

NILES CAGE FIVE INVADES CITY FRIDAY

Outside Activities Factor in School Failures, Says U. of M. Man

Now Here's the Proposition

UPSIDE DOWN

By Haws

There's nothing more apparent Than all the world's a joke When children licked their parents
When women chew and smoke.
When guys that save go busted When roses bloom galore Right in the dead of winter Where noses bloomed before.

They milked cows for the public In olden days, but now The road board's showed us how to milk
The public for a cow.

A Burglar's Mistake
A burglar got into an apartment occupied by three Niles school ma'ams the other night and one of them grabbed him and he had to fight to get away. If he had got into several Buchanan apartments we know of, there'd been another man in captivity.

Uncle

Corners
Sez:

Organized baseball ain't the only bizness that hez hold-outs.

Et the Buchanan farmers wuz offered a dollar a bushel for their wheat tomorrow, they'd turn it down an' hold out fer two.

The county road board is on the job now and the old one kin stay home and milk that cow.

They was a bright young salesman-cum out in the barn to sell me a new tractor last week, an' when he found out how much money I had we had a social chat about bankers 'n Wall Street.

They tell me that that University of Michigan professor who is hired to guide the young folks in pickin' a life work, got lost tryin' to find Buchanan the other night and went on to Gallien. This findin' a life career ain't so hard, but findin' Buchanan is the real test.

PROMINENT H. S. STUDENTS FAIL IN COLLEGES

Outside Activities Scatter Attention; Break Down Working Habits, Figures Reveal.

The greatest endowment that a child can receive from home and school training combined is the ability to buckle down to hard work and to work with regularity and system, according to T. L.
Purdum, in charge of the placement bureau for University of Michigan graduates, who spoke before the local Parent-Teachers Association Monday evening on the theme, "Public Vocational Guidance."

Many students are ruined for college by overindulgence in extracurricular activities in high school, Purdum stated. The value of such activities not being apparent until actual test. In the elimination process which is carried on among the freshmen of all universities, students who have been conspicuous in activities outside the classroom in high school fail in the proportion of seven out of ten. On the other hand, those who have trained themselves to a hard schedule of work with few side issues pass in the proportion of eight out of ten.

Four outside activities are the maximum which any student can maintain while doing justice to full schedule of studies, he stated.
On the other hand, many students maintain as many as ten and twelve outside activities. It is in this latter class that the heavy percentages of failure occur. In 122 failures in the Freshmen class in the University of Michigan, 50 were listed as "prominent" in extracurricular work. In 122 students taken as a cross-section of those passing, fifteen were listed as prominent in the same activities.

1ST NATIONAL DEPOSITORS MUST FILE CLAIMS

DEPRESSIONS ARE PROVING TIMES SAYS NILES ATTY.

Wilbur Burns of Niles Calls Attention to Benefits in Talk to Luncheon Club.

Depressions may be looked on as periods of challenge and of test for latent abilities, according to Attorney Wilbur N. Burns of the firm of Burns & Hadsell of Niles, who addressed the members of the Luncheon club at the Tuesday meeting.

Many valuable things come from depression, Burns stated, citing as specific instance the revelation of governmental corruption precipitated by a Buchanan citizen, which was, he stated, fairly attributable to the stress of business conditions during depression.

He stated that communities are drawn together in closer loyalty and cooperation by depression, citing the act of the Clark Equipment Company and the Ind. & Mich.
Electric Company of Buchanan in hastening to pay taxes immediately to provide the local schools and other governmental institutions with the wherewithal to carry on.

We have learned to think straight during times of depression, he stated, and have come to recognize the right of labor to work. We have to see that great wealth cannot override labor, but that the two factors must work hand in hand. In conclusion, he stated that no great movement was ever initiated and brought to the people from the top down, but that the betterment of the nation must come by mass movement.

Jinx Follows Philip Birong

Philip Birong incurred a fracture of one bone in the right leg just above the ankle when he slipped and fell last Wednesday while working in the woods. Mr. Birong has been followed by a jinx for the past two years, having undergone a severe illness and an operation, and incurred a broken arm previously.

The afternoon of Sunday, Jan.
31, will be a day long to be re-

Robinson's musical performance that will be held at the high school auditorium at three o'clock.
"I expect to make this the most outstanding musical performance I have yet sponsored in this community," stated Mr. Robinson in a recent interview concerning this coming event.

The Girls' Glee club, under the direction of Miss Crawford, will sing and Ray Barbour will give a piano solo.
The concert will consist of two parts, the first supplied by the high school band and Ray Barbour, and the glee clubs assisted by the and attend the big musical show school auditorium at 3 o'clock.

George W. Long, Buchanan Native, Dies in California

George W. Long, a former resident of Buchanan and a brother of E. J. Long, Mrs. W. H. Chubb and Mrs. Kate Miller of this city, died at his home in San Luis, Calif., Friday, Jan. 22, and was buried there Monday. He was born in Buchanan about 70 years ago and went west 30 years ago. He was engaged in a brokerage business at the time of his death. His wife died about a year ago. There were no children. In addition to the brother and sisters living here, another sister, Mrs. Fannie Howe, survives in Lansing. His parents were Isaac and Susan Long.

MUST REGISTER FOR DIVIDENDS BEFORE MARCH 3

Will be Distributed only to Those Who Meet Requirements of Govt.

Anyone who had money on deposit in the Buchanan First National Bank at the time it closed should file claim as early as possible and not later than March 3, according to H. R. Botkin, receiver.

All claims filed by March 3 will be forwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency at Washington, D. C., and dividends will be paid by that department only to those filing claims. Those who do not comply with that requirement will not share in the distribution of dividends.

It is not likely that a dividend will be declared before March 3, when filings are supposed to be completed, but if such should happen, only those who would share with had complied with filing requirements. Delay not only subjects the depositor to this unnecessary risk but it occasions considerable inconvenience to the receiver in settling up the affairs of the trust.

F. H. Dudman of Chicago Dies at Rynearson Home

Frank Henry Dudman, died on Friday, Jan. 22, at the home of his brother-in-law, W. B. Rynearson, and the funeral service was held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, Jan.
24, from the Childs Funeral Chapel, with Rev. C. McPheters of the Methodist Episcopal church of Elkhart, in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudman had come from Chicago a week ago Saturday to visit at the home of the latter's brother, W. B. Rynearson.
He had been ill for several years and while a guest at the Rynearson home he suffered a stroke from which he never rallied until his death three days later.

He was born in Chicago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dud-man, and had lived in that city his entire life. For many years, until illness prevented, he was in the employ of the Chicago street railways. He is survived by his widow; by his parents named above; by three brothers, Will, Edward and Robert Dudman, all of Chicago; and by three sisters, Mrs. Grace Fitzgerald, Mrs. Florence Johnson, and Mrs. Victoria Penwell, also of Chicago.

Poverty Party is Great Success

Circle No. 2 of the Home Service Department of the Presbyterian church entertained Friday afternoon at a Poverty Luncheon in the church dining room. Invitations to the unique affair warned that those who were wise would dress accordingly, and offered a prize for the most ragged lady.
Mrs. James Semple was the fortunate winner, being chosen by popular vote. She was delighted to receive a large (empty) purse.
Close contestants for the place were Mrs. Lloyd Sands, Mrs. Matt Kelling, Mrs. Arnold Webb, Mrs.
L. L. Desenberg, and Mrs. Kelsey Bainton. Mrs. A. White came attired as a beggar, wearing a sign reading "Blind and Dumb," and carrying a tin cup for collections.
Her efforts reaped a nice sum, which she turned over to the committee in charge.

Miss Calista Kingston of Niles, sang a group of songs, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Lyddick. Allene Riley, Eddie Rolan and John Strayer gave several saxophone selections. Impersonations of Clara, Lou and Ben by Freddie Porter, Doris Campbell and Rosemary Thompson caused much laughter. Mrs. Charles Pears, as lady policeman, wearing a plume in her hat and carrying a rolling pin, collected fines from all wearing silk, jewelry and other finery.
Those resisting the officer were hauled into a court, where a jury trial was held, presided over by a judge in robe and wig.

The tables were appropriately decorated with newspaper doilies and candles on blocks of wood.
The luncheon, consisting of Irish stew, corn bread, cabbage salad and apple pie, was enjoyed by about one hundred guests.

Editorial Printed in Harpers Weekly Magazine Oct. 10, 1857

We quote conditions when Grandpa was a boy, 75 years ago, taken from Harper's Weekly, October 10, 1857:

"It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years —not in the lifetime of most men who read this—has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time. In our own country there is universal, commercial prostration and panic, and thousands of our poorest fellow-citizens are turned out against the approaching winter without employment, and without the prospect of it.

"In France the political cauldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty. Russia hangs as usual like a cloud, dark and silent upon the horizon of Europe, while all the energies, resources and influence of the British Empire are sorely tried, and are yet to be tried more sorely, in coping with the vast and deadly Indian insurrection, and with its disturbed relations in China.

"It is a solemn moment, and no man can feel an indifference (which, happily, no man pretends to feel) in the issue of events.

"Of our own troubles no man can see the end. They are fortunately, as yet, mainly commercial; and if we are only to lose money, and by painful poverty to be taught wisdom—the wisdom of honor, of faith, of sympathy and of charity, no man need seriously despair. And yet the very haste to be rich, which is the occasion of this wide-spread calamity, has also tended to destroy the moral forces with which we are to resist and subdue the calamity.

"Good friends! Let our conduct prove that the call comes to men who have large hearts, however narrow their purses may be; who have open hands, however empty their purses.
In times of peril we have nothing but manhood, strong in its faith in God, to rely upon; and whoever shows himself truly a God-fearing man now, by helping wherever and however he can; will be as blessed and beloved as a great light in darkness."

So you see our 1931 experiences were nothing new. We are undoubtedly over the worst with better times in prospect for 1932.

Merchant Police Extinguishes Fire, In Shreve Apartment

What might have resulted in a serious fire was extinguished by the timely action of Alva Bates, night merchant police, who saw flames in the Shreve apartment over the Muir & Sands store while making his rounds about 1 a. m.
There was no one in the apartment at the time but he was able to effect an entrance. The fire had apparently started from a waste basket, and had caught a pile of magazines and spread to the baseboard, a rug, window shade and drape and an over-stuffed chair. Bates was able to put the fire out by the use of water without calling the fire department. Some damage was done by water and smoke.

H. H. Smith, local service man for the Michigan Gas & Electric company, attended a safety meeting of the organization in Niles on Wednesday night, talking on safety in installation.

Demonstration of Police-Trained Dogs Here Sunday

A very interesting demonstration by Doberman Pinscher dogs trained according to German police methods was seen at the high school grounds Sunday afternoon, when Hamilton S. Newsom, professional breeder and trainer from Wheaton, Ill., put two fine specimens of the breed through their paces. The dogs shown were Wizard of Dawn, 18 months old male owned by Dr. Wallace of Buchanan, which has captured three prizes in national meets and Bar-nacle Bill of the Dawn-Kennels of Wheaton. The demonstration was in charge of Richard Milke, German trainer. In addition to a number of local dog lovers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Brinklinger and J. H.
Patterson of South Bend and Paul Voelker of Ishpeming, Mich., were present. Mr. Voelker brought one six-months old pup from Wallace and two pups from Newsom.

GRANDDAUGHTER PETER, THE GREAT, LOCAL RESIDENT

Filly Owned by R. B. Mc-Kahan is Daughter of Mare With World Record.

There may be seen any day in the enclosure north of the Buchanan Lumber company office a filly in which the best blood of the equine race courses—we mean the best blood of the equine race courses—who we got off to a had start what we mean is that Bob McKahan has as classy a piece of horse flesh as has been seen in this section for many months down at the lumber yard and anyone who likes a horse as a horse should take a look.

The filly will be two years old on April 10, and is the daughter of Lizzie March, known to all race track devotees as one of the best pacers that ever stepped and holder of the world's record for a mile on a half mile track in competition, 2:04 1/4. On the male side she is the daughter of Peter McKillop and granddaughter of Peter, the Great, greatest racing sire in the history of the turf. The famous grandsire was formerly owned in Kalamazoo, and was purchased when 23 years old by Stoughton Fletcher, Indianapolis banker, for the record sum of $50, 000.
McKahan acquired the colt from the widow of a friend who wished to place her in the hands of a horse lover. She has been broken but has never tracked to date.
McKahan states that he will not race her until she is three years old.

HISTORIC FOES WILL CLASH IN FEATURE BATTLE

Locals Defeat Team from the Stove City Tuesday Night; Seconds Win.

By Phil Hamlin

Displaying a whirlwind offensive attack in the last two quarters of the basketball game with Dow-agiac Tuesday night, the maroon and white five crashed through with a brilliant 25-10 victory.
Buchanan left the floor at the half with the slight margin of an 817 score, but came back to put the losers to rout with a barrage of baskets, of which Louie Morse counted three. Aided by Glenn Jesse's four points, the "Bucks" scored seventeen points to the visitors three.

The Buchanan five played a fast, deliberate passing game, matched with Dowagiac's blocking system.
Jesse led the victors with eight points and Frantzak, the losers, with three points.

Friday night the "Bucks" will match their skill with Buchanan's old traditional rival, Niles. This promises to be one of the best games of the season, and will feature such players as Walker, Mattix and Shoop of Niles. The first game starts at 7:30. NILES AND BUCHANAN ENTANGLE AT THE BUCHANAN GYM ON FRIDAY NIGHT.

The Buchanan B team defeated the Dowagiac reserves 23-14. Letter, and the Topash boys were the bright spots in the "Buck" line-up and deserve plenty of credit for their fine exhibition of basketball.

Entertainment between the halves of the second team game were two wrestling matches: the first was between "Toots" Smith and "Kid" Dalenberg (the honors were shared), and the second match between "Sonny" Riley, and "Yerky" Yarkovich.

ROUND ABOUT BUCHANAN

THE END OF THE TRAIL

The name of Harry Boyce will undoubtedly go down in history as that of the man who lifted the lid from and gave the public a whiff of one of the worst political scandals ever unearthed in Michigan, and who started a number of those in the upper brackets of county politics and of road contracting on the road to prison.

The graft unearthed by Mr. Boyce had long been known in part at least. The perpetrators in fact largely brought on their own downfall by their growing boldness and cynical effrontery. The charges had been made in part at least in public, and in meeting of county officials. But Boyce was the first man who had the combined ability and courage to bring the malefactors to book.

The direct train of events which led to the downfall of the county board had its beginning in the letting of the contract for the construction of the west 2.94 miles of the Niles-Buchanan road last July, the successful bidder being the Lang Construction Company of Chicago.

REQUENT advertisers in newspaper "Want-Ad" sections know that prospects usually will not trouble to look up an advertised house or product when they cannot telephone first for information or for an appointment.

Whether or not you have a house, a room, or a garage for rent, the telephone will prove useful daily in many social and business ways. And, in emergencies, it will summon doctor, firemen or police immediately, any hour of the day or night.

Bridgman First String Runs Away from Locals to Pile up Lead in 1st Half.

The Bridgman high school basketball team defeated the local quintet 31-18 Friday night at Bridgman, in a practically one-sided game. The Buchanan boys seemed unable to get started until the second half. During the first quarter the winners scored two baskets ahead of the locals, although the score was 9-6, and in the second period scored four field goals to Buchanan's one free throw.

Coch Bradfield's team came back on the floor with more vigor in the second half, but the local opposition had and the additional baskets won them the game. Emplong, Bridgman center, scored five field goals and two free throws, and Backus and Tabbert tied for second place with three baskets each. Tabbert was put out of the game in the third period on fouls, and Stelter, the younger brother of the man who plays on the All-Stars, though he made no points, did good floor work.

The Morse twins played their usual good game and Glen Jesse was high point man, as he usually is, with six points. Harry Dumbolton came second with one basket and two free throws. The score at the half was 17-7; at the third quarter, 25-10 in favor of Bridgman.

Box score:

Buchanan	G	F	PF
Lauren Morse	2	1	1
Dumbolton	1	2	0
Strayer	0	0	1
Ellis	0	0	0
Jesse	3	0	0
Bridgman	G	F	PF
Tabbert	3	0	1
Backus	2	0	0
Emplong	3	2	0
Groh	0	0	0
Spitzer	1	1	1

The line-up: Buchanan—Lauren Morse, Louis Morse, Stelter, Rolen, Strayer, Jesse. Bridgman—Tabbert, Stanard, Emplong, Groh, Spitzer.

The second team game was much more interesting. Buchanan won 25-16. August Topash did most of the scoring with 13 of the points of the total score to his credit. Dan, his brother, was second with four field goals. The Bradfield yearlings out-played the Bridgman seconds, although the game was the reverse in the first team game. Both teams seemed to be in good form, and the Buchanan boys played better than they have all season.

Deeds, who is usually running up the score, made no points but did fair floor work. Leiter scored two baskets. The most of the second team are freshmen and by the exhibition they gave Friday night there will be another state championship team in two years.

Score by quarters:

Buchanan	7	13	15	27
Bridgman	6	12	12	16

HOW TO WRITE AN EXPOSITION

By Nina Nelson
If you feel like writing, roll up your sleeves, kick off your shoes, push back your hair, and proceed to think. Of course, you have in a handy place, your paper, pencil, pen and ink, dictionary, notebooks, reference books, and what not.

After drawing up your chair, slide down on the end of your spine. In the process of thinking, ruffle your hair, kick up the rugs, knock over a jar of flowers, and push your papers back.

Now let's see, what is there to write about? There is the subject of meat packing, only you are not so sure of the correct process. Then there is boat rowing, keeping a scrap book, or window decorations, only everyone knows how to do that, and besides those subjects are not very interesting anyway. Rock gardens would be all right only you used that yesterday. Oh, well, Cio, that man sleeping in church tonight. Thought I'd split my sides. Say, that's a pretty picture on the radio. What is it? Oh yes, "I Don't Know Why." Wonder what we'll do in home room tomorrow. Oh, Edna, did you see Mary's new dress? No, her brown one. Cute, isn't it? No, hum, guess I'd better write that exposition for journalism. Let's see, where'd I leave off? Oh yes, something to write about. How does this sound, "Making a Box Trap"? Nope, too stale. Heck, wish I could think of something clever. A good way to do practice work, say, Edna, do you speculate with an s or o? Never mind, can't use that anyway. Shoot I can't think of a thing. Oh well, I'll tell Miss Hanlin I didn't have time.

Girls' Glee Club

Not much doing nowadays, except practicing some songs for a future entertainment to be given some time in March.

During the last semester, the schedule has been changed, making it possible for the two girls' Glee clubs to combine, meeting every day during the home room hour. This will give the girls more singing periods but a shorter length of time.

WILL ROTATE EDITORSHIP OF MICROPHONE

Thomas Quirk to Assume the Helm for Next 3 Weeks; Staff Announced.

Due to the fact that there will have to be someone at the head of the Microphone next year, besides the faculty advisor, the staff and the instructor of the course, Miss Helen Hanlin, have decided that the position of editor-in-chief should be rotated. Therefore, every three weeks there will be a new head of the paper, beginning next week.

Needless to say, the present head is much in favor of the idea. There is a responsibility connected with the paper that must be assumed by someone next year and the person who has had the training and is best suited will be appointed. It is the consensus of opinion that the editor should be a senior, and perhaps it is only fair that with the possibility of exceptional ability, it should be so.

For the next three weeks Thomas Quirk will assume the position. This is being done, not with the entire staff but only in the journalism class. Several of the new system will stimulate competition and better issues will be the result.

The present editor-in-chief, Alan Stevenson, who has held the position since the beginning of the school year, wishes the new editors the best of luck.

The members of the new staff will be:
Editor-in-chief, Thomas Quirk; sports editor, Phil Hanlin; reporters, Marjorie Nelson, Pauline VanEvery, Nina Nelson, Alene Riley, Alan Stevenson, Madeline Hamilton, Catherine Beisel, Helen Fletcher, Marjorie Campbell, Clem Bins, Doris Campbell, Mary Louise Beardsley, and Edwin Arthur. Several of these new staff members are on the staff, Pauline Topash, Dorothy Bilger, Joyce Kohlman, Geneva Troutetter, and Dorothy Boyer.

Reporting Inquirer

Question: Which feature in the Microphone do you like best and why?

For myself, I like the "School Slants" best. They are all written and show skill. They are very entertaining.

I like "Faculty Facts" best because it tells where the teachers spend their week-ends and vacations, or what they have been doing at home. Audrey Wilcox.

I like "Who's Who" best because it gives us a chance to know what our fellow students are doing. We can pick out the best points of each and try to follow them.

Ruth Strunk.

By Mary Louise Beardsley
Former Buchanan high school pupils will remember Lyddick's ice cream parlor located on Front street where Strang's store now is situated. Many of the now grown up generation ate their tin roofs and played the phonograph in this store, which was run for ten years by Mary and Charles.

The tin roofs seemed to be one of the most popular things on the bill. "Do you know how they started?" asked Mary Lyddick. "George Habicht originated the idea. He came in one day and told us how to make them, ate one, and then said that tin roofs were always on the house."

They have been popular ever since. Sad the day when the price was raised from ten to fifteen cents. Everyone went in the day before and ate as many as they could, just to save money. The Lyddicks always made their own ice cream and flavoring and they were delicious.

Another thing, well remembered by visitors to the store, was King Flash, the bulldog. He loved to bite ladies' fur cuffs. Helen Wells started this idea by teasing him. One year his popularity was so great that he was selected as mascot to the basketball team. Former students playing on this team were Ray Stevens, George Murphy, Floyd Smith, Harold Mullen and Herb Lough.

Miss Ruth McGinnis of Honesdale, Pa., who is the world's champion pocket billiard player of her sex, is the only really expert woman billiardist who uses the left hand.

Girls Playing Inter-Squad Basket Games

It looks as if the inter-squad basketball teams have been enjoying themselves looping that iron ring; anyway, the "Oodles," the second hour gym class, and the fifth hour gym class, who haven't decided on a name, played the semi-finals last Wednesday, Jan. 20, after school, with the score of 9 to 2 in favor of the "Oodles." Mary Donley is captain of the "Oodles," and Dorothy Holmes is captain of the other team.

Also another game was played between the "Flash Six" and the "Podettes" with Pauline Topash and Rosemary Thompson captains, respectively. The score was 17 to 12 in favor of the former. The winners of these two games played the finals yesterday. After that game they started the inter-class basketball.

Nearly every girl in high school is complaining of being so sore and stiff. Well, no wonder! They have been tumbling!

Joe Letcher is learning to dance? Miss French has parted her hair "on the other side"?

Our old friend, Donald Anstiss, was with us a day?

Eddie Rolen and John Strayer are prepared for anything? They carry quite visible safety pins with them every day?

Library fines simply must be paid?

Mr. Moore continually finds fair daisies, who leave forgotten bits of paper around his rooms, and they will sweep floors?

Donald Blaney limped around on an injured toe for a few days? Seems "Fred Riley got sort of rough in gym class."

Suede jackets seem to be very popular with boys and girls this year?

Ruth Cripe, one of our reticent sophomores, has been active in many sports. She has made varsity soccer teams both years in high school. She is a G. A. A. member.

Don't you remember seeing her sell candy at the games? This year she is acting as secretary of the Latin club. Once this semester, Ruth was chairman of Miss Chandler's home room. A good student and an all around good sport are two of her most prominent characteristics. She is very well liked and is lots of fun to talk to.

Helen Mogford, a most dependable, scholarly girl, has participated in many activities. When a freshman, she was a member of the student council, and in that George Morley, Lillias Peacock, Gray Best, Alice Ruth, Blanche Depyl, and Maxine Young of the freshman class all received one hundred for the past six weeks in spelling. Review has been in the form of a spell down, each student asking a question. The side having the most points were the winners. Beginning with the second semester, they will take up letter writing.

Two debates were held in the sophomore English classes the fourth and sixth hours. The teams for the fourth hour are: Affirmative, George Spatta, Mary Donley, John Godfrey, negative, Carson Donley, Helen Spatta and William Zachman. The negative side were the winners. The sixth hour teams were: affirmative, Thomas Quirk, Mary Marsh, and George Yurkovic. Negative, Richard Schram, Jean Russell and Donald Burrus. The affirmatives were winners. A debate was held last Monday at 2:36 but the results were too late for this issue of the Microphone. Watch for it next week.

They have also been studying early American literature. They are planning to make a special study of early history and legends of Michigan and Berrien county.

The Juniors have again taken up the study of English literature with the age of Dryden and Pope. The next two months promise to be well filled for the senior English class, who are going to work on drama. They will begin by reading Shakespeare's "Hamlet," and staging parts of it. Later, each student will read a full length modern play of one of the following authors: Shaw, Barrie, Galsworthy, Drinkwater, or some other author of equal rating. After this each person will make a report on at least eight one-act plays, take part in a one-act play and also write a one-act play, which requires about thirty minutes to stage. And last, but not least, they will be required to write a paper on "Procrastination in Hamlet."

James Backus painted the theatre green. Betty Donley brought a curtain for our stage. Eleanor Jean Padock, Doris Reamer, and Marian Rohl sewed the curtain. We made the background, cutting out the sky, grass, trees and water. Our Billy Goat Puppets are made of cardboard and are manipulated with strings.

The girls have begun to weave a rug for our doll house. Evelyn Johnson, Bonnie Jean Metzger, Janet Hasslet, Betty Donley, Betty Jane Doty, Janice Pierce, Vera Gayle Holmes, Evelyn Blanta, and Jean Phiscator cut the material in strips. Divisions of Russians White Russians are considered by Beaulieu to be the purest of the three great Slav divisions, the Great Russians, the Little Russians and the White Russians. Their dialect is akin to Great Russian. They have light-brown or brown hair with a reddish tinge, and light-brown eyes. Apparently they were so named because of their costume, which consists of white smock, bast shoes with white leggings and white homespun coat.

Mankind Really Knows Little About the Seas

An outward spinning whirlpool is an oddity added to the long list of unexplained mysteries of the sea, says a bulletin of the National Geographic society. It is half in fact and half in awe that old tars refer to the bounding main as "that old devil sea." In olden days the sea was believed to be peopled with strange monsters which devoured both ships and men. Even today, with all the safeguards and comforts of modern travel, a ship voyager is not without his hazards. Mother Ocean constantly plays new and unexpected tricks because man's knowledge of the sea, for all his centuries of study and experience, is extremely meager.

Explorers and geographers who have been signing for new lands to conquer may find their best field, paradoxically, in the sea. When it is realized that nearly three-quarters of the surface of the globe consists of water, it is rather remarkable how little we know of the vast surface of the solid sphere which lies under this screen of liquid.

The most impressive thing about the sea is its shallowness as compared with the size of the earth, and its depth as compared with the height of the land. If one were to take a globe six feet in diameter and excavate the deepest trench of the ocean thereon, it would be a bare pin scratch deep—about one-twentieth of an inch.

Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 365): "If the Scientist has enough Christly affection to win his own pardon, and such commendation as the Magdalen gained from Jesus, then is he Christian enough to practise scientifically and deal with his patients compassionately; and the result will correspond with the spiritual intent."

There are two distinct policies essential to the success of the prohibition law. One part deals with the efforts of the government to enforce the law. These efforts should have our cordial support, but this year the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union in its observance of the birthday of National Prohibition stressed the importance of the individual citizen observing the letter and spirit of the Eighteenth Amendment.
We believe this is not only a privilege, that it is not only a contribution to the success of prohibition, but it is a very definite way to support the government. It is a bigger question than a matter of personal opinion; it is a question upon which the patriotic citizen cannot have two opinions.
Our Revolutionary forefathers fought for a great principle. George Washington had an idea of a great nation, made up of states, each state an individual but each a part of the national government. The constitution of the United States is the basis of this government.
It is not alone a question of what we believe, although total abstinence is laid on a sure foundation of scientific truth, but it

Royal Soup Calls for Variety of Ingredients
The recipe for the famous "ollo" soup made for the Austrian court "since the time of Empress Maria Theresa's father," has been printed in Budapest. It is said to have originated in Spain, and the secret was revealed by a pensioned court chef. The stock consisted of veal or ham, mutton, venison and other game roasted in butter and then boiled. Calves' feet and ox feet, turned into jelly, were added, together with white cabbage steamed with smoked and fresh pork, maize seed, chestnuts, lentils, pearl barley and carrots roasted with sugar.

The combination was laid on ice for four hours, so as to remove every trace of grease. Next a bouillon was prepared of beef and veal bones, mushrooms and other vegetables, making a liquid to be cleared by the addition of hashed beef, ox liver and white of egg. The boiling bouillon was strengthened by cooked fowls, ducks, turkey, pigeons, pheasants, goose and wild duck. It took two days and two nights to complete the process.

The last thing done was to drain the concoction through muslin bags. When porcelain jugs were filled, the guests were served in small china cups.—New York Times.

Warehouse for Storage Completed at Roscommon Lansing, Jan. 14. The first unit of a central warehouse which will be used for the storage of emergency equipment and for repairing and rebuilding pumps, tractors, and trucks has been completed at the Experiment Station at Roscommon. The Division of Field Administration of the Department of Conservation has announced. A similar building will be erected at Marquette next year for upper peninsula service.
The building at the experiment station, a frame structure 28x42 feet in size, is completely equipped as a garage and repair shop to repair and rebuild trucks, tractors, motor pumps and other equipment used in forest fire service. It is expected that the shop will save considerable money since it will eliminate the necessity of considerable contractual work.
It is planned to build the second unit of this central warehouse during 1932. The central warehouse in the upper peninsula will be identical with the one at the Experiment Station. It will adjoin the forest fire headquarters building just out of Marquette.

Opium in Commerce
Opium is the dried milky juice of the unripe capsules of a poppy which for this product has been cultivated through many centuries. Diverse species of poppy is capable of yielding it to a greater or less extent. Opium is procured by making incisions in the poppy head or capsule, taking care not to penetrate its cavity. The juice then exudes in drops, and after being allowed to remain for a day upon the edges of the incision it is scraped off—a brownish, jellylike material. As the soft opium accumulates it is molded into roundish lumps or irregular flattened cakes of various sizes and put aside to dry. When of proper consistency it is generally wrapped in leaves and sent to market.

Widespread Pollution
It is estimated that 85 per cent of the streams, ponds and other waters in the United States are polluted to an extent dangerous to fish and human life.

Two of Revere's Bells
Paul Revere and his son, Joseph W. Revere, made a great many bells. Among them may be mentioned the bell of St. Paul's church, Newburyport, Mass., and the one in the First church, Lancaster, Mass.

ports prohibition because it believes that under its temptation to drink will be lessened.

Those who believe in the moderate use of alcoholic liquors not only opposed this policy in the past but are even more bitterly opposed to total abstinence and prohibition now.

Those who believe in total abstinence and prohibition because they regard alcohol as a racial poison and a habit-forming drug, are helping the United States to derive benefit from the prohibition law.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

AMERICAN LOYALTY
By Ella A. Boole
(Publication delayed from last week)

January 16th is a red letter day in the history of the United States for it marks the anniversary of the 13th amendment, one of the great forward steps in the progress of civilization. It marks the most courageous effort even taken by a people to reduce the national evils resulting from the use of that overpowering racial narcotic—alcohol.

Stern opposition meets prohibition; but progress is always resisted. No social advance has ever been made without great effort. The constitution of the United States, itself a great advance in ideas of government, was not ratified by all of the original states and was not accepted universally for many years afterwards. None of the constitutional amendments, after the first ten, was ratified by all the states; and the ratification of the 18th amendment was the closest approach to unanimity of states in accepting a fundamental change in the constitution. It was ratified by 46 of the 48 states; in addition, Alaska, Porto Rico and Hawaii by referendum, declared favorably to prohibition.

Prohibition was adopted to lessen the consumption of liquor after many methods had been tried. It has been bitterly opposed by a noisy minority. Prohibition was carried forward to success because it was charged that the saloon was responsible for all the evils which followed in the train of the liquor traffic. The saloon is gone and no one wants it back. Now some of the same evils persist and it is charged that prohibition is responsible. The fact is, these are the results of the violation of the prohibition law, and such evils before and after prohibition are inherent in the use of alcoholic liquors. That use produces the same results whether sold legally or illegally.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union has been a total abstinence society ever since its organization in 1874. During all these years, both before and after prohibition, its members have practiced total abstinence and through its educational work it has presented the facts as to the effects of alcohol, with the hope that men and women would willingly adopt the policy of total abstinence by signing the pledge or by conviction as to its value. The Women's Christian Temperance Union sup-
