GIRL'S TRAGIC DEATH SOLVED

Mystery Surrounding Death of Olive Templeton is at Last Solved

The mystery of the death of Olive Templeton which shocked all Berrien county and which has baffled and puzzled the county's most able officers was cleared up yesterday in the finding of an old bottle discovered floating in the St. Joseph river in the vicinity of Somerleyton.

Yesterday morning D. A. Baldwin, an old river trapper was coming down the stream. Nearing Somerleyton he rowed in towards the bank of the river and as he scanned the surface of the water, he noticed a bottle securely corked bobbing up and down. Rowing over to the object he fished it from the water, pulled out the tight fitting cord and read the following:

"Miss Olive Templeton of E. M. college is in the St. Joseph River. Tell my mother, father, sister and brothers good-by. Jumped in 5 miles above Berrien Springs."

The above words were scrawled on a soiled piece of newspaper, in all probability torn from a page of the Berrien Springs Era, as advertisements printed on one side of the paper advertised Berrien Springs merchants. The note and bottle were brought to Benton Harbor and handed over to Chief of Police Johnson. The chief made a close study of the writing and he is convinced that Olive Templeton hastily scrawled the few lines in her room in the Adventist college at Berrien Springs, poked the note into the bottle and just before plunging into the cold avericious waters, tossed the bottle into the river.

Olive Templeton disappeared from the Adventist college at Berrien Springs on the night of Feb. 2, 1905. A wild storm was raging at the time and it was thought that the girl had wandered out of doors, became lost and finally fell into the St. Joseph river off the "Fatal Bluffs." Later developments showed that the pretty co-ed had become homesick and had ended her life in a fit of despondency.

The late under-sheriff, Irving R. Pearl, was put on the case and for weeks and weeks he searched in vain for the missing girl. Her body was found in August, 1905, so badly decomposed that she could hardly be identified.

Chief Johnson intends to notify the dead girl's parents who reside at Appleton, Wis. The college authorities at Berrien Springs will also be notified.

A WORM IN HIS EYE BALL

Niles Boy Undergoes the First Operation of its Kind in United States

The Chicago Tribune contains the following:

Seven year old Edward Behringer, orphan, was prevented from becoming blind by an operation, the first of the kind ever performed in the United States at the City Polyclinic hospital Friday afternoon. A worm which was slowly eating its way through the ball of the eye was removed.

So rarely does the peculiar optical trouble occur that the boy was taken before the Chicago Medical society at its meeting Wednesday evening. The worm, which was about half the size of a pea, could be seen.

The operation was performed by Dr. Reinhard Rembe, assisted by Drs. R. V. Brown and A. Clausian. It was successfully completed in twenty minutes and the patient was taken to the home of friends at 951 Lincoln avenue.

The Behringer boy's home is on a truck farm near Niles, Mich. He had been in the habit of eating radishes and other truck just as it came from the garden, and it is supposed one of the radishes contained the bacilli of a tapeworm, which in some manner lodged in the eye.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO SCOOT

When the Autos Toot—Pedestrians Have Rights

Lansing, Nov. 23.—The rights of pedestrians and the care to be exercised by chauffeurs were passed upon by Judge Wiest yesterday. He dismissed a demurrer filed by Vera Ayers and the Olds Motor works in the suit brought for damages by Warren S. Abels. The defendants claimed that proper precautions had been taken by tooting a horn. Judge Wiest said: "The fact that an alarm was worked continuously would not excuse the driver from responsible care. People on the street are not required to run at the tooting of a horn for their rights equal those of the blowers of the horn. The law requires the driver to do something more than tooting his horn for everyone to get out of his way."

EXCELLENT REPORT

County Treasurer Schultz has completed settlements with the village taxes for 1906.

The recorded returns show the best collections yet made by village treasurers and are a credit to the men who have been elected as such.

New Buffalo, Three Oaks and Galien make return to me of complete collection, and have no delinquent tax-payers.

Eau Claire returns one description, with tax of $0.40.

Stevensville returns one description with tax of $6.00.

Watervliet returns two description with tax of $5.60.

Coloma returns five descriptions, with tax of $10.00.

Buchanan returns nine descriptions with tax of $25.22.

Berrien Springs returns three descriptions, with tax of $50.31.

Buchanan tax roll is $9952.06, all of which was collected by Treasurer Eldredge, with the exception of $25.22, which is a very good showing.

MURDER FOUL AND BRUTAL

By Rejection He Kills His Former Sweetheart After Interview

Adrian, Mich., Nov. 24.—Joseph Ehrlich, jr., aged 22, sawed the throat of his sweetheart Ola Kelly, aged 23, who had scorned him, through to the bone with a dull case knife, stabbed her in the throat six times with sharp-pointed shears, then plunged the shears into her heart twice to the hilt, leaving them imbedded in her body. The girl's widowed mother, returning home, stumbled over her daughter's dead body.

Such, in brief, is the story of a tragedy enacted in Holloway, eight miles from here Thursday night, the author of which who is in jail here. Ehrlich and the young woman had been keeping company for two years. Several times they had planned to wed, the last agreement being that the ceremony should be performed this week. Wednesday, Ehrlich received a letter from her, calling their engagement off, because he had hurt her feelings by cruel jests about her new hat, which she thought very pretty.

Ehrlich was despondent and planned to leave Adrian. But he wished to see her first and ask her to reconsider her decision, so he rented a rig at a livery stable and drove the eight miles. When he arrived at her home no one was there, and he drove on to the Grange hall, where he learned the girl and her mother were attending a supper.

Calling the girl out he asked her to go riding with him and talk the matter over. She declined, saying she had not finished her supper, but promised as soon as she did she would go to her home with him.

The two went together to the girl's home and began to talk over their affairs in the front yard. When they got cold they went into the dining room. Ehrlich says he was driven to madness itself, when the girl told him she was "through with him."

"Aren't you going to have anything more to do with me?" Ehrlich says he asked the girl.

"No," she replied.
"I am going away; don't you want me to write to you?" he asked.

"I don't care whether you do or not," the girl answered.

"Then, if I can't have you, nobody else can and nobody else will have you."

Ehrlich said in the jail those were the last words he uttered to her before he began to commit his bloody crime.

Peaceful Lenawee county is stirred by the crime, and it is deemed one of the most atrocious and brutal murders ever committed in Michigan.

Grave rumors were heard Friday night that sentiment is high in Holloway for the forming of a lynching party.

Not until Friday afternoon did the youthful murderer display any signs of remorse over his deed further than to say that he was sorry and that he could not be hired to do a thing of that kind again.

Friday afternoon, however, he broke down and wept like a child. He insists that he had no intention of killing her when he went to see her.

When she told him that she did not care to marry him and informed him for the third time that she did not care to hear from him when he went away; he became so angry that he choked her.

"Stop, Joe, I'll marry you," she said, but he was so mad that he could not check himself and choked her for five minutes, until she was insensible. Not until he had her on the floor in that state did the thought enter his mind, he says, to kill her.

After choking his victim he grabbed up a case knife from the table, which he attempted to cut the girl's throat with. This being very dull he sawed her neck open, after which he grabbed up a pair of scissors, and jabbed her six times in the throat. After doing this heinous crime he took the scissors and plunged them in the girl's heart, withdrew them, and then made another plunge into the girl's heart, leaving his victim with the scissors imbedded in the heart.

A postmortem by Dr. Hardy showed a fractured skull, a wound in the neck that reached the lungs and a puncture of the heart.

Friday afternoon Ehrlich made an affidavit to Prosecuting Attorney Joslyn and Justice Humphrey in which he told the same story as he told the bed her six times in the throat. After reporters, except that he admitted that he had shot himself when near home. He said he shot at himself twice, but the revolver jumped and his only injury was a slight flesh wound in the leg. He was scared out of further attempts on his own life by the approach of a policeman, who he sent after his imaginary assailant. He threw his revolver away upon entering the yard, where it was found today.

He cannot explain how his victim's skull was fractured, unless her head hit the table leg in falling to the floor. He said he hit her with nothing on the head except his fist, and then only twice.

Prepare For a Hard Winter

That the coming winter is going to be the hardest one for the past twenty years, there is abundance of signs to show, and among them may be mentioned:

First—That the corn husks are an inch and a quarter thick and the stalks lean toward the west.

Second—Owls are leaving the country a month earlier than usual, and squirrels are laying in sweet potatoes, as well as nuts, for winter provision.

Third—That a better grade of clothing has been purchased by our customers than ever before. They are asking for higher priced garments and are choosing the best makes of warm, well made and stylish clothing.

Fourth—Farmers who have taken the trouble to investigate, tell us that roadstools have wrinkles on them. The last time this happened we had winter weather that froze the handles of plows.

Fifth—That warmer underwear, better made shoes and complete winter outfits for the little fellows have been purchased more freely than ever before from our immense stock of men's and boys' furnishings.

Sixth—We have the largest, most modern and best equipped clothing store in northern Indiana and are doing the biggest business in the establishment's history. That's the best sign of all.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES S. BAKER

A dispatch received here Saturday told of the death of James S Baker in Joplin, Mo., at about 6:30 o'clock that morning. From this county himself and wife moved to Joplin a few years ago where he had engaged in doing stone work by contract, but owing to his great strength often helped place heavy stones in position, and in lifting an unusually large one last spring he ruptured a valve to his heart the cause of his death. It is understood that he carried life insurance in the M. W. A. The remains were brought to Wolcott Sunday night and taken to the home of his brother Geo. F. Baker, where a short service was held Tuesday morning, followed by another service at Westpoint church. The services being conducted by Revs. Forest C Taylor and R. W. Thorne. Following is the obituary read:

James Samuel Baker, son of Chas. F. and Anna J. Baker, was born in Westpoint township, White county Indiana, Oct. 25, 1860 being at the time of his death 46 years 23 days old. He was married Dec. 30, 1884 to Fannie Beardsley of Buchanan, Mich., and to this union was born one daughter, Lucy, who with her mother survive him as do three sisters, four brothers and many other relatives. His life during his entire minority was spent in the county of his nativity, and he grew to manhood under circumstances that made him well acquainted with hard work, and was of such a disposition that he could laugh in the face of misfortune. Being of a genial nature and believing in the brotherhood of mankind, he never lacked friends among all classes of men. Though not a church member in his earlier years, yet he always respected the religion of his mother, and during the past year was baptised, professing saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ—Wolcott Enterprise, Wolcott, Ind.

The Berrien County Horticultural society met at Library hall Saturday and matters of interest to farmers and fruit growers, especially the recent big freeze was discussed. The state meeting will be held here next month.
A Russian family named Blackfield are in hard luck. The father was taken to the county poor farm last Monday, because though industrious, he became through illness, unable to take care of himself or family.
Having received the desired franchise, the Twin city telephone Co. has begun the work of rebuilding its plant and hope to soon have fifty men at work. They wish to finish by February 1.
If we had more men like Homer Smith there would not be such a cry for more houses. Of the thirty houses he has built in the last six years, twenty of them are on Pavone avenue and he is called the father of that street.
Following his custom of the last five years, Louis Haas, the grocer and friend of the newsboys will give them a Thanksgiving dinner at one of the restaurants. About seventy-five were served last year. He says he will see that this custom is kept up after his death.
Mrs. Linton Foote, married two years ago last June, has applied for a divorce from her husband, alleging great cruelty inasmuch as he has several times beaten and choked her. She also asks an order to make him keep away from her as he sometimes follows her on the street and threatens her life if she will not live with him.
The G. & M. steamers on the Chicago route are being put into winter quarters, except the Frontenac which is making four trips weekly to the windy city. The Puritan will continue on the Holland route till navigation closes. The Frank Woods of the other line is about to lay up at Saugatuck.
The Colonial Dames and their husbands enjoyed a progressive dinner Friday evening in the following manner: They ate the first course of oyster soup and celery at A. S. Miles, then went to L. W. Melbourne's where they partook of chicken, mashed potatoes and bread and butter. The next three courses were eaten at as many different places ending at the last with a card party.
The Major Murdock circle of G. A. R. ladies at Berrien Springs paid a return visit to our circle at the G. A. R. hall last week. Some of the officers of the St. Joseph circle were also present. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent. Three members were initiated and there were luncheon, toasts and recitations. Much of the ritual work was exemplified.
The Development company is about to expend the last $10,000 of its $50,000 in securing a large millable iron plant that will move here from Chicago and employ at first, 300 hands. The company also gives five acres of the marsh land that they own north of the union depot, where they already have located the Covell iron works in process of construction. They still have about a hundred acres for factory sites.
Wm. Robinson or "Yankee" as he was called in Buchanan, returned Thursday from Chicago, where he was operated on for Tic Doloreux from which he had suffered at intervals for two or three years. The replacing of his old teeth with false ones did not bring relief, so he decided on heroic treatment which is usually effective. Four incisions were made in his face. One above and one below the eye, one in the cheek and one just within the lip and the entire nerve was removed. He made a rapid recovery and is again filling his position as engineer of the Popper-Morgan tablet factory.

Manager Felton of the Bell opera house announces that there will be no more boxing exhibitions there. In doing this he is following the example of other managers over the state who have taken similar action since Gov. Warner's manifestos caused by the killing of Mike Ward at a pugilistic contest at Grand Rapids. If the science of boxing degenerates into brutal prize fights or slugging matches, in must expect the fate of old dog Tray and suffer accordingly. The Morrison-Sanchez bout that was to come off Thanksgiving night will not occur. Mr. Felton placed his ban on these things a year ago, but when assured that they should not reach the slugging stage he yielded the point.
Because Frank Cook, 17 years of age, was accused of breaking into Brammell's plumbing shop the night before, he tried Tuesday to drink carbolic acid and end his life. Mr. Brammell heard him muttering threats and followed him to the edge of the canal, just in time to snatch the bottle and prevent his drinking all its contents. Enough was taken however, to put him in a very critical condition. He was taken to Mercy hospital and two doctors succeeded in pulling him out of danger. Mr. Brammell's hand was burned by the acid, but little was taken from his shop.
Our little city will soon have another needed convenience. Undertaker 'Rowe' has ordered from a factory in Grand Rapids an ambulance which will be the equal of any in the country. The interior will be 7 feet 8 inches by 5 feet 8 inches by 4 feet and fitted with a hair mattress, a medicine box and seats for the doctor and nurses. The cot hangs from the ceiling so as to get the least possible jar. There is the sign of the red cross on the outside. It will probably not be long before it will have to be used for some poor unfortunate.
Some who read the scathing criticism in the News on the playing of Prof. Barbour at the dedicatory organ concert might think it unjust and uncalled for. From the high position which he holds we suppose he is capable of the best there is in music, but from remarks he made he did not think the people of this little town were capable of appreciating, so did not exert himself or waste his sweetness on the desert air. This piqued some of our best musicians and their sentiments were voiced in the News by H. Everett Pitkin one of our best musical interpreters. Should the article come under the eye of Prof. Barbour he will probably not soon repeat his mistake.
