GROUND HOG DOPE

Bi Haws

This morn' Herr Ground Hog waded out
To wiggle a prehensile snout.
He cast his weather eye around
And saw no shadow on the ground.
Whereon he tuned his harp to sing
This soulful melody of spring:
"There is no sun, so winter's past,
And I've got coal enough to last.
I'll hang away my coon skin coat;
No more I'll have to grease my throat.
The end has come for colds and chills
And all this host of winter ills.
No more I'll pay the village doer
Nor drink their bitters by the crock.
Nor fling them shekels by the peck
To twist my spine and wring my neck.
My winter garments I will fling,
As Omar says, in fires of spring.
It's well the need for them is o'er,
They're getting thin, behind, be-fore.
Enough for me in days like these
My old straw hat and B. V. D.'s
I'll dust my golf clubs off, me thinks,
And try a run around the links.
To get the old arm busted in
Before the other boys begin
I'm gonna spruce up on my drive
And do that course in sixty-five.
Oh tra la la and whoops! my dear!
I'm tickled pink for spring is here!

$25,000 IN NEW HOME BUILDING IS NEEDED HERE

STATES S. B. CONTRACTOR BEFORE CHAMBER COMMERCE MONDAY

There is room and to spare in Buchanan for $250,000 in new residence construction, and customers waiting if some terms of finance can be arranged, according to George W. McDonald, South Bend building contractor, who was called before the special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening to state his views as to ways and means of meeting the situation.

McDonald evaded the presentation of any plan, other than to intimate that there were many ways and that it was a matter of choice. H. W. Riley, president of the organization, accordingly appointed as a committee to look into the proposition: Harry Boyce, Jay Glover, Oscar Swartz.

The committee was instructed to get into all angles of the housing problem here, and report at a meeting to be held next Monday night.

CHAS. BOYLE HEADS NEW ORGANIZATION

Report of the Retiring Head Shows Fine Business Increase in Past Year

LAUNCHES NEW LINES

Modern Pasteurizing Equipment Insures Safety of Milk Consumers

The election of Charles F. Boyle as manager and a report of a substantial increase both in value and volume of output were outstanding features in the meeting of the directors of the St. Joe Valley Creamery, held Saturday afternoon in the rooms of the St. Joe Valley Shipping association.

An increase of 430,000 pounds of milk received brought the 1927 total up to 4,985,000 pounds. In addition to the production of the "cloverleaf" brand of butter, which has an established reputation as the finest product marketed in this section, the creamery has added new branches of service in the past year, including local delivery of pasteurized milk, and the manufacture of "chocolate milk" in pint and half pint bottles.

The chocolate product has won a place in the local market, especially in answering the lunch needs of the employees at the Clark Equipment Co. Deliveries of 250 pints are made at the factory for the men every morning.

The bottled milk product of the creamery is a high grade product, thoroughly treated with up-to-date pasteurizing equipment, which insures the consumer's safety against any possibility of contraction of tuberculosis, "milk fever," or other diseases the germs of which may be found in raw milk.

While the requirements of the Indiana State board of health, as published in connection with the campaign against the milk fever outbreak there, call for heating the milk to 141 degrees Fahrenheit for a period of 20 minutes, the St. Joe Valley Creamery subjects its product to a temperature of 165° for 30 minutes, which ensures absolute safety to consumers. The milk is strained twice through thick felt and then cooled to a temperature of 35 degrees.

Following the report of the 1927 business by former manager L. B. Rough, reorganization of the board of directors was effected, with the following heads for the ensuing year: president, Chas. Tichenor; vice president, John Redden; secretary, L. B. Rough; manager, Charles Boyle. The board of directors was re-elected in its entirety: Charles Tichenor, John Redden, E. S. Arney, Ira D. Wagner, Charles Boyle, A. J. Lydick, L. B. Rough.

C. J. Wilson remains butter maker.

ST. JOE ASSOC. INSTALL ELEVATOR FOR FARM SEEDS

CARLOAD WESTERN ALFALFA AND CLOVER LAID IN FOR SPRING USE

A carload of selected farm seeds imported from Utah and Idaho has been received by the St. Joe Valley Shipping association in their new building here, and a freight elevator is now being installed to facilitate the handling of the seed during the rush spring season which is due to start here at an early date.

The car of seed includes choice alfalfa and clover seeds, largely imported from Utah and Idaho, the seeds from that district having been found most nearly suited to the conditions of this district.

Alfalfa seeds are mainly of the variety locally known as "common alfalfa," of which the seed is imported entirely from Utah. About 25 per cent of the plantings are of Grimm alfalfa, which is a higher priced variety, but favored by some growers.

DOG OWNERS MUST PUT UP LITTLE DOUGH FOR FIDO

TOWNSHIP TAX ON ALL CANINES IS NOW DUE; DIG UP FOR THE PUP

From now on until March first will be dog days at the office of township treasurer Emma Knight, and anyone who has a treasured pooch that he desires to retain after that date must dig down into the pouch and fetch out a couple of dollars to satisfy the government. Otherwise Towser is going to be just utterly ruined for any purpose other than a lap robe.

There is no discrimination. A dog is a dog, as far as the township government is concerned and its $2 each—or four, if Fido happens to be of the feminine gender. Not only does the dog owner have to furnish his dog with bones, but he has to dig up a couple of bones for the township government—or four if his canine happens to be the feminine gender.

"Dogs is dogs," strictly in the eyes of the law, and the most aristocratic German Police in the city is on the same footing with the dog that falls under the classification of "plain dog." It's $2 or $4 apiece or no dog.

BUCHANAN GIRLS UNDER ARREST AT INDIANAPOLIS

The Culver girl has been in difficulties with the authorities on several occasions. Recently she announced an intention of leaving for Texas, her former home. Mrs. Clark is a relative and is believed to have been induced by her to become her companion.

The children of Mrs. Clark are being cared for by their grandmother, Mrs. Charles Rockwell.

GALLEN BANKER ANSWERS TO CALL OF FARM

He is Tired of Stacking Greenbacks. He is Sick of SHOVELING DOUGH.—SO

He's Going to Go Back on The Farm and Let His Whiskers Grow

Gallen Banker answers to—

When a banker quits his bank to go out on a farm that's news! But that is the case with John Springer, late of Dewey avenue, Buchanan, but now a plain dirt farmer living two miles out of Mendon.

Until Tuesday Mr. Springer was looking through the bars, looking thru the bars of a casher's window, we mean to say, at the Gallen State Bank. Tuesday night he punched the clock for the last time, pulled his hat down squarely over teeth, set his eyes determinedly and turned his back on the bank.

About the time Mr. Springer entered the Gallen bank he also acquired a farm, once famous as the headquarters of Simpson Bros., noted horse breeders in days when horse breeders had a chance to show. The farm includes 240 acres of the blackest dirt in Michigan; it has eighteen fine farm buildings, built on plans that were once "the last word, and roofed throughout with tile.

As is the custom with bankers, Mr. Springer had kept his ear assiduously to the ground, harkening to what avenues the retreating footsteps of the elusive dollar might be trending. This winter he made up his mind that the hour for the farmer had struck, and that the psychological time had come to start back to the land.

Wednesday morning he had a truck backed up to his home here, loading out his household goods. And tonight he's down on a Michigan farm with a milk-pail on his arm, waiting for the land slide of prosperity that is due for the farmer.

BUCHANAN GIRL WRITES OF SNOWBANKS AND ROSES OF SUNNY CALIFORNIA

"Snowbanks and perpetual roses less than 20 miles apart" is the unique situation that exists at Lake Arrowhead, Calif., according to letters received lately from Mrs. Monabelle Stapp to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Snyder. Mrs. and Mrs. Stapp were residents of Buchanan until five years ago, when they went to Lake Arrowhead, and are now operating a grocery store and cafe there. Their home is 20 miles from San Bernardino, a city in the California "climate belt." The pictures sent show Mrs. Stapp building a snow man in the yard of her California home.

C. C. CONSIDERS COMMUNITY BANK FOR BUCHANAN

PLAN NOW IN SUCCESSFUL OPERATION AT NILES

Possibilities of organizing a credit of community financing here similar to that now in successful operation in Niles under the name of the Niles Community Bank were discussed at the called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held in the secretary's office Monday night, and the following committee were appointed by President H. W. Riley to investigate into the feasibility of the plan: Frances Hiller, Frances Nelson, John Russell, H. A. Hattebach, Dr. P. B. Wallace.

The plan explained at the meeting has for its aim the centralization of the credit of the community in the hands of an organization which will assume a moral obligation only to extend aid to the honest man who is in temporary financial difficulties. His obligations will be pooled in the hands of the Community bank and a credit will be extended to him that will enable him to meet obligations by payments in accordance with his ability. The organization would operate as a credit bureau to pass on further obligations which might affect his ability to pay.

First class goods only will be offered and the girls will appreciate patronage.

Irate Spouse Accompanied By an Entourage of Officials and Large Faith in The Cow Market

Mrs. Ethel Twombly, wife of Willard Irving Twombly, distinguished radio inventor and resident until quite recently of Buchanan, is reported by Chicago papers this morning as being in this vicinity, having come here yesterday accompanied by formidable phalanx of Chicago lawyers and deputy sheriffs for the purpose of grabbing off a few of her husband's blooded cows and selling them for enough to cover $7,800 back alimony which he owes her.

The Twombly farm is located seven miles north of Buchanan on the Glendora road, and is known as the "old Will Weaver farm." It was bought some time ago by the distinguished inventor, who spent considerable sums in improvement and built and equipped a fine laboratory for the development of further inventions.

A few weeks ago Twombly began to be troubled by Chicago deputy sheriffs, and after one arrest and a successful resistance of extradition, he left for parts unknown.

In a divorce action in a Chicago court some time ago, Mrs. Twombly was awarded $400 a month alimony and $6,000 in back alimony and support of their eight year old daughter, Gloria. She was represented in the action by Atty. Dudley Field Malone.

When Twombly failed to pay, he was again ordered to show for contempt. "Failing to appear because why he should not be cited in answer, he forfeited a $5,000 bond.

Mrs. Twombly came to Chicago from New York City to initiate the action, stating that her husband had a herd of blooded cattle and that she would either get the $7,800 or confiscate a few head of cattle to cover the amount.

THE HUNGRY GLARE ON BOWLERS' MAPS HEREBY EXPLAINED

THEY'RE ROLLING 'EM FOR A HAMBURGER GRUB STAKE AT ALLEYS THIS WEEK

Anyone who may be puzzled by the number of lean and hungry looking individuals who are working the alleys in the Buchanan City Bowling Club alleys this week will find an explanation of the mystery in the fact that M. Siragani, in a moment of rare enthusiasm for the noble sport of pin busting, hung up 25 hamburger sandwiches as prize for the high score man this week.

A number of the boys have been bowling desperately with possibilities of a meal ticket in sight.

In addition to the munificent offer of M. Siragani, the Bowling Club is offering a prize of $3 every week for the best score made.

FRED HAM WOUNDS HAND SAWING LIMB FROM TREE

The saw cut a deep gash in his hand, almost severing one of the fingers. Six stitches were taken in sewing up the wound.

GLADYCE DEMPSEY BOWLS HIGH SCORE ON LADIES' NIGHT

By making 166 in a single game and averaging 138 in four games, Miss Gladyce Dempsey set the high bowling mark for Buchanan women who have been attending Ladies' Night at the Buchanan City Bowling Club alleys.

High mark for the past week among the men bowlers was 245, made Sunday by Darcy Salisbury.

DOBBIN NO LONGER IN GOOD STANDING AT HILLS CORNERS

LONG YEARS OF "WAITING AT THE CHURCH" ARE ENDED HORSE SHEDS SOLD

That Dobbin is lost, spiritually as well as physically, is indicated by the classified advertisement run elsewhere in this issue calling for bids on the sheds at the Hills Corners church. Dobbin was formerly a member "in good standing" but the inroads of the gas buggy have crowded him out. The sheds were erected only ten years ago, to care for the equine attendants at the services. But during that period they have become obsolete. Dobbin has quit going to church. Now the entire attendance serve the Lord in motor propelled vehicles, and the sheds that used to house Dobbin from inclement weather stand empty.

The lumber is in good condition and the structure would be of value on a farm for housing machinery. Besides the church was the ground it stands on cleared, as a part of the landscape improvement plan, that is to be carried out this spring.

EDWIN PECK TAKES PART IN SEARCH FOR SUBMARINE

FORMER LOCAL BOY AVIATOR ON SARATOGA, SEARCHES FOR THE S-4

The tidings reaching here by newspaper and by radio of the search for and locating of the S-3, sister ship to the S-4, reported lost off Cape Hatteras in a storm Saturday night, was doubly interesting to Buchanan people from the fact that a local boy, Lieut. Edwin Peck, was one of the aviators aboard the airplane carrier, Saratoga, and was engaged in the search. Ninety-one planes are carried on the Saratoga, on one of which young Peck is aviator.

The fleet is en route by way of the Panama Canal to San Diego, where it will engage in annual winter practice. Mrs. Edwin Peck, the wife of the aviator, has been a guest for a time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Childs.

SUIT FOR $1,115.82 IS BROUGHT AGAINST CAMPBELL TRANS. CO.

Suit was instituted in the circuit court at the county seat yesterday by the Witherow Steel Corporation of Pennsylvania, against the Campbell Transmission Co., of Buchanan, to collect an invoice of steel billets delivered to the Buchanan plant a year ago. The steel company asks $1,115.82 and interest from December 3, 1924 when the steel contract was said to have been made. Atty. Stuart B. White of Niles is counsel for the plaintiff.

HILLS CORNERS TO DEDICATE A NEW BUILDING

TWO DAY SERVICES FEB. 11-12 TO CELEBRATE RE-MODELED STRUCTURE

Hills Corners Christian church, known as one of the most progressive rural churches in Berrien county, is to dedicate its remodeled building next month with services extending over two days, Feb. 11 and 12.

Robert M. Hopkins of St. Louis, will come from that city to lead in the dedication ceremonies, according to announcement of the church pastor, the Rev. Hubert L. Barnett, who is continuing his theological studies at the University of Chicago.

Interior Work Finished
Interior work on the entirely remodeled house of worship at Hills Corners has been completed, so the February dates have been definitely determined upon as the time for the dedication program. Due to inclement weather work on outside, the painting and grading, will not be completed until spring.

The dedication comes at the close of a long period during which construction and decorative work has been going on apace. It is the culmination of the hopes and desires which Hills Corners folks have cherished—a culmination that is all the more resplendent because it represents so much of hard work and denial.

To Hold Open House
Saturday night, Feb. 11, will be open house services. A general good time of music, fellowship, and speaking will be enjoyed. The church will be open to inspection for any who come and this service will furnish a fine introduction to the more impressive programs to follow.

The dedication sermon will be delivered by Robert M. Hopkins, who is head of the department of religious education of the United Christian Missionary society of St. Louis. Mr. Hopkins was at one time a pastor in the church and rendered valuable service to it.

Following the morning worship, all will join in a mammoth pot-luck dinner, the serving of which will be engineered by the Ladies Aid of which Mrs. A. E. Roundy is president. All who come are asked to bring some sort of food if possible.

Arrange Special Music
At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the services will be continued. Reports from each department of the church and from outside organizations and interested individuals will be heard. Mr. Hopkins will also speak in the afternoon. The meeting will adjourn around four o'clock. In the evening at 7:30 there will be a joyous service of praise and thanks-giving. The Rev. Hubert L. Barnett will speak on "Responsibilities." Throughout the services, special music will be provided by the Hills Corners church choir, directed by Con Kelley.

The Rev. Barnett and the building committee have worked long and hard on the remodeling and education plans and have produced remarkable results. This little country church is known far and wide for its activities and Christian spirit, consequently a large attendance is expected on all days from long distances. Mrs. J. H. Blackburn, Galien, R. F. D., will see that all who need it are provided with lodging.—Exchange

JOHNNY HOEKSTRA TO GET BIG CHANCE IN BOUT FEB. 14

TO MIX WITH "CHICAGO IRON MAN" IN DECISION BOUT; HOSPITAL BENEFIT

A rare treat is in store for followers of the boxing game here on the evening of Feb. 14, when Johnny Hoekstra, the pride and hope of the local fans, will put up in the same ring with Kevin Trimble, the "Chicago Iron Man."

This is the first main bout for Hoekstra who has been making a good showing in preliminaries for some time, and represents his first "big chance," as Trimble is one of the toughest propositions of his weight fighting in the Chicago district, and a victory over him means opportunities for bigger money against men higher up the game.

The main go will be preceded by several preliminaries in which some of the best boys of the district will try conclusions. The fight program will open at 8:15 sharp. Receipts will go to the Clark hospital.

MR. AND MRS. NUTT COMPLETE 52 YRS. OF WEDDED LIFE

AGED COUPLE BOTH RESIDENTS OF BUCHANAN IN EARLY DAYS

Fifty-two years of team work were completed on January 27 for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nutt, 111 West Fourth street, and 72 years of life as well for the latter, who was wedded on her birthday.

In honor of the double anniversary the Upstreamers class of the Evangelical church united with a number of friends and relatives in a worthy celebration at the home of the old couple. Present on the occasion was the adopted son, Rev. William Nutt, now pastor of an Evangelical church at Cloverdale, Mich., and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Nutt were wedded 52 years ago in a little Methodist church at Comstock, Mich., the late Rev. Samuel Reeves pronouncing them man and wife. The bridegroom had moved with his parents from Green County, Ohio, to what is still known as the Nutt homestead, 4 miles north of Buchanan, arriving Aug. 23, 1860, when he was eight years old. Mrs. Nutt came to New Buffalo from New York state in 1855, when she was but a year old.

After Mr. and Mrs. Nutt's marriage in 1876, they lived for eighteen years near Kalamazoo, and then moved to the Nutt farm. In 1910 they moved to their present home in Buchanan.

Their only child was a son who died in infancy, but the couple later adopted a boy, the minister referred to above. Mr. Nutt said that when he came to Buchanan there were but three houses west of Moccasin avenue. These were the Hamilton home at Front and Terre Coupe road, the McCumber house on the opposite corner and the home of Charles E. Peak, which still stands at West Front street and Maple Court. These homes were then in what was considered "the country" well outside the city limits. This section now contains 500 homes. Mr. Nutt once operated the farm which now embraces the high school campus.

There is no known record of a person having been hit by a falling star.

GRANGE LAUNCHES COUNTRY-WIDE MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

5,800 FARMERS OF COUNTY TO BE CANVASSED DURING FEBRUARY

Every one of the 5,800 farmers of Berrien county will have an opportunity to listen to the gospel of the National Farm Grange during the present month, plans having been completed for the initiation today of a county-wide campaign for membership which will last throughout February and eclipse anything of the sort ever attempted here, both in scope and intensity.

Arrangements were completed at a special meeting of the county grange representatives held on Thursday evening at the Mount Tabor Grange hall of Berrien Center.

The nine granges of the county now have a representation of 350 members. The meeting appointed as a committee of publicity on the campaign: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mitchell of Wagner grange, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Clark of the Mount Tabor grange and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill of Pipestone grange.

Recently elected heads of the county granges are the following: Master, W. G. Armstrong; Niles; overseer, State Representative J. G. Boyle, Buchanan; lecturer, Mrs. W. G. Armstrong, Niles; secretary, Mrs. J. G. RUSSEL ATTENDS DEALERS' MEETING AT DETROIT

SAYS ORGANIZATION PLANS TO BREAK PRODUCTION AND SALES RECORDS

The Chevrolet Motor company in 1928 is planning to break all production and sales records in the history of the company according to John F. Russell, local Chevrolet dealer, who recently returned from Detroit where he attended the annual Chevrolet sales meeting in the Orle theater.

Nearly eight hundred Chevrolet dealers who attended the great sales meeting heard R. H. Grant, vice president in charge of sales of the Chevrolet Motor company, sound the keynote of the biggest campaign ever undertaken by Chevrolet. Mr. Grant outlined the plan for the sale of more than a million units in 1928.

"Never before did a Chevrolet meeting create such unbridled enthusiasm as was displayed over the Chevrolet prospects for the year," Mr. Russell declared.

Detroit, regional and zone officials of the Chevrolet Motor company assisted Mr. Grant in the conducting of the meeting which took the form of the most comprehensive sales presentation of its kind ever made by an automobile manufacturer. Talks were illustrated in the form of playlets depicting the proper procedure to be followed in the successful operation of a retail automobile business.

Immediately following the meeting the dealers were guests of the Chevrolet Motor company at an elaborate banquet in the Statler hotel.

An added feature of the meeting was an address by J. C. Chick, who is regional sales manager, A. H. Goodman, Detroit, zone sales manager and C. L. Garner, Flint zone sales manager.

The Detroit meeting was the seventh of the series of forty-three similar meetings that are to be held this winter and spring from coast to coast.

BARODA CHILD CONSUMES ENTIRE BOTTLE OF PILLS

3 YEAR OLD FOUND BY HIS MOTHER NEAR DEATH FROM DOSE

The adage that "at forty every man is a fool or his own physician" scarcely applies at the tender age of three, according to the experience of Donald Nitz, son of Emil Nitz of Baroda, who came near killing himself with a self administered dosage of kidney pills Thursday.

While his mother was busy with the laundry in the basement, the boy managed by the aid of a small step ladder, to secure a bottle of pills from the ledge of the window over the kitchen sink.

For a time he took the pills in small quantities but finally decided to increase the dosage. The first hint his mother received was a complaint that he felt nauseated, and soon afterward the child fell asleep on the floor. Then his face, arms and legs began to swell, and Mrs. Nitz called Dr. E. A. Sorby, who found the child unable to see or hear and near death.

Relief measures were taken and by three o'clock of the following morning the child was out of danger.

NOMAD FAMILY LOSE BOY HERE; GO ON WITHOUT HIM

LOST LAD WORKS ON FARMS; LODGE LOCATES FAMILY IN MASSACHUSETTS

Children may be a heritage of the Lord, but one or two don't matter when you have eight, according to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Newhall, now of Danvers, Mass., who lost one of a flivver full of children while driving through this section last summer, and went on blissfully, leaving the 15 year old boy to follow his own devices.

There were eight in the rickety Ford and when they were all rounded up at Buchanan Lynnwood Newhall was missing. Remaining behind, the boy secured work on farms in the vicinity of Buchanan. When winter came, he found no need for his services and made his way to South Bend looking for work. There he was arrested on a vagrancy charge and told his story to the police.

Through the LaPorte lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, to which the lad's father had once belonged, the family was located at Danvers, Mass., and the boy was sent to join them.

The members of the play cast of the operetta, "Benny of Brinnell," held a party at the home of Dorothy Eisele Monday evening at 7:30.

The entertainment consisted of numerous games, taking the sophisticated high-school students back to the "good old days" when they were kids with neither cares nor worries. Everyone just forgot their troubles and had a real good time. Later, the guests joined in singing songs. Then Fred Gombosi whistled for the delighted audience. The highpoint in the evening was reached when the pot luck supper was served. Groans were audible as the guests attempted to consume the enormous amount of food served them. But no one gave up.

The party finally broke up with many regrets that they had to go home when they were all having such a good time. The cast agreed that their work on the operetta was well repaid by the fun they had Monday night.

CHEAPER TO WIDEN WALTON ROAD NOW SAYS RENBARGER

MEETING TO HEAR OBJECTIONS ON ROAD 92 ADVERTISED FOR FEB. 21

If the residents on the Walton road plan at any time to widen the paving, this is the logical time for the action, according to county road commissioner Clarence Renbarger of Niles, who was a visitor in Buchanan today.

Commissioner Renbarger was arranging for the publication of the notice calling for a meeting of Road 92 and U. S. 31, at 10:30 a. m. Feb. 21.

In case the asphalt is laid on Road 92, an asphalt plant will be installed here, and the additional width can be laid more cheaply than at any time later.

PRINCESS THEATER

President Coolidge's pastor, Dr. Jason Noble Pierce of the First Congregational church in Washington, has started something new in religion. He says: "We are going in for evangelism through the medium of motion pictures. We shall show newsteels, travel and scientific pictures."

It may be interesting to the movie patrons of the Princess to know that after careful study of various news reels, Dr. Pierce selected International News as being unsurpassed.

This news reel has been a feature of the Sunday and Thursday and Friday night programs here for many months.

Tonight and Friday the super-spectacle of the ages, "Moon of Israel" will be shown. This picture had the honor of establishing a house record for attendance at the Roxy theater, the world's largest.

Hoot Gibson needs no introduction. His story for Saturday's picture was written by Peter B. Kyne, under the title "Bread Upon the Waters."

"West Point" is the feature for Tuesday and Wednesday and is worthy of mention.

"Why d'you think it'll be difficult to keep your engagement to Muriel a secret?"

"Well, I've had to tell Muriel, haven't I?"

Joseph Ross, of the Buchanan Candy Kitchen, is unable to be at his place of business due to illness.

ESTABLISHING INDIVIDUAL CREDIT

The value of individual credit to the individual and to the merchants of Buchanan, can not be over-emphasized. Buchanan merchants are in excellent position to determine the value of individual credit of people living in this trade territory. Men and women are generally urged to establish their own credit in the business world. Credit is of value to those of large or small fortune, for credit, valuable as it is, may belong to the poor man if he establishes it and cares for it.

We have wondered many times why business men fail to carry on a campaign of education on the question of credit and encourage more customers to establish charge accounts. Most all stores dealing with the public welcome charge accounts and regard them highly even if the monthly bill is small, so long as it is cared for in good shape. Credit is built up to important proportions if the ledger shows bills have been met promptly.

It would be possible for a good customer to trade for years at a store and be wholly unacquainted at the business office, if cash is paid at the time of purchase. Cash customers are appreciated, but the customer with the charge account is considered a part of the business structure of the establishment. The cash customer builds up no prestige or credit background. The charge account customer builds up both. He profits by it and so does the merchant. Credit is an established feature of modern business, founded on confidence and built up by faithful performance of contract. Wisely used, it has many advantages to both parties, gives the individual a business standing, and helps build up the volume of business of the business house.

Each citizen needs credit rating and good standing or may need it. It is best to establish it, protect it and build it up. Small credit accounts paid promptly are valuable and welcomed, considered a part of the foundation of the house extending credit. If you have a charge account and care for it, you have an established business reputation and you are a part of the established business in this community.

A PARTNERSHIP

Make the home a co-operative society and let the children have a part in the home making. Teach them early in life that home is not merely a place where they are to have care, comfort, and protection, but for this something must be given; that every member of the family has rights and privileges and should share in the work and responsibilities.

Give them an interest in something, encourage them to put forth their best effort in everything they do. Give them credit for earning something besides a bare "keep." There is nothing so valuable as a well-developed boy or girl and nearly all boys and girls are good under the proper treatment. They need work, employment for their hands and heart—an all round development; to be taught to think for themselves; to observe, to study on the why and wherefore, and to experiment under intelligent guidance.

Give them a share in all things—your joys and losses. Develop in them the responsibility of ownership. Get their ideas on subjects and you will be wonderfully surprised at their abilities. Consult the boys and girls. Take them to your confidence. Have them help give the problems of the farm and household. Make them realize they are a part of the machine that runs the affairs at home. Keep the garden free from weeds. Let the boy help you do it. He will enjoy the result when he sees that his labor has produced something worth while.

Interest the girls in culture of flowers, raising of poultry, gardening and canning.

Success depends upon cooperation. Encourage to create a cooperative spirit in the home and in the field management, so that the family will live and labor as a unit instead of a chance group of individuals. How many parents ever have taken the trouble to become personally acquainted with the teacher who has charge of the youngsters? Many parents do not even know the names of the men and women who are teaching their children.

SURPLUS WEIGHT AND APPETITE

In a recent public address a scientific investigator for the University of Michigan made the statement that people were fat because they were gluttonous and produce their own surplus weight. He indulged in a sarcastic comparison of their mental ability, which he said was limited, and their appetites, which he said were tremendous.

In making his declaration the investigator ran squarely into the face of accepted scientific facts. It is not overeating that makes people fat in all cases, and there are so many exceptions that the rule fails. There are plenty of fat people who are light eaters, there are plenty of people, thin and skinny, who are heavy and persistent eaters. There are human stomachs that produce fat from food, there are stomachs that have other uses for it. Control of appetite is a panacea for the people who are overweight in many instances, but that remedy fails in many others. There are people who appear to have been born to accumulate fat, there are others whose mission is to cast a thin shadow, if any, and those facts are available on every hand if one cares to make an investigation.

If one takes regular exercise, of a nature suited to one's needs, avoids overeating, puts the appetite under rigid control and has the courage to stick to that program, will not be troubled with obesity.

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

Our system of punishing criminals has been very much under fire of late. Some would abolish capital punishment. Others claim our prisons breed crime instead of suppressing it. The attackers of the present system of punishment point out that crime is very definitely on the increase in America. Indeed, they refer to figures to prove that we are the most lawless nation on earth. As many schemes have been advanced for ending the growing lawlessness as there have been reasons brought forward to explain it.

That there is a great deal of lawlessness in this country, nobody can deny. It seems equally plain that the one chief reason for it is that punishment in too many cases is neither swift nor certain. Any reform of our system of punishing criminals that does not strike at this evil will be ineffectual. Obviously, society has either to cure or get rid of men who menace its peace and security. If such men know beyond all question they will be punished without delay, they may be deterred from crime. If they are not, they merit punishment and should get it in proportion to the degree of their crime.

DEBT OWED GOVERNMENT

Business owes a debt to government in the United States today. Once it was not uncommon for boys of exceptional promise to turn as a matter of course to a political career. But today promising youngsters are more likely to seek the fame and fortune that come with success in business than to heed the call of public office.

A number of reasons may be advanced to explain the trend of brains to business. The larger financial reward is undoubtedly one of the chief reasons, and another is the lower esteem in which public officials are held, with the "good old days" in this case as the basis of comparison.

Recently it appears that business has been repaying, in some measure, its debt to government. Some men prominent in the business world have sought public office. Some of them have been turned down by the voters. Others have been elected. But these men have sought public office after they had achieved success in business. It would be more to the point if some way were found of turning men of ability toward offices of public trust earlier in their careers.

RECORD PLOWED FURROW

Last fall an Arkansas farmer plowed an unbroken furrow a mile long and "straight as a ruled line on the piece of paper"—so he reported it to his newspaper and thereby started something.

An Oklahoma man announced that he had plowed a furrow a mile longer but his record didn't stand very long. A Kansas farm hand came to the front with a furrow that beat the Oklahoma farmer's by more than a half mile. Then another Kansan produced witness to support his assertion that he had plowed an unbroken furrow of five miles which, he declared, was "the longest on record in the United States."

But someone in Washington looked into the records. It was discovered that George DeCov, a Government land locating agent at Meade, Kansas, in the summer of 1885 had plowed an unbroken furrow sixty miles long. It was necessary to establish a public road between Meade and Ulysses. Between the two towns stretched level prairie land. DeCov hitched a plow behind a wagon and "with the aid of a compass a bee line was made to Ulysses and an unbroken furrow plowed all the way, a distance of sixty miles." Mr. DeCov's sixty-mile furrow will probably be an all-time record.

Human nature changes little if at all as the centuries roll on and we learn from our wide reading that old Epicurus, who was teaching philosophy and writing editorials or something in Rome back there about 90 A. D., also said he didn't care a snap of his finger what people said of him.

About the only difference between the rising generation and the risen one is that the former is franker and we were forty-five years old before we heard a girl say damn but we have reason to believe they always thought it.

The knocker serves one good purpose in life anyway and after he has talked to us for twenty minutes or so we are almost reconciled to the booster, even in his most exaggerated form.

No one can be madder at you than the person who says he does something to you more in sorrow than in anger.

Another sharp reminder of the steam-factories of life is to think it's a belated Christmas card and find it's a bill for more than you thought it would be, of course.

Many of the knees look slightly knocked but we seldom hear anything.

THINKING FOR YOURSELF. AGE BEING PUSHED BACK. EXTRA WEIGHT TIRES HEART. RAT-PROOF BUILDING.

An expedition of the California Academy of Sciences returns from the mysterious Galapagos Islands bringing giant lizards, scaly survivors of the Mesozoic age, and more interesting to the youth of America, "flightless" condors, huge birds that have lost their power to fly because they have not flown for so long.

What applies to flying for yourself applies to thinking for yourself. It's easy to lose that faculty. Darwin visited those islands more than seventy-five years ago, and would have liked to explore the inaccessible mountain tops that no one thus far has visited.

B. C. Forbes says that great banking houses, notably Morgan & Co., biggest of the aggressively enterprising firms, admit to partnership with about forty-year-old. Davis, Lamont, Morgan and other important Morgan partners were taken in at about forty, the age supposed to combine sound judgment with power to carry a heavy load.

In other days forty began the "graybeard" age. Great careers, Alexander and Napoleon, the two most spectacular, were over at that age. Age is pushed farther and farther back, and the J. P. Morgan of 200 years hence may be selecting seventy-five-year-old partners for their "combination of mental and physical strength."

Senator Capper, of Kansas, seeks reduction in railroad freight on grain. Not all farmers realize that Uncle Sam's money has been spent to make it impossible for farmers in some parts of the United States to compete with Canadian farmers. Northwest Canadian wheat reaches our East coast and Europe, through the Panama Canal, at low freight rates. This country built the canal, taxing its citizens, and lets the whole world use the Canal at the same rate as Americans pay.

If you are too fat, you treat your heart unjustly. So says Dr. James McLeester. The heart works harder to carry extra weight, but that is only part of it. Fifty to one hundred useless pounds of weight represent endless billions of living cells that demand nourishment, heat, water and their added share of the energy that causes metabolism, or change of tissue.

Extra weight tires the body, brain and heart, constituting a "loafer class," or idle rich class in the system that shortens life, diminishes comfort and usefulness. In that, a human body is like a government. Idle rich that consume and contribute nothing, except silly opinions, are harmful to the entire body, public and a way should be found to make them work.

Mr. Remus, who interrupted a bootlegging career to kill his wife, and was congratulated, rather strangely, by some of the jury that acquitted him, is to have "a period of rest under scrutiny." That is to see how his mind is and decide about letting him loose to resume business. His wife is having a longer period of rest under the ground.

ple of other cities, ordering rat-proof features in all new buildings. It would be an excellent idea, and economical in the long run, to make old buildings also rat-proof, the city paying the cost.

Modern destructive gases might be used for rat, mouse and insect extermination, including the destruction of the dangerous flea-carrying squirrels and gophers.

Prof. Ross, of Wisconsin University, is worried about overpopulation of the earth. Let married people have four children to a family, let the children marry and do likewise, and population doubles every twenty years. At that rate, this country in forty years, could have 460,000,000 people, more than China, and in one hundred years, our population would be 3,840,000,000, more than twice the earth's present population.

A doctor of Manhattan, Kan., believes he has found a cure for pyorrhea. Mr. Gundlach of Chicago things he also knows a cure. A real cure of that curse would be worth fifty millions to its discoverer, and would be cheap at twice that.

FAWN STEALS COW'S MILK One of the high bred cows belonging to Benedict Glegler at Pocomo, Pa., farmer, lost steadily on her production of milk. A son of the farmer solved the mystery when he went to the pasture. A fawn was taking a meal while the cow munched grass contentedly. When its appetite had been satisfied the young deer left.

HOW INDIANS KILL DEER Tarahumara Indians of Mexico pace the deer until it falls exhausted and then they kill it.

About Your Health

Things You Should Know

By John Joseph Gaines, M. D.

Laryngitis One of the most common affections of the throat. It may be acute or chronic. The latter form is rare, I'm glad to say, because it strikes terror to me—the thought of tuberculosis of the larynx. My purpose in this sketch is to deal with the acute form only.

This varies from slight hoarseness with no fever, to the most profound illness, with loss of voice and dangerous temperature. Diphtheria and croup are the most formidable of throat ailments of childhood. An old author once said that croup is attended by a loud, rasping cough, seldom a cough in diphtheria. That was when diagnosis depended entirely on physical signs.

The first symptoms of laryngitis in any form of its forms is loss of voice. This tells us that the disease is in the larynx—in the vocal "box." It is the signal for immediate action; get the physician at once!

Mouthbreathers are by far the most likely to be attacked. To take young children suddenly out of a warm house, into zero temperature, without warm muffler, or woolen wrap placed lightly over the breathing passages, is to invite trouble; the change from warm to cold should be gradual. Teach children to breathe through the nostrils, if suddenly exposed to cold; they will never forget it. And, be sure that there are no adenoids there to obstruct. Prevention is golden here. Keep the child's bowels freely open. Require plenty of drinking water and food, plain nutritious food. Air the bedroom well during the day. I would not house children too closely—cultivate tolerance for pure, out-door air, but wrap the body warm; especially, keep feet and legs warm and dry. Until the doctor comes, treat the victim with sweating and inhalations of turpentine vapor, eucalyptus oil, or from slaking lime.

BLAZE ROUTS 12 FAMILIES

Half the families in a 24 apartment building at 2606 Ainslie street, were driven to the street early yesterday when sparks from the furnace set fire to a pile of rubbish in the basement. Damage was slight.

GREAT HOG MENACE

The rounthorn, well known to swine raisers, is said to lay about 25,000,000 eggs in the intestines of a hog, which, when hatching, cause much pain, irritation and poison.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Long Distance Rates are Surprisingly Low
For Instance

for 70¢
Or Less, After 8:30 P. M.,

You can call the following points and talk for THREE MINUTES at the rates shown. Rates to other distant points are proportionately low.

From Buchanan to:	Night Station-to-Station Rate
BAY CITY	.55
CINCINNATI	.65
DETROIT	.65
DAVENPORT	.65
INDIANAPOLIS	.50
MADISON, WIS.	.65
PEORIA, ILL.	.65
TOLEDO, O.	.50

The rates quoted above are Station-to-Station night rates, effective from 8:30 p. m. to 4:30 a. m.

A Station-to-Station call is one that is made to a certain telephone, rather than to some person in particular.

If you do not know the number of the distant telephone, give the operator the name and address and specify that you wish to talk with "anyone" who answers at the called telephone.

Day rates, 4:30 a. m. to 7 p. m., and evening rates, 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m., are higher than night rates.

A Person-to-Person call, because more work is involved, costs more than a Station-to-Station call. The rate on a Person-to-Person call is the same as the night rates.

Additional rate information can be secured by calling the Long Distance operator.
