NUMBER 19.

From the State Capital

Information and Gossip Furnished by Special Correspondent at Lansing.

Lansing.—The West Michigan state fair will receive $5,000 a year these two years, if the senate follows the lead the house took in passing Representative Campbell's bill. The bill is the last clinch of a fight between Representative Charles E. Ward of the ways and means committee, and his committeemen. The bill came from the committee by a vote of 7 to 1, Mr. Ward being the one. Mr. Ward had favored the $20,000 Jamestown appropriation, although some members of the committee favored a $15,000 appropriation. Mr. Ward led the opposition to the bill on the floor but every one of his committeemen present, including Representative Cass Benton of Northville, voted for it. Representative Simpson of Van Buren, a member of the committee, made a speech for the bill. The general line of objection to the bill was that the fair is not public nor quasi-public, is merely a private enterprise. The reply made to this was that the fair is no more a private enterprise than the Detroit fair is. Representatives Snell and Gairbraith of the Detroit fair board, opposed the bill. Yet it received 64 votes on the first trial, 67 being needed to pass an appropriation bill. Representative Campbell moved to table the bill. Later, a call of the house was ordered, and the result was a complete victory for Representative Campbell, 70 votes registering in favor of the bill.

Tilt at Railroad Hearing.

A lively tilt between Railroad Commissioner Glasgow and F. W. Stevens, general counsel for the Pere Marquette, enlivened the concluding hearing on the two-cent fare bill before the senate railroad committee. Mr. Stevens made a strong argument against the flat rate on the ground that conditions in Michigan are such as to make it impossible either from a car mile or a track mile standpoint to earn enough on a two-cent basis to make the running of trains anywhere near profitable. He talked for over an hour and covered the railroad viewpoint very thoroughly. Commissioner Glasgow made some very pointed remarks, saying that delay had become a habit with the railroads and that it was not clear to him whether the railroads wanted more time to get to the facts or get to the members of the committee. This riled Stevens who said that it grieved him that the commissioner should impugn the motives of the railroads or suggest that they were juggling figures. He challenged the right of the commissioner to use his position, which he said was semi-judicial, to advocate the passage of any bill. Glasgow thought that Stevens was too sensitive, and he submitted a mass of data to show that two-cent fares have operated to the advantage of railroads in other states. It is expected that the committee will report out some bills this week, but the members may be divided.

Affects Western Michigan.

Six good-sized cities, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Jackson and Lansing, many smaller cities like Grand Haven, Holland, Ionia, Grand Ledge, Marshall, Allegan, Albion and others, and practically every county in western Michigan are affected by the terms of Act No. 415 of the session laws of 1905. This act grants the same powers to electric power companies that have been held by telephone companies since 1883, namely, the right to enter the streets of any village, town, city or township without asking for a franchise. The only way to regulate them is through the police power by the exercise of which the governing boards of these corporations may make "reasonable" rules regarding the places where poles may be set, though they are by no means granted power to keep them out altogether. Wayne county is exempted from the bill, but the rest of the state comes under its provisions. However, it is the western part of the state that is the most interested in it at this time.

Chinaman to Remain.

U. S. Commissioner Chapin has decided that Wong Ham, an Americanized Chinese laundryman in business at Battle Creek, need not be deported. He is allowed to remain in the country as a merchant. It is said a Detroit Chinaman desired Wong Ham's deportation, owing to a family grudge.

Governor Urges Action.

Gov. Warner sent to the legislature a special message urging that both houses take early action on the two-cent railroad fare bill which is before the legislature. He says that there have been ample hearings on the bill and that nothing can be gained by further delay of action.

Change Oil Inspection.

The house passed the Ward oil inspection bill, which revolutionizes the system of oil inspection in the state. At present the oil inspector may not examine the oil in one of the big oil cars or tanks shipped into the state until allowed to take a sample by the Standard Oil or other corporation representative. Under the Ward bill he can remove the dome from the car and take his sample without such permission. Moreover, the Ward bill prohibits the unloading of oil until sampled for testing.

Death Rate is Large.

The total number of deaths reported to the department of state for February was 3,531, corresponding to an annual death rate of 17.3 per 1,000 estimated population. This number exceeds that for the month of January by 196, and also exceeds the number returned for February, 1906, by 775. This number is, in fact, the greatest number of deaths returned for any February since the registration law went into effect, with the exception of February, 1899, in which month 3,778 deaths were returned. Considerable increase is shown in the number of deaths returned from tuberculosis, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, measles, whooping cough, pneumonia, meningitis and influenza over January, the greatest increase being in deaths from tuberculosis, pneumonia and influenza, which are distinctly winter diseases. There were 3,651 birth certificates returned for the month of February, corresponding to an annual birth rate of 17.9 per 1,000 estimated population. This is a slight decrease from the month of January, 3,767 being returned for that month.

Michigan Pensions.

Giles Townsenre, $24; E. L. Rathun, $15; Elias Yager, $20; Porter Wail, $20; Ira W. Shimmer, $15; W. N. Carlisle, $50; Nichols Allerdin, $17; T. H. Case, $12; G. H. Durkee, $12; John Fletcher, $15; Orison McDou, $15; C. F. Acherman, $15; L. L. Farn, $12; R. A. Beach, $12; John Barrett, $15; D. R. Fix, $20; Samuel Hall, $20; John Robbins, $12; John Bisch, $20; J. G. Van Buren, $8; H. S. Paddock, $12; A. J. Williams, $14; Robert Anon, $12; R. R. Marsh, $12.

Battle Creek Bill Signed.

Gov. Warner has caused a sigh of relief here by finally signing the Battle Creek charter amendments and making them laws. He had about 12 hours left. Otherwise Battle Creek could not vote on two of the amendments this spring. One of these provides for raising the mayor's salary to $500 and the aldermen's to $300; the other for a reduction of justice courts to two and putting both justices on a salary.

Want State Fire Warden.

Representatives of 23 Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance companies were in attendance on the meeting of the state association. The association members seem to favor the creation of the office of state fire warden, whose duty will be to examine into the cause of all suspicious fires, and make complaints against any one who may have been responsible for causing such fires. Ohio has a similar law.

Old Soldiers Must Be Qualified.

Senator Moriarty had the house bill giving preference to union soldiers for municipal, county and state positions sent back to committee for revision. He made the point that if soldiers had to be given positions whether qualified or not, it was only fair that officials to whom they would be responsible, should be exempted from responsibility for any acts of soldiers so employed.

Blow to Professional Jurors.

The house passed Representative Miller's bill compelling the Wayne county auditors to keep separate accounts of each fund and Representative Thompson's bill providing that justice court jurors can sit only during one term each year. The object of the bill is to prevent professional jurors going from one court to another in cities when there are two or more justices.

Michigan Companies Incorporated.

The following new corporations filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state: Trippense Manufacturing company, Detroit, $25,000; Wayland Light & Power company, Wayland, $10,000; Ann Arbor Mer-chanan's general Delivery System, Ann Arbor, $10,000; Bay City Market company, Bay City, $30,000; Garner Brothers company, Detroit, $10,500.

Wabash Pays Its Taxes.

The first railroad to pay its taxes to the auditor general this year was the Wabash. A check for $72,457.49 was received by the auditor general from the Wabash company. The railroad taxes are really not due until April 1, and no penalty is attached until May 1.

Secret Ballot Taken.

A test vote taken by secret ballot in the house elections committee showed five favoring the direct nomination of United States senators and six opposed; four favored the addition of all state officers, seven opposed.

Medical Bill Held Up.

Representative Abrams intended to report out the new medical registration bill, but Dr. Crumrine, of Detroit, asked that the homeopathic physicians be given a hearing. Whether they object to some section of the bill or want something added is not known, but they will be heard next week. The bill does not define the term "practice of medicine," as was originally intended, but leaves that to the courts in order to avoid friction. A large delegation is expected.

M. O. LIGHT PLANT FAILS

After Costly Experiment With Public Ownership Galena Sells Property

Madison, Wis., April 1—(Special)—The DuBuque and Southwestern Wisconsin railroad company has purchased the municipal lighting plant at Galena, Ill., and also taken over the contract for lighting Galena for twenty-five years.

The plant never has been profitable and was built on the funds of a bond issue, the interest on which has not been paid.

The new company agreed to furnish twice as much light as the city did at only a 10 per cent increase in the present price.

ORCHARDS ALL RIGHT

There Will be Peaches Despite Pessimistic Reports

Hartford, Mich., April 1—Despite all the reports that the orchards of the fruit belt had been killed by the October freeze, those about Hartford give signs of life and some of the biggest crops of peaches ever harvested are promised by some of them.

Trees from which black bark was taken three weeks ago are showing signs of life and as the sap mounts higher, Chas. S. Johnson, who has an orchard of 4,000 trees, has every promise of a big crop, the trees being loaded with buds. The same is true of the orchard of ex Senator G. W. Merriman.

The Price of Health

"The price of health in a malarious district is just 25 cents; the cost of a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Ella Clayton, of Noland, Ark. New Life Pills cleanse gently and impart new life and vigor to the system. 25c. Satisfaction guaranteed at W. N. Brodrick's drugist.

SUSIE ARMSTRONG'S MISSION

Or One Night in the Enemy's Line

By J. L. YORK

The judge approached William with papers in hand and says, "William there is a little matter I want to speak to you about;" (silence fell on all that were in the room, William felt that the judge was about to say that the friendship now existing between the two families must be severed forever, for he felt his disgrace and knew that only a few days would intervene before he would be summoned to meet death, for that sentence would stand for all time, unless a pardon could be procured from the president) Susa had crept over to the chair where William was sitting and taken his hand, while her father re-nursed the whole matter from beginning to end. She felt the tremor of his hand and placed his arm lovingly around his neck, when the judge halted at the death sentence. Mr. Armstrong wiped his eyes then related to William what he and Squire Townsend had done to procure his pardon, but utterly failed; and being heart sick had come home. "Yes," says William, "I knew there was no hope for me and so I rushed into battle, but death was not there for me; then again at the prison I tried to give my life for others but failed. I must now return to my regiment and accept my fate." "No, no," says Susa, "wait until father has finished his talk. Father, father don't delay." "Neither will I," he says and a smile lighted up his grand old face as he opened a large sealed envelope and read the pardon that made William a freeman. Although the pardoned soldier was nearly overcome by the glad news and his physical weakness, he says, "Let us bow in prayer to God the giver of every good and perfect gift," and there at that twilight hour, their hearts thanked God for His loving kindness and watchful care over them. Oh, their hearts were so full of love that they wept tears of joy. A few days later the party set out for home; they arrived at New York City the fifth of October; there they took the Harlem Railroad to White Plain and reached home at last.

Squire Townsend telegraphed to his youngest daughter who was away at a boarding school to come home for a few days, as her brother was now at home. (The reader has not yet known anything about Miss Kitty Townsend hence we will introduce her by a short description of her general appearance, etc.) In height she is a little above the average, rather slender; with dark auburn hair, inclined to curl; a pleasant face, high forehead; gray eyes; small pink ears that lay close to the head; graceful in movement; pleasing in manner and a voice as sweet as her face. She is in no way vain, but a person who will attract attention and admiration wherever she goes; sympathetic and tender to all especially the sick and needy. These pleasing traits of character have won for her a host of friends. Although Miss Kitty is not yet twenty years of age she has completed her school work at home and is at this time attending the State Normal, and as her one year's course was nearly ended she gave it up in order to be at home with her brother.

The years of 1861, 2, 3 and 4 had come and gone, still the two great armies stood face to face with one another grasped in the death struggle with but one aim in view—that of victory and power. Sherman had made his triumphant march to the sea; the Union army had again fully recruited her ranks. The Southern army had put every available man in their ranks, which were filled up with men over and under age; they had brought into service all their horses and all of their provisions, but alas they could not compete with the Union army. Notwithstanding, braver men were never mustered into any army than the one that confronted U. S. Grant, as Grant commenced his campaign in 1865 and Sherman pressed in from the south. The last battle was fought and the great Confederate army laid down their arms; their cause lost and peace, glorious peace, was declared. Some who suffered in southern prisons, and others perhaps, who lost loved ones will no doubt read these lines, but forty years have passed since those days; and now comrades let us meet as friends—the Blue and the Gray, for the great God of the universe will right all wrongs and we will only remember that we are brothers.

We have shown the reader how John Barret met Miss Susa Armstrong and that he had had an invitation to spend a few days at her home, also at Squire Townsend's and he meant to take advantage of the same, for he was not the man to let any good pass. He staid not only a week, but nearly three months; some of the time with Susa and her brother, but the greater part of the time was spent at Squire Townsend's; for on his first call he had met with Miss Kitty, and her charming manners and pleasing conversation captured the young man's heart. The first call was followed by longer and more frequent visits, until one fine June evening, as they sat beneath a grand old oak, he took the dear girl by his side for better or worse, and on the fourth of July was celebrated two weddings instead of one—William Townsend and Susa Armstrong; J. J. Barret and Kitty Townsend and so we will now leave the happy couples and bid the reader good bye.

TWIN CITY EFFORTS WIN

St. Joseph's Bluff Light Will Remain to Guide Sailors

St. Joseph, April 1—From a reliable source we learn that the long established beacon light on the bluffs of this city will soon receive an official order of continuance, countermanding the recent order to discontinue the same. This shows what a united effort of interested citizens can do, even against the desire and judgment of the government officials when fair argument is properly presented.

Protection to life and property is paramount to a question of economy, especially when a strong government is able to meet the obligation and expense.

Bulletin of Forest Products

The Record has just received from Washington, D. C. Bulletin 74 entitled "Statistics of Forest Products of the United States: 1905," by R. S. Kellogg and H. M. Hale, just published by the Forest Service and which can be purchased for 15 cents of the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. A discussion of the lumber cut forms the chief part of the bulletin. Statistics on the production of cross-ties, tight cooperage stock, pulp-wood, mine timbers, tanbark, veneer, wood used in distillation, and the production of lath and shingles are also included. This is the first detailed report on wood products of the United States ever published. Accurate knowledge of the annual drain upon our forests is highly important for lumbermen, timberland owners and the general public.

GRANGE HALL

Record's Regular Correspondent.
Grange Hall, April 1.—The Ladies Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ada Kinney.

Orrie Harner spent Sunday at his home.

Roy Harner is home for the Spring vacation.

Walter Schultz has bought of Rolla Painter the old house south of the creek, and is moving it to his farm.

Augustus A. Harner is building a house this Spring. It will be occupied by Guy Ingleright and wife.

Cliff Rupert, of Pennelwood, will occupy the house of J. C. Höllenbeck on the Laura Ford farm.

The Hall was well filled Sunday morning for the Easter services.

The hour of the Sunday school has been changed to 10:30 o'clock a. m. The preaching services remain the same.

O. M. Taber sold his farm of 124 acres at Riverside, four miles north of Buchanan, Wednesday, to J. C. Fryman, of Berrien Springs, who buys it for his son, Walter. Consideration $6,200.00. Both parties are to be congratulated in this transaction. Mr. Taber has made many improvements and shown the possibilities of this fine grain and stock farm in the five years he has owned it. He turned over a thousand dollars' worth of products last year. This is an exceptional farm for stock, every field having running water from near by springs. On this farm are the lovely waterfalls and interesting caves, nature's own work, that attract many visitors. Mr. Fryman will take possession at once. Mr. Taber will make a sale of his farming effects on Wednesday, April 10, and make his home in Buchanan.

LAKE STEAMERS

Go on St. Joseph and Holland Routes Forepart Next Week

St. Joseph, April 1.—Work is being rushed on the steamers City of Chicago and Puritan, preparatory to having them in readiness for the St. Joseph and Holland routes respectively.

The company hopes to have the boats ready for service for Monday, when a daily schedule between St. Joseph and Chicago will be inaugurated.

Business is picking up very rapidly and the company is warranted in placing these handsome steamers into commission.

The Frontenac has been doing service since the season opened on both the St. Joseph and Holland routes.

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS

Decided Upon for Continuance and Low Rates Will Prevail

Indianapolis, April 1.—Sunday excursions in Indiana and Ohio will not be discontinued by the steam roads this summer, 2-cent rate or no 2-cent rate; and what is more, the excursion rates will be lower than they were last season or any other season heretofore. Such was the decision of high officials of the passenger departments of all the railroads operating in the two states, who met at the Claypool hotel to discuss the Sunday excursion question. In view of the 2-cent fare laws, certain roads wished to abolish the excursion of all kinds. The majority of the roads demurred, however, so no proposition of this kind was advanced.

Doing Business Again

"When my friends thought I was about to take leave of this world, on account of indigestion, nervousness and general debility," writes A. A. Christolm, Treadwell, N. Y., "and when it looked as if there was no hope left, I was persuaded to try Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that they are curing me. I am now doing business again as of old, and am still gaining daily." Best of all tonic medicines. Guaranteed by W. N. Brodrick, druggist. 50c.

Men and Things.

For obvious reasons the RECORD would have men of every type and description give earnest thought and analytical study to these observations and questions:

The world is looking for men.

Men are the world's greatest need.

And this is the roundabout way in which the world tries to find men:

It insists upon certain institutions. But do these institutions make men?

It is always dwelling on the need of education. But what is education if its products be not manhood?

It is asking for new laws. Yet what are laws if they do not produce good citizenship?

It insists that the measure of success is dollars. But what is the making of a living as compared with the making of a life?

Slowly—very slowly—the world is beginning to turn from things to individuals. Slowly—very slowly, it is beginning to put the man above the dollar. It is beginning to find what are its true treasures.

Why not make men first?

Because if you make men, governments and institutions and education and laws will all easily fall into their proper places.

It is men—not things—we want that will move Buchanan forward. Things don't come up themselves. Men must make them. Men must make Buchanan grow!

Knew Her Superiority.

One of Washington's high school principals relates an incident in connection with last commencement day. A clever girl had taken one of the principal prizes. Her friends crowded about her to offer congratulations. "Weren't you awfully afraid you wouldn't get it, Hattie," asked one, "when there were so many contestants?" "Oh, no!" cheerily exclaimed Hattie. "Because I knew that when it came to English composition I had 'em all skinned."

Bitten by a Spider

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington, of Bosqueville, Texas, would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes: "The first application relieved, and four boxes healed all the sores." 25c. Guaranteed at W. N. Brodrick's, druggist.

Advertise in the Paper That Reaches the Cream of Buchanan's Population

If you want to reach the most people who will read your advertisements you will find the RECORD just the right medium. No paper in Berrien county excludes as much objectionable and undesirable advertising as the RECORD. Time and again we have received tempting propositions to open our columns to parties whose only object is to lure our readers by tempting and impossible schemes, yet we have refused them and the acceptance of which would have meant dollars in our pockets. But for principles which we hold dear to our paper we have to lose the money. But we are slowly, but surely, beginning to realize how our efforts are appreciated by our subscribers and advertisers. This paper has the cleanest and best list of bonafide subscribers—the circulation constantly increasing, but our rates have not been advanced in proportion, as is generally the rule with other newspapers. A farmer cannot reap any benefit out of a sandy and rocky soil as much as he would out of a fertile land. Just so with cheap and poorly arranged newspapers. But the fertile field of the RECORD is of such a character as to bring business to the advertiser who advertises constantly and changes copy often. The RECORD is the only paper that bars local items, disguised as advertisements, from being sandwiched between its pure locals or personals. This new policy was only recently adopted and we are pleased to announce that it will be a permanent feature. If first-class circulation is your object place your advertising in the RECORD. If you want home patronage look to the RECORD to help you get and keep it, but bring your ad too.

Your initials will be published to indicate for whom answers are intended.

N. L.—You throw your whole power into the execution of your plans. You have good business ability, but it is difficult for you to economize in small things. You are indisposed to labor with your hands, save in the furtherance of some plan which promises better things. You have a good deal of the prophetic in your nature. The earth's attraction for you is very strong. You are liable to indigestion and melancholia. Within three months you will make a very favorable change, and the sale of some property will greatly benefit you.

W. T.—You are self-willed, and naturally insubordinate. You are persistent and have enthusiasm bordering on egotism. You are subject to extremes in feeling. You should do your best to overcome the habit of unkind judgement. You are honest and truthful and competent to bear great responsibility. You must be especially careful during the coming month of May, and make no changes in the month.

H. B.—You are unyielding and very determined in whatever you undertake. You have your own ideas of everything and somewhat set in your ways of thinking. Are inclined to look on the dark side of things. You can be easily led through your sympathies. You feel the minds of others to a large extent; because of this you should make all your decisions when entirely alone. The early morning, when you first awake, is the best time for you to make decisions. There is a liability to dropsy but by dieting yourself this may be avoided. You should realize quite a good deal of success in this year of 1907.

R. E. R. T.—You have sensitive feelings. Are always hoping for the best. You cannot bear opposition. You are apt to act too quickly; to some extent lack natural policy and therefore liable to get into difficulties. You have an inventive genius, and like to experiment with whatever comes within your reach. You also have a natural taste for decorating. The diseases which you are liable to are heart and kidney troubles. Take good care of yourself between the 58th and 59th years of your life.

The RECORD wishes to announce that news items intended to advertise entertainments where a paid admission is charged cannot be admitted to our local columns free of charge. Five cents a line must be charged for such items when placed under classified liners, otherwise we cannot admit them. Where no admission is charged for entertainments or lectures we are glad to insert them in our columns free. We make this announcement so that our friends and patrons may govern themselves in the future.

Grippe or Influenza, whichever you like to call it, is one of the most weakening diseases known.

Scott's Emulsion, which is Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in easily digested form, is the greatest strength-builder known to medical science.

It is so easily digested that it sinks into the system, making new blood and new fat, and strengthening nerves and muscles.

Use Scott's Emulsion after Influenza.

Invaluable for Coughs and Colds.

LOCAL NEWS

Clean up!
B. R. Desenberg & Bro., are making extensive alterations in the front interior of their dry goods store, thereby adding attractiveness to their window display.

With possibly a good many hot days coming and anticipating the ice cream, prospects the ice cream and soda fountain at Skeet's is being put in "tip-top" condition.

Buchanan Lodge No 68 F. & A. M. will hold a "social session" on Friday evening, April 5, for rehearsal of degree work and as a formal Masonic farewell to Brother John Perrott, who leaves us soon for an indefinite stay in California. E. S. ROE, Secy.

The G. A. R. and S. A. F. will give a musical and literary program, followed by a banquet, Saturday, April 6, in memory of the battle of Shiloh. All loyal soldiers and their families are cordially invited to attend.

Walter East has resigned his position with Armour & Co., at Toledo, Ohio, and will make Buchanan his future home. He has purchased an interest in the dry goods business of D. L. Boardman, where he will welcome his friends and acquaintances. Mr. Boardman, who is so well and favorably known in this community as an up-to-date business man, has had years of experience, and his constantly increasing business, both in the dry goods and ladies' tailoring departments, necessitated his making a change.

Two cities, St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, and seven townships, Berrien, Buchanan, Galien, Oronoko, Sodus, Watervliet and Weesaw, use the Abbott voting machines. The townships of Buchanan and Watervliet have two voting precincts each which added to the two cities makes 17 machines out of a total of 35 in this county. It looks as though the machines will shortly be the only method of voting at elections.

John C. Dick, of Buchanan, who was in town yesterday, stated to the writer that Harry O. Pierce is rapidly failing at the Michigan Asylum for the Insane at Kalamazoo, and that it is thought he cannot live many months. Mr. Dick is administrator of the estate of the late Almira Pierce, mother of H. O. Pierce, which estate amounted, at the time of the death of the late Mrs. Pierce, to between $10,000 and $12,000. After the death of the late Joseph L. Richards, Sr., which occurred about eight months ago, Attorney Frank Sanders of Buchanan, was appointed guardian of his brother-in-law, H. O. Pierce—Niles Star.

Last Friday night the seniors entertained the juniors at the home of Mr. Fred Roe, the president of class '07. The parlor was prettily decorated with the class colors of the juniors, lavender and white; while the sitting room was decorated in gold and white, the senior colors.

A program was rendered which consisted of music and papers by Miss Maude Mitchell and Miss Dortha Gurric, which were jokes on all regardless of class. After the program a contest was entered into in which Miss Mabel Clevenger carried off the prize.

After this came the call for supper partners being selected by strings. A three-course supper was served after which games were played until the early hours of the morning, when all departed voting the senior class royal entertainers.

You will find the Gosben flour, Gerbelle, always uniform and of high quality.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Easter was observed at the Evangelical church with an elaborateness never before known in Buchanan. Never in the history of the church was such a deep interest taken in the devotions and never was the attendance as large as last Sunday. It seemed as though there was a true Easter spirit in the atmosphere and christians with one accord drank in the joy and blessings of the devotions of the resurrection.

Special music was one of the inspirations of the day. It being his last day with his flock of loyal church friends and members, Rev. Halmhuber preached a very touching and interesting sermon which will not be soon forgotten.

Exactly $7.84 was collected from 150 little members of the Sunday school class, ranging in ages from 3 to 14.

Beautiful decorations assisted in making the joyous festival complete. The Easter exercises were rendered in the evening under the auspices of the young people's union.

During the afternoon Rev. Halmhuber made his last round of regular calls on his regular church members. Yesterday morning Rev. Halmhuber departed for Reed City to attend the Evangelical conference to await further instructions for his work in another city.

As post cards will again be in vogue this summer, we think you will find the following new post card regulations worth remembering:

An order has been issued by the postmaster general providing new regulations governing the size, form, and weight of private post-card particles of the mail. Cards bearing particles of glass, metal, mica, sand, tinsel or other similar substances will not be accepted for mailing except when inclosed in envelope.

Private post-cards must be made of an unfolded piece of cardboard, not exceeding three and nine-sixteenths by five and nine-sixteenths inches or less than two and three-fourths by four inches.

In form and in quality and weight of paper the cards must be substantially like the government post-cards. They may be of any color, not interfering with legible address and postmark. Very thin sheets of paper may be attached to them on condition that they completely adhere to the card.

Miss Ella Dellinger, of Galien, visited her sister, Mrs. Louis Proud, Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Halmhuber left yesterday morning for Detroit where she will remain until Rev. Halmhuber is appointed to a permanent pastorate.

An American Most Likely.
The "Seeing London" automobile rolled out Piccadilly in the direction of Hyde Park.

"That, ladies and gents," shouted the guide, as they passed an ancient edifice surrounded by a high brick wall, "that is the town house of the duke of Dea, one of our largest landed proprietors."
The yes of the beautiful American on the back seat were illumined with sudden interest.
"Who landed him?" she cried.
