

VEIL IS LIFTED FROM THE MYSTERY SURROUNDING BOY'S DISAPPEARANCE

Now Here's the Proposition

THE HOME TOWN TEAM
By Haws

When the back boards plunk as the balls are sunk and its one, two, three for us. When the score is right and a win's in sight, we all can raise a fuss. For it makes it nice when the game's on ice, and all is a wedding bell. When the balls fall through like they ought to do, we all can whoop and yell.

But whether the score is less or more, and whether we're up or down. I'm the sort of a guy that, live or die, will root for my own home town.

Now, I am not down on the other town, for I know it is no crime. If they cast their lot in another spot that is not as good as mine.

They can't be blamed if their choice was lame and their judgment wasn't good. They can raise a noise for their own home boys as a loyal rooter should.

I'll give a hand when they chance to land, but takin' it as a rule I'll blow my steam for the home town team, like a rootin' tootin' fool.

And I'm durned if I flunk when the game looks sunk, for I'll root to the death.

I will rear and snort like a dead game goat till I root them out ahead.

Till the welkin cracks and my face is black, whatever the case may be.

For I know it pat, when I come to bat it's the home folks root for me.

Though they're in a hole and have lost the goal, and hope is fading gleam.

I'll save my noise for my own home boys, and I'll root for the home town team.

DEMONT FARM, OLD LANDMARK, IS SOLD

WAS "SHOW FARM" OF COUN-TY IN PIONEER DAYS;
SELLS FOR $10,000

A real estate change of interest which was completed here on Thursday was the sale of 80 acres by H. L. Sanford to Robert Camp. The farm sold is situated five miles northeast of Buchanan, and is best known here as the "old Demont farm." This farm is an old landmark of the district, having been sold by a previous owner to John Demont in 1858. It was developed by Demont until it was known as one of the "show farms" of this section in the pioneer days, and the buildings are so well preserved that it still ranks as one of the best improved farms of the community. The purchasers, Robert Camp and wife, have occupied the farm recently as tenants.

NO FOUL PLAY SURMISED

Discovery Ends Ordeal of Uncertainty which Grip-
ped Town Two Days

The mystery which has surrounded the disappearance of Martin Houck, six year old son of J. E. Houck of Berrien Springs, from his home Sunday afternoon, was cleared up Monday night when the bruised and mangled body of the boy was found in one of the wheel pits of the great Indiana and Michigan power plant, where he had evidently fallen on Sunday afternoon.

The boy had been seen last by his father, an employee at the power plant, about 11 a. m. Sunday, when the lad brought him his lunch and was dispatched home with instructions not to loiter. The disappearance of the lad was not discovered until the father arrived home at night.

State police and other officials were notified, and all the roads in this section were guarded, while searching parties of neighbors were organized to drag the river and comb the country.

When all these resources failed, the giant wheels of the plant were stopped and search instituted in the pits, where the body was at last located. Physicians who examined the remains said that there was no evidence of foul play.

Until the time of the discovery of the body, the citizens of Berrien Springs had acted on the theory of kidnapping, a report coming from South Bend that a stranger had been seen boarding a car with a boy answering to the description of the Houck lad. South Bend police had been interested in the case. County Sheriff Fred Bryant, however, discredited the kidnapping theory and asked the officials at the South Bend office of the electric company to grant permission to stop the machinery and drain the wheel pits.

About 2 p. m. Monday, Orville Fensler, superintendent of the hydro-maintenance department of the electric company, arrived from South Bend with a crew of twelve men. A three hour search was required to locate the body and two hours more were required to remove it from the pit. The pit was located near the concrete platform, where the father had been working removing ice from a grating when the lad brought his dinner. It is thought that he returned there to play after his father had sent him away. The funeral was held at 2 p. m. Tuesday from a Berrien Springs church, Rev. H. W. Helmer officiating, after which the body was taken to Mishawaka for interment.

FIRE FROM FLUE DESTROY HOME AT GALLEN TODAY

OTWELL FAMILY ARE DRIV-EN FROM HOME BY FIRE
THIS MORNING

Fire probably originating in a defective flue entirely destroyed the two story frame residence occupied by Harry Otwell and family, three miles southeast of Galien early this morning, the building and all contents being lost.

Mr. Otwell had built the fire about 5 a. m. and had returned to bed and dropped to sleep again. When he awoke some time later, he smelled smoke, and rushed up stairs to ascertain the cause, finding the entire upper story in flames. He ran down stairs again, and aroused the family, waking his three children ranging in age from 15 months to four years, and wrapping them in blankets. They are now living at Earl Roundy home and the Olive Branch Ladies Aid is sewing for them.

The building is the property of Frank Hollister of South Bend, and is entirely covered by insurance. The furniture was not covered.

Associate Editor of Record Arrives and Takes Over News End of Paper

Mr. Haves' delightful verse has been widely quoted in newspapers of the west. His stories and verse have been published in a number of periodicals of national circulation.

G. Boyle. The grounds of the Hills Corners church include an acre, both of which are to be planted next spring.

In the evening Professor Gregg spoke to an audience of 150 at Berrien Springs on ornamental planting of home grounds. Prof. Gregg's address was illustrated by slides and was listened to most attentively.

STATE MEN CHECK ROUTE OF M-60 HERE THIS WEEK

ACTIVITIES INDICATE THAT PAVING THROUGH HERE IS CONTEMPLATED

Possibilities of the construction of an early date of concrete paving on the incomplete link of M-60, from Tree Oaks through Buchanan to Niles were indicated Monday by the activities of two civil engineers representing the state highway department who were measuring the width and length of the road through this village, and securing data on the depth of foundations and condition of the paving in the town limits.

The incomplete section includes in all about 23 miles, of which bids have already been announced for the construction of paving on 12 miles, from Mendon west to Three Oaks.

The paving was installed last year on the section from New Buffalo to Three Oaks. Construction from Cassopolis toward Vandalia will also come up for early paving.

The building is the property of Frank Hollister of South Bend, and is entirely covered by insurance. The furniture was not covered.

KENNEDY OPENS BIG CHICK PLANT IN ROUGH BLDG.

Bakertown Hatchery is Moved Here; Enlarged and Modernized

BLOOD TEST FOR T. B.

Applies to State for Permit
To Install Poultry
Feed Plant

Installation of Buchanan's first modern poultry hatchery started this week at the quarters of the former Michigan Toy and Manufacturing company in the old Rough Wagon factory building on Main street, to which location Kent L. Kennedy is transferring his plant from Bakertown.

Mr. Kennedy is enlarging his plant, and by the end of next week plans to have three Mammoth incubators installed, with a total capacity of 14,000 chicks, and more units to come later.

The operator has been hatching chickens for the local trade for the past two years.

The establishment of a hatchery here that will accommodate the needs of all local poultrymen is a fine asset, which should not fail of patronage. Developments in the poultry business are now tending toward local hatcheries to which imported baby chicks are to be sent for community needs, avoiding thereby the heavy losses through the exposure which is not avoidable in such cases.

Kennedy disposes of his hatches at the door of his plant, which greatly insures the chances of healthy, undamaged chicks. His incubators are the last word in scientifically equipped hatching machines, fitted with steam heating systems and electric ventilators. He will handle the dual purpose and Mediterranean strains which are listed as standard breeds among the poultry men of the state and gets his eggs from local breeders of high class pure breeds.

An added service installed this year, which is of immense value to the customer will be the system of blood tests for white diarrhoea and tuberculosis.

Dependency on commercial hatcheries for baby chicks is fast becoming the rule among poultry raisers, who have found that the commercial raiser can produce the young stock more cheaply than can the small poultryman. Last year 25 per cent of all baby chicks in the United States were purchased from commercial hatcheries, as compared with only 20 per cent the previous year. The industry had its beginning 25 years ago, with the establishment of the first commercial hatchery in 1904.

Kennedy is also transferring here the retail feed store which he operated at Bakertown, and is enlarging his stock. He has applied to the state agricultural department for a license to blend his own poultry feeds. At present he is occupying only the two front rooms of the south-west corner of the building, but has arranged for additional space for plant enlargement as his business increases.

P. T. A. PARENTS WILL GO ON JOB MONDAY NIGHT

KINDERGARTEN ROOM WINS
FOR GETTING MOST OUT TO ATTEND MEET

Parents of Buchanan school children who want to demonstrate that they are "on the job" will have the opportunity by putting in appearance next Monday night at the meeting of the P. T. A., which resumes its sessions after two months interval, due to the interference of the holiday season.

The contest feature between the rooms of the school continues. Honors in this contest went last year to the Kindergarten room, which won first for encouraging the largest attendance of parents. The prize won was a copy of Stevenson's "Child's Garden of Verses."

The program of music will be as follows:
Vocal duet, Mrs. Ormiston and Mrs. Charles King
Piano solo, Mrs. Kelley
Vocal solo, Mrs. Thelma Peck
Violin solo, Harry Frew.

The following selection from the verse of Berton Braley is contributed by one of the members of the P. T. A. as a fine statement of the purpose of the organization:

Here's a mind and soul you've given to the busy world we live in.

Here's a body that is yours to mould and train.
Building home and mind and sinew call for all the best that's in you.

For the finest of your spirit and your brain.
If you'd raise a child that's splendid-vigor, joy and beauty blended,
Blithe and gallant—neither vulgar nor a snob—

Give yourself the preparation for children's education;
Know your job!

Give your skill and knowledge to it; love it; will make you glad to do it;
KNOW YOUR JOB!

The presence of every member of the Chamber of Commerce is urgently desired for this occasion.

Mrs. Arthur Wray, 115 Lake street, suffered a fracture of her left arm when she fell while getting into the family automobile one day last week.

BUCHANANITES IN CHICAGO TO MEET FOR ANNUAL FEED

Former Residents of This Place to Meet in
Windy City

BANQUET FEBRUARY 3

Gathering to be Served With Chicken Dinner in Home
Town Style

Former Buchanan people living in Chicago who are organized in the Chicago-Buchanan Society will again observe the now well established custom of the annual dinner, according to a notice received this week by the Record from the secretary, C. B. Roe, which explains the details. The letter in part follows:

Chicago, Jan. 11, '28.
The Record Co.,
Buchanan.

Dear Sirs and Friends:

In Chicago we have an organization called the Chicago-Buchanan society and it happens that I am at present its president. We have one annual dinner each year that falls on or near "Wood Chuck Day" each year. Also we hold a picnic or outing each summer. This annual dinner happens to fall on Friday, Feb. 3, this year, and will be held at "Miss Hastings' Tea Shop," at 118 West Monroe street, corner LaSalle street at 7 p. m. We always have a goodly representation from the old home with us at these dinners, and we hope this year to have still more of them. They will meet some "old timers," like myself, and have a chance to talk matters over with them, have a good chicken dinner, Buchanan style, hear a good musical program and some good snappy talks.

I would be very much pleased if some representative of your paper could be with us this year. You will receive a formal notice of it by mail later on, but if you see fit to make note of this dinner in the Record of the issue of next week, I would appreciate it very much and will say that many of our old friends from home will be welcome. If they are planning to come and want to know more about it, tell them to get in touch with Mayor Harry Brown, or with Bert Worthington, for both of them were with us last year and we claim them as regular members now.

The object of our meetings is for the one purpose of keeping in touch with each other and to talk over old times and friends and keep the home fires burning. Trusting I may have the pleasure of meeting you or some one from your paper, and with best personal wishes to you and to all old friends from "home" I am,
Yours very truly,
C. B. Roe, President.

BROTHER OF MRS. S. E. JOHNSON DIES IN MISSOURI MON.

PETER WILSON, MEMBER OF
HERE 40 YEARS AGO

Mrs. S. E. Johnson, 406 Berrien street, received word Monday of the death of her brother, Peter Wilson, at Green City, Missouri. Mr. Wilson, who was 82 years old at the time of his death, was the last surviving brother of Mrs. Johnson and was one of a family of five brothers and one sister who were born here and resided here for many years, but who with the exception of Mrs. Johnson scattered to different sections of the country many years ago.

Mr. Wilson went to Missouri 40 years ago, going directly to Green City, where he has since made his home. He will be remembered by many of the older residents of Buchanan.

Music Department Presents Annual Operatic Offer- ing at Auditorium

GOOD HOUSE TURNS OUT

Buchanan H. S. Caste Enters
Zestfully into Operatic
Production

Colorful youth scintillated and sparkled—not to say flamed,—on the auditorium stage at the high school last night, before an audience of appreciative friends and patrons who applauded every good bit and appeared to enjoy the production throughout.

The production was the annual operatic offering of the high school. This year a typical school theme was selected, with love and baseball and a web of intrigue intermingled through which the well selected caste danced and sang with evident zest in their work. Soft blue spotlights enveloped the singers during the frequent solos and duets that illustrated the more sentimental passages.

Quartets of young men typifying college youth twined arms and sang ballads in the blue moonlight and groups of dancing maidens furnished interludes.

The singing and acting was uniformly good, but the palm for clever presentation must go to Miss Dorothy Eisele, who took the comic part of the spectacle of old maid suffragette who nevertheless aspired to a husband in the person of the widowed college president. Miss Eisele showed more than usual voice quality and dramatic ability.

Donald Fette carrying the title part of "Benny of Binell" looked every inch the dashing college athlete hero, and won the audience with his natural and dignified stage presence. Plugging opposite him, Miss Betty Koller, berg as the daughter of the president and sweetheart of the college hero, acted her part most creditably, as did also her "pal" Berntha Desenberg as Helen Jordan, the acting and stage presence of both maidens being of good quality.

Herbert Ryan as "Tubby," the devoted understudy of the college hero, furnished some of the best comedy and acting of the evening. The two "Heavies," Fred Gom-bosi and Robert Roe, played the villainous roles with entire success and at times with good comic effects.

PAY TAXES AND AVOID A PENALTY SAYS TREASURER

Its time and past time to ante-nate in with your little contribution toward oiling the wheels of the governmental machinery for the coming year, according to Mrs. Emma Knight, who may be found in the rear rooms of the First National bank in a receptive mood. Taxes should be in not later than Feb. 15, according to Mrs. Knight, who carries the responsibility of balancing the books for the county supervisors not later than March 1. County officials may at any time order a penalty to hasten payments, Mrs. Knight stated, and it would be wise to pay early and avoid that danger.

BERRIEN SPRINGS ERA TELLS OF BUSINESS LIFE HERE YEARS AGO

(BERRIEN SPRINGS ERA)

The picture that American life presented to the eye two score years ago, especially from the standpoint of ladies' wearing apparel, will be easily conjured up by the reader of this little feature story, dealing with the old days of life in contrast with the new. The story centers about two of the oldest dry goods stores in the county—the Henkel Bros. store at Niles and the Desenberg Bros. store at Buchanan, the honored institutions, which have come down from the days of hoop skirts, bustles and corsets, to the present age of bobbed hair, short skirts and filmy lingerie. They are today owned and operated by B. H. Livingston, more familiarly known to his many friends as "Benny" Livingston. And this hard-working young man of exceptional ability, is carrying on in a highly creditable manner, his spic and span up-to-the-minute establishment, outgrowing the new styles in striking contrast with the old.

The Desenberg double store was established in Buchanan in 1893 under the name of W. R. Desenberg & Bro. The clothing department is owned and operated by Sig and Lou B. Desenberg, but the dry goods department was purchased by Mr. Livingston in 1925.

The Henkel store was established 44 years ago by John Henkel, native of Germany, and was conducted under the name of Henkel & Son till 1898, when the senior Henkel passed away. Henry Henkel, the partner, then formed a partnership with his brother, George, and the business there, after was operated under the name of Henkel Bros. George Henkel passed away May 9, 1925, and his brother, Henry, conducted the business up to the time he sold out to Mr. Livingston, in February, 1927.

For many years the names of Desenberg and Henkel have figured prominently in the mercantile history of Berrien county. Henry Henkel, the surviving member of the male side of the "House of Henkel," recalls stringing hoops as he worked in the store from early morning until 10 or 11 o'clock at night, away back in the days when steamboats, flats and scows plied up and down the St. Joseph river.

Those were the days of ox-teams, horse-drawn vehicles, tall, low candles (subsequently supplanted by kerosene lamps) small salaries and hard work. It was not unusual for the pioneer merchants to take butter, eggs and dried apples in exchange for merchandise; butter at 12 to 15 cents, eggs 8 to 10 cents and dried apples at a few cents a pound. In those days the apples were cut by hand and dried in the sunshine.

Since the Henkel store was established in Niles and the Desenberg store in Buchanan, a great transformation scene has been brought about. Horse-drawn vehicles have given way to the automobiles and airplane; dusty or muddy streets, as the case might be, have given way to pavements; city street lights have flickered out and been replaced by beautiful boulevard lights; long weary hours of labor have given way to more respectable hours, revolutionary changes in living conditions and transportation have emerged from the mud and household drudgery has practically disappeared with the invention of electrical devices.

Henry Henkel points to the fact that up to 1900 light was practically the only common household use of electricity; that almost all the others—kitchen range, vacuum cleaner, refrigerator, floor polisher, dish washing machine—came after that time. To turn which was a long distance from annual candle dipping or the risky task of filling the lamps. To turn a radiator valve was very different from the daily work of lighting the wood box. While the coming of electricity and the gas motor brought freedom from labor and constant care, as would have seemed to the earlier generation an Arabian Knight's dream, still, as Mr. Henkel says, it did not become more simple.

As needs, new desires were stimulated. Luxuries became necessities. As a popular author puts it: "Man, instead of regarding the invention as releasing him from that much labor, allowed it to add to the number of things he thought he must have, such as automobiles, scores of articles that did not retain the status of novel luxuries but became familiar needs almost overnight. The average man conceded almost nothing to be beyond his wants and means. He got more things than he also became more enmeshed in the anxieties of a complex and hurried way of life.

"But the common generalization that compares the present unfavorably with the past, that pictures the earlier day as golden, is subject to a good deal of qualification. In any event, worry about meeting the installments on the automobile is hardly to be compared with the anxiety that attended as late as 1895, the presence, for example, of diphtheria in the family, or any of the many other terrors that science banished."

Mr. Henkel has in his possession a copy of a newspaper published on January 1, 1900, which records that a dry goods salesman from New York assures the world that: "The shirtwaist will be with us more than ever this summer. Women are wearing shirt-waists because they are comfortable, because they can be made to fit any form and because they are manly. Sleeves will be smaller but will not tight—the shirt-waist has come to stay."

Mr. Henkel also has a copy of a Nebraska newspaper printed in 1900 with advertisements of sugar at 4c per pound; eggs at 14c dozen.

Old styles vanish or are modified, antique conventions lose their power, but the eternal fact of woman's dress needs endures, and "Benny" Livingston, successor to the Henkel-Desenberg regime, deems the filling of the needs of the fair sex the finest of all services, hence his success is not to be wondered at.

Mr. Livingston doesn't do much at looking behind; he keeps looking ahead. But he is reluctant to say what he sees a few years ahead in the matter of fashions and regalia. Maybe he doesn't dare.

HAPPENINGS LONG AGO

FIFTY YEARS AGO

In one of the school districts of Benton township they are having some difficulty as to whether they can conscientiously allow the reading of the Bible in their school. The director of the board has set his foot that it should not be. They propose to have a meeting soon and vote Bible or no Bible.

Spring Has Come

This winter, so far, is very much like that of 1897, when there was ice after the first day of December. Plowing was carried on through all the winter months. The spring came on early and the season was a fruitful one. Dandelions are to be found and the croak of the frog is not uncommon.

Buchanan has paid a total of $450 for liquor taxes during the year 1927.

The citizens of Niles met last Friday night and voted to raise $50,000 by bonding the city, for the purpose of purchasing grounds and erecting buildings for the use of the county, providing the people should see fit to move the county seat to that place. They do not seem to expect to receive any benefit from the possession, for the county seat brings trade to a town; but do all this for the accommodation of the county at large. Wonderfully liberal fellows those.

A Cart Load

Truman Fuller was in town the other day and as usual got full of budge and while standing in front of Fansler's store, asleep, he toppled over, bringing a barrel of cranberries with him to the sidewalk. The marshal was called and as Truman was past walking he was loaded into a wheelbarrow and given a free ride to the city refrigerator. Amos says it was a heavy load.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

While the populace of Buchanan is still up in arms against Millionaire C. A. Chapin's project of transmitting power from his dam in the St. Joseph river here to South Bend, some of the less belligerent citizens are about to lay before the village and before Mr. Chapin a proposition which will prove mutually beneficial.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hanley have been celebrating a jolly little house party over Christmas tide. Their guests were Mrs. Dorothy Matthews and Mrs. George T. Woodbury of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Newberry of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. John Brocius and son joined the party at dinner on Christmas day.

Glenn Haslett, who has been in South Bend attending business college was home over Christmas. He starts the first of the week to travel as a salesman.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Blackman of Baroda were in town Monday.

The William Trough family will not soon forget the pleasant reunion over the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rough. The day was spent in social visiting and feasting on turkey, oysters, cakes, puddings, candies, etc.

Things have shaped themselves of late so that Buchanan seems to stand an excellent chance of becoming somewhat of a manufacturing center after all. We are told that Mr. Chapin has for sometime been negotiating with some manufacturing firm to locate here. Today a committee of prominent citizens among whom was D. S. Coffern, of Niles, preceded to Chicago to discuss the situation.

Five religious foundations have been established in Australia to provide suitable homes for impoverished ladies of noble families who have rendered distinguished service to the state.

There are approximately 85,000 automobile repair shops in the United States.

The Call of the Great Out of Doors and What is Going on in St. Joe Valley

CLARK EQUIPMENT WILL PLAY FIRST HOME GAME WED.

TEAM IS SAME ONE WHICH WENT TO FINALS AT RAPIDS LAST YEAR

The Clark Equipment Co. basketball team will play their first home game here on the evening of Wednesday, Jan. 25, with the Niles Independents, according to the announcement of W. R. Pfingst, the recently elected manager.

The Clark team is almost identical in lineup with the five which went to the finals in the state basketball tournament at Grand Rapids last year. The activities of the team have tapered for the past few weeks, due to the resignation and departure of the former manager, Alva Thanning.

The game should be interesting and the local sport fans will be well repaid in attending. The game will be held in the gymnasium of the Buchanan high school.

BERRIEN BOYS TAKE TWO CLOSE SHAVES FROM WATERVLIET

BLOOMER CLADS OF SAME SCHOOL RAMP HOME WITH EASY WIN

Three Berrien Springs high school teams, the first reserve and girls' aggregations, made it one two three over the corresponding teams representing the Watervliet high school in the former's camp Friday night, although the regulars owed their victory to a last minute toss by a substitute forward, Bunnell, in the last minute of play.

Watervliet held a lead during the first stanza until Dugan's throwing arm got warm in the second half and he overhauled the lead of the guests, until they were a sole point to the govt. Then Bunnell completed the job with a basket which put Berrien one point to the good.

The reserves also had a narrow scrape, winning by 15 to 12, a Berrien Springs player making the required winning point by a free throw after the game was over.

In the prelude game, the girls of Berrien Springs defeated the Watervliet bloomer clads 26 to 2. The lineup was:

Berrien Springs	Watervliet
Bunnell	Bunnell
Dugan	Folk, Herrick
Skinner	Curtis
Hopi	Warren
Snarely	Shire

THREE OAKS TO CLASH WITH BEST PRO TEAM OF U. S.

FIVE HEADED BY ST. LOUIS BASEBALL STAR COMING TOMORROW NIGHT

The Three Oaks All Stars are scheduled to meet the Rockford Pros, one of the outstanding basketball teams of the country tomorrow and who are featured by the presence of Fritz Schulte, Big League baseball player, who was sold last season to the St. Louis Browns for $10,000, and who will captain the undefeated professionals Friday night.

The Rockford team is, undoubtedly the greatest basketball team ever playing in this country. Last season they won 26 out of 29 games. This year they have defeated the Chicago Bruins twice, the Beloit Fairies, the Fort Wayne K. of C. Olsons, the Famous Nordics of Coffeyville, Kas., and Canton, the Illinois state champions of 1926. Last year they lost an overtime game to the Celtics by two points. Players will include, in addition to Schulte, Ole Olson, the terrible Swede and Haugen, former member of the Celtics.

This record places the Rockford team on a parity with the best teams of the country, and will afford sport fans of this section to see the professional game at its best.

Last Saturday night Three Oaks upset the strong Michigan City Y team, Krong, Kraft, Beller and Hallenka each scoring 11 points in a whirlwind game against the Y. M. C. A. men. The Featherbone Five are entirely composed of local men and are making a rapid improvement. They dropped in 11 out of 13 free throws, while the best that the Y team could register was 10 out of 17.

The preliminary games will begin at the Three Oaks gymnasium at 7:20 p. m.

STEVENSVILLE WINS BASKET GAME FROM BARODA ON FRIDAY

REGULARS PULLED IN THIRD QUARTER WHEN THEY LOSE BASKET

A game was saved for the Stevensville high school Friday evening, when coach Marshall Shearer of that organization jerked a rattled regular team from the floor during the third stanza and allowed the substitutes to play until the first string men could collect their wits.

The first string Stevensville men had lost the basket entirely, and were trailing 16 to 14, when Shearer took them from the floor and let the reserves complete the period. The regulars resumed play in the fourth quarter and shut out their opponents, winning 22 to 16.

The lineup was as follows:

Stevensville	Baroda

NILES FARMER WINS SUIT FROM IMPLEMENT FIRM

Joseph E. Miller, Niles farmer, received a judgment of $180.25 against Brilhart & Wells, South Bend implement dealers in a suit held in the circuit court on Thursday. The decision sustained an earlier one granted to Miller in the court of Justice Langston of Niles. The defendant appealed to the circuit court. Miller charged that he purchased a potato planter from Brilhart & Wells and that it failed to operate properly, and that the implement dealers refused to make an adjustment.

STATE INSTITUTION HAS SUCCESS IN TUBERCULOSIS

A LONG WAITING LIST FOR ENTRANCE TO HOWELL ALREADY MADE OUT

Only 30 beds are available to day for advanced cases of tuberculosis at the state institution at Howell and there is a long waiting list desirous of occupying those.

Suppose a tornado struck this vicinity and hundreds of men, women and children were maimed. What a cry would be raised if there were no hospitals to which they could be sent. Yet there are hundreds just as seriously incapacitated by tuberculosis who are unable to find accommodations in Michigan. No adequate provision is made by the state to succor those who are suffering from this dread disease. Unless they can dig deep in their pockets and go to some other state to pay for private institutional care they are out of luck. Little children pay the piper when the bread winner or home maker is taken from them; charitable institutions often pay the bills. The state fails to pass relief measures.

Tuberculosis is a curable disease as hundreds of patients who have faithfully followed the treatment have found. True, the cure is not permanent in the same sense that a cure for typhoid fever or other communicable disease is permanent. Tuberculosis may return if the patient goes back to his old ways of living. The cure in the case of tuberculosis is more of the nature of an "arrest."

To effect an "arrest" the tissues which have been destroyed by the tubercle bacillus must be given a chance to heal. This healing is favored by putting the patient to rest in the fresh air and sunlight, with wholesome, nourishing food.

Today there are over 600 institutions for the care of tuberculous patients in the United States. Every year tens of thousands are under treatment in these sanatoria. The sanatorium treatment meets a real need and is giving life to hundreds who otherwise would have lost it.

The disadvantage of such institutions probably outweigh any benefits that accrue. There is necessarily a great expense to the patient consequent to such a migration, and there is often a tearing of home ties which by no means tend to relieve gloom and chase worry. Furthermore, the danger of transmitting the disease is enhanced by the constant travel of tuberculous patients from state to another. And what happens? The burden of our state is placed on the shoulders of another. Perhaps the climate of California does invite the patient to spend more time out-of-doors and thus gives Nature more of a chance to act. Otherwise the patient might just as well remain in his own state. Tuberculosis can be treated just as well in Michigan as in California if Michigan gets adequate sanatorium facilities with which to work.

The Michigan Tuberculosis Association is playing a vital part in the campaign for more and better sanatoria. It works with county tuberculosis associations to insure the building of needed county sanatoria. It carries on a constant educational campaign aimed at showing the needs of the state for such care. Tuberculosis Christmas seals enable the Michigan Tuberculosis Association to function as a live institution. It puts the pennies invested in its work to work for you.

Painless Touch System

Where did you find this wonderful follow-up system? It would get money out of anybody. "I simply compiled and adapted the letters my son sent me from college."

Hitting the Low Spots "Do you travel much in that old fiver of yours?" "From coast to coast." "Goodness! Have you really gone from Maine to California in that boat?" "Oh, no. I mean I coast down one hill and then tow it up another and then coast again."

The drooping weeping willow Sobs over the grave of James McFee; He went to Chicago on a bust Now, I ask you confidentially, is this just?

"I presume your daughter's education was quite extensive." "No, expensive."

"So you want to marry my daughter?" "Yes."

"Do you think you can divorce her in the manner to which she has become accustomed?"

She was only a dairymaid's daughter, but she knew her butter and egg men.

"Haven't I seen you somewhere?" "My pictures have been in the papers."

"What's your name?" "Lydia Pinkham."

Angry Parent: "My daughter doesn't want to be tied to an idiot all her life." Suitor: "Yes, sir, that's why I want to take her off your hands."

Minister: "Young lady, I hope you don't make a practice of smoking." Sweet Young Thing: "Oh, no, I'm quite proficient now."

"I just loaned that singer ten dollars." "I see—must be a tenner."

He: "Thish punish ish getting awful queer." Briated: "Well, why don't you stop dipping your cup into the gold fish bowl?"

Ho: "I improved my golf game a hundred per cent last Sunday." Bo: "But I didn't see you on the links."

Ho: "I wasn't. I cleaned out the furnace and my profanity is now practically perfect."

"What did the deceased leave behind him?" "A wife, the sheriff and numerous creditors."

"Do you notice how fat all the chorus are?" "Yes, the manager is very economical, and the fat ones get the same pay as the thin but fill the stage better."

The wages of sin is a movie contract.

He: "What do you mean by saying this is a possum car?" She: "Oh, it plays dead in the most convenient places."

Applicant: I'm thinking about joining the Marines. Is your drill intense? Sergeant: "Now, outdoors—on the parade ground."

"There's one word in the English language that is always pronounced wrong." "What word is that?" "Why 'wrong' of course."

"Doesn't your wife miss you when you stay out till three o'clock in the morning?" "Yes, but as a rule her aim is perfect."

A bloody lust inflames my heart To kill a certain dame. At murder I'm willing to do my part And I feel no sense of shame.

HOT DOGS BECOME ELECTION ISSUE ALONG LAKE SHORE

STANDS AND FILLING STATIONS OBSCURE SCENERY ON THE DUNES DRIVE

Whether the Lake Shore Frontage is to become "one continuous string of hot dog stands and filling stations" is the issue in the coming election set by the Berrien County supervisors for April 2 to determine whether or not the lake frontage south of St. Joseph shall incorporate, according to Atty. Kenneth Wilkins, who represents the petitioners for incorporation.

The "perspiring puppy" is well enough in its place, and the filling station is a prime necessity, according to the petitioners, but they should not be allowed to multiply to the extent of obliterating the splendid scenery of the lake front. Due to the heavy traffic along the dunes highway, the inroads of commercial enterprises of this sort have become a grave problem.

Opposing Atty. Wilkins as spokesman of the property holders who are against incorporation was Dr. Hugo Betz, who said that the main purpose of the incorporation is to increase the valuation of certain properties. Many of the owners are in business in Chicago, and will not be able to ballot at the election on April 2, according to Dr. Betz.

What has become of the old-fashioned class meeting? Is it not a fact that since Methodism has dropped the class meeting the church has lost its spiritual life?

SUPERVISORS RENIG ON MAKING CO. JAIL PALATIAL RESORT

CO. SOLONS SEND HOPES OF FREQUENTERS GLIMMERING IN DENOUNCING RECOMMENDATIONS

Those frequenters of the county jail at St. Joseph, who may have been looking forward to their next visit there with more than casual interest by reason of the recommendation of Secretary Nicholson of the State Welfare Commission that improvements must be made in the county hogsgow, may as well give up hopes of palatial appointments at the county institution.

County Supervisor John Carney of Bambridge, states in refutation of these hopes, "It's very nice for those fellows we have to keep there at the county's expense to have the very latest accommodations but he questioned whether the state has the authority to dictate the nature of the improvements needed in the county institution. Supervisor Frank Duerr of Benton Harbor, voices the opinion that too many are living off the county and infers that things should not be made too inviting.

The recommendation made by the state official was to replace bath tubs with shower baths, to install porcelain plumbing fixtures and to add more room to the county jail to relieve the congested condition existing there.

Mrs. R. Searls, Berrien Springs, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rozen.

THE DAY OF WONDERS

The present generation has seen so much of scientific invention and discovery has become so accustomed to the unusual, it hardly stops to appreciate the fact that it is living in a day when wonders are multiplied on every hand, and the end not in sight.

Eleven years ago the human voice, the spoken word, was transmitted from an American station to Paris and Honolulu. Telephone engineers directed the task. It was the first time the voice of man had been sent across the ocean. Today telephone communication between America and London has been established regularly. It is a service only a few days old, but we become accustomed easily to the unusual, we put on the new things of life, many times without appreciating their wonder and magnificence. The marvel of it all is not fully understood.

The radio people insist the days of tele- vision are at hand, and both hear and see. They vision are at hand, soon we shall tune in are convinced they will be able to supply American radio fans with pictures from the most distant points, the new radio develop- ment will make all nations one.

And if television works with the radio, why may it not be expected to work equally well with the telephone? No one may safely say we shall not both hear and see the person at the other end of the phone when we are handling business or visiting. It would hardly be more wonderful than are the things already accomplished and with which we have been made familiar.

The world told the Wright brothers they never could fly a heavier air machine, they told the submarine engineers they were foolish, they thought Dr. Bell had a mental lapse when he talked about the telephone. We know better now. It is a daring ex- periment to dispute with the scientist and inventor, once the laboratory tests have been completed on a new wonder, for hu- manity. Things are moving at high speed all over this good old world. We hardly dare to stop to admire the latest for fear of missing the next, for we live in what might be called a day of super-wonders.

CHICAGO'S NEXT WORLD FAIR

Chicago is proud of the measures of suc- cess she won when the World's Fair was held there years ago, is anxious to repeat with an international exposition in 1933 and has gone about the preliminary work in a businesslike manner. An organization has been formed with many of the foremost men of that city as members and the work of planning the exposition will be under- taken.

Chicago is courageous in undertaking that affair after the limited success won by a number of other cities where expositions have been tried since the great Chicago Fair. But Chicago is wise in this respect and is avoiding the follies found in other cities. It has not undertaken the task of an impetuous manner. It has been discussed and considered, the situation has been studied and the work of doing the task well has not been underestimated. Chicago plans for a fair that will have features of interest for all visitors, no matter from what part of the world they may come.

Chicago will profit immediately by any development of interest in the international display to be provided. It will take pub- lic attention away from the ugly features developed because the city has been playing cap politics and insisting on having gov- ernment that is far from what a great American city should present to the pub- lic. The city will profit as plans are made, as support is developed in this and other countries, and as the public mind is turned toward the greatness of the world in an international standpoint.

Leadership in other similar undertakings has been weak. Chicago has an abundance of leadership and will need the best talent in that line, doubtless will be quick to sup- ply it. The country, probably, has not grown away from the thought of a World's Fair, but it has become too wise to patron- ize a display based on politics and directed by men unable to comprehend the mag- nitude of the undertaking. Big builders will bring a big show.

THE LESSON OF SWIFT JUSTICE

The blind murderer of a little girl said that his crime was the result of his brood- ing over that of Hickman, to which it bore much resemblance. Hickman had been in the custody of the authorities for more than three weeks when the Michigan murder was committed and had once made a complete confession of his guilt, though he pleaded not guilty at the hearing and is relying on the insanity defense.

If Hickman had been tried and sentenced at once for his terrible crime, the lesson might not have been lost on the Michigan murderer and others of his bent of mind. It seems to us that in outrageous cases like this the wheels of justice ought to be made to move with great rapidity, regardless of all technicalities, precedents and squaring obstacles. It would have been as easy to decide two weeks ago whether Hickman is insane or not within the meaning of the law as it will be two weeks or months hence, probably easier. And the lesson of his swift execution or banishment to an asylum for the criminal insane would have had a wholesome effect upon the criminally minded and tended to subdue the mob spirit of unlawful revenge.

In cases where there is no doubt of guilt the retribution of the law ought to strike with terrible swiftness.

COUNTRY NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Many students of advertising say that the country town newspaper is the best ad- vertising medium in the world. This is so because such publications are very thoroughly read.

Even a small notice can't be buried out of sight of the eagle eyes which are gleaming everything that the home paper contains. The folks are more interested in the an- nouncement of their home town merchants, than in any piece of news in the paper, lo- cal or general.

This gives the country town business man a wonderful chance to communicate with the people at a low cost, and get their sup- port for enterprising moves that he may desire to make. If he has an opportu- nity to buy a large lot of goods at a special- ly low price, he can feel confident that he can promptly turn them into money be- cause through the home paper he can in- form the whole neighborhood that he has placed such a lot on sale at low prices.

The merchants in this town who have not thoroughly tried out the results of ad- vertising special values in this newspaper are missing splendid opportunities to draw in new trade and enlarge their business.

RAILWAY CAR LOADINGS

During 1927 there were 51,500,000 rail- way cars loaded with revenue-producing freight and moved over the lines in the United States. The record of 1926 was even better, the number of cars then being 53,300,000. Information gathered by the shippers' organization indicates car re- quirements for the first quarter of the present year will be in excess of the record last year. The auto-manufacturing indus- try and many other lines have contracts covering that period that must be filled and railway companies will have constant demand for cars.

There will be heavy purchases of addi- tional railway equipment this year to re- place that worn out last year and to help insure prompt service for the additional business reported in sight. Orders for railroad equipment touch many lines of in- dustry, affect thousands of workers and contribute an important spur to general business. The county may read the figures with interest and applaud the new business coming.

COUNTRY SCHOOL SALARIES

America's poorly paid school teachers and the situation that has been developed be- cause of inadequate salaries has been stud- ied by Benjamin P. Chase, student of econ- omics and social problems. In the recent issue of Current History Magazine he has a detailed story seeking to arouse public sen- timent to the menace that threatens the public school system of the country. The situation developed because of poor pay is found in the country districts as its worst. Chase insists the average yearly salary of the country teacher is $735 for the one room schools and $804 in the two room schools.

Poor salaries do not attract the best teachers and teachers of ability quit the country schools and go elsewhere. The situation has become so serious it is a mat- ter of concern to the nation, he declares.

Low pay for teachers is an old story, the community where low salaries are paid can- not expect to have the best teachers or the best results. Good teachers do not have to accept the scanty pay provided by offi- cials thoughtlessly.

We believe the Republican outlook for this year is very encouraging, quite flatter- ing, in fact, but we will admit that we have run across more farmers than usual who haven't definitely decided yet which of the two great parties to be fooled by this time.

The uneven headline has returned to our shores and what always surprises a man of about our age is to discover, as he shifts his position a little, that the side he sup- posed of course, was the shorter, is really the longer by several inches.

Our humble but none the less fervent prayer for the day: O Lord, in thy infinite mercy keep thy servant from taking him- self and his fool opinions too seriously.

The demands of this great profession are such that if an editor gets home to dinner on time his wife thinks her clock must be 20 or 25 minutes slow.

It was a pretty smart man that discovered that it's the little things that cause most of our unhappiness, they all seem so big when they start to work on us.

The new Ford can go 65 miles an hour on the open road and we don't know, yet, how much faster when coming around the cor- ner.

Our personal taste in small boys runs to the kind that the neighbor women frequen- tly denounce in the most severest terms.

A MILLION BILLION YEARS DEAD BANK BANDITS AT THE AGE OF FORTY AN $10,000,000 IDEA

The Rev. Dr. Cadman remarks that "This planet may exist for nearly a million billion years longer." An anxious Christian asks, "Do you believe that the soul sleeps in the grave with the body a million years, waiting for the judgment?" If I really believed it, I think I should try to have a pretty good time while still in the flesh.

The Rev. Dr. Cadman tells the inquiring soul that when you are unconscious a million billion years seems no longer than a minute and a half, and tells the soul: "It is better to awake from a prolonged torpor with clean recol- lections in your conscious past than as a morbid idiot."

The child that "can't wait a week for Christmas" and the Christian "that can't wait a mil- lion billion years for the judg- ment day" are both interesting, and both children mentally.

Texas wants bank bandits and wants them dead. Texas banks carry this sign: "$5,000 for each dead bank robber—not one cent for 100 live ones."

Banks don't want live robbers because they are hard to identify, hard to convict, hardly ever kept in the penitentiary after going there.

This may discourage bank rob- bing. It will impress on bank robbers the fact that they must kill first, or be killed.

Babe Ruth amazes "sportdom" by saying, "hearing advanced age of thirty-four," that he be- lieves in all year round training and expects to be "just as good at forty" as he is now.

For such work as Babe Ruth does, hard hitting and running, forty should be the best age and fifty should be about as good. It isn't their work, but their play between times, that makes men old.

Long ago, near Batavia, N. Y., a boy was born and soon had an idea. He once told this writer how he gave up smoking, "ex- travagant five-cent cigars," saving money to carry out this plan and build his first car.

Two men slept in the upper, two in the lower berth, for fifty cents apiece. Abraham Lincoln was one of his first passengers, going from Chicago to Spring- field, and was too long for the berth. The other man protested. The man selling the tickets beside the car was George M. Pull- man, and now the Interstate Commerce Commission fixes the value of his Pullman company at $110,233,786, which is far below its real value.

Get a good idea, stick to it, make sacrifices, and the idea will take care of you later.

Mrs. Hickman, mother of the Los Angeles kidnaper, will testify that she was once insane and at- tempted suicide, then seeking to save her son by a plea of heredi- tary insanity.

It is not conceivable that any- thing could save that murderer from the extreme penalty. A crime almost as great as his own was lightly locking this young criminal up and lightly letting him out again on former occa- sions.

The learned Dr. Stockard, pro- fessor of anatomy at Cornell Uni- versity has experimented with al- cohol on five thousand guinea- pigs during seventeen years. This is his conclusion:

"Guinea pigs drunk with alco- hol are, if anything, a little healthier than teetotal guinea pigs and live just as long. One guinea pig was made drunk with alcohol six days every week and his health was perfect."

But first, the guinea pig has nothing to do but eat, breath and digest. He doesn't need to use his brain. Second, the kind col- lege professor gave good alcohol to his drunken guinea pigs, not bootlegger alcohol.

There is excitement at Red Lodge, Mont. Mrs. A. Pollard, opening the gizzard of her Christ- mas turkey, raised in that neigh- borhood, found small gold nug- gets. Prospectors are seeking desperately the spot where the turkey picked up the nuggets. To the turkey those nuggets were simply rough stones swallowed to help grind corn. To "prudent man" those nuggets are the beginning and the end of earthly ambition, ninety-times out of a hundred. Wise turkey, foolish man.

About Your Health

Things You Should Know

by John Joseph Gaines, M. D.

Winter Warnings At this season of the year, foods improperly stored, vege- tables left in corners of cellars, open milk containers and such like, may become disease carriers unsuspected. In warm weather decomposition of animal or vege- table foods liberates a warning odor or appearance or flavor, be- fore much harm is done; in winter it is different; state vege- tables, "speckled" fruits from the stores, and other impurities do not make their imperfections so quickly. It behooves our ci- tizens and housekeepers to look well to the sanitation of homes, from every angle, and to enforce the strictest cleanliness of prem- ises occupied, as well as of foods and water consumed.

Cold weather is preservative to many of the most dangerous bac- teria; it is not known just how long typhoid and para-typhoid germs will live and remain viru- lent in cold, but it is a long time. Once within the human system, they develop rapidly into the very serious, winter-time diseases as- cribed for them. It is of the utmost importance that your ice box be watched; it is not always sanitary because you notice no impure od- or from the jar of cream that spilled last week, and left a greasy smear on two or three of the shelves, for several days; it looks and tastes as fresh as it did then, but some of the whipped cream or minced ham overflowed into it in some way—you may have a pretty fair culture of mixed bacteria winter than in summer, to have that live at low temperatures.

We should be more careful in pure food and water. Inspec- tions of city water should be doubled, by the most vigilant, capable of officials. Dairymen who peddle milk in bottles—you have a right to demand cleanli- ness. Winter epidemics are among the most fatal known. Be vigi- lant and save trouble.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Long Distance Rates are Surprisingly Low

You can call the following points and talk for THREE MINUTES at the rates shown. Rates to other Michigan points are proportionately low.

FLINT	50c
INDIANAPOLIS, IND.	50c
Lansing	50c
LUDINGTON	50c
MT. PLEASANT	50c

YPSILANTI	50c

The rates quoted above are Station-to-Station night rate effective from 8:30 p. m. to 4:30 a. m. A Station-to-Station call is one that is made to a certain tel- phone, rather than to some person in particular, which would be Person-to-Person call.

If you do not know the number of the distant telephone, give the operator the name and address and specify that you will talk with "anyone" who answers at the called telephone.

Day rates, 4:30 a. m. to 7 p. m., and evening rates, 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m., are higher than night rates.

A Person-to-Person call, because more work is involved, cost more than a Station-to-Station call. The rate on a Person-to- Person call is the same at all hours.

PRINCESS THEATRE

How many adults know that when they watch the news reels at the Princess week by week? A number of the school boys and girls were able to answer a hard question in their semester history examination last week because they had seen the prominent people in the movies. The question was: "Identify—Hobbes, Hoover, Tyne, Cobb, Kenesaw Landis, Aimee McPherson, Hubert Work, Suzanne Lenglen, Richard Byrd, Jack Sharkey, Fred W. Green, James Couzens, Nicholas Longworth, W. Hale Thompson, James Walker, Texas Rickard, Walter Johnson, Stanley Baldwin, Charles Levine, Ken Maynard, Wm. Borah, Clarence Little."

"There are many reasons why people go to see moving pictures," said Manager Homer P. Morley in answer to the question, "Why do people go to movies?" "Children learn and older people do too, and everybody gets the excitement for which we naturally crave. Amusement is the largest element in the minds of most of them. But with the fun they find a lot of valuable information, wholesome teaching of what is right and wrong, the proper thing to do in society, and sheer beauty. There's no end to the reasons for going to the movies."

Interviews with a number revealed that they found all these things, and besides that a relaxing of the tensions of this terribly nerve racking American life, which the more mature counted the largest value.

Fortunately for Buchanan, Manager Morley is not under the domination of any producers, and chooses his pictures for their worth, none being forced on him as part of the output of a contracting syndicate. Moreover, being independent, he secures the outstanding pictures at the same time or before South Bend and other neighboring towns. He is in a different district from South

BENTON HARBOR PIONEER LAID AT REST LAST SAT.

FRIENDS FROM FAR AND NEAR GATHER TO HONOR
MRS. HINKLEY

Many gathered Saturday at the Myron Hinkley homestead, which has stood on Pipestone street since the early days of Benton Harbor, to pay tribute to the memory of one of the city's best loved residents, Mrs. Mary Hinkley, widow of the pioneer manufacturer.

Mrs. Hinkley's death Thursday at the age of 83 is sincerely mourned by scores of old friends.

The Rev. Howard Blanning, pastor of the First Congregational church where Mrs. Hinkley worshipped many years, officiated. He selected as the text for his theme, the 81st chapter of Proverbs, from the 10th verse to the end of the chapter, containing passages appropriate to the life of the deceased, including these references: "Who can find a virtuous woman of her price is above rubies; her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her, she openeth her mouth with wisdom; and her tongue is the law of kindness."

Sons and sons-in-law of the deceased acted as pallbearers of the casket. Those officiating were: Milton Hinkley, Benton Harbor; D. H. Hinkley, Petoskey; Louis Hinkley, Brutus; Fred Hinkley, Berrien Springs; Schuyler Haas, Indianapolis; Frank Moore, Benton Harbor.

A grandson, Milton Hinkley, Jr., and wife of Chicago, and a granddaughter Miss Frances Hinkley, a teacher at Ypsilanti, came for the rites.

Burial was in Morton Hill cemetery beside the grave of Myron Hinkley, husband of the deceased.

E. C. Edmunds, Miss Madeline Weckler, Mrs. John Braid and H. G. Markham sang two favorite hymns of Mrs. Hinkley, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," and "Nearer My God to Thee."

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable meeting last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Newton Barnhart, on Main street.

It had been reported that our County President, Mrs. R. J. Laas, of Benton Harbor, would probably be present, but she failed to put in her appearance. After the business of the day, Mrs. W. F. Runner, the delegate to the state W. C. T. U. convention in Battle Creek, gave a very carefully prepared report of the convention, which was much enjoyed, and for which the Union voted Mrs. Runner a rising vote of thanks. The next state convention will be held in Lansing.

Mrs. Newton Barnhart was elected as treasurer of the local union to fill the vacancy caused by Mrs. Marian VanEvery, who had so ably served as treasurer the previous year, and who had been re-elected to that office.

The Union accepted the invitation of the Missionary society of the Church of Christ, to attend their next meeting, as their guests, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Enos Schram, 212 Cecil avenue, Liberty Heights, on Feb. 3rd, with Mrs. J. E. Arney as hostess.

One new member joined the ranks of the W. C. T. U. at the Friday meeting. Last year there was a paid membership of 28 members.

The county convention, which is usually held the first week in May, will probably be held in Buchanan, according to present plans.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Barnhart, with Mrs. Emma Deuno also helping.

If a man were as strong in comparison to his size as a flea he could pull a seven-ton load in a wagon.

CHARLES HAYDEN, NILES, LOSES LEG IN RAIL ACCIDENT

TRACKWALKER LOSES LEG
WHEN RUN DOWN
BY ENGINE

Charles Hayden, 57, an employee of the track department of the Michigan Central, is in a critical condition at Piquette hospital as a result of being struck by a locomotive while at work on No. 3 roundhouse track near the coal dock at the freight terminal on Friday afternoon. Hayden's left leg was cut off near the knee and his right ankle was broken and the right foot mangled to such an extent that it may be found necessary to amputate it. He also sustained numerous cuts about the body.

Although no one saw the accident, it was believed that Hayden had been working on the track and was unable to see a locomotive approaching and the engineer could not see the man working on the track on account of the blinding storm.

No one could tell just how long Hayden had been lying in the snow, but an examination at the hospital indicated that he had suffered to quite an extent from exposure. On account of this exposure it is believed that the injured foot may have to be taken off.

Hayden has been employed by the Michigan Central railroad company since January, 1922. Prior to this time he has worked for the Michigan Central on different occasions since 1922. He is unmarried.

STUDEBAKER'S
ERSKINE SIX

Holds 24-hour endurance and speed record for stock cars under $1000

CLUB SEDAN $795 F. O. B. Factory

THIS new Erskine recently maintained better than 54 miles per hour speed for 24 consecutive hours under American Automobile Association supervision—a record never equalled by any stock car under $1000.

Agile in traffic, fearless on hills, capable of sustained high speed—no other car priced below $1000 can match the Erskine Six in performance.

Low gas and oil consumption and low upkeep make the Erskine a thrifty car.

Doors are nearly a yard wide—rear seat four feet wide—arm rests—shock absorbers! Safe! Amplified-action 4-wheel brakes multiply your pedal pressure 3½ times!

Precision manufacture is reflected in the fact that even when new the Erskine may be driven 40 miles an hour.

The new American Edition of the Erskine Six embodies the most advanced engineering of 1928 and also expresses traditional Studebaker integrity of materials and workmanship.
