By Haws

If broadcasters give you the wil-
lies,
If you've listened until you are
drunk,
Go back and consider the lilies.
That have not nor deal not in bunk.
If you've listened to claims that
are piffle
And air that is heated, then go
And gaze on the undulant riffs
That slivers the gentle St. Joe
Go list to the wild in the birches:
Go back to the chickadee's mirth
At the whoopee dispensed by the churches,
Disrupting the peace of the earth.
Heed thou not the bunk of the Babbitts
Dispensing political pills
But go and chase round with the rabbits
Out south of the Chamberlain
hills.
Whatever the administration
Whatever the pretenses of wreck,
Dapple, Nature's b-n-ign ministra-tions
Are good for that pain in the neck.

Troop 41 Patrols
Lake Mich. Beach
For Lost Boatman

Troop 41 went on a twenty-five mile hike last Sunday in response
to a call from headquarters at St.
Joe, asking that the Lake Michigan beach between Sawyer and St.
Joe be patrolled, to find a Wisconsin, boy who tried to cross the lake alone in an open canoe. He started two weeks ago and has not been heard from. Those patrolling found no trace of the body
or of clothing which might have been his.

The squad started from the
troop headquarters at seven in Vernal Shreve's truck, arriving at Tower Hill before eight. They then hiked north along the beach
for over twelve miles, stopping at hour intervals for short rests. At noon lunch was eaten and the hike
made back to the truck. They reached home about five.

Friday evening Scoutmaster
Kenneth Blake and Assistants,
Norman Boyer, Leo Slate, Don
Wood, and Junior Assistant Scout master Lyle Mitchell went to a banquet in honor of Executive C.
F. Spurr, who has been ordered to Macomb, Ill., to go within the next month. The leaders also discus-ed their problems.

Saturday evening a mobilization
call to inform the troop members
of the hike Sunday drew twelve
scouts and five officials.

Monday evening two auto loads went to St. Joe for the Court of Honor.

Leather Craft and Wood Craft.
Former Scribe Don Wood received his Assistant Scoutmastership.
Lyle Mitchell, his Junior Assistant scoutmastership, Robt. Dempsey was made Senior Patrol leader, Ernest Beadle, Patrol Leader,
and Oscar Virgil, Patrol Leader.

Troop 41 has been very busy
and plans to keep as active as possible.

New U. S. 18 Is
Shortest Route
To Twin Cities

U. S. 18, better known at Glen-dora as the Cleveland Avenue highway, was opened, last week, to travel, all the force of the Taylor
Construction company of LaPorte
being withdrawn except a few men installing guard rails. This road now offers the most direct route for Buchanan, Galien and Glendora to the Twin Cities, as it runs direct north from the Wolverine Gardens, 13 miles into St.
Joseph.

Exercise of Rights of Citizenship Requires Registration

Last notice to Buchanan Voters.
Are you qualified to vote?
Or do you mean to tell us you
are going to let that Tammany booze hister, Al Smith, capture the presidency without raising a hand to stop him.—hold on, don't
hit, we didn't know you were a Democrat.

What we meant was, are you
going to let that price busting,
sugar snatching Herb Hoover grab
it off just because you are too lazy
to register?

Well, if you are eligible but
have not qualified, you have just
two days left in which to save your country.

Township Clerk Irenus Sparks
will be in his office at the library
on Main street until 5 p. m. Saturday evening for your accommodation.

To be eligible, you must be an American citizen, 21 years of age,
who has resided in the state six months and in the precinct 20
days. If you registered last election year, or in the primary, you are all set, unless in the meantime
you transferred from one precinct
to another, in which case you will have to transfer your registration.

Ellis and Beck
Teams Lead Play
School Milk Fund

The Ellis Contractors and Beck's Tire Shop bowling teams were leading the play at the end of the second week Friday night, each team having three games to the good and no defeats.

High team score for the week
was made by the Galien five which scored 2552 to defeat McCracken's
Grill by a margin of 43 points.
High individual score of the week
was made by Kreisel of Galien who rolled 211.

The Ellis Contractors kept their state clear by a 2455-2314 win over the Foundry five.

Thanning's Tire Shop defeated
the Clark Office team 2283-2259,
a high 189 by Webb in the final
frame coming near to overcoming
their lead.

The Chevrolet five defeated
Proud's Cigar store Thursday
night, the score being 1937-1854,
with each team playing a man
short.

On Friday night, the league
leading Beck's five bowled over the Graham Paige five by a 351
margin, the score being 2514-2163.

Buchanan Eleven
Faces Revengeful
Niles 11 Saturday

Next Saturday the High School Football Team will play Niles at Plym Athletic Park. This promise
is to be a warmly contested game.
Niles is out to avenge the defeats
of 21-0 in 1926 and 19-0 in 1927.
Coach "Curly" Bradfield, however,
has a notion that Niles shall have
another "goose egg" as a memento.

The teams playing last Saturday was rather uncertain. Against Niles it must be decisively better
if they hope to repeat the performances of the last two seasons.
Rain or shine the boys are plugging away for another historic
game.

The Reserves are also working hard to set the Niles Seconds back
on their heels in the preliminary
game.

Crack Buchanan
I. O. O. F. Team Goes
To Benton Harbor

Buchanan's crack I. O. O. F. degree staff of 25 men headed by Captain O. J. Melvin left for Benton Harbor Tuesday evening to exemplify in tableaux form the third degree work for a class of Twin City initiates. The Buchanan team
is the only one in southwestern Michigan competent to exemplify
this work in tableaux form, and
has many calls.

Miss Huss, a resident at the Orchard Hills Country Club caretaker's house, was bitten by a small snake Thursday, while picking

fice of Dr. Paul Wallace, where the wound was tied off and suction applied. No ill effects resulted.

C.C. REQUESTS
FULL LIST OF
VACANT LOTS

Intensive building activities with
the purpose of housing Buchanan
workers in Buchanan are indicated by the call published elsewhere
in this issue for a complete listing
of all lots in the village available
for residence construction to be filed with Secretary Al. Charles
at the Chamber of Commerce
headquarters for the information
of all prospective builders.

Complete details are desired as to size, location and price asked for all lots. This service is offered to the property owners gratis
in order that such building may be speeded up in anticipation of the additional factory construction
planned for Buchanan in the near future.

A complete listing of all rooms
in the village, furnished or unfurnished, available for sleeping or light housekeeping, is also desired
by Secretary Charles for the benefit of parties making constant inquiries at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

Anyone who has rooms which
they might fit in either purpose
will find ready disposal for them,
according to Secretary Charles.

Wallace Hospital
Will Be Completed
Within Three Weeks

Work is now progressing satisfactorily on the five-room addition which Dr. Paul Wallace is constructing at his home for hospital
purposes, with prospects that the
structure will be completed in two
more weeks.

The addition is to comprise two wards containing three and two beds respectively, and a waiting
room, operating room and bath
and toilet, all entirely separate from the office of Dr. Wallace, for the benefit of other physicians
who find it convenient to make use of the hospital facilities. Secretary Charles Wallace is con-
structing at his home for hospital
purposes, with prospects that the
structure will be completed in two
more weeks.

The Record Stands By for the Lord Mayor of Dayton

Since the publication of our issue of last week the Record has been flooded with letters of protest relative to a front page news article in which it was alleged that a Mr. Hiram Jenkins of that municipality was arrested and jailed
for 30 days on a drunk and disorderly charge on flimsy and inconsiderate evidence, to wit: that he had announced his intention of voting for Al. Smith. It was further insinuated that the real motive had been to keep the said
Jenkins in bondage until after
Nov. 6, so that he would lose his vote.

We herewith print representative
expressions from Dayton:

Editor Berrien Co. Record:
In behalf of the people of the little town of Dayton, Mich., we believe we have an apology due.
In last week's Record, it was reported that a certain Mr. Jenkins of Dayton, Mich., was arrested
in the village of Buchanan on a drinking charge. After looking over the census of the little town

of Dayton, Mich., no such name
is on record.

We wish, also, to make public,
that each and everyone in this
has plenty of respect in regard to the Volstead Act, Amendment 18,
around this little town of Dayton.

A front page apology will be accepted as sufficient.

Awaiting your apology,
Mayor of Dayton.

PUPILS ENTERTAIN
Praises the Character
Benefits From
Athletics

Ralph Kean, author and former teacher, delivered the main address at the meeting of the Buchanan Parent-Teachers Association at the high school Monday
night, his subject being, "Applied Citizenship."

Mr. Kean stressed the importance of athletic contests in building ideals of fair play and fair
dealing, among youth, asserting
that the occasional injuries, while most regrettable, are more than compensated by the character
benefits of the contests. Courtesy and the spirit of sportsmanship
are inculcated through the medium
of the athletic contest, he stated.

In contrast to the ethics of the athletic field, Kean cited the unfairness and corruption which prevails in the public affairs of Chicago and other cities of Illinois and Indiana, and complimented the civil awakening among the people of the first named city last spring.

An awakening of the voters for
the issues of the coming generation is needed, he stated. Straight thinking is needed in deciding the issues of the national election, he said, but the voter
should be guided by the dictates
of his conscience first when casting his ballot, both for state and national candidates.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Leon Campbell. Mrs. Lura
French, who had been slated for a talk on the topic, "The Etiquette
of the Flag," was unable to be present on account of illness. Instead, lists of questions on flag
etiquette were handed out, and
were answered in the meeting.

Miss Olson, music teacher in the schools, led community singing of
"The Star Spangled Banner," and
the Parent-Teachers sang, "A Group of 24 seventh grade pupils
pleased the audience with three vocal selections, and Ethel May Sibley played a piano solo.

It was announced by Mrs. E. C.
Mogford, chairman of the membership committee, that 159 members
had been secured and the association wishes to exceed the total of 175 members for last year.

On November 9 a carnival will be given at the high school, to raise money for the free milk
fund. Last year the association
sponsored a basketball game and dance, from which over $200 was netted. As even that amount was not enough to buy all the milk
needed by pupils through the year,
it is hoped that better returns will
be secured this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dalrymple
and son Keith of Waukegan, Ill.,
arrived Tuesday to spend the week
here with their parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Canfield left
today for their winter home in Yankee town, Fla.

Drunk Fails to

to pay, he was given 30 days in jail.

UP-TO-DATE
CLEANING CO.
OPENS OFFICE

The Up-To-Date Cleaning Co.,
organized here by McGaghie Bros.
and McGuire began operations
here last week. Raymond Slanker
having been taken into the firm
as associate owner and manager
of the local plant. Slanker's
cleaning plant which has been operating several months adjacent to the Chamber of Commerce is
the temporary headquarters of the new firm until their buildings are constructed.

James McGaghie stated that they had definitely decided to build on the lots bought from the village, known as the town parking ground, back of the L. W.
Johnson furniture store. Construction will begin as soon as abstract
matters are cleared up, although
the definite plans of construction
are not ready to announce. An option has been taken on a 26-foot
lot facing on Front street immediately east of the Grill, subject to a prior option owned by the U. S.
post office department which still has 500 days to run. An office will be built on this lot as soon as the post office plans are determined.

At 12:30 Tuesday morning, however, a change for the worse set
in and he became paralyzed from the head down. A trained nurse
was in constant attendance and doctors were called, but it was
their evident that "death" was only a matter of time, and at 4:30 he died.

He was born in Buchanan Aug.
17, 1922, his parents being Mr. and
Mrs. John Ochenryder, 310 Short Street. He was attending the first grade at the high school
building and was on his way home
at the time of the accident.

His parents state that he was running from other boys, at whose hands he had received rough treatment, when the accident occurred.
Other children stated that the boys were following behind him,
and it is believed that he was looking back and failed to note the car driven by Isaac Wells, which was approaching the corner from the south.

Observers stated that Wells had slowed down to let some little girls pass, and had then started
up again, watching other cars
which were entering Main from Dewey, when the boy dashed in front. Wells had his car in low and stopped immediately. The boy was struck by the fender and knocked to the pavement, neither
wheel running over him, as was mistakenly reported on the authority of a supposed eye witness last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ochenryder state
that they do not blame Mr. Wells,
who did all in his power to aid
the boy to recovery.

The funeral was held at 2:30 p.
m. this afternoon at the home,
Rev. J. L. Griffith presiding.

Leon Robert Ochenryder, 6, died
at 4:30 a. m. Tuesday, Oct. 23, as the result of injuries incurred
when he was struck by a car at
the corner of Main and Dewey
Thursday afternoon.

An immediate X-ray examination was made following the accident and a fracture was observ-

Monday morning Dr. Glen Campbell, chief specialist of South Bend, was called into consultation with Dr. Paul Wallace, and he pronounced that the child had a good chance for recovery. He had retained consciousness practically
all the time, save when under the effects of medicine.

At 12:30 Tuesday morning, how-

nication that can break the potato record for the state of Michigan is entitled to respect.

We wish to state in this connection that the management of this paper first saw the light in that
grand old citadel of the principles
of rockribbed Republicanism,
the state of Ohio, absorbing the unadulterated and only true gospel
unconsciously with the air we breathe. Those principles, we add, prevail in this office with the sole exception of the said brow-
beaten reporter, not to mention an advertising manager who is voting
for Mabel Hildebrandt, and a couple of printers who are still voting for Grover Cleveland.

We wish to also retract the
slandrous insinuation, that the courts of Buchanan would jail a man voting for Al. Smith, or for any other cause whatsoever. And no reporter, however brow beaten
and talked down to, will get away
with anything between now and November 6.

NEW BUILDING LOCATED ON RIVER STREET SITE
BOUGHT FROM BANTON

Building Is Planned as Addition to Housing
Department; Steel Press Department
May Be Added Later

BRICK WORK BEGUN AT BERRIEN SPRINGS

Ground was broken Monday by Contractor Frank Shoemaker for the construction of another addition to the Clark Equipment Company plant, to be located south of River Street, extending 300 feet along the east side of the Michigan Central switch, on land recently bought from Charles Bainton and the village of Buchanan.

The addition will be 100x300
feet in dimension, of reinforced concrete, steel, metal, sash and glass, in accordance with the most modern type of factory construction, and will constitute for the present an addition to the housing
department.

It is anticipated that the construction will be completed in 90
days and that the building will accommodate from 200 to 250 men
under conditions of full production. It is possible that pressed steel machinery may be added at a future date.

The addition to the brake department is now done, and machinery is being installed. The roof is being placed on the addition to the forge department, which will soon be complete. Contractor Shoemaker stated that he expected to have a force of fifty men at work on the latest addition within a few days.

The foundation is completed on
the Berrien Springs transmission
plant, and brick laying has started. This plant will have 20,000
feet of floor space when done.

News Around Galien The Happenings of the Past Week Among Our Neighbors to the West

Mrs. R. V. Slocum, Correspondent

Republicans Hold A Rousing Rally at Galien Tues.

The Republican Rally held in the Town Hall Tuesday evening was one of the best rallies given in Berrien County, and was well attended. The hall was artistically decorated in American flags, cut flowers and green vines. The program given under the directions of Mrs. C. O. Glover, president of the Republican Woman's Club, was as follows, and enjoyed by all present.

Violin and trombone solo—by Conklin brothers, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Ward James.

Vocal solo—Miss Marie Janasch.

Community singing was led by Frank Kelley and Charles Hohman.

Charles A. Clark, chairman of the evening introduced the candidates present: William H. Andrews, Wilbur Cunningham, Fred Bryant, Benjamin Blittner, Miss Kittie Handy Butler, George W. Sattler and George Bookwalter, after which the speaker of the evening, J. J. Sterling, was introduced, and held the audience spellbound for over an hour, with a splendid clean talk on sound Republican principles.

84-Year Resident of Galien Dies

In the early hours of Saturday morning, Oct. 19, the spirit of Mrs. Sarah Mann took its flight from her home in this city to that land where sickness and trouble are unknown. Mrs. Mann was one of Galien's oldest and most distinguished residents, having lived in and around this vicinity all of her life. Since the death of her husband, Dr. Levi Mann, who passed away about 40 years ago, she has been noted for her enterprise in the boarding house and hotel business, and could not be excelled in the culinary department. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church until they discontinued services in Galien, after which she united with the Methodist church where she has been a faithful attendant and supporter. She died as she lived, peacefully. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church Monday afternoon, Rev. Conklin officiating. Friends and relatives in large numbers assembled at the funeral hour and the floral expressions of esteem and sympathy were notable. Mr. and Mrs. M. Nelson and Mrs. Walter Morley, beautifully sang her two favorite hymns. Burial in Galien cemetery with the Rebekah Lodge of which she was a member having full charge of the ceremony at the grave.

Galien Culture Club Devotes Session To Art Masterpieces

The regular meeting of the Culture Club was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. R. Wentland. The evening's program was Art Picture Studies. Roll call was responded to by giving a picture.

Ruben's "The Painter's Sons", Mrs. Boyle.

Sandro Botticelli's "Madonna Magnificat", Mrs. Hamilton.

Jean Francois Millet's "Feeding the Birds", Mrs. R. Wentland.

Emile Renouf's "The Helping Hand", Mrs. Swank.

Galien Eleven Defeats St. Joe Reserves Saturday

Galien won their third straight victory when they beat Benton Harbor's second team, Friday 12 to 6. There was some good individual work on the part of Unruh, Howard, Thorson and Warnke for Galien and Johnson and O'Signac for Benton Harbor.

The Galien line held wonderfully well at times. The game was played on a muddy field with rain coming down at intervals. Benton Harbor was completely baffled by Galien's aerial attack.

Second Quarter Johnson goes two yards. Mitchell kicks poor punt to Howard who returns it to Benton Harbor's forty-five yard line. Thorson is set for a 3-yard loss by Raypholtz. Unruh passes to Howard who makes a brilliant catch of the pass in the midst of Benton Harbor backs and runs fifty-three yards for the second touchdown for Galien. Thorson again fails to make extra point.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE FRED C. FRANZ for Sheriff

Food for Thought, the THINKING Republicans and Democrats are interested to know.

Is FRANZ, a CHRONIC officer because Influential Republicans and Business Men are backing him in the campaign?

Is 2,700 arrests in the last 21 months a RECORD to be PROUD of, in lieu of the fact, that the Court House, oil station, drug stores, and buss station robberies are still UNSOLVED?

When you elect FRANZ, you place into office the MAN whose influence with the County Officials ENLARGED and BETTERED the present jail conditions.

When you elect FRANZ you are PROMISED a clean slate in his under officials and deputies.

When you elect FRANZ, you select a man that NEVER had State Officials interfere in this county during his term of office to cause arrests.

When you elect FRANZ, it is not a question of PARTIES or SECOND TERMS, it is the MAN, and folks you have a man of CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES at heart, fearless and strict. Honesty and courtesy have long been MR. FRANZ'S religion.

Buchanan High School defeated Three Oaks Saturday on the home field 21-0. The score far from tells the story of the battle. Three Oaks gave Coach "Curly" Bradfield a fight. The truth is the "Outfit" forgot to fight and had a bad slump which nearly cost them several times. Three Oaks constantly threatened throughout the game, keeping the home team scrambling to protect their goal.

The first touchdown was a complete surprise. Three Oaks received a punt on their 30-yard line. Heckathorn fumbled so the ball rolled back of their line and was scooped up by Paul Easton who with good interference ran thirty yards for the first touchdown. The kick went wild but Three Oaks was too anxious and gave the home team the point by being off side. Score Buchanan 7, Three Oaks 0.

Buchanan received the kickoff on their 37 yard line. The first down Cooper ran sixteen yards around left end but Knight blocked a man after the ball was dead, and fifteen yards was lost in the penalty. Pierce opened up the play again with a seven yard run around left end, he tried again through left tackle for another yard, and Wilcox made first down with a twenty-four yard run around right end.

Three Oaks managed to throw Glen for a two-yard loss but Cooper plunked through right tackle for twelve yards and another first down. Pierce made four yards through right tackle, and Cooper six more around left end for a first down on Three Oaks ten yard line. Wilcox plunged through putting the pigskin on the three yard line as the first quarter ended.

Wilcox started the second quarter by plunging the last three yards through right tackle and the second touchdown. Pierce made a good placekick making the score, Buchanan 14, Three Oaks, 0.

Three Oaks received the kickoff and the ball searried the remainder of the second quarter. Three Oaks threatened constantly, at the end of the first half they were on our thirteen yard line.

Buchanan started the second half by receiving on their thirty-five yard line, but Three Oaks held and the entire quarter Buchanan was in danger, the ball being in their territory almost all the time.

Not till early in the fourth quarter did Buchanan sight the goal again. They received a punt sixteen yard line. Cooper four yards left end, Wilcox one right end, Pierce ten yards around right end, and Cooper sixteen more around left end, fourth first down on Three Oaks ten yard line. The Acorn crew tightened up, but Pierce plunged twice for two yards each time through right tackle. Savoldi made three yards around left end, and Pierce again plunged through right tackle for the third touchdown. Pierce's placekick added another point after goal. Score Buchanan 21, Three Oaks 0.

Buchanan received and held the ball until the game ended. The entire Reserve team was sent in for the last two minutes of play. They made one first down and a half, they start on another before the game ended.

Buchanan made 377 yards, Three Oaks 345 yards. Three Oaks punted 67 yards while Buchanan scrimmaged 297 yards. Buchanan failed in passing but made 169 yards in punts. Three Oaks only scrimmaged 59 yards but passed 51 yards. Ten first downs were made by Buchanan while Three Oaks only made three. Buchanan made an average of 4.3 yards per scrimmage, Three Oaks only 2.5 yards per scrimmage. Pierce is gradually pulling out his punts. He made 34 yard average last Saturday against Hecathorn's 33.3 yard average. This is almost a nine yard increase on the average. It is the first time this season Pierce has out punted his opponent on the average.

We are sorry to lose Rachel Williams, who moved to South Bend.

Wanda Green has been absent several weeks on account of sickness.

JUNIOR HIGH

Division 2 won over Division 1 in Seventh grade spelling this week.

Marjorie Campbell and Maurice Aronson have handed in good original illustrations for "John Gilpin's Ride," by William Cowper, which was read this week in the 8th grade.

The October arithmetic tests, given from the third grade through to the Junior High, were held this week. The results showed much work to be done by both the teacher in charge and the pupils with low standings. However, we hope to overcome this condition during the year. The mid-semester examinations will do much to prove the real merit of the work being done by the individual pupil.

THIS AND THAT

Samples of the work done by the pupils of our school in Penmanship are being mounted and made ready to send to Battle Creek, where they shall be put on exhibition with similar work from other schools, during the M. E. A., October 29 and 30.

Last Monday at 3:35, the Misses Ekstrom and Hopkins, our fifth grade teachers who attended the Marquette Normal last summer, reviewed their trip by taking the members of the Junior High and grad faculties with them, starting from Buchanan, going through Wisconsin, and coming back by way of Michigan. While at the Normal, they took us with them to their respective class rooms in which were recited many of their daily lectures. Pictures were also submitted for our approval. We extend our appreciation to Miss Ekstrom and Miss Hopkins for the delightful hour spent so worthily with them.

The following rooms scored 100 percent in Banking last Tuesday: The Junior High, Mrs. Dunbar's, Mr. Muir's, and Miss Clayton's, making a sum total of seven rooms. We hope to raise the percentage. Habits of thrift are an important factor.

Philip Wisner, a former Buchanan student, visited Room 2 in the Junior High School, Friday morning, and gave a very interesting talk about the Rifle Club to which he belongs in Big Rapids, Mich.

This Club, composed of thirty Ferris Institute students, is for the purpose of teaching the youth of America accuracy in marksmanship. It is financed by the government, which furnishes the guns and ammunition. Membership fee is $1.50.

The ammunition used was made in the United States arsenal at the time of the World War, and millions of dollars worth is still in these arsenals.

Philip had one shell with him, made in 1917, in Massachusetts, which belongs to a 36-gauge gun that shoots these shells two and four miles, with enough velocity to pierce the body of a man at that distance.

H. S. Annual Staff
Meets to Discuss
'28 Annual Plans

The Annual Staff held its second official meeting, Thursday, meeting both alone and with Mr. Wallace of the Indiana Engraving Company, plans for this year were discussed in detail.

Mr. Kenneth Wallace, a representative of the engraving company that has been engaged to do the work for the school this year, is very well versed in every line of "annual making." With the able staff which has been selected and under the guidance of Mr. Wallace, as well as Mr. Ormiston, principal, and Mrs. Dunbar, head of the English department, it is established fact already that the book produced this year will be the best ever published by the Buchanan High School.

Primary Pupils
Entertain High School Assembly

A musical and literary program performed for the enjoyment of the High School, Friday morning. Five little girls of First grade, introduced by Principal Ormiston, sang two numbers at the opening of the program. Immediately following, a boys' quartette from the Third grade sang a selection.

Two readings given by Mary Fridrich were met with enthusiasm, public speaking and debating, so more will be heard from them during the year.

A saxophone solo, Shubert's Serenade, by Sheldon Ryan, and Evening Star, Shubert's solo, by Maynard Post completed the main as well as one given by Kathryn Reed. Both girls are interested in part of the morning's program.

In conclusion, the entire high school, under the leadership of Miss Theo Olson, sang the football song recently introduced.

The points which are given for scholarship, neatness of person, neatness of school equipment, class problems and banking, etc., are determined by the efforts of each individual in the club.

The first group to meet elected the following officers:
Pauline Van Every, President.
Kathryn Portz, Vice-President.

FRESH-SOPHOMORE PARTY
HELD SATURDAY NIGHT

Eight o'clock on Saturday evening found one hundred and ten freshmen and sophisticated sophomores standing together in wide-eyed amazement at the high school gym door.

A gay resplendent scene unfolded before them in blue and gray crepe paper, to which they at once abandoned themselves.

Games were played, freshmen opposing sophomores in many instances.

At ten o'clock delicious, two course refreshments were served. And at eleven, the happy "Frosh" and gay "Sophs" departed for home, and another successful party had come to a close.

Buchanan Boy Learned To Draw in Fence Corner when not Doing ChoresNOW DRAWS COVERS FOR LEADING NATIONAL MAGAZINES

Thirty years ago a lad tied his team to a rail fence in a corn field just south of the Chamberlain hills. Then while the team browsed he sat him down in a fence corner and took out a tablet and pencil which he had brought with him and began to draw.

Finally his father noticed that his team did not appear at the end of the field near the house, and he started out on a tour of investigation. He found the boy laboring at his drawings.

"Get to plowing corn," he said, "you'll never amount to anything wasting your time at this stuff."

But now thirty years or so afterward George French is drawing back cover advertisements for Pillsbury's flour in the Pictorial and McCall's, drawing money that would have appeared fabulous to the old fashioned farmer who was concerned over his son's future.

George French was born and grew up on the old French farm, now occupied by W. B. Dale, a mile south of Buchanan. He was a son of Willard French and a brother of Fred French. He attended the Buchanan schools and from a "little shaver" up, he drew and drew and drew. He drew cartoons while he was in the high school. One of them was of a newly organized Buchanan band. It was so good that Mack Chamberlain, then editor of the Record, had a cut made of it and published it in his paper.

The more French drew, the more determined he became that he was going to be an artist, and the more distasteful did farm work become to him. At last one day he brought his team to the barn at noon, put them in and went to the house.

"I'm through," he told them, "I've done my last work on a farm."

His parents tried to talk him out of it, but to no effect. That afternoon he packed a little "grip" with necessary belongings and left for Chicago, with no more definite idea than that he was going to be an artist.

Shortly afterward his folks received word that he was employed "at the stockyards." Wondering just what an artist would find to do at the stockyards, Fred French sought him out while on a trip to Chicago. He found him in a little cage in the center of a vast room in the Armour packing house, doing clerical work. He was living until the break came.

Not long after that it came, in a chance to draw widow cards for the Washington Shirt Company. He did that only for a short time, and then got a job drawing cartoons for the sporting page of the Chicago Record and the Chicago Examiner. Later he transferred to the Chicago Record-Herald, and drew for the sporting page. Afterward he was transferred to the front page of that paper. He worked for the Record-Herald until it was bought by the Hearst

One of the most important games of the year is scheduled Saturday afternoon, for Saturday Buchanan plays Niles. A great number of Buchanan fans will undoubtedly attend.

The Buchanan football team is becoming known to nearby schools as a team which exhibits good sportsmanship. Such a reputation is a great asset to the school and is highly desirable; so with this in view, sportsmanship has been constantly encouraged in the school. Results have been obtained, but there is still room for improvement.

If a football team goes out on the field and exhibits almost perfect sportsmanship, their work is for naught if "booin" or slander is heard from the sideline. It is a much easier task to make good sports out of eleven men than out of several hundred, and so it is among the spectators that improvement is necessary.

When we play Niles, Saturday, the team will do their part; it is your duty to do yours. At Niles we should conduct ourselves as guests. Everyone realizes that "booin" from the sidelines is undesirable, for good plays made by the opposing team should be recognized by handclapping.

There is no doubt but that it is much harder to show good sportsmanship when one's team is losing, but, although we may be in the worst of humor inwardly, we should not show it. Everyone should see to it that he conducts himself properly while at Niles, and then no matter whether we win or lose, we shall have accomplished something worth while.

House David
Figures in Divorce Suits

An echo of the feud at the House of David sounded today in circuit court when Mrs. Emily Blume, colony member, was granted a divorce from her husband, Louis. The two were members of the rival factions in the colony, according to Mrs. Blume's testimony.

The specific charge in the bill was cruelty. Mrs. Blume is an adherent of the so-called De-whist group at the colony. The Blumes were married in one of the group wedding ceremonies performed in November, 1919. Mrs. Blume testified that her husband told her he never wanted to meet her or speak to her again. She was represented by Attorney Wilbur N. Cunningham.

Milton Weeks, although he said he was not a member of the Israelite colony here, appeared on the stand in divorce court yesterday with his long hair braided and plaited. He was granted a divorce from his wife, Emma, on grounds of desertion.

Other divorces granted yesterday were:

Basil Palmer, Niles, from Rose Palmer, infidelity.

Blanch Elder from George Elder.

Hollis D. Button, Benton Harbor from Eva Marie Button, cruelty.

Levin Hart, Niles, from David D. Hart, cruelty.

LAKESIDE VINYARD
AT SAWYER YIELDS
250,000 BASKETSGRAPES ON 800-ACRE FARM REQUIRE ARMY OF PICKERS

Notable among the large grape farms in Michigan is one in Sawyer. The Lakeside Vineyard is the title to a vast farm totaling nearly 800 acres. It lies spread out back of the shore hills of Lake Michigan between Harbert and Sawyer. Over its spreading fields are hundreds of rows of grape vines. It is a marvelous sight to view these far-reaching fields with the deep green foliage and the purple lacers of the grape clusters clinging thickly to the long rows of wire-supported vines.

The Lakeside Vineyard has been producing for over 27 years. Vines that set out are producing equally as well today as when first planted. The president of the company, who controls this large enterprise, is Mr. Joseph Burkhart of St. Joseph.

The vineyard itself, is composed of four farms directed by their respective managers. The largest of these farms with 250 acres is under the direct care of the general manager, Mr. A. W. Perkins. Taking it as an example, the methods of operating the vineyard industry show interesting facts. Here during the whole year the vineyard receives the constant attention necessary to make the autumn weeks of harvest time a success.

Counting the great amount of cultivation which is so important, Mr. Perkins has noticeably increased the efficiency of this stage of grape culture by the perfection of a new attachment of five discs for the horse-driven grape hoe, which mulches the dirt closely upon and around the vines. It has been adopted by the entire vineyard, fertilizers, both commercial and barnyard, are used.

Throughout the winter months the work of trimming the grape vines goes on. All the big spreading arms stretching along the wire so luxuriantly are cut back to four arms carrying sixty buds. This is to provide sap for bud growth which means future fruit instead of wood growth in the vine. To aid in the harvesting and better fruit growth, Mr. Perkins has made a beneficial change in separating the supporting wires from one to two feet. Later the vines are wrapped and tied by a corps of women employees to the supporting wires. The grape crop is a heavy one and stout posts are needed and strong wires must be stretched to support the heavily burdened vines in the fall.

The entire vineyard is sprayed two or three times through the season, which does much to promote a fine quality fruit, free from diseases and dry rot.

The steady work goes on with a large force of men all through the summer and when October arrives the vineyard becomes the scene of systematic handling of the thousands of baskets of fruit which are shipped daily to distant markets. More than 250 thousand baskets were used this season in the packing room. Most of the crop was the No. 1 choice table grape of thick, firm bunches. The fruit is shipped in refrigerator cars all over the United States and people also come from all over the United States to work in the vineyards of Michigan.

Mr. Perkins has comfortable quarters especially provided for the "floating army" of pickers, who travel from place to place following the season's crops. Sixty pickers were employed on this one farm this fall.

Mr. Perkins is assisted in the actual management of this unusual farm by a very efficient helpmate, his wife. She keeps the books, acts as director of the packing room and courteously receives all visitors who come for miles to buy fruit and view the activity of the grape harvest.

Outlying farms equal in quality with the vast acreage of the Lakeside Vineyard are all along this stretch of Michigan lake land and many farmers are increasing their grape culture. The soil is a good loam. The beautiful vineyards are growing and they furnish fair weather winter employment to a large number of men. No fairer sight is open to view than the wide blue water of Lake Michigan, its ever varying border of dune hills and forest trees and a background of open country with its patterns of brown and green after the grape harvest is done.

World's Rarest Metal

Osmidium, consisting mainly of iridium and osmium, is one of the world's rare metals and is closely allied to platinum. The metal, once thought useless, is now used almost exclusively for the tipping of gold nibbed fountain pens. The main sources of production at present are South Africa and Tasmania, in Australia.

BORT VINYARD
RATED AS BEST
IN BERRIEN CO.PRODUCED FIVE TONS OF
GRAPES PER ACRE OF
PERFECT GRAPES

It's living in your vineyard that produces grapes, according to Grant Bort, Buchanan fruit grower, who completed his grape harvest the first of the week, taking 40 tons from seven acres.

Bort's vineyard was pronounced the best in the county this year by county agent Lucking, judging in point of size and perfection of bunches, freedom from rot, and crop yield, and his verdict is supported by a number of fruit men who have visited the place.

His farm was originally the Blake place, and lies on the north side of M-60 just beyond the Orchard Hills golf course. When he bought it, some years before the World War, it had raised general crops, and he began the same line of production. A year or two of this convinced him that the land had been worn out for this purpose and that bankruptcy lay ahead unless he changed his tactics. He set out an acre to berries and results immediately demonstrated that his guess had been correct. He proceeded to set out more land to vineyard, getting as high as eight tons to the acre in grape yields. During the year he received as much as $125 per ton from buyers who furnished the baskets and hauled the grapes from the vineyard.

Bort says his yields are due to seasonal cultivation and lots of it. "You can plow on each side of the row in the spring and you will get just as many grapes, but they will not be nearly so big as mine," he said. The secret of my heavy yield is the large size of the individual grape. I do all my trimming in the cold weather, starting in January and ending in March. Then I plow along the rows, and starting cultivating, keeping it up all summer when ever conditions are right. During the working season I live in my vineyard. I spray constantly. When a touch of dry rot showed up, I walked along the rows and picked off all the berries affected."

Bort's vineyard presented a beautiful sight during the latter part of last week, when the frost had killed most of the leaves and the perfect bunches weighing as much as a pound a piece were discovered, fairly jostling each other as they hung upon the vines.

CURRIER GETS
400 BU. YIELD
LATE POTATOES

BELIEVE TO HAVE SET
PRODUCTION RECORD
FOR DISTRICT

Records for potato production in this section are believed to have been shattered this year by a field of Potatoes which were harvested the fore part of the week at the George Currier farm south of Dayton.

Currier completed digging yesterday, getting 1600 bushels from a field of 4 1/2 acres, or nearly 400 bushels to the acre. Two hundred bushels per acre yield are not uncommon here, and three hundred have been known.

The late potato harvest is just beginning in general and the prospects are excellent, making it possible that other growers may rival Currier's figures.

Currier stated that the only secret of his yield was careful cultivation and certified seed.

Berrien Springs new curb lighting system is expected to be in operation in time for the Hallowe'en celebration on the evening of Monday, October 29, two days in advance of the contract terms which called for complete installation by Nov. 1.

The lights will be placed four to the block on each side of Ferry street between Mechanic and Cass. There will also be one at the new library corner, one at the United Brethren church, two on North Main street midway between Ferry and Mars and two on South Main midway between Ferry and Pitt.

THE NEWS OF 1928

That posterity, several generations hence, may have a first-hand picture of contemporary civilization, copies of daily newspapers were put the other day into the cornerstone of a new building at the University of Chicago. The expectation is that it will be open a hundred years hence, perhaps after. Just when it will be or what the state of society will be at that time no one can tell with any certainty.

The headlines of Chicago newspapers, like those elsewhere, for example, reflect just how such things as "Gangster sought in Chicago Slaying," "Daylight Bandits loot Gold Coast Hotel," "Patrolman Slain in Battle With Hijacker," "Racketeer's Home Bombed," and such like. They tell, too, but in more dulcet tones, as a rule, of what Smith and Hoover are doing, how Babe Ruth's bat helped to put the Yankees back in first place in the American League, how football practice is beginning at the schools and colleges all over the land, the return of hundreds of thousands of students to the universities being apparently, a mere trifle there.

What impression is the citizen of 2028, or some time thereafter, likely to have of our times on the basis of the contents of the cornerstone? Obviously not a highly favorable one. To this observation the perennial critic of the press is apt to rise again to place a large share of the blame on contemporary journalism. But against this objection the fact always remains that the newspaper, with rare exceptions, does not create news, but only mirrors it. And the crimes and signs of violence are important in the social scheme of things, but they are only as nine day sensations compared with the serious undercurrent of life which goes forward, not backward, despite the gangsters, the bootleggers, the socially careless and indifferent. The newspapers are not histories, but rather motion pictures of contemporary life. In the true picture of 1928, forged out of the developments of 365 days, crime and violence will be but minor features, while the emphasis will be on the progress in thought, the development of a better social order, the contributions of inventive genius and of science and the spread of education and of such forces.

BEAUTY AN AID TO BUSINESS

In the days of our grandfathers business men gave little thought to the appearance of buildings they occupied. If a bank changed its location a new front was not required, probably not even a new coat of paint was used. Men made no effort to employ beauty as an aid to business. Store fronts in no place were attractive, display windows were not used, goods were not attractively shown. The world of business had not begun adorning itself for the purpose of winning more trade.

It is far different now. In Philadelphia one of the old department stores has planned a new building 100 by 300 feet in dimensions, and 14 stories in height. The building will be monumental, constructed on the pyramidal style of architecture, the roof being 220 feet above the level of the sidewalk. The picture of the new home was made public on the 60th birthday of the firm. The new building will increase space by 80 per cent and will cost $7,000,000.

Three score of years of trade experience has convinced owners of that enterprise that it will be good business to erect the most beautiful merchandising home in that large city. They will put into architecture every feature of stately beauty and impressive suggestion possible. It will be enormous in size, a fit place for the building of a firm doing an enormous business, and they will never fail to emphasize size. They will make it substantial in appearance, suggestive of the stability the firm has developed, typical of the fine character of the house. They will make it lofty, towering over the other buildings nearby, because they plan to carry their reputation higher and increase the volume of business. They will add to it every feature of classic art and beauty possible, because they want people to respond to the appeal of beauty and feel certain that appeal will not be lost on the public.

Business has been made over since the days of our grandfathers, factors undreamed of then are recognized today as of compelling importance. Beauty is a powerful agent in promoting business, simple beauty, classic beauty, massive beauty—each extends a welcome to the shopper and helps bring and hold business. The public enjoys visiting places where there is light, order, arrangement, a showing of color, an attractive display, and a great picture in the house that is appealing and impressive. So the wise men in Philadelphia spend $7,000,000 on a building for a store, a mammoth sum, but the future, doubtless, will show the expenditure was wise. It will bring customers and that is the one thing desired.

AMERICAN HOME BUYING PLAN

Business methods that enable American workmen to purchase homes and pay for them on the installment plan were pointed out by Paul Claudel, French ambassador at Washington, as the best condition he had found in any country for the working people. In a recent interview in a newspaper in Paris the ambassador spoke of the American plan in the most complimentary manner. It gives to the workman an opportunity to become a home owner early in life. It gives to the children the privilege of being reared beneath the family roof, an influence the ambassador felt was productive of far-reaching results in the training for citizenship.

In France, the ambassador pointed out, the workingman must save for a lifetime before he can hope to own his own home. That pleasure is his only at the closing season of life, when active days are gone and the children have grown to maturity and are out in their own homes fighting the same battle. He thought he found in the American home-purchasing plan an incentive to saving that could not be found in other plans and an advantage that was of great importance.

If the French ambassador should visit the larger cities of Michigan he would find the payment plan in full operation and could count thousands of homes now in the names of the occupants that were purchased and paid for in that way. Michigan has had a most gratifying experience with that custom. It has been used here for more generally than in many of the states, and its best results have been illustrated in many cities in the state, where population is large and where it is smaller. All the ambassador claimed for it has been found true and correct in the test of experience through the years.

in the cities and town, but the cordial approval of the plan by one of the leading newspapers of the French capital will be noted with appreciation by the men who have developed that custom and extended its operation so widely over the state.

VOLUME OF DISHONESTY

All lines of business suffer heavy losses each year because many people will not pay their honest debts.

There are losses caused by dishonesty that cannot be paid. Such human failure, debts contracted honestly that cannot be paid. Sickness, business changes, financial misfortunes and other troubles unite to make payment entirely impossible. But the ugly part of trade and business losses is caused by people who could but will not meet their obligations. Business men know these citizens, credit men and collectors have long lists of names of those who will not pay.

Recently a story of business dishonesty was made public by the utilities commission of Massachusetts. That agency of the state reported that the telephone company supplying services in Massachusetts had accumulated uncollectible bills during the last five years amounting to $1,725,000. The genius of that telephone company—and telephone genius was born and developed in that state, had not been sufficient to reduce that enormous total of bad accounts.

Obviously service has been stopped when these people would not pay their bills, but it is possible to live without telephone service, even if it be extremely inconvenient. Other lines of business have unpaid bills, one hears frequently of firms that are embarrassed or have been forced into bankruptcy because of unpaid bills shown on the ledger. The world of business should devise a new method for handling dishonest people. There ought to be some way found for exposing them to the public, making them stand as crooked and dishonest individuals, no matter what pretenses they may be making.

The emperor Caligula used to make the members of the Roman Senate wait on table when he gave a party and with our own Senate to judge by, we imagine he found it pretty hard to get waiters who did not assume that it was up to them to lead the conversation.

The real trouble is not that a man of sedentary pursuits can't do some little odd job around the house requiring a modicum of mechanical skill, but that he thinks he can and tries to.

LAST INSTALLMENT

"Yes, the first," Abner Drane said so weakly that they could hardly hear him. The first was a housekeeper she had named Caroline Barstall. She was a sickly old thing and believed in ghosts—she thought she was a medium and had second sight but she was keen. She was when they study a person and then tell them what their past has been and what their characters are. She told Ella right out to her face she was a woman. That night Mrs. Barstall had a fit and died.

"Ella had poisoned her?"

"Yes, and that was the first. That was what started Ella getting the sick ones from the hospital—Dr. Blessington made no trouble over the Barstall woman's death; he said she had been in danger of death at all times."

Abner Drane was silent a moment.

"There were nine others," he said hoarsely. "Nine others. When Ella suspected that one of them believed she was a woman that one died."

"And who is Amy, Abner?"

Before Abner Drane could answer Simon Judd's question the silence was broken by cries and loud noises within the house and Brennan leaped for the door and ran inside. For a brief period the silence and Brennan came out again.

"That Maggie cook was cutting loose," he said. "She has been drinking more but I took the stuff from her and she promised to be a good girl. Did you say who Amy was, Dart?"

"She's a Drane," Abner Dart replied. "Along during these last years Ella complained a good deal because she had never had a child. It bothered her mind. She talked to me about it. She worried because we were old and there would be no one to leave the money to, and I told her to adopt a child. She used to go away when she was sick; she went to Hot Springs when she had appendicitis; she couldn't let the doctors handle her illness, of course, so she went away. She went to California on one of the trips when she thought she was going to be sick, and she heard of a Drane there and tried to find him—his name was Silas, but he had died and his wife had died and they had left this baby. So Ella adopted it. That is Amy. That is all we ever knew about Amy. She was a great comfort to Ella, these years, especially these last months."

"Well, black my cats, I'm glad to know there was some good in the woman, anyway!" Simon Judd exclaimed. "Did she make that will she was talking about, leaving the money to Amy?"

"Yes, and she was going to give Amy a fine sum when she married. We liked Bob Carter. It was like ending with something clean after a lot of villainess to know we would leave these two when we went," Abner Dart said. "It did not pay, Sim. She made a mistake, Ella did. She wasn't happy and I wasn't happy. John Drane's money did her no good and it did me no good. I'd have enjoyed life more just being a second-rate undertaker out there in Riverbank, burying some old friend now and then, and going along nice and easy."

Amy was weeping now, crying gently, and Bob Carter, sitting on the arm of her chair was trying to comfort her. Norbert, coughing, came to the door. He seemed to think Brennan was in charge of the house, for he spoke to him.

"If you please, Mist. Brennan," he said, "George Firmandick has just gone an' died all of a sudden an' Maggie is startin' to carry on mighty bad."

"Where is she?" Brennan asked.

"She's up in his room o'vah the garage," Norbert said, "an' she won't let nobody come up. She's got hold of a knife and I reckon she's gone plum crazy."

"I'll be out there in a minute," Brennan said. "Have the two officers go out with you, will you? Hurry now! I just want to ask Mr. Dart a couple of questions."

Norbert hurried away, coughing as he went, and Abner Dart made a gesture of despair with his hand and his face became sadder than ever.

"Last night," Brennan said, "when Carter here went through the library, Dart, you said to Ella to John Drane. If you please—something like 'Don't do it! I warn you not to!' or 'I'm against it; remember what I say!' Something of that sort. What did you mean by that? Were you warning your wife not to let Amy marry Carter?"

"No," Abner Dart said hollowly. "Oh, not that; never that! We both wanted that."

"Then it wasn't over that you and Ella Drane quarreled last night Simon Judd went to bed."

"You know we quarreled, then?" Abner Dart asked dully.

"We know it," Brennan said. "Why did you not stay the night as had been arranged?"

For a full minute Abner Dart did not answer and when he did it was in the voice of one talking in his sleep.

"I'm old! I'm old! And I'm tired! A man can stand so much and then he can stand no more. I had thought she was through with her killing and that we might have a few years of peace and gentleness before we died. But she told me there—in there, last night—that another had to die; another had come to believe she was a woman. George the chauffeur, had. George Firmandick had. She told me last night that George must die before morning, and that was what I was begging her not to do. That was why we quarreled. That was why I went away last night. I told her I was through with her—through for ever."

"Dart," Brennan demand sharply, "do you know who killed Ella last night?"

"No! I do not know!" the little man said, shaking his head. "If I knew I would tell you. I—"

One of the police officers interrupted this time, coming around the veranda, walking firmly on his broad soles.

"Brennan!" he said, motioning to the detective with a finger. "What is it, Joe?" Brennan asked.

"The cook lady, Maggie Maney her name is, had a spell and passed out up yonder in the chauffeur's room just now," the officer said. "I don't know was she right in her mind or not but she was shoutin' that the dead woman had killed the chauffeur. She was shoutin' all that guessed she was a female, sir, and that last night she saw the dead woman—who was not yet dead, you understand, Brennan—givin' George some drops, at which time the cook was in the chauffeur's closet, I'm sorry to say, sir."

"And—" said Brennan questioningly as he closed his note book and dropped it in his pocket.

"And the last words the cook shouted before she passed out," the officer said, "was to the effect that she had murdered this late John Drane, now known to be a female, usin' a knife as the implement, the object of the said crime being revenge, and the crime being actuated by love and affection for the said George Firmandick, now deceased."

"Write all that down before you forget any of it Joe," Brennan said. "You'll have to give that to the Grand Jury, possibly."

He turned to Simon Judd.

"I think that's our case," he said. "It's not much for us but it will be a big story for the newspapers. By the time it reaches Riverbank you ought to be quite a hero detective, Judd."

"If I ain't," Simon Judd said placidly, "it won't be my fault."

THE END

Four Crashes in Three Months on Railway Crossing

For the fourth time within a few months the crossing of the Pere Marquette railroad and U. S. 12 a mile east of Watervliet was the scene of a crossing crash.

A Star sedan driven by James Carmichele of Buchanan street, Gary, Ind., was struck by the south bound local passenger train No. 16, and totally demolished about six o'clock Monday night.

Carmichele escaped from the sedan before the train struck it. He said that he was crowded off the pavement and down the railroad track by a truck and that he proceeded along the track a distance of ten rods in a vain effort to get the car clear of the rails.

The locomotive of the passenger train was crippled by the collision with the automobile to such an extent that it was sidetracked at Watervliet and another locomotive sent to pull the train. The car was a complete wreck.

July 12 the first accident of the year occurred at this crossing. An automobile driven by Arthur Lake of Decatur, in which Lake and his wife and their seven-year-old son Allen, and a nephew of the Lakes were riding, crashed with No. 16, hit by No. 6, the fast southbound

The Lake boy was instantly killed

and Lake himself was badly injured, but recovered.

The second accident occurred July 23 when the trailer of a Goodrich Transit Co. truck was

evening train at this crossing.

WHISKERED 9 WIN BY SHAVE OVER ALL-STARS

HOUSE OF DAVID BALL TEAM CARRY TOO MANY TRICKS

The widely heralded baseball game between the whiskered cubs of Benton Harbor and the County All-Star nine in which three Buchanan stars featured, was won by a shave, but it was not the be whiskered ball players that got shaved.

The score board read five to three at the end of the ninth, and two of the House of David scores came from wild throws by the All-Star catcher. Two more were allotted to them as the result of extremely close decisions which were protested by the All-Star team.

However, Messrs. Simpson, Nash and Bailey, who upheld the tradition of Buchanan baseball progress were not licking, however.

"We lost because the breaks were against us," they reported, "we might just as well have had that game as lost it, as far as the merits of the two teams went. Next Sunday will be another Sunday, and the breaks may come our way."

The game was pronounced by Twin City critics to be one of the best ever seen in southwestern Michigan. Scoring ended with the fourth inning, after which the two teams deadlocked for the remainder of the game.

Both Nash and Bailey figured in some pretty fielding and double

Knott Herd High in Dairy Tests During September

Adolph Knott of Niles township had high herd in the South Berrien Dairy Herd Improvement association for the month of September. His 12 purebred Guernseys averaged 36.6 pounds of butterfat for the three-day period.

Joe Parren of Sawyer had second high herd honors for this month with an average production of 35.7 pounds fat for 13 cows.

Other scores announced by Kaj Nielson, official tester, are as follows:

Frank Reuin, Niles—12 grade Guernseys averaging 34.1 pounds fat. W. Toney and Sons, Niles—33.6 pounds fat for 13 purebred Guernseys. Henry Nemitz of Bridgman—33.2 pounds fat for 7 cows.

The two first places in the four-year-old class went to Jamik, 61.8 pounds fat, and Colantha, 61.5 pounds fat. Both cows are purebred Holsteins of the Elvendale herd in Niles.

The leading mature cows were No. 8, purebred Holstein, owned by Franz Brothers, who made 1,749 pounds milk and 71.7 pounds fat, and Toney, a grade Jersey owned by Clyde Penwell, Buchanan, who made 1,404 pounds milk and 70.2 pounds fat.

Testing for a long period of years has resulted in these excellent production records, according to Mr. Nielsen. The systematic keeping of records of production as well as feeds consumed take the guess work out of dairying.

The Old Timers' Corner-

OLD-TIME WINTER JOYS

AS TOLD BY OLD TIMER

The season of the year reminds that winter will soon be upon us and it takes me back to the winter seasons that we had when I was a kid and later. The whole world seems to have been re-adjusted since then, and we now have less snow and less real cold weather. Maybe it is for the best for the timber has been cut away and the country become more thickly populated, the towns are larger, the houses are better built, and everything goes to make for the best in the long run. I guess it usually comes out that way. But speaking of winters, remember them? Well, I should say I do, and they were joyous times for the lads on the farms. Of course, it meant getting out of bed on a cold frosty morning in a cold room with frost on the windows so thick that you couldn't tell whether it was day light or not, and usually it wasn't day light yet, for the horses and cows and pigs and sheep and hens, etc., had to be fed and attended to, just the same or even more so on a cold morning, as any other morning. But if you hustled you didn't mind the cold and there was always a good fire in the "sitting room" and mother would be up and have the kitchen fire going and as you got warm before you went to the barn to do the chores. Then a good hot breakfast, with good pan cakes or hot biscuits and maple syrup and some sausage and eggs, and coffee, and maybe some milk and then you were ready for most anything. It makes the country boys grow and

but we would have the fun of pulling some girl friend out of the snow bank, perhaps. Temperatures of zero and lower were just fun. Well, it is yet, from that matter. I have never outgrown my youth in that way. I like this climate for that reason. You have enough of heat and sweating in the summer time to make you appreciate the good old winter.

In town, they used to allow the kids to slide down hill on the street that ran up toward Ryneason's, also on "the Methodist Hill" or Days Avenue. I used to slide down hill at Moccasin Bluff. Some one would stand at the bend of the road and give us a signal when the coast was clear and then away we went. It was a long ride and a longer hike to get back but it was the "bee's knees" for fun. Just below the bend of the road on the left side going down, was a horse trough, good clean cold spring water pouring out through a trough made of a small log cupped out for the water to run through. In winter it was always embedded in ice around there, but the water came through just the same and the big trees just above it, up the side of the hill would be hanging low with loads of snow, and the vines glistening with ice and snow, but we didn't think so much of the beauty of it then. I top of that. So I guess I gave my parents all the trouble that the regular boy did, in those times, and was no better and not much worse than the boys and girls of this faster age.

Once upon a time, I used to think a lot of May Zerbe, who lived down north off town, and she had a married sister, Mrs. George Bradley. The Bradleys had a brand new baby at their house, and they lived on a small road that ran from the River Road (west of the river) through to the road that went to Hard Scabble, etc., down that way. This road they lived on was used very little in winter, except for teams hauling logs and wood, etc., from the woods and so May and I took old "Dan," a farm horse, and hitched him to the cutter and all wrapped up in robes and a soap stone to keep us warm, we left Dr. Henderson's home where May lived through the winter and went to school in town, and drove down to Bradley's. When we left the mail road, we had a pretty bad time of it, for after we left the track of the loggers, which only went a little way, we had no track at all, and I walked by the side and drove the horse and May balanced the cutter as best she could, and we went over fences, and over logs, etc., for a half mile or more and finally we arrived there and George had dug the snow out from the house to the barn and through the gate in the fence, and right there was an especially big drift of snow and he had actually "unhitched" through it and when I unhitched my horse and led him to the barn, we took him through under the snow. This tunnel was perhaps 10 or 15 feet long, where it was covered over the top with the snow of the drift. Sounds like a lie but it isn't. Well, we saw the baby and then went home. Got home all safe and sound and never a tip over on the whole trip. I let May out at Dr. Henderson's home and turned around there to go back home and right there in a perfectly good open road, the fool horse was in such a hurry to get home that we made too sharp a turn and over I went, robes, foot stone and all. Got that straightened out and got home all right, with no damage done. But it taught me to watch my step when things look smooth and clear. Guess that's why I never married any one. Ha, Ha.

Do they still have snow plows in Buchanan? I haven't been around there much in winter, but they used to get them out and open up the side walks before school time in the morning, and in case of a real old "blizzard" they had to keep them going pretty much all day. Didn't make much of a path but it was a lot better than none at all. These snow plows were drawn by one horse and they had to get a good husky one at that. It was pretty heavy work, especially when the snow was heavy and wet. Old time winters were very snowy and that made for good wheat and other crops. The wheat would often grow under the snow and be bright and green in the spring when the snow was gone.

Next week, let's have a talk about the "things of summer." It's coming along to the time when the cold winds will howl around the house and the fire will be good and then we will have a chat about the woods in summer, its flowers and trees. Old Timer.

Republican Candidate
for SHERIFF

What type of a man do you want for your Sheriff?

Must he be an Officer or a Politician?

If your hired man proved to be an Honest, Reliable, hard working fellow, would you discharge him?

Do you believe in "Trading horses in Mid-Stream?"

Is there any real reason for changing Sheriffs at this time?

Will the fact that all records for arrests have been broken help you to decide who you want for your Sheriff?

Does the cutting down of expenses mean anything to you as a Tax-Payer?

Do you believe that Honesty and Efficiency are two of the main qualifications for the Sheriff?

Does a candidate on your ticket who has the whole hearted support of the law abiding citizens, mean anything?

We ask these questions in fairness to every one concerned.

We simply ask you to use your own good judgment, because you are the JUDGE.

By re-electing Fred Bryant to serve out his SECOND TERM, you are assured a continuation of Honest, Efficient service in the office of the Sheriff.
