

TOWN CAUCUS IS SET FOR NEXT WEEK

SECOND ACT OF "HUNTED HUSBAND" STAGED

MRSTWOMBLY FORCES ENTRY INTO HUBBY'S HOME ON TUESDAY

Now Here's the Proposition

A LEAP YEAR VALENTINE

Bi Haws

With hearts enshrined in lacy web Once more St. Valentine's we keep It is the fourteenth day of Feb. The year, as you may know, is leap.

'Tis nineteen hundred twenty-eight Sure as the vine grows round the stump, Remember ere it is too late, I am all set for you to jump.

I send this Valentine to say To date, and much to my regret Full five long weeks have passed away And no one has leaped my way yet.

The Chev is green the Ford is blue I know you will not wait too long If you love me like I love you Why thus keep stringing me along?

Why waste the year from day to day? Let's get a little action, hon! Just make one little jump my way And see if anybody runs!

MT. TABOR GRANGE VOTES AGIN KNEES

AUDIENCE VOTES FOR HOOP OVER HALF MASTED STYLE IN SKIRTS

The Mt. Tabor Grange believes in turning the clock back before the clock gets stopped all together by the rise in feminine skirt styles, according to a vote taken at the grange hall Friday evening, after the organization had listened to a debate on the subject.

Just to make the issue clear cut, the question was stated as follows: Resolved that the old style hoop skirt would be preferable to the present fashions.

Victor Rofinot, veteran Chicago fireman, who has seen the hose rolled many a time, only in different fashion, carried the burden of the hoop skirt, while the knee plus ultra in fashions was championed by Douglas Dean.

Mr. Dean proved a most able champion of the convenience and attractions of the present day modes, but the best he could do was unequal to the harrowing picture painted by Mr. Rofinot of the astounding increase in eye strain attributable to brevity.

LOW TAX FANS WIN SECOND FIGHT AT GAIEN SAT.

Low tax advocates scored their second victory within three weeks time at Gaien Saturday, when the proposition to scrap the 50 year old school building lost by a margin of 35 votes, in a total of 878.

The opponents of new construction increased their lead from the margin of 16 by which they won on Jan. 14 to 35, registering 204 ballots as compared with 169 for a new building.

Feeling ran high during the election, 37 more voters balloting than at the previous election. Advocates of new construction were confident of victory, having called the second election on the contention that their adherents had not turned out at the previous election.

A Republican caucus will be held in the council rooms of Buchanan on Wednesday, Feb. 15, 1928, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the several village officers and for the transaction of any other such business as will properly come before the meeting.

Comes with Three Deputy Sheriffs, Lawyer and Search Warrant

HUNTS HIGH AND LOW

Can't Get Cows; Goes After Willard Irving Osgood's Goat

W. O. Twombly, the much sought, was again the object of solicitation on the part of his wife Tuesday, that lady making another of her regular weekly trips here, armed this time with a valentine in the form of a search warrant, printed on the county's best foolscap, and decorated with the official seal.

Last week Mrs. Twombly came with a writ to show her attachment for her husband. A review of the situation revealed, however, that the farm and all the detachables thereon were warmly tucked in under several thicknesses of blanket, including first and second mortgages, laborers' liens, three year leases, bills of sale and whatever else the fertile mind of Inventor Twombly had been able to devise in the way of impediment to her purpose.

Mrs. Twombly accordingly returned to Chicago and took some more high priced legal advice. On Tuesday she returned prepared to proceed on the theory that Twombly was in hiding at the farm. She left this city shortly after noon Tuesday together with Atty. Stuart White and a deputy sheriff from Niles and Deputy Sheriff Fred French and drove to the Twombly farm, with the expectation of meeting at that place a deputy sheriff from St. Joseph, who was to bring a search warrant.

They arrived before the county seat officer and knocked at the door. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tennyson, the lease holders, meeting them and conversing through a crack in the door.

On asking for permission to enter and search, the request was denied and they were asked to leave the place. An argument ensued, whereon Mrs. Tennyson said:

"We'll have a dozen men here inside of ten minutes and we'll see whether you will leave or not."

The deputy sheriff arrived shortly afterward from St. Joseph and a glimpse of the formidable legal documents he brought out came the objection of Mr. and Mrs. Tennyson, who stood aside and permitted the search to proceed from cellar to garret.

The hunt there being without results, the party went to all the farm buildings on the place but found no trace.

Local parties discredit the belief that Twombly has been here at any time since his collision with the officers at Niles several weeks ago, saying that he left the following morning in a Star car, after first locating the whereabouts of the officers, and that nothing has been seen of him or the car since.

Mrs. Twombly attempted to secure a warrant for the arrest of her husband on a charge of bigamy, on the ground that the mortgage on his farm here had been signed by another woman as "Mrs. Twombly, when no divorce had been granted to herself. St. Joseph authorities refused to issue the warrant on that evidence.

YOUTH BREAKS INTO HARDWARES FOR WATCH, KNIFE

LeRoy Hoover, 14, pleaded guilty before Justice Al Charles Monday to a charge of breaking into and entering the Allen and Runner hardware stores Sunday and stealing a knife and a cheap watch from the latter place.

According to young Hoover's admission, he broke into a window in the basement at the rear of the Allen store, but was kept from entering the store by the locked door in the basement stairway. He then went to the Runner hardware and cut a glass from the frame of a rear window so that he could reach through and pull the window stop. He then entered and stole the articles above mentioned.

When the entrances were discovered Monday morning, Marshal Fred French at once arrested Hoover on suspicion, the lad having been connected with a number of petty burglaries. He readily admitted his guilt, and his case was placed in the hands of county probation officers.

BEILHARZ COMING THURS. AUSPICES OF COLLEGE CLUB

NOTED DRAMATIC ARTIST TO APPEAR WITH STRONG SUPPORTING CAST

Noah Beilharz, the nationally known dramatic artist, is billed to appear at the high school auditorium with a strong supporting cast under the auspices of the College club on the evening of next Thursday, Feb. 16, his selection here being the domestic comedy, "The Family Upstairs."

Beilharz is well known here, having played here and other places in this district a number of times, and maintaining a summer home at Dayton. He is now concluding the winter season and is playing a few post season engagements in Berrien county, while entertaining his company at Dayton. It is due to this fact that the College club has been able to secure the company as their entertainment.

CITY DADS CALL FOR OBJECTIONS ON 3RD ST SEWER

TO BE FIRST UNIT OF STORM AND SANITARY SEWER INSTALLATION

Pursuant to a resolution passed at the meeting of the village council Monday night, work was begun this week by engineer J. W. Toynne to prepare plans, specifications and estimates of costs for the installation of a storm and sanitary sewer on Third and Portage streets, to be presented at a called meeting of the council as soon as completed.

The council will then prepare the project for presentation to the property holders and will call a meeting to hear objections from those affected. Ultimate plans include the installation of both sanitary and storm sewer pipes in the same trench on these streets and on Chicago street.

Acting in accord with a motion, President Brown appointed as a committee to investigate the feasibility of buying the land known as the Jordan and Berrien street sink hole for a storm sewer outlet the following: Harry Boyce, Glenn Merrellfield and Engineer J. W. Toynne.

PORTAGE ROAD DWELLERS VOTE FOR POWER LINE

IND. MICH. TO SURVEY LINES AND SUBMIT ESTIMATE TO SECOND MEETING

Residents along the three mile stretch of the South Bend highway from Buchanan to the Ohio York corner met last Monday evening to the number of 40 in the Bertrand town hall to listen to the plan detailed by Ralph Wegner, representative of the Indiana & Michigan Electric Co. for the extension of a power line for their benefit.

On a roll call of the property owners, 21 out of 24 answered that they would accept service if it were offered. As explained by Mr. Wegner, the proposed line and prepare an estimate of costs, which is to be submitted to a second meeting.

LIFE, FOR MISTER TWOMBLY, IS JUST ONE SUIT AFTER ANOTHER

Willard Irving Osgood Twombly, the Buchanan radio inventor, whose numerous patents are ex- ceeded only by his marital difficulties, and his law suits, was plunged into further entangle- ments Saturday by the filing of another suit against him at St. Joseph by the Stewart-Warner corporation, which bought one of his patents, a radio tube.

The Stewart Warner corpora- tion asks an adjustment of $10, 000 due to difficulties arising from the marketing of his patents. The suit was filed by the law firm of Core and Harvey of Benton Harbor. They refused to divulge the exact nature of the claim. Twombly is one of the officers of the company.

MRS. TWOMBLY IN BUCHANAN THURSDAY NIGHT

FINDS COWS GIVE FILES WRIT ATTACHMENT AGAINST FALIN NORTH OF CITY

Mrs. Ethel Twombly, wife of the distinguished radio inventor, who made his home, until recent- ly, five miles northwest of Bu- chanan, was a visitor in this city from 4:45 p. m. until 5:30 p. m. Thursday, while calling on local business men to check up on the whereabouts of her spouse, and the extent and nature of his prop- erty.

Mrs. Twombly stated that she had not filed any attachment against her husband's cattle, as press stories had alleged, owing to the fact that his "cattle" had been largely disposed of, and that what remained had apparent- ly been transferred to the name of another party. Consequently Mrs. Twombly had filed a writ of attachment against his 80 acre farm to secure the $4,000 alimony which she claims is still due her.

She secured a judgment of $7, 500 against Twombly as the result of a divorce action in the court of Judge Sullivan of Cook county, Illinois, her attorney be- ing Dudley Field Malone. Of this amount Twombly paid her $5,000, leaving $2,500 unpaid. She se- cured a second judgment of $1, 300, bringing the total due to $3,800. The accrued interest swelled the whole to approxi- mately $4,000.

The writ of attachment was secured in the court of Judge Charles E. White, Thursday af- ternoon by Atty. H. S. Whitney of Benton Harbor, who filed the writ with the register of deeds.

"On leaving here at 5:30 p. m., Mrs. Twombly inquired the way to her husband's farm. She stated that she would return to Chicago that same night. She pursued inquiries as to the where- abouts of her husband, but found no trace here. Mrs. Twombly was here Sunday, Jan. 22, con- ferencing with local police as to the whereabouts of Twombly. Rep- resentatives of the Chicago Sure- ty Company which paid the bond of $5,000 forfeited by Twombly also spent several days here watching for the missing inventor.

VOORHEES UP FOR ILLEGAL PURCHASE FURS NEXT MON.

The case of the state versus Del Voorhees, local trapper and clam fisher, now under arrest on the charge of having bought furs without a license, has been set for trial Monday, Feb. 13, having been adjourned from last Mon- day, Feb. 13, having been ad- journed from last Monday at the request of the defendant, who said that his counsel would not be able to be present that date.

BUCHANAN YOUTHS PLEADED GUILTY IN CIRCUIT COURT MONDAY

Kenneth Zinnegar, Harry Walker, and George Grice, Buchanan youths who were arraigned in the court of Justice Al Charles re- cently on a charge of having broken into and entered the home of Gottlieb Thumm on Main street, pleaded guilty to the charge in the circuit court at St. Joseph Monday morning, and sentence was taken under advice of the court a few days later.

REVENUE MAN HERE FEB. 18 TO HELP INCOME TAXPAYERS

Any local citizens who may be puzzled over making out their income tax returns will have an opportunity to enlist the aid of a federal Deputy Collector of In- ternal Revenue, who will have his quarters in the office of George Batchelor, local post master, all day Feb. 18. These returns are due on or before March 15.

Operations started at the Ken- nedy Hatchery, in the Rough building on Main street yesterday when 9,000 eggs were incubated. To fill spring contracts, three thousand more will be incubated by the end of this week, as the hatchery is now in full operation.

BRIGHT LIGHTS SHINE TONIGHT ON PORTAGE ST

20*BOULEVARD LIGHTS IN AS FIRST UNIT OF TOWN'S "GREAT WHITE WAY"

The bright lights will sparkle on upper Portage street starting from Terre Coupe Road and ex- tending west, according to Man- ager H. W. Riley of the Indiana and Michigan Electric Company, who said this morning that his force now at work expected to have 20 boulevard lights fully installed there by tonight.

These lights are part of the system of 58 boulevard lamps which the company is installing along Portage St., Main St. and Days Avenue, according to a con- tract made with the city Jan. 3, under Ordinance 58. This ordinance replaced No. 51, against which court action was lately di- rected as being illegal.

The Indiana & Michigan Elec- tric Co. began work under the new contract Feb. 1, after receiving legal advice to the effect that the injunction did not apply to the new statute, which was passed af- ter the resignation of Manager H. W. Riley from the council.

Unless the work should be un- expectedly delayed Manager Riley said that the entire system should be installed in two more weeks.

METHODISTS OF BERRIEN CO. MEET HERE FRIDAY EVE.

KALAMAZOO COLLEGE FUR- NISH SPEAKER FOR NIGHT PROGRAM

Dr. Allen Hoben of Kalamazoo college will be a speaker at the Berrien county rally of Methodist churches to be held in Buchan- an Friday night.

A number of prominent Meth- odist pastors of the county are on the program which opens at two o'clock with a ministerial round table.

The meeting will be held at the Methodist church where supper will be served to delegates and guests between the afternoon and evening sessions.

Miss Ruth Wheaton, a national secretary of the Women's Home Missionary society, will address that organization at three o'clock and will speak again in the even- ing, preceding Dr. Hoben's talk on "The Task of Protestantism."

Devotionals opening the evening will be led by the Rev. Bert Ede. Topics and speakers for the round table in the afternoon are as follows: Stewardship, E. M. Thurston, G. R. Gratton, Arthur Delamater, Evangelism, H. Lid- delquist, T. H. Leamon, W. H. Hel- rigel; General conference, W. W. Gies, G. A. Critchett and Wayne Flenner. W. P. Manning will lead the devotionals.

J. C. BOYLE IS RE- ELECTED STATE DIRECTOR OF THE FARM BUREAU

Jesse G. Boyle was re-elected to the post of state director of State Farm Bureau at the annual convention of delegates of that organization held last week at Lansing in connection with Farm- ers' Week. Mr. Boyle represents the farmers of the southwestern section of Michigan on the board of six regional directors, the nearest of the other representa- tives being at Grand Rapids. Five other "commodity" directors are elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Clark were also in attendance at Farmers' Week, present at both the Farm Bureau and Grange meets. Mr. Clark attended the meeting of Farm Bureau automobile insur- ance representatives.

A citizens caucus will be held in the council chamber of Bu- chanan Michigan, Monday even- ing, Feb. 13, 1928, at 8 p. m. for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the several village offices, and for transaction of any other such business as will properly come be- fore the meeting.

NATIVE SONS OF BUCHANAN DINE IN WINDY CITY

Former residents of this vicin- ity, who are now registered among the cliff dwellers of the Windy City gathered Friday night at the tea room of Mrs. Hastings at 118 Monroe avenue for the annual banquet of the Chicago- Michigan Society, with an at- tendance of 75, including eleven guests from Buchanan.

That the home ties that bind the erstwhile native sons to the old home town are not in any sense weakening was evidence by the fact that the affair was the most successful ever held by the society, both in point of attend- ance and entertainment. Of main interest in the proceedings of the evening was the movement initiated for a return date, when the Chicago-Buchanan Society will be the guests of this city over a week end in summer.

The officers elected were: Presi- dent, Mrs. Mary Reynolds; vice president, Mrs. Winifred Noble Setchell; secretary, Lee J. Meade; treasurer, Henry Grover.

C. C. COMMITTEE REPORT FAVORS COMMUNITY BANK

DELEGATION BUSINESS MEN GO TO NILES TO CHECK ON INSTITUTION THERE

The Community Bank Plan, as it is now in operation in Niles and in many other cities, might be in- troduced into the credit situation here with much benefit to both debtors and creditors and with- out in any way prejudicing the interests of the local banks, ac- cording to the report of the Chamber of Commerce committee of five, including Francis Hiller, Francis Neilson, John Russell, H. A. Hattenback and Dr. P. B. Wal- lace, made at the called meeting of that body Monday night.

The report of the committee was made by the chairman, Francis Hiller, who stated that they had met with Manager Ry- nolds of the Niles Community Bank, and had talked with other Niles business men about the ef- fect of the bank on their business and had met with universal ap- proval.

The benefits of the plan as out- lined by chairman Hiller were as follows: The bank is a convenience in handling slow accounts which are merely slow, and approved as such. Credit for such accounts is centralized, placing all the debts of one man in one lump, and permitting him to pay the en- tire amount on the budget plan, with only one creditor to deal with and no friction on account of conflicting claims.

The Community Bank may op- erate under the small loan act for minor home improvements, such as garages, sleeping porches. The client who has established a credit may secure funds for building and proceed immediately, without any capital of his own, the car- penters and building material securing their money at once.

CITIZENS TO NOMINATE ON NEXT MONDAY

Present Office Holders Say "Do not Choose to Run"

MAY BE DRAFTED

Number new Aspirants Reported about to Throw Hats

Adherents of the citizens and the republican parties will meet at 7:30 p. m. on Monday and Wednesday evenings, respectively at the town council chambers for the purpose of placing in nomi- nation two tickets for the com- ing annual election, to be held this year on March 12.

While no personal or public is- sues involving intense feelings are evident at this date, it is ex- pected that considerable interest will be manifested and that there will be a healthy spirit of rivalry at the polls, due to some dif- ference of opinion over matters of public improvements.

Seats in the present city gov- ernment that will be open to contest are those of President Harry T. Brown, Councilmen Walter Shoop, Glen Smith and Fred Mead, City Clerk Gess Wel- son and Township Treasurer Lester Miller.

Most of these outgoing offi- cers have stated that they "do not choose" to run, although it is quite possible that a number will be drafted into the race nevertheless.

President H. T. Brown and others expressed a desire to see two strong representative tickets in the field as affording every- one an opportunity to express a choice both as to personalities and as to measures which the candi- dates may represent.

HILLS CORNERS CHURCH HOLDS "OPEN HOUSE"

DEDICATE REBUILT STRUC- TURE IN TWO-DAY SESSION FEBRUARY 11-12

The Hills Corners Christian church, premier "open country" church in this entire section, and one of the few remaining ex- amples of a flourishing rural religious organization will dedicate its "enlarged and remodelled church structure in a service be- ginning Friday night and extend- ing over four sessions until Sun- day night.

The Hills Corners church has a peculiar and interesting record. Organized Nov. 13, 1885, the building was erected by volunteer workers from donated lumber in 1888. Erected apparently with- out much supervision and by a number of workers during spare time, the structure long ago be- gan to warp of shape. Some time since iron braces were in- stalled, to strengthen the build- ing, which had the effect of pull- ing the walls in wherever they were attached.

In the past year a movement was begun under the direction of Jesse G. Boyle to reconstruct the church.

The Hills Corners church was originally located in a country cross roads settlement, until the coming of the Michigan Central, the town moved to the railway a half mile away, and became known as Glendora. Instead of following the usual route of a country church to oblivion, the Hills Corners church bore up and flourished under adverse cir- cumstances and now under the past- orate of Hubert L. Barnett has more members than ever before, al- though the town has moved en- tirely away from it.

Mrs. Ed. Riffer, a resident of the Bend of the River, south of Buchanan, was operated on yes- terday morning at the University hospital at Ann Arbor.

News Around New Troy

The New Troy school children will be given the protection of a safety patrol on the highway that passes the school. The movement is sponsored by the Detroit Automobile club, who ask the co-operation of both parents and school in order that accidents to children be reduced. Sergeants Arch and Lionell of the State Safety Department were here on Wednesday and launched the system. John Sexton was appointed captain and Laverne Richardson, lieutenant.

Ed. Baunhart and R. B. McKee drove to Benton Harbor on Saturday on business.

Miss Eleanor Lewin went to Chicago Saturday to visit with friends. She expects to be gone two weeks.

Word has just been received of the death of Mrs. Merchant, who passed away at the home of her daughter in Benton Harbor. She has lived on a farm at Brownstown a good many years. She was a member of the Trojan Woman's club of New Troy and has many friends here who will mourn her loss.

Ed. Baunhart has bought the house owned by George Crawford where John Long now resides.

E. Wright and wife have given up their position at the telephone office and expect to move soon.

Elwin Ritchie of Michigan City spent the day here Wednesday helping his father in the rearrangement of the new store.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGann, who are staying in Chicago this winter, spent the week end at their home here.

WOULD BE YEGG ATTEMPTS ENTRANCE SMITH SHOE STORE

Smith's Shoe store was among the places that came near being burglarized Sunday, an investigation of rear and basement locks made by Mr. Smith after learning of other entrances revealing that some marauder had penetrated as far as the door at the head of the basement stairs where he had apparently lost heart and given up when success was almost within his grasp.

Entrance was gained at the rear door in the basement by inserting a sharp instrument and working the slide that served as a bar. Then the unknown attempted to force the door at the head of the stairs by main strength. When Smith examined it, he found the staple which held the hasp almost pulled out. The miscreant had also pulled off a piece of tin which was nailed over a hole previously cut in the door by a burglar. A second patch of tin on the opposite side had effectually stopped this attempt.

THIRTY CLUB HEARS INTERESTING PAPER ON HOLLANDERS

Guest Day was observed by the Thirty Club at the home of Mrs. Sig. Desenberg on Portage street, Monday afternoon. After a brief business meeting the afternoon was turned over to the book committee, which had the program in charge. Mrs. Conrey gave several musical readings which were greatly enjoyed. Miss Eva Te Paske of Three Oaks, a member of the Berrien County speakers, gave a very interesting talk on "The Romance of a Dutch Settlement," in which she depicted the religious life of the early Holland emigrants, who came to the United States and settled in and about Holland, Mich. Miss LeTaske was accompanied here by her mother. Refreshments were served the club. The club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. H. C. Stark on West Third street Monday, Feb. 13.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO. Long Distance Rates are Surprisingly Low ... For Instance for 95¢ Or Less, After 8:30 P. M., You can call the following points and talk for THREE MINUTES at the rates shown. Rates to other distant points are proportionately low.

From Buchanan to:	Night Station-to-Station Rate
AKRON, O.	$ .75
CLEVELAND	70
IRON MOUNT	30
LOUISVILLE	70
NIAGARA FALLS, ONT.	95
PITTSBURG	80
SAULT STE. MARIE	95
ST. LOUIS	80

The rates quoted above are Station-to-Station night rates, effective from 8:30 p. m. to 4:30 a. m.

A Station-to-Station call is one that is made to a certain telephone, rather than to some person in particular.

If you do not know the number of the distant telephone, give the operator the name and address and specify that you will talk with "anyone" who answers at the called telephone.

Day rates, 4:30 a. m. to 7 p. m., and evening rates, 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m., are higher than night rates.

A Person-to-Person call, because more work is involved, costs more than a Station-to-Station call. The rate on a Person-to-Person call is the same at all hours.

The ceremony was witnessed by the mother and sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Nona Hydorn, and Miss Opal Hydorn of Niles, and by Mrs. Sam Fry of South Bend. The bride is one of the well known and esteemed young ladies of Buchanan, and the bridegroom is a young man employed in the Niles garage. They are making their home, for the present, at the home of the bride's parents in Buchanan.

READY THEATRE, NILES

It is both a pleasure and a delight to attend an entertainment at the New Butterfield Ready theatre in Niles. Reason? Many of them: it's cleanliness, it's friendliness and coziness, it's comfortable chairs and quiet atmosphere and above all the splendid certified entertainment provided for under the Butterfield banner of excellence.

A visit to this theatre on Sunday at any hour, discloses patrons from every nook and corner of the county and far and beyond for patrons think nothing of driving "down for 25 miles" to enjoy themselves with a big measure of entertainment on stage and screen.

The attractions are listed in a display advertisement elsewhere in this paper disclose some fine entertainment for the week ahead. Among the stellar offerings is "What Price Glory," that comes next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with matinee every day at two p. m. The story is from the pen of Lawrence Stallings. He also wrote the "Big Parade." "What Price Glory" is different from all other war pictures, the war phase of the story only serving as a background for the rich comedy and happy laughter that bubbles over throughout the entire length of the play.

HOEKSTRA TRIMBLE MIX IN HOSPITAL BENEFIT TUESDAY

HUSKY PUGS WILL ADD TO INFIRMARY FUNDS AND PERHAPS INMATES FEBRUARY 14

Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, will show whether this section has a real contender for champion's throne in pugilism when Johnny Hoekstra meets Kewpie Trimble, of Chicago in a ten-round bout at the Clark hospital benefit show at Clark theater in Buchanan.

Hoekstra has had a flashy career while Trimble has been in hook and jab trade for several years, close to top any number of times.

During the past week some of the wisest doctors have had Johnny stretched out on the canvas before the bell rings for the fifth round, but Johnny, in spite of many telling him he is stepping into higher ranks too soon, can't seem to see things in the light that others see them. In the short time that Hoekstra has been in the ring he has passed out some of the hardest beatings a good many of the glove slingers have ever sustained and he seems to believe that defeat stands further away from him than Feb. 14.

Hoekstra may be right but Trimble is now in better shape than ever before and he has met some mighty tough punchers prior to this time when he has not been so good as he is now. Kewpie works every day with some of the cream of the canvas around Chicago and knows how to take care of himself even while he is in the ring with some of the tough birds who spurn the much talked of Chicago guns and legends on their fists alone. Johnny will have to become mighty smart to get around this bout and if he does, he's made.

Johnny has not been idle during the past months and has had his head working as well as his hands and feet. He has learned many things about the squared circle and while he has absorbed all of this valuable information he has not turned too far toward boxing to diminish the power he has always had in either hand. He has demonstrated his ability to pour sleep from any kind of a punch and with either hand.

In addition to the Hoekstra-Trimble bout five preliminaries will be put on to work up interest before the final bout.

IRISH HOSTS TO 20 COLLEGES IN INDOOR MEET

2D INTERCOLLEGIATE TRACK AND FIELD CONTEST AT NOTRE DAME

For the second consecutive year Notre Dame will play host to the track teams of the leading colleges in the Middle West. More than 20 invitations will be mailed out to schools to compete in the second annual central intercollegiate indoor track and field meet, which will be held at the Irish gymnasium, Saturday, March 3.

Among the colleges expected to enter teams in the meet are: Ohio Wesleyan, Butler, Michigan State, Marquette university, Carlton college, City College of Detroit, Drake University, Kalamazoo college, Lombard college, Iowa State college, Grinnell college, Haskell institute, Western State Normal school, Michigan State Normal college, University of Kentucky, Miami University, Coe College, DePaul University, Kansas University and Knox college.

The meet will begin with running off the preliminaries in the morning. The finals and the field events have been scheduled for the afternoon.

Notre Dame won the Central Intercollegiate conference meet last year, the first to be held at the Irish gym. Track stars from the middle west furnished some thrilling competition to make the meet highly successful. Sixteen colleges were entered but it is hoped that this number will be surpassed this season.

THREE OAKS BASKETEERS BOW TO KALAMAZOO

Playing off form, the Three Oaks All Star short pants brigade came out second best in a basket contest with the crack Kalamazoo five on Saturday night. The up-state boys winning 28 to 23 in a fine exhibition of basketball.

The Kalamazoo team played the brand of basketball which has enabled them to win all but two games in the past three years, while Three Oaks missed easy passes and baskets with tantalizing regularity.

Next Saturday night, Feb. 11, the strong Elkhardt team will come to Three Oaks to play on the local floor. This team is made up of former high school and college stars. The management has regularly been bringing the strongest teams in the district to Three Oaks, and an occasional defeat is to be expected.

CHEVROLET STOCK SOARS 27 POINTS HERE LAST WEEK

DRILL TEAM HEADS LEAGUE AT END OF 5TH WEEK; RIVALRY HIGH

Chevrolet stock went up 27 points at the Buchanan City Bowling Club alleys Friday night when the aggregation of pin busters playing under that banner bowled the cocky Grill team out of first place in the feature contest of the week.

Rivalry had been running high and considerable banter had passed back and forth over the prospects of the two teams. The Chevrolet had been playing with a 60 point handicap since the Grills, but they did not need the margin Friday night, as they led the champs 2803 to 2284 from scratch, largely due to a bowling streak on the part of that stellar performer, Charles Landis, who led the scoring procession with an average of 177 and high mark of 201.

As a result of the week's play, the teams ended the week with the following standing:

Drill	3	750
Grill	4	666
Specials	7	588
Berrien Co. Elec.	8	588
Bowling	6	500
Chevrolet	6	500
Beck's Tire shop	6	500
Clark office No 2-5	7	416

HAMBURGERS AND $3 WON BY MYERS OF GRILL TEAM

After all, whether it was a put up job or not the hamburger stayed in the Jack Myers family, as J. E. Myers, Grill team bowler, is eating Siraganian's sandwich at the Grill as the result of hanging up the high score of 226 for the week's play at the Buchanan City Bowling Alleys. Mr. Myers is also jingling $3 in his pocket, or was at least for a short time after Friday night. That was the premium offered the high man by the club management.

Miss Gladys Dempsey, who is as ready on bowling pins, as the famous Jack Dempsey was to his ring opponents, raised her own mark of 166 to 168, and remains the feminine pin champion.

PRINCESS THEATRE

So often have the people said it that Homer Morley, manager of the Princess theatre, has adopted it as his slogan, "If it's at the Princess it's worth seeing." "I thought about it a good while," said Mr. Morley, "I kept hearing it and finally decided it must be so. Of course, it has put me on my toes to live up to it, but I feel pretty safe for the immediate future, for I have booked some wonderful pictures."

"Resurrection," comes easily under that slogan. It will be seen this evening and tomorrow night, with Dolores Del Rio and Rod La Roque as the lovers who pass through the fire.

The Sunday feature, "When the Wife's Away," presents George K. Arthur, who came in "Rook-ies," with Karl Dane, and made so deep an impression. And on Monday Rod LaRoque comes again in "The Cruise of the Jasper." Tuesday and Wednesday brings Jean Stratton Porter's master novel, "The Harvester." "I find that the stories in which common people play heroic and worthy parts draw the largest crowds and the heartiest applause," declared Mr. Morley. "I think that is why the pictures like 'The Harvester' are counted the masterpieces by most people. I rather expect this to equal the house records for attendance."

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Lomaugh and family arrived home at 1 a. m. Saturday from Yankeetown, Fla., having made the trip of 1176 miles since 10 p. m. Tuesday, with nine passengers in their Dodge car and a half ton trailer behind. They had spent three months at Yankeetown, not far from Bun-ellen. At the same place were the parents of Mrs. Lomaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Canfield and their sons, Clarence and Lester, who plan to remain until April.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. J. E. Arney was hostess to the Missionary Society of the Church of Christ and the W. C. T. U. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Enos Schram last Friday afternoon. Eighteen guests were present. Mrs. Homer Cooper, president of the Missionary Society, gave the address of welcome which was responded to by Miss Mae Mills of the W. C. T. U. The program consisted of a talk on "Africa," by Mrs. Enos Schram; a reading of a short story of Mexico by Mrs. J. E. Arney; a talk by Mrs. Henry Blodgett on "India," and Mrs. J. E. Arney gave a short report of the work among the Jews in New York. Mrs. E. H. Ormiston and E. C. Cassidy sang "Only a Shadow Between," which was later followed by a solo by Mr. Cassidy. "Go Tell the Story," both of which were greatly enjoyed. At the business meeting it was decided to pack and send a box of clothing, goods, etc., to the Mothers and Baby Home at St. Louis. A lovely exhibit of things made in Africa and India was shown at the meeting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

The Beta Gamma Upsilon sorority was entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Marie Dempsey. Fourteen members and guests were present. At the business meeting it was decided to hold a bake sale Saturday morning, February 11th at Hamilton's Jewelry store. Formal initiation of three new members, Belle Laddis, Bonita Wentland and Lucille Mills, was held. Bridge furnished the diversion and prizes were won by Blanch Proud and Fern Rollings. Gale Penns and Bonita Wentland will go to Chicago next week to attend the annual sorority convention at the Drake hotel.

The regular meeting of the Monday Club was held this week at the home of Mrs. Nan Kent. Mrs. Emma Knight tendered her resignation as president, and the resignation was accepted. Mrs. Myrtle Keen gave sketches from "Ivan Swift," poet and artist, and also read several of Edgar Guest's poems. Mrs. E. H. Wisner gave a short talk on James Oliver Curwood and reviewed his book, "The Country Beyond." Following the roll call the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Margaret Dohi next Monday afternoon.

The Jeannette Stevenson Guild of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Russell on Chippewa. Thirty-one members and guests were present. Following a short business meeting the remainder of the evening was spent socially. Games furnished the diversion and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

The Flora Morgan Bible class of the M. E. church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nancy Lyons on Moccasin avenue, for their regular monthly meeting. The meeting was in the nature of a Valentine party. Mrs. W. F. Runner, teacher of the class, assisted the hostess.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will hold a candy sale in connection with the pork roast supper to be held at the church next Tuesday evening. They will use the money earned to help pay for the piano which they are buying.

Forty-five members of the Sunday school of the Church of the Brethren met at the church on Thursday evening and took cars to the farm home of Irwin Easley, where they helped Mr. Easley celebrate his forty-third birthday.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. J. C. Rehn and Mrs. Rough Friday afternoon at 2:30. Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place at this time.

Family night was enjoyed at the Church of Christ last evening. The ladies served a supper at a very nominal price and are using the money to help finish paying for the new pulpit which was installed last spring.

Mrs. C. D. Kent and Mrs. Geo. B. Richards will entertain at bridge luncheons at the home of the former Thursday and Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sargent entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner last Friday evening in honor of Mrs. J. E. Arney's birthday.

Miss Lois Reist attended the annual J-Hop at the University of Michigan on Friday, February 4.

B. H. S. DEBATE TEAM PAIRED WITH SCHOOLCRAFT

Buchanan high's debating team will take their first step in the elimination series on or about Feb. 27, when they will meet the team representing Schoolcraft. The debate will be held in the local auditorium with Buchanan assuming the burden of proof of the affirmative and with Schoolcraft attempting to completely destroy the affirmative's case—the negative task.

There are now sixty-four schools with debating teams still in the field but after Feb. 17, half of that number will be dropped and only thirty-two schools will continue. It is hoped that Buchanan will be successful in this debate, of course, but the actual outcome of the debate is rendered doubtful by the fact that Buchanan has to change sides on the question. Holding the debate at home will partially offset this disadvantage but the team will need the backing of every debate fan to win.

This is the first time that any kind of a team from Schoolcraft has competed with Buchanan and any estimate of the strength of their team is a mere guess, but they are undoubtedly as strong as any team which is allowed to enter the elimination series must needs be.

HISTORY

By Eleanor Rice

The last attempts to save the Union by compromise was: That of the 36 degree 30 minute line slavery would be protected south and prohibited in the north. The plan also provided that slavery be retained in the District of Columbia; that fugitive slaves be paid for by the national government, if not returned; and that the Constitution be so amended as to prevent Congress from ever interfering with slavery in the slave states. A peace congress at Washington, presided over by Ex-President Tyler, proposed a similar plan. Lincoln and the Republicans were not ready to agree to a further extension of slavery, and no compromise was adopted.

Lincoln's policy toward slavery and the South was, Lincoln said, "If I ever got a chance to hit slavery, I'll hit it hard." As we know, the chance came to him in 1863, when he gave slavery its death blow. But when he became president he did not intend to interfere with slavery in the southern states. He wished the southern states to have their full rights in the Union according to the Constitution. Lincoln believed that if slavery could be kept from expanding it was doomed to die. No further extension of slavery—that was the principle for which he stood and he was not willing to give it up for any compromise.

The start of the Civil war was when the North sent food, clothing and money, etc., and the South thought it was powder, guns, etc. So the South started firing at the ship. Also the South went down to Ft. Sumpter and had a battle down there. That was the start of the Civil war.

What the North fought for: Slavery had caused secession and secession had led to war, but it must be understood that slavery was not the object of the war. The North did not go to war and abolish slavery.

It was to save the life of the nation and to preserve the Union. In the very beginning of the war Congress declared that the purpose of the war was not to interfere with slavery but to save the Union and enforce the laws. And in the midst of the war Lincoln said that if he could save the Union by freeing all the states, he would do that; if he could save the Union by leaving them all in bondage, he would do that; and if he could save the Union by freeing some of the slaves and leaving others in bondage, he would do that; his chief object was to save the Union.

What the South fought for: On the other hand, in justice to the South, it must be remembered that while slavery led the South into war, it was not slavery that the southern soldiers took up arms to defend. They were fighting for home rule, for local self-government and for states' rights. They were brave, sincere and true to their convictions.

Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansas did not secede till after the war began, and they went with the South not to defend slavery, but because they would not permit the national government to "coerce" a state.

NEWS OF STUDENT LIFE GATHERED AND WRITTEN BY THE UPPER CLASS MEN OF BUCHANAN HIGH SCHOOL

GRADE NEWS

The prize for the largest attendance of parents at the last P. T. A. went again to our kindergarten. A goodly number of parents was present and enjoyed the unique program fostered by our local president, Mrs. Pascoe.

The fourth grades put on a candy sale Wednesday noon. We wish to thank the parents for their part taken in these sales. The proceeds are to pay for the balls in use by these pupils.

The seventh graders are working on a dramatization of Miles Standish under the supervision of Mrs. Walton. This is being done during the regular class hour.

The eighth grades are studying capitalization of titles, books, etc. which will be followed by the correct use of the pronouns. The same class is studying the Civil War in history and Powers in Arithmetic.

Gesso is being used in the art classes in Miss Ekstrom's room. Come in some time and see the picture frames made of this material.

Miss Loreta Bogott has organized a Junior High Glee club. This is a new departure from the regular music classes, but judging from the number enrolled, it will be a successful asset to the school.

Robert Smith of New Carlisle, entered our 7th grade last Tuesday. Robert is to live on West Front street in the new addition.

Miss Wolf from the Thrift office of Chicago, paid us a friendly visit last Friday. She was much pleased with our record.

The following won places on the Honor Roll in the Junior High: 7th grade, Doris Campbell, Genevieve Glassel, Helen Mopford, Freddie Portz, Edward Rolan, Donald Sargent, Rosemary Thompson and George Zachman; 8th grade, Charlotte Arnold, Dorothy Babcock, Cecelia Duignan, Jane Easton, Jane Habicht, Paddy McHenry, Elsie Paul, Myrtle Rouse, Marjorie Sands, Norma Shoop, John Strayer, Pauline Van Every, Norman Weldon and Teresa White.

The fourth grade, Mrs. Fuller's room, has been taking a lake trip in their room. They are visiting at different points and hope to reach Chicago sometime next week.

The Household Arts class of the eighth grade is now working on holders. Cloth of gay colors cut in the shape of a real chicken and bound in a contrasting material is proving a most interesting study. The class is also drafting patterns after taking each others measurements and these are to be used in cutting out slips to be made by the girls.

The seventh grade girls are working on their fourth project, underwear.

Mr. Miller's class in Geography have been enjoying the map drawing project. Outlines were furnished and the pupils did the rest. Many very artistic products resulted.

This week Monday, we played Downagrac Junior High, on their floor. Result, 10 to 6 in favor of Buchanan.

Mrs. Heim is teaching her third graders geography in quite an original way. She can't take them to where real honest-to-goodness islands, peninsulas etc., can be found, so she drafted a cooky pan, some garden soil, and a little water and, my what, our imaginations will do for us!

Kathryn Portz is back in school after experiencing two accidents with her left shoulder. The x-ray plate shows the ligaments torn, but a little thing like that does not daunt Kathryn's enthusiasm in physical education activities.

Our little ones in the kindergarten earn a star when they are able to read ten pages from the chart.

On Wednesday Miss Pears put on a demonstration in reading in the first grade. Miss Pears not only uses the book but the board, and also brings in phonic work whenever necessary, all during the one class period. The parents are urged to attend any of these classes.

We are quite ready for new books in our first grade rooms. The children have completed the material on hand and are now reviewing the books covered so in a few days notices will be taken home by the children to their parents notifying them just when these books are to be bought.

Mrs. Fischmar's pupils are reading the Brooks reader now while Mrs. Wilcox is teaching the Elson. Both rooms are working examples which bring about the application of the 8's and 5's.

Many children are absent from the lower grades. Miss Milburn is preparing work for the absent members and plans on taking this work to the several homes that the general plan of the winter calendar may be carried on. We feel this is most commendable on the part of Miss Milburn. May we have the support of the parents?

Word from Miss Simmons informs us that she is slowly improving at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Smith of Detroit. Her work is being cared for by Mrs. Riley Zerbe.

Every room of the Junior High is 100 per cent in banking. Can the Senior High reach us by the end of the year?

The last official report from the bank shows $4800.71 to the credit of the whole school and also that the entire school's percentage of depositors is 78. Not half bad, but could be better.

Miss Abell and Miss Reams left today for St. Joseph to visit in the grades.

Last Thursday Miss Skeels, our Domestic Science teacher, favored the pupils with a real dinner—not just a lunch. The following menu was served: Meat loaf, creamed potatoes, bread and butter, warm fresh doughnuts (like Grandma used to make), hot cocoa and milk. All this was prepared by the girls from the Senior class.

We are also informed that Miss Skeels has appointed one of these girls as manager, one as head cook, one for assistant cook, one to look after the desserts and another to be responsible for the cocoa, and milk during the lunch hours.

Mr. Stark will go Friday to be the guest of Supt. Shelters of Watervliet, who will be host to all the superintendents of the county. Mr. Stark is president of the association. Points of interest to all schools will be discussed.

THE ALPHA AGARIAN CLUB STARTS SEED TEST THIS WEEK

The Alpha Agarian club sponsored by A. B. Muir are starting this week to test all seed corn free. This is a chance to get your seed corn tested with only a small effort on your part. Anyone having corn to be tested call Mr. Muir at the school. All corn will be collected if you have not ample way to get it to the school. The Farm Crops section will find the per cent of germination, also the amount of seed corn each planter has. This report will be sent to Michigan State college.

Mr. Muir also wishes to announce that the class will begin to do the early pruning this week.

FEATHERBONES WIN ON OWN FLOOR AND EVEN SCORE WITH BUCHANAN

ROOF RAISING TIME PROPHESIED FRIDAY NIGHT

There will be a hot time at the high school gymnasium tomorrow evening when Buchanan seeks to avenge one defeat this season administered by her traditional and old rival, Niles. Both teams will be at a high temper as the case always happens to be when these two teams meet.

Buchanan lost at Niles a few weeks ago because of the ranginess of the tall negro center, who took possession of every tip off, but as we understand that this boy is not in the line-up this week the Maroons should be much more able to cope with their opponents.

Just lately Three Oaks won from Niles but Buchanan has one victory over the Three Oaks team which should make the locals at least a slight favorite.

The difference in the size of the playing floors should not make a great deal of difference or in any way be a deciding factor in this game as the Bucs are able to play much better on Niles' floor than on its own.

We are almost sure of a tight game and very sure of an interesting, well-played game tomorrow night.

Beat Niles!

The Buchanan school, under the immediate directions of Supt. Stark, will put on an art exhibit the week of Feb. 20. Further notice will be given the patrons of the school concerning this movement. The proceeds will be spent in buying pictures for the building.

MORSE STARS FOR LOCALS; HECKATHORNE FOR THREE OAKS

Three Oaks won a close contest, 23 to 20, from Buchanan in its "match-box" gymnasium last Friday after being defeated once by the Bucs on the local floor earlier in the season.

Though Buchanan would undoubtedly have won the game on a larger floor, the Acorns displayed a surprising amount of drive, with Heckathorne smashing thru for baskets intermittently during the game. In the play-off at Niles this year, if Berrien Springs and Cassopolis can be eliminated, which will more than likely be the case, the game between B. H. S. and T. O. H. S. should be one of the big thrillers of the tournament.

Buchanan's new offense worked very well indeed under the circumstances and was at once fast and bewildering although the objective was lost too often on account of the very small area in which the game was played. Even with all disadvantages taken into consideration the game might have been Buchanan's and at the quarter the score was four to two in favor of the Maroons.

In the second quarter Three Oaks played slightly better basketball and the score was tied at the half 7 to 7.

Heckathorne, who was replaced by Standage in the first half came back in the third quarter and started his weekly rampage. Consequently Three Oaks led at the end of the third quarter 15 to 13. Klute was also in on this and his three baskets and Heckathorne's four in the last half were too much for the visitors and Buchanan was beaten 23 to 20.

Morse starred for the local team and registered seven points. The Featherbone lads will more than likely have another chance at Buchanan on the Niles floor and we doubt whether they will be able to repeat their victory at the time, although they are always ready to go at the mention of a tournament.

The following was the lineup:
Three Oaks B T P T
Heckathorne, rf 4 3 0 11
Long, lf 2 0 3 4
Fisher, c 6 1 2 1

The Snow Flakes
By Mildred Cypri, 6th Grade.
As I sat at my school room window
Watching the snow flakes fall,
I often wondered and wondered
What became of them all.

Some don't seem to be in a hurry
They just float gently by,
Others come by in a scurry,
And then fall with a sigh.

Some are large, some are small,
Round and round they go,
And then down, down they fall,
All of them just so.

All night long they kept coming,
Higher and higher they heaped,
Down thru the trees they kept humming,
But lo! In the morning, out the sun peeped.

The boy stood on the burning deck
With his arms around his sweet-
ie's neck;
His father called; he did not go,
Because he loved to neck her so.

The clothes that make the woman are the clothes that break the men.

YEARLINGS DEFEAT JR. HIGH IN CAGE MEET LAST WEEK

The Junior High was easily beaten by a revamped Freshman squad 19 to 9 in the class series last week.

The basket making of Wolford, who turned in 8 points was the big factor in the Freshmen's victory.

Eisenhart was high point man for the Junior High boys with four points.

The new Freshman team looks like an extra good combination and will probably give very good account of itself in the remaining games.

Score by quarters:
Freshmen 6 2 9 2—19
Junior High 0 3 3 3—9

NEW TROY SCHOOL NOTES

Pointers on the New Troy spelling contest to be held March 9, at 2 p. m. at New Troy high school are as follows:

1. The school whose eighth grade achieves the highest per cent shall be declared the winner of the contest. Prize, a banner.

2. The student achieving the highest per cent will be awarded free books at New Troy high school the first year or a cash prize of $2.50.

3. Every eighth grader should take part in the contest.

4. Words shall be pronounced without exaggerated enunciation in the following manner: Teacher pronounces word; teacher gives word in a sentence; teacher pronounces word; pupils write word and rewrite.

5. Pupils may mark out word and rewrite.

6. The list is approximately 600 words.

7. The test shall consist of 100 words selected from the 600 word list.

8. The test shall be selected by the faculty of the New Troy high school.

9. Papers shall be corrected as follows: Any word omitted is counted wrong; "it" not crossed or "if" not dotted makes a word wrong; each word correctly spelled shall count 1 per cent of each pupil's score.

10. Papers shall be corrected by the faculty of New Troy high school.

11. A copy of tabulated results shall be sent to each school participating by March 21.

The prizes in this contest will be given by the Parent-Teachers association of New Troy.

The following people were on the high school spelling honor roll last week: Erdman Schlander, Francis Shermak, Nels Erickson.

The Junior class realized nearly seven dollars from their moving picture show the 30th of January. Their next picture will be Feb. 14 with Pat Moore in "His Majesty, Bunker Bean," a five reel feature comedy and Felix, the cat, in "Felix in Love."

New Troy was again victor last Friday evening when they defeated the crew from Galien. We met Stevensville this week at Penwell's hall, the last big game of the season in New Troy.

"I have not the pleasure of knowing your wife."
"Then how do you know it's a pleasure?"

B. H. S. RESERVES LOSE TO 3 OAKS IN OVERTIME PERIOD

Buchanan's new reserve team was overcomen with difficulty by the young Oaks last Friday evening 16 to 12 in a game which contained an overtime period and one which was more exciting and nearly as well played as the regular varsity fray.

Buchanan's delayed offense was good for baskets and the Maroons were beaten only when Standage, a first squad man sunk the baskets which won the game.

Pfingst, Buchanan's scrappy forward, was the pep of the outfit and scored eight of his team's total.

In this contest, too, the limited space of the Three Oaks gymnasium is sufficient alibi for the assumption that the result of the game would have been different on a larger court.

SOPHOMORES WIN FROM SENIORS IN EXCITING GAME

The Sophomores defeated the Seniors, in the most exciting intramural game ever played in the high school gymnasium, last Friday afternoon.

The Sophs led by Bunker and Lawson, chief scoring aces with five points apiece, went into the battle with a determination not to be bested by the supposedly better but over-confident Seniors.

The game went to two overtime periods with the score 16 to 14 at the end of the game. The tie was broken twice during the overtime by the Seniors but DeWitt and Reed made things even in both instances and Bunker tossed the winning basket. The Sophs now lead the series with 3 won and 1 lost.

Score by quarters:
Soph 2 1 3 4 2 4—16
Seniors 3 0 7 0 2 2—14

The results of the first games of the girls' intra-mural series played last Wednesday were very surprising.

Betty Kollenberg, playing at forward for three quarters of a twenty-four minute game scored 27 points of her team 37 to 8 victory over the Sophomores. We believe this must have established some sort of record, for this part of the state, at least.

The Junior girls, with another high scorer, Thelma Whitaker, who tallied 26 points for her team, overwhelmed the Freshmen girls 50 to 6 in the other game of the afternoon.

In both affairs better basketball was evident than is usually seen in girls' games.

STUDENT EDITORIALS

Lincoln Essays
The Seniors have just laid away their pens and are breathing a prayer of thanksgiving.

The Lincoln essays are finished! Another obstacle in the way of receiving the coveted sheepskin in June has been removed. Peace and serenity now hold absolute sway.

As much as we hate to write essays and particularly Lincoln essays it strikes us that either the faculty must be very obstinate or that they have a real reason why they impose this annoying sleep-robbing task on us year after year. Knowing the faculty fairly well we don't believe they would torture us annually this way just to satisfy their obstinacy. We must discuss this thought then and turn to the other alternative—what benefit do we get out of writing Lincoln essays? Now we may be right and we may be wrong but this is the way it appears to us.

We write Lincoln essays to set for ourselves an ideal, a practical ideal, a life that it is possible to live. We take the life of a real man, Lincoln, to write about. To write intelligently we must study his life and in this studying, we believe is the greatest gain. Not so much what we write as what we learn of value to ourselves for it would be impossible for us to express a new thought on Abraham Lincoln. Many other much better writers than ourselves have written these thoughts for us. They have taken up each phase of Lincoln's life and written libraries on it from all sorts of angles. We can but poorly imitate these men.

So it must be for what we gain ourselves and not for what we set down on paper that we write essays on Lincoln. We learn of a life that was unselfish and full of high ideals yet tremendously human. We learn of a man, when he thought he was right stuck to it until he learned he was wrong. We learn of a man, a self-made man, who rose from the deepest obscurity to the position of the highest honor and respect in the country and led this nation through the most trying years of its existence.

COLD WINTERS AND RED FLANNEL.

Old residents of Michigan love to tell about the days of long ago, the cold winters when the snow covered the ground for months, providing an abundance of sleighing, when lakes and rivers and ponds were covered with thick ice and skating was a real joy. These veteran observers bemoan the shortage of sleighing in these modern winters and hark back to the days of old when things were different. These old days are pleasant memories of the old times when the weather has been made over, winters of today are only distant relatives of winters in earlier days.

In those days natural ice was harvested during the winter and put in huge ice houses to serve humanity during the hot weather. Lakes and rivers then had ice a foot thick, solid, beautiful clear ice that was used in the houses.

Clothing worn in those days would be cumbersome and unsatisfactory now, and the people would reject it. Habits have been made over as completely as the winter weather. Boys and men then wore leather boots, knee high, girls and women had stout leather shoes of high cut, with heavy soles, the shoes being far more substantial than beautiful. Personal attire included flannel garments. Those were the days of the red flannel petticoat, a sure and dependable garment for winter wear. Boys and men had equal faith in the red flannel underwear to conserve bodily heat. Flannel was in high favor made from cloth manufactured at home, from wool clipped from sheep on the farm. The garments were real wool as any one familiar with them will recall.

Flannel was used in sickness, a cloth heated in the oven of the kitchen stove was used to ease the pain of rheumatism and neuralgia and some imaginative business men made and sold medicated red flannel garments to prevent or cure ailments. The method of medication, the worth of the plan, may be questioned, but the garments had a great sale for years.

Newspaper files for the years between 1866 and 1875 show many advertisements of these garments as Christmas presents.

In those days no man or boy went bareheaded in the winter time, ever thought of wearing oxford shoes in winter, would have scorned the idea of wearing B. V. D. undergarments during the winter months, but they are doing all those things now and continue to live. But those were great old winters, with fine skating and sleighing and red flannel, and of these the veterans have many wonderful stories to relate. No wonder they recall these stories each winter. What they tell is real news to the world today.

FEBRUARY ROBINS

A doubting Thomas poohpoohs reports of robins seen here in Michigan in January. He has lived here for many years, he says, knows the birds and has never seen a robin in January or February either, on that matter. He suggested that the people who think they have seen robins this winter must really have seen female birds who look about as much like robins as Kentucky thoroughbreds look like weaverens. He also suggested that we aren't getting liquor of as good a quality this.

If our skeptical friend had been around at home two weeks ago, we could have shown him a robin hopping around the back yard, and we haven't had any bad liquor lately, either, at least not very bad. We always see a robin or two in February and even before prohibition.

No, our skeptical friend, robins often are brought by reliable persons in this latitude in January. But rarely, if ever, are they called first robins, harbingers of spring just up from the South. A few times, for reasons known only to themselves winter in this neighborhood. We wonder how they do when they could easily afford to go to Palm Beach.

MORE INDUSTRIAL COMBINATIONS

Industrial combinations and mergers are both numerous and important in the first month of the new year. The movement was in evidence last year and is going forward, probably will have a much larger development, for the trend of the day is toward combinations of capital and the development of the finest administrative organizations. Combination of steel companies is being completed and a large number of soft coal interests is said to be under way. That illustrates the consolidation development in two great departments of activity.

Reduction of overhead costs, perfection of finer managerial organizations, development of plants for mass production, ability to handle difficult situations, all these advantages are sought in the consolidations, and it will be possible to make over in a way, the industrial activities of the nation as these changes are made through the years. The best students of business are agreed that centralization is the path business must follow, if it seeks continuance and success. If the overhead is reduced, production cost will be lowered and an important selling advantage secured. If finer administrative talent is gathered in the executive offices, there should be less of error and its attendant losses. If shop and factory skill in direction is developed, mass production will have no problem too difficult for solution and, if mass production at low cost is secured, success in competitive markets is within grasp and the business future must take on a rosy hue.

Apparently there are many sound arguments in support of the consolidation movement and, it seems certain, this country has adopted that plan of action. Big business will be developed, big business must have big men to direct it, so there is a new allurement offered for the men who adopt the industrial life as their field of action. The consolidation idea has been successfully applied in the banking field and in others, it can be made successful in industry and, where it is wisely organized and directed, it will be successful, and it can be made of advantage to the public. There is no war between well managed big business and the American public.

TAXATION

From Washington these days comes much shouting about tax reduction. But no one should be fooled into thinking that the problem of tax reduction will be settled, once and for all, by what is done in Washington, despite all the shouting.

Taxes should be reduced all down the line, for tax reduction is not a problem for Washington alone. It is a problem that requires the best thought and the utmost effort in every state capital, every county courthouse, every city hall, every school district, every governmental unit where bond issues are voted.

And even more than tax reduction is necessary. Inequities and injustices in the present system of raising revenues should be removed. It is everybody's concern that taxes, local and national, should be lowered and made more uniform.

BUSINESS AND ELECTIONS

Col. Leonard P. Ayres, a noted business commentator, believes it is a myth that election years are bad years for business. He shows that in six of the twelve years since 1880 in which Presidential elections have taken place business has been better than normal, that in one year it was normal, and in only five years below normal.

On the whole, Col. Ayres points out, business in years of Presidential elections has been slightly better than normal. It is no doubt true that business fluctuations in Presidential election years are due to economic rather than political causes.

There appears to be nothing in the situation this year that might be regarded as a possible damper on business activity. No burning economic question has bobbed up yet and it is probable that none will. The national economic equilibrium is not likely to be upset this year even though it is an election year.

THE GENERAL WELFARE

While the farmer and the city man are probably closer today than ever before, the bond between them can never be cemented too firmly. One of the great world issues of the day is the promotion of international understanding and good will. It is a laudable undertaking, but good will, like clarity, should begin at home. And it has.

The city man needs to know more about the problems that confront the farmer, and the farmer more about the tasks facing the city man. The farmer and the merchant, for example, are working toward the same end, after all, but too often they seem not to realize it. By striving to reach a common understanding each has an opportunity to be as great an ambassador of good will in his sphere as Lindbergh in his.

Another reason, perhaps the chief one, why there is no such thing as contentment in this old world is that about the time that one neighbor woman finally gets her electric refrigerator installed another one puts in an oil-burning furnace and so ad infinitum, as we say in Buchanan.

There is probably hope for an editor, or anybody else for that matter, as long as he realizes with shame that he could have done it better if he'd worked harder at it.

Another distressing thing about middle age, or worse, is the way the victim is so sleepy when there are callers and so wide-awake after he's gone to bed.

One of the striking differences between success and failure is that the successful man generally has to go on a strict diet earlier.

Another once familiar warning that's just about dropped out of our beautiful language is this: "For men only."

The real fact about a soft answer, according to our experience, is that the other person thinks you're scared.

We wish Indiana'd elect a whole set of honest public officials if only to see if she'd know how to act.

Middle age is that period when you know you ought not to do it but do if you have the chance.

Another striking evidence that change is not always progress is crankberry shortcake.

The funniest thing, however, is flaming middle age.

THE MICROSCOPE.

PAGAN RELIGIONS.

THE KING'S PRAYER BOOK.

Dr. William J. Mayo, one of the famous brothers, says science learns more about diseases from the microscope than in any other way. Man's brain is a "visual organ," and must see, to know. The introduction of the microscope by the Janssens, late in the sixteenth century, has done more to advance learning than any other agent, says Dr. Mayo.

Real learning owes more to Galileo's introduction of the telescope, at the beginning of the seventeenth century, than to the microscope. Seeing the germs that cause disease is important, but less so than seeing distant stars and nebulae. Perhaps, as the great German scientist Haeckel suggested, men of the future will train one eye for telescope, the other for microscopic work, the two eyes combined dealing with the real world about us.

Earthquake in Garmah frightened inhabitants. A loud roar, lasting ten seconds, accompanied the shaking. Gautamas, finest temple at Rangoon, was badly damaged, but that will not shake faith in Buddhism.

That is the convenient thing about pagan religions. When anything goes wrong the pagan priest tells the faithful, "It's your fault. Your donations have been inadequate." Nothing is ever wrong with the pagan god, supposed to control earthquakes, or at least protect his own temples. Even fundamentalist Christian churches put lightning rods on their steeples, which seems strange.

Judge Hardy of the Superior Court in San Francisco says crime could be abolished if mothers would teach their children, in pre-school days, obedience, truthfulness, honesty and the Golden Rule. That is just what mothers have been teaching their children for 500,000 years, according to the light of their period, and they have achieved wonders already.

Intelligent Mr. Tex Rickard says Jack Dempsey will fight Mr. Tunney again next summer. Certainly, and each of many following summers until death do them part, if the crop of $40 a seat simpletons lasts.

A cruel government plans to tax each $40 seat $10, but that can be made up by speculators' prices. Mr. Rickard's good fortune is due partly to the fact that men dull enough to enjoy prize fights are too dull to know when they are being "faked."

It is believed in the West, that the Tri-State Colorado River Commission, representing California, Arizona and Nevada, will reach an agreement to start work on the Boulder Dam project. Whatever helps one state helps the whole country. Arizona will gain by allowing California to use water and power now going to waste.

The British House of Lords has approved the new and changing readings in the Church of England prayer book, but it has been disapproved by the House of Commons. King George is interested because his oath requires him to stick to that book.

Some low church Britishers complain that the new book is not as strictly "Protestant" as the last. The opinion of the only authority that really counts can unfortunately not be obtained.

Diplomatic circles in Pekin are shocked by a shipment from Turkey to Pekin's "Anti-Opium Monopoly Bureau." The shipment was 52,000 pounds of Turkish opium. That reminds you of our own: alcohol proposition in spots. One New York cabaret keeper, asked if prohibition agents bothered him, replied, "Yes, I had to give one of them $200 just an hour ago."

There was a certain old geeser. Met an old maid and tried to please her. When she said, "Stop, mister." He grabbed her and kissed her. Now his friends call him the lemon squeezer.

"Lawyer: 'Courage, my friend. You're going on a long journey. What are your last wishes?'" "Condemned: 'Get me a return ticket.'"

About Your Health

Things You Should Know

by John Joseph Gaines, M. D.

"INTESTINAL FLU"

As if the hydra-headed monster, influenza, were not terrible enough in its easily-recognizable form, humanity must, it seems, be harassed by that obscure, baffling, demon for which medical science has offered no handier name than "intestinal flu."

A very distressing weakness is characteristic of Spanish influenza. It is distinctly a respiratory disease, caused by germs which take lodging in the breathing passages; hence we find sneezing, coughing, and general irritability, along with exceptionally high temperature in most cases; rarely have I seen cases with low temperature; and, the disease is not difficult to diagnose at the first call.

But this "intestinal" thing is a different proposition. The victim always in a run-down condition, begins with a chilly, creepy feeling of considerable intensity, which lasts for a day or more, before being compelled to seek his bed; no matter what the treatment the bewildered physician applies, the temperature will mount to 104 or 105, about the third day; there is no cough, or other symptom referable to the lung or breathing passages. No point of infection can be made out by physical methods. A temperature of 105 is a phenomenon that I had much rather not see; my hair is too grey for my age, anyway. Still, the patient manages—by sheer will-power I think to get well. And, I don't know how he accomplishes it!

PORTZ BAKERY

My motive in this article is, to warn my readers at this season, to take the best possible care of themselves, it being the only way I can suggest, of avoiding attacks. Don't overload the stomach; keep the digestive tract eliminating freely; drink plenty of water; eat good, nourishing food, but not to excess. Keep the surface of the body comfortable. Avoid crowds. Alkaline mineral waters are very useful. Do not worry. Do not exhaust the body. Immunizing vaccines are worthwhile too, I am sure; your physician is your friend.

Women Protest Order by Employers to Bob Hair

Berlin, Germany.—Two hundred working girls and matrons are up in arms at Tannrode, Thuringia, over an attempt to introduce the bobbed head forcibly. At the local electric works a bulletin unexpectedly appeared to the effect that the women must have their hair bobbed or run the risk of being fired.

The women objected not so much to the idea of bobbed hair as to the expense of achieving and keeping it up. They pointed out that they were earning but 4 or 5 cents per hour, which means a weekly wage of about $2.

The barber's charge for a woman's haircut is 50 cents, or one-fourth of a week's wage, and the cost of keeping up the bob, they figure, amounts to about 37 cents per week.

AUTO SHOW IS SCHEDULED FOR SOUTH BEND

14TH TO 16TH TO WITNESS SHOW IN NEARBY CITY FOR FIRST TIME

Arrangements are being made for the first annual automobile display to be made by the South Bend Automotive association. The dates are February 14 to 16, inclusive, and the location will be at the northeast corner of Michigan and Colfax avenue, using the Colfax avenue entrance.

Following the Chicago automobile show which will be attended by many South Bend dealers, it is believed that a number of the attractive features of the metropolitan exhibit can be incorporated in the South Bend show.

The newest models of 22 leading makes of automobiles, representing 14 dealers, will be on exhibit and will include the latest designs of the following cars: Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, Chrysler, Dodge, Erskine, Essex, Falcon-Knight, Ford, Hudson, Hupmobile, LaSalle, Lincoln, Mammion, Nash, Oakland, Oldsmobile, Pontiac, Pierce-Arrow, Studebaker, Willys-Knight and Whippet.

Only second in importance to the display of motive equipment will be the entertainment provided by the various orchestras, vocalists, solo musicians and dancers. These groups, which will vary nightly, are now being assembled and will be announced in detail later.

The exhibition will be widely advertised throughout Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan and many out of town visitors are expected to attend. The show will be open afternoon and evening.

Dennis: "What was old Judson worth when he died?"

Dan: "No man is worth much when he is dead."

Dennis: "I know, but what did he leave?"

Dan: "Everything he had."

Harry: "How long have you been married?"

Harold: "Let's see. I bought this suit I'm wearing four years ago."

Alfonse: "Don't you enjoy those slow motion pictures of horse races?"

Tony: "No, they remind me too much of the horses I always bet on."

There is only one automobile in Siberia for every 250 persons.

THREE DESERTED CHILDREN FOUND IN FARM SHACK

OFFICERS COMING TO FORECLOSE FIND CONDITIONS OF DISTRESS

Living in a small shack, without fire and only a few beans in the house for food, three negro children ranging in age from 8 to 13 years were found Friday by representatives of the Berrien County sheriff's office when they called at the Steen farm four miles south of Three Oaks with a writ of foreclosure.

The three children, Eloise, 13, Duane, age 10, and Theodor, 8, had been abandoned by their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ozzie Steen, who left for South Bend at Christmas time. A condition of distress and squalor almost unparalleled was found by deputy sheriffs Erwin Kubath and John Hovan, dead cattle lying about the farm, and half of the herd of 15 hogs being dead. A mad dog was found tied in the barn between the carcasses of two mules, which he had partially eaten.

In the small shack, the floor was found covered with ashes and soot from the stove, which was without a pipe. There were no furnishings save a few pots and pans in the kitchen and no food save a few beans. Only the fact that the children had a good supply of bed clothing saved them during the cold weather, according to the officers.

The girl, Eloise, said that her father was sick and her mother worked in South Bend, where she had the youngest child, a four year old. The girl had taken the responsibility for the care of the family, doing all the work since her parents left.

"I've been plowing and helping with the farm work ever since we took over the farm six years ago," she was quoted as saying. "We made money the first year, but since then it has been awful." There are nine children in the family, according to Eloise, the oldest living in Flint, and the intermediate members having dropped out of sight in recent years.

MICHIGAN BELL BOOKS SHOW INCREASE IN LOCAL PATRONAGE

The local Michigan Bell Telephone company directories are now in the hands of the patrons in a natty new dress and with a substantial increase of names listed that denotes an increase of patronage of the company here. The company has had a gang of line repair men working out of Buchanan all winter, repairing rural lines. A construction force is also installing cables and telephones in the new Clark Equipment Company building.

Behind Studebaker Performance Records—engineering genius!

AS a result of the engineering genius in Studebaker motor cars, Studebaker now holds all the highest endurance and speed records for fully equipped stock cars, regardless of power or price. Nothing ever ran so far so fast as the Studebaker Commander—25,000 miles in less than 23,000 minutes!

Additional proof of advanced engineering is found in the fact that Studebaker and Erskine cars may be driven 40 miles per hour the day they are delivered. No more tedious "breaking-in" at 20-mile speed. And Studebaker engineers have provided such an ingenious lubricating system that you need change oil but once every 2500 miles.

Studebaker provides its engineering and research staff with the most complete facilities that money can buy. In Studebaker's laboratories, technicians test all raw materials. Over the roads and grades of Studebaker's million-dollar Proving Ground, Studebaker and Erskine models are driven in extended tests of speed and mechanical endurance.

Because Studebaker builds bodies, engines and chassis for Studebaker cars, profits of outside manufacturers are reduced to a minimum. These savings are passed on to you in the form of higher quality materials and the highest type of precision workmanship—at a low One-Price price.

See the new Studebakers. They will reveal the most advanced engineering of 1928 combined with Studebaker's 76-year-old traditions of quality.

EARLY BUCHANAN
SKETCH READ AT CHICAGO FRI. EVE

The following article on historical beginnings of Buchanan was first read before the Monday Literary club at its "Michigan Day" meeting on Feb. 19, 1900. It was again read before the meeting of the Chicago-Buchanan Society at Chicago last Friday night.

I am indebted for the items in this paper to Mrs. William Mead, Mrs. Totten, and a history of Berrien County published in 1871.

The village of Buchanan owes its existence to McCoy's Creek. This stream takes its name from Rev. Isaac McCoy, the Baptist missionary. It is said that when McCoy found this creek, he claimed it as a private fishing place, and from this fact it soon became known as "old McCoy's Creek."

When the early pioneers located in this vicinity an Indian village of about 300 people presided over by Chief Moccasin occupied the plat below Moccasin Bluff. Russell McCoy came to this country in 1828 and in 1830 engaged in work at the Mission near Niles; after leaving the mission he worked several years as a boatman on the river. In 1834 he determined to stake a claim at the mouth of McCoy's Creek, thinking it was a good place for a mill.

The first step for McCoy was to get permission from the Indians to build a house. He went to old Chief Topenbe, who refused. He then went to Pokagen, who would neither refuse nor grant his request, but told him that if he should build a house the Indians would throw it down. McCoy soon had his log house erected, and one day when he was absent the Indians tore it down. He then built another which was allowed to remain.

Hiram Wray, with his wife and child came soon after McCoy. He finished his house, and McCoy, being a single man, boarded with Wray, and the following year they erected a sawmill. Charles Cowles came in 1834 and erected a shingle mill which was in running order before McCoy's. Cowles sold his property to Charles C. Wallin, who placed a run of stone in the mill and furnished the neighborhood with graham flour and corn meal. The flour was bolted by hand.

Leonard Madron located on the same section with Cowles. He sold his property, consisting of his claim, a shanty, a cow and a half acre of potatoes to Andrew C. Day for $50. Mr. Day moved to his place July 6, 1836 and lived there until his death.

John Hatfield and Mr. Atkins came in 1835 and put up a saw mill near the river. Seth Sherwood, father of Alonzo Sherwood, settled a mile north of Moccasin Bluff in 1834. At that time there was not a neighbor within three miles of the west side of the river.

Buchanan became an organized township in 1837. The first meeting of the electors was held April 3 at the house of C. C. Wallin. At this meeting 13 officers were elected and only 15 ballots cast. It appearing from the plat on record in the Register's office, dated July 21, 1842, that John Hamilton was the original proprietor of Buchanan. In 1842 the village consisted of a dozen buildings. In 1844 William Mead's father bought a farm where the William Pears farm now is east of the village. Mrs. Mead says that the village was then called McCoy's Creek.

The farm bought by Mr. Mead extended across where the Michigan Central now runs, and took in the land where the brick house now stands occupied by Charles Howe.

After the railroad passed through cutting off that piece, he sold it to Mr. Howe's father, who built the brick house. The farm extended west to Mr. Morley's home, where John Hatfield then lived. There were no other houses on Portage street, but over H. J. Sanson lived was a double lot house occupied by Edward Ballengee. Then there was Mr. Day's house and all the southwest portion of town from Portage st. was Mr. Day's farm. There were only two houses on the south side of Front street, one where Amos Touse now lives, which was John Hamilton's home. This house was afterward moved up the hill and was a part of the Terriere house standing where Mrs. Levi now resides. This house was moved away by Mr. Redden and is now located near the brick yard. The second was where Mr. Burch's home now stands. There were no streets running south except Portage street and in 1854 no other street south had been opened up.

On the Mead farm was an Indian trail which extended to South Bend. The Indians had passed through about two years before. At the time of the purchase of this farm there were two stores in the town. The one on the corner now occupied by W. F. Runner was owned by Staples and Staples, and the family lived above the store. The other, a very small store where the First National Bank now stands, was owned by Garrett Morris. When Mr. and Mrs. William Mead went to live by themselves, they could not buy a rolling pin at the stores and so the good wife rolled out her biscuits with an ear of corn and baked them on a reflector before the fireplace.

The next building on the north side of Front street was the house where Dr. Garland now resides. At that time the build-

by O. Lawrence Hawthorne

There's one thing any man can get
An' never spend a dime;
Nobuddy's ever bought one yet,
In all the years o' time!
But it's the greatest gift that life
Can give from start t' end
(Except a true an' lovin' wife),
An' that's a faithful friend.

Yes, makin' friends 'll always be
The secret of success—
I mean that folks like you an' me
Will find more happiness
With one good friend, than all the fools
The world has ever known
That use their fellow men fer tools,
Or go their way alone.

The art o' makin' friends—Why, say,
That's all we're livin' for!
There isn't any other way
T' find the open door
To all God's beauties everywhere!
You'll never reach the end
O' joy's bright pathway when you share
Yer gladness with a friend.

ing was only one story high and was the home of John Groves, the first lawyer of Buchanan. There was also a house where Mr. Sol Rough now lives, and where afterward Mrs. A. P. Peacock was born, a part of which is now Mrs. L. P. Alexander's woodshed, and the other part is the little house west of the D. H. Bower home.

Mr. Mitchell lived in the property where the Berwick property now stands. At this time an acre of land was purchased of Mr. Mitchell by a few men who lived in and near the village for a burying ground. It was surveyed and laid out in lots by Edward Ballengee. The first burial in this cemetery was a child of David Sanford. The second and third burials were Mrs. Nicholas, daughter of Mr. Ballengee, and her infant child. The road past Oak Ridge cemetery then went no further than about where Mr. James White now lives. At this place there was a house occupied by Daniel Roe.

There was the road, however, that ran out toward the Bartness place. The first school house stood near the present home of Charles Diggins. Emory M. Plimpton taught a school here at an early day and also taught singing. Mrs. Anne William's brother, Mr. Borden, taught in the school house about 53 years ago. L. P. Alexander was one of the first directors. In 1844 the only church built was the United Brethren, which was inclosed but not seated. The Methodists had the first religious organization. The United Brethren organized next and the Presbyterians were third.

William C. Harrison was the first doctor in Buchanan. He lived where Mr. George H. Black now resides. There he dug a well outside his yard, put a cover over it and a sign, "Jacob's well", and the people would go there to get water. Dr. Morsehouse was the second doctor in town. In 1847 J. D. Ross came to Buchanan and for nearly 20 years was the most prominent merchant in town. Mr. Ross erected the first brick store in Buchanan. In 1854, when Mr. Totten came to the village he bought ten acres on Front street, where Mr. Thomas now lives.

On the last of October, 1862, an extension fire laid in ashes all the buildings on Front street, east of Main, destroying about 20 buildings and a large amount of property. Men, women and children turned out and helped. One daring young lady led horses from the ivery barn of Julius Russell, up the Niles road, and tied them to trees. Some amusing things happened. It is said that Leroy Bronson carried a washstand and bowl filled with water from M. R. Alexander's house on Main street to the present site of the churches and carried it very carefully so as not to spill any water.

But it was a terrible event for Buchanan. The wind was blowing hard so that sparks blew across the river, setting fire to a barn that was burned down. The village, however, recovered from the effects of the fire. All the brick blocks except one have been built since then; beautiful homes were built; churches and a fine school house were constructed and Buchanan became a thriving village.

GEORGE ORRIS

The passing of George Orris has made foot prints on the sands of time. Foot prints of honesty and integrity. He was loved by all who knew him, for his kind and friendly disposition. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand in the hour of sorrow or adversity and will be greatly missed by his children and a wide circle of friends.

By T. W. Bellingham
The winter it came and our father dear,
Heard the call of the boatman pale,
And crossing the river of death,
No fear
Did it come with the passing gale.

He did travel the weary road we know,
Way beyond the allotted span,
And went where the river will ever flow,
For the good of God's creature man.

His work, it was done, and the milestone passed,

As he paused at the break of day,
And he lies at rest, in the land at last,
Fast asleep, on the earthly way.
A brother so true, he had work to do,
And he did that work with a will,
As sunshine and shadow, he must pass through
Till he climbed up God's holy hill.

We will miss him here in this vale of sighs,
Since he went through the golden gate,
But the land of welcome beyond the skies,
There the loved ones in patience wait.

And the flowers they bloom in that land of light,
Where no shadow of death appears,
And our faith, it then will give place to sight,
Where our God wipes away all tears.

So goodnight dear Dad, till the "morn'-breaks,"
With its light on the golden shore,
The sun here may shadow the silver lakes,
But we meet then, to part no more.

"Where did the car hit him?" asked the coroner.
"At the junction of the dorsal and cervical vertebrae," replied the medical witness.

The foreman of the jury rose from his seat.
"Man and boy I've lived in these parts for fifty years," he protested ponderously, "an' I never heered o' the place."

Lawyer to auto accident victim: "Gentlemen of the jury, the driver of the car stated he was going only six miles an hour. Think of the long agony of my poor client, the victim, as the car dove so slowly over him!"

Take Mother Bear,
Three Cubs, Alive

Menominee, Mich. — A mother bear and her three cubs, just a few days old, were captured alive by Peter Weber and his neighbors, William and Emil Biel and George Leslie, on the Weber farm on the Menominee river in Marinette county after a long tussle. The mother bear weighs about 300 pounds.

Hearing a growl, the men found the bear family in an old pine stump. After plunging the side and top of the stump, the men procured a rope with which they lassoed the mother around the neck. Through the side door they tied her hind legs. When she poked her head out through the top of the stump they got a muzzle device over her nose. Then they dragged her into the open.
