Coal Famine Spurs Mayor to Action

Calls Upon Slow Moving Railroads to Make Effort to Relieve the Situation.

Although located on the main line of the Michigan Central railroad and a branch line of the Pere Marquette, Buchanan has had more than its share of the coal famine which has prevailed throughout the state during the last few weeks. It has been impossible to obtain any coal over either road.

The extremely cold weather has put out of business engines which should have been overhauled before winter came on, hence the coal famine. Local manufacturers have accommodated townspeople by selling them coal, but can't do so much longer.

Mayor Hanlin has made a strenuous effort to relieve the situation and spur the slow-moving railroads to action, and the following is a copy of one of the letters he has sent the railroads:

Buchanan, Mich., Feb. 10, 1912.
Mr. W. D. Trump,
Gen'l Supt., P. M. R. R. Co.,
Detroit, Mich.

Dear Sir:—
I wish to apprise you of the very serious situation existing in the village of Buchanan at present as regards the fuel supply. The dealers in this place are absolutely without coal of any kind, and have been for several weeks. The water works and manufacturing concerns have been supplying fuel in small amounts to parties who are entirely out, but cannot continue to do so without crippling themselves. A small amount of coal is being teamed from Niles at an almost prohibitive cost, and unless coal which is now enroute can be hurried forward, great suffering will result within a few days.

I am giving you below a list of the cars routed via your line to the various dealers, and I trust you will realize the urgency of the situation, and give your personal attention to the matter of expediting delivery.

Consigned to E. S. Roe: C. & O. No. 6645, shipped January 11.

Consigned to H. R. Adams: D. L. No. 39011, C. G. W. No. 15114.

I trust that you will do all in your power to forward promptly any or all of the above cars, as the situation is most acute.

Very truly yours,

HARDWARE DEALERS MEET

Big Convention to be Held in Grand Rapids Next Week

In the course of an article under the caption, "All Aboard For Grand Rapids," the current number of the Hardware News, published in Detroit, has the following to say concerning the coming convention of the Michigan Retail Hardware Association, of which E. S. Roe of this place, is president:

"There is going to be something doing every minute at the annual gathering of the Michigan Retail Hardware Association, which opens in Grand Rapids Tuesday morning, February 20, and continues through Thursday evening.

It is going to be an inspirational convocation as well as a period during which the glad hand will be much in evidence. Those in charge of arrangements have not been unmindful of the practical side of hardware selling and the problems it presents, and they have provided a program that is a happy mixture of good cheer and sound sense as reflected in the experiences of those who will take part in the deliberations. A glance through the list of subjects so far arranged for is sufficient to indicate that the man who attends this convention is going to get many times his money's worth in the practical ideas that will be presented. Also the hardware dealer who stays away is going to be a heavy loser, for such an interchange of views and experiences is bound to prove helpful.

David Hawblitzel announces that, having decided to quit farming, he will sell at public sale at his residence five miles south of Buchanan on Wednesday, March 6, his horses, hogs' cattle, farming implements, etc. 6p

About forty friends and neighbors planned a genuine surprise upon Mrs. Wm. Hunter Tuesday evening, at her home across the river, in honor of her birthday anniversary. Delicious refreshments were served. The company was favored with several beautiful vocal solos by Miss Phoenix Baker of Niles. Various games were indulged in until a late hour. All report a most enjoyable evening.

Washington Leaving Mount Vernon to Answer the Call of His Country
From Historic Picture by Howard Pyle

FROM his earliest boyhood George Washington's life was closely associated with the old Mount Vernon estate. When Laurence Washington returned from the West Indian campaign, in which he had served under Admiral Vernon, he gave to his estate the name of that gallant commander. Soon after this he married the daughter of a retired Royal Governor of the Bermuda Islands.

Into the refined and elegant associations of this home the boy George came as a favorite visitor. During these years the seeds of that love of the place which later led him to spend lavishly on its improvement were planted.

matters as well may be presented for their attention.

Buchanan is especially interested in the special session of the legislature in view of the fact that an effort is to be made to have special legislation enacted whereby the village will be enabled to grant a 30-year franchise to the Niles Gas Light company, who, in that event, would extend the gas mains from Niles to Buchanan and install a system of mains here.

Supt. Johnson of the Niles Gas Light company, has taken the matter up with the officials of the company in Detroit, and if it is found that it will be possible to get an enabling act through at the special session of the legislature, the gas people light people will co-operate with the Buchanan board of trustees in the undertaking.

It is estimated that it would cost the Niles Gas Light company about $40,000 to install a system here:

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is, by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

BANQUET OF CHICAGO-BUCHANAN SOCIETY HELD AT VOGELSANG'S, CHICAGO, FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 11, '11--FORTY-FIVE PRESENT

ANNUAL BANQUET JOYOUS AFFAIR

Chicago-Buchanan Society Gathers
Around the Festive Board.

The Record is in receipt of the following account of the recent annual banquet of the Chicago-Buchanan society, from Secretary W. A. Barnes:

The banquet of the Chicago-Buchanan society for 1912 is now but a memory and a very pleasing memory to those who were fortunate enough to be present. Forty-six persons sat down to the tables to enjoy not only the good things furnished for our entertainment by Vogelsang's, but also some other good things from members of the society, or their friends.

Miss Pruner, who has a remarkably sweet voice, rendered a number of solos. Her singing was very much enjoyed by every one. Miss Marie Starrett, in her inimitable way, told the story of "The One-Legged Goose." She was not permitted to retire until she had responded to an encore. Little Miss Markley, who is a new acquisition to the society, "brought down the house" with her recitations. Even the waiters joined in the hearty applause. Mr. Aleshire in a "carefully prepared impromptu speech" entertained us in his usual charming way. Mr. John A. Watson, formerly of St. Joseph, Michigan, and C. O. Frisbie were called upon for some remarks and cheerfully responded. Not the least enjoyable thing to those present was the following telegram received by the president of the society from New York, during the evening: "Greetings to you all and pleasant recollections of the old town from three wanderers on Broadway. Carl Howe, George Weaver, Charles Redden."

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Plimpton, Hamilton Plimpton, Louise Plimpton, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Burley, Mrs. H. C. Plimpton Miles City, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Fox, Mr. and Mrs.

O. E. Aleshire, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Weaver, Mr. A. M. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Daw, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Starrett, Marie Starrett, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wood, Jennings Wood, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Frisbie, Margaret Frisbie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rinker, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Markley, Mabel Markley, H. M. Weston, Sarah E. Pruner, Clara Dodd Joslin, Clara B. Wilson, Harry Helmick, Mary E. Reynolds, Evelyn L. Kemper, R. H. Roe, Mabel Folger, John A. Watson, and Wm. A. Barnes.

On the whole it was a very enjoyable affair. One young lady was so delighted that she wished to be adopted immediately by some member of the society. Another young lady, to all appearances, has been adopted by a member of the society and if rumors are not at fault will soon become a Buchananite by operation of law aided by the services of a good minister.

It is to be regretted that a number of our regular attendants were unable to be present with us at this time because of illness. Each member was appointed a committee of one with instructions to bring at least one new Buchananite to the next banquet. It is hoped also that at the next banquet Buchanan will be well represented by a number of those who now live there.

The annual picnic of the society will be held at Jackson Park on the last Saturday of August, 1912. Every person who lives in Buchanan, every person who has ever lived in Buchanan, and every person who desires to live in Buchanan is invited to attend.

It is the desire of the Chicago-Buchanan society to obtain the names and addresses of all former Buchananites who now reside in Chicago or vicinity. The society will be grateful if they will send the names and addresses of such persons to William A. Barnes, secretary of the society, 112 West Adams street, Chicago, Ill.

DEATHS

MRS. MARY HASLETT BENNETT

Mrs. Mary Haslett Bennett was born in White Deer township, Union county, Pennsylvania, Sept. 8, 1828, and died at the home of her son, James, near Three Oaks, Feb. 7, 1912, aged 83 years, five months.

She moved with her father to Indiana in 1841 and July 21, 1847, was joined in marriage to Wm. H. slett. The following November they located in Berrien county on the farm where she has since resided. Mr. Haslett passed to his rest June 11, 1889. They were blessed with seven sons; two dying in infancy.

Dec. 27, 1895, she was married to George Bennett of Oskaloosa, Iowa, who died in March 1897.

She leaves five sons, James D., of Chikaming township; Robert N., of Niles township; John A., of Buchanan; Wm. B., who resides on the old homestead, and Charles L., of Chesterton, Ind. She also leaves 13 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. These all sadly mourn the loss of a loving mother and grandmother.

The funeral service was held from the old homestead Saturday, Feb. 10, at 1:30 p. m., and was largely attended. The service was conducted by W. H. Watson, singing by the Buchanan Ladies' Quartette. Interment was made at the Howe cemetery.

If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble,
Accept This Offer

When we promise your money back for the mere asking if Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does not do as we claim it will, you certainly have no reason for even hesitating to try it. We do not ask you to obligate yourself in any way.

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if it did not do all we claim. Should our enthusiasm carry us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

Therefore, when we assure you that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness, you may rest assured we know what we are talking about.

We honestly believe that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do more than any other human agency toward restoring hair growth and hair health. LITTLE NELL WAS ORIGINAL

DeQuincey's "Our Lady of Tears" Did
Not Suggest the Character to Dickens.

It is remarked of Charles Dickens that no modern writer was less open to the charge of having received suggestions from the characters and plots of his novels from others than was he, and this for the reason that his plots and characters were chosen, not from books, but from people and incidents in the living world about him. Some time ago, however, an English author thought that he had found in DeQuincey's essay, "Our Lady of Tears," the suggestion for the beautiful pathos of Little Nell, in "The Old Curiosity Shop." A little investigation, however, showed that DeQuincey's essay was published in 1845, while "The Old Curiosity Shop" was published five years before. The extract here given from DeQuincey's essay is interesting:

"The eldest of the three sisters is named Mater Lachrymarum, our Lady of Tears. The sister it is that carries keys more than papal at her girdle, h open every cottage and every door. She, to my knowledge, sate at last summer by the bedside of the blind beggar, him that so often and so gladly I talked with, whose pious daughter, eight years old, with the sunny countenance, resisted the temptations of play and village mirth, to travel all day long on dusty roads with her afflicted father. For this old God send her a great reward. In the springtime of the year, and whilst yet her own spring was budding. He called her to himself. But her blind father mourns for ever over her; still he dreams at midnight that the little guiding hand is locked within his own, and still he wakens to a darkness that is now within a second and deeper darkness."
