

WINTER CLAMPS GRIP ON BUCHANAN

B. H. S. CAGERS DEFEAT NILES QUINTETTE LAST NIGHT

Now Here's the Proposition

THE OFFICE HOLDER Bi Haws The boy that corners all the vote, he has a pleasure that is brief. He finds he has small cause to gloat for all he gets in lots of grief. We cheer him when he comes to out, but if a single murr is his, Us guys that cheered go get his hat and ask him what his hurry is. No sooner have we sworn him in before we start to cuss him out; We follow him with coupling pins and seek to whale him on the snout. Gone is the peace he knew of yore, his life is full of dule and teen, And we who praised his name before now turn and blame him on the bean. He sits up nights in order that he keep the public taxes down, But when he buys his wife a hat we say he stole it off the town. He finds that all the numerous mob that welcomed him as flowers in May Each want a sidewalk or a job and have to have it right away. He labors in the town's behalf to save a kopeck or a cent. But all he gets is hollow laughs and queries where the money went. We yearn for sewers broad and deep. We yearn for pavements smooth and wide. And he must build and build 'em cheap, or we will take it from his hide. We want to lighten up the park with classy lamp posts all in rows. We want some statues in the park, the kind that don't wear any clothes. We want a bang-up city hall and new fire wagons painted blue; And yet we hanker most of all to have the taxes cut in two. So let us have him on the snout and then turn to and bang some more. What has he got to kick about? that's what he was elected for.

WE ARE SHOCKED We received a hard shock this week, after cracking away merrily right and left at sundry prominent citizens on the general theory that if anybody was going to pay libel suit damages it would be the proprietor of the sheet, to learn that the entire staff were also liable for any misstatement which they aided in disseminating to the full extent of their property, if any and try and get it.

Boosts Lunch Counter Business. Since the town clock saw a pair of knock knees and threw up both hands some weeks since, we understand that the lunch counter business of Buchanan has increased 50 per cent. Everytime anybody looks at the clock, which points to noon 24 hours of the day, they get hungry and go for a lunch.

Anyway that clock agrees with us in matters of time—it's always time to eat.

Buchananites to Trek to Chicago For Meet Feb. 1

Buchanan residents are reminded to lay plans to attend the winter meeting of the Chicago Buchanan Society, which is to be held at Chicago, February 1, at some place to be announced later. Difficulties have been encountered in securing a satisfactory place, according to Mrs. Charles Boyle, who is in charge of arrangements at this end. Word is expected soon from Miss Mary Reynolds, president of the society, as to the definite meeting place, and announcement will be made in the Record.

LOUIS PROUD INCURS CRUSHED ARM AT CLARK

2500-Lb. HAMMER BASE FALLS AND PINIONS LEFT ARM Louis Proud, 214 Third Street, incurred painful injuries to his left arm late Thursday evening when that member was caught and pinioned by a 2,500-pound hammer block at the Clark Equipment Company plant. Proud had returned to the plant after supper Thursday in order to reset a hydraulic hammer. The hammer had been installed new on a green base a few weeks previously and the base had disintegrated. Proud had moved it to a new base and was down in the pit underneath steering into position the hammer block, which was held by jacks on each side. Suddenly the block was released by the jacks and dropped ten inches on Proud's left lower arm, which was resting on an oak timber serving as the block foundation. In the fall, the jack struck Proud in the head cutting a severe gash. After a minute with the jacks the crew hoisted the block again and released Proud's arm. On the following morning the injured man was taken to the Epworth hospital at South Bend, where an X-ray examination revealed a broken finger and knuckle, but no arm fracture. The flesh of the lower arm was also badly bruised. Bob Rotzema was on the opposite side of the block and would have met the same fate had not he been slower in getting underneath to steer the bolts in place. Proud was taken back to his home, where he is recovering satisfactorily.

PORTAGE PRAIRIE COUPLE ARE AGED EXACTLY THE SAME

REV. AND MRS. GEIST BORN SAME DAY 80 YEARS AGO

The home of Rev. and Mrs. August Geist, five miles south of Buchanan on Portage Prairie, was the scene of a most unusual birthday party yesterday when a large number of the friends of the old couple gathered from Portage Prairie, Buchanan and South Bend to honor them. A most unusual feature was the fact that Rev. and Mrs. Geist are exactly the same age to a day both having been born Jan. 16, 1848. Rev. Geist is a retired Evangelical minister, and a large part of the assembled party was made up of the members of the Portage Prairie branch of that church. Nearly sixty assembled, bringing luncheon with them, which was served on boards placed across the laps of the guests. A bag of money was presented to them as the joint birthday present of the party.

Norman Maxson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxson, 119 West Alexander Street, died at 4:45 p. m. Wednesday, at the age of three months. He is survived by his parents; by three sisters, Elberta, Fanny, and Arlena; by three brothers, Melvin, Orlo and Ellsworth. The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday from the home, with Rev. J. L. Griffith in charge.

GAME NIP AND TUCK AFFAIR THROUGHOUT

Nose Out 22-20 Victory in Last 10 Seconds of Contest.

OVERTIME TAKEN Second Team Loses To Invaders 21-14

Buchanan High School pony basketball team kept its slate clean by defeating the big Niles high school quintet, Wednesday evening, on the local floor in a five-minute overtime play, by the narrow squeak of 22 to 20. The score was tied at the end of the third quarter, again at the end of the fourth quarter, and again ten seconds before the end of the extra five minutes of play, when Buchanan, Niles forward, fouled Savoldi, and the diminutive Buchanan forward tossed two free throws to win the game.

Both teams played a fast, short, passing, five man defence game which kept everyone tense with the excitement and suspense. The lanky Niles boys kept the Buchanan basket, sharks off balance with their long armed catches and guarding.

The crowd was the largest of the season. Bridgman had no game so about a hundred led by the Baldwins came over with their fact Class D team. The playing was so fast that referee Warren was very, very busy keeping watch of the ball and plays; however, he invariably seemed to see the fouls and other misplays.

Scoreboard table showing Buchanan vs Niles with final score 22-20. Includes player names and statistics.

The Reserves lost their game, 14 to 21, against the fast Niles Second team. At the end of the first quarter it looked like it would be an interesting game, the teams being tied 4 to 4. Niles, however, pulled away two points in the second quarter, making the score 7 to 9 at the half. The Reserves gradually slid back in the second half, and at the end of the game, Mr. Warren of South Bend, refereed both games.

The second team lineups were: Buchanan, Niles, Eisenhart, R. F. Meyers, Chubb, L. F. Finley, Dretzler, L. G. Williams, Lawson, L. G. C. Smith, M. Schultz, R. G. P. Ostrander. The score by quarters: Buchanan 4 3 3 4-14, Niles 4 5 4 8-21.

He is known as one of the best pulpit speakers in the northern Indiana metropolis, and his coming is an opportunity.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

The fiftieth anniversary of a wedding which occurred in Buchanan on January 13, 1878 was celebrated Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roe at their home at 410 West Fourth Street, over 50 of their relatives and friends attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe were married in the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Roe at 309 Main Street, where M. Sira-ganian now resides. A peculiar (Continued on Page 5.)

A WEDDING MINUS WOMAN SHUCKS YES

Buchanan Men Are Going to Prove It Jan. 23-24.

A wedding without women? Certainly, why not? There's been plenty of weddings in Buchanan where there were no men that anyone paid any particular attention to. And as a result there are 70 well-known business men here who have been nursing a secret sorrow because they were overlooked at their weddings.

They want a wedding of their own where they can at least get on the edge of the calcium glare, and where they will not be entirely in the role of minor characters. And now at last an organization of local women, the Thirty Club, have taken commission and are going to give them a chance to do their stuff. They are going to let the men have a wedding of their own, two weddings, a premiere on Jan. 23 and an encore on Jan. 24. The men have kindly consented to repeat on the later date, as it is certain that all the women who will want to witness it will not be able to get in the Clark Theatre during the first performance alone.

All seventy members of the cast are finished performers who have seen action in previous engagements. They are all prominent in their chosen walks of life but have never before been prominent at a wedding. This time the submerged sex are going to have it all their way, and the women are going to sit back of the footlights and bear as quiet as possible and learn about wedding from them.

All the factors that go to make a successful wedding will be supplied, including the bride, as big as life and twice as natural; the groom without his usual inferiority complex; a full stand of bridesmaids daintily attired in the sheerest Parisian creations and adorned with all the graces of the cosmetician's art. One of Buchanan's most dignified professional men will perform the solemn offices of minister, and referee the bout. The bride's mother will be there choking back her sobs, and the bride's pa will also be there choking back her little brother. The bride's pa will give the bride away if somebody else does not beat him to it. There will be the usual showing of kitchish old maids lapping up second hand romance.

At the opening of the strains of the Middlemore wedding drag, the bride will neatly foot it up the aisle, attired in the bride veil and the rest of the customary harness, supporting a bouquet of pink roses on one arm and the groom on the other. After both have climbed through the ropes and taken their neutral corners but wait, well not tell you everything. Get yourself a reserved seat at Glenn Smith's store, on sale beginning Monday noon. Remember the date, Jan. 23-24 at the Clark Theatre. It will be the show of the year.

Arthur Markley Killed in Railway Mishap at Elkhart

Arthur G. Markley, 49, the son of Mrs. Harriett Markley of Buchanan, died Tuesday at the Elkhart general hospital as the result of injuries received January 2, when he was struck by a New York Central switch engine while performing his duties as traffic signal operator at a street rail crossing. Markley was shoveling snow from a switch block when he was struck by the engine and thrown over the switch, incurring a fractured skull and other injuries.

He is not well known here, but was a brother of Mrs. Bert Dalrymple with whom his mother, Mrs. Harriett Markley, has made her home for the past eight years. The latter has been in a very serious condition since she learned of her son's injury. She is 85 years old.

Other survivors in addition to those listed above are the widow at Elkhart and a brother, Frank Markley, who lives at Centerville, Mich. The funeral was held at 2 p. m. today from the family home at Elkhart.

ADVERTISEMENTS HOUSE FOR RENT AND IS SWAMPED BY ANSWERS

Record advertisements are good house renting agencies, according to George Cassler, who advertised a house in last week's issue and who had received ten answers the day following publication when he quit answering the telephone in order to be able to get something done. "The telephone kept ringing and ringing," said Mr. Cassler, "but I had my house rented."

The people of Buchanan will be afforded a special opportunity next Sunday morning in the coming of Dr. Winfield Scott Hall, M. D., Ph. D. who will speak at the First Presbyterian church at 11:00 a. m. Dr. Hall speaks upon various phases of the Social Problem before church and club audiences, speaking usually from four to six times each week-day and three or four times on Sunday. He comes under the direction of the Department of Moral Welfare of the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. His present tour is arranged by that department and the time allotted to the State of Michigan is from January 19 to January 27th. Only because of an open date on Sunday morning was it possible to secure the presence here of so noted a man. Dr. Hall will speak on the subject "Whither, America." His coming should prove a real contribution to the community.

The comment of Dr. Harrison Ray Anderson, Pastor of First Presbyterian church, Wichita, Kansas, is indicative of the impression made by Dr. Hall everywhere he speaks: "I believe he has touched the life of nearly every child in our city above the age of 12 years. He has done it in a way I call perfect. It has been the finest single piece of service that I have ever known one man to render in this city. He is grappling in a constructive and Christian way with this thing which is gnawing at the heart of Society today. He is great and I want you to know it."

The pastor of the local Presbyterian church, the Rev. Harry W. Stover, wishes to extend a most cordial welcome to the people of the community to avail themselves of this rare privilege next Sunday morning at the regular hour of service.

Robinson Installs Invention in New Theatre at Sawyer

R. R. Robinson is installing the first completed Symphonophone of his own invention at the new Sawyer Theatre which is to open Saturday. The Symphonophone is the local music dealer's own invention, and is said to incorporate control features contained in no other electrical musical reproducer for theatres. The part of the music desired to emphasize the emotion depicted on the screen, whether high, medium high, medium or low on the scale, may be brought out as in an orchestra. The reproduction of organ, symphony or jazz orchestra, piano or any other kind of music is so nearly perfect as to be indistinguishable from the original. Sawyer is to be congratulated on their new theatre and on having this very latest musical instrument.

SIX FEET ON S. B. HIGHWAY

Mercury Drops To Twelve Below Sunday.

WINTER RECORD Snow and Ice Make Auto Traffic Difficult.

Buchanan in common with this section of the middle west has experienced the worst weather of the winter during the past week, temperatures reported in this immediate vicinity being as low as 12 and 13 below zero on Sunday night.

Traffic troubles were started Friday, following the rains of Thursday, when the precipitation of the previous night was frozen into a glare of ice, which coated streets and sidewalks to the detriment of both pedestrian and automobile traffic. Friday night a heavy snow set, precipitating about six inches on top of the ice, the mercury meanwhile dropping to zero. Snow continued intermittently all day Saturday and Sunday, when the mercury reached the winter's low mark of 12 below here. This was the lowest mark recorded in Berrien County.

Traffic by cars was rendered doubly difficult by the combination of snow on top of the ice and by winds which drifted north and south roads.

Special trouble was encountered on the South Bend road, between the Howe school and Portage Prairie, where the snow was drifted six feet deep over a considerable distance. The County road force were engaged three days with the snow plow and a force of shovellers to clear the road enough to make a passage wide enough for two cars to pass. Plows have been operating day and night over the main county trunk lines, and good traveling conditions have prevailed, save for the slippery surfaces, which have been the occasion of a number of cars going into the bar-pits.

Temperatures were higher Monday, but another drop set in Tuesday with the mercury went back to the zero mark and remained close to it all day. Wednesday the mercury rose again but traffic was made more difficult by mixed rain and sleet storms which began in the evening and covered windshields with a glaze of ice.

Thirty Club Holds Music Day Monday

The Thirty Club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. C. Strayer for music day. Mrs. Ida Bishop gave an interesting paper on "Rivers Made Famous in Song," which she illustrated with piano and Victrola selections. Further plans for "The Womanless Wedding" which will be given January 24 and 25 were made. Miss Lucie Becker, a representative of the Symphonophone Producing Co., of Bandstown, Ky., has arrived in the city to meet with the committee chairman and to direct the production.

MOVIES

PRINCESS THEATER

True many of the ardent followers of the prize ring saw a good show for their money Tuesday night at the Clark Theatre but hardly a more thrilling one than they may see for one-fourth the money tonight at the Princess Theatre when Reginald Denny will be seen as the fighting "champ" in "The Night Bird." It is a clean, fast, uproariously funny comedy that carries you from the champ's training quarters to New York's great night clubs, the Beaux Arts, Artists Ball and the most thrilling prize fight ever witnessed.

Not since the death of Rudolph Valentino has the motion picture industry lost such a widely known and beloved actor as when Fred Thompson passed away on Dec. 24, following an operation. It is well to say that the industry paid beautiful tribute to its friend. Directors, writers, producers and actors laid aside their work to attend the rites at Beverly Hills. Never had they lost a member who had been of greater influence in building the prestige of motion pictures. Studio people were there in hundreds to pay homage. Thomson was regarded as a soldier, a fighter, a disciple of the Gospel, a scientist, a writer, a sportsman, and an actor. They had gasped when they heard of his death.

This splendid actor will be seen on Saturday afternoon and night in one of his last pictures, "The Pioneer Scout." It will be almost the last time that the many admirers of Thomson will be able to see their hero on the screen. The picture depicts the thrills in the lives of the relay scouts who guided the wagon trains across the plains and mountains in spite of the Indians and desperados.

The supporting cast includes such names as Nora Lane, Tom Wilson, William Courtwright and of course Silver King.

"Polis Negri" comes on Sunday in "Loves of an Actress." It is the first time this capable actress has appeared on the screen of the Princess for several years.

Those who enjoy good comedy will have a treat on Monday in "Vamping Venus" with Charlie Murray and Louise Fazenda, and what a combination they make. The story dates back to days of Venus de Milo, Mars and other Grecian deities. Of course it's all a dream but you'll have to acknowledge after seeing this picture that some dreams are funny.

One of the big features of next week is coming Tuesday and Wednesday with Corinne Griffith in "The Garden of Eden." She is supported by Charles Ray, Louise Dresser, Lowell Sherman and other well known actors. The picture has received unstinted praise wherever it has been shown.

Scout Troop 41 Stages Initial Probation Meet

Troop 41 held its first probation meeting last Tuesday with all officers and members but three present. The meeting opened with several rounds of "poison chair" and "heads or tails" to warm up for the discussion and tests which followed.

Troop 41 has accepted the challenge from 42 for honors at the coming Court of Honor here February 24. The advancement work started right off with the passing of some tests and work on others. About half the troop will advance in rank if work is done as now planned. Advancement however is not to overshadow attendance of Sunday School. When questioned most of the boys reported having been to Sunday School, Church, or young people's meeting, and the rest promised they would attend next Sunday.

A group of songs topped things off, and the meeting closed with the Scout benediction and the yell of "See you next Tuesday."

A "Millinery" Hint From Hollywood

Since feminine kind is forsaking the bob and letting its tresses grow again—along comes Hollywood with a fashion idea for covering the hair entirely. Jean Arthur is portrayed above exhibiting the latest vogue for evening functions. It's an arrangement of printed crepe, wrapped around the head in turban style and on under the chin, hiding the hair.
