I think I told you Mr. Clark said for me to attend the first grade teacher's round table. I have not changed any words with Clark. Mr. Bradley says the pupils are rather unresponsive to kind treatment. He thinks they have been governed by military discipline so long as they do not appreciate anything else. Not the Mexicans alone but the whites as well. There is an tipathy between the two races, and the funny part is they all feel a little above the others. You couldn't insult a Spaniard any quicker than to mistake him for a Mexican etc. Mr. Bradley says they are bright as dollars, and as brave.

As I look from my window I see a Mexican woman coming across the foot-hills. How do I know she is a Mexican? Well, she has a black shawl over her head. The Indians wear red shawls or plaid, with red the dominant color.

I think I must have tired you by this time. Maybe brother John won't think it just the thing to write on both sides but they are so exacting about postage here if one writes many letters he needs a small bank account.

There is one part of the city, just a little north of us called "Dog Town," by the Spaiards, in contempt for Mexicans who live there in their adobe huts. You can see several Sanitary hospitals from here. I presume there are other things to be noticed but I must leave something for next time.

Lovingly,
Mrs. M. L. Mills.

Shocked the Telephone Girl

A newspaper man was sitting in his office at Niles alone and smoking, when he had occasion to use his telephone. He arose laid the cigar he was smoking on a chair, and took down the receiver. Just as he lifted the receiver a friend stepped into the office and started to sit down in the chair. Not realizing the operator could hear what he was saying, and just as she was about to say "Number please?" in her sweetest tones, the editor yelled: "Look out there! You'll burn your pants!" Communication between him and central was at once cut off and about half an hour later the manager called and demanded an explanation. His explanation was satisfactory to the manager but central refused to be comforted.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Pains of Buchanan People

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric acid which circulates in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help. Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Buchanan cures are the proof.

Mrs. M. Griffin, of West Front street, Buchanan, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at W. N. Brodrick's drug store, and I think them an excellent remedy for back-ache and kidney complaint. I was troubled for some time with a dull aching feeling in the small of my back often quite severe, more especially if I overexerted myself or took a slight cold. I used a great many remedies, of which some were worthless and others relieved me for a time. This I cheerfully say about Doan's Kidney Pills, I received more permanent relief from them than from any other remedy I ever took."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's, and take no other.
