Now Here's

NOTHING FIT TO PRINT
By Haws

Who scans this weekly issue may read where we have spread in ninety-six letters directly overhead the new and startling tidings that Mister Harry Brown will run for re-election as mayor of the town. May learn that Al and Harry are running neck and neck. To win the proud distinction of being village sec All which is stale and lifeless, we get no kind of fun From sitting in the grand stand when politicians run The sort of information that puts the kick in life Is when some frightened husband is running for his life. While, bent for alimony, his true and loving spouse Attaches all his money and confiscates his cows. This week no frate wifie is giving hubby fits With 13 kinds of warrants and fourteen kinds of writs; There is no wild excitement to break this awful hush While scared and hatless husbands are scooting to the brush. The household conflicts dwindle, domestic battles stop. We draw the sad conclusion that marriage is a flop. No true and loving wifie loads up her trusty gat And shows her fond affection by shooting through his hat. Next week some loving couple may pull some phoney stunt And help ye village paper to liven up ye front. Oh, polish up the sabers and trot the cannon out And give our head line writer something to write about. Some bigamous proceedings or tales of lurid tint That comes beneath the caption of "news that's fit to print."

MICH. CITY ATTY. CRASHES CARS ON FRONT ST WED.

CARS OF J. H. PORTZ AND NORRIS BACHMAN ARE DAMAGED

While a well known Michigan City attorney was washing down Front street yesterday afternoon he struck the rear end of the car of J. H. Portz, who had just backed out from his parking place across from his place of business. Portz' car was catapulted down the street ahead of the attorney striking the rear of a car driven by Norris Bachman, an employee of the Indiana & Michigan Electric Co., driving the latter car upon the sidewalk in front of the Buchanan Dry Goods store and smashing the tire carrier into the rear of the body. The lights and front fenders on the Portz car were damaged.

The attorney stopped and gave Portz his address, stating that his insurance company would be more than glad to take care of all damages.

"WHITE WAY" TO BE DONE SAT. NIGHT

Forty new boulevard lights were in commission on Front street last night, and the work of installation is being pushed to a rapid completion by the force of men employed by the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, in the hope that the contract may be complete by Saturday night.

The lights present a beautiful appearance and have met with general approval, both on the part of the residents on the streets so improved, and by the general public, including out of town people who have noted the installation.

"I consider that my lot on Front street has been increased in value $200 by the new lights," remarked one property owner.

When the installation is complete the lights will extend along Front street from Terre Coupe road to Portage, one block south along Days avenue and on Main from Front to Dewey avenue.

B. H. S. Will Debate Schoolcraft High School in State League Contest Here Tomorrow Night

CONTEST IS FIRST TILT OF FINALS

Local Speakers to Defend Direct Primary Against Guests

Whether or not Buchanan high school is to go in the race for state debating honors this year will be decided tomorrow afternoon when they meet the team representing Schoolcraft high school in the local school auditorium at 3 p. m., when they will defend the direct primary against the arguments of the visiting speakers.

While the debate is set at an hour that will prohibit many from attending, it affords an excellent opportunity for friends of the school to appraise its achievements in the intellectual field, and to learn much relative to an important question of the hour in addition.

The fortunes of the school have been placed in the hands of Glenn Whitaker, Bertina Desenberg, and Robert French, who have been leading factors in the successes of the school this year. Defeat for the locals would mean elimination. Regardless of the outcome, however, the Buchanan team made an enviable record in the preliminaries, as the following letter received by Coach Charles King will attest:

Mr. Chas. King, Debate Coach,
Buchanan High School
Buchanan, Mich.
My dear Mr. King:

The records in this office show that your school earned fifteen points in the Preliminary Series of the Michigan High School Debating League during the present year. Only seven other schools in the League earned fifteen points. They are: Bronson, East Tawas, Memphis, Noah Adams, Plymouth, Rogers City, Scottville. Kindly accept our congratulations on your splendid record attained this year.

Assuring you that it is a pleasure to forward this information, I wish to remain
Sincerely yours,
G. E. Densmore,
Manager Mich. High School
Debating League.

The leading cows in the different classes are listed below:
3 year class—C. Smith's "Gladys," 53.5 lbs fat; 4 year class—Doan's Straub's "Dapple," 67.3 lbs fat; 5 year class—Doan's Straub's "Lassie," 61.0 lbs fat; mature class—Plynna Herd's "Blossom," 74.9 lbs fat.

CHARLES BACHMAN
AND T. D. CHILDS
"DO NOT CHOOSE"

HIDE DEALER SAVES HIS OWN IN COURT TILT

Deb Voorhees, local trapper and dealer in skins, won a temporary victory at least in his tilt with Richard Condon, deputy state conservation officer, in the court of Justice Al Charles Monday afternoon, when he conducted his defense on the charge of illegal hide purchases competently enough to hang the jury and so preserve his own skin for another week at least.

Whether it was the power of argument and the knowledge of jury psychology or the power of the barrage of tobacco smoke emitted from his Missouri merchaunt (both not appear in the findings of the jury, but it is known that after the clouds of smoke had cleared away four out of the six good men and true had succumbed to Mr. Voorhees.

Peering over the rims of his spectacles through the blue haze, Voorhees conducted his own case throughout, examining the witness or haranguing the jury as he waved his cornucopia in the air or gripped it between his teeth and rolled out fresh clouds of smoke, shooting his questions at the witnesses and skillfully aiding them when they proved halting in answer.

Most damaging of the witnesses for the prosecution was Harvey Fletcher, Buchanan high school football and basketball star, who testified that Voorhees had paid $1.50 for a weasel hide in December.

Carl Linseman, another high school student, testified that Voorhees had offered to buy hides from him, and that he had delivered to him the furs of two skunks, an opossum and a weasel.

Cleveland Horner, Galien deputy state conservation officer, testified that he had visited the Voorhees home in January and was told by Mrs. Voorhees that her husband was no longer in the fur business but that he had bought furs in Indiana for another buyer.

Horner further testified that after search of the Voorhees home in company with Deputy Earl Dunbar, he had found 14 skunk hides, but no furs that came under the ban of the new law.

Voorhees denied that he had bought furs in Indiana for sale, claiming that in any purchases he had acted merely as the purchasing agent for M. R. Mead of Baroda, Tex. Other local trappers, W. Horner and Fred Fedora, testified that checks given them by Voorhees were signed by Mead.

After the conclusion of the case, district deputy Condon, who conducted the case for the state said that the case would be tried over in the same court beginning at 1 p. m. next Monday afternoon, at which time County Prosecuting Attorney George H. Bookwalter is to conduct the case for the state.

BEILHARZ TO PRESENT A COMEDY

Family Will Be Upstairs in
B. H. S. Auditorium
This Evening

Whether or not some Buchanan girl may receive an education or not depends to no small extent to the response made by the local public to the splendid dramatic offering which is to be made tonight by the College Club, in the form of an entertainment by the Noah Beilharz troupe at the high school auditorium.

Preliminary ticket sales are reported to have lagged up until last night, but any shortage may be readily made up by a liberal purchase at the box office window this evening.

Beilharz presented "The Family Upstairs," the play to be presented here tonight, to an audience of 800 at Mishawaka a few nights ago, meeting a splendid reception. His entertainment needs no commendation to the local public, who are thoroughly familiar with his quality. He is among the few distinguished stage artists of the nation who has been accorded a place in "Who's Who," and his coming here is an exceptional event for a town of this size.

Come out tonight and aid a good cause while treating yourself to some high class entertainment.

FULTON POWERS SUFFERS STROKE OF APOPLEXY

PARTIALLY DISABLED TWO WEEKS BEFORE BY FALL
ON ICY WALK

Fulton Powers, aged deaf and dumb man, who has lived the life of a semi-recluse for many years at his home on the corner of Oak and Dewey, suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy while eating his dinner at the K. K. cafe at noon Tuesday. Powers had been confined to his home for the past two weeks by a broken arm and several broken ribs which he incurred when he fell on the icy sidewalk. Tuesday noon he called at the Cafe saying that the attendant who had been bringing his meals to him had forgotten him and that he had had nothing for the past 24 hours. He seated himself on a stool at the counter, when he was seen to crumple forward, and one of the patrons seated on the adjoining stool threw an arm around him and saved him from falling. The Hamilton ambulance was called and he was taken to the Clark hospital, where his condition was said not to be serious.

TOWNSHIP TREAS. WILL CLOSE BOOKS SATURDAY, FEB. 25

Taxpayers of Buchanan township have until the end of the coming week to pay their financial obligations, according to the township treasurer, Emma Knight, after which time the tax if unpaid, becomes delinquent and a penalty of 4 per cent is immediately imposed.

Mrs. Knight has been very accommodating in delaying the payment until the last possible moment, and has left herself a minimum amount of time wherein to make out her reports and turn the township collections in to the county treasury at St. Joseph.

GLENDORA AND GALLEN FARMERS SIGN FOR BEETS

MINT JULEP BELT WRITING
LARGER ACREAGE
THIS YEAR

The contracts signed to date indicate a heavier acreage of sugar beets in the section of Berrien county running through Galien devoted to that crop, according to Warren Hagley, field representative for the Continental Sugar company, who was a visitor in Buchanan Monday, making arrangements for a sale on his farm north of Galien.

The Continental Sugar Company is offering a 45-55 contract this year, making a flat price of $6.75 per ton to the grower, with a chance of a bonus. The bonus offer is on the following basis. At the end of the four month period comprising October, November, January and February, the company determines the average wholesale paid in New York City during that time. The company then takes 45 per cent of the average number of pounds of sugar per ton which that crop brought, and multiplies the result by the average wholesale price for the four-month period.

The result is what the grower will actually receive for his beets, provided the sum is not less than the $6.75 which he is guaranteed. Everything above the $6.75 mark is his bonus. While no bonus would be likely on the basis of the $5.50 per cwt. wholesale price which the company received last year, it might amount to as much as $3 per ton in case sugar should rise to prices which have been paid within the past few years.

An attractive feature in the contracts this year is the free beet seed provision.

The Continental is furnishing contract hand labor at 22¢ per acre with a clause providing for 75 cents additional for each ton produced over 9 tons.

Heavy inroads into the beet acreage were made by pepper mint plantings, when that product was selling as high as $25 per pound a few years back, but the pendulum is again swinging to the sugar crop.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT NAMED LAST NIGHT TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

Republicans Play to a Full House
In The Cathcart Building
Last Night

Village President Harry B. Brown was nominated for election to succeed himself at the Republican caucus held in the Cathcart building, the present town head demonstrating his position by running away from a field of three and taking the top place on the ticket on the first ballot.

Brown manifested reluctance to enter is said to have been overcome when rumors came yesterday afternoon that a move would be made to defeat the administration in its own caucus.

The caucus was first called for the village council chambers, but was adjourned to the Cathcart building on Front street when it became apparent that the quarters advertised would not accommodate the crowd. In the neighborhood of 150 people attended, taxing the Cathcart building to capacity.

George Rogers was elected as chairman and Harold Kiehn was made secretary of the meeting.

Walter Shoop was also elected to succeed himself, taking the place on the first ballot against Frank Merson.

On a call for nominations for the seven trustees, Frank Merson, Fred Mead, A. S. Bonner and Chas. Boone were named, Merson receiving a majority on the first ballot.

A. S. Bonner, Fred Mead and Charles Boone were nominated for the third trustee, Bonner being returned with a majority on the fourth balloting.

Justices of the peace Rex E. Lamb and Al Charles were named for the clerkship, the latter winning on the first ballot.

Arthur Wray was nominated on the third ballot for treasurer, over T. D. Childs and Ted Rouse.

Wilson Letter, Jay Glover and T. D. Childs were nominated for assessor. Chairman Rogers called on Letter to state whether or not he would keep his place on the People's ticket. He said he would not accept, as the nomination for trustee on that ticket had been made without his consent. He was then nominated by the meeting for the assessorship.

Harleigh W. Riley, Walter E. Shoop and Charles Landis were re-named as members of the Republican notification committee.

Members of the Citizens party met at the village council chambers Monday night and placed a ron D. Childs, as candidate for president of the council and a representative selection of citizens as his running mates.

The meeting was opened with the election of C. Hamilton to the chair and the selection of A. L. Kiser for secretary. William Kohlmann, Mrs. William Young and Cress Weldon were elected tellers.

The meeting was then declared open for the nomination of council presidents, and the names of Alec Hiller and Theron D. Childs were placed before the caucus, balloting resulting in the selection of Childs.

Nominations for village clerk were called for and the names of Cress Weldon, Harry Post and Herman Hess were proposed. Cress Weldon and Herman Hess withdrew in favor of Mr. Post and the secretary was instructed to cast a unanimous ballot in his behalf.

On a call for nominations for assessor, George Hess, Jess Bradley, Alonzo Howe and Henry Eisele were placed before the meeting. George Hess withdrew his name and the balloting resulted in the selection of Henry Eisele.

For treasurer the names of Herman Hess, Fred Schwartz and Clarence Runyon were placed in nomination. Herman Hess withdrew his name and the balloting resulted in the selection of Runyon.

Next in order was the nomination of three candidates for councilman and the names of Jess Bradley, Harry Barry, Wilson Letter and Charles Bachman were placed before the meeting. After four ballots, the names of Harry Barry, Wilson Letter and Charles Bachman were placed on the slate.

Quotations on old shoes this week are a dollar flat, regardless of size, age, color or previous condition of servitude, according to the market as established at the Roti Roti shoe store, as per their advertisement on another page of this paper. Of course, there might be a catch in it somewhere, and you ought to read the advertisement before rushing impulsively down to the store and offering your shoes. All the shoes taken in are to go to the United Charities, and all considerate people will have some thought of the people who may wear them before they turn in anything too delapidated.

SPORT NEWS

BUCHANAN MIT
ARTIST WORST
CHICAGO PUG

Johnnie Hoekstra, popular local welterweight, made his debut as a sport card headliner at the Clark theater Tuesday night, when he took on a tough bunch of cauliflower from Chicago by the name of Kewpie Trimble and outboxed him for six out of the ten rounds for a decision.

While Hoekstra deserved his decision, the fight was by no means one sided, the Chicago lad displaying an ability to absorb all he had and more, and unpacking a vicious left. He had nothing on Hoekstra in endurance, however, the local lad appearing in the pink of condition. Hoekstra had the Chicago man outclassed in boxing and footwork, though his circle-and-retreat methods seemed to detract somewhat from the old time power that earned him a knockout record as a curtain-raiser.

Trimble looked awkward in the opening rounds of the fight, taking swallows with almost no defense, and displaying the graceful footwork of a dancing bear. During the first stanza Hoekstra opened a cut over his left eye which bothered him throughout the battle. As the fight progressed he displayed a clever duck-and-cover defense that rendered most of the frequent blows landed harmless. Hoekstra took the first four rounds by a margin. In the fifth Trimble uncorked some mean left jabs that made Hoekstra more wary, and they fought on even terms for the next three rounds. In the eighth round Trimble assumed the offensive and rushed Hoekstra with short right and left jabs, the local boy falling through the ropes in one of the rushes. Hoekstra took the lead back in the ninth and tenth swinging rights and lefts to the head and body. He was slightly wild, however, missing a number of unpercents. Trimble was tired and his guard weakened.

The small crowd greeted the decision of Referee C. L. Miltenberger with an ovation for the popular local boy. Efforts are now being made to match him with Al Wolgast of Niles, who recently lost the welterweight championship of Michigan.

Walter Hanson of Buchanan fought a preliminary with Jack Mathes of Dowagiac, losing to him for the third time within the past year and a half. Hanson rushed Mathes in the first round and looked like a good bet, but evidently tired himself out, using poor judgment in the expenditure of his strength. The ball saved him from a possible knockout in the third round, when it intervened when the count reached six, and he was badly outclassed in the fourth.

The bout advertised to take place between the Ranbarth brothers of Three Rivers, 11 and 12 years old, was called off on account of a ruling by the state boxing commission which forbids bouts between minors under sixteen years of age.

Although the crowd was slim and the affair a failure from the box office point of view, the fights were uniformly excellent and the fans who attended well satisfied that they had received their money's worth of fight.

FIGHT RESULTS

Cyclone Johnnie Hoekstra, Buchanan, won from Kewpie Trimble, Chicago, 10 rounds.
Buck Jones, LaPorte, won from Jackie Coogan, South Bend, six.
Eddie Lockridge, of Niles, and Young Kyle of Mishawaka, fought draw, four.

Jack Mathes, Dowagiac, won from Walter Hanson, Buchanan, four.

Young McFarland, Mishawaka, won by technical knockout from Kid Williams, Elkhart, four.

We are not existing only to maintain ourselves or our own organizations. This great church exists to further the work of the kingdom of God in every land. The grand total of our benevolent gifts for work outside of Buchanan last year was $2,258.00. This amount was the particular contribution of our local people to kingdom interests in the wide world, and does not include the amounts spent for support of the home work.
Hear the lecture and see some of the most beautiful pictures you ever saw on Sunday night. It is worth your while to be associated with a great movement that seeks the betterment of the whole world of humanity.
H. Liddicoat, Minister.

FORMER GOV. OPPOSES PLEDGED DELEGATION TO REP. CONVENTION
Opposition to sending a Michigan delegation to the Republican convention pledged for Hoover was indicated by former Governor Osborne in an address at the annual Genesee County Lincoln banquet Thursday night.
"God help our people," he said, "when a convention is cut and dried. Abraham Lincoln was nominated by an open minded, up-pledged convention. The time has come when we need another such nomination and election."

"Who's the Speaker of the House?" roared the political science prof during an oral exam.
"Mother," responded the meek-looking frosh in the corner seat.

VALENTINE DAY
DISTRACTS MINDS
B. H. S. STUDENTS

In this modern era of today, there seems to be nothing that is not changed. These changes have come about slowly—so slowly that they have not been greatly noticed.

But, when history is reviewed and compared with the history being made today, some things become absurd.

Yesterday, probably every one observed in some way, Saint Valentine's Day. But many probably didn't even know why they were sending Valentines.

The idea originated in Rome ages ago, when Saint Valentine, a bishop and martyr of the church was put to death for his faith. On the eve of Saint Valentine's Day young people of both sexes used to meet, and each of them drew one by lot from a number of names of the opposite sex, which were put into a common receptacle.

The match of the lot was got a lady for his Valentine, and became the valentine of a lady. In this way the custom of giving valentines has come down through the ages, and has become more and more of an event each year.

Now, it is very doubtful if the world could exist without it—at least the younger generation would be at a loss without it.

However, things are indeed different than in that olden time in Rome. The method of procedure is vastly changed though the same reasons are involved.

It would be interesting to note the shy young males attempting to defeat their opponents by giving their fair young blushing maid a perfectly gorgeous, ribbon bedecked Valentine. It surely would be interesting—but that sort of thing is no longer the vogue.

In the first place, the modern boy could hardly be termed shy and the "fair young blushing maid" is, we hope, forever extinct.

But we still have the thought back of the more modern tokens of devotion received from the worshipping male. And, of old, the flapper still feels the thrill at the simple, but significant verses found on their gifts.

And so, we find the entire student body of B. H. S. wandering around the halls, engrossed in deep and troubled thought. Some even have a worried air about them. The reason for the pre-occupation is easily guessed. The so-called weaker sex is content.

Plating just "who will send the best valentine hoping it will be the right one. While the grey hairs appearing suddenly among the male heads may be attributed to the intense concentration necessary to determine just what he should do about it.

These problems are undoubtedly weighty for these busy people, but it only happens once a year. So perhaps they will survive without serious injuries.

PAUL KIZER AGAIN LEADS IN BOOKKEEPING TEST

Paul Kizer carried off the high score in the bookkeeping test for the second time.

This being the third test of the five sent out by the South Western Publishing Co. on the Fundamentals of Bookkeeping, the highest possible standard in the test was 125. Paul had a mark of 116.

Second place was won by Dorothy Eisele with a mark of 106. She also has had one second place before and fourth in the first test.

Glenn Whitaker was third and Sarah Jane Ernst fell a bit below her average by coming in fourth, as in the first test she held 2nd place and in the second test she was first.

As there is a prize given at the end of the year to the person having the highest average, it is up to the participants to put forth their best efforts and each do his best to try to win the prize.

NEW TROY SCHOOL NOTES

One of the best basketball games of the season was witnessed at Penwell's hall last Friday evening when the Stevensville team invaded our camp. That was the last home game with the exception of a benefit game, the date of which will be announced later. The remainder of our schedule is as follows:

Feb. 22, St. Johns, there.

Feb. 27, Beroda, there.

A Lincoln program was presented in the high school assembly room Monday together with the final organization for the safety patrol work which will be in force the rest of the school year.

The officers of the patrol are as follows: Captain, John Sexton; Lieutenant, Vern Richardson; members of the patrol, Erdman Sch-lender, Axmer Olson, Gerald Johns, Clarence Wirth, George Meyer, John Macholski.

The rules formed by the patrol went into effect last Monday and will continue for the rest of the year.

The fourth term examinations have been in progress the past week. This marks the end of thirty-two weeks of school.

Orin Penland returned to school last Friday after an absence of three weeks in the northern part of the state.

Our basketball team has enrolled for the district tournament to be held at Niles, March 1, 2 and 3.

Claude DeWitt is the president of the club assisted by vice-president Frank Hickox and Phay Wilcox, who is secretary and treasurer.

A business meeting was also held mapping out a program for the remaining year. Committees were picked to take care of the club business.

Many of the teachers turned diplomats trying to secure an invitation and of course, big-hearted Murr took pity on them, so it was a merry party.

B. H. S. TO DEBATE
SCHOOLCRAFT HERE
FRIDAY EVENINGWILL BE FIRST TRIAL IN THE ELIMINATION SERIES

The B. H. S. auditorium will be the scene of another interschool debate Friday afternoon when the Schoolcraft debating team will swap arguments with the Buchanan trio. In this, the first debate of the elimination series in which 64 schools are competing, Buchanan will uphold the affirmative and Schoolcraft the negative side of the question. Resolved, that the direct primary should be abolished.

Glenn Whitaker, Bertha Desenberg and Robert French will represent the local institution and will endeavor to convince the judges that their side of the argument is the correct one.

Whether Buchanan continues in the state series or not depends solely on the outcome of this debate for 32 schools will be dropped by next Friday night. Schoolcraft has a formidable record, having finished the season with twelve points—two unanimous decisions over strong teams, one 2 to 1 victory and one 2 to 1 defeat. That no easy task is cut out for the Buchanan debaters is terribly certain.

FRESHMEN WIN BASKET GAME WITH JUNIOR'S AID

As predicted, the made over Freshman five is playing excellent basketball and surprised not a few by a 13 to 6 victory over the Juniors last Friday.

Eddie Smiles, a Junior, was the center of attraction in this game. At the beginning of the second half he either became confused or thought he would like to see the Freshmen win for he nearly tossed the ball through the wrong basket. Such things will happen in the excitement of the game and everyone has forgiven him for the painful sides which they received from laughter.

The Freshmen are in good line for the numerals which are to be awarded to the winning squad.

Score by quarters:
Juniors ----- 4 0 0 2-6
Freshmen ----- 1 2 6 4-13

B. H. S. PLAYS ROUND OAKERS IN THEIR CAMP ON FRIDAY

Buchanan meets Downgrade on her own floor tomorrow evening. The Maroons won once from the Round Oakers earlier in the season and are hopeful of repeating.

However, no prophesies are advanced in this column. Buchanan's poor showing in the Niles game although defeat was unavoidable, behooves the squad to scrutinize itself to see wherein it is lacking.

Coach Bradford thinks that the squad might have gone stale from too much practice and is therefore giving the crew a rest this week.

It will be a sad story, if Dowd-giac also gives B. H. S. a good trimming. Lets hope the boys find themselves before long.

JUNIOR HIGH ROLLS SENIORS IN THE DUST

The Junior High proceeded, last Friday afternoon, to seize the dope bucket and spill it over everything, when they gave the Seniors a terrible 15 to 8 wallop.

The Junior high led 4 to 2 at the end of the first quarter and upon the entrance of the Morse twins increased the lead to 7 to 4 at the half.

In the second half they were invincible and played the best basketball of any class quinter so far this season. The Seniors, completely downcast and dumfounded were not allowed to make a single point in the third quarter while the younger boys ran their score up to eleven.

In the last quarter young Eisenhart broke through the class of '28 for two baskets which brought his total to five points, making him high man for his team.

French and Weaver shared alike in defeat with only three points apiece.

THE CLASSIFIED page is paging the buyers and telling them volumes.

GRADE NEWS

Mrs. Stark taught for Mrs. Russell, who was absent last Friday on account of illness.

Our Junior high boys play Gallien this week Monday night on the local floor.

Mr. Kathryn Kelley from Berrien Springs' schools, visited our primary department last Friday.

We welcome back two of our Junior high boys, who have been absent many weeks on account of illness, Dee Weaver and Dick Morris.

A unique and well rendered program was enjoyed by the grades last Friday afternoon in the auditorium. Miss Ekstrom and her fifth grade pupils put on a health play and a few interesting numbers which made a full program.

We have now enrolled 150 in our Junior High department, covering two grades. This is the highest enrollment since this department was organized.

Several annuals have been sold at this early date to Junior High and grade pupils. Possibly the sales are due to the good work done by George Wynn and Robert French, who presented the outline to the pupils one day last week.

Don't forget our art exhibit during the week of Feb. 20.

The art work this week consists mostly of Valentines made by the pupils in the several grades.

A splendid Lincoln Day program was put on by the High school last Friday morning. Mrs. Ormiston, in her charming manner, sang two very appropriate numbers.

The following conversation took place in the History class one day last week. Teacher: "What is a liberty bond?" Pupil: "Some-thing you throw out on the ocean before it explodes."

Last Thursday the teachers of the Ward school entertained Mrs. Russell, Miss Wendland and Mrs. Pennell at a delightful luncheon served in Miss Milburn's room at five o'clock.

Next Friday Miss Pears from the primary department, goes to Chicago as a delegate to the B. G. U. sorority when the national officers will be entertained.

This week Tuesday and Wednesday the grade teachers are putting on the Detroit tests. This grading will be done by the Detroit office and reports sent back to Supt. Stark.

Over two hundred bottles of milk per day are enjoyed by our pupils who are underweight. We are anxiously awaiting the compiled results at the end of the month when our school nurse, Mrs. Lamb, will weigh all pupils.

We have sent to the Chicago office for two more 100 per cent Thrift certificates. Not only the teachers but the pupils are interested in this good work.

Miss Hopkins has some very good Health Habit Posters on exhibit in her fifth grade room.

The first final certificate in Palmer Penmanship goes this year to Maxine Howe, in Miss Abel's room.

The fourth grades made around $19 at their candy sale held last week.

We still have too many cases of tardiness all through the school system. Let's all work together and overcome this habit which if allowed to continue on the part of the pupils will react against him in later life.

A mother's week is being planned to take place some time in March. During this period we are hoping for a goodly number of visits from the home folks. However, we gladly welcome parents or friends at any time.

There are a few bird houses ready made by the boys under Mr. Miller's supervision that may be had by calling Mr. Miller. These houses when put up in the back yard extend a hearty greeting to your friends who will soon be returning from wintering in the sunny southland.

We are told that Philip Hamilton sold the greatest number of tickets to the ball game which took place this week Monday night. His salesmanship reached the climax in selling ten to Supt. Stark.

The seventh grade boys are working on several different projects in their manual training periods. The following articles are some that are now under construction: bookrack, scales, footstool, floor lamps, parrot lamps, magazine racks, necktie holders and bird houses.

The following articles are some that are under construction by the 8th graders: garden hose holder, hall tree, book ends, magazine holders, table lamps and library tables. Visitors are always welcome in Mr. Miller's classes.

NILES AVENGES
FOOTBALL DEFEAT
IN CAGE VICTORY

RUNS AWAY FROM BUCHANAN IN THIRD PERIOD OF GAME

Niles high school administered a good drubbing to the Maroon and White despite the vain efforts of the Buchanan five last Friday evening to make Niles the recipient. Niles won by a score of 30-14 which was one of the best trimmings the Blue and Gold has ever given a Buchanan quintet and may have, at least in the eyes of the Niles fans, avenged the defeat which the "Fightin' Outfit" treated them to on the gridiron this fall.

Although the first half was quite well played and Buchanan seemed able to hold it down at least, the third period ushered in a terrible walk away by the Niles crew.

Morse drew first blood in the opening minutes of the game and after Pierce and Wynn had both missed a free throw the latter sunk another one. Niles dropped one in and the score remained 4 to 2 through the remainder of the quarter.

In the second stanza Schulke tied the score and Savoldi forged one point ahead on a free throw. Buchanan took time out. Morse scored on the next play and was also allowed two free shots but missed both. Chase scored for Niles and the score was 7 to 6. Chase was again good for two points and was also given two free shots which he made. After Buchanan men had missed numerous free throws and Knight had made one the half ended with Letcher taking Savoldi's place and the score 10 to 8 in favor of Niles.

In the second half Buchanan got nowhere at all. Pierce went out on personals which weakened the team while Niles had a good substitute in Sloan, when Chase, who also went out on fouls, left the game. Myers, the new center of the Niles squad, proved his worth much to Buchanan's dismay and Schulke made four free throws in succession besides one basket. Coach Bradford hopelessly injected reserves near the end of the game, who were also hopelessly unable to raise the score to any great extent. Morse scored high for Buchanan with a total of seven points.

STUDENT EDITORIALS

Character Building

The high school faculty led by Mr. Ormiston have been working to make some definite progress toward the idea of character building. Realizing that perhaps this important aim of high school had been somewhat neglected they inaugurated, last year, the practice of giving citizenship grades instead of the customary report.

Still believing that this had many weaknesses, they continued their search for better methods and next month will adopt a slight change in the citizenship idea.

Citizenship marks have been rather indefinite in the past. If your high school son came home with a 2, 3, or 4 you were interested enough to inquire about it he probably told you that he didn't know why he received that particular mark. That the teacher bore him a grudge might have been his lame excuse.

With the February marks a definite basis of judging will be followed by the teachers. On the recommendation of the Student Council the faculty have adopted a uniform set of qualities on which they will mark.

These qualities are honesty, courtesy, striving for the best, avoiding disturbing others, attitude toward teachers and work, obedience, pride in the appearance of school, attendance, punctuality, co-operation.

Now when the grades are given out the student may, if he desires, go to the teacher and find out exactly in what quality the teacher considers him lacking. It is hoped that this will tend not only to make a student a better school citizen but also to bring about a better understanding between faculty and students. Time will tell whether or not our expectations are fulfilled.

AUTOS AND BUSINESS RESULTS

Reducing the prices of cars to the public has been the mid-winter occupation of many automobile manufacturers. Some reductions have been slight, others important, and the total of all reductions, applied to the annual production, will amount to many millions. Economies in production have made price reductions possible and the lower prices are expected to speed up buying by the public.

Indications point to a busy and important year for the manufacturers of all cars, heavy, medium and light. On cars where prices have not been changed materially improvements have been made so the value the buyer receives is greater than in the past. All manufacturers have given their best efforts to the production of cars that appeal to the public. The buyer this year will be able to choose among many and feel assured of finding a car that will give him the service and pleasure he seeks and at a reasonable price.

The automobile manufacturers have become enormously important to the country, their operations are of such magnitude, their needs for material are so great and varied, their demand for labor provides such enormous payroll distribution, and the changed habits of the people, developed around the automobile, stimulate trade in so many lines that the country steps ahead when the auto trade is heavy and slows down when production is held back. The American people have made over their habits of life because of the automobile. It has been done quietly and quickly, but it has been done in a permanent way. Distance, speed, comfort, service all have been given a new meaning with the use of the motor car. If the manufacturers prosper greatly this year there will be improved conditions for millions of people because of that prosperity.

NATURE KEEPS HER SECRET

Scientists in Rome claim to have grown plants from seeds found in an Egyptian tomb that had been closed for more than 2000 years. The seeds were in an earthen jar in the tomb. Scientists had a wonderful experience in preparing the seeds for planting, watching the plants as the development proceeded, studying the blooms that were in profusion and free from the slightest imperfection.

How wonderfully Nature protected the germ of life in those seeds, resting in the darkness of the tomb while progress and civilization brought a new era to the world! Away from the sunlight, with no moisture about, through a score of centuries they waited for the coming of man and the opportunity to reproduce their own kind.

Scientists have learned many of the secrets of Nature, but the secret of life remains, where Nature placed it, away from the reach of man. In the presence of that life germ in the seeds taken from the tomb the most learned scientist was as helpless as a babe. Man has not found the secret of life, cannot understand it, the great mystery of life has been a secret through all the ages. In the presence of that tiny seed, able to loose the life germ and reproduce its kind; how little man has earned after all his search and effort! How surely Nature has locked up her great secret!

WINTER MOTORING ACCIDENTS

While figures compiled by the National Safety Council show that automobile accidents decrease in cold weather, it is believed that in proportion to the number of cars on the road and their mileage more motorists come to grief in winter than in summer. To the car owner winter brings troubles of its own. One of these is steam frost on the windshield and the resulting obstruction of the view ahead. This danger, of course, is confined to closed cars and may arise on a very cold day when the windows are tightly closed for warmth and the outside cold causes the moist air inside to condense on the glass. While the condensation of steam can be prevented by opening a window and lowering the inside temperatures, this has decided disadvantages when the temperature hovers around zero.

One of the remedies now recommended is glycerine. Since radiator glycerine came into general use as an anti-freeze, many car owners report success in keeping their glass free from steam and frost by rubbing it with a glycerine-moistened cloth. Some make a practice, when they have their cooling systems serviced with radiator glycerine, of filling a small bottle with the anti-freeze mixture and keeping it in the tool kit in readiness for this emergency. The peculiar qualities which keep glycerine from freezing even at 30 below zero and prevent its evaporation enable it to form an exceedingly thin film. This film clings to the glass and gives it an extra smooth finish without interfering with its transparency. In scientific terms, the glycerine "reduces surface tension," that is, it makes the glass so slippery that the tiny drops of water resulting from condensed steam cannot stick on. A bottle of radiator glycerine in the tool kit also may prove handy in a sleet storm.

Rubbed on the outside of the windshield it retards the formation of ice and helps the wiper to keep the glass clear. However, when the combination of rain and sleet and freezing temperature is just right, neither glycerine nor any other treatment yet discovered will prevent the formation of ice for any great length of time.

JERSEY WANTS TOLL ROADS

Toll roads have been eliminated from the older states where they were developed, the highways of the nation today are open and free to all travelers. Toll bridges are found only infrequently and most travelers resent their experience in making the payment. The thought of the American is to travel free and open highways, and that thought is right. Progressive cities object to toll bridges on important highways near the city, as the fee, even if it be small, has a tendency to hold back business.

But some of the seashore counties in New Jersey want to re-establish the toll roads and private turnpikes. A bill to permit that is under consideration in the legislature of that state, has strong support and may become a law. It is being promoted by exclusive groups along the shore, its proponents claiming the fee will keep many from the road, reduce congestion, diminish traffic hazards, while it leaves the good road for the interested persons to travel at will.

Many adjustments have been made in customs and ideas as automobile traffic has developed and humanity has sought for new pleasures. It may be the demand for a revival of the toll road will score a victory in New Jersey but it does not seem probable that the toll road ever again will be developed generally in the nation. It appears to be quite out of harmony with the spirit of the age and violative of customs that seem to be well established.

MOB VIOLENCE

Not many days ago Michigan was saved the stigma of a Northern lynching by the prompt action of state and county authorities. Some have said their action was illegal in incarcerating the fiend in human form in the Michigan Reformatory for safe keeping until he could be returned in safety to the county where the crime was committed for arraignment and sentence. Some said it was the desire of the officials to bask in the sunlight of sensational publicity that prompted their actions, rather than the prevention of such a disgrace to the state. There is no need for further discussion on that score. Within 48 hours after being apprehended the murderer was on his way to Marquette prison for life. From every part of the United States Michigan has been congratulated upon the prompt disposal of the case.

Suppose Hotelling had been the victim of mob violence? "Lynching is a crime that leaves its stain upon us all," says the Federal Council of Churches through its commission on race relations. More than four thousand people have been victims of mob violence in this country, and a summons to church people to penitence and prayer has been issued by the Council. The Council Bulletin says: "Any community that flouts the dignity of the law and courts of justice opens the way to the violent rule of the mob throughout the nation. It assaults the very ideals upon which our civilization is dependent. A nation's penitence and prayer must be summoned both to check the lynching evil and to build up deeper respect for the processes of justice and new sympathetic understanding among all the people. In the attitude of penitence and the atmosphere of prayer the best things come forth."

The sobering fact that more than four thousand people have been victims of lynching in our country has filled all people of good-will with a sense of horror and shame.

"That mob violence should have continued through the years, so that in 1926 there were as many as thirty persons lynched in the United States, brotherhood that all who are committed to the way of Christ are asked to observe a day of penitence and prayer that our American nation may be purged is flagrantly opposed to the progress of right and of this blot upon our civilization."

PREVENTION AND CURE

There is much talk of the common cold, a malady whose seriousness seems to be more and more understood and appreciated. The Federal and State Health Bureaus are issuing bulletins about it and one of the great universities is going in for thorough and systematic research to find out, if possible, what can be done about it. The common cold is no joke, as some of us have had reasons to suspect for a long time.

The person who eats sensibly, sleeps sensibly, keeps the mouth and the nasal passages clean, stays out of overheated, ill-ventilated rooms, spends considerable time in the open air and wears a sensible amount of clothing is not nearly so likely to catch cold as is the person who violates one or more of these simple rules. But he is not altogether immune, for colds are highly infectious and there are always people coughing and sneezing in one's vicinity. The better your physical condition, the better your chance to resist the infection, but your chance is by no means infallible. If every body would give direct attention to simple preventative measures the search for a cure might not be necessary. However, the preventative measures are well worth while, even if the germs from somebody else do give you a cold, for you will get well sooner.

A COURAGEOUS IRISHMAN
A HOLLOW MAGNET.
A VARIATED CLIMATE.
MORE PROPLANES NEEDED.

A real fighting Irishman has come to America. William Thos. Geoghegan, president of the Irish Free State. Diffident, seen light blue eyes, soft voice, iron will and a lion's courage. That is a picture of the Irish President for whom fear does not exist, not even the only fear admitted by his relatives, the Celtic chiefs of Gaul, who admitted that they feared one thing, that the sky might fall on them.

If you asked, "Can nothing be more powerful than something?" you would get no serious answer. But how do you explain this fact, announced by German science and proved by convincing experiment? A hollow magnet is more powerful than a solid magnet?

The absence of magnetized metal inside the magnet increases its magnetic strength. A magnet containing four hollow lamellae has as much lifting power as one containing nine solid lamellae.

Everything is possible in chemistry and physics, now that atomic construction and the horrible power and speed of the tiny electrons have been added to human knowledge. But that hollow magnet news is a thing to puzzle science.

A. D. Lasker, who ran the Shipping Board, once a young, brightly energetic boy, sitting in the outside office of Lord & Thomas, in Chicago, now even more brightly energetic, sits in the inside office and owns the place.

He and his wife have just given a million dollars to Chicago University to study the "causes, nature and prevention of degenerative diseases."

Within three hundred years, the average life has increased from thirty to sixty years, but a man of fifty has very little better chance of life than a man of that age one hundred years ago.

Lasker wisely gives money to find out why it is that human beings after fifty break down so quickly.

If the scientists will let him, Lasker should use some of his money investigating suggestions that medical science would call "all nonsense." And nonsense is what the doctors called the theories of Pasteur, who taught them more than they ever knew before.

Michael Hinch, eighteen years old, touched a live wire carrying 5,000 volts and, according to doctors, was "dead for half an hour." Quick action by firemen brought the boy back to life.

At first his mind wandered. Then he recognized friends, knew his own name, who he was and what he had been doing in the previous years.

The question arises, does the same thing happen to all of us, after we have been dead a long time, perhaps, as one earnest clergyman suggests, as long as a billion years, waiting for the world to end and Gabriel to summon us?

We have a variegated climate, dogs pulling sleds over Alaska's ice, ladies and their friends lying half-naked on the sands of Florida and California and the Gulf States.

And the thermometer does not tell everything about weather. We shiver and growl at 14 above, zero, while Donald McMillan, Arctic explorer, sent word, through radio, that he is quite comfortable at Bowdoin, Labrador, with the temperature 35 below zero.

It depends on humidity, elevation, ozone and other things, probably of which we know nothing.

A dispatch from Nicaragua says Sandino, the rebel-bandit who killed some of our marines, has been killed by a bomb from one of our airplanes.

The Nicaragua rebels now know that they have no more chance against United States flying machines than a rabbit has against eagles.

That is satisfactory so far as our Nicaragua fight goes.

But our President, Congress and Army and Navy departments should remember that several countries in Europe and at least one in Asia exceed us so greatly in air power that they could do to us, if they chose, what we have just done to Sandino.

We need fighting airplanes, not merely a sample force of the Nicaragua size.

The Emperor of Japan sets an example in economy—carries a $5 watch, cultivates his own rice field. That would surprise his great-grandfather. That Makado, by lifting a finger, could chop off anybody's head, and he did.

About Your Health

Things You Should Know

by John Joseph Gaines, M. D.
Nostrums and Quacks

Take care—be still about our druggists' shelves, and to our credit be it said, they remain there longer than they would have done fifteen years ago. Our people are learning better than to trust their health to dangerous experiment—the experiment with bottled guesswork.

At present the radio seems to be a favorite instrument of the charlatan; he can reach the patient with his oily tongue, his persuasive voice—his glittering promise, and, always for the fee, in advance! Our enterprising broadcastors, perfectly willing to get "overhead" expenses, seem to take on the vast army of peddlers—even the evil propaganda of those who prey on the sick and afflicted.

The listening sick man can protect himself, if he will exercise common-sense and reasonable business sagacity; the following suggestions may be helpful.

No really capable, honest physician or surgeon advertises, over the radio, or by any other method; he doesn't need to.

All quacks advertise, because their cash receipts depend upon the number of people who do not know them, that they can inveigle, their former dupes are no more profitable to them.

If you have a chronic disease, and hear an alluring proposition over the radio to cure you, write to your State Board of Health for reliable information before nibbling at the bait.

The quack and charlatan do not affiliate with county or state medical societies, for the simple reason that those societies have nothing to do with crooks; the quack is not trusted by life insurance societies—in fact, the radio charlatan is the finest fellow on earth, to let alone your pocket-book and your physical well being are not safe in his hands.

10,000 HOMES BUILT BY LOAN IN MICH. IN '27

Ten thousand Michigan families were aided toward home ownership by the building and loan plan, during 1927. This estimate, released by the Michigan Building and Loan League, indicates not only that building on this plan is becoming more popular, but that the "own your home" movement is growing, in spite of the increased number of apartments.

The 78 active building and loan associations of the state advanced more than $20,000,000 in loans last year, each loan averaging $2,000. A rough total of 50,000 Michigan families are now clearing debts on their homes by this plan.

Unofficial figures of the league show further that the 78 associations increased their total assets $14,837,944.00 last year, reporting $134,546,342.40 on December 31. The per cent of gain was 12.2, contrasted with 11.9 per cent in 1926. Virtually every association in the state shared in the gain. Furthermore, the list of associations having assets of $1,000,000 or more was boosted to 27.

The financial condition of associations of the state, according to the report, is the strongest that it has ever been. All associations are certain that the record will again be shattered this year, with heavy demands for loans in prospect and associations having ample funds for loaning purposes.

Detroit associations have assets totaling more than $35,000,000; Grand Rapids, $25,000,000; Lansing, $22,000,000; Jackson, $20,000,000; Saginaw, $7,000,000; Kalamazoo, $6,000,000 and Niles, Battle Creek, Ann Arbor, Monroe and Bay City, $1,000,000. Several cities have associations whose assets are just under the million mark.

About 160,000 people are investing their money in Michigan Building and Loan associations. Of the 78 associations in the state 34 were organized before 1900.

HELPS FOR BIRD STUDY OFFERED TO MICH. TEACHERS

Beautiful colored pictures of birds, leaflets, bird pins and out- line drawings on paper suitable for crayon or water-color work are now available in large quan- tities for teachers and children of Michigan.

This offer made by the Nation- al Association of Audubon so- cieties renders it possible for young people to secure authentic literature and pictures of some of our best known wild birds, by the method of forming simple Junior Audubon clubs in the schools, boy and girl scout groups or young societies of similar char- acter.

In speaking of this phase of the Audubon association educa- tional program Dr. T. Gilbert Pearson, president, said: "We are able to do this splendid work for the young people because of the generosity of a number of our members. Thirty-five thousand dollars has been made available for this work."

"The undertaking has proven wonderfully successful. Since it was started, 4,360 Junior Bird clubs have been formed in Michi- gan, with a total membership of 122,981. The object of this cam- paign is to cultivate in the mind of the youth of the land a better appreciation of the value of wild bird life to mankind."

NO MAIL TODAY

by O. LAWRENCE HAWTHORNE

She stood in line a long, long time
Before the moment came
For her to face the window bars
And tell the clerk her name.
Still hopeful, yet with eyes that ached,
She saw him shake his head.
"There ought to be a letter here;
Please look once more!" she said.

"No mail today!" Oh, what a stab
Of heartache or despair
Is often felt by one who hears
Those words! For everywhere—
In city, village, on the farm—
Folks ask and wait and pray
For letters that will never come.
"No mail for you today!"

WHO'S GOING TO BE SENATOR?

Michigan is going to elect a Senator next November to take the place now occupied by Sen- ator Ferris. The present political majority in Michigan is such that it is not likely that Mr. Ferris would be re-elected, were he wil- ling to run and fit to be a can- didate. But Senator Ferris is past 70, and the style nowadays is to choose younger men. Besides that, Senator Ferris' party is in an al- most hopeless minority in Michi- gan. So that it is from a field of Republican candidates that his successor must almost inevitably be chosen.

So far, despite much rumoring of candidacies, there have been few offerings. Editor Van- denburg, of Grand Rapids, has done more or less graceful man- euvering towards running for the past year. So far his candidacy has made little impression. Mr. Vandenburg is an intellectual per- son, of literary and historical bent, who discusses no subject of less importance than the Napo- leonic wars and the innate pur- poses of the founders of the Re- public; but, somehow or other, he seems to lack the political ability to "catch on." In addition to this he will meet the open and active opposition of the people of Wayne County, where one third of the votes of the state are to be found, because some time ago he advocated the theory of denying them representation in the Senate of the state accord- ing to their numbers; and favor- ing some novel plan of his own which would give representation to the inhabitants of up-state and "the sticks." A politician who drifts from the principle of ma- jority representation in this country, and who favors some other one of aristocratic selec- tion, whether that be an aristoc- racy of birth or agricultural or other qualification, is not to be trusted as a member of either branch of the congress. It is best for the public interest and their own reputations to keep such gentlemen in their present char- acters of useful citizens at home.

Despite the dearth of candi- dacies there are many eminent members of the Republican party in Michigan who should qual- ify as wearers of the toga which has been worn by Lewis Cass, Jacob M. Howard, Zachariah Chandler, Omar D. Conger, James McMillan, Isaac Christiancy, Ju- lius Caesar Burris, Thomas W. Palmer, Thomas W. Ferry and the other great and near-great Michigan men who have been sent to represent the state at Washington. Some of these have in time past indicated a willing- ness to bear the senatorial bur- den. Among this class are two former governors of the state, Mr. Sleeper and Mr. Osborne, each of whom has carried on in the executive office faithfully and usefully, and now that the im- mediate rancors of their admin- istrations have passed into his- tory, are generally conceded to have done very well when all the circumstances of their respec- tive periods are considered. Both these men are well along in years, a suggestion which we make gingerly, lest the mere imputa- tion of age to such men as Mr. Osborne cause riots, led largely by themselves. In this class, too, of ex-Governors, may be placed Mr. Groesbeck, who has been credited with the senatorial am- bition but the memory of strife in the internal controversies of his party have been so recent that he might have to carry an excess burden of weight for age were he to enter the race.

The ideal senator from Michi- gan would be considered it which we are advised he would not—would be Joseph W. Ford- ney, of Saginaw, a seasoned, matured and prudent statesman who has served Michigan long and well and brought her much honor. But Mr. Fordney is said to believe that he has borne the heat and battle of the day so long that he is entitled to his rest beneath his own vine and fig-tree in his Saginaw home, if one can conceive vines and fig- trees in the valley. At any rate his own personal choice seems to dispose of Mr. Fordney. This is not the case with Edwin Den- by, who deserves the serious and respectful attention of his party in the forthcoming selection. Mr. Denby, despite his shameful treatment by Mr. Coolidge, is still easily the idol of Michigan people, both in his party and out of it, many thousands of whom would be delighted to send him back to Washington as a senator from his state. Mr. Denby is of the statesman type and has poise and patriotism. In the older times of the Republic, when dif- ferences such as those which af- fected Mr. Denby's political for- tunes occurred, the procedure of the home state was to approve or disapprove the acts of their sons by confiding new public duties to them. Now that the Coolidge political power is passing, the people of Michigan might have an opportunity to do that very thing without interference of admin- istrations or the likelihood of causing party embarrassment.

These names are suggested by review of the groups of those who have already served the state in public place. Presumably the appropriate selection will be from some other portion of the state than its southeasterly por- tion, which already holds one senatorship through the incum- bency of Mr. Couzens, who is a resident of Oakland county. There are many members of the dominant party worthy of such consideration who have not so far been prominent in actual public service, but who are none the less qualified. Outstanding among these is Mr. Charles S. Mott, of Flint, one of the out- standing manufacturers of the state, and a man of splendid training, who has shown fine ex- ecutive ability as mayor of Flint. From the same industry as that which has engaged Mr. Mott's at- tention might be drawn Mr. Ranson E. Olds, of Lansing, who has made his "pile" and who could very well afford to devote the evening of his days to the public service. Mr. Olds has a good training, too, gained at the Ag- riculture college, to which he has been very generous. The group of former mayors devel- opes another industrialist in the person of Captain William Sparks, a former Mayor of Jackson with a record of good public service and a strong popular following. Of Mr. Sparks' type is Mr. W. M. Smith, of Battle Creek, who has been a faithful and intelli- gent advocate of the party's principles since his youth, and who would, if he were consid- ered and chosen, bring training, consistency and appreciation of party principles to the perform- ance of his duties, qualities which would prove useful, even strange.

Other names suggest them- selves, both from the professions and from industry. What fitness there would be in taking the of- ficial designation of "senator" to the name William H. Burnham, of Adrian, among the master in- dustrialists of Michigan; and what a debt of gratitude could be fit- tly paid off for long public serv- ice by the choice of Lincoln Avery, of Port Huron, for the senate.

These names are all Lower Peninsula names, except that of ex-Governor Osborne. The Upper Peninsula has produced and has a lot of very worthy men. Are not some of them of senatorial stature?

Laundry-washed clothes are cleaner

... because the standards of cleanliness in the modern laundry are so exacting that they cannot possibly be equaled by even the most painstaking domestic meth- ods ... No laundress, however willing—no home equipment, however elaborate—can duplicate the inviting freshness of sweet, spotless, laundry-washed clothes ... And here's why: When you wash at home it is impossible for you to give your clothes the ben- efit effects of the rainsoft water that the laundry uses ... You are physically unable to bathe and rinse your things in 600 gallons of cleansing water, as is regularly done in present-day laundries ... Homewashing methods will never be able to compete successfully with the magnificent laundry equipment that so gently removes dirt from every fabric pore ... And you naturally lack the spe- cialized knowledge so essential to the scientific preparation of the soaps, starches and mild clarifying agents that impart to laundry- washed clothes their inviting im- maculateness ... As a result, there is a pronounced difference between professional and domestic laundering—a difference that strongly emphasizes the fact that laundry-washed clothes are cleaner, purer and longer-lasting.

The LAUNDRY/ does it best

The rich dirt-dissolving suds that penetrate every fabric pore—result of the water-softening process.

Frequent testing of laun- dries shows that laundry- washed clothes are cleaner, purer and longer-lasting.

CATTLE AND HOGS INCREASE HORSES AND SHEEP ON DECLINE

At an estimated value of $167,092,000, the livestock on Michigan farms Jan. 1, 1928 was worth 13 per cent more than on Jan. 1, 1927, according to a statement by Herbert E. Powell, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Verne H. Church, Agricultural Statistician for Michigan. With the exception of hogs all classes of livestock had a total value greater than the previous year. The number of milk cows, all cattle and swine on farms January 1, this year, was greater than last year, while the number of horses and sheep declined and mules remained the same.

There were 426,000 horses on Michigan farms this year which is four per cent less than last year and continues the decline for several years in horse numbers. The increased interest in dairying is reflected in the estimates by a one per cent increase in the number of milk cows to a total of 349,000 now on Michigan farms. The increases in milk cows, heifers and heifer calves for milk were more than enough to offset the decreases in all the cattle showed a two per cent increase in all kinds of cattle, that all classes to 1,434,000 head. Although the number of breeding ewes is larger than a year ago, the sheep and lamb feeding operations were so much reduced this year that the total sheep on farms on Jan. 1, was one per cent below last year or 1,801,000 head. The large pig crops of 1927 were responsible for the larger number of 913,000 swine on farms on Jan. 1, for sows were fewer in number than the previous year. The value per head of all classes of livestock except swine was higher than a year ago. Milk cows were worth $90 per head compared to $78 the year before, and swine were worth $13 per head this year and $17.50 last.

For the United States as a whole the value of the five principal classes of livestock on January 1, 1928, was $5,596,000, which was 10 per cent more than on Jan. 1, 1927. On all farms in the country, the number of milk cows, heifers being kept for milk cows, swine and sheep was greater than a year ago, while the number of horses, mules and total cattle was less. The largest changes were the increases of eight per cent in swine numbers and six per cent in sheep numbers.

ALVA J. MARSH

Funeral services for Alva J. Marsh were held in the Evangelical church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Feb. 4. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Camfield, officiated. Mrs. Myrtle Huff, Mrs. Edith Willard, John Fowler and Ralph Wheat rendered the music, accompanied by Mrs. John Fowler.

Two hundred and fifty people who filled the church were the mourners and friends who came to pay their last tribute of affection to one whom they had loved and known a life-time. He was laid to rest in Oak Ridge cemetery to await the life giver's call. The casket bearers were Albert Hurley, Lloyd Sands, Harry Hartline, Bert Mitchell, Will Whitaker and Raymond Linsmeyer, neighbors and boyhood friends.

Alva Jarius Marsh, son of Thomas and Margaret Fedore Marsh, was born in Stevensville, Michigan, June 3, 1839, and passed away at his home in Buchanan township, three and one half miles northwest of town, Wednesday morning at 5:20 o'clock, Feb. 1, 1928 after an illness of 12 days of pneumonia, at the age of 88 years, 7 months and 28 days.

At the age of three years, he moved with his parents on a farm five miles northwest of Buchanan. He attended the Wagner school and lived his entire life in Berrien county. For the past ten years he has lived on the old Fedore homestead which was settled by his grandfather, George Fedore.

On April 14, 1914, he was united in marriage to Miss Tillie Keller of Buchanan, and to this union were born four children: Clarence, Herbert, Tommy and Mildred Marsh all at home.

For the last year and a half Mr. Marsh had been working in the Clark Foundry, working his farm at the same time with the aid of his faithful wife and family. He was also a lover of his home and family and will be greatly missed by the community who extended their sympathy to Mrs. Marsh for his untimely death, as he was always willing to lend a helping hand to any one in need.

Besides his widow and children he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marsh of Buchanan, four brothers and two sisters: Willard Marsh of Bendon, Louis, George and Henry Marsh; Mrs. May Conrad and Mrs. Mabel Keller all of Buchanan. A sister, Mrs. Katie Keller, preceded him in death, Oct. 27, 1918, after a very short illness. He also leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his loss.

Employer: "What kept you from work yesterday, acute indigestion again?" Typist: "No. A cute engine, for this time."

BORER CONTROL IS PROFITABLE

Shredding, ensiling, or grinding cornstalks is good farming and means death to the corn borer. Such practices utilize all parts of the corn plant for feed. Although the borer is said to have more than the nine lives of a cat, it can not stand this racket. The shredder and ensilage cutter were both effective weapons in controlling the pest in the infested area of the State last fall.

Dr. Frank Crane Says:- Worries

If we will carefully take stock of our worriments we will find that most of them are about things that do not matter. For a caption that would be suitable at the head of the list of rules I would suggest, "What Of It?"

I suppose I had the best mother in the world. She is entitled to all of my respect and esteem because she patiently put up with all through my childhood and cared for me until the day of her death. I can remember, however, that when I went away from home in my younger days she was always solicitous that I should wear clean underwear and stockings because she said that if there was a train wreck and my body was found, what would people think if they found out I had on dirty underwear, as though I should care about the state of my underwear when I was a corpse.

Much of the care and trouble that mothers take is of the Martha kind, for Martha was "careful and troubled about many things." Suppose the children do litter up the floor and pick the flowers in the garden and tramp into the house with muddy feet. Anybody who knows children expects that and if they don't know children they are out of luck.

It might be all right to see that your boys are washed behind the ears and that their finger nails are clean, but you should remember that while these things should not be left undone there are some more important things. It is important, for instance, that your children should always think of you pleasantly and gratefully. Your affection for your son counts more with him than your solicitude for his appearance.

It is well that the dandruff is brushed off your husband's coat collar and that his tie is right and his boots are polished, but if you do nothing else for him but call attention to these peccadilloes by and by the idea will seep into his head that you are nagging. What he wants most of all is to keep his love and esteem for you and you ought to work at making yourself worthy of that much more than to work at how he will look to other people.

I do not mean to underrate the little attentions that should be bestowed upon those we love, but I emphasize the fact that these little things are of small importance compared with the greater matters of life.

On one occasion, it was said by a wise man that the Pharisees paid tithes of mint, anise and cumin, but neglected the greater matters of the law. So we sometimes make the mistake of looking for flecks of dust when we should be admiring the landscape.

It is all a matter of proportion. The principal thing to learn in living is how to value things, how to be particular about the essentials and give small heed to the non-essentials.

A boy recently turned up at Catalina Island after having been lost for several days. His mother broke down and wept. "He's safe," some one remarked. "I know," sobbed the mother, "but he has a dirty shirt on right here in front of all these people."

"Did you see that conductor look at you as if you had not paid your fare?" "Yes, and did you see me look at him as if I had?" The Guide: Look at that half-ruined castle. It might be at least eight hundred years old. Believe me, lady, they don't build such ancient castles nowadays!

PRINCESS THEATRE

Living up to the slogan, "If It's at the Princess, It's Worth Seeing" has been very successfully done in the current weeks program.

Starting with a delightful comedy, "Silk Stockings," portraying the trials and tribulations of a 1927 model married couple—they loved each other so much, they didn't feel safe out of each other's sight, especially when hubby came home with a pair of strange silk stockings in his pocket, presents Laura LaPlante and John Harron at their best. "Silk Stockings" is being presented to-night and Friday and can easily be classed as one of the best pictures of the season.

College days are presented with startling reality in Saturday's program, "The Cheer Leader," starring Ralph Graves. With Graves will be seen an exceptional cast of Hollywood's younger set presenting a wealth of youth and beauty rarely found in one picture.

One of the most unusual themes has been incorporated in "Sailor's Wives," the feature for Sunday evening, starring Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes. Suppose you were told that you were going blind in a month. Suppose you were a wealthy girl—member of the smart set—beautiful—clever. What would you do? Would you calmly resign yourself to your fate or would you try to cram into your last hours a lifetime of frenzied gaiety? That is the powerful theme of "Sailor's Wives". A startling picture. Monday's program presents Fred Humes in "The Border Cavalier." It also presents the opening episode of the screen's first super-serial, "Blake of Scotland Yard."

On Tuesday and Wednesday Reginald Denny will be featured in "On Your Feet," a story presenting him in a role slightly similar to the type that made him famous, "The Leather Pushers". On the same program will be seen "Flashing Oars," this week's issue of The Collegian series.

PRESENT WEATHER NOT FAVORABLE TO WINTER CROPS

WINTER WHEAT, CLOVERS AND PEPPERMINT SUFFER SINCE FEB. 1

Weather of the past two weeks has been unfavorable to winter wheat, clovers and other farm crops liable to winter killing, bare ground and alternate freezing and thawing, accompanied by winds, serving as a bad combination. Until Feb. 1, however, local farmers state that the winter had been ideal and both wheat and clovers were in excellent condition. Peppermint plantings are also suffering from freezing and thawing of the past two weeks.
