

"LOCAL TEXTBOOKS NOT PRO-BRITISH"

"HEARTS OF ENGLISH SPEAKING PEOPLE BEAT AS ONE," SAID THE PRINCIPAL

Failure on the part of both teacher and students to discover any pro-British propaganda in the history texts of Buchanan high school was described by Principal E. H. Ormiston in a brief discussion of the Chicago situation Sunday evening at "Question and Answer Night" at the First Methodist church.

The "battle of the books" is especially interesting here, with Buchanan using the same textbooks as are being used in Chicago schools and attacked by Mayor Thompson as being pro-British.

"If there is any propaganda in Muzey's book then I am not aware of it," said the principal who had also questioned his Senior history class if they had been able to discover any perverted idea of the Revolution. They were unable to find any trace of any pro-British doctrines.

There has been much talk about cementing the English speaking races together, recently. The English race is the dominating race of the world today. There must be harmony between America and England, the two leading powers of that race. We ought to teach respect for the fine qualities of our British ancestors, said the speaker.

The hearts of the mass of English speaking peoples beat as one. In Revolutionary days King George was compelled to hire mercenary troops to do his fighting against the colonies. In the war of 1812 and the civil war the same sympathy between the people of the two countries was evident. Even though the English industrial system was paralyzed from 1862 to 1865, yet the English people remained loyal and were not ready to recognize the South.

"If respect for the British people is propaganda then there are thousands, including myself who are guilty of treason," said Mr. Ormiston.

The whole question had a political origin. Mayor William Dale Thompson promising his supporters prior to his election, that McAndrews, superintendent of Chicago schools would be fired if he were elected. McAndrews being a "kath-mitted" man who Thompson was unable to dictate to, the mayor has tried insubordination tactics.

H. S. OPERETTA BEING PREPARED

COLLEGE THEME OF THE PRODUCTION RIVALS "STUDENT PRINCE" IN INTEREST

The third week in January will find Buchanan High school fairly smothered in college atmosphere rather than that of a high school, for the annual operetta is underway and practices have been begun.

"Bennie of Brinnell" is the story surrounding a baseball game between two prominent colleges, with the victory of Brinnell college depending upon the hero.

Coach and music instructor, Miss Loretta Boggoft, with her assistant, Mary Jo Allington, assure you that the operetta will make you feel "Tis a good old world and a kind old world" with delightful songs and dances making it a class rival to "The Student Prince."

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tichenor, accompanied by Mrs. D. S. Pennell of Berrien Springs, left Monday for New Smyrna, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

ANDY GUMP APPLIES FOR AUTOMOBILE TAG NUMBER 348 FOR 1928

In the vanguard of those who will soon be storming the secretary of state's office for auto licenses comes Andy Gump himself, who has sent word to Lansing that he must have his favorite No. 348 to hitch to his gas buggy for 1928.

The state department officials smelled a rat on receiving the application but it turned out to be genuine. The applicant is E. B. Andrew Gump, purchasing agent for the Wilson Foundry of Pontiac.

Even state department officials have their sense of humor. So Gump; will get the appropriate number, they said.

EARLY SETTLER OF BUCHANAN IS DEAD

MRS. AGNES BURCH, NINETY, PASSES AWAY AFTER 2 YEARS ILLNESS AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Agnes Burch, for 60 years a resident of Buchanan, died Sunday morning at 7 o'clock at Clark hospital, where she had been a patient since Thanksgiving Day of 1925.

Born in Wheatland, New York, on Sept. 15, 1837, the sixth in a family of 12 children she came to Buchanan in her earlier years. Mrs. Burch was the widow of Joseph Burch, an early pioneer of Buchanan who died in 1912. For 30 years he had carried on his blacksmith's trade in his Days avenue shop, finally retiring from his business. The family resided in the front street residence for many years.

An adopted child who died at the age of six also preceded Mrs. Burch in death. A number of nephews including Jay Munson of Buchanan and John Munson of Paw Paw survive.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the Childs' funeral chapel with Mrs. Howard Roe, Christian Science reader officiating. Burial in Oak Ridge.

POLICE CAPTURE 5 OVER WEEK END

QUARTET OF YOUNG MEN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF BURGLARY FRIDAY

Constant grilling led LeRoy Hoover, 14 year old lad to confess to breaking into the D. D. Pangborn store on Fourth street Sunday evening and escaping with $40.

Although the boy stoutly denied having anything to do with the robbery at first he was finally persuaded to take Chief of Police Fred French to the barn in which he had his loot hidden.

Mr. Pangborn had made a visit to his store Sunday evening about six o'clock and it was shortly afterward that the youth broke a back window and gained entrance to the place. The money was taken from both the safe and cash drawer.

Four other Buchanan young men ranging in age from 18 to 30 were arrested Friday evening by Fred E. French on charges of burglary. They were Harry Walker, George Grace, Richard Summerville and Edward Roland, who had broken into the Gottlieb Thumm home on Main street. Thumm is spending the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla. Entrance was gained through the basement windows.

An quantity of old wine at the Thumm home is said by police to have caused the home to be burglarized several times within the last few days, with quantities of wine, along with a revolver, hunting knife and other articles missing.

Roland and Summerville admitted they had been in that vicinity but the other two would make no statement. All four waived examination and Walker and Grace were bound over to the circuit court for trial. They were unable to furnish $1,000 bond.

Justice Al W. Charles took the case of the other two under advisement and they were released on their own recognizance to await examination when they are called.

Men who made the arrest were Chief of Police Fred E. French and Deputy Sheriff Chester Overcash of Niles, to whom descriptions of the young men had been furnished.

BOOK AUTHORITY TALKS TO P.-T. A.

ASSOCIATION NOW HAS A TOTAL OF 148 MEMBERS, NEXT MEETING TO BE ROUND-TABLE

Just how far children's reading has evolved since the A B C primers of Pilgrim days was revealed in a discussion of present day juvenile volumes by Miss Ethel Frost, children's librarian from the South Bend Public Library on Monday night at the Parent-Teachers' association.

The speaker described modern reading of various types, covering the whole range of books from fairy story to biography. The vast number and variety of books from which children of today may choose their reading was especially noticeable. A collection of the outstanding volumes from various types of reading was on display during the evening, and further showed, with its colorful and attractive bindings and illustrations, how the making of youngsters' books has become perfected.

Hundreds of new books have been written in the last decade although many of the older masters, including Stevenson, Hawthorne, London, Alcott and Dickens still remain favorites.

Among the volumes described by Miss Frost were Margery Bianco's "Skin Horse," and her "Eleven Rabbit," "Pete Pea," fairy stories of Ireland, the Norseland, England and the more recent volume of American folk lore which deals with the American Indians, Andrew Lang's "Blue Fairy Book," Charles Kingsley's and Nathaniel Hawthorne's Greek and Roman myths are favorites.

Among animal stories especially read by boys she named Ernest Thompson Seton's volumes and "The Sun Gazer" by C. T. Roberts.

Poetry especially for children, books on games to play and how to make the history and biography are all to be found among the popular books for young readers, she said.

Among biography favorites were Mary Anton, Jacob Reis, Buffalo Bill, Custer, Lincoln, Washington and Roosevelt.

Travel books had Makurju's jungle stories in the vanguard, with Lucy Fitch Perkins' Twin books, a favorite with girls, the Scotch Twins is a much read book although not recently written. To make the committee's presentation of the membership of the association has increased to a total of 148, according to the report of the membership committee. The next meeting will be of a discussion nature with present-day problems of parents and school as the theme. Superintendent Stark, Mrs. W. E. Pennell and Glenn Haslett were appointed a special committee to act with the program committee in preparing for the round table night.

POLL TO BE TAKEN ON 3 CENT GAS TAX

FARM BUREAU WILL PROBABLY PRESENT RESULTS TO THE LAWMAKERS

Highway finances and just what the farmers of the state believe in regard to them will soon be discovered with a poll to be taken under the supervision of the Michigan Farm Bureau association.

It is probable the result of the canvass will be laid before the 1929 legislature, or a special session if one is called, with a demand for a revision of the finance laws. It is considered unlikely by farm leaders that the existing high weight tax, eventually, however, some of them, after voting once against the 3 cent measure, changed and supported the bill.

The farm bureau in asking for an expression, avers that the present weight tax in 1929 will cost the motorists $20,732,275. The organization claims that a four-cent tax would yield $13,000,000 more in 1929 than a two-cent tax but that with the nominal weight tax fees proposed in the last legislature, the actual cost to motorists in that year would be $600,000 less than with the present weight tax and a two-cent gasoline tax. The present three-cent gas tax and weight tax would cost $6,600,000 more than the proposed four-cent tax and modified license scale, it was stated.

LA PORTE COMING WITH DEGREE TEAM

The visitors are said to exemplify the first degree in a most pleasing and effective manner and because of this reputation local members will turn out en masse. It will be an historic night in local lodge circles.

Walker Thanning has returned from Rochester, Minn., where he underwent treatment. His brother, Elmer, will remain at the Rochester hospital for several more weeks.

Buchanan Banks Pay $25,000.00 to Members of Christmas Clubs

A distinctly American institution that has developed with remarkable swiftness in the past few years is the Christmas Savings Club. It came into being of necessity, born of a desire on the part of United States bankers to be of real help to their clientele.

Each year in the past, along about the holiday time, countless applications came to them for small loans needed to take care of Christmas expenses, fuel bills, taxes and what not. Customers worthy of credit were accommodated with the loans which the bankers found were usually paid off in from one to a few months time.

An analysis of these accounts disclosed the fact that a very large proportion of persons receiving such loans could easily have set aside a small amount each week or month in the year to take care of these holiday expenses. Such desire or foresight was not usually exercised because of the lack of a concrete plan by which regular savings could be made. Then came the origination of the Christmas Savings clubs.

There was an immediate response with announcement of the plan and clubs were formed, growing in membership and financial strength from year to year. About eight years ago the two Buchanan banks advanced the Christmas Savings club plan meeting with a satisfactory response. As the advantages of such systematic savings became manifest to the members, the club grew rapidly, the banner year finds the savings in the Buchanan clubs will total not far from $25,000. This money will soon be paid out in Buchanan.

Clubs are formed in amounts of $12.50, $25.00, $50.00, $100.00 and $25.00, these amounts being accumulated by weekly or monthly deposits, drawing interest at four percent from the time the deposits are made. Then comes the Christmas season with its demand for ready cash and at this time the banks mail out checks to club members covering the amount of their club subscription plus the interest earnings, bringing happiness to club members, dispelling the worries incident to the financing of Christmas expenses and end of the year needs.

The most commendable feature of the club savings plan is the inclusion of the saving habit, leading parents and children to set aside a small amount from time to time against future needs.

It is not correct to assume that all of the money accumulated during the year in Christmas clubs is spent on Christmas shopping and for incidental holiday expenses. In Buchanan the banks have found that approximately forty per cent of the money thus saved is returned to permanent savings accounts, thereby building a solid financial foundation for the acquiring of a home, to accumulate means to educate the children or to provide funds with which to make comfortable declining years.

The two banks are now organizing the savings clubs for 1928 and indications are that the membership in these clubs will be far larger than in the years past. Mrs. May Eisenhart whose skull was fractured recently in a fall down steps, is recovering slowly at Kalamazoo.

CIVIL WAR VET, 80 SEEKING DIVORCE

STRIFE OF MARRIED LIFE IS TOO MUCH FOR THE HERO OF CHICKAMAUGA

The strife of married life has proven too rough for William C. Evick, 80 year old Civil War veteran of Niles, who has filed suit for divorce from his wife, Lillian, who is more than 70 years of age. Evick, who tells how he routed the rebels at Chickamauga, married Oct. 9, 1925—married, his wife says, so he could get her property and for no other reason.

He filed suit for divorce November 3, charging she threatened to kill him and that failed, to poison him. Once, she attacked him while he slept. In her answer she prepared her will before marrying Evick and did not name him as beneficiary. "A few weeks after our marriage he found it out and tried to make me change the will by threatening me," she declared.

Her property consists of a house and lot in Niles. Once he called police to remove her from her home but the officers took him away instead after learning it was her property, she said.

Despite his age, Evick had his loves, his wife related in her reply. "He refused to listen to her pleas to give up the 'other woman' and boasted that her love rival would 'chug you on the nose.'"

Mrs. Evick also filed a petition for attorney fees and temporary alimony, declaring that she is "old, decrepit, unable to work and dependent upon charity."

Evick, one of Niles' pioneers, receives a war pension of $72 a month and is well able to care for her, she charged.

BLOOD AND THUNDER NOVELS DO NOT THRILL BUCHANAN'S BOYS

SUPERMEN WHO FLY AIROPLANES AND SWIM CHANNELS ARE HEROES

Gone are the days when the old blood and thunder books held the youthful readers spellbound for long hours. Not a vestige of those enchanting volumes can be found on public library shelf here or in any boy's private collection.

Horatio Alger, the Rollo series, Nick Carter and all the other old favorites have expired and in their stead have come a new type of supermen heroes who are aviation aces, prize-fight champions, long distance swimmers and football and baseball players.

Not a trace of the old favorites could be found in the children's corner shelves at the Township library and boys of the village when questioned on these authors, thought Greek of some other archaic language was being spoken. But at the mention of Radio boys, the Boy Scout series, and the Airplane Boys their eyes lit up.

Nicholas Carter, the famous spinner of detective mystery yarns whose thrilling tales beguiled

CLARK BASKETEERS START OFF SEASON

TEAM THIS YEAR PROMISES AN EVEN BETTER RECORD THAN THE 1927 SQUAD

Independent basketball fans have ushered in the winter season with organization of the group this week. Officers have been selected and schedules are being worked out for the season.

The Clark team, who laid claim to the 1926-27 crown for Southwestern Michigan, has an unusual group of recruits this year, that even promises to outshine the last year's quintet.

Some of the strongest clubs in southwestern Michigan and northwestern Indiana will be met in a schedule which will open next week with a team not yet named. Tentative games have been listed with the Mishawaka Bull Dogs, a new team composed largely of Mishawaka high school stars; Elkhart Moose and Berrien Springs Independents.

Seven seasoned veterans will compete against a field of a score or more of other candidates for positions on this year's quintet.

ed more than one wee hour of the early morn for boys (and their elders, too, it has been said) of twenty years ago is passe now.

Horatio Alger, prolific writer of boy's fairy stories, wherein youth conquered almost unsurmountable obstacles to climb eventually toward the shining goal of success, also is shelved.

Harry Castelman, who ground out engrossing novels of heroic exploits during the Civil war and sugared them sweetly with sentimental nonsense has been almost forgotten, along with the scores of other writers for whose books dad once hoarded his pennies.

The youth of today wants his reading material reeking with football and baseball supermen. Aviation aces, polo kings, prize fight champions, long distance swimmers and even lowly newspaper reporters are demanded now as heroes.

Only a few of the old favorite classics remain as a common subject between the youthful readers of long ago and those of today. Mark Twain and Robert Louis Stevenson remain unshaken in the place they reached among young book worms a quarter of a century ago.

Ward Conrad and Walter Pfingst, high school stars who joined the team in mid season last winter, will again be members of the team. Other veterans whose names will grace this year's roster are: Proud, Chain, Bachman, Karling and Cleveland. Most promising among the recruits are: Dale Chubb, Dick Lister and Marshall Dreitzler, former high school stars.

CANCELLATION OF GRID GAMES TALKED

GAMBLING IS SAID TO BE ONE REASON FOR THE TWIN CITY PROPOSAL

Formal action on the question of cancelling athletic contests between St. Joseph and Benton Harbor high schools for the next five years is expected at the meeting of the St. Joseph Board of Education.

High school officials were reluctant to affirm or deny the report, fearing that football fans might construe the proposal as an effort to form an alibi for St. Joseph's 14 to 7 defeat on Thanksgiving day.

The question of cancellation had been talked over at a conference of officials prior to this year's Turkey Day game.

The same situation is developing that necessitated temporary break in athletic relationships between the two schools a few years ago and the annual football and basketball games between St. Joseph and Benton Harbor are gradually falling under the influence of professional gamblers, charged one member of the St. Joseph school board.

Investigation into these charges revealed that a day or so prior to this year's St. Joseph-Benton Harbor football game, one better confronted a school board member with a wager that Bennie Sims, fleet-footed backfield star of the "maize and blue" would not be able to last through the entire game.

Sims managed to play the game out but was terribly bruised at the finish. Non-partisan fans were free to admit he suffered much unnecessary roughness on several occasions.

Shortly after the wager offer was made to the St. Joseph school board member Attorney R. E. Barr, president of the board, and Supt. E. P. Clarke went into a conference with Dr. E. R. Taylor, president of the Benton Harbor board, and Supt. Sidney Mitchell. The facts in the case were laid before them and officials in Thursday's game instructed to exercise special alertness for dirty playing.

Formal action on the question of cancelling athletic contests between St. Joseph and Benton Harbor high schools for the next five years is expected at the meeting of the St. Joseph Board of Education.

High school officials were reluctant to affirm or deny the report, fearing that football fans might construe the proposal as an effort to form an alibi for St. Joseph's 14 to 7 defeat on Thanksgiving day.

Take a hint from Mother Nature in planning color effects in your clothing. Bright colors in small areas are used with dull colors such as are most easily worn by the average person, to give interest and accent. Greys, greens, browns, tans, and soft blues are used for backgrounds frequently, while a touch of red, orange, vivid blue or purple may be sufficient to brighten up the whole effect. To tell whether a color is becoming to you, select material of different colors and drape them over your shoulders so you can study the effect.

"We Serve Michigan"

Present-Day Industrial Needs Demand the Movement of Freight at Express Service Speed of Former Years.

WITH the war-time expansion in America, the greater post-war costs of materials and supplies and the higher wage levels, etc., the industrialist, the distributor and the consuming public, now require a more expedited service for freight than at any time, anywhere.

THIS means that the speed expected of the railroads in handling of all freight now is almost the former standard of express service provided in before-the-war days. The exigencies of the conflict showed the Nation, first, the urgency of speed and, secondly, the benefits that accrue. The accelerated movement of the war days was continued in the readjustment period and business men soon realized their economic advantage. Tremendous outlays for improvements and betterments gave these an added incentive in the days that followed the close of the war. New records are being made annually and the good that flows from these is reflected in the greater prosperity that every class that makes up our society now enjoys.

THE railroad traffic unit — the ton of freight — is traveling more miles each day than ever.

THE additional mileage made by each ton of freight per diem means that the manufacturer can utilize his plant to greater advantage by clearing his shipping room regularly and carrying a smaller inventory in his stock room. The distributor at destination can likewise carry on business with a smaller inventory inasmuch as he is always certain of regular deliveries. The manufacturer puts through his bills of lading at the bank several days earlier than before and so his capital is turned over oftener.

ALL of these conditions mean benefits to every stratum of society. THE railroad worker is paid higher wages for his services, since the railroads are doing more work, and their unit of cost makes this possible. THE consumer of commodities finds that prices are kept down to a lower level than would otherwise obtain. THE business man, who ventures into modern business, can carry on with a smaller capital. ALL, therefore, share in the benefits of the accelerated freight service. NOWHERE else under heaven's blue canopy is this so apparent. NOWHERE in America are these conditions more applicable than in the territory served by the Michigan Railroad Association, the industrial area which is making the greatest forward strides on this continent.

LOCAL MEN GO TO BASKETBALL CLINIC

SPORTS OFFICIALS TALK AT GET TOGETHER MEET OF H. S. ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The first annual basketball clinic at the Y. M. C. A. in South Bend Monday evening was attended by Principal E. H. Ormiston, Coach Harold Bradford, George Wynn, Alfred White and Donald Ferguson.

Dinner was served at seven o'clock. The toastmaster of the evening was John Stahr, official and sport-writer. He introduced G. A. Cooper, director of physical education at the Y. M. C. A. who gave a talk on "The St. Joseph Valley Officials Association."

He said the objectives of this association were as follows: 1 to promote good sportsmanship and a better understanding between coaches and officials; 2 to create uniform interpretation of the rules in the various sports and to raise the standard of officiating; 3 to be of service to schools in aiding them in securing officials; 4 to affiliate with the specific national organization in the various sports.

L. Walters gave a short talk on the "Relations of the Principal and the Official." Mr. Walters is principal of Goshen High school. Next A. L. Trester, permanent secretary of the Indiana High Schools Athletic association, gave a fine talk on that association.

Knute Rockne was scheduled to give a talk on "What a Coach Expects of an Official" but as Mr. Rockne was detained in Chicago on business, Mr. Smith, superintendent of Etna, Green took his place and filled in a fine manner. All present then withdrew to the gymnasium where an exhibition of basketball was put on by members of the South Bend High School Varsity.

Everybody went away hoping for a repetition of the same thing next year.

STATE PRINCIPALS TO GATHER TODAY

COACH YOST, FRANK CODY AND OTHER MEN TO BE AT LANSING THIS WEEK

Three hundred principals from all over the state will be present, including Principal E. H. Ormiston of Buchanan, at the annual convention of the principals division of the M. E. A. on Dec. 1 and 2, at the Hotel Olds in Lansing.

The first half day will be spent discussing high school athletic associations. The business of the association will be taken care of at this time. Difficult problems that arise in the administration of the school from the principal's viewpoint, will be discussed.

Two new representatives on the state representative council will be elected from schools having less than three hundred students. This section of the state is going to push for one of these administrators.

Two banquets are to be given for the entertainment of the guests, featuring addresses given by Coach Yost of the University of Michigan and Superintendent of Schools of Detroit, Frank Cody. Mr. Cody is the president of the M. E. A.; also State Superintendent of Public Instruction Pierce will help to make the program more interesting. We expect Mr. Ormiston to be filled with new ideas on his return.

SELECT 4 BEST SENIOR SONNETS

FOURTH YEAR STUDENTS CHOOSE VARIETY OF SUBJECTS FOR COMPOSITIONS

In the Senior English class, the students have been occupied for some time with the study of the Sonnet. As has been the custom this year, the work was made more interesting and more educational by the composition of original sonnets along this line.

These four have been chosen as the most successful attempts submitted. No one of the sonnets could be fairly singled out as being the best, for they are all practically equal in quality and endeavor.

Amazica By Peggy Chamberlain Alone upon a land unknown before, Alone and unprotected, there they stood, 'twere they, the Pilgrims, true and good, Who came from countries far and traveled o'er; Who traveled 'til weary and footsore, And made a country, then, as best they could-- A country growing ever as it should; A land prospering always more and more. And now if only they could see once more

The country that they started for us then, Not knowing what it would turn out to be, But only hoping ever o'er and o'er; It would please them more than our words or pen Could tell them what was done for you and me.

Wind By Donald Wood Wind! Calm, restless, gusty, traveled, Servant and destroyer of man-made things, Where is your home of sudden wings, On which so sudden you do ride From pole to pole o'er every country side?

Your power is as the fire we prize, son, A servant kind and true when leashed, But loose, a boundless demon as the mere-wives son. Thou messenger! who bringeth us both rain and snow And the sky clean sweeps from side to side. Then wild you go on with your band And reek queer stunts of which often we know. More do we gain from your daily ride Than your playful frolics o'er our land.

Impressions By Robert French It was night, and the wind was whipping The trees to a frenzy. It was cold, And the snow was falling, covering the road And those whom the frost was nipping, Homeward I now was traveling, And would soon be again in the fold. But on my heart there rested a load Of school-boy troubles and woes, entangling Me, till I scarcely knew which way to turn. Suddenly I raised my head and saw A puddle in my path and discerned It was freezing again after the thaw; And realized that there was still a God, Who was watching over us all.

The Tree By Bertha Desenberg Up toward heaven grows the tree, Seeing light and love and cheer, Brave and strong, without a fear, Looking down on you and me. Magnificent and sturdy tree, Shading the delicate white flower Of the wood, thru the sunny hour, Looking out across the sea. Would you with a little match, Try, from God that tree to snatch? Ay, and saw and manly strength, May o'erpower the tree at length; But 'tis His--just ours to use. Enjoy and nourish it instead!

Miss Frances Willard of South Bend, spent Thanksgiving day at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Willard.

Our spelling contest comes in December when Buchanan will be matched with Berrien Springs. Our fifth grade team will go to Berrien, while their sixth, comes to Buchanan.

Last Monday morning, Mrs. Heim had the pupils give ten reasons why money should be saved. This was used both as a language drill and a writing lesson and incidentally paved the way for 100 per cent room on Tuesday.

Our 8th grade, last week, handed in their written work on topics given them in the book, plus the topic, "Our Junior High." The latter proved a wide field for their imagination, and some very good essays resulted.

"THE MICROPHONE"

NEWS OF STUDENT LIFE GATHERED AND WRITTEN BY THE UPPER CLASSMEN OF BUCHANAN HIGH SCHOOL

SCHOOL EDITORS RESUME DUTIES

TEMPORARY STAFF IS LAuded FOR ITS WORK DURING 6 MONTHS SERVICE

The regular Microphone staff is back. They returned to the job with this week's issue of the paper.

"We would like to take this opportunity to thank and congratulate the substitute staff for its fine work. The standard of work which they did will make the regulars do some writing if they continue to publish as fine a school paper as the substitute staff has done," said Bob French, editor-in-chief.

Miss Moffet, who acted as the advisor for the "sub" staff will continue in that capacity as Mrs. Dunbar, our former advisor is leaving this week for California.

Dorothy Charles who so capably directed the "sub" staff, will resume her duties as society editor. Perhaps a word about some of the other "sub" writers should be said.

The sport writings by Donald Wood showed a vast amount of work. He attended every game and compiled all the statistics along with the play by play accounts. Only those who have "covered" football games as other athletic contests, can fully appreciate the difficulty of this work.

Everdine Keating and Kathryn Allen both writing articles for the first time, did commendable work as social and routine editors.

The regular staff, therefore, come back to work ready to tackle the job once more.

PHOTOS FEATURE ANNUAL OF 1928

INDIVIDUAL PICTURES OF 17 FOOTBALL MEN IS INNOVATION THIS YEAR

"Look pleasant please," the camera clicks and the evidence against many students will appear in the 1928 edition of "The Pines," Buchanan High school's annual.

Many groups are being photographed this week in preparation for the compiling of the material for the volume. In fact, the staff declares that pictures will this year be a special feature of the book.

One of the outstanding projects is the photographing of the 17 men on the first squad in football in individual poses. This is a piece of work never before attempted by the staffs of former years.

The proceeds from the more than successful Senior play, "Smilin' Through" are to be used to pay for the added expense of taking the various pictures.

The staff led by Bob French and George Wynn has been supervising the taking of the Junior and Senior photos.

No price has yet been set on this year's annual, although a sum satisfactory to everyone is promised by the staff.

PHI KAPPAS HOLD INITIAL MEET AT CHAS. KING HOME

The first meeting of the Phi Kappa was held at the home of Charles L. King Monday evening. Roll call was answered to by current events and the meeting continued with talks upon present day famous men given by members of the organization. A drill in Parliamentary order was next in order, after which came the business meeting.

During the discussion which followed, Bertha Desenberg and Glenn Whitaker, members of the debating team, were proposed as new members of the organization. Lovely refreshments did much toward making the meeting a cheerful one. Ice cream and cake were served together with dates and hot chocolate.

STUDENTS AND TEACHER ATTEND STOCK SHOW

Mr. Muir and his five students, George Eckelbarger, Alfred Deeds, Valmore Snacke, Robert Koeninghof and Will Bowers, drove to Chicago Wednesday. They went to attend the big annual stock show at the stock yards.

Mr. Muir's agricultural classes sent in Nov. 19, one half dozen different samples of wheat, oats, rye and barley for the school grain contests at the show.

The party of agriculturists returned late Wednesday night, tired and happy after seeing the cream of the nation's farms.

SENIORS CROWNED SOCCER CHAMPS

NEW GAME PROVES A BIG DRAWING CARD AMONG THE GIRLS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL

Senior girls of Buchanan high school emerged victorious from the interclass soccer series Tuesday night, conquering Juniors in the game.

This year marked the inauguration of a new game for the girls of the high school--soccer. Miss Allington, the new physical education instructor, taught the girls the rudiments of the game in the gym classes. Interest increased and all four classes had formed teams. The teams become so boastful of the prowess that a series was arranged to decide who really had the best team.

The scores of the first round showed the Juniors and Seniors much better than their underclass opponents, the Sophomores and Freshmen. In the second round the Juniors and Seniors exchanged opponents and again won decisively.

The finals of the series therefore, pitted the Juniors and Seniors defending the opposite ends of the field. One game was played and resulted in a tie, 0 to 0.

Marvin Mann of Goshen, spent Thanksgiving Day here with relatives and friends.

CASSOPOLIS COMES HERE FOR BASKETBALL TILT TOMORROW

WHOLE TEAM FROM LANKY "HADO" TO LITTLE "PUNK" READY FOR FREADY

Basketball, the popularity-gaining court game, and its eventful season is here again. Soon will be heard once more the wild cheers of an enthusiastic crowd and the tap, tap of the ball on a hardwood floor as some long wily lad takes it down the floor for a goal. Once more people will sit breathless watching lightning-like passes cross and recess among five young huskies; Bas-ketball--one of the greatest developments of the manhood, moral and physical of the youth of today. And thrills--Oh man!

The first game will be played on the home floor tomorrow night when Cassopolis brings a strong team here. A preliminary will precede the main event.

Those who remember the tarring, tearing, and at. em second team of last year are undoubtedly a most successful season for the Maroon and White. This second squad last year is back again to a man and since they realize that the honor of B. H. S. now rests upon their shoulders they should be material enough for a great team. But green material or experienced, no matter, Coach Bradford has proven himself a real mentor at developing the best that is in a squad.

"Hado" Pierce, lanky center, is back with a lot of speed, this year, and "Bado" Knight the basket-making guard, will do his bit again this season. These boys, though not actually winners, are called such by the fans, and are

GRADE STUDENTS COMPOSE VERSES

SIXTH AND EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS WRITE OF HOWE AND AUTUMN

The old saying that poets are born and not made seems to be a fallacy, for grammar school students. The following verses were written by Jane Briney, who is in Davis Reams' sixth grade room and Ted Anabel, who is in the eighth grade.

Coming Home By Jane Briney It was in the Spring time of the year, Coming home along the dusty road And the shadows cast along, As if the sun were going down, Slowly coming home.

Coming down around the bend, Soon will we be at the home; Where we peacefully can rest Growing slower at every step Slowly coming home.

Autumn By Ted Anabel In Autumn when trees are bare, When the birds fly here and there

When the birds fly East and West, That's the time that I like best.

In Autumn when the wind doth blow, And whirling down there comes the snow, When the boys slide down the hill, That is when I get my thrill.

Whither, do the snowflakes flow, When into the ground they go? Do the flakes fly up again Or do they disappear right then?

I'm sure I do not know at all-- In Autumn, whether it is Fall; But I'll say this, and say it plain, I'll be glad when Autumn comes again.

The B. G. U. Sorority will be entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Blanche Proud. Members will receive instructions in the art of painting.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MRS. DUNBAR

SEND OFF IS GIVEN HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER WHO IS LEAVING FOR THE WEST

A surprise party! And it surely was a surprise! Mrs. Dunbar was terribly startled and pleased by the unexpected statement at which she discovered herself to be the guest of honor.

The surprise was in the form of a delicious dinner Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Ormiston, prepared and served by Mrs. Ormiston and Mrs. Muir. The guests, including all members of the high school faculty, were assembled to bid farewell to a friend and fellow faculty member who leaves to join her husband in Florida, at the end of this week. Despite the gayety of the festivity all were just a little mournful at heart when they thought of having to part with so excellent and accomplished an individual, and one, moreover, who is so generally liked and admired by all who have the pleasure of working with her in any way.

The greatest surprise of all came when the guest was presented with a handsome beaded bag to be kept as a remembrance of old and true friends--the Buchanan High school faculty. The evening was spent in playing games and with other forms of merriment. To add spice and interest to her trip, Mrs. Dunbar was given, by each guest present, a "train letter," written during the course of the evening and to be read when her journey becomes tiresome, as she travels to the land of sunshine and glistening oranges.

From the 8th grade have come up a number of very green but nevertheless promising youngsters who know their stuff since they had experience on the Junior high team last year and by the way, while basketball occupies our minds it might be a good idea to watch that team again this year.

The second string will probably be composed of those Freshmen and they are determined to make a record which will compare favorably with the first team's.

FOOTBALL FEAST THURSDAY NIGHT TO HAVE MENU OF PEP, FUN, FOOD

ALL JOLLY GOOD FELLOWS AND TOWNSMEN TO HONOR HEROES OF GRIDIRON

The football banquet to be given on Thursday evening, Dec. 8, at 8:30 in the high school gymnasium, has resolved itself into something much more important and interesting than were the former expectations. Owing to the reason for giving this banquet, everyone has been vitally interested in its preparations.

The chief feature of the evening is a talk upon some subject pertaining to athletics by the State Director of Athletics from Lansing, Mr. Thompson. However, many interesting short talks and other forms of entertainment are scheduled for that evening of merriment. All plans for the "eat" are under the auspices of the Girls' Athletic association, who have been aiding and boosting the boys during the entire football season.

The guests of the evening will be the football boys, but anyone else desiring to attend the banquet are cordially invited to do so. Arrangements for the occasion have been made in such a manner that everyone, whether in any way connected with the school or not, will gain pleasure from it. Those interested in athletics are especially urged not to miss this entertainment for it is to be educational as well.

Tickets may be obtained at Fred Mead's Barber shop or Glenn Smith's store. Because a time limit has been set upon the sale of tickets, it will be necessary for everyone to buy his ticket as soon as possible.

LOCAL TEACHER ON CHAMP TEAM

LEADING HOCKEY PLAYERS FROM MIDDLE WEST TO HOLD THREE DAY TOURNEY

Mary Jo Allington, physical education director of Buchanan high school, is among the group of leading women field hockey players of the middle west who participated in a three day round robin series at Chicago over Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Allington joined a group of players who came from Battle Creek in a special chartered bus at Benton Harbor Wednesday evening. She was goal keeper in the Battle Creek group of players and has been practicing each week end at Battle Creek in preparation for the event.

The series decided who would represent this section in the United States field hockey championships at St. Louis on Dec. 2, 3, and 4.

The playing was held at Washington park on the initial day with the two last rounds finished off at Evanston at Dyche stadium.

More than 100 girls and women representing Chicago, Urbana, Madison, Milwaukee, Battle Creek and St. Louis were entered in the tournament. Battle Creek clashed with Chicago on field No. 2 on the opening day.

FROM THE MIDDLE WEST The first team sent to St. Louis consisted of a large portion of Chicago women, several from the Battle Creek players listed on the second team.

DEBATERS MEET FORMIDABLE FOE

STEVENSVILLE WILL BE THE NEXT OPPONENTS IN THE NORTH HIGH SCHOOL

Buchanan's next debating opponents will be Stevensville. The debate will be held at Stevensville with Buchanan upholding the affirmative and Stevensville team the negative.

The date originally set was Dec. 9, but as this conflicted with the Benton Harbor basketball game the debate will be held earlier in the week.

The exact strength of the Stevensville team is not known, although it is known that their team is composed of veterans. Buchanan, it will be remembered, won a unanimous decision from Downagac in their first debate but in Stevensville they are apt to find themselves up against a team that will tax their debating strength to the utmost. Buchanan's debating teams have always been a credit to her school, give our hearty support to the team that journeys north.

GRADUATION

STUDENT EDITORIAL

Football The football season is over! To the boys it means a let-up in hard workouts and strict training rules. To the high school it means the completion of a very successful season and that basketball is "just around the corner."

But what does the season mean to the town, to the community to which these boys belong? Football is a builder of moral fibre and consequently good citizenship. The boys have exemplified this in all their games by their hard, fast, clean playing. They have learned that the fruits of victory are much sweeter if they are fairly and cleanly earned. They have learned to be self-reliant and at the same time to co-operate with their team mates. They have learned the importance of being physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight. The value of these lessons, if carried no farther than through the season, is an asset to the community, but it goes farther than that. It extends on through the player's lives and permeates all of their later activities. When they become citizens of this great nation they will be good citizens in every sense of the word. These pigskin warriors will be Buchanan's biggest boosters before many years so let us co-operate with the public school and support this community investment remembering that the returns are large.

The date originally set was Dec. 9, but as this conflicted with the Benton Harbor basketball game the debate will be held earlier in the week.

The exact strength of the Stevensville team is not known, although it is known that their team is composed of veterans. Buchanan, it will be remembered, won a unanimous decision from Downagac in their first debate but in Stevensville they are apt to find themselves up against a team that will tax their debating strength to the utmost. Buchanan's debating teams have always been a credit to her school, give our hearty support to the team that journeys north.

LOCAL TEACHER ON CHAMP TEAM LEADING HOCKEY PLAYERS FROM MIDDLE WEST TO HOLD THREE DAY TOURNEY

Mary Jo Allington, physical education director of Buchanan high school, is among the group of leading women field hockey players of the middle west who participated in a three day round robin series at Chicago over Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Allington joined a group of players who came from Battle Creek in a special chartered bus at Benton Harbor Wednesday evening. She was goal keeper in the Battle Creek group of players and has been practicing each week end at Battle Creek in preparation for the event.

The series decided who would represent this section in the United States field hockey championships at St. Louis on Dec. 2, 3, and 4.

The playing was held at Washington park on the initial day with the two last rounds finished off at Evanston at Dyche stadium.

More than 100 girls and women representing Chicago, Urbana, Madison, Milwaukee, Battle Creek and St. Louis were entered in the tournament. Battle Creek clashed with Chicago on field No. 2 on the opening day.

FROM THE MIDDLE WEST The first team sent to St. Louis consisted of a large portion of Chicago women, several from the Battle Creek players listed on the second team.

GRADUATION

STUDENT EDITORIAL

Football The football season is over! To the boys it means a let-up in hard workouts and strict training rules. To the high school it means the completion of a very successful season and that basketball is "just around the corner."

But what does the season mean to the town, to the community to which these boys belong? Football is a builder of moral fibre and consequently good citizenship. The boys have exemplified this in all their games by their hard, fast, clean playing. They have learned that the fruits of victory are much sweeter if they are fairly and cleanly earned. They have learned to be self-reliant and at the same time to co-operate with their team mates. They have learned the importance of being physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight. The value of these lessons, if carried no farther than through the season, is an asset to the community, but it goes farther than that. It extends on through the player's lives and permeates all of their later activities. When they become citizens of this great nation they will be good citizens in every sense of the word. These pigskin warriors will be Buchanan's biggest boosters before many years so let us co-operate with the public school and support this community investment remembering that the returns are large.

NEW-FASHIONED GIFT GIVING OIBLES AND SNARES HAS MANY F

DON'T GIVE FATHER A WASH BOARD, HE WILL BE LEFT "CLEAN"

Not so long ago that Ashley Carlisle, Sam Bunker and other older citizens would have difficulty in remembering it, the matter of gift-choosing was comparatively easy.

Aunt Mary could always be relied upon to send a knit muffler, so that little Johnny wouldn't catch cold and in return the same venerable lady would have been shocked right out of her rocker if she had received a gift other than her "embroidered tidy that reminds her of Yuletide's arrival."

At those days Grandfather awaited with trepidation the simultaneous arrival of Christmas and the inevitable knit socks from his granddaughter. And Dad always got his perennial red-white-and-blue gullies.

Weeks before Christmas Mother walked about the parlor moving a chair here and there and speculating as to the best place to set the painted china dish that would be sure to come.

It's all changed now. Since the arrival of the movies Aunt Mary no longer wishes for a tidy for her best fireside rocker, grandfather wants a "B" battery and no knit socks. Dad wants a pair of good warm automobile gloves and mother has her eye on a whole set of pastel tinted crystal ware. As for the kids, nothing short of a miniature auto will satisfy.

What is a person to do? The list of Christmas wants has grown so long that it in the end would be easier to suggest what not to give.

Don't send Grandfather a football, he has enough to kick about already.

Don't send Grandmother a shawl. She has a boyish bob and the two don't somehow fit together.

Don't send Dad a washboard. Christmas will leave him plenty clean.

Don't send mother a smoking jacket. She is smoking too many cigarettes as it is.

Don't send Mrs. Jones the jelly dish that Mrs. Smith sent you unless you first remove the jelly that came with it.

Don't attempt to select a pair of tuckers for Johnny. Choosing your own will give him the opportunity of expressing himself in art.

Don't send Daughter a hair ribbon, although it may be the only thing that distinguishes her from her sex.

And now that we've reduced the number of possible gifts to 9,999, 999 the Christmas gift problem is well on the way toward solution.

CONGREGATIONAL PASTOR GOES TO BARODA, BRIDGMAN

The call extended to the Rev. Thomas Oinslie of Traverse City by the Baroda and Bridgman Congregational churches has been accepted and the pastor will move to his new field of work in about two weeks.

In the pastor's family are his wife, a son, 15, and a daughter, who is five years old.

The Congregational churches have been without a pastor for some time but Sunday school has met regularly and members have made a successful effort to hold other organizations together.

At one time the churches were under the pastorate of the Rev. J. O. Nelson, now secretary of the Berrien County Sunday School association.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO HOLD S. S. RALLY

Services Sunday were held at 11 a. m. at Bridgman and at 7:30 p. m. at Baroda.

KIN CELEBRATE DOUBLE BIRTHDAY

BIRTHDAYS ARE ON THE SAME DAY WITH FORTY YEARS DIFFERENCE IN THEIR AGES

Grandfather and grandson celebrated their birthdays together Sunday when James Bradley and George Hartline were guests at a dinner at the former's home near the Coveny school.

Exactly 40 years difference in their ages lie between grandfather and grandson, the former being 56 and the latter 16.

A pot luck dinner was served and every one had a good time. Those present were Mrs. Chester Buntin of Millcreek, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bradley and family of Michigan City, a son; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Euler and family of LaPorte, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hartline and family of Buchanan, both women are daughters, also a step daughter, Mrs. Dec Brown and daughter, of LaPorte and a brother, William Bradley of South Bend were present with Mrs. Frank Hartline.

FIRE CHIEF FOR ST. JOSEPH DIES

HE FOUGHT FIRES FOR 36 YEARS AND SERVED AS HEAD SINCE 1899

Funeral services for Harry Hughson, St. Joseph fire chief, were held last Friday afternoon at 2 in the First Congregational church at St. Joseph with the Rev. George Horst officiating.

A fire truck, with an honor escort of uniformed firemen, carried the body of Mr. Hughson to its final resting place in the city cemetery where Masonic services were conducted.

Heart trouble was the cause of Mr. Hughson's death. He had been advised by doctors as long as ten years ago to give up his position as fire chief and to avoid excitement. But his love for the fire department and his devotion to duty proved stronger and with the remark, "When my time comes to go, I hope I can die in the line of duty," he stuck to his post.

Warnings of his physicians came true. Over exertion in fighting the $75,000 blaze that totally razed the old Wells-Higman warehouse in St. Joseph, brought on a heart attack that sent the chief to the St. Joseph sanitarium and resulted in his death.

Born in Springport, Michigan, in December 1868 he came as a child with his parents to St. Joseph. He was the only boy and the youngest of a family of four. Besides his widow he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Hiram Wilson of St. Joseph and Mrs. Cora Brown of Chicago.

Mr. Hughson had been a member of the volunteer fire department for 36 years. He joined in 1891 when it was known as the T. T. Ransom Fire company with the late Joseph Hone as chief.

BUCHANAN WOMAN GRANTED DIVORCE

MRS. MABEL ROUSSELLE IS GIVEN CUSTODY OF HER TWO MINOR CHILDREN

A divorce has been granted to Mabel Rousselle in the Berrien county circuit court from Kingston Rousselle on grounds of extreme cruelty and non support.

Mrs. Rousselle was granted the custody of two minor children. She was represented by Attorney Stuart E. White of Niles.

Rose Eichler also obtained a divorce in circuit court from Henry Eichler on grounds of extreme cruelty. She was granted the custody of her minor daughter. The Eichlers reside near the Michigan State line south of Niles.

In 1896 he was made secretary of the department and in 1899 was elevated to the office of chief. The fire chief had witnessed the old hand-drawn fire apparatus give way to horse-drawn equipment and then to motorized trucks. Through his efforts the department was built up into one of the most efficient and best equipped of its size in this section of the state.

PRINCESS THEATER

The December program at the Princess theater proves that Manager Homer P. Morley is keeping up as high an average as he did in 1926, when he presented here 65 per cent of the outstanding pictures of the year.

The high point of the year will be reached next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when "Ben Hur," the greatest of all moving pictures, will be shown. The astonishing number of people required to film Gen. Lev Wallace's famous story is only equalled by the care with which the stars were chosen for the outstanding characters and the years that were taken to complete the masterpiece.

Ramon Novarro and May McAvoy, Francis X. Bushman, Betty Bronson and Carmel Myers are but a few of the great ones involved in the play. The tense life of the warring elements of the time of Christ, with all its brutalities, fierce religious clashings, and high adventures of the desert and city are pictured.

Last week Mr. Morley had the acute experience of having to turn many away, there not even being standing room. He is always looking for something different and good. In bringing the Grand Players to Buchanan he probably brought the best of the road companies, presenting melodrama of the old fashioned kind. The people "ate it up" with a gusto.

Among the bright lights this month are John Barrymore in "The Beloved Rogue," Lon Chaney in "Mockery," Dolores Costello in the old Civil War favorite, "The Heart of Maryland," Rudolph Schildgan is coming back in "The Bugle Call."

The December program opens

New Troy News Around

NEW TROY HOLDS FALL FESTIVAL

PARENT-TEACHERS AND THE STUDENTS JOIN IN A TWO-STORY EXHIBIT

The annual fall festival at the New Troy high school Dec. 2 and 3, promises to be the most elaborate event ever sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association.

Experience gained in former festivals will be used to advantage in making the big affair a success and many new features will be carried out in the booths that will line the school rooms.

The executive committee has decided upon the placing of booths. The first floor will be given over to food stuff with a cafeteria, hot dog booth, ice cream and pop stand as some of the attractions.

Seniors of the high school will hold a sale of delicious home made candy. Instead of the traditional fish pond, a sand pile will hold "treasures" for the younger patrons of the fair.

Canned goods and produce will also have a place among the first floor exhibits.

Christmas suggestions and a wide assortment of holiday gifts will be displayed on the second floor. There will be fancywork in many patterns and designs; handicraft produced by women of the community who have been studying the art; a variety of pottery, baskets and rugs and a white elephant booth which promises many delightful surprises.

Supper will be served both nights and an entertainment will be presented on Friday and Saturday evening.

Much interest is annually given to the agricultural exhibit which is a feature of the festival. Prizes, donated by men of the community, will be awarded before the opening of the fair and placed beside the winning exhibits.

VERDICT AFFECTS BEN'S "SIBERIA"

THE NORTHERN SETTLEMENT HAS REMAINED CLEAR OF COURTS

Just what Judge David's decision in the House of David case will do to the cult's colony at High Island remains to be seen.

The northern House of David settlement is pictured as the "Siberia" of the Israelites.

The island, four miles north of Beaver Island was once a valuable spot in upper Lake Michigan.

The greater part of the island was purchased 14 years ago by the House of David.

The November meeting of the Berrien County Medical Society held its monthly session last evening at the Four Flags hotel in Niles.

Dr. Louis Hirschman of Detroit, gave a paper on "The Rational Treatment of Internal Hemorrhoids."

Dr. Hirschman has an international reputation as a proctologist. His text book on this subject is a standard work.

His talk concluded a year of excellent post graduate lectures for the society.

Members of the medical fraternity from South Bend, Kalamazoo and other points in Cass county were sent special invitations.

Harold Pierce and Ronald Bolster spent Thanksgiving in Benton Harbor.

Men and women of the colony live separately in groups of four to six in their respective houses.

A graded school is maintained under the supervision of the county school commissioner and a bak-

ALEX WATSON OF THREE OAKS DIES

HAD BEEN SUCCESSFUL AS A BANKER AND AS A BUSINESS MAN THERE

Alex Watson, prominent Three Oaks citizen and father of Postmaster Watson of that place, died at 4 o'clock Monday morning.

His activities extended to many other fields. For years he was an active member of the Congregational church and he took great interest in educational affairs.

His marriage to Mary Weaver, a native of Holland, took place in September, 1872, and to them seven children were born.

It was in 1887 that Mr. Watson opened a market in Three Oaks, building up a large and prosperous business.

Among his business interests were large tracts of land owning about 300 acres of land in Galien and Three Oaks township.

Four of Mr. Watson's children, Nellie, Ada, Alice and Frederick, preceded him in death.

Two daughters and a son survive. They are Mrs. Clara Mae Gilgen of Detroit, Ethel Maude Watkins of Detroit, where she teaches in the public schools and Postmaster William H. Watson of Three Oaks.

GETS DRUNK CHARGE Fred Fedore, of Buchanan, was arrested Friday evening near French Paper mills at Niles, by Officer Lester Barbour on a charge of being intoxicated.

On Saturday morning when he was arraigned in Justice Hardy Lenson's court he entered a plea of guilty and paid of $5 and $3.70 court costs.

Valenti was arrested following the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Marie Valenti, who stepped between him and her son, Dominick Valenti, during a shooting match which climaxed a 12 year family feud at their farm on the evening of Sept. 20.

The Rising Sun shortly afterward was sold to pieces on Pyramid point near Leland and the Rosa Bell, a later purchase, floundered in a gale off Racine, Wis.

The colonists, being vegetarians, neither fish nor hunt and three years ago when squirrels did considerable damage to the crops 200 pairs which had been trapped were brought to the mainland by game wardens.

Members of the society have had many visitors from neighboring counties to hear these lectures.

Members of the medical fraternity from South Bend, Kalamazoo and other points in Cass county were sent special invitations.
