

NEW OFFICERS TAKE CHARGE STATE, CO.

Now Here's the Proposition

BALLAD OF LEGAL LAGER
By Haws
It was a dry Republican,
A thirsty Democrat
Who went into a liquor shop
To rush the flowing can.

To hoist a can of foaming hops
Of legalized per cent
As per the late amendment of
The Great Experiment

Not into a bling pig they went Nor a near-sighter tiger,
But an official liquor shop
That served the legal lagger.

It was no unofficial dive
That served illegal brew
But merely harmless two-point
five,

Or maybe three-point-two.
Alas, they both imbibed so much,
Before they left the joint,
Percentage mattered not—they were

Too drunk to see the point.

Uncle
Hank
of Hills
Corners.
Saz:

If some of these young folks
that's gattin' such a soft 'rearin' these days should get a good of fashioned raisin' instead it might be the better for 'em.

It don't seem 's' right that a guy with the name of 'Roosevelt' should be Moly-coddled by a professor named Raymond Moley.

The Forgotten Man
And now, friends, neighbors,
fellow citizens of Berrien county,
in this dark hour of national stress and danger, when only the bravest dare hope, when past happiness seems but a mockery of present pain, let us stand a moment, erect and with bared heads, to pay a silent tribute to those forgotten heroes, unwept, unhonored and unsung—the guys who kicked in two bucks apiece to buy Charlie Miller a diamond-studded star and then never got a lousy deputyship.

Wuxtry! Wuxtry!
Mort Finds His Pants
Mort Snyder received the trousers
Tuesday which he had lost the preceding Sunday.

All Out for Dry Trial
You'll want to be at the mock trial at the Evangelical church next Monday night. An all-star cast from the churches of the city will take part. Mrs. Lura Schram will be the charming witness whose husband is killed when another man knocks him down and his head strikes a post breaking his neck. But it wasn't really Enos. In that case the post would be broken.

HOME DAMAGED WHEN KEROSENE STOVE EXPLODES

Dalrymple Residence Interior is Ruined by Fire; Blaze
at Baldwin Residence.

The residence occupied by Leo Dalrymple and family and owned by Clarence Spaulding opposite the St. Joe Valley Creamery was damaged Monday by flames which were believed to have originated in the explosion of a kerosene stove.

No one was in the house at the time. Mr. Dalrymple having gone out to work on the motor of his car. He had been busy only a few minutes when he raised up and looked at the house to find the kitchen in flames.

The fire department was summoned and extinguished the flames in time to save the structure but the entire interior was badly damaged. It will be necessary to redecorate entirely and to rebuild the kitchen.

The department was called out again at 5:30 p. m. yesterday for a chimney fire at the home of Bert Baldwin on North Portage.
No damage was reported.

Block Brucker Appointments
The controversy between Gov.
Brucker and the state senate over confirmation of executive appointments ended last week when a senate committee refused to approve the appointments.

Before the committee went into session Gov. Brucker submitted a list of 29 new appointments, 19 of which were made by former Gov. Green in 1929. The governor had previously submitted 16

Legislation Enacted Authorizing the Issuance of $20,- 000,000 City Bonds.

The special session of the Republican legislature ended in a political setto at Lansing Thursday.

Having enacted a measure authorizing the city of Detroit to borrow $20,000,000 and avert default of municipal obligations, administration leaders made a last effort in the senate to force confirmation of executive appointments.
This failed, and a number of appointees to boards and commissions, named by Gov. Brucker and former Gov. Fred W. Green, may be replaced at the pleasure of Governor William A. Comstock.

The house, once the Detroit bill had sailed through to enactment, moved to adjourn. The senate failed to follow suit when Senators Norman B. Horton, Herbert Orr and other administration whips sought ways to push the confirmations through. Previously the committee on executive business had decided to let the appointments die without bringing them to the floor. Senators Horton and Orr called a hurried conference of the Republican members to see whether a majority would agree to take the appointments from the committee and bring them to a vote.

The caucus declined to order such drastic action. During the deliberations, Senator Chester M.
Howell of Saginaw, committee chairman, marched from the room and was announced he was "going home."

The battle over confirmation of appointments grew out of the belief of some Republican members that it would be "poor sportsmanship" to confirm old appointments at this time.

passed away Thursday, Dec. 29th,
at the home of his daughter, Mrs.
F. S. Hutchins at Jacksonville, Fla., following an illness of several months. Mr. Hallock was born July 8th, 1854, at Arcade, N. Y.
On March 6, 1873, he was united in marriage to Ellen G. Harding, who preceded him in death on December 22, 1930. Mr. Hallock is survived by his daughter, Mrs.
F. S. Hutchins of Jacksonville, and falo, N. Y., four grandchildren, othy Ellen Hallock of Buffalo, N.

Bronxville, N. Y., and two great grandchildren, Elliot H. and Dean
S. Johnson of Bronxville.

Mead of Buchanan are cousins

be sent to Buchanan at a later date for interment.

BEET CULTURE WOULD HELP SOLVE RELIEF PROBLEM

Unemployed Put at Work in Fields at Hand Labor, Says Warren Hagley
of Galien.

A considerable sugar beet acreage in this vicinity now would be of material aid in solving the unemployment problem of this district, in the opinion of Warren Hagley, former field superintendent for the Galien district of the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Company, who was a visitor in Buchanan yesterday.

The Lansing plant of that company was re-opened last year thru the efforts of business men who promoted a "Buy Michigan Sugar" campaign and used the unemployed for the hand labor in the fields. Where help was hired, $16 per acre was paid for the care of beets yielding 10 tons, with an additional or subtraction from that price for each ton above or below that amount.

The farmers of Michigan who raised beets this year are averaging $6.25 per ton on the fifty-fifty contract basis, Hagley stated.
The farmer gets fifty per cent of the value of the sugar, pulp and masses, paying the transporter the balance of the beets to the factory from his half.

No beets have been raised in the Galien district since the Holland-St. Louis company went into the hands of the receiver in 1930, and the beet raisers have not as yet received all their pay. The payment sum has been finally fixed at $7 per ton, of which the growers received an installment of five per cent this week, making a total of 75 per cent of the $7 received at this date.

Future production of beets in this vicinity depends on the opening of a factory within convenient shipping distance, Hagley stated. The beets raised at Galien were formerly shipped to Holland. An effort is being made to re-open the factory, and in the event that the attempt succeeds, the crop may again be cultivated at Galien in 1933.

Farmers to Meet Here Monday to Plan Legislation

Farmers of the Buchanan district will meet here next Monday evening at a place still to be decided for the purpose of considering possible legislation to be introduced at the next session of the state legislature in the interests of agriculture.

This meeting will be a continuation of a meeting held at the Methodist church last Friday night, which was attended by representatives of the co-operatives of Buchanan, Cassopolis and Three Oaks.

Interest has been stirred in behalf of legislation protecting cooperative activities by the report that the newly appointed State Commissioner of Agriculture
Metzger is hostile to such work.

Rastaetter and Pierce Win in

tory scored by Rastaetter and his right arm in two places Tuesday when he fell in the high school gymnasium.

LOCAL CHURCHES WILL CO-OPERATE IN DRY PROGRAM

To Present Mock Murder
Trial at the Evangelical Church Next Monday Evening.

The churches of Buchanan will co-operate next Monday evening in the presentation of a mock trial,
"Who Killed Earl Wright," to be given at the Evangelical church under the auspices of the local Women's Christian Temperance Union as a part of a campaign in temperance education being sponsored by the Anti-Saloon League.

The theme of the play is said to reproduce an actual occurrence in Iowa, in which two young men of good family quarreled while drunk and one knocked the other down, so that his head struck a post and his neck was broken.

The defense attorney attempts to prove that the killing was entirely accidental and to mitigate it by the fact that both principals were drunk. It is finally decided by the jury that both boys are to be hanged, that the bootlegger who furnished the liquor is to blame, that the law enforcement agencies are to blame, and that society in general is to blame for permitting the circumstances under which the crime occurred.

The cast will be as follows:
The Judge, Ed Ashbrook.
The District Attorney, Paul DeWitt, Sr.
The Defendant, Paul DeWitt, Jr.
Defendant's Mother, Mrs. W. F.
Boettcher.

Keeper of place where killing takes place, Mrs. L. R. Bradley.
Bootlegger, Herbert Ryan, Sr.
Coroner, Arthur Johnston.
Bailiff, A. H. Berry.

Mrs. Earl Wright (wife of the victim), Mrs. Enos Schram.
Court Reporter, Ruth French.

Two attorneys for defense and prosecution, still to be selected.

The jury: Claude Small, Roy Wynn, A. H. Hiller, Rev. W. F.
Boettcher, William Leiter, Arthur Knoblauch, Mrs. Thomas McCormick, Mrs. Henry Blodgett, Mrs.
A. H. Berry, Mrs. W. B. Rymear,
Mrs. John Rehm and Mrs.
Lena Leiter.

There will be no admission charge but a free will offering will be taken.

Edwin Alliger,
Former Resident,
Dies at Dowagiac

The remains of Edwin E. Alliger, a resident in Buchanan and a telegrapher at the local Michigan Central station over thirty years ago, were buried beside the grave of his first wife, the former Emma Miles, here Wednesday afternoon. Since leaving this city he had made his home in Dowagiac and the following is taken from the Dowagiac Daily News of Tuesday, Jan. 3:

Edwin E. Alliger, 70, for the past thirty-three years closely connected with the business, church and social life of Dowagiac, died Sunday in his home here after many months of ill health.

Mr. Alliger was born in Waterloo, New York, in 1862, a son of Elisba and Millie M. Alliger. Thirty-three years ago he came here as telegraph operator and agent for the Michigan Central railroad. Upon retiring from this, he successfully operated a grocery store for a number of years, and later he built the City laundry building on Commercial street which was torn down recently to make way for the new Masonic building. Selling the laundry business, he engaged in the sale of insurance, and two years ago was elected a justice of the peace, which office he held at the time of his death, together with the office of secretary-treasurer of the Dowagiac Credit Association.

An honor recently conferred upon Mr. Alliger was the presentation of a life membership in the Masonic lodge to which he had belonged for many years.

He is survived by his widow,
Mrs. Libby Frost Alliger, and one son, Will Alliger, of Houston, Tex.

Funeral services were held in the home Wednesday afternoon,

Federated church of which Mr. Al-liger was an active member, conducting the services, with the assistance of Rev. H. D. Skinner of White Pigeon. Burial was made in the Buchanan cemetery.

SEASON OF SUMMER IN WINTER ENDS

Pussy Willow Catkins Bloom
During Christmas Holidays
Here; Following Record Cold.

A holiday season of unprecedented mildness was terminated New Years morning by temperatures of 10 above zero, after ten days of thawing weather had melted the ice in all lakes and streams in the district.

December was a month of marked contrast here, the first three weeks experiencing temperatures that ranged constantly near freezing, with no thawing during that period. On account of the steady cold, ice froze to considerable thickness. At Deh's Island on the St. Joe river that stream was reported to be frozen over for the first time in years, and woodcutters were hauling two cords at a time across the stream on sleds, propelled by hand. Within a week the warm weather and rains had entirely cut the ice from the channel.

Buchanan-Dowagiac Game at Stove City Fri. Eve

LOCAL TEAM
POINTED FOR 4TH VICTORY

Bucaners Have Won Ten out of Twelve Starts in Past From Dowagiac; "B" Team to Play.

The local "Buck" quintet, with three victories in as many starts, will trip lightly over to Dowagiac tomorrow night and endeavor to increase their winning streak to four games. So far this season they have taken Berrien Springs, Niles and Benton Harbor into camp and they have every hope of doing the same to Dowagiac. The chiefs have a splendid team this year, having practically all of last year's team back. This veteran quintet should cause the locals no end of trouble. In the last six years Buchanan has won ten out of twelve games of basketball with Dowagiac. This year may be the turning of a new leaf for Dowagiac and they may take the maroon coat.

The Buchanan team, not having played last week, should have lots of pep and show it in this game and consequently outplay the chiefs. The large crowd of local rooters who have been following the team on its out of town engagements, is urged to go to Dowagiac and give the boys a little encouragement. Glenn Jesse and Bob Ellis looked much better in the Benton Harbor game two weeks ago. Jesse let down on his consistent over-zealous guarding and played the entire game.

The Buchanan "B" team under Assistant coach Donald Fette, is apt to see radical changes if some of the players don't start playing ball. There are plenty of eager freshmen only to glad of a chance to get in the game and play ball and they will play ball, too. These second team players will most likely be next year's varsity and it is up to them to furnish the ability they have and win one or two ball games a season. See if they click at Dowagiac tomorrow night.

School Slants

Since every one has been so good lately, our school slants column has sort of drifted away. Maybe it's just because Christmas was coming, but when everybody gets back all rested up after their vacation there will be plenty of news.

The Velmorian Literary club had a Christmas party during their meeting. Christmas wishes were expressed as an answer to roll call. Charlie Blake wanted some Tinker Toys; Wayne Smith wished for a tricycle; Dee Weaver wanted a Rolls Royce. Alene Riley made it emphatically known that all she desired for Christmas was "peace." Have you heard of the "Gypsies"? They are our new traveling band. This band consists of eighteen pieces selected from the big band to follow up all the basketball games and support the team. By all means—hear them!

"How things do get around. Every one is taking cough drops to quiet that itching throat. Funny how one little cold can cause so many catastrophes."

The seniors all heaved a sigh of relief after Thursday. They have been presenting one act plays in English. The main trouble seemed to be that they didn't have time to learn parts, and some of them showed a marked ability in extemporaneous speaking. One of the high points in those plays, I hear, was when Howard Currier made love to Doris Campbell.

Seems natural to see all of last year's seniors running around our halls again. When college lets out they come back to see how the school is getting along without them.

Senior pictures arrived Thursday. We didn't realize what a handsome bunch of seniors we had until then. Some of them aren't so bad at that!

We should start a new "romance column" but perhaps there would be some objections. As I stated at the first of the year—this school needs a balcony.

Seems that some of the seniors have been taking to flying leaps. Dick Morris was seen flying into the air and then skidding along on his stomach last Friday, and Marjorie Weaver came to school all stiff after attempting some acrobatics in the air the night before. Seniors certainly get air-minded in their old age.

Speaking of air-minded—has anyone heard Dick Schram speak of an aeroplane since the Junior play?

Bob Gladwin is certainly getting ritz! He's sporting the prettiest wave in his hair. Looks natural and seems really well-carried for.

Louise Howe is back again after a siege of illness. She's prettier than ever and we're all glad to see her back again. Especially Freddie R.

Harry Dumbolt, what is this strange power you possess?

Vivianne Wissler has been ill for some time. Dick Morris and Alene miss her. Seems that they have a terribly good time on the way to school every noon and now the party just isn't complete.

Most of the home rooms had a Christmas party Thursday. Seems that everyone wanted the present that Freddie Port got. Doris got a nifty one, too.

BELIEVE IT OR LEAVE IT
Say, the seniors dug up the most useful articles to present to each other for Christmas presents. Someone gave Mrs. Dunbar a cook book—can you imagine that? Mr. Knoblauch got a hot water bottle, and Mr. Bradfield got the cutest little knife, fork, and spoon set! Charles Gripe got a little tin doll house. Joe Dunlap got a nursing bottle set and two of the fellows got cigars. Mr. Moore got a beautiful (it was once) scarf, and what do you think "Oleo" Bachman got?—now that'd be telling. "Butterball" and Doris should get together sometime! Hotcha!

A certain Buchananite in Pawating hospital, Niles, is being watched very closely by a certain senior girl. A fearful scene was enacted on the shoulder of a girl friend—but the situation will be relieved when this individual returns home.

John Nelson is sporting a beautiful wave in his hair. It might be natural, but how many of you think it is? The seniors (boys too) have a monopoly on the best waves. It is reported that Tom Marrs and Max Dietzler were besieged by no less than twenty-three persons the other day trying to find out the parlor (beauty salon?) where the work was done. Incidentally, the Christmas vacation gave many a poor hopeless more freedom and the result can be plainly seen on the craniums of many ambitious students.

Before vacation, everyone said he was going to put in most of his idle hours sleeping. By the looks of some of these tired eyes and yawns that are seen in the classrooms and the students sprawled over desks in the assembly sleeping, a great number of persons' plans must have gone haywire. These yawns and far-away looks might be from sheer boredom, but they look the same as those we saw on students' faces before vacation.

"Hey Scotty," someone yelled down the hall early this week. The person thus dubbed looked around with a pained expression in his eyes. No wonder! The individual so addressed was none other than "Pete" Donley. "Pete" is a staunch Irishman (if you don't believe it just ask him what he thinks of Notre Dame) and to be called "Scotty" pains him terribly. That nickname is one of long standing, as Daytonites will agree.

Who's Who

This week the juniors seem to be very popular for some reason. (Well, anyway, as everyone knows they are popular.) The first one on our list is Maxine Myers, who was born in Bridgman in 1916. She is fond of peaches and blondes. On inquiring what her favorite subject is she promptly answered, "Chemistry, of course." She likes to go sliding. From seeing Maxine lately you might think she is an old maid, for each evening one can find her sitting at home crocheting a rag rug. But, no, she's only 16.

Next we have a junior boy who is president of his class and who is captain of next year's football team. His name of course is Bill Frame. He states that he was born right here in Buchanan, in 1914. He likes everything but cooked turnips covered with whipped cream. Manual training is his favorite subject, and Bill confessed that his favorite pastime is Main Street. (Have you guessed it?) Bill has just learned to dance and likes it. He likes both blondes and brunettes. "Cheezie" is his password. It seems that a certain Cheese Kraft is his best friend.

Max Penwell was born in Flint, Michigan, in 1915. For some reason he loves to sleep and dream (about blues, blue eyes, of course). Max relishes cake and ice cream and can be skate! Here's a tip. He lives down by the river. It seems that Max specializes in Buchanan Milk-maids.

Lauren Jewell, a popular blonde who was born in Decatur, Michigan, likes blondes just like himself. He doesn't like the dance. His favorite expression is "Dawn Tawn" (notice the southern accent.) His favorite subject is English.

Faculty Facts

Mr. Hyink spent most of the Christmas vacation in Holland, Michigan, where his parents reside.

Mrs. Dunbar also went to her home in Three Oaks. Part of the time she entertained guests at her home.

Miss Shriver spent her vacation in Hudson, Michigan, visiting her parents.

Among the teachers absent before the holidays were: Miss Hanlin, Miss Rockenbach, Mrs. French and Miss Shriver.

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

Senior Home
Rooms Enjoy
Xmas Party

A Christmas party was held in the junior high assembly by the senior home rooms last Thursday, during home room period. Names were drawn previous to the time of the party and each member brought something from home to serve as a gift for the person whose name he held. A gay time was had by everyone at the party. Lyle "Butterball" Bachman acted as the Santa Claus, and everyone had to show his gift to the crowd upon receiving it. Consequently, everybody had a big laugh upon seeing some of the very peculiar gifts. Norman Barbour and Lauren Morse received the funny gifts—Norman Barbour got a nice big "Dutch Master" cigar and Lauren Morse opened his gift to find, to his surprise, a paper doll.

Student Slants

Have you heard: George Remington spends his spare time eating spaghetti; Billy Habicht is happy when eating sandwiches; Bob Strayer enjoys eating peach pickles; Lauren Morse is fond of the name Lois; Hope Kelley reminds "Sonny" Riley of Gretchen; "Stretch" Gladwin has little hope of receiving the senior cup (he was promised a 4 in journalism citizenship); Pete Donley slipped from the girl friend's porch the other night ("Howe" could he?); Dee Weaver can sing. He displayed his talent in Senior English.

Have you noticed: John Nelson's newly acquired wave? Peggy Merrifield's new bangs? Barbara Hamilton's heart shaped face? Mary Richter's bracelet bearing the emblems of a fraternity (incidentally, he's from Chicago)? Bruce Ernst's blue sweater matches his eyes?

If you see pink elephants don't get excited and rush to the doctor's office; you aren't seeing things. It's just another fad the senior girls have started. They wear pink, blue and white elephants on chains around their necks.

Upon inquiring about the bracelets Rosemary Thompson, Marie Post and Marjorie Weaver are always seen wearing, we discovered that the girls refuse to remove them no matter what the circumstance may be. One of the bracelets has been worn two years. Can it be the girls are superstitious?

Many familiar faces have been seen around the halls the last few weeks. Among them, John Strayer, Phil Hanlin, Charlotte Arnold, Maynard Post, Enid Reams and Roger Thompson. All are home for Christmas vacation from the various colleges they attend.

Marjorie Hamilton's "favorite saying" is "Am I silly?" Ted Lyons is heard to remark quite frequently, "These seniors!" Never mind, Ted, you'll soon grow up and be envied by the freshmen, too.

Largest Ball Room?

The ballroom in the royal palace in Madrid is said to be the largest in Europe and possibly the largest in the world.

Editorial

New Year's Resolutions
I've searched the encyclopedias high and low. I've even looked in the dictionary, but I can't find a single word about the origin, of New Year's Resolutions, not even "when" or "why". They just are and it looks as though they would continue to be.

What good are they? None that I can see except possibly that we get a few moments' amusement out of thinking them up. People make resolutions every year and immediately forget them. But then possibly that's the object, I mean to see how soon they can be forgotten.

Now, for instance, I make a resolution to get my journalism assignments everyone in on time, then then along comes an editorial to be written and I have no idea whatever to write it about. It's Thursday night after school; consequently Friday morning comes and I'm still miles away from an idea (yes, I'll admit that I've never had one in my whole life). But what the use of all this anyway? That's what's wrong with this so-called editorial!

Reporting Inquirer

What do you think of making New Year's Resolutions? New Year's resolutions, at least as far as I am concerned, are useless and worthless. If the resolutions that are made were kept it would be quite another thing, but they are not followed in the least. George Zachman.

I think that New Year's resolutions are O. K. if you only keep them; otherwise I think they're a lot of "bunk." Dorothy Vincent. They're all right if you have the will power to keep them. Personally, I find myself weakening about January 2nd, and by the time spring vacation comes around I've completely forgotten that I ever resolved to do more, keep my temper within bounds, etc. Marjorie Campbell.

"JALNA"

by MAZO DE LA ROCHE
Reviewed by MARJORIE WEAVER
"Jalna" is a book startling in the fact that it is so different from the average book one reads today. The book deals with one year in the lives of the people who live in "Jalna," a massive house built on the shores of Lake Ontario. Eleven people live within the walls of "Jalna." Eleven different personalities form the plot of the book. Love, hate, fear, and trouble of every description are interwoven in the queer and exciting circumstances which arise in the family.

Grandmother Whitelock, who is almost one hundred years old, down to nine-year-old Wake are described. Others in this peculiar family are: Meg, an old maid; Nicholas, a lover of music; Ernest, who "spends" his time reading Shakespeare; Piers, who loves to till the soil and see things grow; Pleasant, Piers' wife, who falls in love with Eden; the poet, Renny; the lover of horses who loves Alayne; Eden's wife; and Linch, a story class.

God fearing school boy.
You are missing an interesting book if you fail to read "Jalna" written by MAZO DE LA ROCHE.

Class Activities

Commercial Department
The bookkeeping class has been working on supplementary reading this week. Reports have been given on "Insurance," "The Budget," "Buying Property," "Telegrams," and "Cablegrams." Charts, outlines, and posters have been made to bring out the most important ideas on each subject. One of these has attracted more attention than all the others—especially from the boys. It represents graphically the statement "Women do 85 per cent of all the buying in this country."

Short speed tests have been given in beginning typing classes with the following persons holding records for speed and accuracy: Maxine Meyers, George Yurkovic, Marjorie Hamilton, Lucille Lightfoot, Robert Willard, and Alene Dodge. Russell Proud, Marion Mitchell, and Richard Koenigshoff have made outstanding improvement during the week.

English 10, 11, 12
Mrs. Dunbar has completed all of her courses in literature for the first semester. After vacation a review of grammar technique will be conducted, preparatory to the English Essentials test. All classes will take this test prior to the semester examination.

Eighth Grade English
"The Gift of the Magi" is being dramatized by Mrs. Walton's 8th grade English classes. Every pupil will have a part in the play.

Journalism
The journalism class, under the supervision of Miss Hanlin, has been studying how to write clear expositions, and doing some copy reading.

Members of the class gave reports on the following subjects: the Thursday before vacation: John Milton, the Fighting Poet; Percy Fitchelson, and "Swift Wings of the Still Stratosphere" by William Winstrom. These reports were given by Mary March and Robert Gladwin, respectively.

Science Department
After a week's vacation, the chemistry class has begun reviewing for the mid-semester exams.

The physics class, is studying heat, steam engines, and gasoline engines.

Mr. Moore's biology class is having an interesting week classifying plants and animals.

Shop News
Mr. Miller's shop classes have been making some very fine Christmas presents. Some of the articles that have been made are: book-ends, footstools, cabinets and ash trays.

The mechanical drawing classes are still working on their detail and assembly drawings.

History and Civics
Mrs. Whitman's United States history class has completed the study of President Harrison and Cleveland's administration. They are also reviewing the reforms advocated by Grover Cleveland.

The citizenship class has been discussing the students' own qualifications for work after graduation.

Mrs. Whitman's Home Room
Mrs. Whitman's home room had a party Thursday afternoon, December 22.

The home room consists of sophomores. Each person brought something for refreshments, mainly apples, popcorn balls, and home made candy.

Mr. Knoblauch's Classes
The debating team was unable to enjoy the pleasure of a delightful vacation because of preparations for the debate with Grand Rapids Union High, which will be held January 13.

Orations were first on the program, after vacation, in the speech class.

The production and marketing of field beans has occupied the attention of the sophomore agricultural class.

The class in animal husbandry has been studying the housing of farm animals, or Unit III.

Mrs. Weaver's Classes
Bank discount and fire insurance were the objects of Mrs. Weaver's commercial arithmetic class. Another topic of importance was profit and loss.

The buying of lumber was the problem that occupied the eighth grade arithmetic classes. Volumes of cylinder have also drawn their attention.

Home Economics
All of the home economics classes have been making some of the many different kinds of candy.

The Home Economics Club has furnished three baskets to be given to some of the needy families at this time.

Modern Woodmen of America to Celebrate
Golden Anniversary

Because of the thousands upon thousands of human lives with which it has made contacts of the sort which have stabilized the institution of the home, making financial resources immediately available to the widows and children of its deceased members, the passing of its fiftieth milestone on January 5, 1933, by Modern Woodmen of America, the world's largest fraternal insurance society, is regarded by multitudes of people throughout the United States and the Dominion of Canada as an event of great importance and significance.

The meaning of this golden anniversary becomes at once apparent when it is stated that this largest of all fraternal insurance societies with insurance reaching the tremendous aggregate of nearly one million dollars, estimated to be one-hundredth of the total insurance in force within the United States, has paid during the fifty years of its continuous existence, $35,000 death and disability claims amounting to more than $305,520,000. To this must be added not less than $3,000,000 for voluntary financial relief extended members and their families through local and general efforts and head campaign in times of flood, earthquake, fire and other calamities.

The official records of the society present vivid contrasts and they attest its remarkable growth. For example, by the end of 1884 there was a total membership of only 1272, distributed among seventy-six camps. Today the camps of the society number nearly twelve thousand. The society looks back upon an uninterrupted career, in the course of which, from humble beginnings, it has built up for itself a reputation for stability, soundness, and safety, that in no small degree is responsible for the confidence reposed in it for many long years, as well as for its unprecedented growth.

One way of realizing the time that has passed since the society began issuing insurance certificates is to recall the fact that it started in business when Chester A. Arthur occupied the presidential office as the successor of the lamented James A. Garfield who had been stricken down by the hand of an assassin. Through the administrations of Presidents Cleveland, Harrison, McKinley, Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover, Modern Woodmen of America has successfully pursued its way.

The institution which, in the town of Lyons, Iowa, back in 1883, began its existence with but twenty-one charter members, and which originally operated in only six states, and in a period which antedated the motor age, and the era of the airplane, the dirigible, the radio, and the motion picture, has branched out like a great tree with a jurisdiction which covers the entire United States (except Massachusetts) and four provinces of the Dominion of Canada. Modern Woodmen of America has participated in the wonderful development experienced by the nation and has kept step with it as it entered the distinctive modern era. It has never failed the nation or its membership in times of direst emergency. It protected the homes of 1533 members who served in the war with Spain, and it paid $2,662,250 to the dependents of 2062 of its members who lost their lives in the World War, a conflict in which 59,938 Modern Woodmen engaged. Furthermore, it invested nearly $6,000,000 in Liberty and Victory bonds at that time of stress.

Chartered by the State of Illinois, the society located its national headquarters first at Fulton (Illinois), removing in 1897 to Rock Island. Surviving all the ups and downs of social, economic, industrial, and political events, it has grown to proportions undreamed of by its founders.

Items Taken from the Record of the Corresponding Week in 1922

Michigan, which has never furnished a president, now has an opportunity, but does not seem to be wildly enthusiastic over that opportunity. Henry Ford, an automobile manufacturer, of Detroit, is the person.

A. F. Howe, who has been very sick with an attack of bronchitis since last Wednesday, is better.

When George Wynn, aged eleven, was knocked unconscious while coasting down hill, his two little companions, Ralph Able and Don Fette, loaded the unconscious boy on a sled and started on a two mile trip to Buchanan to see a doctor. They had gone nearly a mile when they were met by Fred Miller, who stopped and picked them up, taking George to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wynn. He is now getting along satisfactorily.

Mrs. Jesse Viele entertained a group of ladies at bridge Friday afternoon.

Lee Mathie spent the first of the week in Chicago with relatives and friends.

Funeral services for Mrs. John C. Ketcham, wife of the congressman from this district, who died in Washington on Thursday evening, were held Sunday afternoon at Hastings.

Harold Wisner ran a needle in his knee and underwent an operation at Clark hospital Friday afternoon. He was playing on the floor, and the needle penetrated the joint, taking with it some black thread. It was necessary to make quite an incision, and the boy will be unable to get about for a month, it is expected.

ic, industrial, and political events, it has grown to proportions undreamed of by its founders.

One of the society's greatest accomplishments was the establishment of a tuberculosis sanatorium for its members at Woodmen, Colorado, where victims of this dread disease receive free care and treatment, in a plant that is valued at approximately $2,000,000. One of the buildings of this magnificent institution is dedicated to the Modern Woodmen who laid down their lives in the World War. Thousands of healed patients testify to the worth of the sanatorium.

The strength and safety of Modern Woodmen of America certificates of insurance is attested by the fact that since its organization fifty years ago the society has never failed to make good on every certificate that had the status of a legal claim. Its permanent rate system has been endorsed by leading actuaries and state insurance departments, and these authorities have pronounced it to be sound, safe, and solvent. The society took action in 1920 to admit women to membership on the same terms as men, offering insurance ranging from $500 to $10,000, and in that year also established its junior department for children under 16. Thus, whole family protection is offered. Retaining those fraternal features which have always distinguished it, the society offers life insurance inclusive of every worth-while modern and up-to-date feature.

The Foresters, a semi-military body, function within the society and its local camps, and they make strong appeal to thousands of men and women who assemble in regional encampments. Their skill in drill has won the praise of military experts.

At the administrative headquarters in Rock Island, Illinois, The Modern Woodman, the society's monthly official magazine, is housed in a publication building erected in 1908, where it is printed and mailed to the hundreds of thousands of homes of its members.

Deeply thankful that it rounds its fiftieth year better equipped than ever to carry on its mission, Modern Woodmen of America greatly appreciates the many felicitations extended in connection with this notable anniversary. It wants its friends to know that it covets the privilege of continuing to serve the great cause to which it has been consecrated since its foundation, the protection and preservation of the home and the practice of genuine fraternity.

Sugar and molasses are the cheapest sweets and are excellent sources of energy. Molasses also supplies iron and other minerals. Honey and maple syrup are also valuable sweets if they can be produced at home.

Just enough water in the pan to cover the bottom of it, will allow squash to be baked without drying out. The small amount of water helps to steam the squash, so that it is soft throughout.

There need be no worry concerning food cooked in aluminum utensils. The most carefully controlled studies have shown that but an insignificant amount is dissolved during cooking and that this amount is not absorbed by the body.

Group pieces of furniture together. Make a reading group by placing a chair beside a table and a lamp. Do not have single pieces of furniture scattered about the room, bring the scattered pieces together into useful groups. Place a chair or stool in front of the radio. Arrange the sewing chair near the mending equipment, making sure that there is good lighting for this group.

If you have a bottle that must be opened and the bottle opener has disappeared, insert a knife on either side of the cork, grasp the two knives firmly as though they were one, and pull forward, turning them as you do. The pressure will remove the cork.

Wheels Hypnotize Girl
Wheels had such an influence over a girl in Sydney, N. S. W., that they lured her to death under a train. Such was the testimony at the inquest. Medical experts declare that the sight or sound of the train wheels exerted such an influence on the girl's mind that she fell in front of them without knowing what she was doing.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By Edson R. Waite
Shawnee, Oklahoma
Harmony can be wonderful in things for some cities.
Advertising a city is a business—not child's play.
People will go miles to get to a good, live city to trade.
No advertising gives as quick returns as newspaper advertising.
Business comes where it is invited and stays where it is well treated.

The city which does not seek something better than it now has is going to lose out.
A glance through the advertising columns of your newspaper enables you to tell in a few minutes all you want to know, and where to get the service or articles you may need.
Some cities are order takers; they take what comes to them. Other cities are order getters; they make up their mind what their city needs and then go after it until they get it.

I note in many Oklahoma papers, according to a statement by J. F. Owens, president of the Oklahoma city chamber of commerce, that a paved highway belt line circulating that city will be a reality in a few years. This should make other cities sit up and take notice. It is a good plan, as there is no question but the large cities must find ways of diverting through traffic from congested town streets to take proper care of the rapidly growing traffic over highways that are routed through cities.

Reading room, located in the church at Dewey avenue and Oak street, is open each Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.
"Sacrament" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 8.
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Luke 22:17,18): "And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves; For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God shall come."

Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 341): "If all who ever partook of the sacrament had really commemorated the sufferings of Jesus and drunk of his cup, they would have revolutionized the world. If all who seek his commemoration through material symbols will take up the cross, heal the sick, cast out evils, and preach Christ, or Truth, to the poor,—the receptive thought,—they will bring in the millennium."

Small Profits Make Farmers Study More

Decreased prices for farm products have apparently convinced many Michigan young men that thorough training in general and special farm industries is needed to offset the narrow margins of profit, according to the director of short courses at Michigan State College who points to the largest enrollment in short courses since 1922.

Those already enrolled have entered the 16 weeks course in general agriculture in which the students are given training in the production of field crops, dairy products, fruit and other lines of farm work. The college also has many courses which run for a day or a week, when training in only one subject is given.

Five of these special courses began January 3. Dairy production, dairy manufacture, agricultural engineering, poultry and fruit production are the subjects. Other courses are given later in the year. Michigan farmers who are interested in the production and marketing of seeds will be interested in the seed production courses which begin January 23 and continue for four days. The growing of seeds has been a profitable enterprise in this state but those who wish to share in these profits must use great care in growing and preparing the crop for market. Time tried methods of seed production are given in all kinds of crops taught in the short course. Part of the training is given by successful Michigan farmers who have been producing quality seeds for years.

Complete information about any of the short courses can be obtained from the Director of these courses at East Lansing.

Plain Fun Features Farm Week Program

Just plain enjoyment will be one of the chief occupations of visitors to the Michigan State campus during Farmers Week, Jan. 30 to Feb. 3, according to the committee which has prepared the program with the idea that farmers and their wives will be glad to forget business for a few hours each day while they take part in contests, listen to music, or engage in some other form of entertainment.

Two of the evening programs will go light on seriousness and delve deeply into the realms of fun. Two nights have been selected back in previous years a portion of the would-be audience has been unable to secure seats to watch the fun. Students, faculty, and outside talent are used in these programs.

Most of the College departments prepare special exhibits which are set up in the department buildings or in other places on the campus. These exhibits have educational value but they are also enjoyable. The engineering division always has an exhibit of some of the newest developments in electrical lines. The chemistry department gives some demonstrations of chemical reactions which are startling to those unfamiliar with the reactions of many common elements and compounds.

One of the features which has always been popular is the rifle shooting contest. This shoot is supervised by the military department which will furnish 22 calibre rifles and ammunition. The winner of the contest last year shot while lying on his back with his feet toward the target.

Unwise Laws Reduce State Chicory Crop

The production of chicory, a profitable farm industry which is almost entirely confined to Michigan, has suffered from restrictive legislative acts which apparently are unwarranted, according to the latest scientific discoveries of the merits of chicory when blended with coffee.

The use of chicory for this purpose goes back many years, and this plant is the only one of the many which have been tried that continues to be demanded by consumers. European countries use a large amount of chicory to blend with coffee and a part of the Michigan crop also goes to the southern states.

Chicory obtained its bad name and suffered from restrictive laws against its use because popular rumors attributed various types of illnesses and diseases to its use. Careful investigations made recently have disproved these rumors. Experiments made by the chemistry and home economics sections at Michigan State College show that a beverage made with chicory alone has no more effect on respiratory metabolism than an equal amount of clear water.

A report of these and other trials made to test the merits of chicory have been assembled in a bulletin by the farm crops department at Michigan State College, because this department believes that the acreage devoted to this crop could be profitably expanded if the popular misconceptions of chicory could be corrected and a wider market for the product created.

The bulletin, Extension Bulletin No. 127, will be sent to anyone requesting it from the bulletin clerk at the college.

May Add New Crop to Michigan List

A new pasture crop of special value on the lighter soils of the southern counties in Michigan possibly will be the result of plant breeding experiments by the U. S. department of agriculture and of field trials made by Michigan State College with an early strain of alfalfa.

Previous known strains of alfalfa would not mature north of the southern boundary of Michigan and the plant has been of little value in this state although it has furnished valuable pastures in states further south. The Michigan field trials with the new strain were made at the W. K. Kellogg farm at August.

Lespedeza is a legume in protein and is sometimes cut as a hay crop in southern states but its primary use is to furnish excellent pasture. The plant will grow on sour soils and grows well even on droughty soils.

Lespedeza is an annual and will have to be seeded each year except on fields where mature plants have produced enough seed to furnish a good stand for the next year. No seed of the new strain is available for distribution.

Further trials of the plant will be made by the farm crops department of Michigan State College. The department can estimate the value of the crop in this state only after further trials. Probably the plant will mature north of the south half of the state.

Famous Bust a Forgery

The famous British museum bust of Julius Caesar, the likeness of the Roman conqueror that has been reproduced in thousands of history books throughout the world, has been recognized as a forgery.

Based on Indian Legend
"What We Hear in Music," says the story of "By the Waters of Minnetonka," is based on an actual Indian theme. The song tells of the young lovers of the Sun and the Moon tribes, who loved each other against the tribal law and how, to escape, they fled together and sank into the lonely waters of a tranquil northern lake. There they were united forever, and the blue skies looked down and smiled upon their love.—Washington Star.
