VOLUME XLI.

BUCHANAN, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1907.

NUMBER 20.

HON. JOSEPH E. PADEN

Hon. Joseph E. Paden, who spends his summers in our charming village, was elected mayor of Evanston, Ill., by a good majority last Tuesday. Immediately after the votes were counted Mayor-elect Paden came to Buchanan to look after his summer home.

Buchanan is proud to welcome such a distinguished gentleman, who is mayor of Evanston, the most exclusive and elite suburb of Chicago, and we believe a few words about him and his qualities will be appreciated by his numerous friends in Buchanan.

Mr. Joseph Paden did not seek the nomination. It was forced upon him, and, like the man that he is, when he found that the demand upon him was from so many different sources, and was so emphatically made, he conceived it to be a civic duty which he assumed just as he has other duties and in which he never failed those who trusted in him.

Mr. Paden is a man who has an ideal equipment for the position. He has served the city for two terms as corporation counsel. This position gave him a wide and firm grasp on the city affairs. He has had personal contact with everything with which the city had to do. He knows its finances, its questions of public improvements, its every affair. He is a man of exceeding good balance, calm, considerate, who after mature judgment, will adopt what he believes to be the right course, regardless of any consideration but the best interests of the city.

Mr. Paden was born on a farm near Litchfield, Ill., January 22, 1861 and worked on the farm until about 23 years ago. He graduated from the high school in that city in 1879. Afterwards he attended the University of Minnesota, finishing the sophomore year; then taught in a country school for one year. Later he attended the Union College of Law in Chicago and was admitted to the bar in 1885. He moved to Chicago in September, 1890, and to Evanston in January, 1892, where he has lived ever since. He was married in October, 1891, and has four children. He has always been affiliated with the Presbyterian church.

He is a member of several of the most exclusive clubs of Chicago, one of the active organizers of the City National Bank of Evanston, of which he is now director and counsel and its largest stockholder. He is a bona fide resident of Evanston, owning his home, and this was one of the reasons why the people honored him at the polls.

Mr. Paden has been identified with all public movements for the good of the city, helping personally with his means and his brains and effort.

For the present, Mr. Paden will take time to map out his work as mayor, and the appointment of men who will compose his cabinet. The Record wishes Mr. Paden every success and prosperity which are his by right after all that has been said and done.

Annie Russell as "Puck"

The dramatic event of the current season is the special limited engagement of Annie Russell, who is appearing at the Grand Opera house, as "Puck" in Wagenhals & Kemper's magnificent production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The entire production, one of the handsomest ever revealed on Broadway, and company, numbering one hundred and twenty-seven people, was brought from New York, where it won the approval not only of the playgoers who crowded the Astor theater to the doors at every performance, but also of the metropolitan critics. The Chicago reviewers were unanimous in the opinion that never in the memory of the present generation of playgoers has there been a production of Shakespeare's best comedy on such a vast scale and with such a royal disregard for expense. Never before says the critics, has there been a production so respectful of the text, so artistic from a scenic standpoint, so capable in the acting.

Of Miss Russell's acting, it has been the universal verdict that never before has "Puck" been impersonated with such taste, spirit and imaginative feeling.

For the production, not only is there mechanical perfection, but the staging of the play is done with artistic excellence not before approached. The color schemes for the different scenes are conceived with a sure artistic sense. What with flowers glowing mysteriously when "Puck" touches them, owls with blinking electric eyes and fairies who seem to have solved the problem of aerial flight, the perfection of stage effects has been reached in this production.

Miss Russell's engagement in Chicago, will terminate on Saturday April 13.

You will find the Goshen flour, Gerbelle, always uniform and of high quality.

THAW FOUND SANE; TRIAL WILL PROCEED

JEROME NOT ALLOWED TO SEE COMMISSION'S MINUTES.

WILL APPEAL THE POINT

Cites His Exclusion from Lunacy Board's Last Sitting—Report Is Sweeping Victory For the Defendant.

New York, April 5.—Harry K. Thaw was declared sane Thursday by the unanimous report of the commission in lunacy appointed to inquire into his present mental condition. The moment the decision was handed down from Justice Fitzgerald's desk, District Attorney Jerome was on his feet vigorously protesting against its confirmation by the court. He charged that he had been excluded from the last session of the commission and demanded to be allowed to have access to the minutes and stenographic notes of what transpired at the final mental and physical examination of the defendant.

When Justice Fitzgerald declined to turn the minutes over to the district attorney, Mr. Jerome declared he would carry the case to the appellate division of the supreme court, asking that a writ of prohibition or mandamus be granted to prevent a continuance of the Thaw trial until the higher court had ruled upon the legality of the commission's course.

Adjourned Until Monday.

Justice Fitzgerald reminded Mr. Jerome that he had waived the statutory right of attending the last session of the commission by suggesting himself that all the attorneys be excluded from the sitting in question. He then granted the district attorney an adjournment until Monday morning next in order that he might have time to prepare his application to the appellate division. Mr. Jerome protested that the time was not sufficient, but Justice Fitzgerald cut him short with the announcement that the trial must be concluded forthwith.

Unless Mr. Jerome should secure a writ of prohibition in the meantime, Justice Fitzgerald is expected to announce on Monday morning that he has confirmed the report of the commission, and order that the trial proceed without further delay. The district attorney and the counsel for the defense will be heard in argument as to the confirmation of the report at Monday's session of the court if they so desire.

Thaw and Jury Not Present.

Thaw was not in court to hear the decision. The jury which has heard the testimony against him was also excluded, and both prisoner and jurors were out of range of the district attorney's heated discussion with Justice Fitzgerald. All the members of the Thaw family, including the mother and wife of the defendant, were present, however, and their keen delight over the announcement of the favorable report from the lunacy commission was turned into alarm at the unexpected attitude of the district attorney, whose threat to take the matter before the appellate division of the court seemed to involve another serious delay in the long-drawn-out trial.

The news of the commission's unanimous verdict as to his present sanity was carried to Thaw in the prisoner's pen. He expressed satisfaction, but not surprise. There has never been a time since the commission was appointed that the defendant has not been wholly confident of a favorable decision. He declared today that he felt especially lucky because it was the second anniversary of his marriage.

Report Is Unanimous.

The decision came during the afternoon session of the court and after reports had gained wide circulation that the commission was split and could not reach an agreement. The two lay commissioners—Messrs. David McClure and Peter B. Olney—were said to have submitted a report declaring Thaw to be sane, whereas Dr. Leopold Putzel was asserted to have submitted a minority opinion to the effect that Thaw was not wholly sane despite the fact that he apparently had been able to advise lucidly with his counsel.

Justice Fitzgerald had a long consultation with the three commissioners prior to the morning court session and then announced that there would be no decision before two o'clock. In the meantime Dr. Putzel withdrew from the conference and this gave color to the report that he was at odds with his fellow members.

The unanimous report, therefore, came as a complete surprise. In handing it down Justice Fitzgerald gave no inkling whatever as to the finding and as the report was not read in court few of those in the crowded room knew what the verdict had been. Mr. Jerome made his plea without perusing the report. He evidently had divined its contents, however, although he carefully prefixed the phrase, "if the report should be unfavorable to my contention," to all of his remarks.

Big Victory for Thaw.

When the report finally fell into the possession of the newspaper men it was seen to be a most sweeping victory for Thaw. It confirmed the reports of the excellent showing he had made before the commission in both his mental and physical tests, and also indicated that the only expert testimony which the commission had taken into consideration was that of the physicians who had had an opportunity to examine Thaw and talk with him almost daily during the trial.

The testimony of the other experts, who answered from hypothetical basis, was declared by the commission to be irreconcilable. The most significant paragraph in the report reads:

"The direct oral and physical examination of the defendant by the commissioners themselves disclosed no insanity in the defendant at the present time."

With reference to the suggestions Thaw made to his counsel, Mr. Deimas, for his summing up speech, which the district attorney declared were evidences of insanity and were so attested by the alienists he introduced, the commission says:

"Many of these suggestions were deemed valuable and were adopted by his counsel and examination of the letters referred to shows that generally the suggestions contained in them were material, sensible and apparently the product of a sane mind."

MAY BE NORFOLK FUGITIVE.

Vancouver Prisoner Answers Description of Alleged Murderer.

Vancouver, B. C., April 5.—F. C. Gould, who Wednesday pleaded guilty in the Vancouver police court to six charges of forging stocks, is believed to be wanted in Norfolk, Va., for murder, marks and descriptions tallying exactly with the description sent out by the authorities. He is accused of killing his roommate in February, 1906. A reward of $400 was offered for his arrest. He admits having lived in Virginia, but denies the charge of the crime.

JAIL DELIVERY FOILED.

Los Angeles Prisoners Try to Kill Jailer and Escape.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 5.—Three prisoners in the county jail here, one a murderer, made a desperate attempt to murder the night jailer and escape early Thursday. Two of them were shot and wounded and all three captured.

The prisoners concerned in the attempt are Earnest Stackpole, J. B. Fleenot, colored, and a negro named Born. Fleenot was shot in the forehead and Born in the hand.

STRIKING RIVETER IS SHOT.

Bullets Fly in Fight at the Lorain Shipyards.

Lorain, O., April 5.—The most serious clash that has occurred during the strike at the local yards of the American Shipbuilding company took place late Thursday afternoon, during which a striking riveter, "Punk" Conners, was shot by one of the company detectives. A large number of shots were fired and the incident has led to increased feeling between the strikers and strike-breakers in the employ of the company.

Schooner's Crew Rescued.

Charleston, S. C., April 5.—With the captain and eight of the crew of the schooner Myrtle Tunnell aboard, the steamer Mae, Capt. Carty, came into port Thursday. The Tunnell was on her way from Brunswick to New York and Monday ran into the northeast gale that was blowing at that time and was struck by a huge sea, which swept over the vessel, filling her and smashing up her gear.

Big Woolen Firms Fail.

Worcester, Mass., April 5.—Akers & Taylor, woolen manufacturers in Charlton City, one of the principal manufacturing concerns in Worcester county, have failed. The failure carried with it the Taylor Manufacturing company in Hope Valley, R. I., whose principal owner is Fred S. Taylor, of the firm of Akers & Taylor. The joint failures have liabilities estimated at $200,000.

NABBED FOR SELLING HARRIMAN'S LETTER

STENOGRAPHER HILL ARRESTED AND LOCKED UP.

STARTED ROOSEVELT ROW

Prisoner Long in Railway King's Employ—Further Statement Concerning Scheme to Thwart the President.

New York, April 5.—Frank W. Hill, a stenographer, was arrested Thursday night charged with having sold to a newspaper a personal letter of E. H. Harriman. The warrant was sworn to by Alexander Millar, secretary of the Union Pacific Railroad company, of which Mr. Harriman is the president, and was served by a detective from the district attorney's office. Hill was locked up at police headquarters.

The letter in question was addressed by Mr. Harriman to Sydney Webster and was first published here by the World last Tuesday morning. Statements therein contained called forth a reply from President Roosevelt Tuesday afternoon.

Hill is 37 years of age and lives in Brooklyn.

Offense Is a Misdemeanor.

Action against Hill was taken under the section of the penal code which defines as a misdemeanor the act of "a person who wilfully and without authority either takes a letter, telegram or private paper belonging to another, or a copy thereof, and publishes the whole, or any portion thereof." Assistant District Attorney Paul Krotel has charge of the case and it was said that the arrest will, it is believed, discourage the publication of letters of another prominent man which, according to report, recently had been offered for sale.

A copy of Harriman's letter in which the writer stated the chief executive had appealed to him for funds for the campaign of 1904, made, it is alleged, from Hill's stenographic notes and in his handwriting, was offered for sale to a Brooklyn paper and later to a New York paper, both of which declined to purchase. This particular New York paper subsequently turned the copy over to the district attorney's office.

Long in Harriman's Employ.

Hill was employed in Mr. Harriman's office for 21 years. About a year ago he was discharged because, it was said, of friction with other employes. Recently he entered the brokerage office of De Coppet & Doremus. He has a wife and two children.

Hill was placed in a cell for the night and will be arraigned Friday. When asked whether he cared to make any explanation, he replied that he was too greatly perplexed to discuss the matter. Neither Mr. Harriman nor anyone connected with his office would comment upon the arrest.

Plot Story Is Reiterated.

Washington, April 5.—It was said on authority at the White House Thursday that there is ample evidence at hand for the claim the president makes that there is a movement afoot to defeat his policies in the next congress and in the next national convention. It is declared that the "Hearst-Harriman-Rockefeller combination" has already a fund of $5,000,000 with which to carry on its campaign in opposition to the president. It was further authoritatively said:

"They are gathering up the loose ends, but the movement will flatten out. It is apparent in Ohio and Pennsylvania; in fact, it extends across the entire continent. The scheme was thoroughly divulged at a recent dinner and reached the White House through a friend of the president. The scheme of the people behind the movement is to buy newspapers, public men and others, who may assist the opponents of the president in their work."

National Convention Scheme.

It was also stated authoritatively at the White House that part of the plan to encompass the defeat of the president's policy is the election of state delegations to the national convention from those states known to favor the president, these delegates to be instructed for President Roosevelt notwithstanding knowledge in advance that the president would not be a candidate for renomination. Then, according to the statement made, these delegates, upon the president's declining to be a candidate for renomination, are to be switched over to some opponents of the president and the policies for which he is standing.

The first victim of the season's drowning is Harry Belding, 17 years old, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Belding, who was drowned in the river last Friday afternoon. His body has not yet been recovered, though persistent search is being made for it. He was to have graduated from the college next month. On his return from school last Friday, he went to the river to take a ride in a launch he had been helping to fit up. In jumping from the Tourist, moored close by, to the launch, he missed it and fell. He caught a line and held on till a rescuer in another boat was within a few feet of him, when he suddenly let go and went down and did not re-appear. His parents are overcome with grief and his desk at the college is covered with flowers, placed there by his fellow students. The annual farce which was to have been given at the college Monday night was postponed on account of his death.
