J. P. ANSTISS SUICIDES

PIONEER RESIDENT SEEKS DEATH
BY HANGING

IS TEMPORARILY DERANGED

Had Shown Signs of Loss of Mental Equilibrium—Terrible Shock to Mrs. Anstiss

Joseph P. Anstiss, a well known pioneer resident of Buchanan, hung himself while temporarily deranged, at his home on Portage street, at about 4:15 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Anstiss, who had been acting strangely of late, arose from his bed at 3 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Anstiss, who had been watching her husband closely since last Sunday, when loss of memory and incoherent speech indicated that his mind had become seriously affected, arose also and followed him into the yard and endeavored to persuade him to return to the house. Mr. Anstiss kissed her and begged her to go into the house and lie down. Mrs. Anstiss complied with the request in so far as returning to the house was concerned, but proceeded to dress. Later, becoming uneasy when Mr. Anstiss failed to reveal himself, she went out to search for him. The search finally led her to the barn, and the shock received by the aged lady, who just recently underwent a severe attack of illness, may be imagined. Hanging by the neck from the door leading to the hay mow, appeared the lifeless body of her husband. Neighbors responded to the woman's frantic cries for help and the body was cut down, but life was extinct. The authorities decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Anstiss was born January 15, 1847, in Pennsylvania, and came with his parents to Berrien county when he was only eight years old. The family settled in Niles, and Mr. Anstiss had lived in Buchanan and vicinity ever since. July 4, 1867, he was married to Louisa Frame, and all of their married life was spent in Buchanan. To this union five children were born, four of whom are still living. They are Mrs. Harry Paul of Clarksville, Tenn.; Wm. E. Anstiss, sheriff of Laporte county, Ind.; Mrs. Mate Hasse, of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Chas. Davis of South Haven, this state.

Fraternally, Mr. Anstiss was identified with the I. O. O. F. He was well known and highly respected, and his widow and children have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

As this writing the funeral arrangements have not been completed.

L. M. Penwell Had Many Honors Thrust Upon Him
Out in The Busy World.

L. M. Penwell, funeral director, of Topeka, Kas., has been visiting old friends in Buchanan and vicinity for the last few days. Mr. Penwell is a son of the late Eli W. Penwell, who for many years was connected with the firm of Shepardson & Penwell, who were in the lumber business in what is known as the Wagner district, northwest of Buchanan. L. M. Penwell left this locality 35 years ago. He engaged in railroad engineering and traveled extensively until 1899, when he turned to the undertaking business. Mr. Penwell has figured prominently in Kansas politics, and is now a member of the state legislature, having been elected on the democratic ticket by a major-

POPULAR VOTING CONTEST AROUSSES MUCH INTEREST

Lady Candidates in The Queen of The Carnival Contest, Have Strong Supporters.

Who shall be the queen? That is the question which is agitating the public mind at present.

The most popular lady candidate will not only be nominated as queen of the forthcoming carnival of fun, but will also be presented with a diamond ring. Already the contest has started with a swing that augurs well for its success. People are backing their favorites strongly, and the outlook is that the votes will run up into the thousands.

And to stimulate the voting between now and next Saturday night, H. A. Jauch, the enterprising Buchanan jeweler, offers a combination gold belt and collar pin as a special prize for the lady who heads the list when the votes are counted at 10 o'clock next Saturday night. The contest proper will not close until the night of the 24th instant.

When the votes were counted at noon yesterday, Miss Winifred Morley was in the lead, being 39 votes ahead of Miss Effie Sunday, who was in second place. Miss Morley has many warm friends among the employees of the Celfor Tool company, where she holds a position as a stenographer, and they are determined that the diamond ring and the honor of acting as queen of the carnival shall be hers. On the other hand, Miss Sunday is a warm favorite about town, and her friends say that her chances of winning out are decidedly bright. And there are others in the list who are likely to forge to the front at any moment.

The candidates, in the order in which they stood up to noon yesterday, are as follows:

Winifred Morley, 609
Effie Sunday, 570
Agnes Walker, 170
Elba Best, 163
Ethel Beistle, 130

Mr. Jauch, the jeweler, agrees to engrave the initials of the lady who is in the lead next Saturday night, on the combination belt and collar pin he offers.

Votes cost only a cent each. Remember, it is your privilege to nominate some bright young lady who is not already in the list, and who might thereby be the winner of the diamond ring.

OLD HOME WEEK IS NEAR AT HAND

Committees Urged to Get Busy
And Not Lose a Moment

The Fall Exhibit and Home-Coming celebration opens two weeks from today, Thursday, the 25th instant, hence comparatively little time remains in which to complete arrangements. The various committees have a lot of work to do, and not a minute is to be lost. The executive committee desires to meet the heads of the various committees at the office of Mr. Pammel tonight at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Geo. Sickafosse and R. S. Black, who have charge of the historical department, which will also be registration headquarters, are planning upon entertaining the "wanderers" and a committee of ladies is to be named to co-operate with them in the undertaking.

The Record's Home-Coming edition will be issued next week, and we hope to be able to print the program in full.

LOCAL CAPITAL INTERESTED IN FACTORY PROPOSITION

Company to Be Organized to Manufacture Electric Fireless Cookstove.

The electric fireless cookstove proposition, brief mention of which was made in the last edition of The Record, has so favorably impressed a coterie of Buchanan men that it has been practically decided to organize a stock company. Messrs. J. W. Beistle, C. F. Pears, C. H. Baker, Chas. Bishop, John Babcock and others, expect to subscribe for two-thirds of the capital stock, which is to be fixed at $15,000, whereupon a company will be formed for the purpose of manufacturing the electric stove and electric appliances. Sebring Phelps, of Hastings, who holds patents covering the electric stove, will take one-third of the capital stock, and will likely have the management of the new enterprise.

One of the electric fireless cookstoves is now on exhibition at the office of the Buchanan Creamery company. It is something on the order of the fireless cooker, with this difference, that instead of half cooking the food and then placing it in the fireless cooker, it is placed in the electric fireless cooker, the electric current is turned on for a short time, after which it is cut off and the fireless cooker retains the heat and finishes cooking the food.

The new stove does away with coffee percolators, toasters, stationary teakettles, fixed cooking pans and sheet iron ovens. It is the intention to use the Culinary building, on Main street, which is owned by the First National bank, in which to manufacture the electric fireless cookstove and electric appliances, and the building is now being vacated for that purpose.

THE BLUES RE-ORGANIZED

Win Saturday From Three Oaks, Lose Sunday to Laporte.

The Buchanan Blues having recently re-organized, with Ted Rouse as manager and "Maggie" Valhert as captain, played their first game with the Three Oaks Greens last Saturday on the Three Oaks grounds, which ended in a defeat for the Blues with a score of 9 to 6 in favor of the visitors.

Following is the line up of the Blues in Saturday's game: Treat, ss., Harkrider c., Hanover 1st b., Valhert 2nd b., Bradley 3rd b., Dungleberger p., Weldon r. f., Roe c. f., and Davis l. f.

On Sunday, August 7, the Buchanan boys went to Laporte to add another scalp to their belt, but well they lost it in the shuffle, the score being 4 to 1 in favor of Laporte.

This game could justly be called an umpire's game, as one of the ground rules was that any ball batted into right field was good for first base only. This held good for Buchanan, but when it happened for Laporte it was found out to be good for a home run for the umpire's (Laporte) team.

Exceptionally fine plays were made by all the players, each and everyone playing their position as if they had played them all their lives and their life depended upon their making good in their various positions.

The following is the line up as played in their last Sunday game: Treat 3 b., Harkrider c., Hanover 1st b., Valhert 2nd b., Ferry ss., Dungleberger p., Weldon r. f., Davis l. f., and Gensberger c. f.

There was a home run, a third base hit and a two base hit in the game Sunday, the home run belonging to Laporte.

The management of the Blues is receiving much praise on being able to obtain such good players, among them being Dungleberger, the pitcher, who is always in the game from start to finish and besides being a fine pitcher he is an artist with the big stick, which will help to boost up the batting average of the Blues.

For short stop, or third base, the Blues have Treat back with them from Gary where he has been playing a fine game. While for backstop they have obtained the old reliable "Harkey" who has been doing fine work this season for New Carlisle in the battery of "Happy" Crouch and Harkrider.

On next Sunday afternoon the Blues will go to South Bend where they will cross bats with a good fast team at Springbrook park.

Independents vs Three Oaks.

The Buchanan Independents cross bats with the Three Oaks Reserves at the local ball park next Sunday afternoon.

Quiet Wedding Takes Place at Home of Bride's Parents

A quiet home wedding took place at 6:15 o'clock last Sunday evening, when Miss Tamerson Carlisle became the bride of Mr. Harry P. Binns. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Carlisle, by Rev. T. H. Leamon. Both the contracting parties are well and favorably known in Buchanan and vicinity. The groom is one of Buchanan's well known business men, having been engaged in the mercantile trade here since 1883.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Binns extend congratulations and best wishes.

Colon C. Lillie, state dairy and food commissioner, has sent out an interview in which he refutes completely Chase S. Osborn's statement, that this department is spending time and money to advance the Patrick H. Kelley campaign.

Mr. Lillie says: "My attention has been called to a news item in which Mr. Osborn, in a speech at Homer, charges that the dairy and food department is using its appropriation to further the nomination of Mr. Kelley. Mr. Osborn is certainly mistaken. The charge is absolutely untrue, and a man big enough to be governor of Michigan, ought to be fair-minded enough to know whether such a charge is true or not before he makes it."

The Fact.

The July expenses of the department are more than $2,000 in excess of last year. Mr. Osborn says they are more, and this increased expense comes from the following three causes:

"First—Drug Inspection—The legislature of 1909 passed a drug inspection act and authorized our department to enforce it. Consequently on July 1, two drug inspectors and a drug analyst were placed on our pay rolls.

"Second—Three years ago we began a system of thorough milk inspection during the hot weather of July and August when the infant mortality is greatest. Three years ago we put on some half dozen young men, mostly students from M. A. C., as inspectors, located them in some of our principal cities and had them collect and analyze daily samples of milk as they found it on the market. This work proved so satisfactory that a year ago we increased the number of special milk inspectors in July and August, and Mr. Osborn will find, if he is fair enough to investigate, that the July expenses of our department last year were more than the year before and there was no primary campaign on either.

New Inspectors.

"This year we have increased the number of special milk inspectors to eighteen and you will find them in all the principal cities and towns in the state. I only wish we had funds so that we could still increase this work. It is a splendid work.

"Third—The legislature of 1909 also gave us a new ice cream law, and it is the duty of our department to enforce this. Everybody will concede that July and August are the months when this food product should be looked after closely. This last July, in addition to our regular force of inspectors, we put on three young men as special ice cream inspectors who work at this constantly. One is located in Detroit, one in Grand Rapids, and one spends his whole time in the upper peninsula.

No Politics Played.

"In the appointment of these young men as special inspectors, not one word was ever said about politics. Ask them. Their preference for governor was never even asked, and besides that Mr. Kelley has never, either by word or act, intimated to me or any member of the department that he would like to have anything said about such matters. Mr. Osborn has certainly been misinformed."

DEATH TAKES MRS. NOBLE

Mother of Local Merchant, Passes
Away at Ripe Old Age.

Mrs. Wm. Noble, mother of George W. Noble, who came here from Ann Arbor about nine months ago, to make her home with her son, died at 3 o'clock last Monday afternoon, at the ripe old age of 88 years. A week prior to her demise, Mrs. Noble suffered a fall in which her right arm was broken, and on the following Thursday she was stricken with paralysis.

Mrs. Noble was born in New York, but nearly all of her married life had been spent at Ann Arbor, Mich., whither the remains were conveyed last Tuesday, accompanied by her son, George W. Noble, who is the only survivor of her three children, and others. Prayer service was conducted at the home by Rev. Leamon, prior to the removal of the body.

Mrs. Noble, who was a lady of sweet disposition, and who had made many friends in Buchanan during her brief sojourn here, had been a devout member of the Methodist church since childhood. Funeral services were conducted upon the arrival of the remains at Ann Arbor, where interment took place.

M. E. Church.

August 14th and 21st there will be no preaching service. The pastor is attending camp meeting at Crystal Springs. The Sunday School and Epworth League will meet at the usual time.

EIGHTY-FIVE PER CENT OF CREAMERY STOCK SUBSCRIBED

An enthusiastic meeting of the proposed new creamery company was held at the bank of Lee Bros. & Co. last Saturday evening, at which time it was reported that 85 per cent of the capital stock had been subscribed. It was decided to hold another meeting at the same place next Saturday evening, when the company will be named, directors elected and the articles of association signed. The new company is to be capitalized at $6000, about $5000 of which is to be invested in a building and equipment while the balance will be used as a working capital.

DOWAGIAC WON FROM BUCHANAN

Elks to Play Return Game Tomorrow—Score Was 18 to 19

By a score of 19 to 18, the Dowagiac Elks defeated the Buchanan Elks in a very classy game of indoor baseball here last Friday afternoon.

Tomorrow afternoon, the local Elks go to Dowagiac for a return game, concerning which the Dowagiac News says:

This will be the first exhibition of a regulation indoor baseball game played out of doors ever seen in Dowagiac. A regulation indoor baseball is to be used, and the bases are shortened up to regulation size.

Dowagiac won from Buchanan, 19 to 18 at Buchanan on Friday of last week. This game is the return game. Contest will be played at the High school grounds, beginning at 8 p. m. No admission will be charged. Everybody invited to witness the game.

The visiting Elks will be in the hands of the Dowagiac Elks for entertainment, and the brothers are urged to get out and show them a good time.

HOME-COMING

It was the desire of the speakers' committee to have all of the candidates for governor speak here at the old-fashioned picnic, Friday, August 26, but both Mr. Osborn and Mr. Kelley sent their regrets. Mr. Musselman of Grand Rapids, will be here, however, as per the following letter just received from his secretary, A. E. Ewing, by the speakers' committee:

"Gentlemen:
Under date of July 18th you invited Mr. Musselman to be present at your Fall Exhibit and Home-Coming celebration on August 26th. In my reply thereto I advised you of my inability to definitely accept your invitation for Mr. Musselman, but I am glad to say to you that his trip has been so arranged as to enable him to be with you on the 26th. You may reasonably expect him, as he is making plans accordingly.

I cannot tell you at this time what hour he will arrive in your city, but it is possible he may not reach you before noon or shortly thereafter.

Yours very truly,
LETTER FROM MRS. REFNER
Writing The Record from Hillsdale, this state, Mrs. Refner says:

"Have taken much interest in the Record the last few weeks. Each issue contains names of people and their occupations that I have wondered where they were many times. Am so glad Buchanan is going to have a Home-Coming. It will seem good to meet friends you haven't seen for years. Hillsdale had her first home-coming this year and it was a decided success. The city was beautiful with her electric arches and hundreds of flags. But the one thing talked about so much here and enjoyed by so many was the Home-Coming Headquarters. A committee was appointed to rent a building centrally located in which to place a few benches or seats. They sent out calls for old photographs of every body who had lived in Hillsdale. These were placed on the walls and it was indeed interesting. I saw more happy faces in that building than anywhere else. Walking from picture to picture were groups of people who had 'come home.' A steady buzz of conversation was kept up as question after question was asked about this one and that one. Some times a sad look or a tear would tell that the friend they looked upon had gone to the home beyond, but, nevertheless, they were glad to have seen the likeness of one whom they had known.

"There were flags that had been carried to war draped around the picture of them who carried it. There were high school groups, college groups and pictures of homes all neatly labeled to attract your attention. Every kind of photograph of all parts of the city, dear to the hearts of the residents, old or new. The seats lengthwise of the building enabled those who were infirm or crippled to see the pictures without standing up. In the rear of this building was also a large registry book in which all home coming friends placed their names. They then received a tag with the name of the city printed across it in large letters with first home-coming in small letters below and the year 1910; a free automobile ride was also given each one afterwards. This place was the center of attraction and many a glad handshake was enjoyed here. I would like to see some thing of this kind in Buchanan when I come, for I'm coming home. Yes, I'm coming home to see the mother on the pretty little Lake street; the brother and wife on Portage prairie and the place where the dear father lies in Oak Ridge cemetery. No doubt a good many will find some one place in Oak Ridge they will want to visit.

"And now Mr. Editor I will bring this letter to a close hoping that this suggestion of a 'Home-Coming Photograph Headquarters' will bear fruit.
"Wishing The Record the best of success in all its undertakings I remain now as always,
A friend of the paper."

LETTER FROM UPPER PENINSULA
Writing The Record from "Log Gable," at Witbeck, this state, Mrs. Beatrice Mansfield-Viele says:

"Dear Record Friends:
This fine upper peninsula holds many charms. The dense forests, the wild deer, bear, wolves, porcupines and many other animals that roam through them, trout streams, beautiful lakes and things innumerable I might mention, are all more than interesting and there is no room for nature fakes up here.

Situated on an island, twenty miles from civilization, over four hundred miles from Buchanan and nearly two thousand feet higher, is it to be doubted that The Record is a welcome visitor to our camp each week? The "Home-Coming" plans are enjoyed and hopes are entertained that I may go home for the three important days at least.

So hoping to enjoy soon a drink from McCoy's creek,

Rough Case Comes up Again
Joseph Wurz of Niles, has filed an appeal to the Berrien county circuit court from the decision of the commissioner appointed by the probate court to receive, examine and adjust claims against the estate of the late John R. Rough.

This action of the commissioner, Wurz claims, was unjust and unreasonable, hence the appeal.

COURT NEWS

August Froebel has been granted a divorce from Marie Froebel.

The demurrer of the defendant in the case of Wm. H. Roney vs. the Hattisburg Trust and Banking Co. has been filed.

Dismissals were filed in the case of Val Blatz Brewing company vs. Godfrey Kplb; Niagara Spraying Co. vs. Brown and Gardner L. Pierce vs. Wigent. No costs were taxed.

In the case of James McCormick vs. Grace M. McCormick, Judge Coolidge has granted a decree of divorce, and also orders complainant to pay alimony amounting to $216, the money to be paid in weekly sums of $7, payable each Saturday. The couple resided in Benton Harbor.

In the case of the people vs. Philip Yund the court deferred sentence until November 14, Yund giving personal bond of $200. Yund was convicted of assault and battery last year, the complaining witness being Peter Heffner. The case has been appealed to the supreme court.

Judge Coolidge has granted a decree of divorce, or rather decreed that there never was a wedding in the case of Cora Coles, nee Bell, vs. Wm. Coles. According to Mrs. Coles' bill, Coles, a colored man, married her on August 26, 1902, they lived together until Feb. 2, 1910. Coles then deserted his Benton Harbor wife, fearing that news that he had another wife at Charlesville, West Virginia, would eventually get to wife No. 2.

Fred H. Brown vs. Cutler & Downing Co. The declaration recites the fact that on Oct. 1, 1909, the defendant entered into an oral contract with the plaintiff that they would take all the black raspberry plants at $4 per thousand, that plaintiff could grow on his place between that time and the spring of 1910, yet when he was ready to dig and deliver them the defendant refused to take them, hence the suit to recover is instituted. John E. Sterling represents the plaintiff.

WHAT SENATOR J. C. BURROWS HAS DONE

(By Henry M. Rose, Assistant Secretary United States Senate.)

He was a citizen of Michigan soon after attaining his majority and became at once active in the campaign for Lincoln and the Union. His voice was heard upon the stump, after the declaration of war, encouraging enlistments, personally appealing for volunteers, and his pen wrote stirring articles for the editorial pages of the home papers, in support of the great President and the principles he stood for.

He raised a company for the Seventeenth Michigan Infantry and as its Captain took part in some of the fiercest of the earlier engagements of the war. His tent-mate, William Winegar, afterwards an honored and highly respected business man of Grand Rapids, said of him: "He was the coolest man, and one of the bravest I ever saw in battle. He was an inspiration to all of us, and was beloved by his comrades as almost no other man was beloved. There can never be a stain upon his record as a soldier or citizen."

A soldier directly under the command of Captain Burrows writes of him: "No officer in the Union army was more kind or considerate of the men under him than was Captain Burrows. No officer was more beloved by his men or his fellow officers. He abhorred snobbishness, and never exacted anything menial or humiliating from the private soldier. The placard was never attached to his tent, 'No Private Allowed in Here.' The private soldier, the volunteer, was as welcome to him as a visitor of higher rank. He was an inspiring and gallant officer, holding the confidence of his commanders and those under him, in a marked manner. His eloquent words on the eve of battle not alone inspired the men of his command, but other men who gathered about him as he spoke. He was courageous in battle; a natural leader there, as afterwards in statesmanship."

Captain Burrows has shown himself to be a friend of the soldier in civil and official life since his honorable discharge from the service, and has an enviable record for achievement in their behalf. He has enlivened and inspired campfires, reunions, Grand Army assemblages, and has advocated the granting of liberal pensions to deserving soldiers, their widows and orphans.

Since his first election to Congress in 1872, he has been the avowed champion of the Union soldier; has favored by argument and vote every just measure in their interest proposed in Congress during the years of his service. He has introduced hundreds of special pension bills, and bills to correct military records, and to pay honest claims to soldiers, never before allowed. He has personally looked after thousands of pension claims for his constituents in the Bureau of Pensions, and there is not a day he does not call upon the departments for information concerning the status of claims for pensions and increase of pension. Not all of his special bills have become laws, but a search of the records of the pension committees in both branches of Congress, will reveal that he has been unusually successful in this respect; that indeed a greater percentage of his bills of this character have received favorable consideration than of any other legislator serving for a similar period.

DENIES HE TRIED TO BRIBE GORE

Hamon Swears He Never Offered Senator Money.

WILL NOT SUMMON SHERMAN

Investigating Committee Hears Accused Politician — Congressman Creager Recalled — Senator Curtis Starts for Muskogee.

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 6.—Chairman Burke of the committee investigating the Gore charges of bribery authorized a statement that Vice-President Sherman would not be summoned to appear before the committee. It was stated that no evidence had been introduced to show that Mr. Sherman could throw any light on the investigation.

Hamon Makes General Denial. Jake L. Hamon of Lawton, "the man from my own town," whom Senator Gore swore had attempted to bribe him and who Congressman Creager said had made improper overtures in order to influence Creager's support in legislation of interest to Hamon, testified before the committee, declaring that the story told by Creager was untrue and that when Gore said that he, Hamon, had borrowed money from Gore, the senator told that which was false.

Gore, according to the witness, on May 10 last led him from Gore's office, during the noon hour, through the chamber of the senate into a secluded place in the senate library and after closing the doors talked to him about financing his next senatorial campaign.

Did Not Mention Sherman.

Hamon emphatically denied he had ever mentioned to Senator Gore the name of Senator Curtis, Vice-President Sherman or former Senators Long and Thurston of Kansas and Nebraska. Hamon said he agreed to assist Gore in financing his campaign and while there discussed some pending legislation of interest to Hamon that Gore might get through for him.

The witness told of some alleged deals in connection with having lots in the Gore addition adjoining Lawton, Okla., several years ago. He said he and Gore and a number of other friends had agreed to buy the lots in as cheaply as possible and not to bid against each other, but that two Hebrews had bid in a number of the lots, bidding against Senator Gore and causing him to pay more for his lots than the witness paid. Hamon admitted they were getting mighty close to the danger line, but still did not violate federal statutes.

Witness Becomes Angry. Hamon, after undergoing a severe grueling by Congressman Sanders, became angry and declared he had known for some time that Senator Gore could be safely approached. When pressed for specific instances he said once in a town lot case, another time he had been bribed by the American Book company. He said another instance was when he was in Gore's office talking about the allotment of lands in western Oklahoma and Gore said: "It would be a good thing if we could get a slice of that land."

Creager is Recalled. Congressman C. E. Creager of Oklahoma again testified concerning his meeting with Hamon, charged by Senator Gore with being promoter for J. F. McMurray, who held contracts for the sale of the land on a ten per cent. basis.

Senator Gore gave out a statement that in his reference to Senator Curtis, Vice-President Sherman and the ex-senator from Kansas and Nebraska, he wanted it understood that the only inference he had that these men were interested in the McMurray contract was through the statement made by Hamon to him on May 6 when he claims Hamon tried to bribe him.

Ellsworth's Store Buyers are Now in Market making Fall Purchases!

Our Mr. Robinson has been in New York City since the 15th of July. Mr. Valentine and our corps of buyers have been down there since July 30th. We shall start the fall season with better goods than ever.

The eastern markets have been more or less demoralized all summer and being on the spot every minute we have been able to make some especially good purchases—goods the likes of which South Bend has never seen at the prices we shall quote during the coming season.

Those who have been well pleased with their purchases here in the past will be better pleased with what we are going to do for them this fall.

This is a bright, healthy, liberal store; we want your business, and we will take care of your needs in our line better than ever before.

SEVENTY-EIGHT YEARS OF AGE, HE ASKS FOR A DIVORCE

Seventy-eight years of age, married April 20, 1866, John A. Cox, a Weesaw township pioneer, has appealed to Judge Coolidge for a decree of divorce.

In the bill filed by the venerable Berrien resident Cox alleges that his wife, Lorrinda Cox, has been unkind and cruel to him. They lived together, he says, for 14 years, but for nearly a quarter of a century the couple have lived apart, yet under the same roof.

Complainant cites several instances of cruel treatment. Once, he says, his wife tried to pull his clothing off and again on another occasion dashed a pail of berries in his face.

MICHIGAN'S FAVORITE SON

SENATOR BURROWS' STAND ON THE STATE PRIMARY.

"No man aspiring to the office of senator should hesitate for a moment to submit his candidacy to the entire electorate of the state, and no man of any spirit would, if it were possible, accept an election in opposition to the public will.

"The primary election law of Michigan as it relates to the choice of a senator by the legislature, is not merely advisory, but mandatory, and

SENATOR J. C. BURROWS
Republican Candidate for Re-election as United States Senator at the Primaries, Sept. 6th, 1910 imposes upon the members of the legislature the duty of executing the public will.

"I want no misunderstanding of my attitude in the matter. I have submitted my candidacy to the qualified Republican electors of Michigan and whatever the verdict of such electors may be on the sixth of September next, I shall abide by that verdict.

"If my candidacy is not approved by a majority of such electors of the whole state, as revealed by the count of the entire vote in the state, I shall not thereafter be a candidate for the senate before the legislature."—From statement signed by Senator Burrows on Jan. 17 and July 16, 1910.

NO ESCAPE.

Once a very nervous chap
To cross the street did try;
An auto handed him a tap—
And sent him to the sky.

And ere he could descend again
He got an awful whack,

Just tapped him on the back.

He shot down to the lake below,
He tried to keep afloat;
Alas, he fell a victim to

CATCHES THIEF

Deputy Sheriff McCollum Hotfoots it After Circus Hanger-on.

About 11 o'clock last night, Deputy Sheriff McCollum caught one Edward L. Bowman in the act of purloining a whip, blanket and robe from a buggy in front of the former's livery. The officer attempted to intercept the thief, who took refuge in flight. Mr. McCollum gave chase north on Day's avenue, and fired a shot into the air, which only served to accelerate the speed of the thief. Luckily, however, Marshal Eldredge happened to be at the corner of Front street and Day's avenue, and the thief ran plump into the officer's arms.
