

VOTE FOR WATER SATURDAY IS VOTE FOR PROSPERITY

BUCHANAN NEEDS WATER EXTENSION

SPECIAL ELECTION TO FIND OUT WHETHER TWO MILES OF BADLY NEEDED MAINS WILL BE LAID

Get out and vote Saturday. Urge your neighbor to vote. Let's get out in number and make this special election unanimous by giving the village of Buchanan the necessary water extensions that will spell prosperity for this village.

Buchanan needs more water mains, and needs them badly. Lack of water in newly developed sections is retarding building and consequently retarding very materially the growth of Buchanan.

If the bond issue carries, some two miles of mains will be laid on Front street, from Chippewa to Phillips; on Chicago street, from Detroit to Terre Coupe; on Terre Coupe r. d. from Chicago to east line of cemetery; on River street, from the end of the present main to Fulton street; on Elizabeth street, from Portage to Victory; on Fulton street, from Portage east 1,750 feet; and on Maple court from Front to Whitman.

The cost, as estimated by a competent engineer engaged by the village, will be $19,852.50. As the amount is more than the common council can raise without resorting to a bond issue, bonds, totaling $18,000, in denominations of $1,000, will be issued, providing the electors vote their approval at the polls Saturday. The bonds will bear six per cent interest due semi-annually on the first day of May and November each year until maturity.

Despite all the building that is being done in Buchanan this year, there is a crying need of more houses. The housing situation is indeed critical and a condition that needs immediate relief. Burkhardt and Whitecomb court are ideal residential subdivisions, but are lying dormant all through the lack of water. Should water be extended, these and other unimproved properties would soon bustle with building activity.

One hundred water meters have been ordered by the village and these will be sold to water users at $35 each. It is a fact that water users eventually pay for the extensions in taxes levied for water used. It is also a fact that the cost per capita of installing this much needed improvement is but a drop in the bucket to the attendant enhancement in property values. So, a man who votes down this project is cutting off his own nose, in a sense, he is taking money right out of his own pocket.

Al. Charles, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is firmly back of the water extension project.

"I cannot see," he said, "why anyone with Buchanan's interests at heart, or considering his own welfare, could be opposed to the extension of our water mains. Lack of water has been a great handicap in the development of the village. It has retarded building and frustrated the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations in bringing new industries and new families here. Everyone should go to the polls Saturday and vote for this bond issue."

Charles J. Bradley, who has been untiring in his efforts for water extension in the past and whose efforts were crowned with success, is one of the strongest proponents of this forthcoming water issue. He says: "Since water was put down Chippewa street in 1920 there has been much development in that section. There have been twelve or fourteen houses built on that street and several new families have come to Buchanan as a result. Since water mains were laid on Front street to Roe and back to Cayuga in 1915 there have been seven houses built. I am for this much needed two miles of extension."

The polls will be open Saturday from 7 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock in the evening. Be sure and vote.

THREE CARS IN WRECK

Three cars piled up in a wreck on the Niles-Buchanan road Saturday noon. It happened when a Ford, attempting to pass a Niles taxi, collided with a Chevrolet approaching from the opposite direction. The Chevrolet catapulted into the ditch and the Ford turned over. The taxi was without injuries. Luckily, there was none injured, and the participants, whose names Niles police were unable to ascertain had rehabilitated their damaged steeds and departed the scene of action.

MRS. GLENN SMITH HEADS PARENT-TEACHER ASS'N.

The first Fall meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held in the Junior High assembly room in the school building Tuesday night. Due to the inclement weather but few were present and the speakers, Mrs. Don E. Whitney of St. Joseph and the county nurse, Miss Emma Arnold, were not able to be present.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and Mrs. Glenn E. Smith was elected as president in place of Mrs. W. E. Sargent, who had resigned. At the next meeting of the association a very interesting program will be presented with some out of town speakers to present subjects of interest to members.

WOMAN IS VICTIM OF CHINA BANDITS

MISS KOEBBE, KNOWN HERE, CAPTURED AND HELD FOR RANSOM IN HONAN PROVINCE

Ward has been received here to Grass Lake, Mich., missionary in China, was captured for ransom by Chinese bandits while she and two other missionaries were traveling through the province of Honan, enroute to Schenchofu, in the interior of that province.

Miss Koebbe is known in Buchanan through her identification with the Evangelical camp meetings held at Riverside camp grounds in 1922.

Miss Koebbe was a graduate of the 1920 class at Northwestern college, Naperville, Ill., an Evangelical school for training of pastors and church workers. The relatives of Miss Koebbe believe that she had a premonition that some evil was to befall her because, they stated, she just recently sent them presents for Christmas, accompanied by a message that she wanted them to have some tokens of her affections if anything happened to her. Every effort of the American government is being exerted to secure the release and rescue of Miss Koebbe and the two other missionaries captured with her as well as the removal to safety of the thirty-nine Americans that are in the dangerous battle zone of rival Chinese factions.

AWARD CONTRACTS FOR M-11 AND M-60

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT PUTS ITS OFFICIAL O. K. ON NEW BUFFALO-GALLEN STRIP

Contracts authorizing construction of two important links in the state highway system in Berrien County have been signed by the highway department. The projects affected are on M-11 and M-60.

On M-11, the contract calls for construction of a 20-foot concrete pavement on the south six miles of the proposed relocation between Sawyer and Stevensville. The estimated cost is $231,434. A nine-mile strip of 20-foot concrete on M-60 running from New Buffalo to Galien, a project involving estimated expenditure of $308,278 was also authorized.

GIRL RECEIVES $13,500 BY GRANDMOTHER'S WILL

Miss Dorothy Tuttle, 17, of Niles, according to the terms of the will of the grandmother, Mrs. Lucinda N. Jennings, who died at the Haven Hubbard Memorial Home near New Carlisle, Sept. 27, will receive an estate valued at $13,500.

The will, which was filed for probate last Friday names Chas. Pears as executor.

Miss Tuttle is the daughter of Mrs. Vera Tuttle, now dead, a daughter of Mrs. Jennings. The estate consists of approximately $3,500 in real estate and $10,000 in personal property. The will was dated October 5, 1910. A codicil, dated December 5, 1926, provided that in the event of Miss Tuttle's death, the estate was to be divided equally between her father, Chas. Tuttle, and a niece, Eva Twishey.

BUCHANAN MAN ACCUSES HIS WIFE OF INFIDELITY

John O. Poulson of Buchanan has filed a bill for divorce in the circuit court against Mrs. Helen Poulson, whom he accuses of infidelity. They were married in June, 1925, and have no children. Mr. Poulson is represented by Attorney George H. Batchelor.

Famous Last Words

WILL SHOW MOVIE OF LOCAL SCHOOL

STUDENT BODY, BUILDING, GROUNDS AND FOOTBALL SQUAD WILL BE SHOWN

Buchanan high school got into the movies without going to Hollywood. Led by Superintendent Harold Stark and a professional motion picture photographer with a regulation studio camera, members of the faculty were busy arranging sets and snapping stills and moving subjects, parading the grade children around the building and spanning close-ups for presentation in Buchanan high school's first adventure into motion picture production.

The film will be shown in the school auditorium tonight, Thursday, Oct. 14. There will be a nominal charge of 15 and 25 cents, and the net receipts will go to improve the high school athletic fund. Besides views of the interior and exterior of the high school building and snaps of the student body, there will be pictures of the football ball squad—all real action pictures.

FARMERS POST PROPERTY AGAINST HUNTERS

Farmers throughout this locality are posting their farms against hunters and trespassers in many instances not because they object to hunting on their farms, but because some hunters seem to have no regard for the property on which they are finding sport. Several instances have come to the attention of the Record since the opening of the hunting season this fall where wire fences have been cut, gates pushed down, chickens shot and other depredations committed, in one case a pasture gate was opened and the farmer's cows were chased a half mile down the road by so-called sportsmen.

It is such contemptible acts as these that arouse the ire of farm owners and forces them to take legal means to protect their property. It is the irresponsible, smart aleck type, who has started the trouble and has placed hunters in ill-repute among the farmers. It is regrettable that the true sportsman must be denied pursuit of a clean, wholesome sport just because the very few go out and commit these acts of depredation.

SCHOENBERG MUSIC HOUSE MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

Martin Schoenberg, who has conducted a music store at 104 West Front street the past year, feeling the need for a more central location, will move into the Parkinson Millinery building on or about November 1. As in the past, the store will handle a complete line of the most popular makes of pianos, players, radios, phonographs and supplies. The store will continue to feature Hobart M. Cable pianos and players, the Crosley and Stewart Warner radios and Victor phonographs. In a big clearance sale which began at the Schoenberg store Saturday, Mr. Schoenberg uses an advertising slogan: "It is cheaper to move than pay rent." We say no. That's why we are conducting this sale, to reduce our stock and save the expense of moving. Mr. Schoenberg has many exceedingly attractive offerings in his sale.

NEW MANAGER AT THE NATIONAL TEA STORE

Earl Parker, of South Bend, is the new manager at the National Tea Store, having come here last week to take the place of Mrs. Barrett, who for the past year has been managing the store. Mr. Parker has had twelve years experience in the grocery business, and with his genial smile has already made many friends and patrons.

BUCHANAN WIFE APPLIES TO COURT FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Gladys Norman of Buchanan has filed a bill for divorce in the circuit court against John Norman charging non-support. They were married in October, 1921, and have one child. Mrs. Norman was represented by Attorney Edwin J. Donahue of Niles.

CENTENARIAN ILL

Berrien County's oldest resident, Mrs. Mary Herman, of New Buffalo, who celebrated her one hundred and first birthday last spring is critically ill with pneumonia. Physicians have given her but a few days to live.

Buchanan School Now Has Enrollment of 925

OF THIS NUMBER 206 ARE IN HIGH SCHOOL; MORE THAN WERE ON ROLLS LAST YEAR

There are now 925 pupils enrolled in the Buchanan public schools, according to an announcement of E. H. Ormiston, high school principal, and it is believed this figure will exceed 1,000 before June commencement.

This is a slight increase over the enrollment figures for last year. There are now 206 students enrolled in the high school, as compared with 202 for last year. The enrollment for junior high is 126. "We are trying to eliminate failures in class work from the entire school," said Mr. Ormiston. "We have reduced them to a low point already, only 20 failing any subject last month. I do not believe with most people that some always will fail." Our grading standards in citizenship, as well as in scholarship, gives them a new incentive for achievements.

The agricultural club had charge of the concessions at the football game Saturday. The Home Economics department will vend the sandy and peanuts Saturday.

Miss Lauretta oggett, music teacher, announces the organization of a 20-piece orchestra in the High school. It consists of 12 stringed instruments and eight wood winds and brasses. She is pushing the two Glee clubs for the boys and girls and expects to develop solo talent soon. A band will also be organized.

Mrs. Ida Rice, piano teacher, now has 37 pupils in piano in the school. When asked if the music, interferred with the studies, in other classes, she said it did not. Rex Keller also has a number of pupils on piano in the schools. Under the Michigan law music teachers holding diplomas from accredited music schools have this privilege.

LEONA BRIGHT IS ENTERED IN NEWSPAPER'S TEN-THOUSAND DOLLAR COMPETITION

Miss Leona Bright, winsome, young Clark hospital nurse, has been entered as a contestant in the "66 Peaches" contest, conducted by a Chicago newspaper, in an effort to select the most beautiful girl in the Middle West. Miss Bright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Donahue of Niles.

There will be a grand prize awarded the Mid-West Venus as well as 55 special and consolation prizes. The amount of prize awards will be $50,000. There are several hundred contestants already entered, but only one from Buchanan.

HOLMES ANSWERS MRS. STUDEBAKER

FORMER RECORD PUBLISHER WAXES REMINISCENTLY

WHIMSICAL AND SATIRICAL

John G. Holmes, who in the long ago published the Record and who was wont to chronicle, in no uncertain manner, the events of Buchanan, writes a very interesting letter, which we herewith present to our readers.

The letter shows that Mr. Holmes still has a keen intellect and responsive typewriter at the age of 74. He makes some comments on his early history that are distinctly picturesque. He incidentally takes Mrs. Nancy Bliss Studebaker to task for certain statements made by that estimable woman in a recent issue of the Record.

Mr. Holmes' letter follows: "Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 4, 1926.

"Editor Record—'Concordia': The death of Mrs. L. P. Potter, Wilson mentioned in the Record, occurred in Greeley, Iowa, not in Colorado. The clipping was taken from the Cedar Rapids Republican and they did not mention the state in the sideheads of the Iowa articles. My fault in not correcting the copy before sending it out of the state is mine. I see that my friend, Nancy Bliss Studebaker wants to stir up something. Her goings about and mine were in different neighborhoods, she in town and I on the farm four miles west, out Dayton way and I do not remember the particular launching she mentions. I first knew her as Nancy Smith, daughter of 'Old Jim' Smith, who was something of an athlete. I have seen him walk about the yard on his hands when he was about sixty years old, and I do not believe she could do that. She was a sister to Howard Smith who went into the 12th Michigan Infantry, and had their first smell of war at Pitsburg Landing. She taught the Holmes school while I was on the farm shuckin' taters, and after the school she married Bert Bliss and lived on what is now the George Boyle farm, which the Blisses bought of Bob Briscoe. Tell her the source of McCoy's creek is a large spring, about eight rods west by south from the Holmes Landing. She is east corner of the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section six, township eight, range eighteen west, Berrien county, Michigan, and it runs from there all of the way down hill, to the river.

"I am a bit skeptical about her having known me wearing dresses for the last 50 years, and I am between our ages. I was 74 at three o'clock this morning. How is it with her?"

"My folks came to Buchanan in October 1846, from Attica, New York, over Erie canal to Buffalo, there they reshipped to a lake sailing ship to Chicago; and there reshipping by sailer to St. Joseph, and thence by stage to the north boat. The family stayed with the John Baker family in a house that stood at the highest point on Portage street just south of the old Mansfield home now occupied by Frank Rinker; while Father built a shack out of the timber where now is the Speckme home, and they lived in that all winter. Now, that trip is quite a vivid recollection, although it took place six years before I was born. I guess that will hold her on my test."

"Now Nancy, what is a keel-boat?"

"My memory and that of Nancy Studebaker regarding the history of the Record do not quite tally. The first equipment for the Record was bought from New Buffalo by Alonzo Bennett in 1892 and was run by him as the Buchanan Vindicator until he sold out in 1894 to Lloyd & Turner, who changed the name to Buchanan Weekly Union. They sold in 1897 to Daniel Wagner, who came from Waukegan, Wisconsin, and changed the name of the paper to its present name. In 1870 he sold a half interest to Will Kingery, and in 1874 the other half to Willard Marble who traded it to Ashbury Lindley for a farm in 'Wauson' township, Indiana. I bought from Lindley in January, 1875. I was teaching the school in the Lindley district at the time, finished the year of school and went into the office in March. When Mr. Wagner bought the paper he employed as foreman B. D. Hesper, who had been in the grocery business on the corner of Front and Oak, opposite the opera house. Harper had been foreman in a job printing office in Chicago run by an old man by the name of Rand and died of the Rand McNally company, now one of the largest map making concerns in the world. I think the only interest Mr. Patten had in the paper was as husband of Florence Bennett, daughter of the owner, Alonzo Bennett."

"Up to the time Mr. Wagner bought the paper was printed on a Washington hand press—a performance known as 'pulling the devil by the tail.' Mr. Wagner bought from S. P. Rounds, a second hand cylinder press, formerly owned by the Dubuque Times and known as the 'Times type smasher,' and an engine that had been used for drilling oil

THE BUCHANAN BEAUTIFUL CAMPAIGN BEGINS AT ONCE

CASOLINE FIRE CAUSES SLIGHT DAMAGE SUNDAY

Presence of mind and quick action of Mrs. Bessie Bilger saved her home from being more seriously damaged Sunday noon, when gasoline, in which Mrs. Bilger was cleaning clothing, became ignited, flared up and burned the siding of the house, causing but slight damage to the rear porch.

Mrs. Bilger was working on the porch at the time and when the flames mounted ceilingward she smothered the fire out with cloths. A passerby turned in an alarm to the Buchanan volunteer fire department, but Mrs. Bilger had the fire extinguished before the arrival of the fire fighters, who had responded promptly.

WILL ASK $50,000 INFIRMARY ANNEX

SUPERVISORS TO CONSIDER PROPOSALS FOR LARGER QUARTERS AT CO. POOR FARM

L. E. Merchant, of St. Joseph, Glenn Haslett, of Buchanan, and E. E. Whalen of Eau Claire, county superintendents of the poor, with the recommendation of the supervisors' poor committee, have asked the board of county superintendents, which opened its October session in St. Joseph Monday, for a $50,000 appropriation to build an annex to the county infirmary near Berrien Springs.

Lack of facilities to care properly for the number of inmates now housed there, is given as the basis for the request.

When the infirmary first was constructed it was built upon the room plan, with 33 rooms, designed to care for 20 men and 13 women inmates.

At the present time there are 49 being cared for, 32 men and 17 women, he reports. This necessitates housing some of the men over the laundry, and others in a cottage located approximately a block from the rear of the main building. This cottage is heated by stoves, with no water facilities. The inmates are obliged to get their meals and take their baths at the main building.

The recommendation to the board asks for an annex, 10 by 100 feet, two stories high, with basement. It is to be used as a men's dormitory, with a dining room for both men and women, and a kitchen to provide feeding facilities for all inmates.

BENTON HARBOR WOMAN LOSES SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Mrs. Eva Blondin will receive no financial balm for injuries received in an automobile accident, so decided jurors in her suit for damages in circuit court Monday.

Mrs. Blondin, who runs the Douglas View resort at Paw Paw lake, walked to the witness chair and declined to tell her version of the automobile accident for which she received injuries and for which she started suit in the circuit court Friday to collect damages to the extent of $10,000.

Foster Dailey, Benton Harbor youth, the defendant in the action was represented in court by Attorney W. E. Harvey, of the law firm of Gore and Harvey. Mrs. Blondin was represented by Attorney Charles W. Gore.

The accident occurred on the Niles road, six miles south of St. Joseph, early in the morning of April 22, during a heavy fog. Mrs. Blondin received a badly broken leg and other bruises.

Ralph E. Lee, manual training instructor at the Benton Harbor high school, whose car figured in the crash told his version, following similar testimony by Richard Ueck, whose car also was struck. Their testimony disclosed that they had stopped to assist Mrs. Blondin to repair a puncture, parking their cars behind Mrs. Blondin's on the right side of the road.

TO FORM GARDEN FLOWER CLUB NOW

EVERY RESIDENT ELIGIBLE TO MEMBERSHIP; TO MAKE BUCHANAN BEAUTIFUL

"The village beautiful campaign" opens today and those promoting the project to make Buchanan a more beautiful place in which to live, ask the whole-hearted co-operation of every progressive resident of the village. The Buchanan Flower Garden club, an organization in which there are no fees, will conduct the campaign. The Berrien County Record, with the co-operation of the Buchanan Chamber of Commerce, is sponsor for the movement. It is not a movement that will be of temporary duration, but will seek to create more and better gardens—a more beautiful environment—throughout the year.

Business houses, manufacturing institutions and other public spirited citizens will contribute to a fund of several hundreds of dollars to be used for prizes to those who possess the most artistic, the most beautiful and best kept gardens as well as those having the largest variety of flowers. Prizes will be also awarded for the best kept lawns. Special awards will be made for the best arranged garden fence and trellis and the most ornate bird houses. A representative body of local men and women will be selected in the spring to pass on the prize awards.

Although there is time yet to place orders for perennials, the time is getting short and every home-owning Buchanan resident should get busy at once and strive to outdo his neighbor in adding to the beauty of Buchanan in this worthy campaign.

There will be a flower show held here in the fall, and money received through the sale of flowers will go to the Clark hospital.

Registration for membership in the Garden Flower club will take place at the office of the judging of garden entries in the contest.

HE KEEPS A STEP AHEAD OF POLICE

ELUSIVE "HAPPY" ALLEN, WANTED FOR FORGERY, LEADS OFFICERS A MERRY CHASE

J. "Happy" Allen, aged 25, a resident of Buchanan for more than a year, wanted by the police on a charge of forgery, has thus far been able to keep a step ahead of the officers.

Recently, the proprietor of a local garage called Allen into his office to "talk over" a check the young man had given him. The garage man stepped out of the office a moment and when he returned Allen was gone. The police have almost caught up to Allen on several occasions, but when they arrive on the scene, the result of this, they would discover the bird had flown.

Buchanan was all worked up on Tuesday when it was rumored sheriff's deputies had taken Allen near the state line. When the sheriff's car drove up it was discovered the suspect was one who faintly answered Allen's description, but was not the elusive "Happy."

Since Allen started to live by his wits he has forged checks totaling $300, police say.

PRESBYTERIANS REJECT ALL BIDS FOR BUILDING

All bids received by the building committee of the Presbyterian church of Buchanan, furnishing estimates for the construction cost of a new church edifice to be built on the site of the ruins of the old church which was destroyed by fire in December, 1924, have been rejected. The committee declares that all estimates were thousands of dollars higher than the figures furnished by architects, Cutbert & Cutbert, of Ann Arbor.

Most of the bids were offered by South Bend and Benton Harbor contractors. The committee consists of A. H. Kiehn, chairman, Edward Pascoe, Charles Bachman and A. B. Muir. Mr. White and Mr. Kiehn conferred with the architects at Ann Arbor and after carefully checking their work, agreed to find architects there who would undertake to meet the requirements. Promises have been received from a number of building concerns to submit bids and the committee expects definite results within a week or 10 days.

Something very new shown this week in the Saturday Evening Post and on display at our store.

There's no question about it the University men set the styles. The rugged tweed materials, the loose-fitting of the clothing call for a special shoe.

The broad toe with the soft box, the fellow's tongue, the shovel leather heel with top sole make this oxford right for this season. Its time to change to fall weight shoes and this one will make you a good change.

RECALLS STORM OF OCT. 10, 1906, WHEN FRUIT WAS DESTROYED IN 10-INCH SNOW FALL

What are you shivering about, we ask you? Do you recall the storm of Oct. 10, 1906, just 20 years ago last Sunday, when the late fruit of Berrien county was almost a total loss on account of a ten-inch snow fall that covered the countryside and which was preceded by a heavy frost?

We had almost forgotten it until Ed Helmeick, local Civil War veteran, brought to our attention photographs of that memorable snow storm that completely covered Buchanan with the "white and beautiful."

The photographs, three in number, include views of south Oak street showing the marble works and trees lining both sides of the street, snow-bedecked, a view taken at Clark and Front streets, showing the trees heavily laden and a horse valiantly tugging at a buggy pulling it through the drift in Front street, and another view showing similar conditions. The snow, preceded by a rain and frost, began falling Saturday night. The snow, however, was of short duration, as a scorching Sunday afternoon sun quickly melted it.

According to Mr. Helmeick, one is not compelled to go that far back for evidence of an October snow fall. For a year ago last Saturday night Buchanan experienced a five-inch fall. The worst storm, however, in Mr. Helmeick's recollection occurred in October, 1876, just 50 years ago. Mr. Helmeick does not recall the exact date. He was twelve years old at the time and he remembers that the snow, which laid in drifts well over the fence tops, made it impossible for vehicle travel.

Mr. Helmeick, who soon will celebrate his eighty-seventh birthday, has had a long and interesting life. Born in Onoko township, six miles north of Buchanan, in May, 1840, Mr. Helmeick lived his entire life in Berrien county, excepting three years spent as an enlisted soldier in the Union army as a member of Company C, twenty-fifth Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He has been a resident of Buchanan 42 years, coming here on October 7, 1884.

Mr. Helmeick enlisted for service in the Civil war at Berrien Springs shortly after war was declared and served throughout the war. He was with Sherman in the memorable siege of Tunnel Hill and from the seventh day of May until Sept. 4, 1864, he was with the Union general, most of which time he was experiencing actual warfare and all of which time was spent within hearing distance of the heavy bombardments and light skirmishings.

Mr. Helmeick is a collector of relics, but one antique which he prizes above all others in his collection is a fire shovel 101 years old, with the date 1825, at which time the father, esse Helmeick, fashioned the shovel out of the virgin materials, stamped on the handle.

The elder Helmeick was a blacksmith of considerable note in his day. He learned his trade in Cincinnati, getting apprentice wages of $10 a year and his board. He removed to Michigan, settling on Willow tract of land in Berrien county, in 1836, a year before Michigan was admitted to statehood.

BOY SCOUTS HOSTS TO GIRL SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts of troupe two entertained the Girl Scouts at a dinner and an hour of songs and games at their headquarters in the Evangelical church Friday night. The tables were arranged by the boys who did the serving under the direction of Scoutmaster and Mrs. Richard Krent, who were assisted by Mrs. Walker. Prior to the dinner the Girl Scouts met at their headquarters in the council rooms and initiated ten new members, making their enrollment twenty-six.

Twenty-three Girl Scouts attended the dinner with their leader, Miss Yarn. Boy Scouts and Miss Milburn, a teacher in the Buchanan schools who has had much training in girl scout work. There were twenty-two Boy Scouts present. Guests present were Rev. and Mrs. Camfield and Scout Commissioner, G. S. Easton. Miss Hopkins and Miss Milburn supervised the social hour.

The Girl Scouts will hold their regular weekly meeting at seven o'clock Friday night in the council rooms and troupe two Boy Scouts will meet at the same night and hour in the Evangelical church.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS MEET The Camp Fire Girls held their meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Chas. King on Lake street. It being the first meeting of the Camp Fire Girls for the month of October a ceremonial meeting was held. Those who had earned honor beads received them.

Four new girls joined the Okepe group last week. The four are Mildred Brewer, Lucille Walker, Eleanor Rice and Lucille Ann-members.

Plans are going forward for numerous Halloween parties in Buchanan. There will be various house parties as well as observance by social and church organizations.

Wins Honor Mrs. Edith Mason Christy of Oberlin, Ohio, has been elected National President of the Women's Relief Corps, at the G. A. R. meeting in Des Moines.

NOVEMBER BOND ISSUE RECALLED

CLARKS TAKE UP $525,000 ISSUE, ASKS HOLDERS TO CASH IN BONDS AT BANKS

Officials of the Clark Equipment company ask that holders of bonds with interest due in November turn in these at their bank for their full value. The company reports that the November issue of bonds, totaling $525,000, has been taken up and that the interest stops at the date of recall.

The company has no complete record of the bondholders. They have a list of original purchasers, but seldom do the bonds remain in the hands of the original buyers. When a bond is sold there is no record of the transaction, so consequently the company would find it utterly impossible to notify all holders of the recall of the bonds.

At present the Clark shops are working full time. In 1921 and 1922 the company experienced a setback in the post war business which was not a very bright scope. Since then the business at the Clark plants have been good, the employees have been contented, and a full time program has been the rule during most of the last four years.

INTERESTING PROGRAM ENJOYED BY '30' CLUB

The members of the "30" club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Dale on Monday afternoon for the first meeting of the year. The club opened their meeting by singing, "Michigan, My Michigan," which was followed by roll call. As this was Nature Day, the response was made by giving a short talk on "Flowering Shrubs." The president, Miss Wilcox, then gave a short talk on the main points to be observed in the club during the coming year. Close attention will be paid to "The American Home, Citizenship, and Law Enforcement." Miss Wilcox attended the State Federation of clubs at Marshall and had many interesting items to tell about. Mrs. Ida Bishop then gave a paper on Henry Thoreau and his book "Walden," which was followed by Mrs. A. B. Muir. Mrs. Alfred Hall gave a paper on "Shells," which was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Boardman read the resolution in the matter of the death of Mrs. Kingery and a copy was sent to the members of the family. Two members were taken into the organization. They were Mrs. Alfred Hall and Mrs. Glenn Heim. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. L. Boardman. This will be "Home Economics Day" and roll call will be "How I Save."

SETTLEMENT IS MADE IN TWO DEATH SUITS

Stipulations showing settlement for $1,150 each in two $25,000 damage suits brought against the Indiana and Michigan Electric company for the death of two Three Oaks township farmers, killed on April 13, 1925, when they came in contact with a high voltage wire during a heavy storm, has been filed in circuit court.

The victims were Peter DeBoer and Paul Phillipy, farmers residing near each other near Three Oaks. The suits asking $25,000 each were brought by Clarence J. Peck, administrator of the DeBoer estate, and Mrs. Anna Phillipy, administratrix of her husband's estate.

JURY DISAGREES AFTER 66 HOURS' DELIBERATION

The famous Daugherty-Miller trial ended Tuesday in disagreement of the jury. After 66 hours and 50 minutes' deliberation the jury was unable to bring in a verdict. The disagreement was so positive Judge Julian W. Mack was compelled to discharge the jurymen, thus, the famous trial of Harry M. Daugherty, attorney general in President Harding's cabinet, and Col. Thos. W. Miller, former alien property custodian, for conspiracy to defraud the government, came to an end.

The first ballot stood ten to two for conviction of Miller and eight to four for conviction of Daugherty. The final ballot was ten to two for Miller's conviction and seven to five for Daugherty's.

OLD NEWSPAPERS COMING TO LIGHT

MRS. W. B. DALE BRINGS US A COPY OF CHRONICLE PUBLISHED IN 1785 IN BOSTON

We have evidently started something. Last week we published an article concerning an old newspaper, printed in London, England, in 1816. The possession of Paul Franz of Hartman and now comes Mrs. W. B. Dale, who resides south of Buchanan on the Portage road, with a copy of The Independent Chronicle and Universal Advertiser, published in Boston, December 1, 1785, which antedates the London paper by 31 years.

The paper is quite unique as compared with modern publications. For instance, the front page is devoted to editorials and display advertising while stories having to do with questions of national import are buried in a remote corner in the inside. The letter "S" hadn't then found a place in the printing house type cases, and the letter "W" was used instead. For example the words, sister, sissie, is spelled taisy, "fifter fuffie."

Buried in the far corner of the paper's "innards" is the biggest story of the day, an account of the nomination of John Hancock for the presidency. (The paper says, "The new congress met today and made choice of Mr. Hancock for president. This repeated mark of approbation is highly honorary. It is more so as the choice was unanimous.") Another story telling of the breaking off of relations between Algeria and the United States and the seizure of American seamen from ships in the Mediterranean is also buried down in a corner. A report of one of the sailors taken by the Algerians appears in the paper and an excerpt from the report follows: "We were made slaves and stripped of our 'cloths' and left in a state of slavery and misery."

Liquor is widely advertised and one ad offers for sale the third of a sailing vessel "with all appurtenances" as she says at Hancock's wharf. A 30 quarter case of Lisbon wine is offered at "public vendue" at the Bunch of Grapes tavern, Boston. Another advertiser proclaims to the world the toothsome qualities of his "Malaga raisins, lemons and wine." In the advertisements dealing with the renting and selling of houses, all such houses are classed as "renting and selling of houses, all such houses are classed as convenient tenement, very handy to the market, in Fitch's Alley."

The newspaper is in a very good state of preservation, the paper being of very heavy quality. The copy was in the collection of literary gems owned by the late Charles E. S. Fielden, of Chicago, father of Mrs. Dale. The late Mr. Fielden was a literary connoisseur and writer of educational text books. He had a choice collection of literary relics and this ancient copy of the Chronicle was among them.

"Miss" Not Old Title Denmark's decision to abolish the equivalent of "Miss" and address all women, married or single, as "Mrs." recalls the comparatively recent origin of the distinction in feminine titles in England. Until the seventeenth century "Mistress" was the correct form for all women, and the diminutive "Miss" dates only from the time of Charles II. Contemporary evidence goes to show that the term was not intended to flatter, but rather to denote the inferior status of the person who lacked a husband to provide her with the more dignified title. But it evidently supplied a want, and quickly passed into general use—except among the purists. Lady Mary Wortley Montague records that in her childhood dignified old ladies refused to use the vulgar new term, and addressed even the little girls as "Mistress."

Sold by Auction

Morganatic marriages of royalty are freely discussed, but perhaps the most curious stories are about the auctioning of wives which took place as recently as 90 years ago. According to the Annual Register the inhabitants of Carlisle witnessed the sale of a wife by her husband, Joseph Thompson, in 1832. A bellman was sent round to give notice of the sale, which attracted the attention of thousands. The woman stood on a large oak chair with a rope or halter of straw round her neck, and Thompson addressed the crowd. After an hour or two she was purchased by a pensioner for the sum of 20 shillings and a Newfoundland dog!—London Tit-Bits.

Seasonable Suggestions

TO GIVE variety and elegance to informal meals there is no better aid than a well-stocked fruit closet. This is the time of the year to fill the shelves with jams, jellies, preserves and conserves. The following suggestions may be worth while in regard to their use:

A cornstarch pudding topped with a spoonful of strawberry preserves or any other small fruit, makes a plain dish quite out of the ordinary. Any pudding like rice, bread, left-over cake with plain custard is richer and more tasty with a spoonful of jelly or jam dotted over it. Milk toast is delicious served with blueberry jelly, blackberry jam or loganberry preserve.

A firm jelly may be cut into cubes to use in fruit salads, to garnish cocktails, cake frosting, as well as ice cream. Jelly rolls, jelly tarts, jelly doughnuts and jelly omelet are all easy to make if one has plenty of jelly. Jams or jellies are good to serve with waffles and griddle cakes; piled in layers with plenty of butter and jelly on each layer, they may be cut as pie and are served as dessert.

Very small baking powder biscuits, opened and spread with butter, then with jam or jelly are fine; cover and serve hot as a tasty sandwich. Apple sauce with a few spoonfuls of strawberry jam added makes an entirely different sauce. Crush strawberries until well-mashed, then take equal measures of sugar, stir and let stand in a cool place until all the sugar has been well dissolved and absorbed by the berries. Have cans well sterilized and cool, fill and seal without cooking. Keep in a very cool cellar and they will be good to the last can. Raspberries and other small fruits may be canned fresh in the same way. This is the time to preserve watermelon pickles for the winter. Soaked over night in silted water, then cooked in clear water until tender and then dropped into a spicy vinegar and sugar and scalded, then canned, they will be a welcome dish in the winter. LOCAL KIWANIS CLUB PAYS FOR TONSIL OPERATIONS

According to the annual report of Miss Emma Arnold, Berrien county Red Cross nurse, the Kiwanis club of Buchanan paid the expenses for tonsil and adenoid operations for six children. Miss Arnold reported that 4,061 school children had been inspected for condition of tonsils, teeth, vision and evidence of communicable disease.

Sixty-nine children were operated on for removal of tonsils and adenoids at free clinics, with a total saving to patients of $3,105. Thirty-two of the patients paid a total of $150 to help cover the cost. The number of home calls was 314. The report covers the year ending Oct. 8.

THE OPEN FORUM

Editor Record:

"Woe to the inhabitants of the earth for Satan has come down upon you, having great wrath for he knows he has but a short time. Satan knows that he cannot hold his empire over the world but a short time so has come down in great wrath which will fall upon the peoples of the earth which began with the world war and has since continued by what we call the new order of things, one of which is efficiency. Satan has so blinded the world that it does not know that his wrath is upon them, but think that God has increased knowledge so men may know how to make deadly poisonous gases, deadly disease germs, and liquid fire and scores of inventions that could destroy human life from the face of the whole earth. The world thinks these things are right and necessary and he gave his seat and power and great authority unto the beast, a man. This man gets full law control and the world will be brought to a forced obedience to all his laws and religious beliefs. By law enforcement this man says that in a short time he will hold the greatest political power that the world has ever known.

"The world is facing Satan's wrath now, but in a short time will face God's wrath. And the nations have been angry several years, are angry now. How much more angry they will become before God's wrath comes on them, we do not know and God will gather them together to the battle of Armagedden, which will end Satan's empire over the world. We should know the signs of the times, that that day comes not on us unawares but the scriptures would be vain and worthless without the love of Jesus. The wrath of Satan is upon us. Do we dare ask whether the preachers preach the love of Jesus in the churches or about saint's efficiency and militarize their young people to make soldiers out of them instead of Christians. They can't make both. Watch the signs of the times. Secretary Hughes has been several weeks in Rome in conference with the pope." John W. Clouse.

Guard Against Fire

More than 15,000 lives are lost annually by fire in the United States, the statisticians declare. At least that number of persons are seriously injured. It has been estimated that 65 per cent of these fires occur in homes, and the greatest percentage of the victims are women and children. The majority of fires could be prevented in their incipency if proper methods of extinguishing them were at hand. There is a growing need for every household to be equipped with some form of fire extinguisher. There should be one at hand on each floor. While the fire department is rushing to the scene there are always a few minutes in which the occupants can do something to put out the blaze.

VACCINATE HOGS, PLEA TO RAISERS

CHOLERA INVADES ST. JOE COUNTY AND IS SPREADING, VETERINARIANS TELL CO. AGENT

South Bend veterinarians are alarmed over a threatened spread of hog cholera in St. Joseph county. They report the disease is spreading rapidly and that there is a shortage of the serum necessary to combat the spread of the epidemic. As a result, county farmers have been warned by County Agent E. C. Bird to take every precaution against the spread of the epidemic. According to County Agent E. C. Bird, the disease has been running rampant in a number of counties in the central and southern part of the state and its spread to northern Indiana has given it the aspect of a state-wide epidemic. The disease is highly contagious, Mr. Bird said, and is carried from farm to farm in various ways, but chiefly by sparrows, pigeons and other birds. In issuing his warning Mr. Bird urged all farmers who have any heavy investment in hogs to have their animals vaccinated as soon as possible. These residing nearest the affected areas should have this done immediately, he said. Because of the rarity of the disease during the past few years manufacturers have cut down the production of the serum with the result that veterinarians find it almost impossible to obtain the vaccine in quantities sufficient to combat an epidemic such as that which threatens the county.

CLEAN-UP HOLDS CORN BORER CHECK HOPES

That final hope for checking the rapid advances of the European corn borer rests largely with the cleanup of the fields, is the opinion of Prof. R. H. Pettit, head of the entomology department at the Michigan State college. Professor Pettit summarized the state corn borer situation last week during a talk delivered over the college radio station, WKAR. Calling attention to the seriousness of the impending crop pest and the spreading of it has continued to spread "on schedule," Pettit outlined informally the most recent developments in connection with corn borer control work and extermination. That parasites, important as they are as a control measure, can be counted on to destroy only a small percentage of the borers was brought out by the H. S. G. specialist. No other natural agency or "mysterious source" was seen as likely to control the pest.

MRS. HANCOCK CUTS OFF CHILDREN IN HER WILL

By the terms of her will filed for probate in circuit court Friday, Mrs. Mary Hancock of Benton Harbor, who died October 1, left no provision for her own children but left her entire estate of $1,000 to a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Myrtle Hill, of Benton Harbor.

City Financially Easy

Pez, the "Holy City of Islam in Africa," boasts of being a city which owes nobody, has no municipal or other debts, and has never raised a loan either at home or abroad. Its budget in 1925 amounted to 5,000,000 francs entirely covered by revenues from taxation and the sale of concessions. Si Mohammed Tazy, pasha of the region of Pez, is also mayor of the city and every city document must bear his signature. The city government is composed of three distinct municipal commissions—Moslem, Jewish and French.

Too Much Efficiency

By E. J. Rath

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JOHN W. BROOKS, hardware manufacturer and widower, arranged to have an efficiency expert take charge of his household while he is out of the city for a period of two weeks. He leaves town without telling his plans to his grocer children, Constance, Billy and Alice. HEDGEG, assigned to the job, arrives at the Brooks mansion, takes over the owner's sleeping quarters, and proceeds to systematize operations. He is in the library, now turned into an office. The three children are discussing this altogether strange situation thrust upon them at source previous. They are trying to decide which of them shall inform Hedgog that their monthly allowance is due.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"SUGGESTION you try it first," suggested Constance to her brother. "You've got to do something once in a while, Billie, dear."

HEARD HER

She smiled maliciously, she could still afford to. Billy and Alice were broke, but nearly three dollars stood between her and humiliation. They loomed big, a veritable bulwark of riches.

HEARD HER

A sound of voices in the hall caught the ears of the three Brooks children. "We will first inventory Mr. Brooks's suite," the efficiency man was saying. "Then we will take the other apartments on this floor in turn."

HEARD HER

"Very well, sir," said the subdued voice of Horace. After an awful minute, Alice stole softly to the door of Constance's den and looked out. Then she signaled a clear track. The three Brooks, single file, uptied into the hall and up the stairs that led to the floor above.

HEARD HER

Mr. Hedgog went about his inventory work with an ease and certainty that amazed Horace, who, while he could perceive no sense whatever in the work itself, none the less reluctantly admitted to himself that it was being done in a workmanlike manner, the quick, keen eyes of Hedgog missing nothing. He required no explanation from his guide. Like a good census man, he put down all he saw and did it with a speed that was amazing. He passed briskly from one room to another, memorably recording their contents on large printed blanks.

HEARD HER

To Horace it was foolishness; to Hedgog it was a holy crusade. The third floor followed the second, but there were no Brooks children in sight. Horace knew why, but the efficiency man was not to learn. "Fourth floor next," said Hedgog snappily, as he produced a fresh set of blanks.

HEARD HER

Horace led the way. At the head of the stairs he turned sharply to the left and walked along a short hallway that ended at a closed door. The butler laid his hand on the knob and rapped.

HEARD HER

Most curious sounds came from the other side of the door. There was a rapid, steady, and hollow beating noise, for one thing, with an accelerating tempo. There was a noise of stamping feet, at irregular intervals, mingled with soft thuds—six or seven stamps to each thud. There was a screeching, wheezing sort of noise, accompanied by a muffled rattling. Then just as Horace turned the knob, there was a hoarse, hoarse laugh.

HEARD HER

The butler stepped respectfully aside, and the efficiency man stepped on the threshold of a large room that ran the full width of the house. First in his vision, and to occur for a period of several interesting seconds, came Constance's den. The stool beneath it was pushed down, the suspended button and the door were hung a cord, and from the top of the cord, dangled a leather bag, snugly

"Kicking" Habit Strong

The tendency to kick on the part of a few suggests the chronic kicker and not the philosopher. This chronic kicking can be better illustrated by a little story. A man was led to the electric chair. Before he was seated he was asked: "Is there anything you would like to say before the death sentence is carried out?" "Yes, there is," he answered with that surliness that comes from chronic kicking. "The man I killed for kicking my dog for biting him ought to be shot. My lawyer was a crook and it took three appeals and two reprieves to break me. When I came here I thought I would get decent treatment, but you gave me a bed with bum springs, and the food has been fierce, and pointing to the electric chair, 'I'll bet that d—n thing don't work.'"—Exchange.

The chairman arose and made the following statement: "What we want is some sort of organization for our husbands, and we would like a few suggestions." "How about Our Dumb Friends' league?" inquired a member.—Stray Stories.

The Nerve of Him

What next? That's what a young matron, who lives in Logan, is wondering. She responded to the ringing of the doorbell the other day and on the porch was a one-eyed man. "Please help me," he whined. The housewife looked in her purse for some change. She thought there might be a dime there. But there was only five pennies. "I'm sorry," she said, "that I haven't more change, but here's 5 cents." The man gazed at her stolidly. Then he turned away and without a word descended the porch steps.—Philadelphia Record

The Nerve of Him

What next? That's what a young matron, who lives in Logan, is wondering. She responded to the ringing of the doorbell the other day and on the porch was a one-eyed man. "Please help me," he whined. The housewife looked in her purse for some change. She thought there might be a dime there. But there was only five pennies. "I'm sorry," she said, "that I haven't more change, but here's 5 cents." The man gazed at her stolidly. Then he turned away and without a word descended the porch steps.—Philadelphia Record

Council Proceedings

The regular meeting of the common council of the village of Buchanan was held in the council chambers October 5. Present, Trustees Hattenbach, Sands, Riley, Smith and Bristol. Absent, Trustee Shoop. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Mussolini Is Still Intact

Premier Mussolini of Italy is shown here addressing the people shortly after the third attempt was made on his life. This time it was a bomb which missed.

"Let's say, 'Let's all go to Sunday school—father, mother, grand-mother, and all. What if baby does cry. Some of us did lots of howling too. We have a good basement to take them, and if they need it, it is a good place to spank them."

"The Bible school is not merely for the young folks. I almost think that the married folks and the other grown-ups outnumber the younger ones, and I congratulate you."

"I am not here for my bread and butter. If I was, I would have starved long ago. I am in the business of saving humanity. When I started preaching, I was paid the magnificent sum of $150 a year. Out of this I had to pay house rent and feed my wife and two babies."

"A speaker at a Columbus, O., chamber of commerce meeting said, 'If every child who started in Sunday school until he finished his high school course everyone would have a wonderful education and our prisons would be empty. According to the authentic figures you have lost 88 per cent of all the children who started right here in Buchanan."

"The Sunday school is the bulwark that keeps humanity from our prisons. Every child should be enrolled."

"One New York jurist said, 'Out of the thousands of boys and girls who have come before me, not one has said he or she was a regular attendant at some Sunday school.'"

"Don't say mean things about the people within the church. Say what you like about the preacher. He is hard boiled and used to it. But, be very careful what you say about your brother and sister, and particularly, the Sunday school teachers and superintendent."

Methodist Community Church The church services of the Sabbath day are increasing in attendance last Sunday night was the best we have had so far. We are anticipating a gradual rising tide of spiritual life.

STRONG DEBATING TEAM AT B. H. S.

PROSPECTS POINT TOWARDS ONE OF BEST TEAMS TO EVER REPRESENT BUCHANAN

Buchanan high school has excellent prospects to go far in debating this year.

Last year a team composed of Dorothy Clark, Lyle Chubb and Walter Seer took Buchanan's colors into the semi-finals in the contest to determine the state debating championship.

Two of this trio, Miss Clark and Mr. Chubb, are back in school and will give a good account of themselves in the inter-school and sectional debates and hope to reach the elimination stage of the championship contest.

Charles King, instructor in public speaking, is teaching the fine points of the art of Demosthenes to a class of 25.

Five minute speeches and brief debates are being taken up much of the class' time now and later the best students in the class will be selected on teams that will meet teams from nearby schools in inter-school debates.

Every member of the class is intensely eager that he or she will be a member of the three-man team to represent Buchanan in state competition.

The following explains the rules and conditions under which the state inter-school debating competition is conducted:

1. The Michigan High School Debating League was organized by the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan in 1917, and this year begins its tenth year of activity.

2. Any four year high school in the State may become a member of the League by sending a fee of two dollars to G. E. Denmore, Manager, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

3. Applications for membership will be received up to, and including October 25th.

4. Debates are sponsored by the League, and each school will participate in the four preliminary debates of the League.

5. The dates for the preliminary debates will be as follows: First, November 19, 1926; Second, December 10, 1926; Third, January 14, 1927; Fourth, February 11, 1927.

6. The question that will be debated this year is, "Resolved, That the United States Government Should Own the Coal Mines."

7. Enrollments for the League are coming in rapidly. Many new schools, never before in the League, have applied for membership this year.

8. The enrollment today is ahead of the enrollment a year ago today, and it is expected that the enrollment for the year will exceed the total enrollment of last year which numbered 200 high schools.

9. Last year over five hundred debates in which over a thousand high school pupils participated. The attendance at all of these debates was one hundred thousand.

10. The audience assembled for this State Championship Debate numbered two thousand five hundred people, representatives of the different high schools of the State, which is the largest audience that ever attended a Championship Debate of the League.

11. Sixty-three high schools and two colleges were represented by one or more delegates.

12. The marriage of Miss Mildred Fuller, of Berrien Springs, to William Gess, Jr., of Baroda took place Saturday morning in South Bend, Ind., the Rev. Mr. Cole performing the ceremony at the parsonage at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Light Fuller of Berrien Springs, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gess, reside in Baroda.

Attending the couple were Miss Frances Gess, sister of the groom, and LaRoy Fuller, the bride's brother.

The wedding dinner, served at the home of the groom, also honored his parents who celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary upon that date.

The table was prettily decorated with marigolds, emphasizing a color scheme of white and gold, carried out with charming effect.

The bride and groom left early Saturday evening for a short trip to Detroit and upon their return will make their home in Buchanan.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were the brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gess, of Detroit.

HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER WARNS AGAINST FAKE MAP

Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, has sent the Record a communication warning the automobile public against a fake road map circulated in a real estate promotion scheme.

"It has been reported to this department that a map has been issued, purporting to be a relocation of trunk line M-11, for the purpose of making sales of property in Berrien county.

"I wish to say that this Department has never issued a map showing the final location of this road, which has not as yet been fully determined.

"I hope you will notify the public that any map which may have been issued showing the relocation of M-11 in the vicinity of New Buffalo, is not official and should not be so considered by the public."

Very truly yours, State Highway Commissioner, Frank E. Rogers.

ANOTHER PIONEER EXPIRES AT NILES

WAS VILLAGE BLACKSMITH; LOCATING IN BERRIEN COUNTY OVER 40 YEARS AGO

With the passing of James Aldrich, aged 75 years, Berrien county loses another pioneer citizen and Niles loses a veteran village blacksmith.

Although working up to a few days before his death, Mr. Aldrich was taken suddenly ill with a malady diagnosed as pneumonia and died last Thursday evening in Riverside hospital.

The deceased was born in the province of Ontario, Canada. When a boy of 12 he learned the blacksmith trade, and at the age of 16 left Canada and went to Cass County. He was married to Miss Susie Garwood, of Wakelee, Cass county, in South Bend, 53 years ago, and three years ago the couple observed their golden wedding anniversary with a party in which numerous relatives and friends joined.

Mr. Aldrich located in Niles about 40 years ago, and was for a number of years in the blacksmith business for himself. For the last 15 years he has been a blacksmith at the Garden City Plant. He is survived by a widow and seven children. The children are Byron, Vanda, Al, Adrian, James, Edward, Miss Musettie and Woodrow Aldrich, of Niles, and Mrs. William Glaska, of Grand Rapids. A half brother, Richard McGrath, lives in Ontario.

Deceased had no fraternal relationship although for a number of years he had formerly been a member of the Odd Fellows lodge. The body was taken from the hospital to the Troost and Augustine undertaking rooms. It was later taken to the home at 518 Huron street. The funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the undertaking rooms. Chas. Kitterer, rector of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, was in charge. Burial took place in Silver Brook cemetery.

GALIEN GIRL WEDS

Friends in Galien have just learned of the wedding of Miss Frances Wolkins, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Wolkins of Galien, to Howard Jeffries, of Detroit, which was performed in Galien on September 30, at a quiet ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries will be home at 7624 Tappan avenue, Detroit, after October 15.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO FRANK R. SANDERS

NO APPEALS TAKEN FROM DECISIONS MADE BY HIS DEPARTMENT IN LANSING

The following article from the Lansing Capital News pays a splendid tribute to our fellow townsman, Frank R. Sanders, who is chairman of the Department of Labor and Industry, whose efficient handling of the Department's business inspired the story:

"No appeals from decisions of the state labor and industry commission in industrial accident cases are on the October docket of the supreme court.

"Although unheralded, his fact is a high compliment to the commission. In fact, since the present commission has been in office, not one of its decisions has been reversed by the high court and many appeals have been taken.

"The work of the labor and industry commission is state-wide and concerns largely, awards as provided by the state compensation laws.

"In making its decisions however, it has been much farther than the actual statutes governing the work. State and federal constitutions have been interpreted.

"Its decisions have been tested in all legal ways and still stand.

"Few state commissions have earned such an enviable record."

KING OBSEQUIES HELD AT BERRIEN SPRINGS THURSDAY

Funeral services for the late Charles M. King, Berrien Springs grocer and ex-supervisor, who died on October 4 of injuries received in a fall from a stepladder, were held last Thursday in the United Brethren church, Berrien Springs, in which Mr. King was an active member and president of the church board.

The Rev. C. C. Hoffman officiated. Burial under Masonic auspices was in Rose Hill cemetery.

Prayers were said at the King home at 1:30 o'clock and services followed at the church at 2 o'clock.

Mr. King had been long prominent in the business, church and community life of Berrien Springs and at one time had represented Sodus township on the Berrien county board of supervisors.

A petition filed in the probate court for the appointment of an administrator of the estate of Mr. King places his estate at $4,500.

The widow, four sons and two daughters will share in the estate of Mr. King, who left no will.

They include, Mrs. Nancy I. King, widow, Berrien Springs; Allison J., South Bend; James E., Robert H. and Clayton, all of Berrien Springs; Mrs. Ada G. Oranson, Three Rivers; and Mrs. Esther M. Comstock, Maywood, Ill.

The petition, filed by Mrs. King asks the appointment of Allison King as administrator.

The Loyal Workers class of the Church of Christ will have a pot luck supper in the basement of the church at 6:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening, Oct. 12. All members are urged to be present as there will be election of officers for the coming year.

DEFECTIVE LIGHT CAUSES ACCIDENT

MAN AND WOMAN STRUCK BY MACHINE ARE HURLED FROM BRIDGE RAILING IN NILES

An automobile was wrecked, a perfectly good bridge was badly damaged and a man and woman narrowly escaped death in a most unusual accident in Niles Sunday night.

Louis E. Augustine, a barber, with a shop on Second street, Niles and a woman companion, whose name police have withheld, were the principals in the accident. They were sitting on the railing of the Buchanan bridge when an automobile driven by F. A. Longnecker of Kalamazoo, struck the bridge railing, knocking out a section of the side structure and hurling the man and the woman down the 30-foot embankment almost onto the Michigan Central tracks below.

Augustine escaped with but a few minor cuts as momentoes. The automobile was badly wrecked, as was part of what was previously a perfectly good bridge.

Longnecker was taken into police custody, but was later released when he explained that a defective headlight had caused him to misjudge distance in approaching the narrow bridge.

A marriage license has been issued to Miss Irene Mitchell of South Bend and Milo J. Zane, of Niles.

EDUCATION, TOPIC AT C. E. MEETING

WOOD SPEAKS BEFORE WAGNER SOCIETY ON PROGRESS THAT COMES FROM TEACHING

A most comprehensive talk was given by Mr. Wood of Buchanan, before the Wagner C. E. Sunday night on the topic, "Education."

"Why does one want an education?" asked the speaker. "One needs an education for progress. Education is a continuous growth, or learning. America could not stand for a single generation without educational institutions. It is necessary to be a good follower as well as a good leader.

"We need education to gain power. Every single thing that is detrimental to school is detrimental to the country. True education consists of filling up to full capacity and the giving out to capacity.

"Children must be trained to make right choices, and how can they do so if their forefathers hadn't sufficient education?"

"We have developed more good leaders under our democracy than have ever been developed in any autocracy. We select our leaders from the great mass of people. Our system always keeps at the top those who are most capable of leading.

"The people of this day need education to make co-operation necessary. One who has a well-balanced character cannot get too much education.

"The Jewish child was given both religion and education and their religion is one of the strongest in the world. Improvements outside the school often endanger the school by lowering the school tax.

"Teaching is much more important than any other profession as far as the home and country is concerned. A person is never too old to learn. Ignorance is the most dangerous thing in the world.

"The radio is making education possible for everyone, as educational programs are put on by many broadcasting stations. Education is needed to draw out all the possibilities there are in one. We have all eternity to be like God."

GILMORES TO OPEN DEPT. STORE AT BENTON HARBOR

Benton Harbor is to have a first class department store about Dec. 1, when Gilmore Brothers, Kalamazoo's largest retailers, open a store at West Main and Colfax streets, in the new Stock block.

The firm will occupy the entire building, now nearly completed, the lease calling for some few alterations, according to Stanley Storck of the Stock Construction company.

In Kalamazoo where the firm has been in business for the past 44 years, the establishment is housed in a five-story structure. The Benton Harbor building has a frontage of 100 feet on its two floors.

Three brothers, Stanley, Donald and Irving Gilmore, are active in the firm and will conduct the Benton Harbor department store on a similar scale to the establishment in the Celery City.

CHILD EATS GRAPES, DIES OF POISON ON FRUIT

Stricken with convulsions Arthur Earl Bowerman, three, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowerman, 633 Woodruff street, Niles, died of strychnine poisoning. It is thought the poison was of a spray used on grapes which the child ate. Other children were from the same vines but none of them became ill. Arthur appeared in his usual health until after he awakened from his nap Tuesday afternoon and complained of illness.

PLAN COUNTY RALLY

At the meeting of the Niles Methodist District cabinet, held in Kalamazoo, plans were made for a Berrien county young people's rally to be held in the Methodist Peace Temple in Benton Harbor, November 16, to arouse interest in a district mid-winter rally to be held in Niles, November 20, 27 and 28. Miss Lucille Newton, of Niles, is secretary of the district Epworth league which embraces five counties. The Kalamazoo meeting was called by the Rev. E. R. Meader, the new district superintendent of the M. E. church.

"BUN" BALDWIN FINED

Charged by Sydney Smith, state fruit inspector, with having undesized grapes in his possession which were represented as fancy table grapes, O. A. D. "Bun" Baldwin, of Bridgman, paid a fine of $15 and costs last Thursday in Justice Elizabeth Forhan's court, St. Joseph.

PASTOR IS FETED BY CONGREGATION

OVER HUNDRED SWARM TO CHURCH PARLORS TO GIVE NEW METHODIST PASTOR RECEPTION

Fully 125 people—members and friends of the Methodist congregation of Buchanan—swarmed the parlors of the church last Friday evening to pay homage to the new pastor of the church, the Rev. Henry Liddicoat, and his family.

Of the vast number that literally packed the limited space of the church parlors, not all were members of the congregation, but many were friends of members—all well-wishers of the church and the new pastor in his new field.

The program consisted of music, readings and speeches. Mrs. Jennings, the church organist and Mrs. E. H. Ormiston, soprano, presented vocal solos and piano duets, and John Hess played a number of cornet solos, with Mrs. Jennings accompanying. Miss Doris Hathaway gave a number of readings.

E. H. Ormiston, principal of the High school and teacher of a Sunday school class, greeted the new pastor and his family for the church. He was a fellow student of both Mr. and Mrs. Liddicoat during the three years of their course together in Albion college. He emphasized the place of the church as a religious institution, as a supporter of humanity in Buchanan, and as presenting a great program.

Mr. Liddicoat responded with reference to their reception late Saturday night when they found place had already been provided for them at the home of Mrs. Ruth Roe, president of the Ladies Aid society. After the program a social hour was held and refreshments were served.

COMPARE TEMPERATURES

In comparing the temperatures last Friday with those of a year ago, it was discovered that the mercury reached as low as thirty degrees above zero, or two degrees below the freezing mark. The temperatures Friday were 49 and 38, while a year ago they were 48 and 30.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE PICTURE

T. D. Long, publisher of the Mason, La., Journal and Democrat analyzes in a masterly manner conditions in that great agricultural state. He says: "The people of the middle west, and especially the people of Iowa, have been looking on the dark side of the picture so long that it seems to us it is time to take a look at the other side. What Iowa needs today is a change of viewpoint, and the way to bring this about is to look at the other side of the picture for a time."

Editor Long then stacks up the constructive facts about Iowa to prove that the state is not on the verge of bankruptcy, as many people have been led to believe by the pleas of politicians for relief measures to help Iowa farmers. He shows that $98,000,000 of Federal Reserve loans to Iowa banks have been reduced to less than $7,000,000, that war finance corporation loans to the banks amounting to $24,000,000 have been completely wiped out, and that private loans by outside banks, amounting to $50,000,000, have been reduced to less than $7,000,000.

Banks and trust companies showed increased deposits of $9,378,000 between December 30, 1925, and April 12, 1926. He shows 256 manufacturing establishments employing 100,000 persons, with an annual payroll of $90,000,000, and an annual production of $745,000,000.

On top of this come Iowa's agricultural crops, which for 1926 will total $750,000,000 for grain, hay, vegetables and mixed farm products, $150,000,000 from live stock alone and $100,000,000 from poultry and dairy products, or a grand total of $1,075,000,000 for farm products alone. Iowa has more than twice as many miles of railroad per acre of territory as the average for the United States. It has nearly twice as many automobiles per capita than any state except California, and it has 22 telephone lines for every 100 persons as against an average of 13 telephones for the nation.

Iowa's wealth is placed by the United States Census Bureau at $10,512,274 for every man, woman and child in the state. Its per capita wealth is 46 per cent higher and its per capita debt about 6 per cent lower than the country as a whole. It has the smallest per capita debt of any state in the Union.

THE EDUCATED WORKER

Most of us remember when the majority of farmers laughed knowingly at the idea of educating farmers. "You have to raise them on the farm," they declared. But that time has gone by, and the success of the educated farmer has forever silenced the laugh at the expense of the pedagogue. Even longer than the farmer, did the managers of public utilities scoff at the idea of schools for the training of men to run railways, streetcars, telephones, water systems, gas works, and other public utilities. Just the other day Northwestern University announced the establishing of afternoon and evening classes in public utilities. Other great schools have already done much toward training experts for such services, and N. U. has found their various classes becoming so numerous as to make it necessary to put them in one department.

This curriculum was established in recognition of the ever increasing importance of the functions performed in modern industrial society by public utilities, the desirability of promoting and encouraging sound public relations, efficient management and progressive operation of utility properties," says a bulletin from the university. While the boys and girls are going away to school this fall is a good time for any parent to think the matter over and decide whether he is doing the right thing not to send his children away for the best possible training for life work. Education is a continuous process, and if it is stopped it may never begin again. Let them go even though they have to work part of the time and study the other part. Life is worth living if the spirit is growing.

THE WRONG KIND OF BAIT

In an effort to prevent development of electric power at Muscle Shoals, even though such power development would bring the government the greatest rental for the property, certain interests have distributed literature trying to inflame New England against the South, on the ground that such power development will draw factories away from New England. The motive for this attack seems to be for the purpose of hindering Muscle Shoals-leasé fertilizer manufacture, instead of fertilizer power combined.

The bait is cheaper cotton and is for New England farmers as the result of cheap fertilizer for Southern industries to New England factories. Commenting on this attempt to set New England against the South, the Birmingham News says: "God forbid that the poverty burdened farmer of the South should be forced to produce cheaper cotton. It is an argument is that will so compete with the production of New England spinners."

It is safe to say that neither New Englanders nor Southerners are so narrow-minded that they wish to profit at the expense of the other, or begrudge each other any legitimate development which either may secure. It is also safe to say, that neither section will allow itself to be used as a cat's paw to drag a third party's chestnuts out of the fire.

BLOWING AWAY OUR ROADS

During the past summer the State Highway Commission of Virginia endeavored to solve the dust problem. Asphaltic oil or calcium chloride was placed on sections of road in front of every store and church in the state highway system. The chairman of the highway commission says that dust is getting to be the greatest problem the highway department has to deal with. Not only does it cause great personal discomfort and material damage, but, being watted away by every passing wind, it leaves the roadbed in a deplorable condition.

In every state, it will be necessary to build 10 miles of county roads for one mile of heavier paved state highway. The problem of maintaining old gravel and macadam roads, and eventually surfacing them with a suitable waterproof surface at a minimum of expense, must occupy the attention of our road builders. The rapidly moving automobile throws dust for several hundred feet on each side of the highway, thereby damaging crops and fruit to such an extent that the products are often unmarketable. Now is the time to consider this problem before "next summer" is here.

THE "VESTED" INTERESTS

Commenting on customer-ownership of public service securities, the Hoopla State Journal says editorially: "A street railway system in Philadelphia recently sold $10,000,000 of stock largely to its patrons—in the space of a few weeks, half the amount being paid in in three weeks' time. The average subscription was between $200 and $300. "At about the same time, a gas and electric company in California, conducted a "black stock" campaign in which 4,000 subscriptions were received. "Anybody can become a part of the 'vested' and 'redemptory' interests of which we have heard so much in the past. As a result, those 'vested' interests have lost the terror they once possessed."

THE HILL TOP

By Wilson S. McLeod. Henry Ford has established the five-day week. We didn't think it took that long to make a flivver.

From an ad— "These tube skirts will not last long at this price." We hope it lasts until the young lady gets home.

There's many a slip 'twixen the mouth and the hip. Little drops of water, Naughtly dust—a bit, Makes a girl's complexion, Look like what it's not.

A druggist read this note the other day: "My baby has eat his father's parish plaster." Send an anecdote quick by the enclosed restaurant and bottle of O. Dick alone, as I am a little historical.

"A wild and woolly bird from the wide open spaces, where men are men and you cut parakeets with a crosscut saw, stepped into a Niles restaurant and belched this order: 'I'll have some parakeets with fried snuds, can the conversation and ye savvy, make the parakeets lean.' "Which way will I have the parakeets lean?" was the waiter's bright rejoinder.

Mrs. Gallens: How did your old man break his front teeth? Mrs. Buchanan: While trying to drink out of a bottle and ride on M-60 at the same time.

Niles Photographer: Mounted or otherwise? Patron from Buchanan: Well, I'll take it mounted, but I don't know what my wife will say, as she has never seen me on a horse.

It's pretty near time for the annual coal strike. The Record breaks into the famous "A Line O' Type or Two" column of the Chicago Tribune with this: "Why the Church Reporter was Fired" (From the Berrien County Record of Buchanan, Mich.)

Besides the usual good sermon, Rev. Matthews sang a solo Sunday, "I will arise and go home," which was appreciated by the congregation. Gentlemen prefer blonds because they do not like to squeeze blackheads.

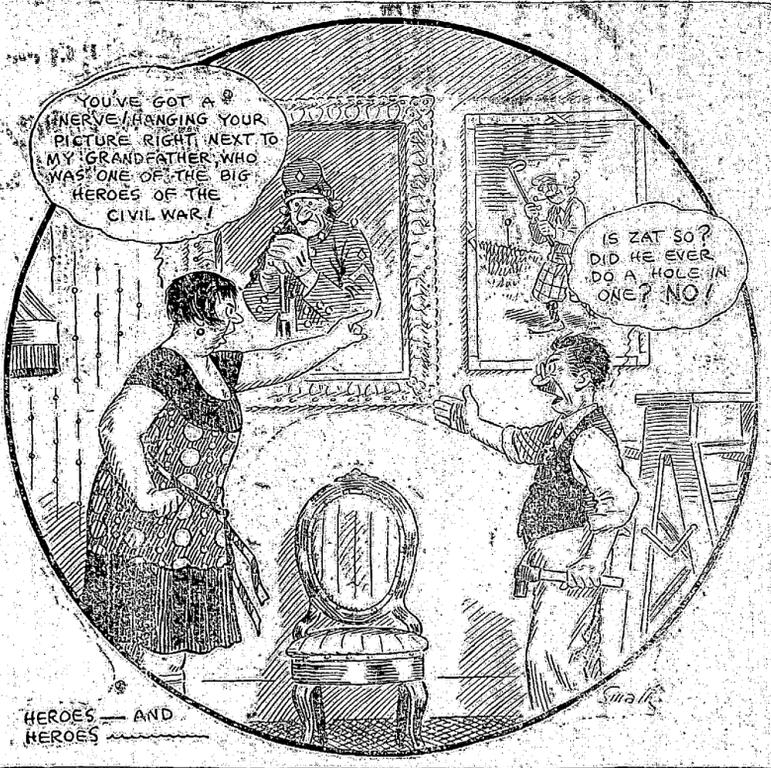

Social Season Begins at Bay City (From the Pierse county (Wisconsin) Herald.) The Bay City cemetery association will give a chicken dinner and sale of fancy work and aprons on Thursday evening, Sept. 30, at the new barber shop. Bingo will also be played.

There will be a season for the haggard, emancipated facial appearance of Chicago women, as 1,700 beauty parlor operators have gone out on strike. To find a horse shoe is good luck? I found one to my tire stuck! —Chi. Trib.

Sam Cosentino, an Omaha watch repairer, has asked the police for a right to "shoot my son on sight" to stop him from dragging down my family by his stealing. Cosentino said his son, Mike, 17, was a natural born thief, whose activities only death could stop a score of years ago.

This reminds us of the song, that quoted a judge reprimanding a boy for a grossly spent criminal life before sentencing him to hard labor in prison. The song went something like this: My boy, you are a daisy, Through others don't be done, No matter who your father was, You are your mother's son, If ever you get married, Just have one boy for fun; And if he's a sport, don't go to court, But kill the son-of-a-gun.

Democrats Militant Undaunted by the fact that the Republicans are occupying practically all the offices in Michigan as well as being in power in all the branches of the federal government, Berrien county delegates to the number of over two hundred gathered and threw down the gauntlet to the G. O. P. in speeches and resolutions that charge the party in power with passing tariff legislation that has brought continued adversity to the farming interests of the country, and an immigration law that discriminates in favor of England to the disadvantage of the Irish, the Scots, the Germans, the Scandinavian countries, Belgium, France and Switzerland. —Record, Watervliet.

DECLARES GRANGE

AN IDEAL ASS'N.

CONGRESSMAN J. C. KETCHUM LAUDS FARMER OPINION AT TWELVE CORNERS MEETING

At the combined meeting of Pomona grange No. 1, of Berrien county, and the Twelve Corners grange, held at Twelve Corners, prominent speakers discussed the problems confronting the farmers.

The principal speaker was the Hon. John C. Ketchum, congressman from the fourth district, who emphasized the "enabling power" of the farmer and the enviable place he has taken among those whose opinions are sought.

"The grange is the most ideal organization to formulate the county voice in public affairs," declared Mr. Ketchum.

"The farmer has time to think," he continued, "while the city man does not. The city man skims the headline of his paper, looks at the market page and sport news and throws the paper away. The farmer reads all the news, and even the ads, and then thinks and studies about what he has read. That is why the opinion of the farmer is sought and respected by the nation's law makers."

An enjoyable program had been arranged which included community singing, a clever original reading by Mrs. Arford of Benton Harbor, entitled "A Flat Tire," a piano solo by Mrs. Clarence Shafer of Berrien center, a paper by Mrs. Flora Emery of Riverside, on "The Present Generation," in which she brought to attention the effect that summer resorters are having on young men and women of the farm near summer resort cities, which, she stated, is fast becoming a serious problem.

In her paper Mrs. Emery said that because the young people of the farms see other young people of their own ages at the summer resorts doing nothing but enjoying themselves at play, attending shows, dances and parties every night, they think that their own lot in life—on the farm—is very hard, and insist that they shall be allowed to attend these same amusements every night in the week.

An address by Jesse Boyle, of Buchanan, who recently received the republican nomination for state representative, covered "The Grange in Relation to Other Activities." Mr. Boyle spoke of the grange as an organization for the whole family, father, mother and children, and showed the influence of the grange on home life, schools and church, and urged a closer co-operation between the lives of the boys and girls of the farm.

"It is better for a man to leave the right educational, moral and spiritual conditions as a legacy for his children than lands or money," stated Mr. Boyle.

Mrs. Ira House, of Niles, gave a reading that was well received by the audience. She was followed by Mrs. James Richards, of Eau Claire, who told of her trip to the Women's Institute at the Michigan State college and what she saw while there.

F. L. Simanion, county agricultural agent for Berrien county, led a discussion on "Farm Legislation and the Primary System." The opinion of those assembled appeared to be in favor of retaining the primary system but urged several changes be made in the existing law for its improvement.

At the evening session, Miss Proctor, accompanied by Miss Crow as pianist, won hearty applause with two beautiful songs.

George F. Cunningham, in his talk on "The Grange of 1873," held the close attention of the audience and brought out many historical facts about the grange and its activities in the early days that were unknown to a number of his listeners.

Mr. Cunningham, who was the first Pomona lecturer of Berrien County Grange, and who held that position for seven years, stated that the foundation of the worthy characters of the early settlers of the community was based on the grange. He then told of some of the sacrifices and willing labors for the betterment of the community and county by those early members of the grange.

He spoke of how the grange was responsible for ridding the farmers of numerous types of fakers that for years preyed on the farmers and through fraudulent methods caused them heavy losses.

He mentioned one instance of where a number of farmers of the community bought from a "slick talker" a new kind of patent gate. A few weeks after the gate had arrived and been installed on the farm, he stated, a stranger appeared at the farm house and said that he was a son of the inventor of the gate and that the party from whom he bought the gate had no right to sell them.

The stranger then demanded the payment of a certain sum of money to him then and there or threatened to remove the gate. A number of the farmers complied with the demands of the stranger and gave him the money demanded. Then the grange discovered the "skin game," told the farmers not to pay the stranger any money and hired a lawyer to protect the farmer's interest.

Several other fraudulent schemes were detected and defeated by the grange in these early days, stated Mr. Cunningham.

MICHIGAN HARVESTS BOUNTIFUL GRAPE CROP

The grape crop is practically a full one throughout the state except in some of the heavy producing southwest counties where damage by spring frost reduced the yield in some vineyards. The average yield is 70 per cent which represents a production of 66,821 tons. The crop matured about two weeks later than usual and is mostly of good quality. The estimate for the entire county is 2,399,237 tons, or 433,000 tons more than the 1925 crop.

DAIRY EXPOSITION THRILLS THROUGHS

APPRAISAL OF CATTLE AND JUDGING OF PRODUCTS FEATURE BIG SHOW IN DETROIT

Thirteen hundred head of prize dairy cattle "stole the thunder" of the automobile in Detroit, Wednesday, the closing day of the National Dairy exposition which drew thousands to the state fair grounds.

Included among the exhibits were twin calves born to one of the cows in the herd of Hugh Chisholm of West Chester, N. Y.

Interest centered on the inter-collegiate team judging contest, with participants entered from 25 state universities. Competition involved judging of dairy products and the appraisal of cattle.

Mechanical Detroit, however, found interest in the display of machinery employed in the dairy industry, while at the International Milk Dealers association, speakers told of recent advances in the handling of milk to prevent the spread of disease.

Dr. Earl B. Phelps, addressing the dealers' association, declared "there is indisputable evidence now that raw milk is dangerous food."

"Pasteurizing," he said, "has been the one predominant factor in that striking and almost spectacular reduction in the death rate from such diseases as typhoid fever."

Speaking for the dairy division of the United States department of agriculture, Ernest Kelley declared the per capita consumption of milk daily is one pint, asserted that pure milk "is one of the greatest civic assets," and said "much of our food industry as a nation is attributable to our good milk."

Charles L. Hill, of Rosendale, Wis., president of the National Dairy association, said this year's exposition "exceeds anything we ever attempted before."

CHOOSE MICHIGAN CHAMP DAIRY CALF CLUB MEMBER

Francis Ferrell of Dexter, is Michigan's 1926 champion dairy calf club member. This is revealed in the announcement of the national committee on boys and girls work that young Ferrell has been awarded the free trip to the National Dairy show which closes Wednesday in Detroit by the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. The right to represent Michigan at the foremost exposition of America's dairy industry was awarded Ferrell on the recommendation of A. G. Kettunen, State Club leader, after he had proved to have the best all round dairy club record. More than 250 boys and girls from every section of the Union attended the exposition this year as exhibitors of club calves and as members of 42 judging and demonstration teams.

In addition to participating in the many club judging and demonstration contests, all the boys and girls at the Dairy Show this year made detailed studies of the many different exhibits of dairy cattle, dairy products, dairy machinery and dairy methods that were on display. A good part of each day's activities was devoted to recreation. A special feature this year was the parade of champion calves in the big livestock arena each evening.

EGG RACE CLOSE AS HENS ENTER STRETCH

With only 42 eggs separating the four highest pens in the annual International Egg Laying contest at the Michigan State college, and with less than a month to go before the end of the test, the closest and most thrilling finish in the famous "egg marathon" is being predicted by officials in charge.

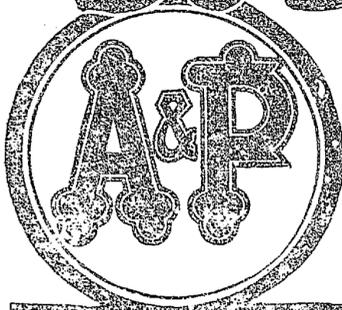

All records for the Michigan contest are being broken by the birds entered this year. An average of 186 eggs per bird for the 1,000 hens in the contest was noted at the end of the 48th week, as compared with last year's record average of 168 eggs at the same period in the contest, which ends on November 1.

The high ranking pens, of ten birds each, on October, second were as follows: Hanson's White Leghorn Farm, Corvallis, Oregon, 2,384 eggs; J. Pater and son, of Hudsonville, Michigan, 2,360; Marshall Farms, Mobile, Alabama, 2,359; Geo. S. Sutton, Aurora, Ind., 2,342; Geo. B. Ferris, Grand Rapids, Mich., 2,327.

Concrete Streets, like Concrete Roads, are built for permanence

Why Clare Paved with Portland Cement Concrete

When the business men of Clare, Michigan, decided it was time to pave the city's main thoroughfare, they wanted assured protection against costly repairs. They wanted a pavement that would remain true and even, firm and rigid under all kinds of traffic.

That's why they decided on portland cement concrete—the pavement you recognize by its non-skid surface and its pleasing, light gray color.

Tourists passing through Clare always praise its concrete pavement. Some day they will no doubt have the pleasure of driving on concrete over M-14, the heavily traveled highway leading to the famous summer resorts of the North Country.

Concrete on M-14 will mean a great deal to local prosperity in the years ahead. Don't just say "pave." Say "pave with portland cement concrete."

All of the facts are in our free booklet on "Concrete Streets." Ask for your copy.

FILE PETITION IN STONE ROAD PROBE

TAXPAYERS ASK CO. ROAD BODY TO INSPECT NEW ROAD, DECLARING IT IS FAULTY

Three members of the Three Oaks township board, John Hoven, E. T. Drier and Lawrence Schrader, and 60 other taxpayers have petitioned the board of county road commissioners for a complete inspection of the so-called Three Oaks stone road, recently laid, which they declare faulty. The A. W. Taylor Construction Co., of LaPorte, Ind., are the builders of the road.

Although the petition was presented early in September, apparently no action has been taken by the commissioners, according to one of its signers, Birch S. Love, of Three Oaks. Mr. Love with Mr. Hoven presented the petition to the board.

The petition, according to Mr.

Love, charges that not enough stone was laid in the road, which is 3.9 miles in length and which runs from Indiana-Michigan state line to Union Pier, and also charges that the road was not sufficiently rolled.

The commissioners were asked to inspect the road themselves in company with a disinterested inspector representing the petitioners.

"We presented the petition at a regular meeting of the commissioners," Mr. Love said "and we were promised that they would come to Three Oaks on the following Tuesday to inspect the road. They did not come, and later it was explained that the Taylor company had not completed the road and the county is laying the tarvia covering. We thought the stone work ought to have been inspected before the tarvia was laid."

Mr. Taylor charged that he could kick stones out of the road and "cut a ditch across it with a jackknife."

Bonds of over $80,000 were sold to finance the construction of the highway, and the Taylor company was awarded the contract for over $60,000.

USING CAR AS A WEAPON, KILLS AND TAKES TURKEY

That some people believe in securing their Thanksgiving turkey early "on the hoof" is indicated by the report of Claude Dickey to the police department Friday morning.

Mr. Dickey, who lives about five miles from Niles on the Berrien Center road, phoned the police, stating that an automobile, while passing his farm had struck and killed one of his turkeys and that the driver of the car had stopped and picked up the turkey and drove away.

A few minutes later the car developed a flat tire and was halted in front of the John Foster place to repair the machine. Police were dispatched to the Foster home at once but when they arrived the car and the turkey were gone.

REPUBLICAN CO. COMMITTEE MEET IN BENTON HARBOR

About sixty members of the Berrien County Republican committee met at the Elmore club, in Benton Harbor, Monday night to discuss county politics. It was the first regular meeting ever held by the committee.

Chairman Peter Dukeshire presided and called on men from the several precincts to state what activities are being furthered in their localities and then called to the chair Mrs. Kakabebe who asked for an expression from the women members. All were enthusiastic over the outlook.

Those present from Buchanan were: Herbert Batchelor, Al. W. Charles, G. D. Merfield, Mrs. Orma Chamberlain, Jesse G. Boyle, Don Pears, Mrs. Chas. Lydfick, Mrs. F. R. Sanders, Mrs. Sam Rouse and Rex Lamb.

DEPUTY BERT LISTER GOES OUT OF STATE FOR MAN

Deputy Sheriff Bert Lister is back from Chambersburg, Pa., where he recently went, bringing with him Melvin Haskell, who has been accused by the Buchanan Ford agent, George Foresman, of having taken a car out of the state without the formality of settling for it.

Haskell drove himself and the deputy back in the car in question.

DRIVES 40-MILE CLIP, FINED $10 AND COSTS

P. N. Nekvasil, a Buchanan youth with an evident speed mania, had his ardor dampened Saturday when Chief Clarence Dunbar and his trusty motorcycle, in the role of pursuit squadron, started to "play tag, you're it," and caught the speedster on West Front street, near the village limits.

Nekvasil paid a fine of $10 and costs in Justice Al. Charles' court.

GRAPE SHIPMENTS HEAVY

Grape shipments from the Benton Harbor fruit market were the heaviest Wednesday and Thursday of last week than any time this year. It was with difficulty that the steamboats could handle the shipments that were given them. It is reported that the Goodrich and the Benton Transit lines carried at least 60,000 packages, that the railroads carried away 15,000 packages and the trucks hauled 35,000 packages. The presence of the trucks on the market, with the buyers from cities all over Southern Michigan, Northern Indiana and many Illinois points, prevented the prices from dropping even lower than they were. The grapes sold on the market at 37 to 39 cents per jumbo.

NEW PARKING ORDINANCE GOES IN EFFECT IN NILES

The one-hour parking law which was passed by the Niles city council three weeks ago has gone into effect.

The law prohibits parking for more than one hour, between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m., on week days and until 9 p. m., on Saturdays, with no limit being enforced on Sunday. Niles police were ordered to arrest any violators of the law, which provides a fine and cost approximating $10 for conviction on such offense.

The driver of a Hunter Ice Cream Co. truck raced down the hill on the Niles road into Buchanan, past the red stop light, and paid $1 and costs in Justice Rex E. Lamb's court.

VEGETABLES ARE NEEDED AT CLARK HOSPITAL

Clark hospital is in quite urgent need of potatoes and other dry vegetables and the management would be very glad to receive such donations. The new coal cellar has been completed making an ideal place to store vegetables, which has not been possible in the past. In past years farmers have been gracious in responding to the call for aid in furnishing vegetables for hospital use and they will doubtless be glad this fall to contribute from their farms to help the institution which is doing so much for the community's sick.

SUPERVISORS TO FIX '27 BUDGET

TO DECIDE ON BOND FUND; ACT ON OTHER MONEY PROBLEMS IN OCTOBER MEETING

The October session of the board of county supervisors, which opened in St. Joseph, Monday, will act on several important issues involving the expenditure of money.

Among the issues to be threshed out in the present session are the following:

Appointment of a member to the county road commission to succeed David Zaring of Three

Pass upon the 1927 road building program outlined by the road commission.

Consider a recommendation by the jail inspectors for a juvenile addition to the county bastille.

Decide whether to place the register of deeds upon a salary basis or continue on a fee system.

The usual requests for appropriations by institutions and organizations always confront the board at the October session.

Along with this comes the necessary budget to operate the county government and the fixing of the amount of tax to be spread.

Under the increased valuation of approximately $20,000,000, the board looks for a reduction in the tax rate for the new year.

The fact that $40,000 of four per cent bonds come due in 1928, with no present fund provided for retirement may cause the matter to be brought more sharply before the board this session.

Interest charges to date already have mounted to nearly half the total issue, the committee points out.

The bonds originally were floated for $500,000 for road purposes to pull Berrien county out of the mire.

Only $20,000 have been retired.

The proposal brought up last session which received favorable action by the board for a tri-county sanitarium, seems likely to receive a severe check this session because of apparent lack of action by Cass and Van Buren counties.

The Berrien board last June appointed a committee to work with committees with the two neighboring counties.

The board was given to understand that Cass and Van Buren counties had expressed themselves favorably toward the project, estimated to cost $150,000.

County Clerk Ira C. Wegner, however, reports that inquiries brought the reply from the Van Buren county clerk, that no committee had been appointed there, and resulted in no reply at all from Cass county.

The question of whether it shall be fees or straight salary for the increasing register of deeds is being considerably discussed by members of the board, and may be brought up on the floor next week.

Many of the supervisors have expressed themselves as favoring a change but none seems to be inclined to be the one to start the ball rolling.

Figures show that the register of deeds receives a much larger return under the fee system than any other office under the salary system. Members argue that all the offices should be placed on the same basis.

They point out that the register of deeds could be paid a salary large enough to attract a high class talent, and still pay profit into the county treasury.

"IRENE," WITH STAR CAST, COMES TO THE PRINCESS

A small conception of what is in store for movie goers on Thursday and Friday night has been on display at the Princess for several days.

"Irene," is a comedy starring Colleen Moore, with a supporting cast that includes such well known stars as Charlie Murray, Lloyd Hughes, George K. Arthur, Kate Price and many others and is considered by all as Colleen's greatest achievement.

The attraction for Saturday afternoon and night will be "My Own Pal," with Tom Mix and Tony, the wonder horse. A comedy entitled "Wandering Papa," and Aesop's Fables complete the program. Matinee at 3:00 p. m.

Another picture of special note

"But a road must lead somewhere," said Bubby. "It has got to lead somewhere."

So they went on and on, their shoes getting very dusty, but it was fun just the same.

They went over the top of the hill on the funny old road which was filled with ruts and which looked as though it were hardly ever used.

Then along the top they walked until finally the road ended.

It led off into nothing more than a thicket.

"Well," laughed Bubby, "I said that the road must lead somewhere."

"And this is the 'where'."

"It wasn't a road to lead anywhere very important, but this is somewhere in the world, anyway."

"Let's go exploring in the thicket," said June.

So they went exploring and they found all sorts of interesting flowers that were in the thicket, and just beyond was a pond which they found to be filled with all sorts of funny little fishes.

They found a stone all marked with fan-shaped markings—a big and very handsome stone, and they found something that looked like an arrow head.

Then they saw a funny old straw hat and they wondered who had lost it, but here in a few minutes and months before and what he had found and if he had been camping here by himself for there were signs that a rock oven had been put together.

Before they left they went in wading—at least that was what they had meant to do, but it was a slip.

June slipped and fell into the water, and she was a dusty, wet, muddy-looking person when she arrived home.

But, as her mother said when she saw her—

"It is lucky June has a really old dress for taking these exploring walks!"

"Yes, that will be fun," said Bubby's sister, whose name was June. "It may not lead anywhere," she added.

Over the Top.

Bubby had held his hands so they would carry the water down to the dog on the ground below.

He could do it very well, so that only a little of the water was spilled. The dog really succeeded in cooling his thirsty throat and his dry tongue.

The dog had lapped it up so delightedly and had thanked in his own special way.

"You know a dog says 'please' with his eyes and 'thank you' with his tail."

They had seen many bees and crickets and insects and grasshoppers, and they had seen two woodchucks sitting up outside their holes.

They had found an old road leading up a hill, 'way out in the country.

It was off the main roads and a little distance away from the trail, most people took when they went in this direction.

Pass upon the 1927 road building program outlined by the road commission.

The fact that $40,000 of four per cent bonds come due in 1928, with no present fund provided for retirement may cause the matter to be brought more sharply before the board this session.

Interest charges to date already have mounted to nearly half the total issue, the committee points out.

The bonds originally were floated for $500,000 for road purposes to pull Berrien county out of the mire.

Only $20,000 have been retired.

The proposal brought up last session which received favorable action by the board for a tri-county sanitarium, seems likely to receive a severe check this session because of apparent lack of action by Cass and Van Buren counties.

The Berrien board last June appointed a committee to work with committees with the two neighboring counties.

The board was given to understand that Cass and Van Buren counties had expressed themselves favorably toward the project, estimated to cost $150,000.

County Clerk Ira C. Wegner, however, reports that inquiries brought the reply from the Van Buren county clerk, that no committee had been appointed there, and resulted in no reply at all from Cass county.

The question of whether it shall be fees or straight salary for the increasing register of deeds is being considerably discussed by members of the board, and may be brought up on the floor next week.

Many of the supervisors have expressed themselves as favoring a change but none seems to be inclined to be the one to start the ball rolling.

Figures show that the register of deeds receives a much larger return under the fee system than any other office under the salary system. Members argue that all the offices should be placed on the same basis.

They point out that the register of deeds could be paid a salary large enough to attract a high class talent, and still pay profit into the county treasury.

"IRENE," WITH STAR CAST, COMES TO THE PRINCESS

A small conception of what is in store for movie goers on Thursday and Friday night has been on display at the Princess for several days.

"Irene," is a comedy starring Colleen Moore, with a supporting cast that includes such well known stars as Charlie Murray, Lloyd Hughes, George K. Arthur, Kate Price and many others and is considered by all as Colleen's greatest achievement.

The attraction for Saturday afternoon and night will be "My Own Pal," with Tom Mix and Tony, the wonder horse. A comedy entitled "Wandering Papa," and Aesop's Fables complete the program. Matinee at 3:00 p. m.

Another picture of special note

"But a road must lead somewhere," said Bubby. "It has got to lead somewhere."

So they went on and on, their shoes getting very dusty, but it was fun just the same.

They went over the top of the hill on the funny old road which was filled with ruts and which looked as though it were hardly ever used.

Then along the top they walked until finally the road ended.

It led off into nothing more than a thicket.

"Well," laughed Bubby, "I said that the road must lead somewhere."

"And this is the 'where'."

"It wasn't a road to lead anywhere very important, but this is somewhere in the world, anyway."

"Let's go exploring in the thicket," said June.

So they went exploring and they found all sorts of interesting flowers that were in the thicket, and just beyond was a pond which they found to be filled with all sorts of funny little fishes.

They found a stone all marked with fan-shaped markings—a big and very handsome stone, and they found something that looked like an arrow head.

Then they saw a funny old straw hat and they wondered who had lost it, but here in a few minutes and months before and what he had found and if he had been camping here by himself for there were signs that a rock oven had been put together.

Before they left they went in wading—at least that was what they had meant to do, but it was a slip.

June slipped and fell into the water, and she was a dusty, wet, muddy-looking person when she arrived home.

But, as her mother said when she saw her—

"It is lucky June has a really old dress for taking these exploring walks!"

"Yes, that will be fun," said Bubby's sister, whose name was June. "It may not lead anywhere," she added.

Over the Top.

Bubby had held his hands so they would carry the water down to the dog on the ground below.

He could do it very well, so that only a little of the water was spilled. The dog really succeeded in cooling his thirsty throat and his dry tongue.

The dog had lapped it up so delightedly and had thanked in his own special way.

"You know a dog says 'please' with his eyes and 'thank you' with his tail."

They had seen many bees and crickets and insects and grasshoppers, and they had seen two woodchucks sitting up outside their holes.

They had found an old road leading up a hill, 'way out in the country.

It was off the main roads and a little distance away from the trail, most people took when they went in this direction.

Let's see where the road leads," Bubby suggested.

"Yes, that will be fun," said Bubby's sister, whose name was June. "It may not lead anywhere," she added.

WOMAN ALLEGES SPOUSE USES ALIAS; DIVORCED

Alleging that her husband's real name is William Cornelius Shaw and that he has been using the assumed name of W. C. Maclyn, Mrs. Gary V. M. Maclyn, of Buchanan, was awarded a decree of divorce Monday by Circuit Judge Charles E. White on the grounds of cruelty, non-support and desertion.

They were married in July, 1920. They have no children.

Mrs. Maclyn was represented by Attorney Frank R. Sanders.

VARIETY AND BATTLE ROYAL
FEATURE ATHLETIC SHOW
TO BE STAGED HERE
ON OCT. 23.

President Merfeld of the Buchanan Athletic association is to be congratulated for the excellent array of talent he has booked for the big athletic show to be staged at the Clark theater on Saturday evening, October 23.

It is generally conceded that this will be the best show ever staged in Buchanan—and that's covering a lot of ground.

Wow! What a show! Just look this over: Sixteen rounds of boxing, a battle royal and a finish mat show—all for the one admission charge.

B. Clark, president of the Clark Equipment Co., has provided an expensive wrestling mat for use at the Clark theater, and it is hoped that the new mat will be here in time for the show. A new and greatly improved lighting scheme has been installed in the theatre and this will receive its inaugural when the doors open the night of the show. E. A. McAuley, secretary of the State Athletic commission, has generously granted permission for this show, and sent his wishes for its success.

Boxing will precede the wrestling match. A battle royal between members of the independent football team will open the show, and a real wild hunt is expected here. Sixteen rounds of fast boxing by clever "bug uglies" handpicked from here and there will follow. The wrestling match will complete the show, that is guaranteed to be complete with thrills and action.

The main bout of the evening will be a six rounder at 126 pounds between Art Barring of South Bend and Young Boose of Logansport, a protégé of Bud Taylor. The semi-windup will see two fast and clever 120 pounders, the local prize, Young Duffy, of Buchanan and Young Roberts of Benton Harbor, cuff each other. There will be another six round go, featuring the well known Michigan "Wildcat," Sammy Reid, of Niles, and an opponent to be selected later. The truth of the matter is that many of the well known members of the fistfight fraternity of Reid's weight want anything to do with the Niles mauler.

The wrestling portion of the program will be a finish match, best out of three falls, and will see in action, Freddie Hall, of Buchanan, and Ted Jenkins, of Chicago. Hall is diligently training for this match, as he is meeting the man who Al Chappelle has been grooming to trim the local terror. Chappelle met Hall twice last fall, going down to defeat in one of the toughest mat bouts ever witnessed by followers of the sport in this vicinity. After that match he challenged Hall for the title, but was defeated by the latter. The Athletic association is going to considerable expense to provide good talent for this show and hope to have your support. The show will start promptly at 8:15 o'clock. Tickets go on sale Saturday at the following places: Schwartz cigar store, Dunley's cigar store, Mead's barber shop and Beck's tire shop. Ringside seats will be $1.50 and general admission tickets $1.00. Children under sixteen will be admitted to the gallery for 50 cents. Proceeds of the show will go to the athletic funds of the high school and athletic association.

BUCKS AND EAGLES IN SCORELESS TIE

FEROCIOUS ONSLAUGHT BY BOTH TEAMS ENDS IN 0-0 DEADLOCK SUNDAY

The Wildcats, Buchanan's scrappy independent football eleven, which, in the words of Ring Lardner, we have playfully dubbed the "Bucks," owing to their ferocious tendencies, held the strong South Bend Eagles eleven to a scoreless tie Sunday at Athletic Park.

Despite the fact that the ball was in Buchanan territory much of the time, the visitors lacked the punch to push it over for the winning touchdown.

In the first half South Bend took the ball to Buchanan's six yard line only to lose it when Howard fumbled. In the second half the Eagles had the ball in the same place, but on the next play the Benders were penalized 15 yards. An attempted pass by Bercecinik was intercepted by Phillips, who carried the ball 20 yards, when he was thrown out of bounds.

South Bend kicked off, Buchanan starting its march on the 25-yard line, Goodlett and Lister making two nice gains, then losing on a fumble, Bailey kicking, and the Eagles taking their turn on their own 20 yard line. Cottrell plunged five yards, was penalized 10, and the Eagles swooping down on the ball on the Wildcats' 46 yard line.

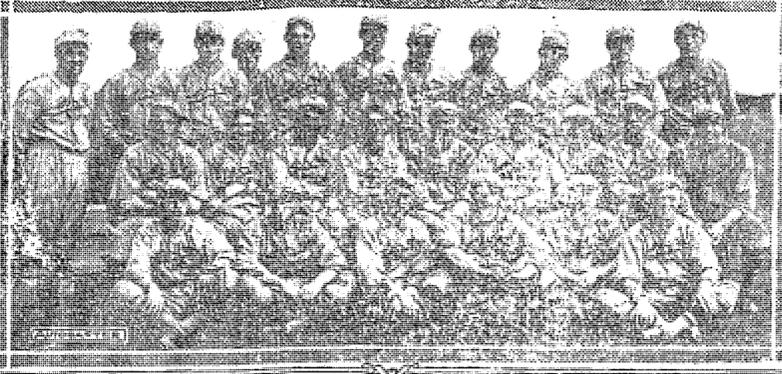

The Eagles made one first down, but failed on the next, and kicked, Buchanan receiving on its own one-yard line, and responding with a kick, after plunges and passes failed. And so it went, each side finding it impossible to execute plays consistently for gains. Passes, fumbles, line plunges, end runs and trick plays; it seemed the same. Buchanan did make two first downs in succession in the first half, but no body scored.

Buchanan showed a marked weakness in interference, which will be corrected the coming week, according to Coach Thanning. South Bend made heavy gains thru center in the second half due to Buchanan having no regular substitute for Brant at that position during the last period.

The large crowd, who witnessed the game, were thrilled by the desperate efforts of both teams to push a winning counter across.

The lineup:
Buchanan South Bend
Burk McKenzie
T. O'Farrell LF Malady
Stevens LT Hines
Brant LG Eller
C. Thanning RG Sieko
Gregory RT Johnson

BENTON HARBOR IS NEXT ON PROGRAM

NORTHERN SCHOOL RESERVES WILL HOOK UP WITH BUCHANAN HIGH SATURDAY

Coach Bradford is anticipating one of the toughest battles on the 1926 program in the forthcoming clash next Saturday at Athletic Park with Benton Harbor high school's strong Reserve team.

Although highly pleased with the manner his warriors performed last Saturday against the heavy Dowagiac eleven, the local mentor is leaving no stone unturned in polishing off apparent weaknesses and is putting his cohorts through scrimmage practice and signal drill the remaining days of this week.

The following will be Buchanan's lineup, with the number of each player:
R. E. Shores, 3.
R. T. Boyle, 14.
R. G. Mitchell, 12.
C. Smith, 5.
L. G. Fette, 11.

BERRIEN SPRINGS H. S. WILL HAVE BASKET SQUAD

With the intention of making a real bid for fame in the athletic field, Berrien Springs high school is reorganizing its basketball team into a fighting, go-getting organization that will tackle all comers with an intense determination to win.

Basil Stanley, freshman coach of the University of Notre Dame, has been engaged to coach the Berrien Springs basketballers. Practice meets will be held at Berrien Springs three nights each week by Coach Stanley. Rigid training regulations will be observed by the aspirants for places on the team.

WILDCATS TACKLE SPEEDBOYS SUNDAY

LOCAL GRIDDERS TO MEET TOUGHEST OPPOSITION OF SEASON IN MICHIGAN CITY OUTFIT

Buchanan Independents will meet the toughest opposition of the season Sunday when they lock horns with the Michigan City Speedboys, one of the Middle West's fastest football aggregations.

Fans who witness this encounter will see a sight for poor eyes—a club that will work with clock-like precision and which has all rough spots nicely polished. They will also see, the local management promises, a local club that is every bit as fast and a team that should prove the equal or superior of Indiana's eleven in ground-gaining tendencies.

Coach Thanning is putting his warriors through strenuous workouts every night this week in girding his braves for the tough job laid out for them Sunday. The backfield needs no improvement, declares Coach Thanning, and the line is, at this writing, almost all. The interference of the Wildcats has not stood out as it should in the games played so far, and the local coach will pay much attention to developing an effective interference for the Speedboys' game.

The Speedboys won from the Bucks last season and the year before the local gridders took the Michigan City boys' number. So, this is the deciding game—the contest that decides the superiority of the two elevens.

Fans may get some dope on Sunday's game from the fact that the Speedboys beat Friendship A. C. of South Bend, 20 to 0, Sunday, with the best Buchanan could do with the Benders in the opening game of the season was to hang a 6 to 0 defeat on them. Then again, dope doesn't always run true to form.

WILDCAT'S SCHEDULE

The following is the schedule of the Buchanan Independent Football team for its 1926 season:
Oct. 17—Michigan City Speed Boys here.
Oct. 24—Mishawaka Triangles here.
Oct. 31—South Bend Eagles here.
Nov. 7—Elkhart Eagles here.
Nov. 14—South Bend Friendship club here.
Nov. 21—Phi Delta Pappa at Michigan City.
Nov. 28—LaPorte Elks at LaPorte.

THREE OAKS BEATS ST. JOE IN CLOSE GAME, 13 TO 12

Three Oaks high school grid squad upset the dope somewhat in a game played in Three Oaks on Saturday, when it emerged victorious in a close, hard-fought game with St. Joseph high. The score was 13 to 12.

A 30-yard run in the last quarter by Savoldi, Three Oaks' full-back, assumed victory for his team. Until Savoldi made his spectacular run for a touchdown, the game seemed practically on ice for the St. Joes.

RILEY TELLS KIWANIAN'S ABOUT BIG BLACK BASS

The regular meeting of the Kiwanis club was held Monday night in the club rooms over Glenn E. Smith's store. Following the transaction of routine business a reminiscence hour was enjoyed.

Harleigh Riley recalled that 40 years ago a black bass weighing 154 pounds was taken from the water at the east end of Pike lake. This was back in the days when the "primeval" forest had been but little touched by the axe of the lumberman and when fishing was worthy of the name in this locality. Chas. Pears and Bert Worthington, Glenn Smith and others recalled the incident and substantiate the story. Johnnie Holmes will recall this incident as will many of the old timers. The story is really true.

There were other stories told just as astounding. The memory refreshing program was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart, 302 Main street, suffered a physical breakdown Sunday and was taken to the Clark hospital for treatment. Her condition has improved.

DOWAGIAC DEFEATS BUCHANAN, 12 TO 7

LOSERS SCORE TOUCHDOWN BY PASS; ALLEN STARS MAKING GAINS THRU LOCAL'S LINE

Outweighed fully fifteen pounds to the man, Buchanan high school went down to defeat Saturday at the hands of Dowagiac, by a 12 to 7 score.

In defeat, Buchanan stood out in bold relief. The stalwart defense put up by Coach Bradford's line and the speed displayed in the backfield brought many a thrill to the skeptics, who expected to see the local school buried under a big score.

The game was fast and furious in its entirety. The first half ended with Buchanan leading Dowagiac, 7 to 0, it having executed a perfect forward pass. Pfingst to Chubb, for a touchdown, Pierce kicking the goal.

Buchanan twice had the ball in striking distance, once only three yards from the goal, but green fingers fumbled and it lost its chance. Its forward passes got away for big gains, and the wriggling runs of Pfingst and Chubb and Conrad puzzled Dowagiac. Buchanan displayed more football, but Dowagiac had the beef and the experience, it being mostly a veteran team.

The hero of the game was "Goose" Allen, of the Dowagiac team, fullback. He plunged until he was beaten almost into insensibility, yet his powerful legs carried him through the line. Buchanan's line for consistent gains. His team settled down to a plunging game, its end runs and passes regularly going astray. Lounsbury, White and Fox alternated at hitting the line, else Allen could not have lasted the game out.

The teams lined up as follows:

Buchanan	Dowagiac
Knight	Steinle
Campbell	LE Keeler
Foste	LG Parrish
Smith	C Lieber
Mitchell	RG E. Metras

WILL FORM COUNTY BASKETBALL LOOP

PLANS EMANATING FROM ST. JOE CALL FOR SCHEDULE WITH TOURNEY AFTER SEASON

C. T. Metz, athletic director of St. Joseph Lutheran school, is active in an attempt to organize a Berrien county independent basketball league.

It is the plan of Mr Metz to have sixteen or possibly twenty clubs in the loop from representative sections of the county. The twin cities will enter six teams, says Mr. Metz, and two will probably be entered from Niles. Of course, Buchanan, which won the Southwestern Michigan championship last year, by virtue of winning the tournament at Three Oaks, in which a score of the strongest quintets in the section were represented, will enter the proposed loop.

If sufficient interest is shown in territory outside Berrien county a Southwestern Michigan league may develop with teams in Berrien, Cass, Branch, VanBuren and Kalamazoo counties making up the loop.

Very little has been done in Buchanan looking toward the reorganization of its championship basketball club, but those who will be identified with the club through the forthcoming campaign have declared that an outfit even stronger than last year's club will defend the village's laurels in the 1926-27 season. The club will be sponsored by the Buchanan Athletic association, which superintends and finances all the local independent and high school athletic activities.

Following the regularly played schedule, a championship tournament will be conducted in some adequate building, preferably the Benton Harbor armory, where accommodations are adequate for a program of this character.

Last year gold, silver, and bronze basketball were awarded to the three highest teams, the Buchanan Blues, the winners, Three Oaks, the runner-up, and St. Joseph Lutherans, who finished third.

Managers of teams in the south end of the county are requested to write to Wilson S. McLeod, editor of the Record, if they are interested as a meeting of the managers may be arranged.
