Mr. Homer N. Hathaway Was Drowned Monday

At the Intake Gates at the Power House in the St. Joseph River

Between the hours of 4:30 and 5 o'clock, Monday afternoon, the body of Homer N. Hathaway was found near the intake gates at the Buchanan Power House.

The body was discovered by Messrs.
Wm. Hulburt and Marian Shinn, about five o'clock, and news was rapidly spread in regard to the accident. Mr. Mac C. Chamberlin and Atty. Geo. H. Batchelor were the first on the scene, and the drowned man was at once identified by Mr. Chamberlin.

How Mr. Hathaway met his death in this manner, is unknown, but from all indications, the supposition is, that he either became dizzy while walking on the small bridge, or that during the high wind of yesterday,
his hat might of started to blow away, and in attempting to get it, he lost his balance, and fell in.

A jury was impanelled, consisting of Messrs. E. W. Sanders, Wm.
Sparks, C. D. Kent, Jno. E. Burbank,
Wm. Churchill and Wm. Beardsley.
Chas. Diggins acted as coroner.

The jury was sworn in at the Hathaway home, where they viewed the remains. They then adjourned to meet at Justice Diggins' office, and swore in the following witnesses:
Wm. Hulburt, Wm. Bainton, Marian Shinn, Mac C. Chamberlin and Dr.
O. Curtis. Wm. Hulburt and Marian Shinn testified as to the finding of the body; Wm. Bainton testified that he saw Mr. Hathaway, walking very rapidly toward the river between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock, while Mac C. Chamberlin testified as

The body of Mr. Hathaway was found on the opposite side of the power house at the point indicated to the identification of the dead man.

Dr. O. Curtis, maintained that upon examination of the body, that he was dead when taken from the water, and there were no marks of violence on the body. The verdict was returned that Mr. Hathaway met his death of accidental drowning.

Mr. Hathaway was 75 years of age, and has been a resident of Buchanan since he was nine years old, having migrated to this place from New York state with his parents when at that age. He was married to Miss Mary Smead fifty-one years ago, and has been a kind and devoted husband ever since. To this union four children were born, two having met with

as fateful accidents as the father,
one son being killed by the explosion of a thrashing machine, while the other son was killed while employed on the railroad. Two children with the widow survive the unfortunate man. The children being, Mrs.
Bertha Roe and Mr. H. A. Hathaway of Buchanan.

During Mr. Hathaway's residence in Buchanan, he has held the offices of township treasurer for two years,

constable for several years and village marshal for several years.

In earlier years Mr. Hathaway was a very industrious man, but since he met with an accident at the depot by being hit by a gate at the crossing,
he has never been able to do any hard manual labor.

The family has the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

The funeral services will be held from the Advent Christian Church, Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock,
with interment in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Ed Swain, Formerly of This Place Died Sunday Morning

The following letter bears the sad news of the death of Mr. Ed Swain, a former and highly respected Buchanan boy. The news comes as a heavy blow to his many friends, and the surviving family have the deepest sympathy of all the friends and citizens in this community:

Downers Grove, Ill.,
Oct. 8, 1906.

Editor Buchanan Record;

Dear Sir: Ed Swain left Boise, Idaho, sometime Friday, Oct. 5th and was to have reached Chicago at 9 a.
m. Sunday, Oct. 7th, coming over the C. & N. W.

He died sometime early Sunday morning while on the train, and the body was left by the train crew at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Ed's brother, Arthur, who lives in Detroit, is making arrangements for burial in the family lot at Owosso.

I rec'd a letter from Ed on Saturday reading, in part, as follows: "It's all over, I can't get well, am coming back."

For four long years, during only a small part of which he was able to work, he has kept up the fight for life. Few men would have the courage and will power to have held out so long. The porter, who cared for him on the train, said that Ed could scarcely walk to his birth, he was so weak.

Ed was born July 30, 1874. His brother Arthur, above mentioned, and sister Mary, now Mrs. Bovee, of Ypsilanti, alone survive him

The funeral will probably be held sometime Wednesday, October 10.
Respectfully,
J. M. Piatts.

ODD FELLOWS' BANQUET

Was Held Saturday Evening
at Their Hall

Last Saturday evening about 100 Odd Fellows gathered at the local hall, where a new candidate, Wm Nutt was initiated into the secrets of the order.

The visiting teams were from Glen-dora, Galien, Three Oaks, Dayton and Bridgman, and the initiatory work was exemplified by the Glendora team. The drill work in the first and second degree giving by this visiting team, was the best ever displayed here, and it is said by some of the older members, of this reliable order, that the work far surpassed that ever seen in several larger cities.

After the initiatory work was over,
D. W. Swem, of Hooker, Okla., who was present, gave a very interesting talk, followed by short speeches from different members of the different orders. These addresses were not only interesting and appropriate, but were beneficial as well.

The local order of Odd Fellows
has fallen away in the past few years, and now the younger members are taking an interest in the enlarging of this order, and they hope to make it
one of the largest in our village.
They are not only interested in getting new members, but are doing their best to get the old members to attend the meetings, and take more interest in the upbuilding of this ormay be interesting as an instance of one of the many peculiar characteristics of that peculiar administration, but it will create not the least desire in Michigan to have the experiment repeated. From the point of view of the democrat candidate for Governor there may be something objectionable in a surplus, but the taxpayers of Michigan who recall the money borrowing and interest-paying requirements created by the administration to which Mr. Kimmel refers will very promptly decide in favor of the surplus.

THE BIG FAIR IS OVER

Horses go on a Track That was Covered With Mud. Full Program was Carried out

The Southern Michigan State Fair closed Saturday amid the falling of a drizzling rain and the blowing of a cool autumn breeze. The last day was marred by the weather man, but even though the rain did fall and soak the track, and the breeze did freeze the patrons of the grand stand, there were no complaints. The directors of the fair carried their program out to the letter. Every race was on as scheduled and the public appreciated the fact.

The track Saturday was as bad as it was Thursday and it was impossible for the fast horses, who were not mud larks, to make their showing. Notwithstanding this fact every race was as interesting as if it had been run on a hard and perfect track and there was no laying back of the drivers or horses at any point in the race. The owners were all after winter-oats-money and each one of them was out to win the purse if it was possible.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS GET MORE MONEY

Penalties Paid By Railroads Go Into Fund That Will Be Divided Up Next Month.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 5.—Atty. Gen. Bird has advised Aud. Gen. Bradley that the penalties paid by the railroads for failure to pay their taxes promptly must be credited to the primary school interest fund which is to be apportioned in November, and that the interest on the railroad taxes and penalties should be credited to the general fund.

As the penalties collected amount to about a million and a quarter dollars the November apportionment of the primary school money will probably be at the rate of $11 or $12 per capita, instead of $10, as previously announced.

The interest on the primary school moneys, a large portion of which have been in the state treasurer's hands since last May, will amount to about $150,000 and will be credited to the general fund.

NILES BANK GETS INSURANCE

Young Man's Strange Acts in Kansas Caused Wrecking of Michigan Financial Institution

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—A verdict for $8,915 against the New York Life Insurance Co. was returned by a jury in the United States circuit court here this afternoon. The verdict was reached after an all-day deliberation in the case of George C. Rankin, receiver for the First National bank of Niles, Mich., who sought to recover $7,736 insurance on the life of George A. Kimmel, former cashier of the Farmers' State bank of Arkansas City, Kas., who mysteriously disappeared in 1898. Interest was also awarded, making the total amount $8,915.

The suit was instituted to legally decide whether Kimmel is dead or is an inmate of the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane in New York. On March 15, 1898, Kimmel took out an insurance policy on his life to be paid to his sister, who is now Mrs. Edna K. Bonslett, of Chicago. Kimmel mysteriously disappeared several months later. The New York Life Insurance Co., declined to pay the amount of the policy until Kimmel's death was proved.

Receiver Rankin, to whom the policy was transferred on a loan, fled suit, alleging that Kimmel had died Aug. 1, 1898, and that Kimmel's sister had furnished the insurance company with proof of his death.

George A. Kimmel was born in Niles, Mich., in 1867, and obtained most of his business education in the First National bank there. His uncle, Charles A. Johnson, was cashier of the bank at that time, and also president of the Farmers' State bank at Arkansas City, Kas.

Kimmel was given the position of cashier in the Kansas bank, and for a time filled that office.

On July 29, 1898, Kimmel took $10,000 in bonds and went to Warfield, where he had them registered at the office of the county clerk. He then went to Kansas City, where he had delivered to him in the Midland hotel $530, his sole bank account, and shortly after they were delivered to him at the hotel he stepped out of the side door, and has never been seen since.

For about two years the search continued, and in 1901 the Niles bank was wrecked by Johnson, and he is now serving 10 years in the Detroit house of correction for the crime.

All during the time previous to the failure of the Niles bank Johnson had been paying the premiums on the three life insurance policies, one for $5,000 and two for $10,000 each, besides backing all the efforts to find Kimmel. It is said he furnished this money from the deposits in the Niles bank, and Receiver Rankin, for this reason, sues the life insurance company for $7,736, with which he today paid about 85 cents on the dollar to the old depositors of the bank.

The sister of Kimmel, now Mrs. Monelett of Chicago, intends to push the case for recovery of the insurance which was made out by Kimmel for her.

A large amount of counterfeit money has been put in circulation in Kalamazoo and vicinity in the last few days. The money is supposed to be silver and it is of several denominations. The mold is perfect and the date on all of the coins is 1886. The weight is perfect and the color good. Buchanan merchants should watch out lest some of the counterfeit comes this way.

Mr. J. B. Ryerson left last week for Hammond, Ind., where he will take charge of the plumbing and general water supply work, along the line of the C. I. & S. He is pleased with his work, and his Buchanan friends are confident that he will fill his new position successfully, as he has been in this occupation for the past 18 years.

About twenty of the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Burgess Miles, pleasantly surprised her at her home on Portage street, last Friday evening. After their hostess recovered from her surprise, she gave them a hearty welcome, and a very enjoyable evening was passed in social intercourse, and the viewing of the beautiful souvenirs, she recently brought home with her from her trip to England. Light refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served. A lovely bunch of carnations were left by the guests, as a remembrance of this happy occasion. At a late hour they all departed, receiving an invitation from their hostess to call again.

Sheriff Tennant, his deputy, Stryker of Buchanan, and Dr. Garland of Buchanan are defendants in a suit for damages brought today in Justice Babcock's court by Mrs. Margaret Goins, a Buchanan colored woman. Mrs. Goins claims that the sheriff attached a trunk for Dr. Garland to settle a debt which the doctor claimed due from her, and that the trunk is exempt from attachment under the law. She wants damages to the value of the trunk and contents to about $75. Attorney Burns represents the plaintiff and Attorney Roe of Buchanan appears for the defendants. The case is set for Oct. 25.—Niles Sun, Friday.

She Could Satisfy Them Anyway

It was Arbor Day, and an entertainment in honor of it was being given in the little country school at Durham: When the program was half over the youthful faces of the scholars shone with agreeable anticipation, for the very next number was to be a vocal solo by Miss Willet, a spinster of the town, who, on many previous occasions had delighted the school with her singing.

There followed an impatient pause. Finally the teacher made this announcement:

"I am very sorry to say, children, that Miss Willet has been taken with a rather sudden hoarseness and will be unable to sing. She is willing, however, to recite a poem, instead, if you wish it. Do you?"

Disappointment flew into each little one's face at this change; and for a moment no one spoke. Then, several boyish heads in the rear of the room became grouped as if in earnest conversation. Suddenly they parted, and Johnnie Marvin, a freckle-faced, deep-voiced scholar stood up.

"Teacher," he declaimed, "if Miss Willet don't mind we'd rather have her get up an' try to sing, an' if her throat's too sore t' make a noise, she kin make her funny faces, anyway, while the pianer plays the tune!"—Woman's Home Companion for October.

CHAPIN CASE IS HEARD

Charles A. Chapin May Send Water Power Out of the Village of Buchanan

Lansing, Oct. 6.—The controversy between the village of Buchanan and Charles A. Chapin, who owns a large water power in the village, has reached the supreme court, arguments having been made yesterday in the case commenced by the village to restrain Chapin from transmitting power from his dam outside the village. The controversy is something out of the ordinary.

The village claims a contract was made with Chapin who agreed in return for certain privileges not to transmit power to other places but to use it in manufacturing enterprises in Buchanan.

Chapin invested something like $225,000 in the property and, not finding a market for his power at home, has been transmitting several hundred horsepower to South Bend, Ind.

In the court below the application of the village for an injunction was denied.

Partridge at $5 an ounce was the delicacy enjoyed for dinner by J. N. Murphy, at Kalkaska, Friday. The bird flew through a plate glass window, a quarter of an inch thick and weighing 240 pounds, breaking it into smithereens. So swiftly was it flying that it passed through the curtain at the window. It was a dead partridge when picked up. As the window cost him $28 Murphy figures the dinner was an expensive one.

When his hat blew out of a car window Leroy Potter, 24 years of age, attempted to jump through the window after it. Potter was going from Niles to Kalamazoo, Friday, and the train was running fifty miles an hour. He had broken the window and was half way out when passengers grabbed him. The conductor held him until the train reached Kalamazoo. Potter said he wanted his hat. He could not tell why he wanted to risk his life by jumping out of a window for it. He is in jail and will be held for relatives.

The county jail at Kalamazoo is surrounded by deputy sheriffs every night, each armed with a rifle. They will continue to guard the jail until Walter Smith, slayer of 17-year-old Goldie Moss, is removed. These guards were placed several nights ago. Sheriff Shean received a tip that Chicago pals of Smith were in the city, planning to secure the release of the prisoner. Smith is alleged to be one of the most desperate negroes in Chicago. Chicago negroes have been here a number of times to see Smith and have spent considerable time with him. They have learned the interior of the jail.

Mrs. Omer Bleau, of Alpena, aged 41, died under suspicious circumstances Friday. Her husband found her dead. Her lips were burned with acid. Her husband says she was ill the night before from eating sausage. This is shown to be a mistake. The woman had been despondent on account of poor health. The coroner is investigating. She leaves besides her husband, two children.

Buying a jackknife for the purpose, William Brown, of Coldwater, slashed his throat early Friday morning in the public library, of which he was janitor. He was nearly dead from loss of blood when found. He was taken to Emergency hospital and may recover. Brown told his son-in-law that he was going to commit suicide, but nothing more was thought of it. Ever since the death of his wife, Brown has been acting strangely.

CORRESPONDENCE

BENTON HARBOR

Church street is to be widened and paved with brick.

There is some flag growing in the north marsh that is nine feet high.

The evening news, now the News Palladium, was 11 years old Sunday.

Spencer & Barnes are advertising for boy cabinet makers and veneer workers.

Al Woodworth and two daughters, of St. Joseph, have opened a moving picture exhibit and theatre on Territorial street.

Chas. Kimmerle, democratic nominee for governor will speak at the Bell next Thursday evening, Oct. 11.

Lowell Swenson and Mrs. H. B. Eastman, of Buchanan, were guests of Mrs. Lawrence Ricaby, last Sunday.

Several social functions have been held for the three brides-elect, Miss Julia Friek, Miss Ina Rae Smith and Miss Grace Shauman. The last named was married Tuesday night.

A boxing contest was pulled off at the Bell Monday night, between Tommey Cody, of Chicago, and Johnny Morrison, of St. Joseph in which the latter won in the tenth round.

Elbel's famous band from South Bend, gave a concert Tuesday night from the veranda of the Hotel Benton and the Budd Bros. did some clever tumbling.

Grover C. Lawrence and Miss Lida Bell Watson, were married Sunday afternoon at the bride's home on High street, by Rev. Meader, the new pastor of the Methodist church.

John Wurz, of St. Joseph, who recently entered the Ann Arbor university, has been appointed a place on the editorial and the business staffs of the college daily.

Our mayor and two alderman, met a like committee at the St. Joseph council meeting Monday night, to confer together about building a new highway bridge between the two cities, which has been needed for a long time.

While running to a fire a few days ago, the fire team slipped on the wet paving, while rounding a corner sharply and one fell receiving cuts about the mouth and other injuries.

Our football team will play the Grand Haven Independents at Eastman Springs, next Saturday. The game with Kershaw last Saturday was 21 to 0 in our favor.

There were nine bidders on the new hospital contract and the sums ranged from $16187.92 which secured the work to Alderman Carley to nearly $23,000, by a Chicago firm. The original plan was to build for $15,000, but so many desirable additions have been made that it must exceed that sum. Work will probably begin before long.

The high school juniors had a marshmallow roast at Bailey's Gap last Monday evening. The freshman followed suit the next night, but a bunch of seniors, full of class spirit, appeared on the scene and for a time there was decidedly something doing. Superintendent Wright is investigating the matter.

The school buildings of the city are full and the school board is trying to rent the basement of the Congregational church, so as to relieve the congested condition at the high school building on Broadway. It is probable that an addition will be made to it, as has been done to the Britain avenue and Morton hill ward buildings.

About 300 Modern Woodmen and their wives witnessed, at the close of lodge, Monday evening, the marriage of Henry Christensen and Anna Kroff. The groom is a member of the drill team and the latter escorted the couple (who were attended by the groom's brother and the bride's sister) to the altar, where Judge Ara Weldon read the marriage service. After congratulations, ice cream and cake were served and then, led by the orchestra who had played the wedding march, dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Last Sunday was Rally day in the city Sunday schools and was observed by special music, decorations, programs, etc. An effort had been made to increase the attendance. The number at the Baptist was 179, at the Congregational 279, at the Presbyterian 196 and at the Methodist 363. A pleasant feature at the latter was the presentation of a bouquet of purple asters to Mr. Draper, the oldest scholar 77 years and white asters to the youngest, the 2 year old daughter of the superintendent Attorney Harvey. At the Congregational school, the oldest member Mr. Hurd was given a bunch of fall roses and the chantanqua salute.

The Fair was a grand success. Wednesday was school children's day and the crowd was estimated from 10,000 to 20,000. Thursday was Benton Harbor day and but for the threatening weather, the crowd would have been greater still. The sharp shower at noon made the track muddy and slippery and hard for the horses. We are not able to report the winners, but Monday, Chester Sweet's horse, Sappho, took first money in the special pace. Hal Erwin's horse, Butler Bowl, of Jackson, won the 2.24 pace and Hazel Hunter owned by Mallory, of Detroit won the 2.16 pace. All the space allowed for exhibits was taken and there were so many interesting things we can not take time or space, to report them, but there was the 100 lb. squash and mammoth water melons. There were some relics from the San Francisco disaster. A glass, paper weight from the Call building. Part of a child's little tea set and other dishes that passed through the fire.

There was a piece of mahogany 1000 years old from India. A humming bird's nest about the size of a half dollar. Curious from Palestine. A large collection of bird's eggs gathered along the Platte river 20 years ago. There were beautiful specimens of pyrographic art, fine needle and crocheted work, etc.

We saw an interesting family consisting of a black water spaniel and her eight little pups. The Beckwith stove company, of Dowagiac, gave a stove to the person who held the lucky ticket, which was Mrs. Edwards, of South Bend. We must not specify further, but repeat the Fair is a grand success.

BERRIEN CENTER

Ten pupils and their teacher, Miss Mabel Norris from the Franklin district, and nine pupils and their teacher, Harry J. Mansfield from the National district spent Wednesday at the fair. The two schools combined and ate their basket dinner, on the bluff in St. Joseph. They returned on the special in the evening and all report a good time.

Mr. Monta Tenbrock died last Sunday morning of consumption at the home of his stepmother in Berrien Springs. The remains were entered at South Berrien Center cemetery on the following Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dubert are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Ricketts are visiting relatives in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blanchard are visiting friends in Wisconsin.

The Franklin aid society met at Mrs. E. Parker's on Thursday of the week.

Mrs. L. B. Moore is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Norris, of Galien; Mr. and Mrs. Roupe; Mr. and Mrs. Raybuck and daughter, of South Bend and Mr. and Mrs. Moore and family, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. R. H. Norris.

Miss Hazel Ricketts is visiting her sister, Mary Perry at South Bend.

Humor in Journalism

Next to a million dollars is a hearty laugh is about as pleasant a thing as one can have. Everybody really wants to laugh. No man and no newspaper can be really great without a sense of humor. The Chicago Record-Herald regards the promotion of smiles and laughter as a part of the legitimate mission of the press. For years the "Alternating Currents" column of S. E. Kiser in that paper has been a source of delight to its readers.

The cartoons of Ralph Wilder on the first page also are designed to make people laugh—and to make them think as well. In fact, the humor of the Record-Herald, like its news columns, is always clean and kindly as well as amusing and entertaining. It affords a striking example of the right way to "tell the truth laughing." Famous humorists contribute to the Sunday Magazine of the Record-Herald, with the popular novelists and celebrated writers on timely questions. Both text and illustrations are of the highest standard. of periodical literature—the new era in Sunday journalism perfected.

Amy Leslie, the critic of the News, among other things said: "Wilton Lackaye last evening went hand in glove with Victor Hugo to a most brilliant success." James O'Donnell Bennett, of the Record Herald, in a most scholarly article, finds much of good in the work of the star both as actor and author. And so on through the entire list of papers.

Praise was also bestowed upon the strong supporting company, including Melbourne MacDowell, Jeffreys acts.

So well has the work of dramatization been done that it compelled the critic of the Chicago Tribune to declare that "Mr. Lackaye has made a melodrama which can readily be understood by those who have never read the book, and those who have will enjoy seeing the great characters of Hugo's imagination before them in the life."

The critics are unbounded in their praise of Mr. Lackaye's courage in attempting to dramatize the immortal epic work of the great Frenchman, and say all manner of kind things about the net result of the actor's endeavor. They are unanimous in declaring that the Jean Valjean of the star is far and away the best thing he has ever done, and they dwell particularly upon the terrific strength of the prologue, first and third

International Live Stock Exhibition Dec. 1 to 8 1906

Never before in the history of the International have the management been able to present to the visitors more convincing facts as to the usefulness of the great exposition than during the present year. In nearly all cases of market toppers in cattle, hogs and sheep they have been put on the market by the one car load man, demonstrating the object lessons of this exposition. In this line of practical work there will be some interesting exhibits in the ear load and single fat animals, as the promoters of the different breeds of cattle, hogs and sheep are conducting some useful experiments in feeding which they hope will endorse their claims as to the meat-producing qualities of their favorites.

Dean Wm. Liggitt, of Minnesota College of Agriculture, on being interrogated, replied to a student in the following manner concerning the International: "What do you regard as one of the great achievements of modern animal husbandry?"

"I believe it is the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago, which has for several years been conducted with so much success and satisfaction. The reputation it has won for itself and the disinterested support it receives, bespeaks its indisputable educational value. Its well equipped buildings, its efficient board of managers, its unlimited supply of materials and live stock, constitute a veritable university, for the breeder, the feeder, the dealer and the student alike may there, free of cost, secure for himself a knowledge of breeds types and characteristics elsewhere impossible outside of colleges of agriculture. It gives an impetus to the live stock industry each year that is felt the world over and that expresses itself in revived interest in the improvement of live stock. Much of the activity that reveals itself in all lines of breeding and feedings, I believe, directly traceable to the enthusiasm aroused and the knowledge imparted by the great International Live Stock Show. I believe I am expressing the sentiment of all Minnesota when I say that I hope the show will continue and be even more successful, if possible, in the future and that it will serve as a great beacon light to the live stock world."
