COULD NOT SAVE HIM

Man Who Had Taken Poison Dies in Front of a Church on the Street.

HE QUARRELED WITH HIS WIFE

Drink at the Bottom of the Tragedy—Midland's Postoffice Robbed—Calumet and Hecla Replies.

Fenton, Mich., May 21.—Just as the congregation of the Methodist church was leaving the edifice after the morning service a man who was being supported by a woman and another man suddenly dropped to the ground and died in agony, surrounded by church people.

His Wife Had Upbraided Him.

Peter Helm, aged 35, employed in one of the mills, had been drinking Saturday night and his wife upbraided him for his misconduct. Sunday morning they had a quarrel and Helm went to the drug store and bought two ounces of carbolic acid. Returning home he told his wife that if she began the quarrel again he would end his life. Mrs. Helm told him that if he didn't reform she would leave him. Helm then pulled the cork and drank the entire two ounces of acid.

Died in Front of the Church.

The wife and Helm's brother were taken by surprise. So quickly did he swallow the stuff that he could not stop him, but taking him between them they started for a doctor's home as fast as they could make him walk. As they reached the church, however, Helm suddenly fell forward to the ground and was dead by the time his wife knelt at his side and placed his head on her knee.

Made His Rope of Sheepskin.

Vassar, Mich., May 21.—Luis Dachstater, aged 40, single, laborer, barged himself in the barn of Fred Wirth, five miles north. The body had hung all night. The noose was made of strips of sheepskin which stretched until his feet almost touched the floor. No cause known for suicide.

HARD TOWN, THIS, TO WAKE

While It Sleeps, All but the Watchman, the Postoffice Is Blown to Flinders.

Midland, Mich., May 21.—The safe in the postoffice was demolished by robbers, who secured $1,000 in money and stamps. The deed was done so quietly, notwithstanding the amount of damage, that no one had an inkling of the robbery until Lynn, son of Postmaster Northway, went to the office in the morning. Northway says he found the front door unfastened and a large hole in the window.

The interior of the postoffice was strewn with debris, the furnishings being badly wrecked and the door of the safe blown across the room. The clock had stopped at 1:42. The night watchman says that he was on his beat, but that he neither heard nor saw anything suspicious. Several residents say that they heard a muffled explosion, but it was not loud enough to disturb them. The booty the robbers carried away consisted of $900 in stamps and $100 in cash.

Disavows Any Unlawful Act.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 21.—The answer to the bill of complaint filed by Albert S. Bigelow in the second suit which he began recently against the Calumet and Hecla Mining company has been filed in the United States circuit court. The Calumet and Hecla makes a complete denial of any unlawful or illegal acts or of entering into any agreement or combination for the controlling or restraining the copper trade in Michigan.

"Prexy" Angell Is to Speak.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 21.—The Michigan Women's banquet, the largest co-ed social event of the year, will be held in Barbour gymnasium Saturday, May 25. "Prexy" Angell has departed from his usual custom in regard to banquets and has consented to respond to a toast. Miss Florence Burton, '06, has been chosen toast-mistress.

The members are from France, Porto Rico, Spain, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Russia, Poland and Italy. Two meetings are to be held each month, one purely social and the other devoted to political and geographical discussions.

New Lathrop, Mich., May 21.—This village must soon attract the attention of President Roosevelt. Following closely upon the advent of triplets in the home of Editor Roe comes the announcement of the arrival of an 18-pound boy at the house of William McAvoy. Mother doing well.

Fairbanks at Bay City.

Hillsdale Wins Its Case.

Hillsdale, Mich., May 21.—Judge Lockwood has decided in the case of Stock vs. the city of Hillsdale that the city can take water for the water supply from Bawbeese lake.

DRAWS A VERY FINE LINE

Judge Van Devanter's Decision in a Case of Blood Poisoning Is Pretty "Close."

St. Louis, May 21.—A decision has been handed down by Judge Van Devanter, in the United States court of appeals, holding that a wound, within the meaning of an accident insurance policy, covering blood poisoning contracted by a physician in a surgical operation must be an abrasion of the skin or membrane whereby germs are introduced into the blood; that mere contact of particles of septic matter with a membrane where no eruption or rupture is caused is not a wound, although infection and injury or death may follow.

The case was that of John B. Thompson, of Denver, a dentist, against the Fidelity and Casualty company, of New York, who secured a judgment of $1,000.44 against the insurance company. This is reversed by Judge Van Devanter's decision. While operating on a patient, Mrs. Josephine Reed, she suddenly coughed and some tiny particles of septic matter struck him in the eye. Blood poisoning ensued, and he was disabled for ten weeks. Thompson had an accident policy and sought to recover damages.

CHURCH GOVERNMENT REPORT

Plan Proposed for the Presbyterians Which Is Suspected by Some Deputies at Columbus.

Columbus, O., May 21.—After a spirited discussion the Presbyterian general assembly adopted the report of the special committee on administrative agencies referring to the presbyteries four overtures relating to changes in the form of government of the church, which provide for the establishment of executive commissions by the presbyteries, synods and general assembly, of which the moderators of the respective organizations shall be the head. The opposition alleged that the scheme was an attempt to build up a church government similar to the Roman Catholic church hierarchy.

By unanimous vote the assembly made the report of the committee on temperance a special order for tomorrow afternoon, at which time the controversy between the inter-church temperance federation and the Anti-Saloon League will be threshed out on the floor of the assembly.

ENSIGN BRISBIN'S DEED

Tries to Suicide as a Sequel of the Recent Trouble with Jackies at Santiago, Cuba.

Washington, May 21.—The navy department received a dispatch from Santiago, Cuba, stating that Ensign Alfred T. Brisbin, who was in difficulty with the police of Santiago about a fortnight ago in company with sailors from the Tacoma, had shot himself through the lung and was in a serious condition. Ensign Brisbin is at Santiago.

The official investigation of the trouble with the Santiago police appears to have developed the fact that Brisbin was drinking with the sailors, which would doubtless have resulted in his having been court-martialed. Brisbin was born in Idaho.

Pays a Fine of $20,000.

New York, May 21.—The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad company, through its attorney in the United States court, pleaded guilty to two of twelve counts of an indictment charging that the railroad had granted rebates on shipments of coffee made by the Woolson Spice company, of Toledo, O. A fine of $10,000 on each of the two counts was imposed, and was paid. The other ten counts were not pressed.

School Furniture Trust Hit.

Chicago, May 21.—Fines aggregating $28,000 as a means of smashing a trust were used by Judge K. M. Landis in the United States district court when Frederick A. Holbrook and thirteen church and school furniture companies were punished for stifling competition. Holbrook was fined $5,000, the limit.

If There Is Merit in Your Goods, Tell Others About It

Advertise!

Some of the old timers refrain from printed advertising in newspapers, saying that the best advertisement is merit. Merit is a good advertisement, but it is mighty slow in its action.

If the inventor of the typewriter planned and built the machine in his barn without letting anyone know about it, if he kept absolutely quiet about his doings, relying on the fact that the typewriter had merit, it would never be known to the public unless he told about it. If the inventor waited for merit alone as the vehicle for acquainting the world with the merits of the typewriter, the world would never know of it, unless, perhaps, a fire inspector or a health officer accidentally stumbled across the machine while inspecting the premises.

If the inventor waited for intrinsic merit to sell his goods, he would find that months and years would elapse before he could develop his business into profitable proportions.

If you have a good thing you must tell about it.

Telling makes selling. Telling is advertising.

The moral of this is plain.

Advertise in the Record.

When you don't tell the people what you have, don't grumble because bargain-hunters read mail-order catalogs. The ladies are just as ready to buy of local merchants as of mail order houses.

They like to be informed.

When a merchant is not meeting his competitor squarely he raises prices to offset the decrease in business due to not advertising his wares.

Advertise in the Record.

Advertising does pay.

PLOT FOR THREE LIVES

Men Marked for Death Were the Czar, Stolypin and Grand Duke Nicholasievitch.

MEN WHO PLOTTED ARE CAUGHT

Russian Premier Tells the Story to the Parliament.

That Body Expresses Its Joy and Gratitude Unanimously—Assassination at Odessa Followed by Black Hundred Riots.

St. Petersburg, May 21.—Previous to the opening of the session of the lower house of parliament a resolution expressing the great joy of the house at Emperor Nicholas' escape from death at the hands of those who plotted his assassination, and the deepest indignation at the recent criminal conspiracy, so fortunately frustrated, was unanimously adopted. The reading of the resolution called forth hearty applause, but the expected monarchist demonstration did not take place. The Social Democrats, Social Revolutionists, part of the Group of Toil, and others, were absent from the house when the resolution was presented and adopted.

Reds Were After Stolypin, Too.

In formally announcing the discovery of the plot Premier Stolypin said that not only was the emperor's life aimed at, but the plotters intended to assassinate Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasievitch, president of the council of national defense, and himself. Grand Duke Alexander Micholievitch, brother-in-law of the emperor, and Grand Duke Nicholas Micholievitch were among those present when the resolution was adopted. The premier opened his address by saying that the accounts of the plot as published in certain foreign newspapers were extremely exaggerated.

Facts Got Out of the Mail.

Continuing, Stolypin said: "In February the department of public order and security at St. Petersburg obtained information that a criminal society had been formed in this city with the direct object of executing a series of terrorist outrages. A prolonged and difficult investigation resulted in the discovery of a number of members of the society and others intimately associated with them. Reports were made of the residences of the conspirators, which were constantly changed, the utmost secrecy being observed. But all their movements, private codes and passwords were discovered in reports which they sent by post.

Were Seeking Admission to the Palace "It has been established by the preliminary inquiry that many of those arrested belonged to the Social Revolutionists, and that their object was to organize an attempt on the life of the emperor and carry out terrorist attacks on Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasievitch and the president of the council of ministers. Members of the society were seeking measures to enter the imperial palace, where the emperor is living, but their attempts failed."

GALIEN GIRL DISAPPEARS

Supposed to be Dead Turns up in Indiana—Her Strange Actions Puzzle.

Michigan City, Ind., May 20.—Edna Antiss, possibly 25 summers who spent several days at the King board in a house on east Fifth street, and suddenly disappeared has been found.

It was feared she had met a tragic end. She left here sometime in February without taking her personal effects. No word has since been had from her, but according to a telegram to a Michigan state paper she has been found at a farm house in the Kankakee valley district.

Edna Antiss would have had her parents believe her dead and mourn her as such. They reside at Galien. The young lady presented herself at the King boarding house in February and asked for employment. Mrs. King had no work but offered her quarters there until she might secure employment. In this she was unsuccessful and finally left for Laporte saying she would visit a gentleman friend in that city. Her personal effects were left at the King home but she did not reappear to claim them.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at W. N. Brodrick, Druggist.

VENIRE RUNNING LOW

Another Bunch of Talesmen Needed for the Jury in the Haywood Case.

GRIND IS GETTING MONOTONOUS

Many of Those Examined Have Formed Opinions.

Prospect of Securing a Jury Soon Not at All Encouraging—Defense Drops Roosevelt's Letter.

Many Talesmen Have Views.

The vacancy created by the ninth challenge, made on Saturday, was open when the trial was resumed; the vacancy created by the eleventh challenge was open when court adjourned, and the difference between the two sums up the little stride forward: Sixteen men were examined and excused for cause. Most of them had deep-seated opinions as to the guilt or innocence of William D. Haywood, and went down for bias challenges from the state. Two of the sixteen had scruples against capital punishment, and two others had scruples about hanging a murderer on circumstantial evidence.

Defense Drops Roosevelt's Letter.

The examination wearily droned its way over the same old ground, although the defense has narrowed its range of questions. It asked nothing about the Roosevelt letters and the Taft speeches, but devoted much attention to possible local prejudices and the existence of general prejudice against socialists. At one time the defense returned to Juror Fisher and questioned him as to a conversation with C. P. Allen, a local socialist, in October last. Fisher was at first certain that he had not talked with Allen, but when Allen came forward the juror said he recognized him.

Allen and Fisher Do Not Agree.

Allen was sworn and testified that Fisher had said that he knew of the acts of the accused in Colorado, and that they should have been strung up before they were brought to Idaho. Fisher maintained that he did not say that, but thought he might have said that if the accused were guilty of the things done in Colorado they should have been strung up. James H. Hawley, leading counsel for the state, questioned Allen at length and brought out the statement that he was employed by the defense to poll his precinct; that he was paid $3.50 a day when he worked, and that he was under pay now.

SWITCHMEN URGED TO ACT

Grand Master Hawley Wants the Union to Condemn Idaho.

Detroit, May 21.—Grand-master Frank T. Hawley, in his annual address at the opening here of the biennial convention of the Switchmen's Union of North America, urged that resolutions be adopted by the convention condemning the manner in which Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone were taken from Colorado to be imprisoned in Idaho.

Blodgett Attacks Roosevelt.

Atlanta, Ga., May 21.—Chairman Blodgett of the state Republican League which was formed to fight the present administration, has issued an address to Republicans of the south in which he takes the administration severely to task for the appointment to offices of "Democrats and lukewarm Republicans."

New York, May 21.—Arthur H. Masten, the referee appointed by Judge Lacombe, of the United States district court, to hear the evidence on the constitutionality of the law reducing the price of gas in New York city from $1 to 80 cents per 1,000 feet, has reported that the law is unconstitutional.

TERRORISM LOOSE AT ODESSA

Police Officials Assassinated and the Black Hundreds Running Wild.

Odessa, May 21.—Following the assassination of three police officials here serious rioting occurred, and the Black Hundreds are running wild through the streets, mercilessly beating people, particularly Jews, more than 100 of whom were seriously injured soon after the disturbances began. The police apparently remained passive spectators of the disorder. No arrests were made, and the Black Hundreds continued their work of revenge unchecked.

The tragedy which led to the rioting was openly enacted. While the superintendent of police and a number of other officials were in the central police bureau two men and a girl entered the building, deposited an infernal machine in the office and went away. The machine exploded almost immediately afterwards, killing the chief of police and two of the chief detectives of the city. They were blown to pieces, and seven other persons were seriously injured.

The police pursued, fired at, wounded and captured the two terrorists, but the girl who was with them escaped. The leader of the terrorists was subsequently identified as a man named Tcherthoff. The two detectives killed were bitterly hated by the terrorists, one of them for alleged participating in inciting the outbreak of 1905 here, and the other, who was nicknamed "The Hangman," because he had, as alleged, tortured political prisoners.

Superman Wins the Handicap.

Gravesend Race Track, N. Y., May 21.—Superman, the 3-year-old colt of James R. Keene's stable, won the Brooklyn Handicap on a track fetlock beat in mud. Superman covered the distance of one mile and a quarter in 2:08, beating Beacon Light, who was second, by a length. The purse was worth $20,000.

Just Put Your Shoulder to the Wheel

Nothing very serious the matter—Don't get excited—but your HELP is needed.

Every man, every woman and every child can HELP.

This town needs your HELP.

It is a good town, but every good citizen wants to see it become a better town. But unless the good citizens stand by the town, lend a hand, put a shoulder to the wheel or get in front and pull, without balking, there won't be any noticeable progress.

Towns are not Topsy's. No town "just grows." It's the people in a town and around it, who make it grow by feeding it the right sort of diet.

A pig in a poke won't get fat. Nor will a town with its light hidden under a bushel attract attention from outside.

Unless you throw corn into a lean shoat the animal never will become a fat porker. It is just as necessary to feed a town and community with fresh material from the outside world.

It is up to you and each of us to get out and forage for the town. Speak a good word for it. Write a good letter for it. To you the place where you live is the most important place in the world. It is the best place in the world. It is the center of the world. The universe revolves around it.

This being so—and you can't deny it—why not HELP advertise the center of the universe? Why not tell your friends and acquaintances elsewhere what they are missing by living away from the real center?

Talk has built up many a town—every town, in fact. Talk can build up this town. You can't talk too much if you talk right.

Record Ramblings

Because William Ellis Corey was a divorced man, the preacher who married him to Mabelle Gilman has returned the wedding fee and apologized to the church. This is a somewhat ahead of the legal profession, in which fees are never returned.

It is reported that a Milwaukee man made a million in wheat Thursday. "Bet-a-million" Gates may soon have a rival. Or, to be strictly up-to-date, the place of "Bet-a million," recently vacated, may not remain so.

Abraham Ruef says he will expose "only those who entered willingly into corruption." That he sets up as an arbiter of purity shows he still has some nerve left.

The Thaw defense has a new counsel-in-chief; someone having been found, perhaps, with a copyright on a new brand of dementia Americana.

Whenever you are away from your native town we hope you will show yourself a booster of an excellent variety. The best evidence of your loyalty to our town is when you manifest confidence in Buchanan's future, and are not afraid to express your candid views to whomsoever you meet.

What of it? If this generation is not convinced, its grandchildren will be.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to the many neighbors and friends, who in our late bereavement, occasioned by the illness and death of our dear mother, bestowed so many kind remembrances, by their sympathy favors and beautiful flowers. WHEN DAM IS COMPLETED

It will Develop 8,000 Horse Power—A Great Saving in Coal Bills

Work is about to be commenced in real earnest on the Berrien Springs dam, which is to be built in the St. Joseph river, at the head of the Pardee island by the Berrien Springs Power and Electric Co. Among the officers of the company is C. A. Chapin, who is also proprietor of the Buchanan dam.

They propose to build a dam and power house at Berrien Springs approximately 21 feet high which will develop continually 2,000 to 8,000 horse power.

This will be operated in conjunction with the dams at Buchanan, Michigan; Twin Branch, Indiana, and Elkhart, Indiana, and a large steam plant at South Bend. This means that with a proper steam relay to take care of low water periods in the river, Berrien county will have about 8,000 electric horsepower power developed at Buchanan and Berrien Springs. To develop a similar amount of energy in one by coal would require approximately 175,000 tons

In addition to the value of these dams from a commercial standpoint, a lake half a mile wide and several miles long will be formed above Berrien Springs, which will have many advantages for Berrien Springs from the resort standpoint.

The above figures are relative to the equivalent amount of coal which this water power is equal to, are perhaps a little above the average, but they represent the value of the river under a good storage of water. The value of the two dams could be expressed in more practical terms by stating that the power derived from them is equivalent to about 15 cars of coal per day for each working day in the year.

Obituary

ANNA B. OSBORN

Anna B. Osborn was born in Economy, Indiana, August 8th, 1830 and passed away May 18th, 1907 aged 76 years 9 mos, and 10 days.

She was the youngest child of Charles and Hanna Osborn, who settled in Cass County when she was a child.

Her father was one of the pronounced men of his day, being a noted Quaker minister, having been sent to Europe several times in the interests of his church and also claimed the honor of having published the first Anti Slavery paper, having been associated with Wm. Lloyd Garrison and other prominent Anti Slavery men. In 1850, February 23, she was married to Jesse S. East

In 1870 they moved to Niles where they lived until the spring of 1887 when they removed to Buchanan having purchased the homestead where they passed the remainder of their lives. She leaves three children Charles N., William W., and James F. all of Buchanan. Five grandchildren and a nephew, Crayton Sigerfoos, of Elkhart, Ind. who with a sister was given the most tender care after the death of their mother when they were children, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

She was true to the religion of her father, was a member of the Friends church of Birch Lake near Vandalia where she was laid to rest beside her husband, who preceded her three years ago, among kindred and friends in the family burial place.

During the long siege of suffering her courage was marvelous and her cheerfulness and fortitude something wonderful.

She was conscious until the last half hour, begged to go, and her faith in God grew stronger with every agonized breath and between intervals of pain she was heard communing with Him, and repeating portions of familiar hymns and scripture passages.
