M. S. C. Truck To Show Model Poultry Equipment

The most modern buildings and equipment from screen porches to burglar alarms, now recommended by poultry specialists at Michigan State College for producing and protecting poultry in Michigan, will be shown by models carried on a truck which is scheduled to visit 29 Michigan counties between April 14 and May 24.

The models of buildings which include the laying house which has been used successfully in the state for the past few years. The poultry is shown by agricultural engineering departments at Michigan State college supervised the construction of 20 of these houses in the state last year and records show that farmers in these communities built 103 of the "laying" houses after watching the demonstration house erected.

Models will also show how brooder houses, summer shelters for pullets and wire porches for brooder houses should be built. The list of equipment includes models of mash hoppers, watering devices, laying house heaters, water heaters and burglar alarm systems. All of this equipment has been thoroughly tested and is practical.

Most of it can be built by the poultrymen themselves by following the plans which will be given out at the truck meetings.

Several meetings will be held during the day the truck will be in each county. The county agricultural agents make the arrangements for the location of the meetings.

The counties which the truck will visit are Monroe, Washtenaw, Calhoun, Kalamazoo, Berrien, Van Buren, Cass, Allegan, Kent, Ottawa, Muskegon, Newaygo, Oakland, Lapeer, St. Clair, Sanilac, Huron, Tuscola, Macomb, Genesee, Saginaw, Ionia, Clinton, Bay, Midland, Gladwin, Chas. Osceola and Mecosta.

NEED GOOD METHODS IN PASTURE FIELDS

Plant Food Depleted by Continuous Grazing Without Fertilizers.

The idea that land which is left in pasture improves from year to year is incorrect, members of the staff of Michigan State College say, and they also state that 20 cows will remove 11,000 pounds of phosphoric acid from the pasture field in the course of 30 years if no effort is made to replace the plant food contained in the grass which the cows eat.

Members of the college dairy department advise that pastures be given better care and say that the pasture field furnishes one of the cheapest means of producing milk. Ninety pounds of bluegrass will maintain the body weight of a 1,000 pound cow and furnish enough nutrients to permit the production of 40 pounds of 3.5 per cent milk.

Animals should not be turned on pasture until the grass has had a good chance to start growth, and it is a good plan to provide a temporary pasture in which the animals can be turned when the summer drought has stopped the growth in the pasture field. Later, when the rains have started a new grass growth the animals can be changed back.

Sudan grass, rye, or rye and vetch are recommended for temporary pasture crops. Sudan grass can be used in the fall and the others both in the fall and spring. Alfalfa and sweet clover have become very popular as pasture crops.

The use of 5-10-5 fertilizer in amounts from 300 to 1,000 pounds per acre applied four or five weeks before the stock is to be turned on the pasture in the spring is advised for the better Michigan soils. This application will be needed only every second or third year.

Building Rock Garden Scientific Job, Says Writer

Keen enthusiasm for a new kind of gardening has spread over the entire United States in the last few years. People take a great many stones, put them together in a big pile, half-bury the pile with earth and insert some little plants in the mixture. Then, if they have done it correctly, the plants mostly cover the stones and the neighborhood becomes green with envy because they, too, can not have a rock garden. It does not always occur to the amateur gardener that the science and art of rock gardening may be very complicated indeed and the real place for rock gardens very, very limited.

Rock gardening, or "alpine gardening," as it is sometimes called, probably originated in Switzerland. In that land of high mountains and sharp valleys, there grows a class of interesting wild flowers. These flowers are most interesting, perhaps, because they have adapted themselves to their environment so beautifully and grow, clustered among the hard rocks where they bloom with unparalleled splendor. Their stems are extremely dwarfed and their root systems unusually developed. Their main purpose during their short life seems to be to flower beautifully and reproduce themselves.

Just when rock gardening first came to America it would be hard to tell. We know only that the craze invaded England France and all other adjacent countries and found its way to America where it has gone like wildfire. With it, of course, has come a great deal of bad rock gardening and some that is very good.

Rock gardens require uneven topography and a variation of ground levels. For this reason, many home owners can not have them. It is a mistake to throw a pile of rocks against the family garage, add some dirt, plant the heap with seeds and give the whole the dignified name of rock garden. If people whose property lies on perfectly level ground feel the need of rock gardens, they should find a way to build a stone wall and grow their rock plants on it. Even a walk of broken stone can be induced to grow quite a harmonious collection of the rock garden type.

A ravine or hillside is the ideal site for rock gardening. Alpine plants require good drainage and grow best in black or sandy soil that is porous, absorbing the moisture stored in the rocks about them. The presence of a small stream or tumbling waterfall adds to the natural beauty and helps to complete the picture. The rocks should be strewn with a studied care, so that it looks like careless abandon. The larger rocks should be placed towards the bottom and the smaller ones nearer the top. They must look natural. Steps winding up and down and in and out, on the slopes, are excellent aids.

Rocks suitable for rock gardening are of two kinds: limestone and granite. The kind selected is most important as some plants will not grow well in limestone rock and others will not do well in granite. Other plants are not particular and tolerate either, but it is evident that the rocks determine what sort of plants you can have. If you must have certain plants then you must get the rocks which please them. Rich soil around the rock is not good at all. Sad results come from overfeeding rock plants; they give much foliage but little bloom. The soil should be gravelly loam or sand loam with peat or leaf-mold mixed in. A very good practice is to mulch the rock garden every winter with a light covering of leaves, letting them decay and filling in around the plants that have worked up in the soil or where the soil has washed away. Commercial fertilizers and manure should never be applied.

The rocks ought to be placed so that water falling between them will run down into the pockets of earth beside them. It is a mistake to lay rocks horizontally and expect them to grow in them. Such a position does not allow proper drainage. Also, the "pockets" between the rocks should be of various sizes and shapes.

Some alpine plants make large bushy masses which overhang strongly. Others are dense mats hanging the ground.

There are literally thousands of kinds of alpine plants now growing quite successfully in rock gardens, throughout the United States. There are several hundred sedums alone. Other large species of plants are the pinks in some forty varieties all suitable for rock gardens, the campanulas in eight or ten varieties, alyssums, rock jasmine or androsace, arabis, sandwort, sea thrift, rock cress, edelweiss, many sorts of ferns, hepaticas, dwarf iris, certain kinds of flax, forget-me-nots, cat mint, Joe-and-poppies, moss pinks or ground tulips, primulas in several varieties, ten or twelve more common saxifrages, old-fashioned thyme, troilus, veronica of several kinds and any of the violets. There are some bulbs particularly adapted to rock gardens, among them: Clusiana tulips, grape hyacinths, autumn and spring flowering crocus, snowdrops, daffodils, narcissi, scillas and any of the wild species of tulips. Evergreens are much used. Several kinds of the rose family are at home among the rocks. Chief among them is the Alpine or eglantine rose. Wychuana roses trail down over embankments and are sometimes used. Some perennials are sometimes used but they should be added sparingly and with care.

Six beaver skins found in possession of Robert and Michael Loshaw, Marquette county, cost them $224.90 in cash and jail terms totalling 120 days. Officers who had trailed the two men from several beaver traps set along a creek, found three beaver skins in each of their packs. The men were sentenced to pay fines and costs of $112.45 each and each was sentenced to serve 60 days in the Marquette county jail.

LOOK for the FERRY SEED BOX

There's a Ferry Seed Box near you, in your neighborhood store. Look for it when you plant your garden, for Ferry's purebred Seeds have been tested from generations and generations of mother plants for vigor and sturdiness of growth. It is not the price of seeds which is expensive in your garden—it is the labor and time and investment in the ground. Yet the quality in your seeds may mean the difference between a loss of all this time and investment, and a complete success.

Look for the name "Ferry's" on the seeds you buy for your garden. This means that you are buying tested seeds. All Ferry's purebred Seeds come from generations of plants which have proved their ability to transmit their superior quality by years of careful growing and seeding. The evidence of the harvest lies with Ferry's purebred Seeds. Look for Ferry's Seeds if you are looking for a successful garden. Ferry-Morse Seed Co., Detroit, Michigan.

OBITUARY Miss Luella Maria Chamberlain, one of our city's oldest native residents passed away suddenly at 6 o'clock Wednesday night, April 1, at her home at 120 Charles Court.

She was a native of Buchanan and was born on May 18, 1850 on the Chamberlain homestead just south of the city. She was the daughter of Simon and Maria Chamberlain, early settlers of southern Berrien county. This family represents some of the best in rugged pioneer stock.

Twenty-five years ago Miss Chamberlain had a fall which injured her hip, since that time she has been a shut-in, lovingly cared for by her sister, Miss Eva Chamberlain.

When a young woman of 25, she united with the Methodist Episcopal church. The two sisters have been loyal to God and the church all these years.

The nearest relative surviving is her sister, Miss Eva L. Chamberlain with whom she made her home. Other relatives are: a cousin, Charles Treat; a nephew, Earl Chamberlain and his family of South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bemis of Lorrain, O.; Mrs. Ada Bemis of Lorrain, O.; Robert Patterson, Ohio state representative, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson of Leaside, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hubbard of Amherst, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Chamberlain of Liberal, Kansas, and many others.

Game Department Distributes Free Pheasant Eggs

Between now and May 1, the Game Division of the Department of Conservation will receive applications for free pheasant eggs. Judging from the experience of past years, applications for 5,000 to 10,000 eggs will come in.

To fill these applications the state game farm has kept on hand enough pheasants to provide a surplus of eggs over the hatching requirements of the Mason Game Farm and the branch pheasant farms at the Jackson State Prison, the Boys Vocational School and the Wolf Lake Fish Hatchery. For several years the Mason farm has been able to fill all approved applications which were on file when shipments ceased at the beginning of hot weather. In 1930 some 6,500 free eggs were shipped out to individuals and local organizations. The previous year 7,714 eggs were shipped.

Those whose applications for free eggs are approved, agree to several conditions. The birds released from these eggs cannot be used in connection with any shooting preserve or commercial pheasant farm and must not be released where a fee is charged for hunting privileges. Persons receiving eggs must agree to provide the sort of equipment and to follow the suggestions contained in a pheasant-rearing circular issued by the game division.

Eggs are sent only to those areas where experience has shown that the birds will have a good chance of succeeding after they are released. No birds or eggs are sold by the state game farms, and eggs are not sent to other states.

With most of the suitable pheasant territory in the state already stocked, individual interest in getting "free" eggs is evidently decreasing, according to the Game Division.

Weak Feet

Ninety per cent of the people of this country suffer from aches and pains in various parts of the body which are caused by foot trouble, and from which ordinary treatment gives them no relief. Fortunately, very few of these foot troubles are extremely serious. Most minor cases will respond to the proper fitting of correct shoes.

We fit good shoes that are scientifically constructed.

Proposed Senate Relief.

It is time that United States senators and others left off their competition for the prize of virtue, says the New York Times. All these assumptions of superior humanity and tender-heartedness and patriotism deceive nobody and are rapidly disgusting the country. Sensible people would like to see all these fine flourishes dropped, and the question of relief for sufferers from the drought settled on its merits. There has been enough posturing and beating the air. Let the principle involved and actual facts of the case be clearly and soberly stated, with all the fearful protestations about the bleeding hearts of politicians eliminated.

There is a principle underlying the whole matter. It was plainly stated by President Hoover recently. Self-help, action by local authorities—states and cities—the multiplied voluntary agencies embodying the spirit of neighborly sympathy—these have always been the motto and motive of Americans in coming to the aid of the unfortunate at a time of distress or disaster. They have not failed us in the present crisis.

The ready generosity of our people has again been demonstrated on a large scale and with magnificent spirit and efficiency. While the senate has been quarreling over a proposed appropriation of $25,000,000, many times that sum has been voluntarily given in all parts of the land to exemplify the willingness of the people to help each man his brother in need.

If congress were to begin voting money haphazard out of the treasury, all these private and neighborhood activities would be crippled. The charitable nerve would be cut. Hereafter the cry would be: "Let the federal government do it." That way would lie not only exhaustion of the national revenue, but a drying up both of local funds and local impulses to do the charitable work nearest at hand. All this is well set forth by Mr. Hoover.

New Reparation Plans.

The war in China seems to have subsided, but economically the young Chinese republic finds the going pretty hard. Friends of China suddenly come across with an ingenious scheme to put the country on its feet economically, and at the same time untangle some European troubles.

Germany finds it hard to meet reparation payments. Her chief creditors, France and England, find it hard to make their war loan payments to America. As outlined by Paul Monroe, of New York, all these problems would be solved by one grand coup.

Germany would send money, machinery and materials to China. The allies would credit Germany with reparation payments. The United States would credit the allies with war loan payments to the same amount. China would assume equivalent obligations to the United States. Thus the world would benefit economically.

It would be very fine, provided Uncle Sam were not left holding an empty bag. Further proceedings will be awaited with interest.

Colleges Go Amateur.

Reform in college athletics at last seems to be sweeping over the country. The University of Pennsylvania sets a conspicuous example, adopting more extensive and radical reforms than has been done yet by any other big institution.

There are to be no more scholarships given as payment for football playing. Players will not be bought, begged or stolen from other colleges. Expensive professional coaches will be replaced by faculty coaches, on the same basis of pay and ethics as other faculty members. Training tables, spring practice, camps for football squads and other evils widely condemned will be discarded.

Thus football and minor sports in that university will return to the amateur status which colleges have always claimed but in recent decades have seldom exemplified. Professionalism and its attendant evils are kicked out ignominiously.

Is it too much to hope that many other institutions will follow Pennsylvania's example? That thousands of college students will soon be indulging in sport for the health and fun of it instead of a fierce urge for victory at any cost? That study and culture will reassume, little by little, the importance they used to have in American colleges?

Fewer, Maybe Better, Novels.

An English novelist believes that the novel is doomed. It has had its day as popular literature, but that day is almost over. Novelists have written themselves out and readers have read themselves to boredom. There have been too many novels in recent years, and too many of them weren't much good. So all novels, good or bad, are losing public favor.

This is good news rather than bad. If the public is showing a waning interest in fiction and is developing an awakening interest in history, biography, travel, science and philosophy, the ultimate effect on the novel should be good.

Isn't it all likely that the novel will vanish entirely from literature. It will merely have to be better and more worth reading than it's been in recent years.

Tuberculosis and Climate.

The public health service in a statement just made public at Washington takes issue with the theory that a change of climate is essential in the treatment of tuberculosis, asserting that while in one case in a hundred such a change actually is needed, skillful treatment near home in practically all instances is most advisable.

Recalling that people once "thought that dry mountain air or warm or cold air is better than some other kind of air and that the climate of the arid southwest of Florida or of California would cure tuberculosis," the statement continues:

"Medical opinion has changed. We no longer believe that climate will cure tuberculosis. The most important thing is good medical care, usually in a sanitarium, no matter what the climate is.

"Skillful doctors and nurses and good sanitariums can be found in almost every state, and as for climate, no state in the union has found it necessary to go outside its borders to locate a state sanitarium. The home climate, even if it is the worst climate in the world, is best if proper medical and nursing care is available there but lacking elsewhere."

Stressing "rest instead of travel and proper food rather than scenery" and declaring that the average patient, still believing in "specific virtues of special climates," desired to go away for "high adventure and self-sacrifice," the statement adds:

"Many persons have lost their lives by going to a distant place reputed to cure tuberculosis, where they camped out in a boarding house or sought a light job, and they might have recovered if the money had been invested in proper treatment near home.

"There are unusual cases, one in a hundred, perhaps, when a change of climate is actually needed, most frequently to escape hot weather. Cold weather is usually desirable. A radical change in the habits of the individual is often necessary. That is why he should go for the first six months to a nearby sanitarium."

These instructions, indorsed by leading health authorities, are based on long experience and innumerable experiments and examinations, and in a general way would, no doubt, if observed, prove highly beneficial. However, one should follow them only under the advice and instructions of his family physician. One must look out for that "one case in a hundred."

Farms Instead of Zoos

City zoos of the future may be old-fashioned farms. There is a slowly growing group of citizens who maintain that it is cruel to keep lions, tigers and other wild animals caged up in cramped quarters behind bars. Now that the movie camera can bring to us the pictures of animals moving about naturally in their native habitats, it is argued, the public should be content with pictures and cease to make wretched captives of the living animals.

Along with that humane movement, which may eventually depopulate the zoos, comes this other hint that zoos should be farms and their inhabitants placid domestic animals. In some of our great cities already there are children who have never seen cows or pigs except as they hang in butcher shops. Dogs are creatures on leashes. Chickens and ducks are painted wooden toys on wheels or artificial bits of fluff that appear at Easter time.

A sixth grade pupil in a suburb of New York city has written a letter to the Westchester county park commissioner asking him if his board can't supply a farm for the school children to visit, where they can see pigs and cows and chickens. It is a serious plea. Every American youngster ought to have the opportunity to scramble around on a farm now and then. There should be hay mows to play in, a few chores for the kids to do, a wood lot with a blackberry patch, a running brook, an orchard with climbable trees, some nut trees, perhaps a sugar bush to be visited in the early spring. It's a project the city fathers ought to consider seriously in rapidly growing urban centers.

Russians Talk Less.

Economic necessity is said to have put the brakes on communist propaganda from Russia. It is reported that Soviet Russia is now devoting every ounce of energy to the five-year industrialization plan. It hasn't any extra energy to devote to political propaganda. Furthermore, Russian leaders know that they need the help of capitalists in other lands to put over their five-year program. All the propaganda that might scare off such help is checked in favor of activities which will improve trade relations, combat charges of forced labor, establish necessary credits, and so on.

World revolution, far from delighting Russian communists just now, would really throw a monkey wrench into the works closest to their hearts. Dollars are therefore spent for machinery instead of propaganda.

This is good news to the rest of the world. A growing interest—or, at least, curiosity—in what Russia is doing has long been evident in this country. Misguided Russian propaganda has been the chief obstacle to good will toward that country and its amazing experiment. If they abandon propaganda and let their accomplishments speak for themselves, they'll get along better with other nations and find they actually have a few disinterested friends here and there.

Kathleen Norris says in her childhood the whole family worked three days to make a plum pudding, and now she can buy it in a can. And some folks insist life is growing more complex!

KIDDIES PARADE TO BE FEATURE BLOSSOM WEEK

All Village and Rural School Children Are Invited to Take Part.

Preliminary plans for the second annual Kiddies Parade to be held on Thursday, May 7th, of Blossom Week, were discussed and committees appointed at a recent meeting called by E. P. Clarke, Superintendent of St. Joe public schools, who is chairman of the committee. The meeting was held at the St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce.

Realizing that the Kiddies Parade last year was one of the biggest hits of Blossom Week even though it was hurried to completion late in April, the committee this year plans to enlarge the features of this parade and add to the program of the event.

All village and rural schools in Berrien County are invited this year to enter into the school parade and Kiddies Queen Contest. Miss Margaret Eggert, county school commissioner, will again assist Mr. Clarke in bringing these schools into the contest and will be in charge of the rural queen selection to be held at the St. Joseph high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Friday evening, April 17. St. Joseph schools will hold their selection of a queen one week later on Friday evening, April 24, at the same place.

Those schools wishing detailed information regarding the parade and queen contest may communicate direct with Miss Eggert at the court house in St. Joseph.

Committees to handle details of the parade and queen contest were appointed at this meeting by the general committee and include the following:

Baby Procession, Mrs. Ray Davis, Mrs. Arthur Preston and Mrs. John Preston.

Rural Queen Night, Miss Margaret Eggert and Max Petzke.

Judges Committee, Don McKenzie, M. H. Willis and John G. Cox.

Special Parade Features, Tom Karter.

Ice Cream and Refreshments Committee, Ralph Newland and Harry Rimes.

Rural Division of Parade, Max Petzke.

Publicity, Ralph Newland and Nelson Foulkes.

A suitable prize to each of the competing schools will be given by the St. Joseph Merchants Association while the Newland Furniture Store will contribute the prize for the winning baby, Rimes & Hildebrand will give a gift to the chosen rural queen, and L. D. Ember & Company will give a suitable gift to the chosen city queen.

Bouquets of flowers will be given by the Flower Shoppe and by Harry Harper, the florist, St. Joseph, to the rural and city queens and boxes of candy for the queens will be contributed by Karter's Candy Kitchen. A prize for the best special feature in the parade will be contributed by the St. Joseph Merchants Association.

All competing queens will receive a box of candy from the St. Joseph Merchants Association and a free pass to the Caldwell theatre for one performance will be given through courtesy of Don McKenzie, manager of the theatre.

It is planned to have the Blossom Queen and her court judge the baby division of the parade and a judging stand will be erected in front of the Caldwell Theatre for the Blossom Queen and her court. Through the assistance of Mr. McKenzie, the committee hopes to arrange for one or more news real companies to shoot the parade together with the Blossom Queen and her court.

BERRIEN FARMERS ARE ELIGIBLE FOR FEDERAL LOAN AID

Committee Announced to pass on Feed, Seed and Fertilizer Loans.

We have the following information regarding the "Federal Emergency Relief for Seed, Feed and Fertilizer" for our farmers.

Loans are made upon application of the individual, blanks for which can be obtained from the county agricultural agent. The applicant agrees that the money on such loans will be used for the purchase of seed, fertilizer, feed or oil for tractors and is necessary for him to continue his farming operations this year on account of drought or storm last year and because of encumbrances on his real estate and personal property and lack of funds is unable to procure the credit elsewhere. The application is accompanied by his note due Nov. 30, 1931, and mortgage or lien on the crops for which the seed, feed, fertilizer etc., have been bought and used together with a waiver from all landlords, mortgages or other interest secured by former liens. The application, mortgage and note will be forwarded for approval to the Farmers' Seed Loan Office and when approved initial payment on the loan will be made. The money may be received all at once or in installments as the department rules according to the nature of the application. Interest at 5 per cent will be deducted. The Joint Resolution provides a penalty for making material false representation in connection with such application of $1000 fine or imprisonment of six months or both.

Application for loans must be first made to the local loan advisory committee and if approved by them must be in Washington not later than April 30, 1931.

The right is reserved to make further supplemental or amendment regulations from time to time or to withdraw these regulations at any time.

The committee is composed of the following men: O. A. D. Baldwin, chairman; Bridgman; John Warman, Watervliet; William F. Dean, Eau Claire; Fred Franz, Niles.

Crowley of 4 Horsemen at High School Friday

WILL SPEAK ON ATHLETICS IN HIGH SCHOOL

Famed Back Star Has Added to Laurel by Record at Michigan State

James H. Crowley, football coach of Michigan State College and a member of the famed "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame, most celebrated quartet of backfield stars ever to don molestins, will speak before the Buchanan high school student body at the Friday assembly.

In addition to his exploits as a halfback on the Notre Dame eleven of 1924 and 1925, Crowley has been eminently successful as a coach. In the 1930 season his Michigan State eleven lost one game out of nine, bowing to Georgetown University 13-12. The greatest triumph was a game with the University of Michigan eleven. Next fall his eleven will play the Army and the University of Illinois.

His topic here will be "Athletics in the High School." He is reputed as a very effective speaker before student bodies. Anyone in the community who is interested is invited to attend the assembly at 11 a. m. to hear the famed grid star.

Grade News

1st Grade, Miss Vandenberg
Earlier in the school year we started a clean-up campaign because we needed it, and we kept it up because it helped us. Every child in the room was enrolled and became very much interested. Some of the subjects we work are: kindness, fire prevention, thankfulness, good will, honesty, character, manners, health, patriotism, cleanliness, obedience, self control, work, courtesy, cheerfulness, recreation and truthfulness.

We have chosen each chairman and all strive to remember that each is to do his or her part in a kindly spirit—not in a fault-finding way. No petty reports are to be made, but gross disobedience is to be reported at once in hope that the offender will improve. The children understand and they make corrections in a kindly spirit, remembering they were made for their good.

1st Grade, Miss Carnagan
The seeds planted in our garden are nearly all up now. Each child was given a 3x5 inch plot in the sand table to plant what seeds he wished. The plants will be taken home when large enough to transplant.

The remaining space on the table we have used for lawn.

We are glad to have Merton Lee Hanlin back after being absent for two weeks.

For language this week we are talking about spring flowers. Also making and learning their names.

3rd Grade, Mrs. Fitchner
Several new names were added to our dental honor roll this week. Our per cent is 70.

Richard Hayden left school Friday. His family is moving to Hot Springs, South Dakota. We are very sorry to have him go.

Woodrow Hines entered our room this week, which brings our enrollment to 44. Woodrow came from Tennessee.

All of our girls and boys have received their gold star pins in Palmer.

2nd Grade, Mrs. Heim
Jack Leggett has his name added to our Dental Honor Roll.

The following Silver Star buttons as a reward for good penmanship:

3rd Grade, Miss Simmons
Paragraphs submitted by the following pupils were accepted as members of the Good Writers Club of the A. N. Palmer Co.:

We are sorry to lose Lorna

ANNOUNCE H.S. TRACK MEET SCHEDULE

BERRIEN COUNTY ORATORY MEET HERE APRIL 17

Members of South Bend H. S. Faculty Will Officiate as Judges.

The county oratorical contest will be held in the Buchanan high school auditorium at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 17. The judges from South Bend are Miss Knudson of the Public Speaking department, Miss Oxtell of the English department, and Mr. Ogden of the Social Science department of Central high school.

The Agricultural and Civics classes have been doing a good work lately. Under the able direction of Mr. Knoblauch and Mrs. Whitman, the work of cleaning up the lawn has been completed. With the use of Bruce Ernst's truck and a few rakes and shovels, the boys did a great work. The shrubs were trimmed and the ground around them loosened. A few shrubs and plants are to be replaced around the rock garden.

Mr. Stark requests that the students refrain from littering up the lawn with paper and from leaning out of the windows, as it gives the building a very untidy appearance.

Ag Classes to Compete in Meet at Kalamazoo Sat.

Members of the sophomore, junior and senior agriculture classes, under the direction of Mr. Knoblauch, will journey to Kalamazoo to enter a judging contest on Saturday, April 18.

This division has entered many judging contests and the boys have placed in local, county, state and national meets.

The seniors are having their pictures taken this week by Paul Franks, of Sister Lakes.

No doubt you have wondered why so many of the seniors have been going around all dressed up and acting so dignified. Well, this is the reason, and no doubt there will be a lot of cameras broken.

One of the seniors forgot that his picture was to be taken the first hour Monday morning and rushed madly home to attire in the conventional black.

Natives Kill Aviator
Jerusalem—A British aviator forced to land near a camp of Arabs was killed by the natives.

Ansless who has moved to the country near Indian Lake.

We were glad to have a visit from Muriel Dillavou Monday afternoon.

In Art the children drew daffodils.

Catherine Wynn, Kathryn Hamilton and Elaine Blainey brought some daffodils and hyacinths to school Monday.

4th Grade, Mrs. French
The Palmer awards in our room are as follows: Charles Wales received a Gold Star button, Ruth Wales, Alice Leazenby, Kenneth Phiscator and Marjorie Wheat received the Palmer Method button; Ann Mogford received the Merit button and was the first one in our room to receive it. Several others are working for this award and may receive it before the end of the year.

We are quite proud of our banking percentage. We had the highest per centage again last bank day.

Donald Pletcher brought a white hyacinth for our room. We have enjoyed it very much.

Alice Leazenby made the best record in English last week, receiving three A's.

Shirley Bauch, Lawrence Dellinger, Wanda Green, Charles Harris, Vernon Walls and Marjorie Wheat made the best record in Arithmetic last week.

Grade 6, Miss Abell
Our room was very well represented in the Rumpelstiltskin cover contest. Joe Bachman and Victor Vigonsky received honorable mention.

When we were studying the Western States we made folders about it. There were three principal routes. The managers of these folders were: Northern Pacific, Joe Bachman; Union Pacific, Melvin Campbell; Southern Pacific, Marion Miller.

Our folders were composed of maps showing the railroad routes, scenery, and accommodations. We had some very interesting articles from the West.

We surprised Miss Abell Friday afternoon. We had a lot of fun and ice cream and cake.

There were two large moths that came out of their cocoons last week. They were the Polyphemus and the Cecropia.

—Marion Miller.

Max Beadle Wins Operetta Cover Drawing Contest

The contest for the cover designs, representing the operetta, "Rumpelstiltskin," came to a climax Friday evening. Judges were chosen by Miss Theo Olson. Two very competent judges, Virgil Exner and Phil Hanlin, started their work at seven o'clock Friday evening. The cover designs were to represent the thought of the operetta, and were judged from the point of originality, simplicity, fitness to purpose, neatness, and suggestiveness. This work came from the art departments of the lower six grades. A few designs were entered from the second grade and up through the sixth grades. There were about 250 covers to choose from.

After a great deal of contemplation, thought and hard decisions, the judges came to the conclusion that the cover carrying the best expression of all was contributed by Max Beadle. This design was awarded the first prize, the honor of being used as a cover for the programs for the operetta. There were five honorable mentions, namely, first, Joe Bachman; second, Robert Stevens; third, Victor Vigonsky; fourth, Elancho Blante; and fifth, Matthew Rauch. These honorable mention designs will be used as posters to be distributed by Miss Abell, publicity manager.

First prize cover may be described as follows: Rumpelstiltskin is peaking in through an open door with his queer pointed hat tipping over to one side. The door is ajar, a slight way and at the side is the spinning wheel on which he has to spin straw into gold. The word Rumpelstiltskin is printed down the side of the cover and the date also at the side. The name of the boy winning first prize will appear on the front of the cover on the program.

The names of the contestants did not appear on the face of the design for the judging.

PROGRESS OF CLASS ROOMS DURING WEEK

Biology Class Gathers Material for Aquarium; Capture Snakes.

The third hour biology class went on a field trip Monday morning, the second and third hours. Many specimens were seen and several collected, among which were a garter snake, a snail and a turtle. The former was put in the snake cage and the latter two in the aquarium.

By the way, there is an aquarium in the agriculture laboratory. Some lake sand and some seaweed make it real attractive, besides the salamanders and a crab.

In addition the occupants of the snake cage have increased. Two or three of the boys have brought in additional garter snakes. Last week several frogs were put in to the snakes and it proved quite an attraction, especially for Mr. Bradley's class of junior high boys. It really is surprising how big a mouthful a snake can take.

The agriculture classes are making thirty-eight flower boxes for the front window ledges of the school. They are being painted grey and will be ready for the flowers next week.

Debate Clubin Stores
The English 11 and 12 classes, under the supervision of Mrs. Zerbe, had debates last Friday. The results were:

The negative side of the first division won on "Chain Stores." The chairman was Donnell Marrs. The chairman for the affirmative was Peggy Merrifield.

The second division debated on the same subject. The chairman were: Ardell Reams for the negative, which won, and Gordon Goering for the affirmative.

Test Speed Sound
A field trip was taken by the physics class last week, where several attempts were made to determine the speed of sound. This, however, proved fruitless, for black powder shot gun shells are needed so that the smoke can be seen before the sound is heard, in order for the timing of the sound to be accurate.

This week, "Nature and Propagation of Light" will be studied and the technicolor process of making colored motion pictures explained.

English Notes
The English 11 and 12 classes are going to start their review for the Gamma state test Monday. The schedule so far has not been definitely planned for the following week, but it is thought that the test will be given at that time.

Last Friday the English 12 class finished up their vocational speeches. This work has a wide

TO ENTER DUAL TRIANGULAR AND STATE CONTESTS

Will Defend County Track Title Held for Past Three Years.

A dual meet, a triangular meet, and a county meet, all face the Buchanan tracksters before the annual elimination begins in the state meets.

The Bucks will take on their old rivals, Niles, in a dual meet and will also enter with Niles and Dowagiac in a three way affair at Dowagiac. Both of these teams defeated Buchanan in similar contests last season and Niles, state champs in Class B last year, is reputed to have quite a number of flashy runners. Buchanan has some promising men especially in the distance runs and in the field events, and they will not give up the ship without a real struggle.

The Bucks will also defend their county C and D title, which they have won for the last three years, but they will have a little stiffer competition than before. Berrien Springs and Bridgman are both out to upset the champions and might do the trick, but the dope still favors Buchanan.

The entire schedule is as follows:

April 21, Niles, at Niles.
April 24, Triangular Meet at Niles.
Dowagiac
Buchanan at Dowagiac.
May 11, County C and D Meet at Niles.
May 11, Regional Meet at Kalamazoo.
May 11, State Meet at Lansing.

UNIQUE PROGRAM FOLK DANCES AT FRIDAY ASSEMBLY

Phil Hanlin Interlocutor in Introducing Series of National Steps.

One of the cleverest and most original assembly programs of the year was presented last Friday by Miss Alice Rothenbach, girls' athletic instructor.

Phil Hanlin played the part of an agent at the travel bureau. He was confronted with the task of explaining an ocean voyage to a quaint and old-fashioned family consisting of Andrew McClellan, the mother; Vincent DeNardo, the father; and George Spatta, the son. The family wanted to go to Ireland, but did not wish to pay more than fifty dollars for the trip. Phil told them about the various countries they would visit, and as he did the following countries were represented by dances.

United States, "Yankee Doodle," S. Rolan, Barbara Hamilton.

England, "Sweet Kate," D. Dunlap, D. Wheeler, G. Upson, V. Jarue, D. Hawks, B. Reinke and E. Smith.

INQUIRING REPORTER

Do you think the seniors should have a "freak day?" Why?

Yes, if for no other reason than just to follow the age old custom and to put some life into the school. It also would help Elliot Boyce to become more in the public eye.—Dick Brodrick.

Yes, for Dick Brodrick's sake. He wants to wear pajamas and can't think of any better way to present them.—"Stub" Boyce.

Yes, I think they should have it because it really shows you how funny the seniors can really be. Of course, a few of the seniors don't have to dress up, they are funny enough, but it gives the rest of them a chance to act like "freaks."—F. I. S.

Yes, I think the seniors should have a freak day because it is one thing that they enjoy a lot. It is something that the others enjoy too. Most seniors go around all the time quite distinguished looking, and a freak day usually displays their real character more. It is not compulsory and those who do not want to enter the game need not, but as for me I say, "Let's have a freak day and display our talents!"—H. A. S.

Univ. Radio Book Talks to Interpret America

Ann Arbor.—Describing how the present-day America looks to the thinkers who are considering significant features of her culture and history will be the object of a series of seven review entitled "The Contemporary Interpretation of America," to be given by Professor Howard Mumford Jones of the University of Michigan, Department of English, and broadcast over WJR on the University's regular afternoon program. The first was given Tuesday, March and programs will be given weekly.

The reviews were developed by the Bureau of Alumni Relations as a part of its program of continued education for graduates, but are expected to be of great interest to other listeners as well. Each talk will center about some topic of contemporary interest, and will be considered in terms of a review of one book bearing particularly on the subject, and one or two other related books.

"The Re-interpretation of American History" will be the first talk, and the books will be "The Rise of American Civilization" and "The American Deviation," by Charles and Mary Beard; and "Political Behavior," by Kent.

The following talks which Prof. Jones has prepared will include: "America Looks Abroad," based on Andre Siegfried's "America Comes of Age," "The Age of Machines" reviewing "Men and Machines" by Stuart Chase; "Art in the Machine Age," reviewing "Sticks and Stones" by Lewis Mumford; "Literature in the Machine Age," centering about "Main Currents of American Thought," by Vernon Loggins; "The Race Problem," based on R. R. Moton's "What the Negro Thinks," and concluding with "The South, the East Industrial Frontier," the book being "Till Take My Stand" by Twelve Southerners.

SENIOR TEAM CAPTURES CLASS TRACK AND FIELD

Combination—Morse, Schultz
Twins Compile Total of 36 Points.

Once more the Seniors are Inter-Class Track Champions, but their honors came only after a hard battle, which finally was won when the Sophomores were disqualified in the 350 yard relay, giving the seniors a 59 to 53 edge over the Sophs. The Juniors placed third with 19½ points and the Fresh were a poor fourth with a total of 5½.

The Seniors were only able to run up their advantage in the field events, placing first and second in the javelin, discus throw, and shot put, while the Sophs scored heavily in the track events, winning the low hurdles and 440 yard dash and taking first and second in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Due to the bad track conditions, there were no new marks set, except the 120 yard low hurdles, which was run for the first time; the previous distance being 220 yards.

The Morse and Schultz twins were out in full force, the Louie and Lauren combination gathering 25 points between them, and the Schultz brothers getting 11. Louie Morse was individual high scorer, taking first in the 100 yard dash, the 220, and the low hurdles for a total of fifteen points. Lauren came in second with firsts in the broad jump and the 440 yard dash.

LUBRICATION STUDY in 13 Cars just completed

13 latest models used in series of motor oil track tests running 25 days

Conducted by Contest Board of A. A. A. on Indianapolis Speedway

This is probably the most thorough and comprehensive lubrication study ever made.

The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association conducted the work and is compiling the results for certification. Car manufacturers sent representatives to the track for observation.

Here are some of the technical questions included in this study:

- Extent to which motor oil thins out in the crankcase?
- Effect of speed on oil consumption?
- Volume of carbon formed with various grades (viscosities) of oil at different speeds?
- Engine wear at known speeds with various grades of motor oil?

Soon these cars will take to the road on extensive individual tours. These tours will serve a dual purpose. First, to deliver to automobile dealers the certified results of the lubrication study and give them the privilege of inspecting their car. Second, to carry on the lubrication study under the identical conditions that your car faces every day. Watch for these cars. Inspect them if you have the opportunity.

The broad scope and thoroughness of this work explains why Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to provide you with motor oil that meets exactly the lubricating requirements of your car.

New ISO-VIS MOTOR OIL

New Polaris also is refined by our new process—giving it an efficiency which is exceeded only by New Iso-Vis. The price is 25c a quart.

Love is not hasty to deliver us from temptation, for Love means that we shall be tried and purified." (p. 22.)

MILD WINTER AIDS CONDITION WINTER WHEAT

Nation-Wide Conditions Point to an Increased Production.

The condition of the Michigan winter wheat crop on April 1 was slightly better than for 1930 on the same date last year and only one point below the ten-year average, according to the report issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The condition of the crop on April 1, 1931, was 82 per cent, compared with 79 on April 1 last year, and 83, the ten-year average figure for that date. This is a gain of 3 per cent over the condition of the crop on December 1, which is believed to be due to the mild winter with present prospects for a below average abandonment. Moisture supplied by the March snows also helped improve the outlook. While it is still too early for an accurate forecast of production, studies of the relationship between April condition and final yield made by the Crop Reporting Board indicate a total production of 1,150,000 bushels. This is nearly two million bushels below the ten-year average, due largely to the smaller acreage sown last fall.

The condition of the Michigan crop on the first of the month is given at 83 per cent. Last year at this time the figure was 81 while the ten-year average is 87. Pasture prospects are very poor because of last year's drought. Michigan farmers report a condition of only 68 per cent, which is 12 points below the corresponding figure for 1930.

For the country as a whole, the condition of the winter wheat crop is reported at 88.8 per cent as against 77.4 this time last year and a ten-year average of 79.2. This indicates a probable production of 643,920,000 bushels. Last year approximately 604,000,000 bushels were harvested, while the average for the previous five years is 644,000,000 bushels. The condition of the nation's crop was 81.6 per cent which compares with 82.0 in 1930 and 84.0, the ten-year average figure for April 1. The condition of the early potato crop in ten southern states was given at 79.1 per cent or four points above that for April 1, 1930, but about 1 point below average. The condition of the southern peach crop is estimated to be 43.3 per cent or 20 points better than for this date a year ago, but about 2 points below the average. The oat crop in the southern states had an average condition of 83.8 on the first of the month, which is twelve points better than a year ago, and six points higher than the average for this date.

Game Department Designates New Non-Trout Streams

Designations of parts of the AuSable River and the White River and some of its branches were changed by the Conservation Commission at its April meeting.
The AuSable River, down from the head of Bamfield Pond, has been designated as a non-trout stream, with spearing and dip netting permitted.
The White River, down from the dam at Esperanza, was designated as a non-trout stream with spearing and dip netting permitted.
The North Branch of the White River, down from the dam at Ferry, was designated as a trout stream, with spearing and dip netting prohibited. This was a revocation of action taken by the Commission in March, when this stream was designated as a non-trout stream and fishing limited to hook and line.

Notice is hereby given that after the close of business June 30, 1931, the Post Office Department will not handle as free matter any war savings stamps, war savings certificates, thrift stamps or treasury savings stamps.

Persons who hold any war savings stamps, treasury savings stamps or thrift stamps, whether such stamps are affixed to a war savings certificate of the proper series, a treasury savings card or a unit card, or whether such stamps are loose and unaffixed to certificates or cards, are urged to present them at once to the local post office for transmission to the department, as postmasters at all post offices are authorized until the close of business June 30, 1931, to accept such stamps from any individual with proof of ownership and transmit the stamps, without cost to the owner, by official registered mail to the department for redemption. Postmasters and postal employees are also authorized until the close of business June 30, 1931, to assist the holders of these stamps in preparing any documentary evidence that may be required under regulations of the treasury department for redemption of the stamps without cost to the owners and holders of such stamps.

State Changes Method of Donation of Pheasant Eggs

The Conservation Commission at its April meeting, modified its policy as to the distribution of pheasant eggs from the state game farm. In the past, pheasant eggs were sent only to applicants in the southern half of the lower peninsula, but under the new policy, pheasant eggs may be sent to the northern island of pheasant territory. This change in policy has been made to allow a further test of the pheasant possibilities in certain northern areas which have proved somewhat favorable for these birds. For this purpose, the lower peninsula is now divided into two districts, a northern and southern, the line of separation being the south boundaries of the following counties: Alcona, Newaygo, Mecosta, Isabella, Midland and Bay County as far east as the Saginaw river. All counties south of this line will be classed as in the "southern" pheasant district, while all counties to the north of it are in the "northern" pheasant district.

The results of pheasant experiments in some of the northern counties have shown conclusively that there is little likelihood of success with pheasants in the wild land districts or in the deep snow areas. Most of the upper half of the lower peninsula is quite certainly "out of the picture," so far as real and steady pheasant hunting is concerned. However, in a limited number of the Bay City-Muskegon line, pheasants have continued to furnish some hunting each fall. A few birds have persisted even as far north as Charlevoix but only in the better farming sections and at lower levels where even in January and February the snow is seldom deep.

Applications for eggs to be used in the southern district may be sent directly to the Lansing office, the same as during the past three years.

Each application for eggs to go into the northern district must be approved by the district conservation officer before it will be considered by the Lansing office. District officers will approve applications for pheasant eggs only when they have assured themselves that the areas where the eggs are to be used and where the young birds are to be released, have coverand weather conditions distinctly favorable for pheasants, and that there is a local sentiment such as will insure that the birds get a good chance to increase. Officers will accept applications for pheasant eggs for use on wild land of deep snow areas as experience has shown that such areas are not suitable.

Michigan to Give 2200 A. to Govt. for National Park

When the federal government converts Isle Royale into a national park it will be offered 2,200 acres now owned by the State of Michigan.

The Conservation Commission at its March meeting, voted that all of the state's property on the island be tendered the United States whenever the island should be officially converted into a park. Contrary to general belief, the state does not have large holdings on the island. The 2,200 acres to be offered the federal government represent the entire state land holdings on the island. The 2,200 acres to be offered the federal government represent the entire state land holdings on the island, which has an area of approximately 323,000 acres. The rest of the island is owned by private interests.

Adoption of Isle Royale by Congress, as a national park, does not necessarily mean that it will be immediately converted into a park area. Temporarily, at least, the island will remain in the same status as numerous areas adopted by the conservation commission from time to time as state parks but which are still undeveloped and are not under administration.

During the coming summer season the Department of Conservation will continue to protect the wild life and forests of the island. A conservation officer and a fire warden will return to the island as soon as the ice conditions permit to patrol the woods and the surrounding waters.

ROMANOVSKIES By Grace Fletcher

A certain columnist featured in a reversed Sunday sheet, alleges that two Michigan school teachers acting as judges in beauty contests (I suppose for Blossom queen) did not know the meaning of the word "limbless." For sure they consulted the dictionary. Every Michigan teacher knows the meaning of that word. Just where lies the intelligence?

And again a certain magazine sends one only the cover when the subscription has expired. That is all one wants of some magazines.

It would take a real skyscraper to raise Buchanan out of the valley. Still, Buchanan's progress was a Mayfair mushroom.

Haunted houses are no longer domiciles besieged by ghosts but by rent collectors.

The early bird is the man who has his fishing story all memorized by now—resumes climax and everything. No fish wounds dug through.

Scouts, 4-H Clubs To Stage a Tree Planting Program

Tens of thousands of trees will be planted in Michigan state parks during the coming summer by Boy Scouts and 4-H clubs.

The Parks Division of the Conservation Department is co-operating with these organizations by providing the land and assisting in the planting programs.

The tree planting will be carried on as regular projects of the Scouts and the 4-H clubs and should result in several miniature pine forests in the parks. About 20,000 trees are to be planted in the parks in Oakland county alone.

Aside from the reforestation work to be done by the boys and girls clubs, the Parks Division will continue regular tree planting work. For several years the division has carried on a program of planting both hardwood and pine trees in available places in the parks.

The plan of the Parks Division is to have every acre of park land not otherwise utilized for recreational or other purposes, planted with trees.

In addition to planting new forests in the state parks, the Parks Division is giving special attention to those already existing. In the past, a close co-operation exists between the Parks Division and the Forest Fire organization of the state for the protection of the park forests from fire. During the fire hazard seasons, in addition to the protection given by the regular forest fire organization, park employees are constantly patrolling the forest areas within the park boundary. There has not been a serious fire within a state park for several years.

Many of the park forests have a high wood value as well as aesthetic value. The Hardwick Pines, for instance, one of the two remaining stands of virgin pine in the southern peninsula are valued at $100,000 for their timber alone.

Put 15,000,000 Trout Fry in Lake Michigan

Co-operating with the United States Bureau of Fisheries in the distribution of its lake trout fry, the Fish Division of the Conservation Department has sent its railroad car "Wolverine" to Charlevoix. The car will transport trout fry from the federal hatchery located there to planting points along Lake Michigan. It is expected that about 15,000,000 lake trout will be planted in Lake Michigan from the Charlevoix hatchery.

After completing planting of the trout at Charlevoix, the "Wolverine" will be sent to the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries Station at Duluth, Minn., to assist in the planting of lake trout and whitefish in Michigan waters of Lake Superior.

State to Sell Leases in Oil and Gas Lands

State-owned lands in three townships in Montmorency county will be offered for oil and gas leases at the next public sale of leases to be conducted by the Lands Division of the Department of Conservation.

The Conservation Commission at its regular April meeting voted to offer the lands for lease after it had received an application for leases in townships 28, 30 and 31, North of Range 8, East in Montmorency county.

The land is 100 miles northeast of the present fields of oil production.

Burning Permit Law Proves to be Preventive Measure

The burning permit law, adopted by the state legislature in 1927 and which required a permit before fires in the fields or woods, has proved to be probably the most important fire prevention measure ever put in force in Michigan.

This is a view expressed by Edward J. Sayre, chief fire warden, in discussing the various means being taken by the state to reduce its enormous annual loss from forest fires.

Strict enforcement of this burning permit law has resulted in a large reduction in the number of fires caused by brush burning, Sayre said.

Only once since the law has been in force has it been necessary to suspend the issuance of permits. During the period of extreme hazard during the 1930 season, July, August and September, no permits were granted because of the dry condition of the fields and woods.

The burning permit law provides that a permit must be obtained from a conservation officer or township supervisor before burning any woodlands, grasslands, brush or slash fire for the purpose of clearing and improving lands or for preventing other fires.

FLOWER SHOW IN SOUTH BEND APRIL 18-21

To Include Window Boxes, Sunken and Rock Gardens and Art Exhibit.

Final arrangements for South Bend's first garden and flower show, sponsored by the Nature Study Department of the Progress Club, to be held in the Granada Exposition Hall April 18, 19, 20, 21, were completed under the direction of John Servas of Chicago, at a meeting of the executive committee held April 6th.

Mr. Servas, who recently directed several successful shows at the same kind in Chicago, and other large cities, said Saturday that the enthusiasm of local residents and the large number of floral exhibits already promised, indicate that South Bend's first floral show will be one of the most unusual and interesting events this section has seen.

Besides floral displays, the show will include indoor and outdoor window boxes, plant exhibits, art exhibits, garden features designed for both adults and children, miniature rock gardens, sunken gardens, bird retreats and special table-garden expositions. Proper methods of gardening and landscaping will be demonstrated, and the large hall beneath the theatre will be transformed into a vast, beautiful display of flowers and plants laid out in estates, outdoor gardens and other patterns with evergreen and birch boughs framing a setting for the many features. Much attention will be paid to tea-table settings, specially in respect to correct flower decorations. Coming at the time it does, the proposed show is regarded as being a suitable introduction to spring time in South Bend.

One of the important features of the show will be the tea room, where a splendid exhibit of paintings from the Richmond art colony, known as the Palette Club, will be hung. This club which was organized six years ago, includes 33 members who are actively engaged in producing works of real merit in arts and crafts. A collection of 33 pictures consisting of oils, water colors and pastels will be shown.

A musical program will be given each day at 4 p. m. and 6:30 p. m. by some of South Bend's leading musical talent.

The show will be open each day at 10 a. m. and will close at 10 p. m. except on Sunday when it will open at 1 p. m. and close at 10 p. m.

The Progress Club plans to make the flower show an annual affair, because the enterprise is both educational and entertaining and because of the distinction which its success must lend to the city. However, it has become a civic program under the club's sponsorship and is being enthusiastically supported by prominent citizens and many leading organizations of South Bend.

Princess Theatre

VARIETY, THE SPICE OF LIFE

During the course of the year motion picture producers scour the earth for things out of the ordinary to interest their millions of patrons. Pictures taken of Byrd at the South Pole, pictures of Salmon fisheries in Alaska, expeditions into the heart of Africa for pictures of unusual things are all part of the year's program.

One of the most unusual of pictures will be presented at the Princess in "White Hell of Pitz Palu." This marvelous picture was photographed on Pitz Palu, one of the highest and most forbidding mountains in the Alps. Working for months at elevations 6000 to 12000 feet in the snow, the photographers were able to secure a picture of the drama of the elements, avalanches, glaciers 300 feet deep, the dangers of flying and rescue work among these peaks and hundreds of other thrills never before recorded by a camera. Educationally as well as for entertainment "White Hell of Pitz Palu" is in a class by itself and merits the patronage of everyone interested in worthwhile pictures.

Among the other pictures of special interest coming soon are "Cimarron," recognized as the greatest picture of the current year; "Hell's Angels," the $4,000,000 air spectacle that has startled the world; "Will Rogers in 'Lightnin'" and "The Connecticut Yankee" and dozens of other meritorious productions.

Forecaster Says Million Private Planes in 1945

In fifteen years 1,000,000 privately owned airplanes will be using the air highways of the United States, is the scientific forecast of the director of research of a great publishing house. Charles Coolidge Parlin, who in 1914 forecast with remarkable accuracy the development of the automobile, makes this prediction of aviation's future.

by air and a majority of Pullman travel will be by air, and that air express may exceed first class mail; that a day will come when airways connecting large cities will have regular schedule approaching street car frequency; that plane commuting will be in vogue, for shopping, theatre parties, evening entertainments and that business men will commute from the country estates to city offices; and that air service, twice weekly, will carry passengers, mail and express to Europe and the Orient, with more frequent service to Hawaii, the Philippines and South America.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1890 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law. Your petitioner further shows that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses as set forth in said "Schedule A," are a valid lien on the several parcels of lands described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid, as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed, and extended against said lands, that such lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated February 15, 1931.

ORAMEL R. FULLER,

Auditor General of the State of Michigan,

for and in behalf of said State.

STATE OF MICHIGAN.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Berrien in Chancery:

The petition of Oramel R. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A" contains a description of all lands in said County of Berrien, which taxes have been assessed thereon, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes, and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest thereon, and the time fixed for sale, and collection fee and expenses, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels of land.

Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General of the State of Michigan for non-payment of said taxes for said years respectively, and that said taxes remain unpaid; except that lands included in said "Schedule A" for taxes of 1890 or prior years were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for said taxes under the provisions of the general tax laws in force prior to the passage of Act 306 of the Public Acts of 1891, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1890 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law. Your petitioner further shows that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses as set forth in said "Schedule A," are a valid lien on the several parcels of lands described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid, as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed, and extended against said lands, that such lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.
