ANXIOUS TO MUZZLE PRESS

Corporation Lawyers Want Investigation in Trust Abuse Kept Quiet.

WILL CALL UPON CONGRESS

Effort Will be Made to Pass Law Prohibiting Publication of Cases Being Investigated.

In his work of developing evidence for use in grand jury investigations into trust abuses, United States Attorney Sims has been informed of a movement by the corporation lawyers of New York and Chicago to muzzle the press.

At the next session of congress a message will be introduced, according to this informant, "an act to regulate the publication of matter concerning the prosecution of cases under investigation and prior to their hearing in court

Attorney Rosenthal, now in New York, and John S. Miller, the $100,000 legal star of the Standard Oil Co., Chicago, are said to be fully aware of the plan. Corporation lawyers who were prominent in the defense of the beef and oil trusts, the Chicago & Alton and the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroads, have the matter in hand. Congressman Foss, of the Chicago district, or Senator Hopkins, of Illinois, will be asked to introduce the measure. The design is to procure the enactment of a law which will prohibit all newspapers and magazines from printing anything derogatory to any corporation under indictment or the methods of which are under grand jury investigation. As many are inspired by newspapers, the magnates are convinced they would soon be rid of a majority of the prosecutions in different parts of the country if the law was enacted.

William Forrest, of the Chicago bar association, was asked to co-operate with the corporation attorney in the interests of the lawyers who complain that publication of information about crime prevents them from getting desirable jurors. He refused. Orders for the preparation of the bill are said to have come from Wall street in cipher.

South Bend Auditorium

Wright Lorimer's "Shepherd King" is booked for presentation at South Bend, and will be presented with all the pomp and grandeur that marked its New York engagement. It is doubtful if any play seen in that city has come to us as highly recommended as "The Shepherd King." There is one thing certain and that is that no other play has ever equalled it on the American or foreign stage in regards to costliness and splendor. The hand of the student is clearly discernable in all that is attempted and accomplished. Wright Lorimer is the chief author and producer. He superintended all the enormous amount of rehearsing necessary in such an undertaking. A special train is required to transport the company and production. Carl Eckstrom will appear as David, assisted by Charles Kent, Percy Lennon, Harry McClain, Helen Holmes, Eleanor McKee, Argyle Gilbert and others associated with his New York production. This attraction will be seen at the auditorium, South Bend, for a special engagement of two nights and Thursday matinee starting Wednesday, Oct. 30, with special matinee Thursday.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by W. N. Brodrick, druggist. 25c.

EVASION OF THE TWO CENT LAW

Not All Operating Under Latest Act. Complaint is to be Made to Railroad Commission.

Kalamazoo, Oct. 24.—The Grand Rapids & Indiana and the Lake Shore railway are interpreting the laws governing railroad fares to mean that though they may charge only 2 cents a mile in Michigan and Indiana, if the travel is interstate they are not bound by the low fare law. Fare exacted here for the trip to La Grange, Ind., 47 miles, is $1.20; to Fort Wayne, 93 miles, is $2.35.

Travelers interpret the laws to mean that they should be sold tickets at the two cent a mile rate. The misunderstanding, if that is what it is, is causing much trouble. Tuesday afternoon a local resident made demand for a Fort Wayne ticket, tendering $1.86, but had to pay the $2.35. Complaint will be made to the state railroad commission.

Ionia, Oct. 24.—"If the railroads are interpreting the laws to mean that they can ignore the two cent fare law because the travel is interstate the matter will be taken up by the railroad commission," said James Scully, lawyer member of that commission, Tuesday. "We shall act on the first formal complaint received."

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Transacts Routine Business—Appoints New Bacteriologist—Will Issue Monthly Bulletin

The regular quarterly meeting of the Michigan State Board of Health was held at Lansing, in the office of the secretary, October 18, 1907. The members present were: President Angus McLean, Detroit; Vice President Malcolm C. Sinclair, Grand Rapids; Aaron R. Wheeler, M. D., St. Louis; Hon. C. C. Vaughan, St. Johns and Secretary Shumway.

After the minutes of the last regular meeting, July 13, and of a special meeting, September 11, the bills and accounts were audited and ordered paid.

The board appointed as bacteriologist to take charge of the new bacteriological department in connection with the State Board of Health, M. L. Holm, M. D., Ph. G., Ph. C., of Chicago. To take his new position, Dr. Holm severs his connection with the Chicago Board of Health, where, upon civil service examination, he has also held the position of bacteriologist. Dr. Holm entered upon his new duties at once, taking charge of the installing of the laboratory equipment.

The board approved the secretary's plan to issue a monthly bulletin, to local health officials and physicians, showing the prevalence of communicable diseases and other items of interest in connection with the work of the board.

By unanimous vote of the board, Dr. Shumway was elected treasurer of the State Board of Health to disburse the bacteriological fund, in accordance with the state accounting law.

The next embalmers' examination to be held in Lansing, was set for November 13 and 14.

Chicago Grand Opera House
Next Sunday night "The Red Mill," with Montgomery and Stone in the title roles, enters upon the final week of its phenomenal run in Chicago. Judging from the business which this wonderfully delightful play with its two popular comedians has done during the last two months, there is no doubt but that the attraction could remain at the Grand Opera House until after the holidays without any falling off either in attendance or enthusiasm; but prior bookings that could not be cancelled will take this musical comedy to Boston to open there on Sunday, November 3, and "The Red Mill" will not be seen in the West again this season.

WANTED—Teams, carpenters and laborers at Berrien Springs. Apply to Berrien Springs Power & Electric Co.

THE JUVENILE LAW PASSED

Officers now Have Right to Arrest Juvenile Offenders and Punish

LADS WERE DEFIANT

Officers Have had Considerable Trouble With Offending Juveniles Throughout the County—Have Delted the Law

Since the attorney general threw the juvenile courts into the air by declaring that the law passed at the last regular session of the state legislature, creating juvenile courts, was illegal, and court officials have been unable to handle juvenile cases because the state reformatories refused to accept them until the case was settled, youths in this county have been singularly defiant towards the officials and have openly informed them that they had no power to arrest them.

The boys have openly stated that they knew the officers could not touch them, and the officers in turn have been unable to deny the statement because it was so. Now, however, affairs have taken a change and the new law will give back to the officials the grip which they lost.

Judge Ellsworth of the probate court, has as yet received no statement from the attorney general concerning the new law but expects to be informed in due time and he will immediately take steps to put it into operation in this county. The officers will, therefore, make quick work of those lads who have been purposely defiant and reckless and juvenile lawlessness will undoubtedly receive a severe check.

"The Shepard King"

The announcement that Wright Lorimer's beautiful dramatic spectacle "The Shepherd King" is booked for early presentation in South Bend, is hailed with much enthusiasm by the lovers of all that is good in drama-land. It will be remembered that this most gorgeous of all romantic and Biblical dramas was presented at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York, four seasons ago and was pronounced by press and public to be second to no other play ever seen on the American or foreign stage, not even excepting "Ben Hur." The same excellent cast and massive scenic environment which marked its premiere in New York, will be seen here. There will be special rates and excursions run on all railroads, of which special announcement will be made later. This will be the special attraction at the Auditorium, South Bend, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 30 and 31, with special Thursday Matinee. Phone order will be accepted and filled in order received.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

A dozen men may make a club, but one woman can make a home.

Be a Booster

Do you know there're lots of people setting round in every town, growlin' like a broody chicken, knockin' every good thing down? Don't you be that kind o' cattle, 'Cause they ain't no good on earth, You just be a booster rooster, Crow an' boost for all you're worth

If your town needs boostin' boost'er, Don't hold back and wait and see If some other feller's willin' Sail right in, this country's free; For one's got a mortgage on it, It's just yours as much as his, If your town is shy on boosters You get in the boostin' biz.

If things don't just seem to quit you, An' the world seems kinder wrong, What's the matter with a boostin' Just to help the thing along? 'Cause if things should stop agoin', We'd be in a sorry plight. You just keep that horn a blowin', Boost'er with all your might

If you see some feller tryin' For to make some project go, You can boost it up a trief, That's your cue to let him know That you're not agoin' to knock it, Just because it ain't your shout; But your going to boost a little, 'Cause he's got the best thing out. —Chicago Record-Herald.

WILL RUN AGAIN.

The governor announced his proposed candidacy for a third term as follows:

"I desire it to be understood that I shall continue in next year's primaries of these objectionable provisions of the new law. My confidence in my estimate of the purpose and wishes of the people of Michigan is such that I have no hesitancy in predicting that the next senate of this state will not contain enough members opposed to giving the people the right to nominate their own candidates for these offices to insure the retention of those obnoxious provisions in the statute."

Game Reported Scarce

Berrien Springs, Mich., Oct. 23.—The largest string of fox squirrels known to have been killed in this vicinity to date is three, which shows a greater scarcity than ever. The black, gray and red squirrels seem to be entirely extinct. There is a greater scarcity of quail and partridges than ever, very few having been taken in this township.

Considerable trouble is being given the deputy game warden by parties coming over the Indiana line and hunting without license. A number of arrests have been made.

E. K. Sawyer, the piano tuner, is in town for a few days doing work. Leave orders with Herbert Roe at bank. c78.

HARD BLOW TO ARMOURS.

Judge Coolidge of Michigan, Dissolves an Injunction.

Circuit Judge Coolidge dissolved the injunction which Armour & Co. had secured against A. F. Bird, state pure food commissioner, in the Berrien county court, restraining him from prosecuting and issuing bulletins against the packing firm for selling sausage alleged to be impure. The judge holds that if the sausage is pure Armour & Co. ought to prove it in court instead of tying the state commissioner up with an injunction. Armour & Co. admitted using from one to ten per cent of cereals in its sausages but maintained that this did not constitute a violation of the state pure food law on the ground that cereals have been used in the manufacture of sausage for several years and were in use at the time the law was passed. The packing firm declared that the action of Food Commissioner Bird in issuing bulletins against its product to grocers throughout the state was ruining its business and asked that the official be restrained.

Judge Coolidge said that from the facts before the court he could not hold that the sausage complied with the state law but declared that he inclined to the opinion that it is manufactured in violation of the law in that cereal is a cheaper article of food than meat of which it was generally believed sausage is made. The court held that if the contention of Armour & Co. be true the firm ought to get a decision from the supreme court to that effect but that in the meantime the state pure food commissioner should be left free to pursue the usual course in enforcing the law.

The Editor Was Truthful

For Once in His Life he Printed the News Exactly as it was

The editor of an Indiana paper grew tired of being called a liar, so he announced that he would tell the truth in the future. The first issue thereafter contained the following: John Bonin, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Belleville yesterday.

John Coyle, our groceryman, is doing a poor business. His store is dirty and noisily odoriferous. How can he expect to do much?

Rev. Stynx preached last Sunday night on charity. The sermon was punk.

Dave Sonkey died at his home in this place. The doctor gave it out as heart failure. The fact is he was drunk and whisky is what killed him.

Married—Miss Sylvian Rhodes and James Conhan, last Saturday evening at the Baptist parsonage. The girl is a very ordinary town girl who doesn't know any more about cooking than a jackrabbit, and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means, and has a gait like a fat duck. The groom is known to be an up-to-date loafer. He has boarded off the old folks all his life and don't amount to shucks. They will have a hard life.

NOTHING HEARD FROM DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harris Have Received no Information Concerning Girl

NO FUNDS TO ACT WITH

Cannot go to Daughter Because of Lack of Funds—Mother Wants Girl Brought Home Again

St. Joseph, Oct. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harris, the parents of unfortunate Pearl Harris, who is confined in a hospital at Mendota, Wis., have heard absolutely nothing from their daughter and are helpless to go to her aid.

Relatives of the Harris family live near Kenosha, Wis., but none of them reside in cities large enough to boast a telegraph station and it would be impossible to get a message through. Therefore the distracted mother has been compelled to content herself with writing to her own mother, begging her to look the girl up and send her word at once.

Mr. Harris is not a rich man and in the capacity of a day laborer has always worked hard for his living. But poverty was never as heavily felt as at the present time, for with his daughter confined in an asylum he has been unable to go to her, held here by the lack of money.

The mother looks for the immediate recovery of her daughter. She believes that the girl is suffering only from one of her periodical attacks of mental aberration and that she will soon be sane again.

Neither is she surprised that the girl threatened to take her own life. This has happened often, the mother claims, but the young woman has never carried out the threats and the family do not look upon these symptoms as dangerous. Developments are being anxiously awaited by the father and mother.

LATER

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 24.—Pearl Harris, the former St. Joseph girl who was adjudged insane here a few days ago, and sent to the state asylum at Mendota, is dying slowly. Physicians who examined her before she was committed to the asylum say that her case is a most pitiable one, and declare that she cannot recover.

Woman as a Justice

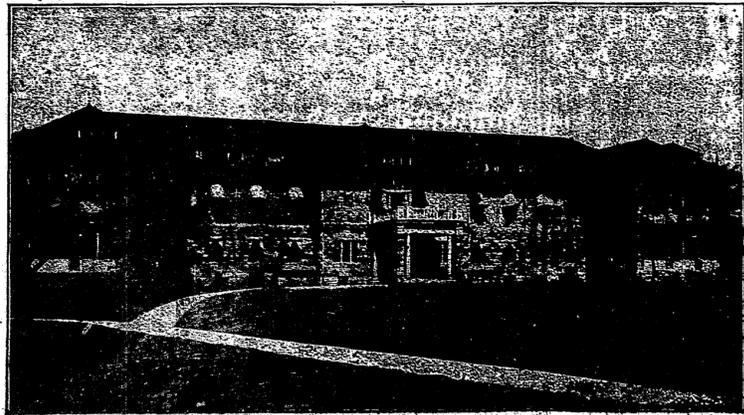

Is to Get Her Commission From Indiana Governor

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 21.—Mrs. Clara M. Hess of Westville, who last week was appointed a justice of the peace in New Dunham township by the commissioners of Laporte county, will receive her commission, Gov. Hanly having decided that there is no law to prohibit a woman from serving as a justice of the peace.

Fashions and Dressmaking

There is apparently no decline in the favor accorded the plaited skirt, though some tailors are presenting a well-cut gored circular skirt that is very becoming to certain figures. The adaption of the Japanese sleeve seem likely to last at least through the winter, though certainly some of the slipshod developments of it that one sees on some patently home-made frocks would seem to be fatal. Contrary to general belief, these apparently simple self-draping models need more discretion and judgment in construction than many apparently more ambitious efforts. Some short cape-like wraps of velvet, fur-fabric or real fur have this wide kimono sleeve, and when smartly made are most becoming to a slim figure. A Mail Order Ax
 An exchange tells a rather amusing story of a man who went into a hardware store and wished to purchase an ax. Being shown the article and informed that the price was $1.15 he said: "Why, I can get the same kind of an ax from a Chicago retail mail order house for 90 cents."

Very well," said the dealer, "I'll give it to you for the same price, provided that you do the same with me as with the Chicago man."
 "All right," replied the customer, as he handed over a dollar bill, the dealer giving back 10 cents change.
 "Now," said the dealer, "I want 25 cents more to pay express charges," which the purchaser gave him. How much did your ax cost you?"

"A dollar and 15 cents," answered the man.
 "Very good. Now give me five cents more for money order fees and postage," which the purchaser had to hand over.

"How much did your ax cost you?"
 "One dollar and 20 cents," said the customer.

"Not so cheap, after all," said the dealer, whereupon he picked up the ax, tossed it back on the shelf and told the customer to call for it in ten days, as that would be as soon as he could get it, if he ordered it from the retail catalogue house.

The "30 Club" held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Bishop. It was "Home Day" and roll call brought forth some amusing accounts of "First Cooking Experiences." Mrs. D. L. Boardman's description of "Housekeeping in Early Days" was much enjoyed as was also M. S. Glenn Smith's "Modern Homekeeping." A piano duet by Mrs. Hattie Blake and Mrs. Bishop was well rendered. "Pure Food" was the subject of Mrs. H. L. Kingery's talk and it was very interesting and instructive. General conversation with Miss Charlotte Searls as leader closed the work for the afternoon, each member being called upon to give some idea on the subject of home keeping. The display of cooking utensils, hand woven linens and woolens, and pewter ware of early days added much to the occasion. Club adjourned to meet Wednesday evening, Oct. 30, at a Halloween party at the home of C. H. Baker.

Mark Twain's Story of His Life

Mark Twain refuses to let his captivating autobiography be published in book form until after his death, but journalistic enterprise has come to the rescue, and we are to have Mark's masterpiece after all. He has consented to let it appear as a serial. It has been secured at enormous cost by the Sunday Magazine of the Chicago Record-Herald, which has a name for capturing big prizes of this sort, such as Conan Doyle's "Sir Nigel" and Kipling's "Sons of Martha."
 Thus it falls out that the readers of The Sunday Record-Herald are to have a delightful treat without extra cost. For months to come Mark Twain will go on telling in his droll way about the famous people he has met, how he came to create Colonel Sellers and Tom Sawyer, and all the funny things that have happened to him. The whole is to be profusely illustrated. The first installment—in the issue of October 27—is accompanied by a magnificent portrait of the humorist. Everybody who likes Mark Twain will want to read this great biography.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Branson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by W. N. Brodrick, druggist, 50c.

Mr. H. B. Ketchum who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever at Evanston has so far recovered as to be able to sit up. His many friends here will be glad to hear of his rapid recovery and trust it will be only a few weeks when he will be able to return to Buchanan again.

It has been reported that Clark Day has fallen heir to several thousand dollars through the death of a brother. He left for the East Sunday to claim his inheritance.

The officers and teachers of the Advent Christian Sunday School visited their superintendent, M. O. Burdett, Wednesday evening. A fine supper was served and music, songs and recitations occupied the time. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The regular meeting of the Monday Literary Club was held at the home of Mrs. Knight. After the opening exercises, Mrs. Whitman read a paper on "City of Washington," of unusual clearness, the word pictures were fine, as she visited the city, was familiar with its beauty and greatness. A number of Washington booklets were viewed. Miss Hahn read an interesting article on "Architects of Capitol Long in Service;" Mrs. Butts' paper on "Naval and Military Schools" was carefully and well written and appreciated by all. A discussion followed and it is noticeable that the conversational powers of our ladies are improving weekly. Roll call "Sayings of our President," was very pleasing. The sayings of the great Lincoln were quoted by many. Meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Redden October 28. Two o'clock sharp. Special day.

Jacob Weaver proceeded to St. Joseph Wednesday morning with a load of hay. He was discovered in a serious condition not far from the city and was taken to the home of his sister in Benton Harbor. Physicians stated that he is in a critical condition, as Mr. Weaver was in Ann Arbor a few months ago receiving medical treatment and it is thought that the long drive to St. Joseph caused a relapse in his health.

Mrs. Sarah Leiter, of Buchanan, who is 71 years of age, is a remarkably sturdy woman and the mother of seven husky sons, the youngest of whom is 31 years of age. Three of the sons are tillers of the soil, three are engaged in carpentry and the seventh is a painter by trade. An odd thing about the birth of each of these sons is the fact that no physician was called and, indeed, Mrs. Leiter proudly boasts that she never required the services of a doctor but once in her life and that was when she sprained an ankle three years ago. For forty-one years Mrs. Leiter lived with her family on a farm near Buchanan and she relates interesting reminiscences of early days hereabouts. Mrs. Leiter boasts of good old Pennsylvania language. She was married at the outbreak of the civil war and her husband died a decade ago.—Niles Star.

of today who does not possess a bank account is an exception. To no one is a checking account more of a luxury. It solves the problem of always having his money at hand, of making exact change and receive a receipt in return for the money paid.

Some men even to this day persist in carrying a roll of currency on their person—they are the ones we usually read of in the papers as having been "held up" and robbed.

High Living Cost Hits Hard

Ministers Complain Salaries do not keep Pace With Expenses

Ministers have suffered more than any one else from the increased cost of living because their salaries have not increased, even as much as the salaries of laborers. Reports compiled by The Chicago Tribune from Methodist Episcopal conferences in ten states show that the question of higher salary for the average minister has reached a crisis.

Their salaries have been increased on an average less than $100 during the last four years. At the Des Moines conference it was found that 37 of the 217 pulpits in the conference are now vacant. Ten years ago there were two applicants for each position.

Five withdrawals because of insufficient pay were reported at the Iowa conference. In each case the pastor giving up his church, declared he preferred the ministerial life, but that he had to feed and clothe his family.

In Wisconsin salaries have not increased at all in a decade. Twenty pastors in this conference receive less than $400 a year.
