PETITION FOR HIS LIBERTY

Pardon Board are Not Inclined to Grant Same as Signers Did so to Please Woman

Battle Creek, Sept. 19.—That an application for the pardon of Sylvanus A. Soules is before the board of pardons leaked out last night, when Judge W. R. Kendrick, of Saginaw, one of the members, came to the city to make an investigation. He was accompanied by another member, Edwin A. Blakeslee, of Gallien.

Judge Kendrick, when interviewed on the subject, stated that while he was not at liberty to give out the gist of the application, it was true that the movement had been started by Mrs. Ella Davis-Soules, for an attempt on whose life the husband is now serving time. He says the application has the endorsement of nearly all the jurors, the names having been secured by herself, while she, herself, strongly regrets that any action was taken from the shooting.

The prospects of a pardon being granted, however, are seemingly poor. All those who signed the application say they did so to please the woman, whom it is claimed is suffering much from melancholy.

Butter 50 Cents Per Pound

Terrible Threat Made by Trust Magnates in New York

New York, Sept. 16.—The so-called butter and egg trust has sent forth an advance wail that because of drouth and a shortage in the supply of grass there is a shortage in milk and consequently in the supply of butter, and the price of the latter is to jump to an unprecedented figure.

Fifty cents a pound for butter is predicted. It is asserted the egg supply also is deficient, but this is not blamed on the grass.

Wholesale dealers say there is a shortage in fall farm products and that the prices are advancing.

A Humane Appeal

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at W. N. Brodick drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

GARDNER IS VERY PLUCKY

He Has Already Failed Four Times to Pass the Examinations, But is Now Making Another Effort

St. Joseph Press—Earl Gardner the ambitious young Buchanan man who has tried and failed four times to secure admission to the United States naval academy at Annapolis, Maryland, left recently to try it again. The young man's persistence is admirable, to say the least, and Uncle Sam ought to be glad to give such an ambitious youth the chance that he seems determined to have notwithstanding repeated failures because of slight physical defects, or rather deficiencies which do not bring him quite up to the required standard. For instance it is said that at the last examination he failed to come up to the prescribed minimum. Since the last examination the young man was a victim of ptomaine poisoning and he fell off for a time in weight, but has recovered again and all his friends hope this time he will get through.

Fair Will Be Very Instructive

Besides being the most interesting fair to be given in this state this year the Benton Harbor show will have highly educational features that no one in agriculture can afford to miss. The Michigan Agricultural college will send an exhibit of trees and vines covered with San Jose scale and all sorts of fungus growths and diseases. Alongside of these will be branches that have been treated with the various remedies which have proven themselves effective in killing the enemies of fruit life.

In addition Prof. Shaw of the Agricultural college will have here a drove of brindle and mongrel cows and sheep together with their lambs and the advantage of crossing scrubs with thoroughbred stock will be most strikingly illustrated.

The bands of music and the free shows will surpass anything ever before seen in this part of the state.

Gooseberries on Trees.

Travelers in Burma see many strange things, and perhaps one of the strangest is the way in which some kinds of fruit grow. For instance, gooseberries that at home grow on small bushes in this part of the world grow on trees over twenty-five feet high. They are not a soft, pulpy fruit, but are as hard as marbles. The real Burman grapes also grow on high trees and not on vines. They hang from the branches and trunk of the tree in clusters on a long stalk and are covered with a thick outer skin, which cannot be eaten. The cachou, or monkey nut, is also peculiar and consists of a large, juicy fruit of soft pulp, with its nut or kernel attached to the outside of the fruit at the end farthest from the stalk from which it hangs. ELLSWORTH; 3RD TERM?

Gallen Advocate Thinks He Should Have Another Term

Gallen, Sept. 19.—The Advocate in last week's issue predicts that Judge of Probate Frank H. Ellsworth will be renominated and elected for another term. It says:

Papers throughout the county have been making political predictions of late. Now the Advocate will make one of its own. It is this—that Hon. Frank H. Ellsworth will be renominated and re-elected probate judge of Berrien county.

"There is a generally recognized rule that two terms of a county office is enough, but there are certain exceptions, principally the offices of probate judge and circuit judge.

"This county undoubtedly has the most prominent probate judge in the state. That he is an able one is proved by his splendid administration.

"While several good men have already been mentioned in connection with this office, they probably would retire should Judge Ellsworth consent to become a candidate."

A Pretty Wedding

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Hedwige's church when Miss Cora Marr Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Smith, 712 West La-Salle avenue, was united in marriage with George A. Howard, son of Judge and Mrs. Timothy E. Howard, 714 Cedar street. Several hundred guests witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. John F. De Groote, C. S. C., pastor of St. Patrick's church. Palms and asters formed an attractive decoration for the altar. The Mendelssohn wedding march, rendered by Miss Sara O'Neill, announced the entrance of the bridal party. Charles Senrich and Maurice Hoban served as ushers and George A. Senrich was best man. Miss Genevieve Howard, sister of the groom, attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink silk mull over pink silk and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The bride's gown was of white silk net over taffeta. She wore the full bridal veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home to the immediate families. The house was attractively decorated with cut flowers. Centering the dining table was an immense cluster of tall white asters, while ropes of smilax were draped from the chandelier to the corners of the table. A number of guests from Buchanan, Mich., were in attendance at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Howard left Friday morning for the east to be gone two weeks. After Oct. 1 they will be at home at 322 Kunstman court. Among the large number of gifts received was a lot on East Madison street, presented to the couple by the groom's father, Judge Howard.—South Bend Tribune.

Morgan-Herron

Miss Violet Morgan and Oliver H. Herron, of Michigan City were married in South Bend Saturday by Rev. Johnson of the Presbyterian church. The bride was accompanied to South Bend by her grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Williams, with whom she made her home. The groom is a Michigan Central train dispatcher and is employed in that capacity in Michigan City where the young people will make their home. The bride is a well known Buchanan girl and a graduate of our high school. The best wishes of numerous friends go with them to their new home.

BASE BALL SCHEDULE

Friday, Sept. 20th—at Buchanan—Elkhart Eagles vs. Blues.

BLUES DEFEATED—9 to 4

Despite the masterful manner in which "Happy" Crouch struck out sixteen men in last Friday's game between the Chicago Reserves and the Blues, the result was a victory for Chicago—9 to 4.

Buchanan fans did not relish the disappointing errors made by the Blues at critical stages of the game, especially during the third and fifth innings when the Chicago men were given a wide loophole to score seven runs—a rather costly way of losing to a team like the Chicago Reserves.

The disappointment manifested by those who witnessed the game was great, though it is hoped the boys will concentrate more efforts toward scoring a victory against the next team they play.

That the Blues did not receive a too crushing defeat at the hands of the Chicagoans is due, largely, to "Happy's" timely strike outs.

BIG M. W. A. PICNIC

Plans are Under Way for a Big County Picnic

The Modern Woodmen of America are planning a big county picnic to be held at Berrien Springs, Tuesday, Oct. 1, both day and evening. There are 19 camps in the county and during the day the usual picnic features will be the order, and in the evening it is proposed to initiate into the order a large class, 300 if possible, that will go to the membership of the camps where such members reside. O. H. Lahm of Grand Rapids, district deputy of Berrien, Van Buren, Cass, St. Joseph and Ingham counties, is working up the matter, arranging the advertising, looking after the transportation, etc., but the details are not all arranged as yet.

Health in the Canal Zone

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles.

NOTICE

Beginning October 1st, COAL will be SOLD and delivered ONLY on a CASH basis.

ISRAELITES TO BUILD PARK

Flying Rollers Declare They Will Spend Thousands of Dollars For Improvements

Benton Harbor is to have a big park. And the Israelites are to build it.

As evidence that they think very little of the attorney general, the Flying Rollers today announced that they had plans outlined covering the expenditure of several thousand dollars for the building of a large public park.

Will Be On Britain Avenue

The new park will be on Britain avenue, opposite the headquarters of Benjamin and Mary. The thirty acres recently purchased from the Eastman Springs company will be used for the purpose. Work will start this fall. Hundreds of plants and flowers will be set out. Fine driveways will run through the park. Fountains will be erected and an inland lake will be constructed.

Say They Buy Everything Here.

Brother Tyler, financial secretary of the house of David, was interviewed yesterday. Mr. Tyler has just returned from a trip west.

"We expect our enemies to knock us," he said, "but we do think that our neighbors should treat us courteously."

Regarding the statement that the Israelites do their trading out of town, Mr. Tyler declared that it was wholly untrue.

"We spend over $5,000 in Benton Harbor every month," he declared.

CONCERNING SO. DAKOTA

By One of Our Subscribers

A letter received from Mrs. M. L. Demond, a sister of one of our subscribers, B. J. Slater, who is visiting in South Dakota gives a glowing account of that country.

Watertown, S. D., where she has been visiting, is a beautiful city of ten thousand inhabitants, surrounded by a beautiful lake called lake Kampeska, a summer resort, where people from all parts come to spend the summer. Erwin, S. D., where she is visiting now, although a much smaller place, is a nice town. The surrounding country is a rich farming country, and rich farmers, owning all the way from 160 to 600 acres, and more, raising all kinds of grains.

She was very much surprised at seeing the trees, having been told there were no trees out there, nearly every farm has a grove of trees and most of the farmers have a grove of 160 acres, of course, they have all been planted, no native grown trees.

She likes the country very much and thinks it a very good place to live.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollar for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION

Organized in St. Joseph and Will be Made Permanent.

Merchants of St. Joseph formed what promises to be a permanent Merchants' association in that city. They organized for the purpose of promoting the interests of the retail merchants of the city and elected committees to handle the plans which are now in view.

Nelson C. Rice was made president, Fred A. Potter secretary, and Frank Epler, treasurer. A resolution presented by John F. Duncan, to the effect that the association lend all possible aid to making St. Joseph day at the Southern Michigan state fair a big day, was heartily approved of, and the association will make an effort to boom that particular occasion.

Another meeting will be held next Friday at which time the committees will be ready to report and the plans which are now being matured may then be made public.

HEALTH CURE IN CITY WATER

Benton Harbor Water Users Are Drinking Mineral Water from Mains

Benton Harbor citizens are surprised to find that for the last several months they have been drinking mineral water highly diluted, but nevertheless mineral water, whenever they drew a glass of water from the city water supply.

The discovery has been made at the pumping station that the wells of the city are producing mineral water, the pipes are becoming corrugated and the boiler tubes are beginning to show effects of the properties which the water contains. It has been determined, therefore that the mains by which the bath house is supplied with its mineral water, have been leaking and that the same which they are losing daily, is seeping into the city wells.

This is the second time that there has been trouble over the mineral water and the city water and the outcome of this discussion is still in doubt.

Barbers' Law Neglected

Complaints Reach Lansing That Board Is Lax

Lansing, Sept. 16.—Claims of the State Barbers' Examining Board for July and subsequent months have been held up by the Board because its expenses were in excess of the receipts.

Harry Wheeler, whom Gov. Bliss appointed a member of the board, is running a saloon at Alpena and it is reported here that he has been arrested for violating the liquor law. Gov. Warner has announced the name of his successor, but he will not assume his duties until October 1. It is claimed the enforcement of the barbers' law has been greatly neglected.

Publishers to Organize

To Advance the Interests of the Publishing and Printing Business

R. J. Burch, publisher of the Gallien Advocate, has taken the initiative in the formation of a county organization of newspaper publishers for the purpose of promoting better acquaintance and improvement in the publishing and printing business. Mr. Burch has suggested that the first meeting for the purpose of organizing such a society be held at St. Joseph. The suggestion is meeting with favor, among the publishers to whom Mr. Burch has submitted his ideas on the subject, and the probability is that such an organization will be formed. Miles Sun.

EDITORIAL
BOOST BUCHANAN
San Francisco is redeeming itself. It is showing that laws were made for the government of the rich as well as for the poor; that before the law the rich briber is as guilty as the covetous wretch who accepted bribes.
Schmitz, corrupt and debased mayor, and Ruef, the venal boss who used his power for personal profit, are on their way to the state penitentiary.
A few days ago a jury of his peers pronounced Louis Glass, vice president of a telephone company, guilty of bribery for paying a supervisor to vote against granting a franchise to a rival company.
Yesterday he stood before the bar of justice to receive his sentence, and the court imposed a penalty of five years in state prison, notwithstanding the age, wealth and past respectability of the accused.
This is well.
Nothing can so quickly restore public confidence in government, and the faith of the people in the rule of Democracy, as such proof that the law which has always borne so heavily upon the poor is to rest as heavily upon the rich who tempt and corrupt the public servants.

Fairbanks Guest of Honor at G.O.P. Banquet
(Special to Record)
A delegation of fifty citizens of Buchanan attended the 2nd annual banquet given by the Berrien County Republican Club at St. Joseph last evening, where they had as opportunity of rubbing elbows with the most distinguished politicians and statesmen of the nation.
Charles Warren Fairbanks, vice-president of the United States was the guest of honor.
There were 1120 plates laid. On each plate were placed in neat order, a miniature American flag, pamphlet of menu and program and a card bearing the inscription: "Don't Forget to Vote Tomorrow, Republican Candidates; Walter C. Jones, Lawrence, C.

Supreme Power Rests With the People.

RECENT public declarations of two federal officers were in effect that it is THE RIGHT AND DUTY of the federal government to step in whenever in the judgment of the men in charge of it the state governments fail to act or to act effectively concerning matters which are assumed to require action by some government.
This is simply a THREAT TO ROB THE STATES or the people of powers reserved to them and to do it by applying to their grant and reservation the ingenuities of legal sophistry.

While these extraordinary proposals have attracted wide notice, some persons seeking to justify them on grounds of convenience and many condemning them on grounds of law and reason, I have noticed hardly a reference to their UTTER REPUGNANCE to the very nature and essential principles of popular government.

SUPREME AUTHORITY RESIDES IN THE PEOPLE, WHO HAVE SOLEMNLY ESTABLISHED THE MODE AND MANNER IN WHICH ALONE THEIR WILL IS TO BE MADE KNOWN. THEY HAVE WITH THE UTMOST CARE AND DELIBERATION DECIDED TO INVEST THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WITH CERTAIN POWERS AND THEIR RESPECTIVE STATE GOVERNMENTS WITH OTHER POWERS. FEDERAL AUTHORITY DOES NOT EXTEND TO ANY SUBJECT MERELY BECAUSE INTEREST IN IT BECOMES MORE GENERAL.

The term "state rights" no longer implies, as for a time it did, a wish to deny or unduly restrict federal powers. On the contrary, one of the rights of the people of the states which have come to be most highly valued is to have the federal government employ the authority transferred to it, so that THE ENDS IN VIEW MAY BE ACCOMPLISHED, because it now has sole jurisdiction of the subjects placed in its charge.

Fyfe and Victor M. Gore,"—all prominent republican candidates for the constitutional convention.

Before the banquet the distinguished guests held a reception in parlors of the Whitcomb Hotel. Those who wished the honor of shaking hands with the man who may some day be president were gratified. Hundreds cramped the hotel parlors in an eager effort to grasp the hand of the vice-president.

At the banquet which began at 6 o'clock in the evening, Rev. C. E. Marvin of Niles, pronounced the invocation.

The following menu was served by the ladies of the First Evangelical church, whose reputation as caterers had been firmly established, they having performed a similar function a year ago:

- Heart of Celery
- Queen Olives
- Sweet Pickles
- Individual Chicken Pie
- Whole Tomatoes
- Potato Salad
- Boston Brown Bread
- Home Made Bread
- Michigan Cheese
- Ice Cream
- Assorted Cake
- Coffee
- Cigars

The following was the program prepared for the occasion with the exceptions of Hon. Fred C. Wetmore and Governor Warner, who were not present and sent telegrams of regret:

- Introduction of the toastmaster—President O. B. Hipp.
- Toastmaster—Hon. E. L. Hamilton.
- Singing "Michigan, My Michigan."
- Audience.
- Some Tariff Problems—Hon. John T. Rich.
- Young Men in Politics—Hon. H. C. Smith.
- Song—Club quartet.
- Relation of Republican Clubs to Party Success—Hon. C. A. Palmer.
- What next?—Hon. Fred C. Wetmore.
- Song—Club quartet.
- The American Navy—Hon. George E. Foss.
- The State of the Union—Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks.
- Singing, "America"—Audience.

The only slight alteration of the program was the gracious manner in which Congressman Foss allowed Vice President Fairbanks to speak in advance of himself in order to enable Mr. Fairbanks to catch a special train which took him to Canton, O., where he is scheduled to take part in the ceremonies connected in placing the last remains of our late martyred president, William McKinley, in the new tomb recently erected.

It was the opinion expressed by every one who attended the banquet that it was the biggest howling success ever seen. It is seldom that a city of St. Joseph's size is able to entertain so many distinguished men as gathered about the banquet boards last night and the fact that this was the second time upon which a political function of such momentous significance has been successfully planned and carried out speaks a great deal for the enterprise and push of the party leaders and the rank and file who have so heartily accorded every support.

BANQUET NOTES.
Congressman Foss was the star speaker of the banquet. He was most heartily applauded at several best stages of his speech.

Many speakers of the evening worked along the line of "You tickle me" and "I will tickle you", or boosting and placing a glittering crown on one another's head.

Vice President Fairbank's speech dealt mainly on endorsing the Roosevelt policy.

Ex-Gov. John T. Rich expressed himself as opposed to any tariff revision. "Let us leave well enough alone", was the gist of his introductory remarks.

The other speakers handled the subjects assigned to them with easy brevity and intelligence and the great audience was satisfied.

BERRIEN COUNTY PRESS ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED

All the fourteen publishers of Berrien county, except those of the Niles Star and Eau Claire Enterprise, were either present in person or by proxy in the parlors of the Whitcomb hotel, yesterday, where an organization was formed to be known as the "Berrien County Press Association."

It was decided at this meeting to enforce the legal rates of publication on all legal notices and thus free themselves from the grasping politicians who were continually requiring that legal notices be printed for less than the legal rate of 70 cents per folio for first publication and 35 cents per folio for each subsequent insertion.

At the next meeting the subscription price of all weekly publications in Berrien county will be raised from $1.00 to $1.50 per year. This increase will be attributed to the steady advance in price of all commodities which go into making the completed papers of over 50 per cent. The election of officers resulted as follows: President—L. E. Merchant, St. Joseph Evening Herald. Vice-President—Mr. Moore, Benton Harbor News-Palladium. Treasurer—E. F. Case, Watervliet Record. Secretary—R. J. Burch, Galien Advocate.

A committee on constitution and by laws was appointed to arrange a program for the next meeting. They comprised R. J. Burch, Galien Advocate; J. N. Reed, Banner-Register; F. N. Cochran, Coloma Courier and Willard Brewer, of St. Joseph Press.

A Madman's Wit.

A Washington educator told a good story about a young medical friend of his who is interested in insanity symptoms and is a sort of amateur alienist. The other day, the student got a chance to visit one of the wards in the Asylum For the Insane, and, having heard that there was a man confined there who labored under the hallucination that he was God, the student asked that he be allowed to see this patient first, as he appeared the most promising for investigation. He was taken to the ward where the lunatic was confined, and the following conversation ensued:

Student—Are you the Deity?
Lunatic—From everlasting unto everlasting I am he.

Student—Well, I've been looking for you for a long time. I have a question to ask you. How do you reconcile the doctrines of predestination and free will?

The lunatic drew himself up to his full height and, giving the medico a scornful glance, replied, "My dear sir, I never talk shop."—Washington Star.

What "Constable" Has Meant.

"Constabulary" and "constable" are curious instances of verbal ups and downs in diguity. Literally "constable" ("comes stabili") means only "stable attendant," but, with "chamberlain," "steward" and many other names of servants, it became exceedingly dignified when the service was loyal. The constable of France and the lord high constable of England were very great men, and Scotland has still her hereditary lord high constable in the Earl of Erroll. Nowadays in ordinary speech "constable" has dropped again to mean only a policeman, "this lower constableness," as Blackstone quotes from Lambard, having been a derivative of the lord high constable's office "and, as it were, a very finger of that hand." One can never tell where a word will finally arrive. "Policeman" and "politician" by origin both mean a man who looks after the affairs of the community.—London Chronicle was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, Sept. 9, 1833 and died at his home in Dayton, Michigan, Sept. 11, 1907, from dropsy and heart trouble aged 74 years, 7 months and 13 days. For nearly a year he has been quite feeble, out always ready to lend a helping hand. He was a patient sufferer and complained but very little. His wish had been to depart from this life without a struggle and it was granted.

Obituary

He enlisted at Niles, Michigan, Oct. 24, 1861. Discharged at Little Rock, Arkansas, Dec. 23, 1863. Reenlisted at Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 24, 1863. Discharged at Camden, Ark., Feb. 15, 1866. He belonged to Co. E 12th regiment, Michigan infantry.

He was married Oct. 22, 1868 to Elizabeth Carpenter Robinson. Three children came to this union, one dying in infancy and Jennie 17 years ago. He is survived by a faithful companion, one daughter, Mrs. Ed. Leiter; one grandson, four brothers and three sisters.

They who go, feel not the pain of parting. It is they who stay behind that suffer.

The funeral was held Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock from Mt. Zion and was largely attended by the many friends of the deceased. Rev. Arnold conducted the services. Music being furnished by J. J. Roe and Mrs. Clara Richards. The pall bearers were Messrs. David Salisbury, George Deihl, Elisha Allen, Allen Frame, A. M. Dalrymple, and A. Ernsberger.

Interment was made in Galien cemetery under directions of Messrs. Richards & Emerson.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in our late bereavement and especially to the friends for their beautiful floral offerings.

MRS. ELIZABETH ALSBAUGH,
MRS. ED. LEITER.

Men and Gossip

"When it comes to discretion, if there is any inequality of the sexes we fancy men have the disadvantage," remarks a London paper. "If there is a scandal in society, a dark cloud overshadowing the ministry, an ominous rumor about a newspaper or a bank, where is it first discussed? Why, in the men's clubs. Thence it reaches the female gossips, and if they in turn mention what 'my husband heard at the club' they are at once set down as scandal mongers, while the originators of the scandal go scot free. In the country houses, too, are not the men as ready to tell tales as the women, as eager to bring forward the latest news, political, social or financial? Many women let their tongues run on, it is true, but so do many men."

Store News

To make shopping a pleasure instead of a task was our purpose in the series of studies which resulted in the enlargement and rearrangement of this store.

Throughout the first floor, center aisle, are ribbons, fancy goods, laces, small wares, toilet articles, umbrellas, Ladies' Home Journal patterns, hosiery, underwear, linens and domestics. Left aisle comprises silks, dress goods, white goods, handkerchiefs, trimmings, wash goods and bedding. Right aisle comprises gloves, muslin underwear, petticoats, infants' wear, corsets and the millinery parlors which are new and up-to-date.

On the second floor are our new suit and fur departments which for appointments are one of the first in the country. On this floor also are our drapery and art departments which are considered the best of their kind. Our new and enlarged carpet and rug department is also on this floor.

For the comfort and convenience of our customers you will find on our second floor a newly appointed retiring and rest room with current literature and writing facilities.

Bargainland, which is situated in our basement, a well lighted and well ventilated salesroom, takes care of all mill ends and surplus stocks.

We have ever reason to believe that as our customers become more and more familiar with the present arrangement they will at the same time become more and more enthusiastic with it.

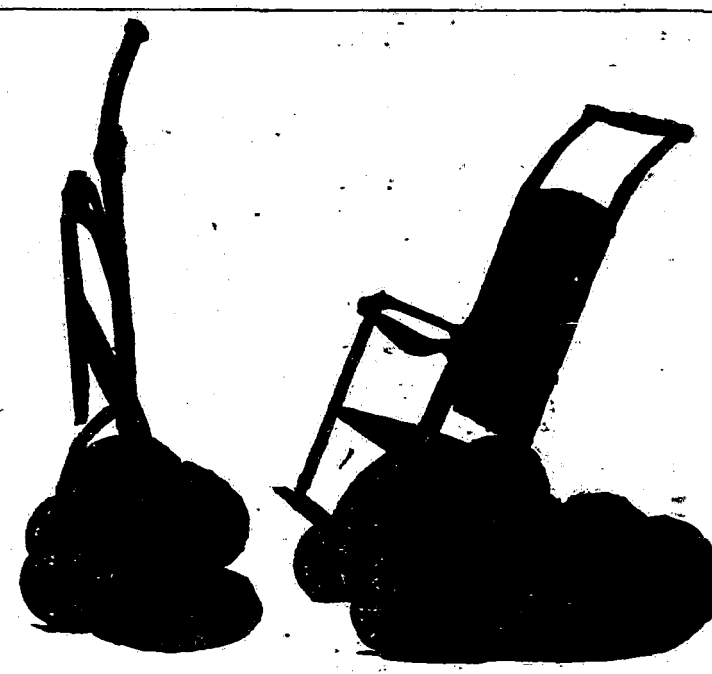

Money Refunded

On any article that is not entirely satisfactory we will gladly refund you the money.

We Need a Religion Good For Every Day.

WE need a custom that insures RELIGIOUS FIDELITY, not merely loyalty to a day and a place and service, not merely enthusiasm for a church and a denomination. All this is worth more than success in trade, political influence and social promotion.

RELIGION SHOULD NEVER BE ACCOUNTED OF LESS IMPORTANCE THAN BUSINESS. It is not necessary to be always talking about it, but it is not a good sign when men who owe all that is best in their lives to our Christian civilization give no sign of reverence for Christ and regard for church, but allow even Sabbath days to pass without religious observance.

Church membership, the ceremonies of church worship, the cold and lifeless assent to church creeds, but no conviction, no earnestness, no personal self sacrifice—this lack is the SADDEST FEATURE OF OUR AGE.

Many people allow the refinements or conflicts of life to blunt their moral convictions. Many business men and society women have a programme for everything but the personal spiritual life.

WE NEED A RELIGION THAT IS GOOD, NOT JUST FOR SUNDAY, BUT A RELIGION THAT MEN WILL LIVE 365 DAYS IN THE YEAR. ONE MAY HAVE A RELIGION FOR THE SABBATH AND THE CHURCH AND UTTERLY LACK A RELIGION FOR SHOP, KITCHEN, FIELD AND PARLOR. WE NEED A RELIGION GOOD FOR ALL DAYS.

One may feel a sort of religious rapture or have a spasm of emotional excitement under the spell of ritualistic influences and yet be as BARREN of everything essential to a genuine, practical, spiritual life as the pigeons that nest among the eaves of the church.

Either the Public or the Railroads Must Rule.

SOCIAL unrest with the management of corporations rendering public service is a fact. Recent developments have shown that great aggregations of capital frequently are used for purposes INIMICAL to the public's interests.

THE UNSCRUPULOUSNESS OF THE METHODS AND THE SELFISHNESS OF THE AIMS OF CERTAIN GREAT CAPITALISTS HAVE AROUSED THE AVERSION OF THE MASS OF THE PEOPLE, AND, RIGHTLY OR WRONG, THEY HAVE WITH PRACTICAL UNANIMITY REACHED THE CONCLUSION THAT THEY MUST CONTROL THE RAILROADS OR THE RAILROADS WILL CONTROL THEM.

They have reached the profound conviction that the fundamental principle upon which public utilities must be conducted is WHOLLY DIFFERENT from the principle upon which, for instance, the mercantile business is conducted.

To bring about safer operation, convenience and comfort of the public, fairness and efficiency of service and rates, requires time and the expenditure of large sums of money by the railroads, and THE PUBLIC SHOULD NOT DEMAND OR ATTEMPT THE IMPOSSIBLE.

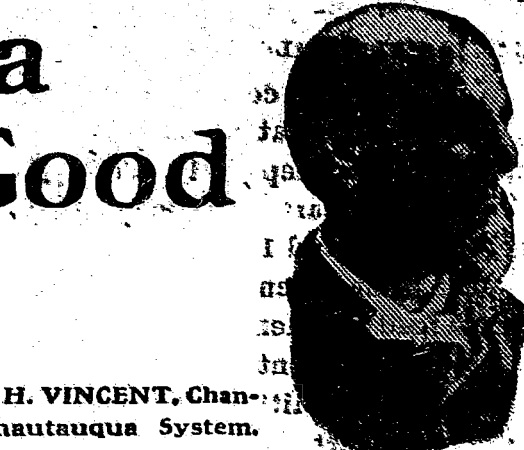

The public has been treated like victims to be plucked instead of friends to be cultivated. The ELEMENTARY LAWS OF HONESTY and fair dealing have been violated. Change all this. Obey the letter of the law.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE DO NOT AND NEVER WILL BEGRUDGE A GENEROUS PECUNIARY REWARD FOR A FIRST CLASS SERVICE, BUT THEY DO AND WILL OBJECT TO A FIRST CLASS PRICE FOR A FIFTH CLASS SERVICE.

An Invincible.
When Alcibiades was told that his countrymen had passed sentence of death upon him for being at the head of a conspiracy to overthrow the religious and political constitution of Athens he said, "I will show them I still live." He obtained from Sparta assurance of personal safety and went hither. He delighted and charmed the Spartans, as he had the Athenians in his earlier years. He adopted their customs and dress and was the strictest Spartan of them all. He wore his hair short, bathed in the icy waters of the Eurotes and ate their black broth and barley bread. They believed that he had been misrepresented. In truth, as Plutarch said, "he changed color more quickly than a chameleon." In Sparta he was grave, temperate and fond of physical exercise; in Ionia he was easy going, luxurious and merry; in Thrace he was drunken, in Thessaly he was devoted to horsemanship, and in the court of the Persian satraps he surpassed Tissaphernes himself in magnificence. As Sparta was to be the prize of the Athenian victory, he showed the people their danger, advising them to begin active operations against that city. No better advice could have been given them, and they profited by it.

WE need a custom that insures RELIGIOUS FIDELITY, not merely loyalty to a day and a place and service, not merely enthusiasm for a church and a denomination. All this is worth more than success in trade, political influence and social promotion.

RELIGION SHOULD NEVER BE ACCOUNTED OF LESS IMPORTANCE THAN BUSINESS. It is not necessary to be always talking about it, but it is not a good sign when men who owe all that is best in their lives to our Christian civilization give no sign of reverence for Christ and regard for church, but allow even Sabbath days to pass without religious observance.

A Game That Two Can Play

By W. Crawford Sherlock.
Copyrighted, 1907, by Homer Sprague.

"You won't keep me waiting long, will you, Beatrice?" urged Fairchild. "Long engagements seldom terminate happily."

"Don't they?" inquired Miss Morrison provokingly. "I have never had any experience."

"Neither have I," returned Fairchild indignantly. "I speak from observation. Don't keep me in suspense, but name the day, won't you?"

"Why, Lawrence, we're just engaged!" opposed the girl coyly. "We shouldn't talk about marrying for a year at least."

"I'm going to Chicago next month," declared Fairchild emphatically, "and shall expect you to be all ready to marry me then."

"I'll never marry in Chicago," asserted Beatrice positively. "I just hate that town."

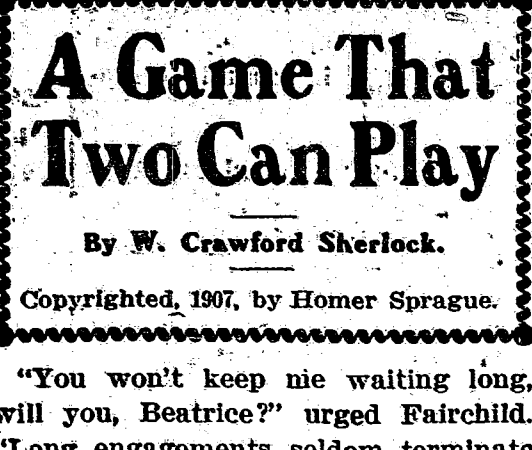

"Then why not marry me here?" pleaded her lover, taking her hand and gazing earnestly into her dark blue eyes. "You have no relatives to consult, nor have I. We can do as we please, and no one can object."

"Oh, that would be impossible! Why, I wouldn't have time to get ready."

"You don't need any more clothes if that is what you mean," argued Fairchild. "You had seven big saratogas with you when you came to Ocean Villa and have worn a different gown every time I have seen you, which has not been seldom, to say the least."

"I know, but"—Fairchild, however, would listen to no objections and pleaded so eloquently that Miss Morrison finally agreed to marry him the following Thursday.

The news of the approaching wedding was soon circulated among the guests of the fashionable Ocean Villa, and many were the congratulations and well wishes extended to the prospective bride and groom. These manifestations of good feeling were not unmixed with some traces of envy.

"I don't see what Mr. Fairchild sees in that Beatrice Morrison," declared Amanda Sparks, who had entertained more than a friendly regard for the prospective young Benedict. "She's as plain as a pipestem, and all her clothes don't give her the slightest style."

"It's her money he's after," asserted Leslie Warren, who had made diligent inquiries into Miss Morrison's financial standing. "Mrs. Rockingham says she's as rich as can be, owns all sorts of land and warehouses in Chicago."

"Mr. Fairchild is very wealthy," asserted Miss Sparks indignantly, "and does not need to marry for money. He occupies the best suit of rooms in the Ocean Villa, has his own automobile and spends his money just lavishly. He's not marrying for money, that's sure."

"Neither is Miss Morrison," retorted Warren. "She's not plain, but just the reverse. In my opinion, much better looking for a woman than Fairchild is for a man."

Despite these and sundry other adverse criticisms, however, the course of true love ran smooth, and on the appointed day Lawrence Fairchild and Beatrice Morrison were married. A short trip to Niagara was planned, and then the bridal couple returned to Ocean Villa.

"Beatrice," said Fairchild the morning after their return to Ocean Villa, "I will have to ask you to loan me a thousand until I get my remittances. I'm a little short of ready money."

"A thousand, Lawrence?" exclaimed Mrs. Fairchild in astonishment. "Why, I never had that much money in the world!"

"What!" shouted Fairchild, rising in his surprise and staring in blank amazement at his wife. "You never had a thousand dollars in your life? Why, I thought—"

"That I was wealthy, didn't you?" questioned Mrs. Fairchild calmly. "Well, you never made a greater mistake in your life, Lawrence." Then, with evidences of rapidly approaching tears, she added, "You didn't marry me for my money, did you, Lawrence?"

"No, not exactly—that is—you know," stammered Fairchild, disconcerted by the news as well as by his wife's agitation. "I thought you were pretty well fixed, you know. Those seven saratoga trunks and all those fetching gowns you wore certainly indicated wealth."

"Those gowns were left to me when my Aunt Clara died," sobbed Mrs. Fairchild hysterically. "I made every one over myself and took the few hundred dollars she left me to come here for the summer. I was only a poor girl working in a Chicago department store before I married you. I never told you I was rich, and I'm sure you can't say I did."

"No, you never did, but I thought you were, all the same," returned Fairchild, who had pulled himself together by this time and was facing her with a grim smile upon his lips. "I guess it's about time for a perfect understanding. Beatrice, I'm as poor as Job's turkey, or poorer, if that was possible. All I have in this wide, wide world is a small clerkship in a Boston store."

"But the automobile and the money you spent like water?" gasped his wife, her tears subsiding as she gazed at him in utter bewilderment. "Everybody said you were immensely rich."

"That's what they said about you, my dear," returned Fairchild sentimentally. "As for my automobile, it was borrowed from a friend who went abroad for the summer, and, as for the cash I have been wasting so extravagantly, it was the savings of years. I made up my mind to have one good time this summer and see how it felt to be rich, so I just came down here."

"With the purpose of marrying a rich girl, I suppose," interposed his wife, struggling to regain her composure.

"To be frank, that was my purpose," admitted Fairchild laconically. "Didn't you come here with the design of making a good match?" Mrs. Fairchild nodded. "Well," continued her husband brightly, "we have both drawn a blank in the marriage lottery so far as money is concerned, haven't we? We are married, nevertheless, and, money or no money, I love you, little woman. Let us be happy, anyway."
