

Buchanan in the Dimming Past

MARCH 31, 1892.

Frank Lough has bought the Horton house and lot, on Portage street, and expects to abide there after the middle of April.

A young banker arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Reynolds, March 30, 1892. It will be some time before he takes a position in the bank.

Word from Chattanooga, Tenn., announces the birth of a daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hartner, March 27, 1892. Mrs. Hartner is known here as Miss Belle Welch.

A 14½ pound boy was born in St. Joseph last week. There will have to be added 4 3-4 pounds to that before the record established in this place will have been reached.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Keer gave a pleasant entertainment to their friends, about one hundred being present, March 29, which was the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding.

Burglars entered Treat and Godfrey's hardware store, March 29, 1892, by an entrance made by themselves in the rear end of the store. They stole five revolvers and other articles amounting to about fifty dollars.

Henry Kalb, who has been working in the market of O. S. Tourje, has concluded to launch out for himself and will open a meat market in Crosson's old stand. Mr. O. S. Tourje has sold his meat market to Croster and Raymond, of Decatur.

W. A. Palmer was called upon last week to help investigate the cellar bottom of Cass DeArmond's store building in Dayton, and by a small amount of digging unearthed a gold mine. Instead of being in an ore form, the gold he found was in $20 coins and in baking powder cans. About $2,000 were found. Mr. DeArmond had buried the cans sometime since, and had forgotten how many there were or where he had buried them, hence called for assistance to find his wealth.

SIXTY-NINE DRUNKS IN COUNTY JAIL IN THE PAST SIX MONTHS

The report of the semi-annual inspection of the county jail was filed with Probate Judge W. H. Andrews Saturday.

It showed that between the last inspection in September and February 11 there has been jailed 368 persons.

On Wednesday, the day of the inspection, there were 41 prisoners, all but one being men.

The report said that there were no evils in the management of the institution by Sheriff Fred C. Franz. It recommended that more blankets be obtained and that the toilet facilities in the cell be improved.

"Drunks" led the list of prisoners for the six-month period. Sixty-nine were arrested. Forty-two were held for violation of the liquor laws.

The report was signed by the Rev. T. W. Bellingham, county agent, and H. E. Whalen, L. E. Merchant and A. G. Haslett, superintendent of the poor.

The boy did not know what hurt him nor when he was hurt, and for several days had no recollection of having been in the field. The wounds were dressed by Drs. Pierce and McLean.

TROUNCED BY THE THREE OAKS FIVE

SEVERAL REASONS GIVEN FOR THE SEVERE DRUBBING RECEIVED FROM THREE OAKS SQUAD LAST FRIDAY.

(By Chester Woolley)

B. H. S., handicapped by a crippled team, a poor floor and Friday, the thirteenth, took a severe drubbing at the hands of the Three Oaks squad last Friday night at the Acorn city. The score was 37-17.

Without attempting to establish an alibi the B. H. S. cagers are inclined to think that the above reasons had a lot to do with the final outcome of the game. But putting all excuses aside Buchanan was outplayed without a doubt, there was not a hint of the fighting spirit that was too much for St. Joe. The team also lacked smooth passing and accurate shooting, but here they have a good excuse for the Three Oaks ceiling is extremely low and as a result many of Buchanan's attempts at the hoop proved futile.

The Maroon and White tried to stage a comeback in the last half but the lead was too great to overcome.

Despite this blot on their record the team expects to hit their former stride when they engage the Cass squad at Cassopolis on the 20th of the month.

AGRICULTURAL TRAIN WILL TOUR SOUTHERN MICHIGAN

Buchanan will be included in the list of towns at which the New York Central's soil train will stop if arrangements are completed for the tour of Southwestern Michigan during the month of April. A staff of specialists from the Michigan Agricultural college will co-operate with the Agricultural Agent of the New York Central lines, and the train will be operated for the benefit of farmers of all kinds. Particular attention will be given to muck crop growers, fruit producers, dairymen and cash crop farmers. The train will start at Mason around the middle of April and will make half-day stops at the following places: Eaton Rapids, Charlotte, Middleville, Hastings, Nashville, Caledonia, Bryon Genes, Hopkins, Allegan, Otsego, Kalamazoo, Schoolcraft, Three Rivers, Constantine, Sturgis, Bronson, Coldwater, Quincy, Horton, Concord, Homer, Union City, Colon, Venterville, Va.

FRIDAY THE 13TH

When the Record forms were ready for press Friday afternoon one of the employees remarked that we might look for trouble as the day was not only Friday but the date was the 13th. Our trouble started almost immediately with the first few revolutions of the press and continued throughout the day, and Raymond Pabalon, the pressman, announced that in the future he will always be superstitious of "Friday the 13th." We discovered, however, that the day and date had nothing to do with our trouble, as it was caused by just a little oversight.

A press dispatch states that Friday the 13th had no terrors for Cletus LeRoy Hitman, of Freeport, N. Y. He is the father of 13 children and on Friday the 13th he drove 13 miles to be married. His bride lived on North 13th street; they were married at 3:13 p. m. and theirs was the 13th marriage the justice had performed this year.

HOLLAND, Feb. 13—Carl Haan of Agnew, deaf mute today was arrested by Patrolman Stekotee on a charge of beating up his parents.

According to officers, Haan has been taking medicine for a minor ailment for some time, his mother usually administering the necessary amounts. The youth developed a liking for the medicine and when his mother refused him more than was necessary, proceeded to beat up his father and mother. Both parents sustained black eyes and battered faces. The youth was taken to the county jail at Grand Haven.

DEATH OF MRS LULU WYNN PARKHURST

It was with much regret that friends here learned Friday, of the death of Mrs. Lulu Wynn Parkhurst at her home in Kalamazoo.

Mrs. Parkhurst was born in Berrien Springs but came to Buchanan with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wynn, when about nine years old, and lived here until her marriage to Lee Parkhurst of Kalamazoo.

She had been in poor health for a number of years and for the past two years was confined to the house a greater part of the time. Her death was due to tuberculosis. Her husband, one son, a daughter, three sisters and three brothers survive her.

Funeral services were held at the Parkhurst home in Kalamazoo on Sunday, Feb. 15, and burial was made in the Portage cemetery, near there.

Deceased was a sister of Paul Wynn of Buchanan, who with his wife and daughter and son, Roy, attended the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ihrie announce the birth of a daughter at the Clark hospital, Monday, Feb. 16.

John G. Ham, brother of Edgar and Mary Ham of Buchanan, was a close friend for many years of the late John C. Eastman, editor and proprietor of the Chicago Journal, and when Mr. Eastman passed away several days ago, he was one of those invited to act as honorary pall bearer and made the trip from New York to Chicago for that purpose.

The American Legion Auxiliary combined business and pleasure at their regular meeting last evening. A pot luck supper was served at 6.30 and a short business session then came the main feature of the evening—a Valentine party. Games of various kinds were enjoyed and two contests held. One the mending of broken hearts and the other a heart hunt. The first consisted of piercing hearts together after they had been cut in small pieces, the other to find as many of the hearts which had been concealed about the hall, as possible. Mrs. Caroline Snodgrass won first prize for both and Mrs. Elizabeth Markham the second. Valentine decorations were used on the table and about the room. The attendance was very good. Monday evening, March 2, is the date for the next meeting.

Shoots Hawk at 168 Yards

While exercising his 22 rifle on the flat southwest of Belgrade the other day, W. B. Wallace and two companions saw a sparrow hawk sitting in a tree about 100 yards away, says a Belgrade (Mont.) correspondent of the New York World. One of the hunters tried a shot, but missed, and the hawk flew to a tree down the field and considered farther distant.

Mr. Wallace then drew a bead and fired. The hawk fell dead and the rifleman's friends came near pulling the same stunt.

The distance was then paced and proved to be 168 yards.

Telephone Employees

That the telephone business is a highly specialized industry is shown by the fact that 604 different kinds of employees, ranging from addressograph clerks to wiremen, are on the pay roll of the Bell system. The list includes such little-known titles as block foreman, body builder, chief nickel collector, concrete man, galvanometer man, guardman, mahole, stichman, paver and others, along with every well-known title from president to operator, and including nine different kinds of foremen.

Conscientious Marshal

Edward B. Ischem, for 11 years city marshal of Porterville, Cal., and chief traffic officer, had the distinction of arresting himself. He backed his car into the auto driven by Mrs. Wood Sandtze. Some damage was done. The marshal then proceeded to inform himself. "Your fault, and you will have to pay the damages or go to the city hall with me," he said, then promised himself that he would be more careful in the future.

THE FLY'S REMARKS

"I have some remarks, which I should like to make," said the fly. First he dusted off his hind legs and then he brushed off his front legs and gave his head a good dusting. He did all this without any duster—his wings and head and legs could be kept clean by himself without any outside help.

He didn't care to be too clean—just enough, just enough, that was all.

"Yes," the fly continued, "I have some remarks to make."

Another fly looked at him out of his double eyes and said, "If that is the case you'd better make them."

"Just what I intend to do," said the first fly.

"I see," said the second fly. "You intended making these remarks whether I encouraged you or not."

"You just hoped I would urge you."

to do so, and then it would sound as though the suggestion came from me when you had already made up your mind to speak. Ha, ha, buzz, buzz. I understand."

"Oh, very well," said the first fly, "I do not mind if you understand so well. I won't let my feelings be hurt. I won't go away and keep from speaking to you on that account."

"I wouldn't be a child and get mad at another child and 'not speak' for anything."

"I'm the other way. I don't mind how much I am insulted. And 'it is about this that I wish to make my remarks'."

"People would not stick to each other if they were told to get away and were pushed aside or brushed aside."

"People would not stick around if they were not wanted."

"People would not like other people if they were not treated well."

"People would not stay in houses where they were not wanted and where they were told they were not wanted."

"But flies will!"

"Yes, people can shove us aside when we light upon them, they can talk about us and wish we'd go away, but still we come about."

"The other day I settled on the forehead of a little girl five different times in less than ten minutes."

"She brushed me off and complained about me and said she wished I'd go away and not come back again."

"But back I came."

"That just shows you how much better a friend I was to her than some people would have been if she had talked to them the way she talked to me."

"Still," said the second fly, "you wouldn't have been anxious to show her any real friendship."

"Maybe you'd go back to her and bother her and stick to her but not in any friendly fashion."

"In fly fashion perhaps, but not in friendly fashion."

"True," said the first fly, "but still I remark that that is more than people will do—stick when they're not loved."

"Oh, well," said the second fly, "I can't say anything, as I do the same. I show the same interest in those who show no interest in me."

"I fuss about people who are annoyed by me."

"I don't care whether I'm wanted or not—I'm still the same stick-about fly."

"It's the fly style not to object whether we're wanted or not."

And then the two flies began to fly about and buzz and sing this little song:

Two flies are we,
Buzzing with glee.
We're a nuisance, it's true,
But it won't make us blue
If we're urged away
At night or by day.
We're not healthy, you know,
But that can't make us go.
When we're having our fun,
We wait 'till we're done.
We love to annoy
A girl or a boy,
Two flies are we,
Buzzing with glee.

Then Fluffy Thundered

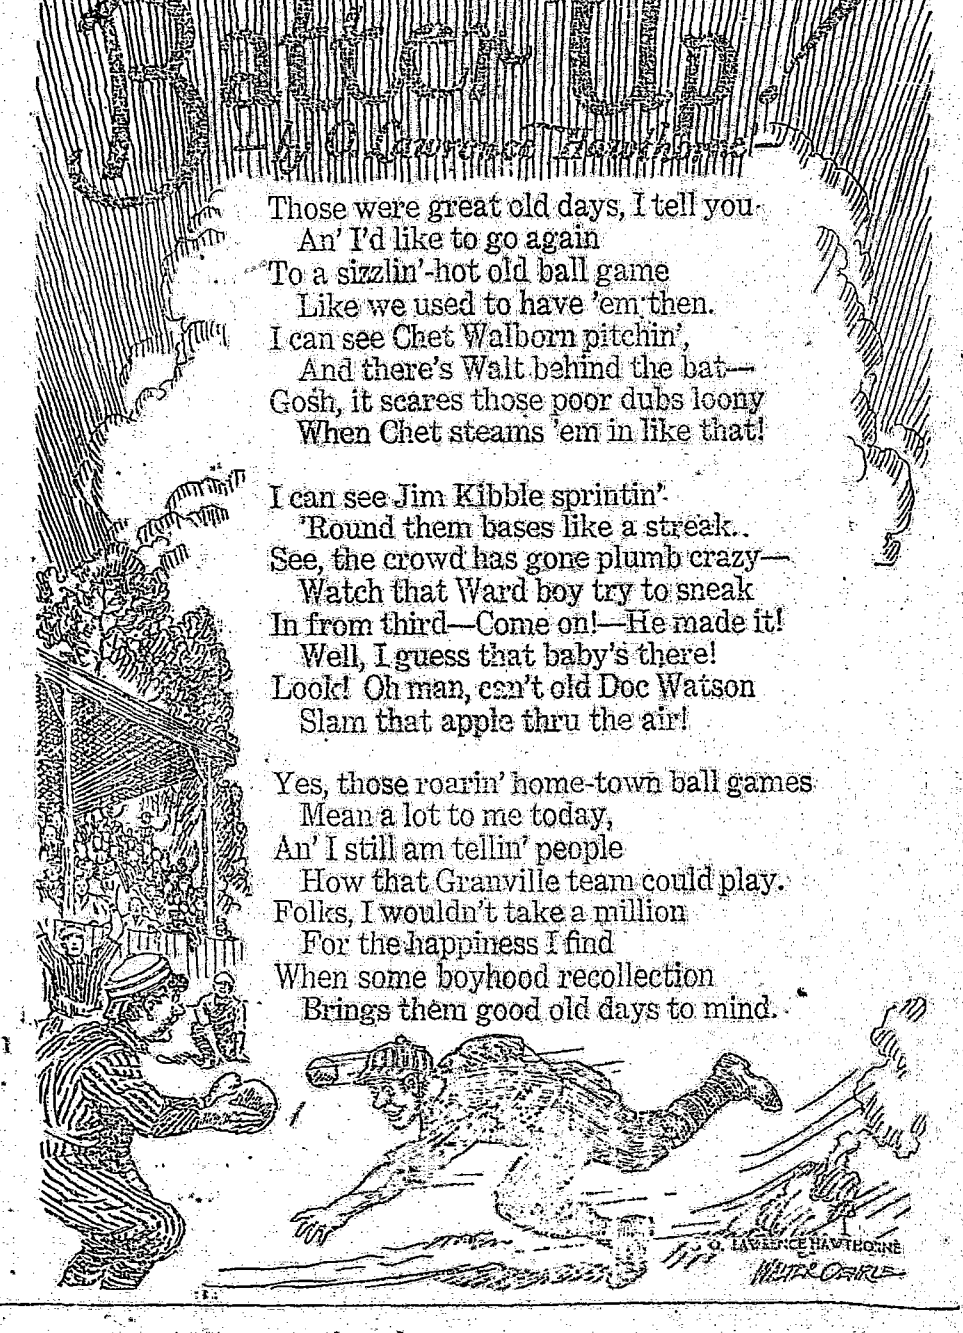

One afternoon Fluffy, a neighbor's dog, wandered over to enjoy our front yard. William was delighted and immediately began to pat and poke and hug, all of which Fluffy took with his usual good nature. In time, however, the dog had his fill and as a warning emitted a long, deep growl.

Greatly surprised William stared at Fluffy, thought a minute, and to the amusement of all exclaimed: "O my, did you hear? Fluffy thundered!"
