

ORSON CHAPEL LOSES LEG IN CAR CRASH

Supervised Study System to be Adopted in Buchanan High School

Now Here's
the Proposition

FIE! FIE! FIFI
BI HAYS

(Dedicated to the June brides and grooms)
Fifi! Oh fief! fief!
Ain't you more than crazy with the men!
If you keep this sort of sledding you will have no golden wedding—Just a bunch of pickups from the five-and-ten.
It just takes six weeks at Reno, shooting pool at the casino.
Ain't it fun to make the bosoms throb!
But to keep the lovelight burning without change or shade of turning
Is a mighty hefty man's or woman's job.

Oh my! Fifi!
Now you better go and settle down;
The marriage that is made in heaven seldom is a trade-in
And you never help things much by shopping round;
You can ramble out at random and acquire them by the tandem—Nearly any fool could do it if they tried;
It is awful easy, Fifi, to catch new ones on the high fly,
But it's hard to keep the old ones starry-eyed!

The gardener these days is a harassed individual entirely surrounded by cut worms.

One of our leading backyard gardeners was seen the other day with his back against a tomato plant, with the vicious cut worms lunging at him from all sides in an attempt to mow him down.

The old wagon factory is practically empty these days and they don't make any wagons in Buchanan anymore, but there still seems to be an over production of waggin' tongues.

The younger generation in this vicinity are getting a mind and the young ladies we fear are getting aviator minded. When they start for any place anymore, they don't merely start—they "take off". When a young lady says she is going to "take off" these days, it doesn't mean she is going to change from her woollens to her er-er- whatever they are. It merely means she is planning on a trip.

SPEED
The modern dames are speedy; They have a lot of power; But still, at that, I think they need
A few more "nots" an hour.

Agnes Spaulding
Is Married on Memorial Day

A pretty wedding took place in the church balcony of the Hills Corners Christian church Saturday afternoon, May 30th, when Miss Agnes Spaulding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Spaulding, prominent residents of the Colvin district, north of town, became the bride of Douglas Bennett of Buchanan. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Ernest Harrold, pastor of the church.
The bride was gown in pale blue georgette and carried a corsage bouquet of roses, sweet peas and forget-me-nots. Her bridesmaid, Miss Muriel Wolkins of Dearborn, Mich., wore pink georgette and carried roses, sweet peas and forget-me-nots. Leland Boyce of Buchanan attended the bridegroom.

Following a brief wedding trip to northern Michigan points a reception to relatives was held in the home of the bride's parents upon their return Sunday night. They will take a more extended trip to Nashville, Tenn., and other southern points later. The bride was graduated from Buchanan high school in 1927 and from the Western State Teachers college, at Kalamazoo, in 1929. She has been teaching school in this vicinity for the past two years and has served as teacher of the Coveney school in the school year just closed. Mr. Bennett, who came here from Tennessee two years ago, is employed by the Clark Equipment company. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will reside in the home of the bride's parents.

ADOPTED IN MANY SCHOOLS THROUGH STATE

To Eliminate One Section of 4th Grade as Economy
Measure.

Buchanan schools will enter the 1931-2 year with practically the same faculty with one less grade teacher, and with a new system of supervised study in the junior and senior high schools, according to Superintendent H. C. Stark, who is keeping his office open for postseason pick up work before leaving for a session of summer school at Ann Arbor in July.

According to the proposed plan of supervised study, which will apply to all grades from the seventh to the twelfth inclusive, classes will begin at 8 a. m. and continue until noon, with an hour devoted to each class. Afternoon sessions will begin at 1:15, with a fifteen minute period for announcements and will continue until 3:30 p. m. providing six hour-long periods per day.

One credit will be allowed for a two hour per week course in music continued throughout four years. Another credit will be allowed for physical education, acquired at the rate of one third of a credit per year.

Honor points will be required for graduating classes of 1933 and thereafter, which may be earned in the following manner:
A, 5; B, 3; C, 1; D, 0; E, (-1); total, 34.

The elimination of one section of the fourth grade, with the consequent reduction of the teaching force, is an economy measure. Only the minimum of essential repair work will be undertaken this summer, according to Stark.

CONSTRUCTION 20-FT. HIGHWAY IS CERTAIN

Real Estate Owners of Dist.
Notified to Meet at Thomson School.

A twenty foot concrete pavement to replace the present Niles-Buchanan pavement is nearing the status of actuality as the result of the posting of advertisements for a protest meeting as a legal preliminary to such construction, such meeting being scheduled at the Thomson school house on the north side of the road midway between the two cities opening at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, June 20.

While the meeting is to be held, according to the terms of the notice, "to hear objections to said proposed improvement and finally determining whether the same shall be built and finally fixing and determining said special assessment area," the county road officials are nevertheless proceeding with the assessment, roll to spread the cost of construction, as the sentiment expressed so far seems to assure beyond doubt the certainty of the project.

The assessment district proposed is to include the city of Niles, the city of Buchanan exclusive of that section of the city north of the St. Joseph river, and the territory between the two cities which is bounded on the north by the St. Joseph river and the south by the northern Bertrand Township line.

The highway designated the length as 23,732 feet or 4.5 miles.

GALLEN VALLEY CHORUS PLANS TO PRESENT CANTATA

Will Render "Bird Women" at Date in Fall; Buchanan-ites Invited to Enter.

Rehearsals for the rendition of the cantata, "The Bird Women" were commenced Wednesday evening of last week by the Gallien River Valley Chorus at the Museum building in Three Oaks, the prospective date being some time this fall not yet definitely fixed.

The Gallien River Valley Chorus was not active during the past winter, on account of the ill health of the director, Mrs. Sara Sherman Maxon, who had never entirely recovered from the effects of an automobile accident incurred a year ago last winter. Rehearsals have been started under the direction of John R. Rood of Gallien. It is expected that Mrs. Maxon will assume charge later.

It is hoped that a chorus of about 75 voices may be recruited from the southwestern part of the county, and any resident of Buchanan or vicinity who is interested in participating is cordially invited to report at rehearsals which are to be held regularly at the Three Oaks museum building on Wednesday evening of each week, beginning at 8:30 p. m.

TO PUT SCOUT WORK HERE ON PERMANENT BASIS

Will Establish Separate Dist.
With Headquarters in Buchanan.

Boy Scout work is to be placed on a permanent basis in Buchanan, with an organization behind it to see that the work so well initiated by the committee which canvassed for the fund shall not be wasted for the lack of a follow-up program, according to a statement by a member of the committee to the Record.

A meeting of the men who sponsored the drive will be held the fore part of next week for the purpose of selecting a committee for the area and making plans for a local headquarters where the Berrien-Cass executive or his assistant may have regular weekly office hours. A proposal to unite the Buchanan scout work with a neighboring district was rejected and it is the plan of the local committee and headquarters, organizing Scout work in Buchanan as a separate district with a representative on the Berrien-Cass area executive board. Oscar Noll, the area executive, is to be present from St. Joseph, in an advisory capacity.

The inclusion of the local Scouts in the area organization, assures them of the following service:

2. Bulletins, periodicals and other literature.
3. The training of leaders.

5. Organized opportunity for community service.
6. Main headquarters of a general service headquarters.

Produce 1950 Gallons per Min.
For Hour Without Lessening of Flow.

Final assurance of a plentiful supply of water for domestic use, fire protection and all other purposes was given Tuesday evening by the completion of tests of the six recently renovated wells across the creek from the waterworks, in which a flow of 1950 gallons was secured for an hour without diminution.

The six wells have been completely renovated, with new screens in two and enlargements of the apertures of the screens in the other four. In addition to the wells renovated last year, which show only a slight decrease in flow, the needs of the city for all purposes are fully safeguarded.

The large electrically driven pump has a capacity of 4000 gallons per minute at 30 pounds. The other two have capacities of 750 and 500 gallons per minute at 60 pounds. ## TO ELIMINATE DANGER CURVES NEAR RAILWAY

One Route Calls for Closing Present Crossing; Cuts
Through Houses.

A communication was received this morning by City Clerk Harry Post from Grover C. Dillman of the state highway commission, enclosing maps of alternate routes for the connection between Portage Street and the new M-60 route, requesting the preference of the city administration.

The two routes are designated only to eliminate the dangerous short curves south of the Michigan Central tracks.

One route calls for a departure from Portage Street which will pass directly through the present location of the home of Mrs. Louisa Gilbert, take in the east end of the home of Mrs. Mary Taylor, pass in the rear of the Sutherland lot and touch the rear of the garage on the Dan Robe property.

It will then cut thru the northeast corner of the Vernal Shreve property, and out off the west wing of the Emma Knight home, from which point it will coincide with the present route of the distance to M-60. This route would cross the Michigan Central tracks about 230 feet east of the present crossing, and legal steps to close the present crossing would be required.

The other route would utilize the present crossing and would then cut diagonally through the site of the residence of Ava Schram, taking the southwest corner of the Ed Toll property and then across to form a junction with the present route on the east side of the Chamberlain hills.

HIT-AND-RUN DRIVER CRASHES AND GETS AWAY

Left Leg Amputated Between Ankle and Knee at Niles Hospital.

Orson Chapel, 706 Berrien street is recovering from an accident in which he was deprived of his left leg midway between the knee, and the ankle through the criminal and apparently intentional act of a hit-and-run driver on the road between Niles and Buchanan Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapel were returning from Niles, when their car stalled from lack of gas at the crossroads opposite the Mission memorial. Chapel pushed his car entirely off the pavement as near to the ditch as he could get it and then attempted to flag down passing cars.

Failing to stop any cars, he went back to his own car, lit his pipe and stood on the left side of the car next to the road, with his left foot on the running board talking to his wife. They saw a car approaching from the west, at a rapid rate of speed, and noticed that the occupants were apparently intoxicated, yelling "like Comanche Indians."

As the car came almost opposite them, it suddenly veered directly at them and before Chapel could escape, he was caught between his own car and that of the murderous unknowns, and his leg was almost completely severed. The other car veered back to the right side of the road and swept on toward Niles before either Chapel or his wife could get any idea of the vehicle or its occupants.

Chapel realized that he had lost his leg but was able to climb the running board and bind the stump with his handkerchief, while his wife ran toward a neighboring house for aid.

In about fifteen minutes a car occupied by Donny Hittle and some neighboring boys from the Boyle Lake district near Glendora, passed and slowed down finding Chapel writhing with pain on the bank of the road and calling for aid. They picked him and his wife up and took them to the Pawating hospital where an immediate operation was performed to save the leg from infection.

Chapel is now recovering satisfactorily. He was employed until about a month ago as a foreman at the Krohn Differential and was employed at the Hydraulic Bearing plant in Niles. He has been assured of his position at the latter place as soon as he is able to resume work.

Several troop insignia were given out, after which they went to the church proper where movies of last summer's camp were shown, and Frank Runyan of Niles, field executive, gave a talk. ## Rev. H. W. Staver Back from National Presbyterian Meet

Rev. Harry W. Staver, pastor of the Presbyterian church who has been in attendance at the Presbyterian General Assembly in Pittsburgh, Pa., reports that some of its important business was as follows:

Spiritual emphasis was the supreme issue of the assembly, and the great national annual congress representing 2,000,000 communicant members sounded as the keynote for the coming year the spiritual quickening of the entire church. The dominating spirit of the business of the assembly was toward a great renewal of faith and great revival of Christian work throughout the United States and in the countries where Presbyterian missions are conducted.

The assembly upheld President Hoover in his policy of law observance. It made a strong pronouncement for universal peace, for the entrance of the United States into the World Court, for liberty of conscience, and for obtaining for Presbyterian students in colleges the same exemption from compulsory military training that is granted to members of the Society of Friends, the assembly considering that a Presbyterian conscience is just as good as a Quaker conscience.

Temperance and prohibition, Sabbath observance and other fundamentals of old-fashioned American Christianity, were held up as essentials in combating the evils of the times. Strong prohibition was made against the liquor traffic against the commercialization of the Sabbath by professional sports and motion picture houses, and against intrusion of objectionable amusements into the church buildings. The sanctity of marriage, the family and the home was emphasized and greater restrictions against the divorce evil were advocated.

In the adoption of a special report on social and industrial relations, the General Assembly prepared for larger activities for the remedy of unemployment and kindred ills through a permanent organization on social and industrial relationships and for the extension of brotherhood and fraternalism.

Better interracial relations were advocated, lynching and mob violence were condemned and co-operation and union among denominations were advanced.

Potato Men

Accept Market

Challenges

Two hundred Michigan potato growers in 32 counties will accept the challenges from other states which have been invading Michigan markets and these men have planned methods to produce a crop of potatoes which they say will equal in quality any that can be grown.This group of growers have formed a Standard Potato club which has as its purpose the demonstration that Michigan potatoes are excellent when properly grown and which includes as members only those growers which agree to use the strict methods of growing and grading that are needed to produce high quality stock.The methods include the use of high quality seed treated to prevent disease, close planting to avoid over size and hollow tubers, early planting to permit the tubers to fully ripen, five spray applications to control blight and leaf hoppers, care in digging and handling to prevent bruising the potatoes, early digging to avoid field frost, close grading to throw out all off-grade stock, and marketing in marked packages which will tell the buyer who grew the potatoes.The membership in the club is only limited by the grower's willingness to meet these conditions and applications can be made either through the county agricultural agent or direct to the farm crops department at Michigan State college.

The Old Timer's Corner

Esther M. Winch Contributes Pioneer Memories of BuchananThe calendar leaf of May is torn away. In passing Mother's Day and Memorial Day have come and gone. The most tender tribute I read during either event was the exquisite verse in the Record, written by Mr. Winch, of the names and the notes from the ever green memory of Mr. Holmes took me in reverie back to Moccasin Bluff and the trundle bed.
Farther along the years to see my own happy marriage again recorded in the Buchanan paper.
1868-1931 was an all embracing time, to record other, other, other drifting memories of long ago. As a runabout child I knew all of whom I write. Perhaps few or none are left in Berrien county who know or care for "annals of the poor." Poor pioneers.To me Mr. Holmes' data and biography of the "ancients", their marriages and especially their ex-cursing, was a revelation. Mrs. Chamberlain, Miss Eva's mother, was one of five sisters named Cooper, who married Hooker, Perry Fox, Egbert and L. P. Alexander, an early merchant of Buchanan.The recent death of Mrs. Emaline Weaver, 88 years old, warms me of the fact, "times up." We were early associates. She was the daughter of Samuel Weaver and Caroline Hunter, both among the earliest settlers near Buchanan. Emaline had nine brothers and sisters and thirteen families of cousins connected with thirteen other families in the nearby country. The mother of the eight Roe brothers was a Martindale. The Martindales, Drybreads, that Mr.
Holmes writes of moving of "outyonder's" green pastures were her relations. Covered wagons in the 1850's were almost a caravan going farther west. What did people gain by it? Why did they come into the deep woods of Michigan from the smooth prairies of Indiana?The Prices, Watsons, Hollers, Wagners, Morgans, Morris, Roe, Houston's and others were early settlers in Buchanan or on woods farms nearby; all from the near prairies.The Howes related by blood and marriage to the French family were from York state. Their family marriage connection was large. The Tottens, Ingersols, Harrisons, Adamses, Days, An-tagnies, Cowles, David Fisks and the Beckwiths were very early settlers. The Terrises also from "down East" came later. On partially cleared farms were frequent burial spots, long ago plowed over.
Along the river road on the Wells farm I remember that 80 years ago there was a grave marked Cooper.Another burial lot (Watson Dragoo) was on the Richardson-Abell farm. Another on the Alkin place. Many of these spots, "God's Acres", are now neighborhood cemeteries. Sickness was prevail-ent in the new country. Many families, fatherless or motherless or bereaved of both parents, found sanctuary in kindly homes among the early settlers of Berrien county. Everyone worked. The axe, the plow, the ox, each one, was a prayer answered in gained prosperity. Churches, schools and good buildings came on apace.
There were fine representative families too, in Buchanan's early days. Meads, Colvins, Mansfields, Dalrymples, Hasletts, Franklins,
Holmes, Buckles, Morleys, Morgans, Watsons and Hamiltons. Beside three or four Smith families in Buchanan. Charles Clark, J.
D. Hoss and Tom Fulton were the early merchants. The Swifts, the Richards, Listers, Millers and the Bates families related to the Merrills were very early settlers in Buchanan.Far out, when the roads were bad, about six months of the year, lived the Quints, Spauldings, Cov-eneys and Broceus families.
Even in an age when few doors were locked, night or day, there lived persons not altogether illu-minous, but not criminal in tendency. Buchanan as a community, was a solidarity in law, order and responsible respectability.
Clear, upright, looking heavenward, like the tulip tree (whitewood) whether grown or grafted on these ancestral trees, posterity is in lineal luck.Esther Montague Winch,

State Forest Lands
Planted to PinesThe Forestry Division of the Conservation Department reported today that 11,667 acres of state forest lands had been planted to pine trees this spring.Ideal weather conditions for planting during April and May made it possible to plant all of the available stock from the Higgins Lake Nursery.This spring's work brings the total acreage now planted in state forests to 109,612, slightly more than 20 per cent of the entire area of the 12 forests.Last year the Forestry division, in its spring and fall plantings, started 27,000 acres in pine trees.It is only since the spring of 1930 that the semi-annual forest plantings have exceeded the 10, 000 acre mark. Until that time no spring or fall plantings had totalled more than 8,646 acres.

Small Promise is Seen For Michigan Wheat

Michigan wheat growers were not given any encouragement for the immediate future by Dean H. L. Russell, University of Wisconsin in his talk before the group of bankers and farmers who were invited to Michigan State College by Dean J. R. Cox to discuss plans of aiding farmers of this State.

Present prices for wheat are the direct result of an enormous over-production which had its inception in the demands for the cereal during war times and to the development of machinery which enables the crop to be grown on a mass production basis, according to Dean Russell, and he said that if the Russian peasant can be taught to use modern machinery for wheat production, wheat prices would continue to be low.

The dean does not believe that the present economical conditions can be corrected by legislation nor that the acreage of wheat can be reduced when a price which is higher than the world price is maintained by the use of government funds.

Bulletin Gives Ways to Kill Garden Insects

Insects which have been living on the fat of the land in home gardens while avoiding the whole-sale poison campaigns used by commercial truck growers are going to find Michigan an inhospitable state this year as Michigan state college has recently published a bulletin which tells how to kill insects in retail lots.

Formulas for preparing poison mixtures advocated in this publication are reduced to quantities which can be used advantageously on small gardens, and, in some cases, poisons or other methods of control which are not commercially practical are recommended for the amateur gardener.

Remedial measures recommended range from leavens baths applied to the insects to paper collars applied to the plants. Either method is claimed to be effective in controlling the particular insect's appetite for which the control is recommended. Cut worms that climb and cut worms which burrow for their food are all catalogued, their appetites described, and sentences pronounced.

Those who eat spinach will find consolation in this bulletin as no insects are listed which make a specialty of feeding on this plant. Apparently, all the rest of favorites of the salad makers have qualities that also endear them to some variety of bug and the gardener must combat these insects before he can appease his own hunger.

The Bulletin is listed as Extension Bulletin No. 117, Control Methods for Insects of the Kitchen Garden, and can be obtained by writing to the bulletin clerk at Michigan State college, East Lansing.

Feeders Will Assemble at Mich. State June 26th

The annual Livestock Feeders Day which is held at Michigan State College to report the results of feeding trials with beef cattle, lambs and hogs, will be held this year on Friday, June 26.

The report this year will cover experimental work with five lots of calves, several lots of pigs, and 10 lots of lambs. Some of the trials are repetitions of work which has been done before. This continued work is necessary to be certain that the results secured are the same for different lots of animals in different years.

In fattening baby beef animals, the values of corn, barley, and oats were compared as finishing rations. The results thus far show that while the animals make steady gains when fed oats, they do not acquire the finish which is needed to bring the top prices on the market. Two lots of calves were carried through the winter on light rations and will be fattened for the September market.

Wheat and corn were compared as feeds for fattening hogs, and trials were made of the value of protein supplements and of the value of alfalfa meal as compared with the more common protein feeds. The wheat-fed pigs gained more rapidly than those fed corn but they required a little

Willing Workers ***
About fifty members and guests of the Willing Workers class of the M. E. Sunday School enjoyed a beach party last Friday, June 5, at Weko Beach.
It was the first out door event that the class has had as they were just organized last winter, and was given in honor of their teacher, Mrs. Frank Kean, who is leaving on a three months vacation in Seattle, Wash. Although she will be missed very much they were very fortunate in securing Mr. A. B. McClure of the Record, as teacher during her absence. Mrs. Kean was presented with a Memory Book last Sunday with an Autographed verse in it from each of her scholars to read on the train.

The afternoon was spent in swimming and games with a winner. At six o'clock, with a side dish of one of Mrs. Kean's famous chocolate cakes.

Joe Heireman and Louie Morse and their lady friends became so engrossed in the waves and sand, etc., that they almost forgot to eat. Yes, it's possible, and how sad. And anyone interested may ask Mrs. Thomas Rice about Weko's special, Orange Crush, and its relation to the class in a financial way.

At an early hour the party wended its way happily homeward eagerly looking forward to another such good time.
