

'32 COMMENCEMENT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

B. H. S. Track Team Captures Fourth Place in Class C State Meet

Now Here's the Proposition

ANCESTRAL URGE

By Hays

In early days my grandsire broke
The prairie sod with oxen yoke,
All in a forest clearing wide
By the wild Mississippi's side,
Where his good axe, with lusty
blow,
Had laid an oaken forest low.

My father rode the wagon trails
Where white-bowed "schooners"
spread their sails,
And sought, behind his nodding
team,
To find the substance of his dream
A place where he, with two good hands,
Might build a home in open lands.

Now I, their tender-handed son,
Feel need to do as they have done
Divorced from field and open air,
I prove I, too, would do and dare
By spading up a radish plot
Upon the back end of a lot.

He Had to Make a Home Run Wasn't it just terrible about our baseball team last Sunday?
The score was 1-0 in favor of the locals in the eighth when the left fielder has to leave to take his best girl home, and the substitute lets two go through him to let in four runs for the opposing side.
There ought to be a rule that all base players sign up their girls to sit the games out.

After All that Trouble
They're telling about our night marshall that he saw a burglar in a store this last week and had to go back to the city hall to get his flash light and gun and when he got back the burglar was gone.
Only the burglar happened to be a merchant police, but he should have gone ahead and shot him anyway.

Business Forecast of the Week
John Portz received a card from Murphy, the distinguished Hiber-nian who keeps house cleaning appointments here occasionally, written from Hammond, Ind., in which Mr. Murphy comments briefly on the condition of business as follows: "Hello John. How's business? I hear if things don't pick up the St. Joe river will just run three days a week."

Limit Campers To Seven Days Visit In State Parks

Congestion in several of southern Michigan's state parks has forced the parks division of the department of conservation to limit campers to seven day visits;
and to establish a rule which does not permit renewal of camping privileges in the same parks.

Only seven day camping permits will be permitted in the state parks in Oakland, Livingston, Macomb, St. Clair, Ottawa and Bay County. In parks in these counties campers are now so numerous and space so limited that the time limit must be shortened to give everyone a chance, it was stated.
The camping time limit in all other parks will be 15 days. In former years campers were permitted to renew their permits at the end of this time so long as their camps were moved to another part of the park. This was done to prevent campers from occupying choice sites for extended periods. Under the new rules, campers must move from the park
when the time limit expires. Fifteen day permits may be obtained in other parks.

In adopting the state park rules and regulations for 1932, at its April meeting, the conservation commission made no changes.
Emphasis will be given during the coming summer season to the enforcement of the rules relative to the injury or destruction of trees, shrubs and wild flowers.
This rule forbids anyone from "injuring or destroying any sign, guide post, peeling of bark, carving and chopping trees, cutting branches, driving nails, digging ground from roots and the removing of trees, shrubs, and plants."

Other state park rules effective in all of the state parks include:
Firearms may not be possessed
in a state park.

Throwing of tin cans, papers,
bottles, junk or refuse of any kind on the ground or in a lake or stream; or the misuse and abuse of seats, tables and other park
equipment is prohibited.
The speed limit for motor vehicles on park roads is 20 miles per hour. In instances where roads approach bathing beaches
and other places where crowds

was marked by loose playing, errors figuring largely in the issue.
The Tigers muffed four to six by the Athletics, but the latter nine had the knack of mufing at critical periods. Both Salisbury of the Tigers and Topash of the Athletics pitched good ball.

Horses, Horses, Now Bring on Your Horses!

That classic piece of road advice proffered to leisurely motorists by those inclined to speed,
"Get a horse" is at last finding credence in one quarter, according to an advertisement carried elsewhere in this issue asking for a good work horse. Two years ago an advertisement was brought to this office offering to purchase a horse. The office was swamped with offers and finally it was found that it was all a mistake and the advertiser had a horse for sale.

OUR DISTINCTION GROWS!

At this time last week the editor thought he was sharing the distinctive popularity which comes with a raise in assessment with the Cities Service Oil Corporation. We and the Cities Service were the ONLY ones in town to get a raise over last year's valuation. When the Record came out last week
with that statement the Cities Service was promptly notified it was "all a mistake," and they would get a rebate of any taxes paid on a $500 increase in personal assessment. Congratulations, boys!

That leaves us all alone with the honor of being the only one in town to receive the little present from the Board of Review known more familiarly as a "raise"—in these days of falling values and "lower" taxes. We are told that "somebody complained" three or four of "em—and we were not there to defend our rights, if we had any, so, to equalize that $125,000 they lopped off
other assessments, both real and personal, within the city.
They raised us. Perhaps we have been asleep and dreaming, but we heard there was a depression on, that the trend was downward. Maybe the depression is over! Will somebody ask the Board of Review about it?
The grass is still growing in our front lawn. We've had to mow it a couple of times. We wonder if the assessment was raised enough to take care of the increased growth!

TENNIS RACKET AGAIN POPULAR ATHLETIC PARK

Two Courts are Reconditioned Under Legion-Scout-H.
S. Management.

Interest in the game of tennis
has been revived here to a degree unknown for several years, since the renovation of the tennis courts
at Athletic park under the combined auspices of the Legion, the Scouts and the high school, aided and abetted by Dr. H. M. Beistle, representative of the city commission.

Two courts were surfaced by Street Commissioner Edward Mitchell and the back stops were fixed and nets furnished by funds raised by a dance given by Phil Hanlin's Playboys. A committee consisting of H. S. Hollenbaugh representing the American Legion, Albert Webb, representing the Boy Scouts and John Strayer representing the high school student body has been named by Commissioner Beistle to have general supervision of the grounds.

The two courts are now being daily taxed to capacity by local players. During the recent dry weather dust was becoming a handicap, but the rains of the past week have placed the courts in excellent condition again. The members of the Niles high school graduating class who belong to the church
pipe now in stock to the courts to maintain condition during the summer.

Must Pay Gas Tax On Highway Construction Jobs

Gasoline used by trucks in road-building and road-repairing is subject to the gasoline tax unless the truck operates entirely upon private property, an opinion from the attorney general to the department of state, held recently.

The opinion declared that roads closed for repair, still remain public highways and vehicles operating upon them are subject to the gasoline tax. The same rule applies to new road construction.
The department plans to operate in conformity with the opinion, and requests for funds based on these premises, will be denied.

OCCASION IS FAVORED BY IDEAL WEATHER

Atty. Gore of Benton Harbor
Gives Stirring Patriotic
Address to Large Audience.

One of the largest crowds attending local Memorial observances in many years listened to the stirring patriotic address by Atty.
Gore of Benton Harbor at Oak Ridge cemetery Monday afternoon, the occasion being favored by ideal weather.

Atty Gore touched briefly on his former residence in Buchanan and the associations of the place, and then devoted the substance of his address to a plea for loyalty to the ideals of Americanism for which the service men commemorated had given their lives. He made a special plea for resistance to the inroads of communism.

The parade was larger than for several years, and included a considerable number of private cars.
It was headed by a delegation of Boy Scouts and Cubs and by about fifty school children, with the Clark band following. Cars bore representation of the veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American wars, Gold Star mothers, and a considerable delegation of the veterans of the World War marched in uniform.

At the cemetery Commander Arthur Johnston took charge and turned the exercises over to John Dick, who has served as chairman for many years. Rev. Rice pronounced the invocation and Rev.
Boettcher the benediction. A high school quintet comprising Vincent DeNardo, Eddie Roelen, John
Strayer, Marvin Gross and R. R.
Robinson sang, with Miss Edith Beardsley as accompanist.

In addition to those appearing on the program, the following were on the special platform erected for the occasion: Commanders Arthur Johnston of the Legion and Edith Willard of the Auxiliary; George Hanley, Sam
Bunker and John Dick of the Civil War veterans.

John Hess acted as bugler for the occasion. A beautiful wreath was donated by the Jewell Flower Shop for the Soldiers monument,
inscribed to the American Legion.
The color guard and the firing squad, under the direction of Eugene B. Steele, were as follows:
H. Zupke, R. Sparling, S. Rudoni,
F. Schwartz, H. Stanard, C. Luke,
H. Morley, T. Burks; color guard,
D. Markham, H. Huebner, G.
Chubb, M. McKinnon.

Commander Arthur Johnston
made a special request that the gratitude of the Legion be extended to the people of Buchanan for their liberal co-operation in the observance. He also stated that a possibility existed that the grave of a veteran might have been missed in posting flags, ar-that in case anyone knew of such an oversight, the organization would appreciate notification to that effect.

Indian Fighter Saves

Sculp of Chief He Slews
Freeport, Ohio.—Theodore Holiday, eighty-four years old, retired buggy and implement dealer, is the last of Ohio's living Indian fighters. Included among his relics are a scalp of the Sioux chief he killed at Fort Laramie, Wyo., in 1865, the chief's brass wristlet with notches cut in it for every "scalpface" he killed, his nose ring, his scalping knife and his wampum pouch, his steel-headed flint carrier and his blanket.

Sea Replacing Singing

Beach's Musical Sands
Boston.—At Manchester-on-the-Sea, Mass., singing bench apparently is slowly regaining its voice. Winter storms carried away most of the musical sands which emitted strange noises when walked upon. But lately the sea has been gradually replacing the sands, and old timers believe singing beach's lost voice will eventually be fully restored.

DON R. PEARS CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Petitions are Circulated This Week; Has Served as Register Deeds for Past Six Years.

Don R. Pears, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Pears, and a native of this place, is about to give a quit claim to his long-term lease on the office of county register of deeds and is looking on up the political ladder at a berth in the lower house of the state legislature from the First Berrien district.

His petitions are being circulated through the district this week. Young Pears graduated from the local high school and enlisted in the army from this place during the World War. He is prominent among the veteran's organizations of the county. He also served as president of the Michigan Association of Registers of Deeds. He is a graduate of Western State Teacher's College at Kalamazoo.

In announcing his candidacy for this higher office, Pears stated that he had decided to make the race for representative only after he had given the matter very serious consideration and had been urged by so many of his friends to enter the race.

"It will be a promotion for me, if I am nominated and elected," Register Pears declared in making his announcement, "and I am willing to ask for the promotion solely on the merits of my record as Register of Deeds during the busiest years the office ever has experienced."

Questioned as to a platform on which he would make his campaign, Pears replied: "Taxes are too high; I stand for further reduction in state expenditures. If nominated and elected I shall not only adhere strictly to a program of economy in all matters which may come before the legislature, but also I shall closely contact the people of this first district so that I may definitely know the wishes of the majority of the people and may vote accordingly on state matters which pertain directly to Berrien county."

Jesse G. Boyle, Buchanan township, is the present representative of the first district, which comprises the territory in Berrien county west of the St. Joseph river, with the exception of a portion of Niles which is in the second district.

Large Throng Attends Funeral Mrs. Mae Best

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Mae Best were held in the Evangelical church, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, (daylight saving time) May 18, 1932, with Rev. W. F. Boettcher, pastor officiating.

By request from the family the songs, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "The Sweet By and By" were rendered by Miss Marion VanEvery, Mrs. Vada VanEvery, John Fowler and I. N. Barnhart, Mrs. Emma Fowler accompanying at the piano.

The church was crowded to its capacity with sorrowing relatives and friends who were there to pay their last respects to one who during her life had won such a warm place in their hearts by her genial ways and sunny disposition.

The members of the Friendship class of the Evangelical church attended in a body, also Bay Leaf Rebekah lodge No. 248 who gave the service at the grave. Mesdames Frances Murphy, Nina Post, Edith Willard, Mary Roti, Bertha King and Phyllis Dalrymple, sister Rebekahs were casket bearers.

In a profusion of beautiful flowers she was laid to rest beside her husband in Oak Ridge cemetery. Ida Mae Best, the daughter of H. I. and Frances Cauffman, was born in Berrien township, Berrien county, Michigan, June 20, 1874, and departed this life Sunday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock, May 15, 1932, at the age of 57 years, 10 months and 25 days.

Mrs. Best spent her entire life in this vicinity and was well known to all.

On Nov. 28, 1894, she was united in marriage to John "Haslet" Best and to this union one son was born, John Henry Best. Mr. Best preceded her to the Great Beyond December 21, 1928.

She was affiliated with the Bay Leaf Rebekah lodge No. 248, the Brook Valley Arbor of Gleaners No. 1624, and of the F. D. I. Past Noble Grand and Loyal Elks clubs. She was a member of the Friendship class of the Buchanan Evangelical church, and was a joyful and willing worker in these organizations. She held the office of treasurer of the Bakertown school district.

She leaves to mourn her untimely death, the son, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Cauffman, Baker-town; three sisters: Mrs. Frank Dodge of Buchanan, Mrs. Frank Bledgett of Detroit, Mrs. A. J. Heim of Bakertown; one brother, Frank Cauffman of Jackson; two nieces, Miss Alene Dodge and Miss Ruth Heim; two nephews, Robert Dodge and Joe Heim, and many other relatives and a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Best's passing is a distinct loss to the community in which she lived and to all those with whom she came in contact, for her life was one of cheerful and loving service for others and of love and friendliness for her fellowmen. Her bright smile and cheery greeting, and her thoughtfulness in the little things for others will be among the memories cherished by all who knew her. We can not say, we will not say that she is dead, she is just away. With a cheery smile and a wave of one hand she has wandered into a better land.

BUSINESS AS USUAL

During the stress of the past two years the CITY NATIONAL BANK & TRUST COMPANY has at all times functioned in the customary, normal way. It has received deposits and has always had funds on hand to meet the demands of its depositors.

It has maintained a normal loan policy... making all loans necessary for legitimate business needs at the regular interest rate and limited only by the dictates of sound banking.

Congress has recently enacted legislation that places new rediscount facilities at our command. This releases additional funds for the use of industry and the consequent employment of labor.

It will be the policy of this bank to avail itself, if necessary, of the benefits of these added credit facilities of the Federal Reserve System to further meet the requirements of industry in Niles and Berrien County.

Notwithstanding the perplexities of the times...

Skip Day

South Bend was the destination of all the seniors Wednesday, May 18. The weather man did his best by giving us a perfect day for the event—including a beautiful moon, for which many were thankful. In the morning the Tribune plant was thoroughly inspected by 45 of the seniors, and the Palace theatre was taken over in the afternoon, for when the gang of '32 goes anywhere, it seems to own places.

Practically all the seniors went to the movie as the money for the affair was taken out of the class treasury and no one wanted to miss a treat like that.

All the ones who were able to even struggle on the dance floor, were at the Palais Royale in the evening. Even the best and the worst dancers were there, and as the sweet old saying goes, a good time was had by all.

We feel that we conducted ourselves as ladies and gentlemen so that the class of '32 may enjoy the same privilege of deserting next year.

Senior Play

by Marjorie Fletcher

"Believe it or Not," the annual senior play, under the capable direction of Mrs. Velma Dunbar, was presented Friday, May 13. The play given by the senior class of 1932 was a three-act farce comedy by Charles Caldwell Dobie. It was a great success with the best of results from each character. The dialogue and action of the play were very lively, leading to a climax of high-pitched excitement and many exciting situations. The story briefly was as follows:

Harriet Collins, in the face of extreme conditions, advertises for a man. Her young friend, Nancy Hamilton, offers to play the part of Harriet's fiancée during the visit of the wealthy Uncle Silas, who has come to check up on her possibilities of marriage as under the provisions of her dowry, she must be married by the following week. Two gentlemen call in answer to the newspaper ad; the maid leaves without notice; an officer of the Health department and a detective arrive, bringing more trouble and a series of other complicating incidents occur.

of the sky. After absorbing the beauty as a whole, I noticed that people were strolling around, chattering here and there. Some of the early arrivals, I thought, strolled unnoticed among them, so that I might more closely observe the details of the garden. As I walked along I saw girls in beautifully designed dresses lounging in deck chairs and swings, while their escorts either stood or sat near at hand.

I got as far as the northeast corner, when all at once I was sure that I heard water running, and as I was about to inform some one of this, I saw that there was water running, but it was a tiny fountain, in the center of a very attractive rock garden.

Farther on, I came to the orchestra nook which had been among the first attractions to catch my eye. Behold, the orchestra was assembling, and at this, I glanced around and discovered that the party was becoming more organized.

I heard the cymbal ring and somebody was announcing the grand march. The organization itself was very effective. First came the president of the junior class, Miss Ruth Pierce, and her escort, following her, the members of the senior class, Roger Thompson, and his lady friend; next came the school board and their companions, the faculty and then the juniors and seniors. "Strike up the Band," and off they went, such a review of pretty clothes and brilliant happy faces. Finally the march led to the band, and at the end each person was given a blue and silver program. The dancing began and again I mingled with the guests around the garden. Before I had gone far, I met a friend of mine whom I thought might be able to give me some of the minute details, and so I asked her to sit down with me and explain some things I wanted to know.

During our conversation she told me that the reason for the large crowd; for the first time each student had the privilege of bringing one guest.

Later I perceived that groups were gathering in the southeast and northwest corners of the garden, especially between dances and upon inquiry, I learned that this was being served in these places. And upon trying it I knew why the crowd had gathered.

As the evening wore on I heard murmurs of eating and drinking. The couples, I found that downstairs in the sewing room (though it didn't look like a classroom) there were tables sheltered by umbrellas where people were partaking of a delicious lunch served by the sophomore girls.

Upon returning to the gymnasium I went by way of the auditorium and found a check room with sophomore boys in attendance.

By the time I returned upstairs I heard many shrill cries and wondered what could have happened, and to my surprise, a trapdoor in the ceiling had been opened and balloons, confetti, and serpents were flying every where.

At 12:30 the dance broke up and the gay people departed.

Junior Play

"Billy," the Junior play of 1931, under the able direction of Miss Helen Hanlin, was presented on Friday evening, March 15. Members of the cast were: Philip Hanlin, Pauline VanEvery, Lloyd Kolhoff, Jane Habicht, Margaret Koons, Charlotte Arnold, John Strayer, James Eisenhart, Harry Dumbolt, Robert Montgomery, Dwight Marks, Walter Babcock and Frances Sutphen.

Poles Give Good Service

The average pole used for electrical wires will last from seven to fifteen years, although some are known to have been in use twenty-one years.

An Appreciation

We feel that we owe Mr. E. H. Orniston a token of appreciation as he helped and guided us through three years of our high school life. We wish him luck as we know he does, each and everyone of us.

Boys' Athletics

By Marion Dreitzler and Harry Dumbolt

The following boys were members of the football squad in 1931: James Eisenhart, Joseph Letcher, Robert Montgomery and Marion Dreitzler.

None of the boys played on the first team but set a good record in the second team games.

In 1930 there were five boys out for football. It looked a little better as we had a few who were playing on the first squad. They had a very successful year and have given a good account of themselves the two following years.

There were the same number on the basketball squad and, although they were not playing on the first team, they set a good record for a second team schedule. Some of the boys looked promising for the next year's team.

Due to the fact that there were so few boys in the class during the 1929 season, there were but four members participating in athletics.

James Eisenhart and Marion Dreitzler were the only two playing on the 1929 basketball team from the 1932 class.

In 1930, the Buchanan football team led one of its worst seasons for many years. The main reason for this was that there was a little too much discord among the players. They wouldn't pull together like they should. This was the main cause for such a bad season.

Debate

By Pauline VanEvery

The debating team of the last two years has brought a great deal of honor to Buchanan high school. The team, representing Buchanan for 1930-1931 was composed of two seniors, Pauline VanEvery and Philip Hanlin and one junior, Marvin Gross.

The debate team entered both the state and county debating leagues and won the county championship after a perfect record against eight, contesting towns.

In the state league, they went through the first elimination and were defeated for the first time by Paw Paw in the second elimination.

The Microphone

By Nina Nelson

The work done by the Microphone staff has been appreciated by the school in general and by the seniors in particular. The amount of work connected with the paper has taken a great deal of time. The picking of the reporters, the assignment of beats to them, seeing that the news is on time, cutting out the undesirable material and trying all the time to train the members of the staff in the style advised by the author of the Journalism text book, requires all the attention of the editor-in-chief and the instructor.

The Microphone became more important to a larger number of students in 1930 when a Journalism class was started. Several of the members were so interested that this year they were again asked to join the staff.

At the beginning of the school year in 1931, Alan Stevenson was appointed editor. The thirteen members of the Journalism class acted as reporters, and Philip Hanlin was appointed sports editor. Other reporters were recruited from the high school.

Jane Habicht, who was editor in her sophomore year, deserves much credit for her efficient editorship. In the junior year there was no editor-in-chief.

Phil Hanlin, Clem Binns, Catherine Meisel, Nina Nelson, Marjorie Sands, Kate Post and Thessel Mitchell acted very ably as reporters this year.

Several new columns were started, School Slants improved, the Inquiring Reporter made more interesting and the paper improved in general.

A great deal of credit should go to the editors this year. A signal honor was awarded to Thomas Quirk, a sophomore, who was appointed editor-in-chief after Alan Stevenson resigned to put in all his time as a correspondent for the South Bend News-Times.

During the present staff wishes the future staffs greater success.

We wish to thank Miss Helen Hanlin for her labors in our behalf, taking a great deal of her time both in school and out to make the paper bigger and better.

The Student Council

By Marjorie Lamb

Let us draw up our comfortable chairs to a place by the fireside. Then, after we have fixed a light, let's look through some old books. Here are some black ones. They are rather well-worn but well-kept. After wondering what all the writing is about, we find that they are the books of the Student Council of Buchanan high school.

Four year's recordings are in these books. That's when this year's graduating class were freshmen. Let's see, who was in charge of this council then? Oh, sure, here it is. This is what it says—of course, we will tell you briefly.

September 19, 1928 brings an election of officers for the council. Virginia Snowden was elected president, Harold Pierce as vice president and Emma Bohl as secretary-treasurer. This council started out on plans for Boosters' Day. We do not find much about this year's council. They were right on duty, however.

Now Harry Knight acting as president, Richard Zerze as vice president, Helen Kean as secretary and John Strayer as treasurer, step into the limelight.

This group, as the previous ones have done, begin their work as new members of a Student Council. Mr. Orniston gave a suggestion that the school secure some community song books. This suggestion was carried out and the high school and public have enjoyed the use of these books very much.

Now we come to the close of the book. The last chapter shows the election of 1931: Phil Hanlin, president; Marjorie Sands, vice president; Pauline VanEvery, secretary and treasurer.

This council has worked on about the same program as the previous councils. We are sure that we will appreciate more and more the work of the council.

As the hour grows late and the eyelids become heavy, the time for rest has come. We hope you enjoyed this little story of the Buchanan high school student council through its years.

The Band and Orchestra

By Vincent DeNardo and Walter Babcock

In the freshman year, seven members of the present class of '32 were members of the band and orchestra. Dorothea Rothfuchs, who has played in the orchestra for four years, plays the violin, Ruth Pierce plays the flute in the band and orchestra. Jane Habicht plays the cello in the orchestra. John Strayer plays the clarinet and saxophone in the band and orchestra, Philip Hanlin, the trumpet in both organizations. Charlotte Arnold played in the band in the first year and the last two years in the band and orchestra.

All of these people play in the ensemble, an organization which is a sort of super-orchestra. Needless to say, they all hold or help hold the reins of their respective divisions of instruments.

This group of people have played at the band festivals held at the different cities. The band plays "at home" except where the orchestra is better suited for the occasion. The orchestra plays at all the Junior and Senior plays.

Clubs

By Florence Franklin and Dorothy Holmes

Latin Club

The Latin club was organized in October 1928, with the class of '29 as its charter members. The meetings were held bi-monthly, in place of the regular recitation period. These meetings were given in the form of a party, with its chief diversion the study of the lives and customs of the ancient Romans.

Special Recognition

School and scholarship are practically synonymous terms. In each school there is generally a small group that is worthy of commendation by both faculty and community as well as by their fellow students. This recognition this year has fallen upon the following students. A scholastic rating of the upper sixth of the graduating class reveals that unusual work has been done by each of the following students:

1. Jane Habicht.
2. Teresa White.
3. John Strayer.
4. Philip Hanlin.
5. Pauline VanEvery.
6. Marjorie Sands.
7. Dorothy Babcock.
8. Charlotte Arnold.

First honors go to Jane Habicht, who has had an unusual record of all A's through her four years of high school work. Jane has taken an active part in all school and class activities and her school record is indicative of the zeal and thoroughness with which she enters into all of her endeavors.

Teresa White gains second honors with an enviable scholastic record. In addition to her many school activities she has devoted much time to her chosen profession, dancing, and this has been keenly appreciated by both the school and the community.

Trophy Winners

Phil Hanlin and John Strayer are winners of the two trophies awarded annually to outstanding members of the graduating class, the former having been selected by the faculty as the best all-around student and the latter having been named "best citizen" by the vote of his fellow-students.

In the selection of Phil Hanlin by the faculty the following points were taken into consideration:

- a. Vote based on entire four year record.
 - b. All points to be determined by the faculty save popularity, which was voted by the students, with second and third places designated.
 - c. Selection based on scholarship, citizenship, athletics, music, debate, drama, class honors, club memberships, popularity, general considerations.
- In the selection of John Strayer as "best citizen," the student body was asked to base its ballot on the following considerations:
- a. Scholarship.
 - b. Achievement.
 - c. Citizenship: (1) loyalty; (2) school spirit; (3) willingness to co-operate; (4) popularity; (5) reputation and character.

tunate enough to have an average of "B" for two months were honored by the well known process of initiation.

Our first and only public appearance was made on "Booster Day" in 1928, when the Latin club was represented in the parade by a banner, a replica of the club pin.

Miss Shriver has proven a very good "bouncer." The club officers were: Jane Habicht, president; Philip Hanlin, vice president; Teresa White, secretary and treasurer.

This club is still represented by five of its "brilliant" character members, Mabel Meyers, Jane Habicht, John Strayer, Dorothy Babcock and Teresa White constituting it.

Ag Club

By Clarence Huff

The past four years have seen Buchanan high school Agrarian club develop beyond any previous expansion. Membership has increased until now the organization boasts a total of 34 members. The constitution was revised in 1928.

There were no activities for the next two years, with the exception of basketball and indoor among the members. This type of social hour every month has encouraged the membership. In spite of the depression, the Ag club displayed a county Ag Fair in 1930 and also entertained the Dowagiac Ag club. The prizes were silver cups, ribbons and merchandise. Also last year, 1931, the club put on an Ag Fair, with entries from almost all the neighboring towns. The speaker of the fair was Mr. Walpole, from Michigan state college.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee club has continued to thrive through this great depression whether anything else has or not. It consists of 35 members, 15 of them being seniors. During the first three years of our "one school" we were under the sponsorship of Miss Theo Olson, and during the past year under that of Miss Betty Crawford.

In this course we have attended county festivals held in Benton Harbor, Bridgman, Niles and Waterliet.

The officers of this year consisted of all seniors. They are: Florence Franklin, president; Marie Hess, vice president; Zeldia Frank, secretary and treasurer; Frances Sutphen and Thessel Mitchell, librarians.

This club has closed another successful year with giving a couple of concerts on Sunday afternoon with the accompaniment of R. R. Robinson's orchestra. It has also given, with the boys' glee club, a minstrel show.

Shortband Club

The Shortband club or commonly known as the Commercial club under the leadership of Miss Chandler was organized with Marjorie Sands, president; Doris Bromley, vice president; Mildred Bachman, secretary; and Dorothea Rothfuchs, treasurer.

The aim of this club was to arrange its meetings on the same day as those of the Velmorian Literary society, held on the last Friday of the month, making Thursday night a so-called "break" for those lucky (?) enough to be in both societies.

Dorothea Rothfuchs was honored with a silver pin, the award presented for the best copy of O. C. A. (Order of Gregg Artists) article.

The rest of us put up (and were more than satisfied) with certificates—life-savers that cost $10.

THANKS!

The officers elected the first of the year and who have proved to be a wise selection are: Jane Habicht, president; Ruth Pierce, vice president; Pauline VanEvery, secretary; Nina Nelson, treasurer; Phil Hanlin, literary critic.

The Boys' Glee club cannot count its members in large numbers, but its achievements are many and varied. Besides their delightful selections rendered in General Assembly, they have sung elsewhere.

The senior boys who have "carried on" are: John Strayer, Phil Hanlin, Vincent DeNardo, Alan Stevenson, Lloyd Kolhoff, Dwight Marks, Jimmy Eisenhart, Robert Montgomery.

Usher Club

The Usher club made its first appearance in 1926. Since that time the club has gained much popularity.

Under the helpful guidance of Miss Chandler, we hope we have done our bit toward making the various entertainments a success.

Mr. Brown made an active campaign for this office when he was the Democratic nominee two years ago, when his party's prospects for electing the ticket were not particularly encouraging in Berrien county, and he states that if he should be nominated as the Democratic candidate this year he will endeavor to still further extend his acquaintance with the voters of the county and afford them every opportunity to judge of his qualifications and fitness for the office of county treasurer.

State Department

Investigates Evasion

Gasoline Taxes

The department of state's investigation into alleged evasion of payment of gasoline taxes, is to extend to all parts of the state, it was announced recently by George L. Clark, director of the gas tax division.

As a result of recent activities, two men are serving jail sentences in the Ingham county jail, and five warrants have been issued in Saginaw. In cases where department investigators find evidence of possible evasion of the tax payment or where gasoline is sold without proper licenses, the department holds hearings before asking for warrants.

Hearings are to be continued in Detroit during the coming week and it is likely that hearings will be necessary in Grand Rapids and several other cities.

Agricultural Fact

It is not possible to grow all fruits and shrubs from seeds because where improvements have been made these qualities are not transmitted through the seed, but are perpetuated through the buds. Hence the necessity of using parts of the plant itself by budding, grafting and layering.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Seventh Day Adventist Sabbath School Saturday at 10 a. m.

Lesson study, "Christian Growth." The keynote: "The germination of the seed represents the beginning of spiritual life, and the development of the plant is a beautiful figure of Christ's growth. As in nature, so in grace, there can be no life without growth. The plant must either grow or die. As its growth is silent and imperceptible, but continuous, so is the development of the Christian life. At every stage of development our life may be perfect; yet if God's purpose for us is fulfilled, there will be continual advancement. Sanctification is the work of a life time. As our opportunities multiply, our experience will enlarge, and our knowledge increases. We shall become strong to bear responsibility and our maturity will be in proportion to our privileges.

The Sandwich Islands The Hawaiian Islands were called the Sandwich Islands by the discoverer, Captain Cook, who found them in 1778 and named them for the earl of Sandwich, first lord of the admiralty. They were quite generally known as the Sandwich Islands until on closer acquaintance with Hawaiian people, the rest of the world came to adopt their name for their land.

W. C. T. U. Notes

For a week the pro-liquor organization known as the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform has solicited members in hotel lobbies and railroad stations. When it comes to qualifications for membership, the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform is quite liberal. Men are asked to sign the names of their women friends just to swell the total. Mrs. Charles Sabin, president of the organization has always said that membership in her organization is easy—one doesn't even have to be a woman to join this woman's organization.

As a famous B and O train pulled into its station in Chicago, the engineer walked by the booth of the pro-liquor group and asked: "You're in favor of booze, eh? Would you like to ride on my train if I was drunk, or even if you knew I had been drinking?"

And at a hotel pro-liquor booth, a woman stopped to ask why anyone should want to repeal the 18th amendment.

"Do you really want to flood the country with liquor?"

"Oh no," was the reply, "but we really must get rid of these awful gangsters."

"And how do you propose to get rid of law-breaking after the 15th amendment is repealed?"

"Oh, that's so easy. We're going to continue this organization, and stop crime by working on the criminals' hearts and redeem them by moral suasion."

There you have it all.

Old Organization

The title of Salvation army was given in 1878 to the international religious and social welfare organization founded by William Booth in London, England, in 1865, under the name of East London mission, which later was changed to the Christian mission. Work in the United States was commenced in March, 1880, at the Battery, in New York.

Healthful Humidity

Humidity in houses should be from 30 to 50 per cent, but in most houses it is probably 20 per cent or lower—too dry for health. The dryer the air the more difficult it is to heat a house, as moisture in the air carries and retains heat. If most forms freely on the inside of the glass, there is probably enough humidity. If there is no sign of frost, the air is too dry.

Fred Armstrong is Candidate for County Sheriff

Petitions are Circulated This Week; Has Served as Register Deeds for Past Six Years.

Fred Armstrong, deputy commissioner of the Michigan state police force, today formally announced his candidacy for the nomination for sheriff on the republican ticket.

Armstrong's entry into the Berrien political arena of 1932 comes after 15 years of activity in state police work.

"I've decided to run after canvassing sentiment," said Armstrong today. And the second in command of Michigan's state troopers smiled the smile that became widely known years ago when, as a youngster, he was playing high school football and helping Benton Harbor to win state high school football championships.

Late in the winter Armstrong began to be talked as a candidate for sheriff. For several weeks he has been a tentative candidate and today, in announcing his candidacy, he declared he had received so many offers of support that he is confident he can cop the nomination.

Armstrong has been in police work for many years. Before he joined the state force he was a member of the Benton Harbor police department. Then he went to Lansing as a member of the state fire marshal's office. He made a record in investigating and prosecuting arson cases and in this work got his first promotion with the Michigan state police.

Later he became assistant chief of the secret service division of the state police and from this post he became chief of this division with the rank of captain. A year ago last January 1 he became assistant commissioner under Oscar G. Olander, so soon he now holds the rank of captain.

Armstrong has figured in a large number of the big cases in which the Michigan state police have figured during the past 10 years. One of the biggest arson cases he figured in, and which he eventually cleaned up, was that involving the burning of 35 cottages at Macatawa park. He was in charge of the investigation which resulted in the arrest of the sheriff of Jackson county, the chief deputy undersheriff and 17 other deputies. This was one of the most sensational conspiracy cases in Michigan's history.

Armstrong ran down and captured the leaders of a fake medical ring in Detroit which had offices over the United States. He uncovered another Detroit gang of extortionists, with which, it was said, Fred Burke was connected. A good deal of his work for several years has been done in Detroit, where he has sent to prison a large number of murderers, kidnapers and extortionists.

Armstrong headed the chase which the Michigan state police made for months in its effort to pick up Fred Burke, the notorious gangster and killer who is now serving a life sentence at Marquette for the wanton murder of Policeman Charles Skelly of St. Joseph.

Another big case with which Armstrong was connected, and on which he did much work, was the slaying of Jerry Buckley, the Detroit radio announcer.

Born, reared and schooled in Benton Harbor, Armstrong has always made his home here and although his work takes him all over the state, and sometimes to many places in the country, he spends as much time as he can with his family here. He married Miss Anna Schairer, a daughter of the late John Schairer, one of the prominent and earlier day residents of the city. They have several children.

Vigorous of mind and body, still a young man, being in his mid-40's, with a police experience that is almost uncommon, Armstrong enters the sheriff's race as a police official and is on his police record.

"I'm a police officer, by profession and it is as a police officer that I desire to offer my services to the voters of Berrien in this race," said the deputy commissioner today. "If I am nominated and elected I will reorganize the office with a view to making it just as effective as my experience and ability will permit. And I want to thank all those who have already promised me their support."

Sudan Grass Makes Good Pasture Crop

Sudan grass, which is eaten readily by cattle and sheep, will furnish pasture from early July until the first heavy frost, according to the farm crops department at Michigan State College, which has conducted pasture experiments for several years with this grass.

Sudan grass pasture, in the college experiments last year, furnished forage enough to maintain one cow per acre for eight weeks. These tests were conducted on the Kellogg farm, Augusta, where the conditions of fertility and drought were bad. Many Michigan farmers have reported Sudan grass pasture which carried two and three cows or the equivalent number of sheep per acre.

This pasture grass should be seeded during the last half of May. A grain drill set to sow two pecks of wheat per acre will distribute about 25 pounds of Sudan grass seed per acre, which is the correct rate of seeding.

The grass will be ready for pasture within five or six weeks and will then furnish continuous grazing until frosts. Freezing injures Sudan grass and a poisonous substance sometimes develops in the plant so it is safer not to pasture the grass after the first heavy frost.

Dairy cattle have maintained as heavy milk flow on Sudan grass, in the college tests, as on good sweet clover or bluegrass pasture.

Lost 20 Lbs. of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the safe, harmless way to reduce as tons of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drugstore—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.
