THE DAY THE LORD MADE MICHIGAN

Bi Haws The day the Lord made Michigan, He wasn't feeling stingy then. He set out in a royal mood To show what loveliness he could Crowd in the bounds of one fair land

The day the Lord made Michigan, He viewed his handiwork and then He gave three cheers and threw his hat,—"Look there! I'm feeling just like that!" I made Ohio yesterday,— That was an awful trick to play. I made Chicago day before, But that's when I was feeling sore.

Still Talking About the Home Building Edition

If we think that in some parts of the world they are still talking of the special Home Building edition which was issued by the Chamber of Commerce last spring, Anyway here is a letter received last week by one of the officials of the Chamber from away out in Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming:

Yellowstone National Park, Wyo. June 15, 1928. Dear Sir: I wish to thank you for the literature you kindly sent about one of your plants, and also for the picture sections entitled "Watch Buchanan Grow."

I think you must have a fine city and think it would be a pleasure to live there and that you must be proud of it.

I have been here eleven years now and begin to feel like I would like to be back in the world again. Yours truly, E. A. Allen

D'WAGIAC MAN IS LOW BIDDER ON SEWER JOB

Contract Awarded to Reed For $31,271, Far Below Estimate

$14,000 UNDER HIGH BID Lang Construction Company Gets Portage Street Paving Work

Contract for the construction of storm and sanitary sewers on Portage and Third streets was let by the village council Friday evening to Frank Reed of Dowagiac, who bid in the job for $31,271, as compared with the city engineer's estimate of $40,000, his price being nearly $2,000 under that of his nearest competitor.

Reed assured the council that he was ready to move to the location immediately, and would probably be at work by the first of next week. The contract calls for completion within 90 days.

Eight other contracting firms bid for the construction, their figures being as follows: E. J. Noyes, Lansing, $33,115. Blumens & Dickinson, Muskegon Heights, $34,560.

A. Spadoni, South Bend, $35,106. Sorenson & Jones, Grand Rapids, $35,012. C. E. Reesh, Mishawaka, $35,550.

United Construction Company, Grand Rapids, $39,325. Edwards & Knowles, Milan, $44,832.

Cole-Asire & Moore, Inc., South Bend, bid incomplete. The contract for the construction of the additional 10 feet of paving on Portage street, from Chicago to River street, was let to the W. J. Lang Construction Company of Chicago, the only bidder, for $11,060.10.

No bids were received for the installation of the water services on Portage street, and it is likely that the city will hire men to carry out this work.

Buchanan Grays Taste Defeat Here Sunday

The Buchanan Grays, suffered reverses in their clash with the more experienced Mishawaka team, sponsored by the South Bend Tribune office, at that city, at the Athletic Park, yesterday, the visiting journalists departing with the heavy end of a 9-4 score. Weakness in the pitching department coupled with poor support at crucial moments, was chiefly responsible for the defeat. Marry was relieved at the slab for the local after the first innings by Simpson, who was able after one bad inning, to stop the procession around the bases.

Other fliers who started were Ed Schlee, son-in-law of Mrs. Rosa Livingston of Buchanan, and famous for his globe circling flight in company with Brock, and Geo. Haldeman who made the sensational flight with Ruth Elder last year.

A crowd of 200,000 witnessed the take-off according to Pears. Thirteen balloons also started.

TWO BAKERTOWN DOGS KILLED ON ACCOUNT RABIES

WARNING ISSUED TO ALL TO BE CAREFUL IN HANDLING DOGS

"Beware the dog" may be taken as a blanket instruction to apply to all dogs, according to Dr. O. B. Curtis, who reported the killing of two dogs last week at Bakertown, after they had exhibited every symptom of hydrophobia.

Both dogs were known to have been bitten by a dog carried thru in a Chicago car. Shortly after they were bitten they frothed at the mouth and showed other symptoms of going mad. The owners took prompt measures, shooting them before they had time to bite anyone.

There is a rabies scare on in Chicago now, according to Dr. Curtis, a total of 52 having been reported to the health department there Monday as having been bitten by dogs. Arnold H. Kegel, health commissioner of that city has issued the following warning to Chicago people, which should be observed here:

Don't pet or tease stray dogs. Don't let your own dog run loose or unattended, especially with strays around from which it might contract rabies.

Don't disregard rabies symptoms in a dog; they include any change from normal temperament—sulking, refusing to eat, crawling off in a corner, and difficulty in swallowing.

Don't hesitate to vaccinate a dog; it is about $5 per cent certain of prevention.

Don't let a bite go without treatment. Call a physician at once.

Don't neglect cat bites as a source of rabies.

June Rains Add To Prospects Of Shortage In Hay

A hay shortage looms ahead for Buchanan during the coming winter as the result of disastrous weather during the first crop, according to a number of farmers. A number had just mowed their hay when the rains set in, and the new crop had grown up several inches through the first cutting before they were able to rake it, so it was an entire loss. Much of what was saved was badly damaged. Fields that have not been cut are over-ripe and the delay is certain to cut short the later crops. Considerable alfalfa was winter-killed.

The clover crop is reported to be only about 10 per cent of normal in this district, due to damage in the fields through winter killing. It behooves local farmers to make use of every source of winter forage available in order to keep away from excessive feed prices next winter. Due to the expense of shipment, good crops elsewhere cut little figure in the local situation.

The traffic officers will be under the direction of the sheriff's office in the past, and will be instructed on a courtesy program instead of wholesale arrests.

RECORD LINERS PAY

NEW POSTAL SCHEDULE IS NOW IN FORCE

The Postal Card Returns To The Old One Cent Basis

NEWSPAPER RATE DOWN Maximum For Registration Values Lifted From $100 to $1000

The cheerful "wish you were here" colored post card returned to its own July 1, with the restoration of the 1 cent rate, the one cent additional impost which was levied three years ago as a revenue measure being abolished as a part of the Mellon-Coolidge slashing tax cuts.

Another feature of the new schedule which went into effect the first of the week is the reduction of the rate on transient newspapers, sent by other than the publishers. The rate on this class of matter was cut in half, from 2 cents per two ounces, to one cent for two ounces. The old rate before the raise was one cent for four ounces.

Parcel post charges were cut to the extent of one cent per package on the initial pound for the 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th zones.

A new reduced rate for special handling went into effect, a flat charge of 25 cents being made for the combined special handling and the special delivery letter accompanying it. The old charge was 10 cents for the special delivery letter, and from 15 to 25 cents for the special handling of the parcel.

Additional registration privileges are extended under the new ruling, which permits insurance of sums up to $1,000 in place of the old $100 limit.

Dr. and Mrs. George Boone of Daytona Beach, Florida, are expected to arrive in Buchanan the latter part of the week for an extended visit at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Boone on Portage street.

John Morris Tells of July 4th's Years Ago

The good old Fourth of July celebrations of yesterday, when Independence Day was Independence Day, and not just another chance to go fishing, were recalled in a recent talk by a Record reporter with John Morse, Buchanan pioneer, who was born in the Cottage, Hotel and has perhaps seen more intimately the history of the town than any other man now living.

The memory of Mr. Morse goes back to the Independence Days of the fifties, when the Civil war was no more than a cloud on the horizon. The celebration of the day then carried with it some of the implications of the event for which it stood. It meant patriotic parades, with a semi-military demonstration, and the firing of cannon.

It meant fervid orations in the good old style, in which the orator, accompanied with the wave of a hand the torrid strand of Texas and the rock-bound coasts of Mexico.

One of the central events of the day was always the firing of the

W. A. Snooks Buys Grocery Store Of Edward Koenigshof

The grocery store at the junction of Front Street and Terre Coupe road changed hands during the past week, Edward Koenigshof selling to the former owner, W. A. Snooks, who took possession Monday.

Snooks formerly ran the store for two years, selling out after the death of his wife a year ago and moving to Elkhart.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATED BY GRAND STAMPEDE

FINE BUSINESS REPORTED AT RESORTS AS RESULTS OF TORRID WEATHER

Buchanan celebrated the Fourth of July mainly by deserted streets, the entire population following in the wake of the Blues or trekking to Niles, St. Joseph and to the nearby resorts and streams save for a following which attended the game between the Grays and South Bend Tribune teams at the local Athletic field in the afternoon.

The arrival of summer promptly on July 1st with temperatures crowding the 90 mark, have tremendously increased the resort business, and large crowds were reported both Sunday and yesterday at Clear Lake. A number of Chicago families who had been spending week-ends in cottages there moved out Saturday for the summer, and crowds of transients were reported from Chicago and South Bend.

Some excellent fishing results have been reported there in the past week. Among the successful fishermen were Marvin Kean and Loren Vorhees, who came in with fine strings of bass. The former caught 25 speckled bass and four black bass, some of them weighing from one and one half to two pounds, the finest string seen here this summer. Fred Andrews was also credited with a limited catch at Clear Lake.

TUESDAY CONCERT DRAWS LARGEST CROWD ON RECORD

THROGGED STREETS TESTIFY TO POPULARITY OF CLARK BAND

The popularity of the weekly concerts by the Clark Equipment Company band was attested in a striking manner Tuesday night by one of the largest crowds ever gathered on the streets of Buchanan.

The weather was ideal for the occasion, and whether on account of the proximity of the national holiday or for other reasons, the crowd was in a mood to enjoy the music. The program was excellent. The rendition of a number of popular songs was accompanied by a vocal refrain by Floyd Gridley, which went over splendidly with the crowd.

The program for next week's concert is:

BLUES POUND 3 OAKS NINE FOR 16 RUNS

Victory is Seventh Straight For Local Team; Third Over Three Oaks

KOESPERT IS PITCHER Veteran Singer Mound Artist Added to Blue String

The Buchanan Blues registered their seventh straight victory with a win over Three Oaks yesterday, batting that aggregation all over their own home lot for a total of 16 runs, while the Featherbone boys were making 4 tallies.

As was the case Sunday, the Blues were in a batting humor, connecting with Krone's delivery for 19 safe ones. Miller, Hamilton and Buyses made two baggers. Koepsert, former mound reliance for the Singer Sewing Machine nine of South Bend, pitched for the Blues, giving the hard worked Simpson a rest. His performance on this occasion, when he held Three Oaks to a total of six hits, and struck out eight, indicates that Manger Fred Mead's quest for a relief pitcher is at last crowned with success. He allowed three firsts on balls.

The score sheet read:

THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME!
The electric fan drones industriously; the ice tinkles in the tall glasses—but still it's hot. Beads of perspiration persist in popping out on your face, and your collar is in a sad state of collapse. Some heartless friend persists in reading around the cheerful items on the front page of the paper concerning the numerous deaths from heat prostration all over the country, and turning over to the next page, discourses on the grave danger of a water famine. Outside, the green, the pretty green grass that is sprigging up so verdantly a few weeks ago, is looking dry and lifeless and wilted.

You drink another glass of ice-water, mop your brow again, and drawn as though by a magnet you turn again to the thermometer and see the mercury just below the hundred mark. There are instruments that weakly assert that it's ninety-two when everybody knows it's hot enough to fry an egg on the sidewalk. A passing acquaintance brutally asks, "Is it hot enough for you?" and an equally pestiferous human calamity grabs you by the lapel and insists on explaining that it's not the heat but the humidity. Your dog lies drooping on the doorstep, his dry tongue hanging out, stirring himself once in a while to shake off the flies and mosquitoes that annoy him.

It's the good old summer time. It's the time that the poets and the song writers praise. And, remember, it's the time you were wishing for four or five months ago when you woke up and found that snow on the ground. You remember how you wished so fervently for the summer time. Well, it's here. Say, is it hot enough for you?

COST
The cost of "sin" in this country is variously estimated at from $13,000,000,000 to $40,000,000,000 a year. The statisticians do not differ as to the cost of the individual "sins" but have divergent views as to which habits should be classed as "sins."

One statistician includes in his list only drink, immorality and the theatre. Another includes gum-chewing, cosmetics, joy-riding, tobacco, drinking, the theatre, popular fiction, light magazines, politicians, touring and moving pictures. Others even more puritanical than this second sin-economist may compile a list including everything which affords some degree of happiness or comfort to another.

Without differentiating between the material "sins" and man's ordinary habits and luxuries, a few such annual items of expense include: $75,000,000 for cosmetics, $200,000,000 for massages, $500,000,000 for foreign travel, $500,000,000 for movies, billions for tobacco and its accessories, millions for contraband liquor and corresponding amounts for the legitimate stage and cheap literature.

Undoubtedly the money spent every year in the United States for non-essentials exceeds that expended for the bare necessities of life. This disparity may account for the fact that life is sweeter in the United States than in any other civilized place on this planet and that the stream of human migration is America bound. The average person finds it harder to work for a living than for that surplus income which permits him to indulge his petty and major "vices."

The turn-over value isn't much if there is a ditch there.

The greatness of leaders is one part ability and nine parts followers.

BY MARJORIE ADAMS

SUMMERTIME is picnic time, so there's no time like the present for an article devoted to that necessity of all outings, the sandwich. I do not mean that the only time this popular preparation is served is on an informal outdoor party. No, indeed. It may be served at luncheon, tea or for a different sort of supper, as well.

shaped cutters, diagonally or in narrow finger-length oblongs. Retain Crust. A quarter of an inch is not too thick for bread to be sliced for hearty sandwiches, and unless the crust is hard it need not be removed. In cutting bread keep the slices in the order in which they come from the loaf so that they will fit evenly when put together with the filling between.

Philadelphia Ice Cream
This is the easiest ice cream in the world to prepare and is lovely to eat. The following recipe will make two quarts:

- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoons of cold water
- 2 1/2 cups of heavy cream.
- 1/2 teaspoon of salt
- 1 tablespoon of vanilla
- Beat eggs and sugar until light. Stir the cold water into chocolate or cocoa and dissolve over hot water, then add to eggs and sugar. Stir in milk and strain mixture through cheese cloth or fine sieve. Flavor with vanilla. Add salt to cream and whip until stiff; fold into first mixture. Freeze.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:
1. Butter is much easier to spread if it is creamed before using?
2. The sandwich filling ought to be prepared before the bread is cut?
3. Casaba or honey dew melons are natives of south Asia but are now cultivated more extensively in southern California than in any other place in the world?
4. Two of the worst enemies of Casaba melon growing are hail-storms and grasshoppers?
5. The melons are large, round and heavy, sometimes weighing 8 pounds?

The Road To Better Health

It seems there are no unmixed blessings. Parents send their boys to a summer camp to make them healthy, and two are brought home with infantile paralysis. Dad takes the car and family on a two weeks' camping trip, and shortly after they return home one of the children develops typhoid fever. The Lure of The Outdoors. It is not to be wondered at that people long for the great outdoors after being housed in all winter. They want a change. They want pine needles instead of feathered, slarry skies instead of calcimined ceilings. And so they roll by the thousands into the wide open spaces for a camping sojourn. People are forgetful of the fact, however, that their organism may not be able to adapt itself to such a sudden change of environment. The diet is changed, the water is different, their habits are not the same, the climate is different. No wonder that many times such a vacation fails to do for them all they had hoped for. Dangers of Camping Out. In selecting a camp site one should take several points into consideration. The location should be high and dry, in a region where the climate is equable. The spot should be more or less isolated, not a little two by four space surrounded by hundreds of other campers. The locality should be free from mosquitoes. Pure water for drinking and bathing should be available. Roughing it may have been all right for pioneer ancestors who had become inured to hardships through years of contact with the elements, but the life we "moderns" lead during the fifty Copyright, 1928, The Bonnet Brown Corporation, Chicago

Galien Plans School Reunion
Through the efforts of Etta Gallinger Smith, of Toledo, Ohio, and Altha Prince Pierce of Detroit, Mich., and with the help of several attending school in Galien during the period when P. M. Keen taught, a reunion of about thirty school mates was held Saturday evening, June 30th at the M. E. church, Galien, for the purpose of organizing an annual affair for any one ever attending school in "The Old Red Schoolhouse." It was put to a vote and the most satisfactory date was decided to be the Saturday before the 4th of July, for a covered dish style supper at seven o'clock at the M. E. Church, unless weather conditions would make it possible for it to be outside. The program was mostly social. Hazel Harris sang two solos and Mae Dempsey Swank played. The supper was cafeteria and plenty of it. Officers were elected as follows: Etta Smith, president; Con Kelley, vice president; Clara Dodey, secretary. The committee for next year is Pauline Olmstead, Bessie Lintner, Con Kelley, Inez Lintner, Bernice Green. Everyone ever attending or teaching school in Galien are cordially urged to come and help make this a glorious affair, also tell others. Remember, next year, the Saturday preceding the 4th of July.

BLUES RUN WILD OVER THREE OAKS

Featherbone Outfit Is Well Plucked in Game Here Sunday

LOCAL SHOW TEAMWORK Home Team Clouts Out Four Two-Baggers and Eleven Singles

The Buchanan Blues continued to leave the imprint of their hobnails on the opposition by marching triumphantly over Three Oaks Sunday, taking the long end of a 15-1 score in a game that lost its interest to the spectators before it had gone three innings.

The sole tally made by Three Oaks was registered in the first inning, when Dudas reached first on a single, advanced on Stange's one bagger, and came in on Hamilton's error, the only miff by the locals.

Buchanan sent six across the home plate in the first three innings, Dudas was retired from the box in the second in favor of Stange, who managed to hold Buchanan scoreless during the fourth, fifth and sixth and then blew up with the rest of his teammates, letting Buchanan run in nine tallies in the seventh and eighth.

Simpson was pitching in good form, striking out six and allowing only five hits, none of which were disastrous, and passing none.

The Blues were in excellent batting form, gathering in 11 singles and four two baggers, made by Miller, Hamilton, Zeigler and Buysee.

Stange registered one two-bagger in the third inning, but got no help and went out when Grannis tied the score.

GRAYS TRIM SAWYER IN FIRST GAME

Baker's Boys Put Game Safe on Ice in First Three Innings

HARD HITTING FEATURE Proud and Sorenson Are Stars in Sunday's Hitting Department

The Buchanan Grays, the latest aggregation of baseball talent to appear on the local horizon, got off to a flying start in their initial game Sunday when they incurred their war clubs in the gore runs while their opponents circled the diamond only half as many times.

The game was featured by the heavy hitting of both sides, the locals winning by bunching their hits in such manner as to realize from them. Bud Proud, first baseman, was the star batsman for the Grays, clouting out two three-baggers, either of which might have been home runs had Bud cared to take a risk. Sorenson featured with the stick for Sawyer by making four hits at four appearances at bat.

Buchanan executed one double play, Chain to Proud, and one triple play, Chain to Peck to Proud.

Connie pitched effective ball after he settled in his stride, striking out 12 men as compared with 4 fanned by Hess, and walking two men, as compared with four walks presented by Hess. However he was unable to retrieve the debacle of the first three innings.

The Buchanan Blues will undergo a baptism of fire next Sunday when they face the strong Elkhart Moose here with Nye and Hoffman functioning as battery for the visitors.

The Elkhart Moose are considered the strongest team that the Blues have faced for several weeks, and any margin of victory which the locals will attain is likely to be narrower than in the case of the walkaways which the locals have experienced lately.

The Moose defeated the Minot All Stars of Benton Harbor, 4-3 Sunday, with Harold Daisy pitching for Benton Harbor.

Connie pitched effective ball after he settled in his stride, striking out 12 men as compared with 4 fanned by Hess, and walking two men, as compared with four walks presented by Hess. However he was unable to retrieve the debacle of the first three innings.

The game was featured by the heavy hitting of both sides, the locals winning by bunching their hits in such manner as to realize from them. Bud Proud, first baseman, was the star batsman for the Grays, clouting out two three-baggers, either of which might have been home runs had Bud cared to take a risk. Sorenson featured with the stick for Sawyer by making four hits at four appearances at bat.

Buchanan executed one double play, Chain to Proud, and one triple play, Chain to Peck to Proud.

A Speedy Run—Take-Off—Pull Up—And Over He Goes!

A PERTINENT title for this picture might be: "Man getting over the high obstacles in the path of Life." But it's not that serious. Yet it's a wonderful picture of athletic ability personified — Edmunds, the foremost pole vaulter of Leeward Stanford University, swinging his weight over the bar at the height of about 13 feet. The action was snapped in a meet between Stanford and Southern California.

LOCAL SUNDAY SCHOOL NINE IS DEFEATED

Loses One Sided Game To Team They Beat Three Weeks Ago

HINCHMAN 9 IMPROVES

Even the mighty Yanks, it will be remembered, have their off days, and by that same token the Evangelical Sunday School nine blew up with a hectic bang in their session with the Hinchman team on the latter's field Saturday, allowing their opponents to gather in better than two runs per inning and quit at the end of the eighth with a total of 17 tallies.

It must be said for the Hinchman players that they were entirely devoid of partiality and pounded with equal viciousness all four of the mound artists which Buchanan ran into the game in a futile effort to check the rout. Simpson managed to partially check the procession, but was forced to retire to save himself for the Sunday game.

The locals were entirely off their stride, and played all departments of the game equally poor, while the Hinchman nine showed a wonderful improvement in form over the team which Buchanan defeated three weeks ago. Practically all these men are seasoned players and have been practicing consistently since the opening of the league play, with a consequent improvement of their team work.

Working for the Heathen. A bishop of Manchester used to tell the story of how he once declared in a sermon that every occupation was of God. He was stopped afterward by a man who wanted to know if his own work had God's blessing. "What do you do?" asked the bishop. "I make brass idols for the heathen to worship" was the man's reply.

The Toolmaker's Song

(May be sung to the tune of "The Prisoner's Song.") Dedicated to the toolmakers of The Clark Equipment Co. Oh! I'm glad that I am a toolmaker.

A toolmaker I'll always be; For I have a good job in Buchanan And the work is so pleasant to me. Oh! Please meet me tonight in the moonlight, Please meet me tonight on the square, And we'll go to the show at the Princess, And enjoy it with no thought of care.

Oh! I now am a very good workman. I work on the jigs every day. I can make a good gauge or a fixture, And I try to earn all of my pay.

Oh! Please meet me tonight on the corner; We'll hear all the Clark band boys play. And we'll stroll down the streets in the moonlight, At the close of a long summer day.

Oh! The boys are so gay in the tool room; They're so happy and cheerful all day, That the hours fly by in a hurry, And we're soon on our homeward way.

Oh! The girls are so sweet in Buchanan. They are kind, and so loving and true. Oh! Then promise to love but me only, And then I shall love no one but you. Buck of Buchanan.

Clear Lake Has Big Increase in Summer Cottages

Big things are doing in the resort line in the neighborhood of Buchanan, according to C. H. Fuller, proprietor of the Buchanan Columbian Camping Ground at Clear Lake.

Bigger things, in fact than ever before in the history of the resort business, at least in the cottage and summer home construction line. All the cottages at that resort are now occupied, many wealthy Chicago people having come during the past two weeks, in addition to several Buchanan families that have taken up their summer quarters there.

And practically every cottage owner along that beach has made alterations or improvements on his property. C. H. (Pete) Fuller has repainted and repaired his six cottages in accordance with his custom. He is also building a new cottage which is to be occupied by Goldwyn Smith, Phil Karling, and Marshall Dreitzler. The young men occupied a cottage further toward the boat house last summer, but developed such skill on the ukelele and other instruments of torture that the rest of the residents voted unanimously that a cottage be built for them on the outskirts of the settlement.

Other Buchanan men who have established their homes at that beach are Ed Pascoe, Lou Desenberg, Frank Miller, J. E. Arney and Charles Landis. Each of these has improved his summer home, and Landis has repainted and added to his place.

Among the new arrivals of interest is Ernest Kroll, sheriff of LaPorte County, Indiana, who has bought a cottage from Fuller, and has moved his wife and two daughters, Henrietta and Doris, there for the summer. Sheriff Kroll will spend the week ends there himself. George M. Gross of LaPorte, Ind., the head of the Gross Construction Company which is building the Range Line and Walton Road pavements, has rented a cottage and has moved there with his wife, his daughter Marian, and his two sons, Walter and Harry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Mulcahy, the former superintendent of a Chicago hotel, arrived there Saturday to occupy a cottage for the summer.

William Anderson, vice president of the Morey Varnish Company of Chicago, has established his family in their beautiful summer home there, which he remodeled and fitted with a new porch and fireplace and refurnished throughout. He has also built a driveway from his cottage down to the beach.

James Rible, manager of the gentlemen's furnishing department at the Sears & Roebuck plant at Chicago, has celestexed his cottage completely, and fitted it with a fire place and new furnishings throughout.

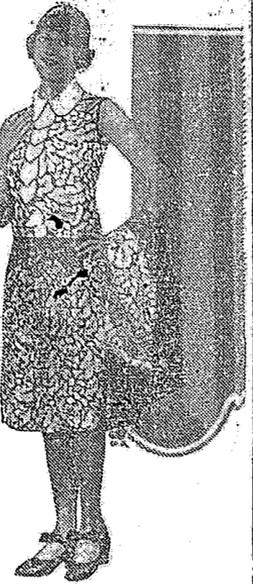

V. Griffin, Chicago contractor, who rebuilt his cottage last year, repainted it this year, and moved his family there Sunday. Mrs. F. McDonald, wife of the proprietor of a Chicago barber shop, arrived there Thursday in company with her son Robert and daughter, Marcella, to occupy one of the Fuller cottages.

Ed Dryer, Three Oaks merchant, has moved his family into one of the Fuller cottages for the summer.

Mr. Fuller states that more improvements have been made on his beach this year than at any time during the 34 years in which he has operated it. He plans to tear down his present cottage in the fall and replace it with a modern structure.

Fuller first opened his Coney Island hotel at Clear Lake 34 years ago, and has made his summer home there ever since. During his first sixteen years there he operated the Coney Beach hotel and the Buchanan Columbian Camping ground, the latter being

A Summer Fashion Note From Hollywood

THE dress half of the summer ensemble suit is more important than the wrap—for comfort and attractive reasons both.
Katherine Landy is shown above in a model of red and white foulard with a jabot of white flat crepe, edged in red crepe.
The jacket of red flat crepe is lined and trimmed in the foulard, in the nature of a clau.

During that period he has a large business, his hostelry accommodating as many as a hundred guests. Business was good as long as people had to travel by horse, but the doom of the summer hotel was spelled as soon as the automobile arrived. Formerly the guests would drive there with a team, which would be turned into a pasture near-by, and the guests would stay two or three weeks. Now they slide in by car for a day or two to visit a friend's cottage and then on to another resort.

While the hotel business was in its heyday, Fuller had all the attractions of Coney Island, New York, at his place, including a 62 foot diving tower, toboggans, merry-go-rounds, trapezes, trolleys, and spin wheels that revolved under water. Guests came from Chicago, St. Louis and other points and staid two and three weeks. He gave invitation dances twice a week, attended by 135 couples. That sort of business went with the coming of the automobile.

The summer home, in which the business man establishes his family and spends the week-end himself, is making a rapid growth in popularity. Several families have frequented Clear Lake during the entire 34 years in which Fuller has been there, permitting him to serve three generations.

A feature on which Fuller prides himself is that during the entire 34 years of his operations there, there has not been a single case of drowning. Many years ago a South Bend girl went in immediately after eating a heavy dinner and died from the effects of going into the water after she had been taken out alive.

Fuller states that he plans to spend his summers at Clear Lake during his lifetime, and will tear his present cottage down and build a new one much larger and more modern next fall.

Revolution in Radio Circuits

Details of the revolutionary new Equasonne radio circuit, the first public announcement of which was made on June 9, were explained locally for the first time today by C. L. Houswerth who attended the convention of radio men at Jackson, Michigan, where the new circuit was presented.
According to Mr. Houswerth the new Equasonne circuit is a radical advance in radio science—as radical a change as that which marked the invention of AC sets two years ago. The discoveries which made this circuit possible represent a triumph for the research activities of the independent radio industry. It was developed by the Sparks-Withington Company, the largest independent radio manufacturer, in the United States, in co-operation with Lester Jones, well known radio expert of New York.

HICKERS LEAVE AIRPLANE TO CONTINUE THEIR WALK IN A GRAHAM-PAIGE
If you live westward from Chicago (even though it be in Tibet, or Africa, or Long Island) then some day you may have the pleasure of meeting the Knapsack Trio. They are New Yorkers—newspaper women, authors and lecturers—who left home to encircle the globe on foot. When they reached Chicago, they had actually had to walk just eight miles. Two of their longest hitches had been covered by the most modern means of transportation known—an airplane and (even more modern) a four-speed automobile. The Ford-Stout airline gave them a lift from Cleveland to Detroit, and the Graham-Paige Motors Corporation carried them in a special eight-cylinder car to Chicago. Everybody insists on helping them on their way. The Knapsackers as they appear in the photo taken at the Detroit airport are (left to right) Mary E. Theobald, who lectures on contemporary drama, and the Little Theatre's Mary A. Lewis, who is collecting material for a book on national and local specialties of cuisine; and Leona M. Kahl, newspaper writer, author, and lecturer on musical topics.

voltage furnished it by the amplifier without overloading or distortion. The detector can handle up to 40 or 50 volts instead of the customary 2 or 3 and this permits working direct into the grid of a 25-watt power tube without an intermediate stage of audio amplification. This elimination of one audio stage improves the tone quality and materially reduces the background of tube noise and alternating hum. Much improvement has also been obtained in the ratio of signal to static, thereby reducing this interference.

Another important achievement of the new set lies in the smoothness of its volume control.

Despite these radical innovations, according to Mr. Houswerth the new circuit is far simpler than its predecessors, both in manufacture and in operation.
