PLAN TO RAISE FUND OF $2,000 BY SUBSCRIPTION

Necessary to Prevent Local Troops Exclusion From Area Council.

Plans were definitely launched at a meeting held Monday evening at the offices of Frank Habicht of the Clark Equipment Company to launch a public subscription campaign to finance the Boy Scout movement in Buchanan, placing the local troops in the county council on a paid-up basis and cooperating in the financing of the summer camp at Madron Lake.

The sum of $750 is required for membership in the county council, the amount being assessed on the population of the city at the rate of 20 cents per capita. It was decided that in addition to this fund, $250 would be needed to finance the local needs of the two troops and $1,000 to collaborate with other cities in the equipment of the Lake Madron summer camp where a $10,000 lodge is now nearing completion, the gift of the Up-ton brothers of St. Joseph.

Buchanan has been admitted free for several years to the privileges of the Lake Madron camp which was financed by the other cities of the Berrien-Cass area. The local scout troops have also been nominally admitted to membership in the area council in violation of scout rules. It was felt this year that the present arrangement could not be continued longer, and that if the Scout movement could not be financed locally, it would be necessary to exclude them from council membership and summer camp privileges. Previously the local troops had used the camp more than any others in the area, due to its proximity to Buchanan.

B.H.S. Wins 4th Class C County Track Title

6 NEW MEET RECORDS ARE ESTABLISHED

Local Stars Lower Marks in Four Track, Field Events.

Buchanan high school's track team won their fourth straight county title Monday afternoon at Niles by scoring in nearly every event and rolling up 55 1/2 points to take the meet quite handily. Berrien Springs came in second with 30 1/2 points with Bridgman third, scoring 22 points and Coloma gathering eight. Three Oaks and Waterford failed to score.

The Bucks, hardly eager to win by a very large margin, scored heavily in the middle distance runs and the shot and javelin and pulled in a total of seven firsts to clinch the championship. Ward, Bridgman ace, was high scorer for the meet, giving his school a total of 17 points. Ward and Emlong constituted the Bridgman team, accounting for all of their team's 22 points. Dugan of Berrien Springs was second in individual scoring with 12 1/2 points. Louie Morse led the winners with 7 1/2 points.

Six new records for the meet were established. Louie Morse smashed the former record for the 120 yard hurdles by nearly a whole second, running them in 1:41 seconds. The discuss record changed hands, but still stayed in the family, when William Schultz added two and one-half feet to his brother's old record. New records were also set in the 100, 440, high jump and relay. Buchanan's sophomore quartet stepping the half-mile in 1:49.9 min.

Coach Bradford will send ten men to the regional meet in Kalamazoo, to be held Saturday. Last year Buchanan qualified two men for the state meet. Pfingst and Aronson placing second at Kalamazoo.

School Banking Shows Increase Student Thrift

The banking increases as the year draws to a close. There was a total of $63 banked last week. 472 students banked out of 741 present, making a total of 64 per cent. There is a balance of $5407.25 in the bank with interest credited for the week of $147.16.

This shows that there is a real tendency among the students toward thrift.

GRADE SCHOOL HOLDS ANNUAL ART EXHIBIT

Free Hand Drawing Work of Past Year Stressed in the Displays.

The annual art exhibit was held in the grade schools Friday afternoon and evening, May 8.

The main point in art to be stressed, this past school year, was free hand drawing. The children are readily taken with this new feature, and do not care to use patterns after a short time of free hand work.

The kindergarten room, under direction of Miss Ebbert, furnished a doll house and have cared for an egg shell garden.

India is being extensively studied by all the grades, also Africa and Japan.

Miss Carnagan's first grade made an Indian wigwam, suit and small model of their wood habitation. Miss Myer's first grade made Indian booklets and an African hut with "Little Black Sambo," his wife, and stock in the front of the yard. Palm trees gave it more of a jungle effect.

Miss Vandenberg's grade has become very economical. They have brown paper curtains with free hand drawings in the corner for designs. There is a large display of art on all the walls.

The fourth grade pupils of the Dewey Avenue school arranged their exhibit according to the dictionary of beauty as they felt it. Mrs. French gave projects for the pupils to work on and gave them advice if needed, but the room was very attractively arranged by the pupils. An Egyptian and a Greek project were the outstanding features of this room's exhibit.

Miss Fischner's grade worked on Eskimo and Viking projects, also free hand drawings, and modes of transportation through the ages.

Indian booklets, woven paper mats, and an Egyptian project comprised Miss Wilcox's grade show.

The second grade pupils, with the aid of Mrs. Heim, made Arabian pottery.

Miss Simmon's third grade portrayed the different advances in transportation, from the hollow log for a boat to the modern airplane. The pupils of this grade have a club of Good Writers and there are a number of pupils that belong to this club, and samples of their work were shown. Original Christmas poems were also illustrated by the children.

The two fourth grades had forms carved from wood and soap. A Dutch sand table, illustrated calendar, and rock garden were special features of the fourth grade taught by Mrs. Fuller. Also a quaint Mexican grass hut with the inscription above the door "Enter at your own peril" was the most outstanding project.

Miss Ekstrom's fifth grade had as their project an African jungle. The book case in Miss Hopkins' room furnished a suitable place for a wee museum. The art project of this grade was Japanese. The window sill furnished a place for the throne of the Japanese king and queen.

The two sixth grades had large display of art including geography booklets, bird calendars, lamp shades, waste baskets, and Indian booklets.

The house started by last year's home economics class was furnished by the class this year. Woven pictures, pillows, dresses, and many other pieces of sewing demonstrated the ability of the sewing classes to turn out finished products.

In spite of the heavy showers Friday, many parents were present at school to view the work of art by their children.

Head Department at Hope College Speaks to Assemb.

Prof. E. Winters, head of the educational department at Hope College in Holland, Michigan, and Mr. Jack Schauten, athletic coach of that college, were guests in the Buchanan schools Friday. Professor Winters was the speaker on the assembly program Friday morning. His topic was "Education and Its Advantages in Life."

"Women can take your money away from you, but they can't take away from you what you have in your head," stated Mr. Winters.

"A knowledge and a confidence of this knowledge are two necessary factors for success in life."

"You'll get out of life just what you put into it, so don't be afraid to work," concluded the professor.

Captains for G. A. A. Chosen

The captains have been chosen for the various classes: freshmen, Helen Spatta; sophomores, Dorothy Vincent; juniors, Jane Hecht; seniors, Ruby Robe.

Each girl may enter three events and the relay.

Tuesday night after school, the freshmen played the sophomores in baseball and lost 36-25. This was the only baseball game played this week. The tournament will continue this week, but the greater part of the week will be given to track practice.

Campaign Mgrs. For Candidates Citizenship Cup

A new idea has been put into use this year in regard to the election of a student for the citizenship cup. Each candidate has a campaign manager. Lazelle Weaver is managed by Harold Boyce, Mary Jane Harckler by Marjorie Sands, Roger Thompson by Marvin Gross, Richard Brodick by Ralph Zerbe, John Strayer by Pauline VanEvery, Katherine Forz by Jane Habicht, Philip Emlin by Alan Stevenson, Edward Foley by Maynard Post and Glen Jesse by Thomas Quirk.

The primary election will be held Wednesday afternoon.

PROGRESS OF CLASS ROOMS DURING WEEK

E. S. Biology Class Studies Birds of Clear Lake District.

The eighth grade English students are studying infinitives.

The seventh grade English students made posters illustrating spring. The best ones were handed in by Edward Hanover, Herold Jackson, Grace Crothers, Elaine Donley, Barbara Hamilton, Dorothy Dunlap, Wilma Metzger, Shirley Rolan, Paul Virgil, Ruth Smith, Vivian Mogford and Vivian Sanford.

Cherry Blossom Heim wrote an original spring poem and illustrated it by means of a poster.

The eighth grade reading students are studying old ballads.

The eighth grade history classes have started their review for the final examinations.

The freshman biology class visited the territory around Clear Lake, Tuesday, to make a study of the birds. The class members had cars made their way along the narrow, crooked road to Clear Lake at five o'clock, armed with rubber boots and binoculars to charge into unknown habits of the early morning feathered folks.

After this study of birds, the students are to make a note book of the Michigan birds, their habits, a description and a picture of each.

Mrs. Weaver's seventh grade arithmetic class has been making pictures on graph papers. These pictures are composed of squares and triangles. The seventh grade history class has begun the study of the Revolutionary War.

Mrs. Weaver's eighth grade arithmetic class has started working on square root.

The sale of tickets for the senior play, "The Mummy Bride," are being moved so fast that already five hundred of the six hundred seats available in the auditorium have been sold.

The reserved seats, which are the first nine rows but either side of the center aisle, have been the best sellers so far, with the unreserved adults following a close second.

The artist and stage managers are rapidly completing their work and play practice advances at every possible moment.

The Berrien County lakes, according to the Directory, are distributed by townships as follows: Bainbridge, one; Berrien, nine; Bertrand, five; Buchanan, nine; Coloma, two; Galien, two; Hagar, two; Lake Baroda, one; Lincoln, three; Oriskany, one; Pipestone, five; Three Oaks, one; and Waterford, five. This grouping does not take into account lakes located in more than one township.

Four of the lakes are listed as having extensive resort development, 12 have boat livery, 18 have good swimming, and 23 are much frequented.

Unlike most of the other counties in the state, Berrien County has no duplications among its lake names.

The Directory contains information assembled from many different Berrien County supervisors: A. W. Baker, of Coloma; C. W. Bartz of St. Joseph; D. H. Beeson of Three Oaks; John D. Carmody of Watervliet; Glenn Clark of Eau Claire; William F. Dean of Berrien Springs; Walter H. Edson of Berrien Springs; Charles E. Gage of Benton Harbor; F. W. Howe of Buchanan; Fred Koenigshof of Buchanan; William Renbarger of Galien; H. Dana Roberts of Galien; and John Warman of Watervliet.

Speedway Tests Reveal

FACTS to guide the careful buyer of Motor Oil

The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association certifies these statements:

- 1 Iso-Vis Motor Oil did not thin out from dilution.
- 2 During the entire test of 9,000 miles, the engines and chassis of all cars were lubricated effectively.
- 3 Oil Added: only 69/100 of a quart—average for all cars—in 1,000 mile test at 30 miles per hour, using Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy).
- 4 Effect of speed on oil consumption: Speed is the chief factor affecting oil consumption. All oils tested at 55 miles per hour showed a consumption nearly 7 times that at 30 miles per hour. Iso-Vis gave excellent oil economy at all speeds.
- 5 Carbon: only 6.23 grams per cylinder at 30 m. p. h. using Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy), average for all cars.
- 6 Cylinder Wear: scarcely measurable—less than one one-thousandth (1/1000) of an inch in any cylinder in any car for the entire 9,000 miles.

Latest stock models of the 13 makes of cars used in the Lubrication Study conducted by the Contest Board of the A. A. A., on the Indianapolis Speedway from March 17 to April 9.

The Old Timer's Corner

Glimpse of School Mutiny 100 Yrs. Ago Is Afforded by Old Document

An interesting moment of education as it was in the Buchanan section a hundred years ago is contributed to the Old Timer's Corner this week by Mrs. B. F.

Fisk, in the form of a manifesto written nearly a hundred years ago by the pupils of a school between Buchanan and South Bend and presented to their teacher, David Fisk, pioneer educator and resident of Buchanan.

According to the legend that accompanies the manuscript, David Fisk was that year teaching the "winter term" of a school in the Fortage Prairie section containing a number of large and obstreperous boys. One day the big boys locked Fisk out and handed out a notice signed by nine of the bolder spirits, requiring "the treats" as a condition of admittance. According to tradition, Fisk refused to accede to the requirements.

Older Buchanan people may remember the pioneer instructor who died on a farm here many years ago. B. F. Fisk, a son, died here three years ago. One son, C. L. Fisk, survives in Oregon. Mrs. B. F. Fisk would be interested to know whether local people have any knowledge of the signers of the document reproduced below.

Presented the 20 A. D. 1836. We had a meeting on this subject today and we concluded that if you would please to treat to a gallon of cider to satisfy the school it would do for Christmas and New Years. Now please to sign this.

All Michigan Under Quarantine For Corn Borer

Michigan is one of four states whose entire area is under quarantine to prevent the spread of the European corn borer, according to notice received by Postmaster G. H. Batchelor.

Michigan comes under the terms of the quarantine applying to the one-generation strain of corn borer, the conditions of which are as follows:
 No cornstalks, ears, or other parts or debris of corn or broom-corn plants or sorghums or Sudan grass shall be moved or allowed to be moved interstate from the 1-generation regulated area to or through any point outside thereof unless a certificate or a permit shall have been issued therefor, except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3) hereof.

No corn on the cob or ears of corn originating within the 1-generation regulated area shall be moved or allowed to be moved interstate from such area or through any point outside thereof, except that such ear corn may be moved without restriction from the 1-generation to the 2-generation area, where such areas are contiguous. No corn on the cob originating outside the regulated areas and moved to the 1-generation regulated area shall be moved or allowed

It seems that it is the unexpected that usually happens. I had planned to be in Buchanan Saturday and Sunday, but had to make other arrangements at the last minute and so I am at home and have just had dinner and feel too full for utterance.

Yes, we have "moved" and it was some mess, I can assure you. Will take a week or two to find everything, but guess we are all together, anyway, and found some clean underwear, shirts and sox, in among some other things and managed to clean up for the week end anyway. I think I will just look the door on part of the mess and take a day or two off and go over and see Blossom Week, over home. But that will all depend again, and I don't really plan for sure for you never can tell. I have found, and I have had so many disappointments in my life that one or two more or less, added to the list don't really matter. What really matters is that you have a good place to sleep and plenty to eat and that you are well and have a few friends. The rest can take care of itself as the time comes.

I didn't get my radishes and lettuce, etc., planted quite as soon as did my brother-in-law, Charles Pears, but I am running him a "race" just the same and will gamble (?) that we have some ready for the table before he does. Mine are up and starting for the clouds, already, I am giving them plenty of water, and urging them on, for they sure have got to win out, or I will lose the bet of 5c, I think it is (?). The cold winds have been holding the garden stuff back, but we are all set to go, so bring on your warm rains and hot sunshine, and lets go.

in spite of an unfavorable season for trapping," the game division comments in a report on the experiments. "We now feel assured that with a normally severe winter and with enough of the new traps operating over a period of two and one-half months we could reasonably expect to take and move many hundreds of deer from such over-crowded yards. It seems quite sure that whenever it proves necessary we can capture deer in the over-crowded areas, transport them in crates and release them in places where natural feed is abundant."

 Mr. Holmes writes some very good articles. I am with him in regard to the whipping post. If that was the law there would be plenty of room in the jails and no need of so many officers.
 However, in his write-up of last week he had an error. Fred day in his life. Long before Harry began teaching he had a cousin, James Salisbury, who taught a few terms.

More Interesting Notes by Holmes on Old Residents

Editor Record,
 In my story of the Salisbury family there was a miscue with two small letters which caused a bad mixup of the family. By using the word "his" for "her" it made me call Marian, Martha and Emma Hamilton sisters of Harry Salisbury when they were sisters of his mother, Derinda Hamilton Salisbury. Harry's father was David. His father used to operate a threshing machine about that section of the country, using a machine run by ten horse power, the common method at that time, about when I was shedding my apples. Something like ten years after that Clint Walters brought a steamer from the southeast part of Fortage, Prairie, the first in the neighborhood. He was followed by William Denend with a machine he bought of Gaar, Scott & Co., of Richmond, Ind., and soon no one thought of using any other excepting David Best, and he held off several years because he was afraid of having his buildings burned, but finally joined the fashion and about the first thing that happened was just what he had been fearing, he lost a large share of the crop.

In our local paper we find the announcement of the death of Mrs. John E. Drybread in Nevada, Ia., who was not known in Buchanan but the family of Drybreads were quite familiarly known in Dayton vicinity. Henry Drybread, uncle of this John used to own the farm from which the Holmes school lot was taken, in section 5 in West Bertrand. The buildings which were located by him stand back about twenty rods east from the road running south from the town line road to Dayton. The Dayton road was originally branched off from the town line at a point near the line between 4 and 5, running 80 rods south and west to Drybread's building site. The farm next south was the home of the Fellows family and the two are now owned by the Emil Koenigs-shof family.

The Drybreads were in the Berrien county contingent that moved to Greeley and Manchester, with the Wilsons, one of whom was John's mother. The Martindales, Bishops, Welles, and a number of others who slip my memory at this time. The Wilsons included

Game Department Live-Traps Deer

The first serious effort by the state to live-trap wild deer in Michigan has been completed, with 100 deer trapped and tagged and 96 removed to other locations by sleigh and truck.

The Game Division of the Conservation Department, which made the experiment, feels that the first year's results have been successful, and indicate the practicability of trapping deer in crowded winter yards and "transplanting" the surplus to areas where deer are less abundant.

The experiments were conducted in the Fletcher Swamp on the north edge of the Turtle Lake district in Alpena county. The management of the winter deer herd in this swamp has become a serious problem because of the increasing number of animals crowded every winter into a small "yarding" area where lumbering operations plus browsing by deer has left less and less adequate supplies of natural feed within reach of the deer.

Last summer this and the neighboring swamp areas were covered mapped in detail by the Game Division and in January experiments with live-trapping operations were started. Because of the exceptionally mild winter the deer did not "yard up" as much as in normal seasons.

A new type trap designed by J. H. Stephenson, Game Refuge Inspector, proved to be more successful than earlier models.

Even with an open winter, 129 deer were trapped and several repeated a number of times so that the average catch was one deer for each trap every two days.

The deer were marked with aluminum ear tags carrying a serial number and bearing the legend: "Notify Department of Conservation, Lansing." Ninety-six deer were crated and hauled to other locations. Sixty-five were taken to the Isoco State Game Refuge, eleven to the Ludson State Game Refuge, eleven to Wolf Creek Swamp and 12 to the Alpena State Forest. The rest were released again in the Fletcher swamp.

"The experiment was successful to be moved interstate from such area or to or through any point outside thereof (except into the 2-generation area where such areas are contiguous) unless a certificate or permit shall have been issued therefor.

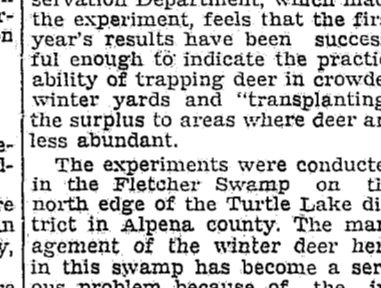

No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement from the 1-generation regulated area to or through any point outside thereof, at any time of the year, of shell-corn, broom-corn seed, sorghum seed, Sudan grass seed, celery, beans, beets, rhubarb, oat or rye straw as such or when used as packing, nor cut flowers or entire plants of chrysanthemum, aster, cosmos, zinnia, hollyhock, gladiolus and dahlia.
