WORLD INTEREST IN DESERT TOWN CENTRAL OFFICE

"City of San Francisco" Crash Made Grants, N. M., a Center of West News Wire Network

It is not often that when a small, out-of-the-way telephone exchange opens it has the distinction of almost at once figuring in matters of national, and even international interest.

Such, however, was the fate of the telephone exchange located "way out in the desert of New Mexico" in the little town of Grants. The occasion was when the "City of San Francisco" airplane crashed to the earth on Mt. Taylor, 20 miles from Grants. In a frantic effort to get first-hand news of the disaster, newspaper men rushed to the scene from all over the country, and the little telephone exchange, the latest addition to the New Mexico-El Paso group of exchanges, became at once, for the time being, one of the most important news centers of the world.

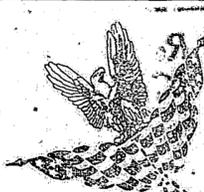

The telephone operator, Miss Marvel D. Marsalis, was on duty when the "army of reporters and cameramen" arrived and she it was who connected the wires over which the outside world received the thrilling stories of the anxious search for the lost plane and its ultimate discovery high up on Mount Taylor. From Saturday noon until Sunday midnight she was the sole contact between Mt. Taylor and the outside world, and faced with the necessity of connecting all points of the country with the little portable telephones at the surveyor's camp on top of the mountain, she was put under tremendous strain and tension.

In the two weeks' period which marks the peak of this move, 30,561 telephones were removed or installed in the Borough of Manhattan. Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island showed a large turnover with 27,294 telephones removed and installed, while in the Bronx the annual moving period accounted for 9,338 such changes.

The Old Timer's Corner

Old Timer Discusses Resiliency of Modern "Come Back"

I have been thinking today, of how mostly everything has a way of "coming back." Sooner or later the styles and the things made years and years ago, are found to be desirable. Maybe it is to show that those who can well afford "antiques" are anxious to "show off" their ownership of things of long ago, but in some cases I believe it is an honest desire to reclaim the things well nigh forgotten.

Even now, at this farther advanced age, we find that the ladies are beginning to find out that their legs are much more attractive if they are not given entirely to the view of every one. To make any thing desirable, it is essential to make some one want it, no matter what that thing may be. When the bold, hardened male men are so accustomed to seeing things every day and every where and of every shape, size and description. They get to a point that there isn't much to anticipate and they pass it by as any other piece of land-sea that is an everyday sight for them. And so I say, they are "making them longer" now, and before long, I believe that they will be padding their hips with the old-fashioned bustles and pulling in the waist line to make the shape of their bodies more noticeable but not completely covered, and thus make them more wondrous about and thus more desirable. Of course the "long ones" right now are of such thin material that they are like the milk cheese cloth that is put over the tops of the baskets of peaches, to make them look more inviting, even though they are not very good to look at nor to eat when that covering is removed. The cheese-cloth keeps the flies off from the fruit, and gives it an added appearance of desirability. So with the flimsy, thin models of feminine wear of today. It has the effect of "making the men look longer."

Take the matter of furniture. The old secretary that was out of date or years and years has become the hobby of the present age and the older it is the better. There is no reason to relegate them to oblivion, anyway, for they were a very convenient thing to have in the house, but they have "come back" and so it is with the old marble-topped bed room sets, made of walnut or other scarce wood (in our modern times) but which at that time was a drug on the market. When people can not get things so easily, then they seem to want them. And so they all come back. We don't need the old-fashioned wash stands any more since we have our modern bathrooms with modern plumbing and equipments, but they are all trying to add to the modern bath room a "chest of drawers" with perhaps a marble top, and the older it looks the better it is. They don't need them at all, for there is a perfectly good "linen closet"

Holmes Recalls Early Railroad

The good story of the career of Asher Treat brings to mind a few more reminiscences. His father was David Treat, and was the first agent for the Michigan Central at Buchanan, when it was built thru from Kalamazoo to New Buffalo in 1848. The depot building stood up on the high ground across from about half its length farther east than the freight house. There was a wide run of stairs from the platform on the track level to the depot, something like twenty or more steps, and passengers who were tired and wanted to rest, climbed up to the "waiting room." Miss Emily Jones came out from New Buffalo to teach the Holmes school and when she arrived, she climbed the stairs, but when near the top became tangled in the street sweeping skirts she wore and rolled to the bottom, to the track level, and practically ruined her pretty nose, and the school had to wait for a week for her to return to New Buffalo for repairs. She never was quite so pretty after that.

The railroad buildings, freight and passenger house, there and along the line of the road from Marshall to Lake Station, were built by a gang of carpenters with David Scidmore as head more. At the time he was living in Battle Creek, later at Lake and then at Dayton. He was, probably, the most expert hunter and trapper among the "pale faces" in that part of the country, a knack he attained by close friendship with Charley Okemos, chief of the Ottawa tribe, which occupied the country about Battle Creek, Lansing and Grand Rapids. The first meeting I had with him was when I was attending school at Dayton in 1883, with Arnold Pierce as teacher. One day Mr. Scidmore had five venison carcasses out on his front yard very near to the school house. He had shot the deer in the "Big Meadow", a tract of country covering a great part of Lake, the west part of Oranoko, and north of Cheaming townships.

In one of her letters Mrs. Winch tells about Arnold Pierce, as teacher and that he married Emma Wilson. She is right, and the greater part of the interest he had in the school was to see she had all of the attention that was needed by a favored pupil. They were married as soon after the close of that term as was proper. I have in my desk a letter from Arnold written in Sanger, Fresno County, Calif., Jan. 11, 1883, in which he tells that in that Dayton school he "learned me all that I ever knew," and it might not have been very much at that. He ended the letter with, "If you get this answer it, if you don't let me know."

Mrs. Winch also asks whether John Needham was a son of Frank Needham of Dayton. He was, and his mother was Ella Shephardson Needham. It was John who established the "Gretna Green" that made St. Joseph so noted. About the time he was elected county clerk it had been quite common for lovers to go to Milwaukee to marry. The legislature of Wisconsin shut that off by a law requiring a license five days before the ceremony. John saw something in the light, and sent some one over to Chicago with 20,000 cards on which was printed, "You can be married in five minutes in St. Joseph. You furnish the bride and we will do the rest." John W. Needham, County Clerk. Those cards were scattered on the street car seats, and right away there was "something doing" in the marriage business in St. Joe. John used to take home with him the necessary papers, Saturday evening on Sunday had a justice and preacher at his home ready for action and we had one report of 92 weddings in that home in one Sunday. I understand that vogue of going to St. Joe for weddings is still alive.

Evidence that Merritt H. Vite of Portage Prairie, is stepping out with professionals in the horse shoe pitching tournaments in St. Petersburg, Fla., where he is spending the winter, is contained in a news dispatch from that winter tourist center.

Mr. Vite was entered in a recent tournament in that city, wherein no contestant pitched fewer than twenty ringers in any one game.

BERRIEN SPGS TO HOLD SKI MEET FEB. 9

Jumpers of National Note Are Entered For Contest.

MAY RAISE RECORDS

Berrien Springs athletes will match their skill against all comers in that most spectacular of winter sports, a ski jumping contest, to be held at Ford Hill, a mile east of Berrien Springs on U. S. 31.

Among the jumpers of national reputation who are entered are Dr. O. E. Lundberg of Ottawa, Can.; Hans Strand of Rockford, Ill.; Earl Asher, Paul Christensen, Gunner Oman of Ogden Dunes, Ind.; Victor Larsen and Henry Larsen of the Norge Ski Club of Chicago; John Struhek, former holder of the world's record on artificial slides of Racine, Wis.

Entries from the Berrien Springs club are Dick Dean (Capt.) William Walcott, Dale Marker, Pete Sheewood, Eou Elbel, Harold Hoedley, Luther Burgoyne. Class B (boys) entries are Jack Dean, Bill Manes, Glenn Shaffer, Bill Utrap, Durwood Marker.

It is expected that the hill records will be bettered considerably this year if snow conditions are are right, as 15 feet has been added to the height of the tower, giving it an altitude of 70 feet in all, which should add greatly to the speed and distance of the jumps. A plenty of parking space will be available.

DEPEND ON YOUR GAS COMPANY TO SERVE YOU BETTER

Why Could You Not Withstand Winter's Chilling Hosts in "Palm Beach" Clothes?

It's the Insulation That Does It!

When "the cold wind goes right through you"—when you shiver with every winter step—your body is not properly protected. INSULATION will correct it, and the insulating effect of a heavy, closely-knit overcoat keeps gnawing cold out—because it's filled with millions of tiny air cells.

The same principle applies to the Round Oak Gas Range with FULL INSULATED (Therminsulated) oven.

The oven is completely blanketed by a robe of thick felted rockwool—full of tiny dead-air cells that form a solid wall against heat and cold. The Therminsulated oven keeps your kitchen cooler and more comfortable and makes baking cheaper by holding more of the cooking heat WITHIN the oven where every degree can do its work.

These with other new, unusual features such as two Double-Action full cooking or simmering burners, concealed manifold, rounded, dirtless corners, removable porcelain oven linings, and regulator and lighter as standard equipment—make the new Round Oak Gas Range the outstanding value of the day. When you can purchase WITHOUT INTERFERING WITH YOUR PRESENT MONEY PLANS—personally come in and see this remarkable gas range with the features you desire to enjoy. May we expect you in tomorrow?

Reserve Nose Out 20-19 Victory Over Springs Reserves.

The Buchanan basketball team ran wild at the Berrien Springs gymnasium Friday night and piled up the highest score of the season when they outclassed the Berrien cagers, 41 to 16.

While the first game between the two teams, which opened the season for Buchanan, was quite close, this game was less than a good scrimmage. Harry Pierce rang up eight field goals and a pair of charity tosses for a total of eighteen points to lead the scoring for the victors. Gifford led the Berrien attack with seven points.

The "Bucks" defense worked like a Japanese farmer. Berrien's shots were mostly long ones, and these were always hurried. A fast breaking offense piled up the huge margin for Buchanan. If Bradford's men can maintain as tight a defense against Three Oaks they should get by although handicapped by the gym.

The Buchanan Reserves came from behind to nose out the Berrien seconds, 20 to 19.

Summary table with columns: Player, FG, FT, P, TP. Rows include Buchanan (41) and Berrien Springs (16).

Referee, Sickles, Ypsilanti. Scores by quarters: Buchanan 14 9 8 10-41; Berrien Springs 1 8 12 0-16.

Geneva Metzgar entertained a group of friends at a birthday party given at her home Saturday night. Bunco and dancing furnished entertainment for the evening.

Kathryn Reed is back in school after last week's illness. Mr. Ormiston is still very busy trying to keep her busy.

English 12 students have started the study of Shakespeare's Hamlet. It has had a decided effect on the speech of some of the students.

Mr. Hubbard got it back on his Chemistry classes, for offering him a prize for being the best mispeller among the faculty, by giving them a test that was quite impossible to pass, even for the brightest.

The bookkeeping class expect their new sets this week. The grand rush has begun to finish up the old ones. No deaths at present.

A sliding party (quite novel) was given by Edith Eddy on Wednesday evening, the last, on Chicago hill. But the party did not end where it began.

Student Council Plans H. S. Party

The Student Council called a meeting Wednesday night. The main business was the planning of a high school party, which will be on Feb. 22, consists of Helen Kearney chairman, Jane Habicht and Helen Mogford. The party will be for the entire high school and is assumed to surpass all other high school parties in fun and entertainment.

More than $300,000 worth of toy balloons from America were used in Britain last year.

STAR PUPILS HONORED AT FRI. PROGRAM

Pellet, Dean of Men at Western State College, is the Speaker.

The assembly program brought something new and extremely interesting last Friday morning. The orchestra played three selections at the beginning of the program.

Mr. Ormiston then introduced the speaker of the morning, Mr. Pellet, dean of men at Western State Normal College in Kalamazoo. Mr. Pellet took as his subject, "Scholarship."

"An A student must be courageous," said Mr. Pellet. "A student gives up many pleasures to obtain high scholarship. An A student pays the price of his A studentship."

"A boy can be planning to be a doctor, may go through school, and university and get by. He may get an office through bluffing but he can go no further. He can not bluff death. He must know his profession."

"Concentration to the best is what we need." Mr. Pellet's talk was more than interesting. His examples and illustrations were unique and it is believed that after his talk, the entire assembly had the feeling of wanting to do better in not only school work but everything they did.

A new orchestra to be called the "Buchanan High School Entertainers" is to appear soon. This orchestra will play for clubs and social activities including, perhaps, the high school dances.

The theme song of the "Bucks" on Friday night will be "Revenge." The reason is that they meet Three Oaks five at the spacious Three Oaks gym. They say that the man of Johnson is exceedingly cocky. But the Bradford plotters are determined.

Classic Students Give Latin Plays

The Latin Club held their meeting Friday afternoon during the Latin class period. The meeting was called to order by the president, Jane Habicht, to decide a date for a Latin Club party.

After various other business affairs were taken care of, the meeting was given over in charge of the program committee, Teresa White and Charlotte Arnold. Two Latin plays were given. The first, "Thyrsis and Pyramus," by Phil Hanlin and John Strayer; the second, "Fortis Puella," by Jane Habicht, Charlotte Arnold, Walter Barbock and Vincent DeNardo.

Junior, Sophomore Girls are Victims in Fast Contests

Last Wednesday two exciting games were played by the girls of the four high school classes at 3:45. The Juniors were the victors over the freshmen, the score being 26 to 13. The game played by the Sophomores and Seniors was won with a score of 13 to 4 by the Sophomores.

The players of the teams are as follows: Freshmen: Rosemary Thompson, Anita Andrews, Doris Campbell, Josephine Dunlap, Elizabeth Hess, Marie Ellis and Helen Mogford.

Hitting the Basket

Probably the most talked about subject, outside of the weather, is the defeat of the mighty Bridgman five at Edwardsburg last Friday. The state champs took a 21 to 14 licking from a less than mediocre class "D" school.

After beating Three Oaks at the Acorn match-box, the lakesiders should be able to perform in any high school attic so it couldn't have been the floor that bothered them. It might have been over-confidence, and it probably was.

The Buchanan boys didn't look so bad Friday night, submerging the Berrien lads, 41 to 16. The important thing to remember is that Berrien scored 4 points against the first team, which, incidentally is a nice piece of defensive play.

The theme song of the "Bucks" on Friday night will be "Revenge." The reason is that they meet Three Oaks five at the spacious Three Oaks gym. They say that the man of Johnson is exceedingly cocky. But the Bradford plotters are determined.

Bucaneers Going After Revenge in Acorn Fracas

When the Buchanan basketball team meets Three Oaks Friday night, they will have a definite purpose in view, and that purpose is revenge.

When the Acorn five upset the dogs by tripping the "Bucks" at the local gym, the locals vowed that they would teach the Festsibone five a few lessons in the art of sinking baskets. By playing at Three Oaks, the "Bucks" will have an 8 or 10 point handicap because of the low ceiling in the gym. At any other place the Buchanan boys should win, but they will have a tough battle at Three Oaks.

The class going extension work under the supervision of Mr. Carter from Western State is well launched on their second program for the year. Child problem is the foundation for the work this term. Several new members have entered the class this semester. The class meets every Wednesday night from four to six o'clock in room four on the first floor of the high school building.

Agrarian Club Arranging Plans Dad-Son Banquet

The Alpha Agrarian Club met on Tuesday, Jan. 28, to get a new start for the coming semester. The meeting was opened by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting and followed by the roll call and the payment of dues.

An assessment of twenty-five cents was put on each member to finance the bill in the Annual. Further plans were made towards a father and son banquet to be put on later in the year.

The meeting was then adjourned and a recreation party followed.

The boys and girls are also anxious to exhibit the results of their soap sculpturing. They are enameling the pieces now. The entire display will consist of elephants, parrots, frogs, dogs, lions, bears, cats, owls, ducks and rabbits.

We wish to thank Mr. Binnis for a contribution of twenty-one books, all of which can be used in the lower grades. Last year Mr. Brodrick donated material and books of various sorts which were distributed among the grade pupils.

Our fourth, fifth and sixth grades are in possession of the rules which are to govern the letter writing in the county contest which is to be held sometime in May.

Miss Abell is supervising the changing of the pictures in the different grade rooms. Mrs. Richard Fuller, who has been in St. Lawrence hospital in Lansing, for the last two weeks, is reported much better and the members of the faculty and especially her fourth graders are much rejoiced over the above news.

The members of the faculty enjoyed a fine dinner at the home of Superintendent and Mrs. H. C. Stark last Wednesday evening. Last Monday night the pupils of the higher grades were delighted with a film on birds and bird life shown in the High School auditorium. Mr. Hubbard afforded them this treat.

One member of the faculty reports the passing of wild geese over Buchanan Tuesday morning at 2:30. Was the member studying atmospheric conditions, science in general, or just bird life? Thanks.

The different grades are soon to put on a series of story work acts out in the auditorium. These are just to be enjoyed by the children most interested. Invitations are not going to be sent to the parents as the teachers are limited to time and do not consider these a general program in any way.

Last Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the grade faculty in Miss Vandenberg's room, Mrs. Lamb gave a very instructive talk on scabies, impetigo, weight and cleanliness. Mrs. Lamb has been most successful in checking contagious diseases in the school and wishes to thank not only the teachers but the parents for their cooperation.

Mrs. Lamb reports eighty-five bottles of milk being used daily in the high school building. Good work. Arrangements have been made through Mr. Houswerth to have the sixth, seventh and eighth grades attend a radio program to be given in our auditorium on Feb. 4th and 6th at 1:30.

We appreciate the work being done by Mrs. Dyer and Mr. Flier, the two who are responsible for providing us with clean, warm rooms in which to work these cold winter days.

This week Supt. H. C. Stark had a call from the Department of Public Instruction for text books, old or new that can be used in the Michigan state prison. A box is to be sent in the near future.

The following rooms were 100 per cent in banking last Tuesday: Miss Clayton's, Mrs. Dunbar's, Mr. Knoblauch's, Miss Neffenger's, Mrs. Walton's and Mrs. Whitman's. This is considered a very good condition considering the present conditions.

The last report from the local bank shows that on Jan. 21, 447 pupils out of a total of 805 present on that one particular bank day, banked $74.27 bringing the amount in the bank up to $5305.17 to the credit of the pupils. And further, only $4.00 was withdrawn during the week. On an average the pupils bank weekly between $75 and $100. That is thought to be worth while.

The members of the grade faculty invite the parents to come to either building at any time to talk over the work being done by the pupils in which they are interested. By a complete understanding existing between the parent and the teacher the pupil is sure to be benefited and isn't the time well spent? One half of the school year has gone, the finishing half is well on its way so the parents are urged to acquaint themselves with the grade of work being done. Folders of each child's work are kept in each room and the parents are asked again to investigate. All teachers appreciate sympathetic interest called.

Miss Olson, our music supervisor, is practicing a varied program throughout the grades. The twenty minute period each day is so divided that it includes individual marks, sight singing, notation and note singing. Listening to victrola records is also an important item in each grade. This last week emphasis has been placed on rhythmic training. Marching, swinging and skipping have been the chief medium by which various tempos are felt.

The children in Mrs. Helm's room have composed a song about Spring. This has been set to music.

The Palmer Penmanship people sent several bundles of samples from different grades to our school last week that the samples may be judged and returned to the company. Miss Abell and Miss Simmons were selected as judges.

Yesterday is dead. Forget it. Tomorrow does not exist. Don't worry. Today is here. Use it. The Misses Ekstrom and Rockenbach were on hall duty last week. They report fewer pupils remaining during the noon hour due, somewhat to milder weather. However, it is necessary to use the Junior High assembly to accommodate those who remain.

Last Thursday, Miss Skeels, with the help of her senior girls, served the following menu: baked potatoes, vegetable soup, yeast bread and butter sandwiches, cocoa and milk. Count the calories and give Miss Skeels credit for looking after the health of those who lunch with her.

The strong Senior class team took an undisputed position as leader in the Interclass League by downing "Doc" Miller's Junior High five 36 to 7 in last Friday's games. The Juniors and Freshmen, who had been tied for last place, put on a tough battle but the Juniors finally won, 12 to 10.

In the second team league, the Sophomores, aided by the services of "Cooze" Letcher and Dretzler, nosed out the Juniors by a score of 16 to 12. The standing at the end of the seventh week is: Team Won Lost Pct. Seniors 4 0 1.000 Junior High 3 1 .750 Sophomores 2 2 .500 Juniors 1 3 .250 Freshmen 0 4 .000

Editorial

Although athletics, music, and other activities are important in school life, every student should remember that the real purpose of highest scholastic grades that he is capable of securing without outside help. To do this one does not necessarily have to become a "genius." As Mr. Pellet said at the Honor Convocation program, it does require a certain amount of courage to study; but, by carefully budgeting time, one can study his lessons and still have leisure to follow other pursuits.

When tempted to just "get by," remember that good grades in high school will help your chances of entering college and really being an intelligent person in later life.

Because of the game to be played at Bridgman Tuesday night, the games the girls were to play at 3:30 Monday have been postponed until Wednesday at 3:30.

At the present time the Juniors and Sophomores are tied, each having won two games.

Berrien County News in Brief

RUSSIAN GOVT. PLACES ORDER B. H. FACTORY

9 MORE ROSS LUMBER CARRIERS; MAKING TOTAL OF 69; PAY $330,000.

Officials of the Ross-Carrier company, manufacturing a gasoline-driven lumber carrier, announce orders from the Russian Soviet government for nine more of the machines, bringing the total made for that government up to 69. Early in December a group of Soviet officials were in the Twin Cities and closed a deal for 34 carriers with the Ross-Carrier company, paying $175,000. On Dec. 24 the Russians bought 22 more machines and an outfit of $110,000. The latest order of nine carriers represents an investment of $45,000. This last order is to be equipped with cabs for use in the forests of northern Russia as a part of the government's famous five year program of industrial development in that country.

FLORIST BRINGS SUIT AGAINST FUEL & LIGHT CO.

Proprietors of the Tornquist flower shops and green houses of Benton Harbor filed a $30,000 damage suit in the Berrien County circuit court Friday against the Michigan Fuel & Light Company. The bill of complaint filed by Atty. Charles W. Gore charges that the defendant corporation was negligent in failing to properly construct a gas main on Oden Street near the green houses. It is further charged that a break in the gas mains near the green houses last year allowed poisonous gas to escape under the pavement and into the green house, killing thousands of plants, bulbs, flowers, seeds and vegetables growing in the hot house.

Mrs. Mary Harner, Daughter Pioneers, Dies at Hinchman

Mary Ann Feather Harner, related by blood and marriage to two pioneer Berrien County families, died Sunday evening at the family homestead at Hinchman at the age of 84. Her husband, William Harner, died two years ago this coming spring. She came to this section from Pennsylvania with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Feather, in 1837. In 1859 she was married to William Harner. Nine children were born to this union, of whom the following seven survive: Mrs. William Camfield, Jackson; Mrs. George Sattler, Benton Harbor; Mrs. George Moyer, Berrien Springs; Luther Harner, Berrien Springs; Joshua Harner, Hinchman.

PARENT-TEACHERS DISAPPROVE FINAL TEST FOR PUPILS

CLAIM 7TH, 8TH EXAMS ARE UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION VS. COUNTRY CHILD.

Abolition of final examinations for seventh and eighth grade pupils of rural schools as an unfair and antiquated test for promotion was favored by the Berrien County Parent-Teachers association at their meeting held Saturday at the Stewart school on the Lake Shore drive, a petition to that effect being drawn up and forwarded to the Berrien County representatives.

The Association contended that it is unfair for the rural pupils to be subjected to this test when the pupils of the city schools are not. The tests constitute a "bugaboo" through the entire year, it was held, and are taken in strange and unfamiliar surroundings where the children are not at their best. A good attendance was present at both afternoon and evening meetings. The speaker at the latter session was H. H. Carter of Western State Teachers College at Kalamazoo, who talked on "P. T. A. and Rural School Problems."

Fraudulent Sale of Spray Materials Alleged in Arrest

J. W. Kinney and H. C. Shepard, both of Benton Harbor, were arrested Friday by Dept. Sheriff Frank Preibe on warrants charging them with altering and improperly labeling spray materials. The complaints for their arrest were signed by Inspector Al J. Hastings of the State Department of Agriculture.

People's Party Names Slate in Bridgman Caucus

The spring political season was inaugurated in Bridgman Saturday evening by the caucus of the People's Party which was held in the Legion Hall. Fred W. Gast being placed at the head of the ticket for the position of mayor. The People's Party is a non-partisan affair and for several years has placed the only ticket in the field. It is not expected that any opposition will develop this year. The caucus attracted 87 voters which is double the attendance of recent years, because of opposition to the city water works now being installed. William H. Gast, who has held the office of village president for three years, declined the nomination, but was named for councilman. Fred Macholz was nominated for re-election as city clerk and William C. Gast was nominated for treasurer. Charles Westphal was nominated for treasurer and Gus Knaak, William H. Gast and Nick Mathieu for councilmen.

Twin City Realtors Join in Fight vs. New Plumbing Code

The St. Joseph and Benton Harbor Real Estate Board will join real estate boards over the entire state in sending representatives to Lansing to protest provisions in the new state plumbing code at a hearing to be held Friday before Governor Green. The realtors will ask Governor Green to table the plumbing code until the next meeting of the state legislature. Dissatisfaction is chiefly directed against the provision requiring ten years of apprenticeship before granting a master plumber's license.

COUNTY LEADER W. C. T. U. GUEST LOCAL CHAPTER

PROMOTION OF IDEALS OF CITIZENSHIP IS THEME OF DISCUSSION.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable meeting Friday afternoon, Jan. 31, at the home of Mrs. D. D. Pangborn. The Union was very much pleased to have as their guest, Mrs. J. S. Crawford of St. Joseph, who is the county president. Three other visitors were present and one new member was taken in. Mrs. Esther Kiefer was appointed Director of the Local Temperance League, a children's organization that we hope soon to have organized. Mrs. Ellis Willsey was appointed chairman of the Hold Fast Membership committee with Mrs. L. M. Otwell and Mrs. W. F. Runner as her assistants, who are to see that all dues of members who paid last year are in the hands of the treasurer by March 3, 1930. Each local treasurer who meets this requirement is to receive special recognition by the National President and Treasurer in the form of a certificate to that effect, signed by them.

The program for the day was in charge of Mrs. Harry Hartline, who handled it in a very able manner. An open discussion of several different topics proved interesting and enlightening. "What are We Doing in Our Community to Promote Christian Ideals in Citizenship; to Conserve the Christian Sabbath, to Promote Stewardship, to Secure the Reading of the Bible in Our Schools; and to Advance the Spiritual Welfare of Prisoners," were the topics under discussion. Greetings were brought to the Union by Mrs. Crawford from Mrs. R. J. Laas, former county president for many years, and Mrs. Crawford also commented on the good work being done by the local union here.

Plans were made for the further distribution of the literature which the local Union receives each month from the national headquarters. It is hoped to reach as near as possible every family in town, through the schools, Sunday Schools, churches and the banks and post office. A short social hour was enjoyed after the meeting adjourned after which the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Runner with Mrs. L. W. Keyes as leader.

Legal Troubles Accumulate Versus Israelitish Cult

A $10,000 suit was added to the legal difficulties involving the House of David cult when Benjamin A. Boswell of Benton Harbor filed damage charges against the Israelitish cult Saturday, claiming that the colony was holding his furniture after ejecting Myrtle Sharbanow from the European hotel on West Main Street. The hotel is the property of the cult.

St. Joe Police Probe Mysterious Automobile Fire

St. Joseph police are working on the solution of the mysterious burning of a Durant sedan bearing an Ohio license which occurred at the Wayne Street viaduct late Saturday night. The car skidded on the icy pavement into the bridge about 9 p. m. Shortly after midnight it caught fire and was almost totally destroyed. No claimant appeared for the machine.

Charles Peapples New Police Chief of Benton Harbor

Benton Harbor has a new chief of police in Charles L. Peapples, who was appointed by city commission Wednesday night to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Thure O. Linde. Linde tendered his resignation when the commission declined to raise his salary from $150 to $175 per month. The new chief has had four years of experience as an enforcement officer, three years as chief deputy and 13 months as undersheriff under Harry Hogue, from 1916 to 1920. He was a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff twice, running second each time.

Richie Farm Home Burns at 3 Oaks

The farm home and most of the household goods of Bert Richie, located five miles north of Three Oaks, burned to the ground early Monday night. Richie had built up a hot fire and suspected from the roar up the pipe that the chimney was burning out. He went outside to see and found the roof ablaze. He has lived alone for the past two years since the death of his wife and was just getting about again after illness, but was able to call neighbors who helped him to save a few articles of furniture. The loss was estimated at $4,000.

It is estimated that half the farmers in America have no telephones.

Backfire of Auto Sets Barn on Fire

Fire originating from the back fire of an automobile destroyed a barn on the Lawrence McCarter farm northeast of Niles Monday morning. McCarter was out in some timber on his farm cutting wood when the blaze started. His wife had gone to the barn and attempted to start the car which was stored there. The automobile backfired and burst into flames. Mrs. McCarter ran across the field to summon her husband, but by the time he arrived the fire had gained too much headway on the building to get checked. They managed to get the live stock out. The entire building, 38x46, with an eight foot basement and mow, 40 tons of hay, 40 bushels of corn, a 1925 model touring car, three sets of harness and farm implements were lost. The adjacent silo was also badly damaged. The loss is variously estimated from $4,000 to $5,000.

Former Van Buren Sheriff is Ousted From Fla. Office

Gladstone R. Beattie, former sheriff of Van Buren county, was discharged from the post of sheriff of Pinellas, Co., Fla., Monday through an executive order from the governor's office as the result of charges of malfeasance in office, including alleged protection of bootleggers, acceptance of graft, encouragement of law-breaking, failure to make arrests and condonement of illegal operations by deputies. Beattie gained considerable prominence as the only Republican sheriff ever elected to office in Florida. Immediately after the election his Democratic opponent contested the election and a recount has been pending for 13 months. He denies the charges, claiming that they are brought by bootleggers and others whose liquor operations have been hindered by him, and states that he will run for re-election at the primaries in 1932.

along fences or in similar places which the birds are known to visit. The snow may be swept away and the grain scattered on the cleared space, but such stations should be tended after each new fall of snow. Lean-to shelters can be provided by arranging poles against trees or fences and covering them with burlap, brush, corn stalks, weeds or evergreens. Pheasants or quail will have become accustomed to feeding at a station will die through such as three inches of snow to get at the feed so it is unnecessary to construct elaborate, completely snowproof shelters. Feed hoppers or other feeding boxes are not used but are not essential.

I WISH I COULD TELL EVERYBODY ABOUT KONJOLA

MICHIGAN LADY TELLS HOW MEDICINE PUTS SPEEDY END TO SUFFERING

MRS. J. SEAMAN
I suffered terribly from stomach and kidney ailments," said Mrs. J. C. Seaman, 419 Webber St., Saginaw. "The simplest of foods caused gases to form in my stomach. I bloated and belched and the pain and discomfort was almost unbearable. I was bothered with shortness of breath and frequent dizzy spells. My kidneys weakened and I was pained frequently. I finally went to bed throughout, ill and discouraged and remained helpless for a long time."

"It is amazing, but three bottles of Konjola actually helped me so much that I was almost myself again. I no longer bloated after eating, and I can eat what I wish. I am free from the kidney and stomach troubles I have suffered with, and I sleep well at night. I could tell everyone about Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Buchanan at W. N. Brodick's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

$1045 budget performance

The development of the New Oakland Eight in reality goes back sixteen years. Several of the engineers responsible for its design participated in the production of General Motors' first eight in 1914. Their extensive knowledge of eight-cylinder engines has resulted in a car of remarkably sound basic design, as well as one which has many advanced features. Its 88-horsepower engine develops one horsepower for every 37 pounds of car weight. This explains why few cars are as fast, why few if any can climb hills so quickly or accelerate so swiftly in traffic. Those who have driven it know how well it merits the description, "the car with superior performance." The New Oakland's power plants are exceptionally smooth. Its inherent eight-cylinder smoothness has been increased by a complete down-draft fuel system—new type cylinder heads, insuring uniform combustion—laminated steel spring and rubber engine mountings. (Considering its superior performance, exceptional smoothness and the beauty of its new Fisher Bodies, the New Oakland Eight is very moderately priced. Thus many who have wanted to own a fine eight-cylinder automobile will find it a car of unusual appeal. Come in and drive it today.

Consider the delivered price as well as the life (cost) price when comparing automobile values. The Oakland Pontiac and other General Motors cars include only authorized dealers' delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired.
