

REAL ESTATE OPERATORS TURN TOWARD BUCHANAN

COLVIN PROPERTY SOLD AT $39,000

WILLIAM EILER OF LAKESIDE
BUYS SECOND PIECE OF PROPERTY NEAR

Purchase of the entire E. M. Colvin estate at Clear Lake was announced this week by William Eiler of Lakeside. A total of $160,000 is to be involved in the property, according to Mr. Eiler. The estate itself is said to be worth $39,000 with improvements raising the total to six figures.

The deal includes the buying of the expansive colonial home of the Colvins on the east shore of Clear Lake and the 135 acres surrounding the 15-room house. Several other buildings were also purchased including the farm house, caretakers house, hotel and barns. Both real and personal property of the estate were involved in the purchase.

No definite plans have yet been announced by Eiler as to his intentions with the Clear Lake property, although it was indicated that he intends to develop a popular summer resort of the property which is ideal for that purpose, with its woods and shore. To the north of the Colvin estate the summer resort cottages and pavilion belonging to C. H. Fuller, have helped to add to the popularity of the lake. An ideal picnic grounds and bathing beach stretches out beyond the cottages. With plans for roads in the Clear Lake woods subdivision and other improvements in the spring on that property, the entire section of the country promises to become a rapidly growing development.

This is the second purchase by Mr. Eiler recently in this vicinity, having purchased a few weeks ago the old Batchelor homestead at the Bend of the River. He also owns a beautiful summer home at Lakeside.

The purchase of the Colvin estate was effected through the State Bank of Chicago. The deal number four. They are William O. who has been spending the summer at the Clear Lake home, Richard, Jay and Mrs. Ruth Friedlander. All four children have permanent homes in Chicago. Mrs. Colvin's death preceded her husband's.

The life story of Edward Colvin reads like an adventure book, rising to wealth from the ranks of journeyman printers. During the years that the Berrien County Record was published by J. G. Holmes, Colvin was employed as a printer in the establishment, leaving here some 30 years ago.

After working in several print shops in the middlewestern cities he went to Chicago, where he followed his trade, eventually settling up a shop of his own. Later he became connected with the Hall Printing company of Chicago, publishers of mail order catalogues, where he showed his genius in guiding the company through financial straits.

The lake estate had been in the Colvin family for nearly 40 years.

He succeeded Gerald Proulx in the garage work and also built up a sales department. The garage also has experienced growth, four mechanics having been employed to keep up what has been called one of the best repairing services in southwestern Michigan.

STORM SWEEPS OVER BUCHANAN

LIGHTNING AND RAIN FAIL TO DO ANY DAMAGE NEAR HERE ON SATURDAY MORNING

Relieving people here of the excessive heat of the week, one of the heaviest rain storms of the season fell throughout this section of the county last Saturday morning.

No damage was done to crops and telephone and electric light service continued uninterrupted during the hour of the storm. Both the Bell Telephone company and the Indiana and Michigan Electric company reported their service as continuing as practically uninterrupted.

The storm grew in intensity to the east and south, being of cloudburst variety in northern Indiana. Lightning struck and burned to the ground an old barn built on the Rodgers farm in 1827, near Sumnerville. The entire structure was built of white wood and walnut making it impossible to make any estimate of the amount of loss by the owner, Miss Ida Rodgers.

The entire contents of the barn were destroyed by the flames. Shortly after the bolt of lightning had struck the barn enveloping it in flames, Miss Rodgers ran out and managed to take one cow from the blazing building. No other livestock was in the barn but farm tools, machinery and a quantity of grain were destroyed.

In Niles the fire department was busy during the storm answering calls. No great damage was done there, however. Cities in Indiana especially, were hard hit by the rain.

FIRE DEPARTMENT PUTS OUT RUBBISH DUMP FIRE

A rubbish dump on South Oak street, near the Schwartz junk yard, burning for several days, was most offensive to the olfactory nerves of the residents in that locality and complaint was made to Mayor Brown. Sunday the odor was so bad that the Mayor ordered Fire Chief Bunker and three men to take the pumper there and extinguish the blaze. The atmosphere is now note-wholesome in that locality and peace reigns in the neighborhood.

CHURCH HONORS COLLEGE STUDENTS

COUNTRY PARISH WITH STUDENT PASTOR HOLDS SERVICE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE GOING AWAY

More student members of Hills Corner church than ever before are leaving for college within the next few days.

Honoring the departure of the young people a special service was held at the country parish in which the students themselves had a part. At the morning service the program was held.

The young people themselves had a part in the program. Miss Agnes Spaulding told the children's story, Miss Lois Boyce read Scripture and the Misses Dorothy Clark and Muriel Wolkins gave splendid talks, the one on "Why I am Going to College," the other on "The Relation Between Education and Life."

Following this the pastor, Rev. Hubert L. Barnett gave a short talk on the nature of the work to which these young people are going and some of the problems connected therewith.

This is the first time that so many persons have left Hills Corners at any one time to continue their work in the institutions of higher education. This community will be well represented in college.

Miss Dorothy Clark, Miss Agnes Spaulding and Milton Mitchell will leave this week for Michigan State college at Lansing. Miss Muriel Wolkins and Miss Bernice Hartline will depart the following week for Michigan State Normal Teachers' college at Kalamazoo, and on Oct. 2, Miss Lois Boyce will continue her work at Congregational Training school in Chicago.

The departure of these people will leave a big place that must be filled by others in the community. They have all been active workers in the church for several years, especially in the 1930 club.

GRANGE HEARS COUNTY AGENT

CORN BORER'S RELATION TO COUNTY AND ESTABLISH-ING OF FARMERS'
SCHOOL TALKED

Corn borer and its relation to Berrien county was one of the topics discussed by County Agricultural agent Harry Lurkins at the meeting of Wagner Grange, northwest of here Friday evening.

The breeding of corn seed immune from the menace was discussed by Lurkins, who also described the move of the borer toward this county.

The establishment of farmers' schools conducted in other communities on the same plans that sewing schools are being managed was proposed by Lurkins, who has been attending a grape growers school in Van Buren county of which he was in charge.

The subjects studied in the school here would be determined by the demands of the farmers, soil, poultry, animal husbandry and other subjects being suggested. Under the plan the schools meet once a month and group leaders are appointed to carry the information to their respective communities.

In addition to extension work Lurkins discussed the value of co-operation and the duties of an agricultural agent. He defined the agents' duties as doing the greatest service to the greatest number possible. The value of co-operation, he said, helped non-cooperators as well as those who possessed community spirit.

How to eradicate wheat smut before sowing was discussed by Mr. Lurkins. The meeting was well represented by farmers of the community.

Find Bones of Mastodon Buried in Earth Northwest of Buchanan

ODD RELIC FROM PREHISTORIC ANIMAL FOUND IN A DITCH ON NOAH WEAVER FARM

What is thought to be the tusk of a giant mastodon was unearthed at the Noah Weaver farm, four miles west of here on the Wagner road last week.

The entire tusk measures seven feet four inches long and is eight inches around on the blunt end where it was attached to the jaw of the mammoth animal. It has a dull grey appearance having been corroded with clay in which it has been buried for thousands of years. The tusk was taken from the ground in three pieces.

Glenn Weaver, 17 year old son of Noah Weaver, found the first piece as he crossed the Drudge ditch, a branch of the Wagner drain that is being dug by an excavating machine. The machine had partly uncovered the tusk in its clay bed and Glenn noticed the partly exposed ivory as he went across the ditch to get water.

The other two pieces were found the following morning and brought to the Weaver home. Although not buried deep the whole tusk required some time to get it from the ground and after being placed together formed a curved tusk such as the huge mastodons had.

Mastodons roamed thru North America and Europe in the Miocene and Pleistocene ages. They resembled our present day elephant, having a trunk and being pachydermic. The large tusks extended from the upper jaw. Huge reptiles, according to geologists and scientists roamed the country at that time. The dominant land life was mammalian. Mastodons are depicted by some scholars as being not yet extinct when man first appeared on earth, being great enemies to prehistoric man, who attacked them in herds and slew them with great skill and cunning.

Visitors from this vicinity have been frequenting the Weaver home to see the odd curiosity. Scientists at the Field Museum of Chicago have been notified of the find and it is also planned to send word to the Geology department of the University of Michigan in an effort to definitely determine the identity of the tusk.

The ivory has been placed in a tub of water to keep the air from causing it to crumble. Slight signs of disintegration this way have already been noticed.

SOLONS DISCUSS BRICKS AND GEESSE

STRANGE MIXTURE OF SUBJECTS OCCUPY MINDS OF COUNCIL AT MONTHLY MEETING

A conglomeration of subjects more distant than the proverbial cabbages and kings occupied the meeting of the village council for this month when bricks, geese and potato patches were discussed.

A mysterious bill for fifty cents submitted by an enterprising business man caused much conjecture until Chief of Police Dunbar explained that it was the cost of removing an enigmatic pile of bricks from the walks of Front street that had been shifted about by various merchants for several weeks.

The goose question again came to the surface at the meeting when residents of River and Portage street districts submitted a petition asking that the fowls be done away with. The subject, after much discussion was submitted to commissioners Mervin, Field and Riley, to whom it was suggested that they ensnare the birds for Thanksgiving dinner.

The problem of what to do with a Mill street citizen who is utilizing village streets for a potato patch was referred to Frank Sanders, village attorney. This question along with the goose problem are year old propositions.

TOWN CHILDREN READ CLASSICS

HOMER AND OLD WRITERS
ARE FAVORITES; GIRLS
WANT BOOKS FOR BOYS

The young folks of Buchanan show a liking for the classics, many of the older writers being special favorites with readers, according to librarians at the downtown institution.

Homer, one of the oldest of Greek writers is one of the special favorites, all his tales in attractive editions being gobbled up by eager readers. Dickens, too, is a favorite, his "Great Expectations" along with all his other volumes being sought after. One of the rare books in the library is his "Child's History of England" which is one of the first editions of that work.

"Treasure Island" is, of course, a favorite from Stevenson. "Historical writings" are asked for too, historical novels, written for youths being sought by boys and girls. Girls, by the way, do not while away their time on books for girls a great deal, but read so-called boys' books very largely. Henty, Althecher and other adventure writers are perused by both boys and girls. Fairy tales and poetry are not strangers to youthful readers of the town, either, say the librarians.

The juvenile collection is only two and a half years old. There are now more than 325 volumes in this section of the library. No definite date has yet been set for the opening of the shelves to the public.

NOVELTY ARTIST KNOWN HERE PERFORMS AT NILES

Clayton P. Young, novelty artist, who recently appeared here in a benefit performance for the Rebekahs, gave a recital Friday night in Bagle hall at Niles.

The first annual Coloma township picnic was held at Woodward grove at Paw Paw Lake, Sunday. Everybody in Coloma township was invited to attend the reunion, people coming from throughout that district for the event as well as from other places. It is hoped to make the picnic an annual affair.

A number of games and contests were scheduled for the day with awards to the winners. The program of activities was as follows:

GROWERS READY FOR FESTIVAL

FRUIT AND FLOWERS FROM THIS VICINITY WILL BE SHOWN AT THE BIG ARMORY SHOW

That Buchanan will make a good showing in the second annual fruit and flower show to be held at Benton Harbor is certain, with produce in this section winning praise from agricultural authorities.

On Sept. 22, 23, and 24, the new Armory at Benton Harbor will be the scene of the festival where hundreds of exhibits made up of grapes, apples, peaches, pears and practically every other autumn farm product in vegetables and flowers will be shown. A long list of prizes for exhibits has been arranged and will be announced by the committee in charge this week. The festival is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of Benton Harbor.

Entries for the festival are far in advance of last year's and new records in beauty and color are anticipated by those in charge. Besides the main attraction in the Armory drill room, the basement will be occupied with useful farm exhibits of machinery and material of all sorts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Adams are entertaining Frank Burdick of Joliet, Ill., at their home.

$2500 REPAIRS ON HILLS CHURCH

BIGGEST EXPANSION PROGRAM EVER UNDERTAKEN BY COUNTRY CHURCH IS PLANNED

Work is to begin very soon on the remodeling of the Hills Corners church building. For a long time the members have been thinking of this move, and it is with much pleasure that the announcement will be received by all friends of the institution. The present building is considered to be inadequate to meet the growing religious educational needs of the community and so in the remodeling there will be made an earnest attempt to provide the physical basis for an expanding church.

The framework is to be strengthened and straightened and the outside given a fresh coat of paint. Other outside work will be the removal of the present bell tower and the construction of a staunch and imposing one at the northeast corner where the new main entrance will be.

On the inside the present vestibule will be converted into a closed in classroom, the balcony will be enlarged and heavy draw curtains installed so that it, too, may be used for purposes of instruction without interference from outside influences. The main auditorium is to be completely redecorated and the seats and pulpit repainted in a dark shade. A new ceiling will also be constructed over this part of the church.

The annex building is to be redecorated and possibly a new arrangement for classes provided. The building committee of which Con Kelley is chairman, is also considering an enlargement of the basement so that there will be a large dining hall and fellowship room. The total cost will be about $2,500.

This whole project represents a great forward step for Hills Corners folks. The advantages which will accrue cannot be estimated. The men of the community are planning to take a direct part in the work as it progresses. It is the biggest task that the church has ever undertaken but it feels that with the support of the community it will be carried to a completion such as Hills Corners is famed for.

GETS PERFECT PEACHES

Ideal peaches are reported from the Daphne Dale Fruit farm, route 3, Buchanan, both Elbertas and Hale being included in the varieties. The trees were not sprayed this year because of the small amount of fruit but the peaches, however, are nearly perfect. The farm is owned by Anna Ritter and Fred L. Chilcoat.

PETITION FOR ROAD CIRCULATING HERE

PROJECT SPECIFICS FOR THE PAVING OF PORTAGE AND RIVER STREETS

The circulation of a petition for the building of a covert road about seven miles long and running through Buchanan will begin this week here.

The road is described as beginning at Walton's crossing in Niles township and running through the township into Buchanan township to the bridge here. From there the proposed road would lead up River street and from River street to Portage where it is described as following Portage to the Michigan Central railroad depot.

The highway would probably be of macadam construction and it would be about seven miles in length.

The petition has been circulated in Niles township where practically all of the residents have signed the document. John Wynn was in charge of the petition there. At Charles plans to begin the circulation on the paper here this week. Two-thirds of the frontage owners must place their signatures on the document before further steps can be taken. As soon as the required two-thirds of the property owners is secured the petition will be sent to the highway commission for further action. The fact that farms adjoin the proposed road accounts for the number of signatures in proportion to the length of the highway not being large.

The expense of building the road would be shared by property owners, county and state.

SMITH STORE REDECORATED OUTSIDE AND INTERIOR

The entire store building belonging and occupied by Glenn Smith is being redecorated on both the exterior and interior.

The walls on the inside of the men's furnishings and shoe store have been recovered with an attractive shade of grey and the outside is being painted by the Lockman company. The exterior will be painted brown with the lower part white with black trim.

PAINT COMPANY SPRAYS CAR PARKED ON CURBING

Paint recently applied to Buchanan's business section with the spraying outfit of the Lockman company of Benton Springs looked so good to Philip Hamilton of that place that he decided to try it out on his flivver, during a shopping tour here Friday.

Hamilton parked his coupe on a side street downtown Friday afternoon for the painting job. He removed the original coat of paint with sandpaper and then had the spraying truck drive up from their contract on the Glenn Smith store to dress up his flivver in a fresh layer of black paint. Many pedestrians were attracted to the scene during the three quarters of an hour which it took the painting company to complete the work.

It is not known whether Berrien Springs people thought Hamilton had traded his car in on a newer model or not when he returned home in the evening.

PEACHES, CLOVER BREAK RECORDS

FRUIT MEASURING ELEVEN INCHES IS RAISED BY RIVER CLIFF FRUIT FARM

Two records were broken by farmers in this vicinity this week with their produce. Artie Weaver, who lives on rural route No. 2 reports his mammoth clover as threshing 28 bushels from 9 acres last week. The product is of the best quality and is thought to break the record by three bushels for this locality.

The largest peaches reported from this vicinity are being shown by John Herman and his son, Lloyd, whose Elbertas measure 11 inches in circumference. Although the fruit is not heavy in yield it is perfect. The peaches tip the scales at over 1/2 pound each.

The River Cliff Fruit Farm which is run by the Hermans is located six miles northeast of here. They have a total of 1800 trees and have four acres of grapes. They expect to get six tons of grapes from their vines that will be ready for cutting soon.

BOBBED HAIR SINKS ON HORIZON OF FASHIONS

Bobbed hair is sinking on the horizon of styleland. New York, Philadelphia and Boston all consider it as something antique, say the Misses Harms, Buchanan beauty specialists.

In Chicago the shorn locks are still considered very much in vogue. Styles travel over the country in circles they say. Within a year they predict the ultra smart in the middle west will wear long hair while those in the east will probably be cutting off their curls again.

Each barber and hair curler "knows his own" cut and curl, too. No two can shear or crimp locks in the same identical way.

HIGH GRADE CATTLE SALE

The first of a series of "farm afternoon" at the R. C. Atkinson farm, four and a half miles south east of Buchanan. Thirty head of high grade Guernseys were offered to the farmers in that vicinity for sale on the credit plan, with nine months being given for payment of the purchases.

VOLUNTEERS TO INSTALL SEATS

PRESBYTERIAN MEN WILL ASSEMBLE SEATS IN THE CHURCH TOMORROW

Seating for the new Presbyterian church this week and will be assembled by volunteer workers Friday night.

The men have been requested by the pastor, the Rev. Harry W. Staver, to report at the church on Front street as soon after five o'clock as possible for the work, bringing wrenches and screw drivers.

The seats arrived from Grand Rapids knocked down and the work of installing them and assembling them will be done by the men of the parish, saving considerable expense. They are of the opera house style, the framework being of steel and the seats themselves being upholstered in brown leather. There are 190 of them to be put up in the main auditorium.

The chandeliers have been installed in the auditorium also. Plans for the dedication are now pending until definite word from the pulpit furniture manufacturer is heard. The folding chairs and primary chairs will be used in the Sunday school rooms of the basement.

BOY FALLS FROM HORSE SUSTAINS FRACTURE OF ARM

Joseph Letcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Letcher, north of town, aged about 12 years, fell from a horse Sunday while driving the cows to pasture. The fall caused a simple fracture of the right forearm. Dr. Stayer reduced the fracture.

THRONGS RETURN TO CHURCH MEET

PORTAGE PRAIRIE CHURCH CELEBRATES ITS FIRST ANNUAL HOME-COMING

What has been called by many as the most successful program ever carried out at the Portage Prairie Evangelical church was attended by 400 people last Sunday when the congregation celebrated its first annual homecoming.

The event covered three days beginning with a meeting on Friday evening and ending with a final service Sunday night. Sunday was the red letter day of the celebration when 250 attended Sunday school and over 400 were at the homecoming program in the afternoon.

The latter event was an entirely layman affair with L. B. Rough in charge of the program given by the church members. Members were present from many parts of the state and more distant points. The afternoon program was made up of letters read from former pastors and members who could not be present along with talks by members.

Reminiscences were recalled by Mrs. Mame Smith of Bristol, Ind., John Swartz of Los Angeles, California, Mrs. Eva Scheiback of Niles, John Houswerth of Rives Junction, Michigan and Mrs. Joseph Grouse of Lyndick, Ind., gave a reading entitled "Homecoming."

Other features of the afternoon program was orchestra and choir selections the latter organization singing, "The Church by the Side of the Road," as an especially prepared number. The Rev. C. A. Glass, blind evangelist from Niles, sang and played violin solos.

The three day program was ushered in with a chorus Friday night when the "Rainbow Welcome" song was sung. Other features were piano duet by Mr. and Mrs. Carson Houswerth, a vocal solo by Mrs. C. H. Houswerth and Miss Trella Rough.

"Adult Responsibility in Religious Education" was the subject of a special address Friday night by the Rev. D. C. Ostroth of Lansing, Michigan, who is also Director of Religious Education in the Michigan conference. He stressed the fact that the education of youth in religious lines was entirely up to the adult member of the church.

Saturday the church orchestra and choir both gave musical numbers and the Rev. W. H. Wagner of Lenox, Michigan, one of the oldest pastors present, gave a talk on "Evangelistic Efforts."

The Sunday school on Sunday morning numbered 250, said to be one of the largest gatherings of young people in the church.

"Homecoming" was the subject of a special sermon on Sunday morning by the Rev. H. I. Vellker, District Superintendent of the Kalamazoo district and former pastor here. He compared the joy of coming home with the joy of returning again to the church. Music was furnished on Sunday morning by Mrs. Houswerth and Miss Rough again. A feature of the musical program at that hour was the appearance of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ackerman and daughter, Aleta, in a trio accompanied by Miss Dorothy Motz, all of Elkton, Michigan, who stopped here on their way to Naperville, Ill., where the young women are studying voice. Miss Aleta Ackerman is a musician of prominence, having appeared in radio programs.

Sunday noon a dinner was served in cafeteria style and again in the evening the church furnished supper to all who stayed for the evening program.

In addition to the orchestra and choir numbers Sunday evening little Virginia Hill gave two readings and the address, evangelistic in nature, was delivered by the Rev. A. O. Ostroth of Nashville, Michigan.

In addition to L. B. Rough who was general secretary of the home coming, the Rev. H. C. Heise was president. Mrs. Albert Rhoades was chairman of the dinner committee and Mrs. O. B. York was chairman of the supper committee. Frank Rhoades was in charge of the entertainment committee.

The program was one of the most successful ever staged at a country parish and the number of people at the Sunday afternoon gathering was estimated as one of the largest to ever assemble at the church.

The oldest person present was Mrs. Justice Steiner, more than 85 years of age, who was one of the first members of the congregation when it was established in 1854.

The first organization conducted services in a schoolhouse under the pastorate of the Rev. G. Eckert. The first brick building was erected in 1859 and was followed by the present church in 1887. The Sunday school has an average attendance of 150 with 187 as the record. The auditorium of the church seats 300 and has a gallery 100 additional. The church is said to be one of the largest rural congregations in this section of the country. Thirteen of the pastors are still living.

Main Street in New Buffalo, Showing Modern System of Street Lighting

Three southwest Berrien County towns have shown real progressiveness and are happy over the recent installation of new street lighting systems. These towns are New Buffalo, Three Oaks and Gallien.

The illustration shows Main Street in New Buffalo and its new lighting standards. These new lights have added materially to the street attractiveness, giving excellent illumination and many favorable comments are heard daily in these three towns from tourists passing through.

New Buffalo has installed 35 standards, Three Oaks has 30 and Gallien has 12. Cassopolis and other south Michigan towns are understood to be making arrangements to adopt this modern lighting system.

The standards are placed opposite in the business districts and where used in the residential district the "staggered" system is used. Following this system quite an economy is worked out without detracting from lighting efficiency.

The standards are the product of the Westinghouse Co. and are scientifically designed to give the best spread of light and at the same time give added beauty to the street. The Record understands that the standards are installed at the expense of the Indiana & Michigan Electric Co., being maintained and serviced by them without charge except for the current consumed. It is quite a step forward in street lighting and is a distinct civic improvement.

Possibly some day Buchanan will move its miscellaneous and antiquated standards from the business district to outlying districts and adopt the modern more attractive and efficient plan of street illumination.

MINISTER RETURNS TO M. E. PARISH

METHODISTS BEGIN NEW YEAR WITH A VERY PROMISING OUTLOOK

Reappointment of the Rev. Henry Liddicoat to the pastorate of the Methodist church here was announced at the Michigan conference of the Methodist church which concluded its sessions at Battle Creek Monday.

The parish begins the new year Sunday with special services when every member of the denomination has been urged to be present. The twenty-four people who are making a financial census of the parish have not yet concluded their survey, although the work is progressing. The budget for the year has been set at $3,400, which is $100 more than last year's amount.

The church has 301 members, an addition of 12 having been made during the year. The Sunday school has 30 officers and teachers and there are 10 additional organizations. The greatest project of the year that has been nearly completed is the erection of the new parsonage on the lot adjoining the church property. The house has been remodeled through with ten rooms included in the plans. A garage will eventually be built on the lot also. The house is expected to be ready for occupancy by the Liddicoat family within about two weeks.

Only 30 of the 350 pastors were moved. Benevolences from the Kalamazoo district amount to $86,318. Gifts for institutions and ap- pearance of notable churchmen on the program were outstanding events of the gathering attend- ed by 350 ministers. Gifts to the Children's Home and to Al- lion college aggregated nearly a million dollars. A quarter of a million goes to the Children's Home at Farmington and a half million comes from S. S. Kresge.

Reports showed not only a substantial growth in church mem- bership but benevolences amount- ing to a half million dollars. The membership increase is 1,471 over 1926, as shown by the report of Rev. A. J. Morris, Hesperia, Michigan, conference statistician. The value of land and buildings of Michigan Methodist churches is estimated at $7,148,826, an in- crease of $313,091.

The figures for benevolences of the conference the past year are $477,895, which represents a decrease of $33,751 from 1926. The decrease is accounted for in the fact that pledges to specific endowments, including that of Al- lion college, are running out. Regular benevolences have really increased.

Billy Sunday, Doctor Massee of Fremont Temple at Boston and Bishop Wm. F. Anderson of Bos- ton, were among notables present. Platform evangelism, thought to be an archaic form, was declared by Massee to be possible in the present day. Evangelism was the keynote of the conference. The Rev. Liddicoat is secretary of transportation for the confer- ence, serving for four years.

A farm auction of horses, cows, sheep, sows, shoats, farm crops, farm machinery and tools will be held on the Percival Rough farm, 1 1/2 miles southeast of Buchanan, 1 1/2 miles southwest of Niles, first house south of Chicago road, com- mencing at ten a. m. on Thurs- day, Sept. 22. THREE OAKS 11 LOSES 4 PLAYERS

WILL COME HERE ON OCT. 22
FOR GAME WITH BUCHANAN
HIGH SCHOOL SQUAD

Three Oaks high school football schedule looks stiff to Coach Melbourne Wilson, who is preparing for the coming games with four stars on his eleven lost. Buchanan high will meet the team on Oct. 22.

Four stars were lost through graduation and two others are ineligible. "Big Joe" Savoldi, the "lone horseman" of last year's eleven, will receive football instruction under Rockne this fall. This big, fleet, 200 pound, six-foot giant, was nearly a team by himself. Decker, a star of last year's team and all-state basketball forward, is among the missing, as are also Mays, quarter, and McCarty, tackle. Topinka and Lewis are the players hit by ineligibility.

This year's team has but 16 candidates, nine of whom have had no football experience. The seven veterans of the squad are Klute, Hekathorne, Mays and McGuire, who will be used in the backfield, and Capt. Fisher, Francis and McKee, in the line. John Schneider, a small and fast candidate with no experience, will compete for one of the backfield jobs. Mays is the only backfield man who has had backfield experience. The following are first year men, are candidates for regular positions on the line: Sorenson, Eddy, Long, Barnes, Adams, Wasso, Stanage and Weed.

O. H. GOLFERS GET LARGEST SCORE

WIN 52 TO 4 OVER THREE RIVERS TEAM IN THE MATCH HERE
SUNDAY

Overwhelming victory with a score of 52 to 4 was won by the Orchard Hills golf team over the Three Rivers men on the course east of town Sunday.

The match was filled with ciphers for the visiting men, every golfer but one from the home club winning over the Three Rivers players. Of the twenty pairs only one Three Rivers man, Frank Miner, scored a victory over Hamilton. Sixteen players won in the morning matches. The largest score of the season was chalked up against the Three Rivers men Sunday.

The winners for Niles Buchanan's team were Hamilton who won from Corcoran, 3 to 0; Owen beat Smith, 3 to 0; Wood won from Ringle, 3 to 0; Scofield beat Sullivan, 2 to 0; Flynn trimmed Horst, 2 to 1; Roe beat Dooley, 3 to 0; Kritzer won from Gaskell, 2 to 0; Platt from Johnson, 3 to 0; Johnson from Seidman, 3 to 0; Grathwohl from Bierstehler, 3 to 0; White from Dr. Ebuly, 3 to 0; Lyddick from Dr. O'Dell, 3 to 0; Merrifield from Harren, 2 to 0; Henderson from King, 3 to 0; Webb from Hazard, 2 to 0; Tidwell from Wagner, 3 to 0; Parker from Garrison, 3 to 0 and Tobin from Hall, 3 to 0. Frank Miner, star of the Three Rivers team won his team's only victory over Hamilton, 3 to 0.

GUNS DON'T WORRY SQUIRRELS, DUCKS

WARM WEATHER AND CLOS-ED SEASON FAIL TO BRING OUT LARGE NUMBER OF HUNTERS

Ducks in this vicinity may quack in marshlands undisturbed for several days, even though the hunting season does open up tomorrow.

Ducks may be taken from sunrise to sunset on the days of the open season. No rush for licenses has been felt at the local cigar store. Buchanan's agency for Michigan hunting licenses for 1927 and 1928. Up to this week only a few licenses have been sold and it is expected that as soon as the cooler fall weather begins there will be a bigger demand for the permits.

Because of the closed season on much game it is expected that there will be fewer licenses issued than usually. Farmers report that fox squirrels have been destroying corn and other crops this year and wish that the season was open on them so that they could be lessened in number for crop protection.

One farmer reports that squirrels had found a new food in one of his orchards. He said they took pears from the trees and ate the seeds out of them. One tree very heavy with fruit had been stripped in a few weeks.

MORLEY INSTALLS SPARTAN TO GIVE TUNNEY-DEMPSEY FIGHT ROUND BY ROUND

Manager Homer E. Morley, of the Princess theater, will give a most pleasing bill next Thursday night, showing the picture, "Out all Night," starring Reginald Denney. This is said to be Denny's best comedy.

As an added feature, and one particularly pleasing to fight fans, Mr. Morley will install, through the courtesy of C. L. Houswerth, local dealer, one of the new improved Spartan all electric receivers, which will give the Tunney-Dempsey fight, blow for blow and round by round.

The new Spartan has wonderful power and clarity, hence every one in the house will be able to hear clearly everything that takes place at the ring side. Next Thursday night will be a big one at the Princess. Better go early to insure getting a seat.

Boardman's annual Flower Exhibit will be held Saturday, Sept. 17, at the D. L. Boardman store. The public is invited. 36c

Permanent streets are a good investment—not an expense

Don't Let Your Community Make the Same Mistake

Within recent years many communities have made the mistake of paving their highways at what they considered a "bargain price." The taxpayers thought they would save thousands of dollars.

In many instances the maintenance has not only wiped out the hoped for saving, but has exceeded original cost. And in many cases also it has been necessary to build entirely new streets—of permanent construction.

There are communities, however, which know the cheapest is not always the best. Many of these also built streets several years ago. And they built for permanence with concrete.

Those concrete streets, built in accordance with approved standards of highway construction, are in as good condition today as when they were built.

Which of these communities will yours be?

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Save Money on Long Distance Calls

There are Two General Classes of Long Distance Calls:

1—Person-to-Person. This is a call placed for a specified person and is the kind of call to make when you want to talk to someone in particular and you are not reasonably sure that person will answer the telephone or can be called to it quickly. A Person-to-Person call costs the same at all hours.

2—Station-to-Station. This is a call placed for a certain telephone number and is the kind of call to make when you are reasonably certain that the person with whom you wish to talk will answer the telephone or can be called to it quickly. Station-to-Station calls cost appreciably less than Person-to-Person calls, and offer reduced Evening rates, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., and further reduced Night rates, from 8:30 p.m. to 4:30 a.m. There is no change of rates at midnight.

It helps speed the connection if you give the Long Distance operator the number of the distant telephone, when making a Station-to-Station call, but it is not necessary to give it. If you do not know the number, tell the operator, for instance, that you are calling the office or home of "Mr. John Smith, 350 Sayre Street, Lansing, Michigan," she will then connect you with the called telephone and give you the number for future use.
