

TO SELECT MISS BUCHANAN TONIGHT

Now Here's the Proposition

On Bearing Up Under Hard Times
Bt Haws
Beneath the bludgeonings of chance
There's very little squawk in France
The Englishman, without a quail
Envisages his fate all calm;
And Irish eyes can smile content.
In spite of bills and unpaid rent.
In Russia and her wide possessions,
They throw no fits about depres-
sions
The Scotchman and the stolid
Swede
Are stoic in the hour of need;
The swart Armenian and the Turk
Are happiest when out of work;
They raise no howl about hard times,
So travelers say, though short of dimes
They take "keep smiling" for their credo;
And do not bawl around like we do;
Which may sound valorous but the fact is—
They should be good, with all their practice!

be launched on her voyage thru Wonderland Saturday night at the dance to be given in honor of her and her local court by the Oriole Club at the Legion hall, beginning at 9 p. m.

The Oriole Athletic club, sponsors of the ball, have arranged the event to raise finances to assist Miss Buchanan in the ex-ance at St. Joseph and during the trip consequent to the festival.

The court of honor for Miss Buchanan will comprise all the entries competing in the selection

the hall at 9 p. m., announced with pomp and circumstance by loud speaker to broadcast the proceedings through the business section.

Robert Montgomery will be master of ceremonies for the oc-

Colleagues will play for the dan-also present some novelties in clever piano work. Miss Buchanan and all of the girls comprising

H. S. Bristol is Picked Up by S. B. Fertilizer Truck

H. S. Bristol, who makes patterns when patterns are made had a rather narrow escape Saturday when he was picked up by a South Bend truck gathering garbage and remnants for a fertilizer factory and almost disposed of. The South Bend truck was coasting northward down the South Oak Street hill when it ran across Mr. Bristol, who was proceeding across that thoroughfare on Smith street at a leisurely rate. In fact Mr. Bristol states that he stopped at the railway on Smith street just as he emerged from behind the Buchanan Lumber Co. sheds, but did not see the fertilizer truck coming from the south. The truck struck the front end of his car, turning it completely around and heading it back in the ditch on the west side of the street, while the truck itself crashed into a telephone pole on the east side. The drivers escaped with no injuries other than slight bruises. Bristol's car incurred a mashed running board, fenders, and a bent frame.
The truck was badly wrecked.

CIVIC ASSOC. LAYS PLANS FOR A CENTENNIAL

Committee Appointed and July 27-29 Inclusive Selected for Three Day Celebration.

A movement was formally launched at a meeting of the Buchanan Civic Association Monday night for a three-day Centennial celebration to be held here July 27 to 29 inclusive, for the proper observance of the 100th anniversary of the year when Russ McCoy, reputed founder of the city, came,
saw and staked out a sawmill site on the stream that bears his name.

In connection with the Centennial celebration, a Home Coming is planned which is to be properly heralded in order to divert to this place as many as possible of the native sons and daughters who may come to this part of the U.
S. to attend the Century of Progress Exhibition at Chicago.

As a preliminary organization to launch the movement the following committee was named:
A. P. Sprague, chairman; Cecil Eisenhart, Augusta Huebner, Dorothy Pretz, Phay Grafford, Rex Lamb, Fred Mead, Harley Raymond, Carl Longworth, Leighton E. LeCave and A. B. McClure.
The committee has already formed plans for a number of unique displays and innovations, detailed announcements of which will be made later. A program of sport events with suitable prizes is being considered, and entertainment plans drawn up to fill out three days and four nights of intensive celebration.

Correction

The Record regrets to state that the announcement of the engagement of Miss Charlotte Jes-chke to Major W. Haak of Springfield, Ill., in the issue of last week was incorrect. In connection with other newspapers, this paper is some extent at least at the mercy of so-called practical jokers whose perverted sense of humor leads them to palm off fake stories on unsuspecting editors. Social announcements are regularly received by this paper by mail and as a rule are used without question, since there is nothing on the face of them to indicate falsehood. The Record sincerely regrets that either of the persons mentioned were subjected to the embarrassment.

Berrien County News Review

Propose Birth Control as Welfare Relief Aid
Establishment of birth control clinics in Berrien county as a means of holding down welfare expenses was taken under consideration by the county board of supervisors last week in response to a plea made by leading physicians and welfare workers.

The board voted Friday afternoon that Chairman Theodore Katzbach of the county board of supervisors appoint a committee to inquire into the feasibility of disseminating such information.
Chief benefits it was pointed out, would accrue to the poorer and larger-sized families. This information would be furnished only by request.

"You prune your peach trees to obtain bigger and better fruit," stated one of the speakers, "Why not check your birthrate to have better, happier, and healthier families?"

GOV. COMSTOCK TO CLEAN HOUSE TO VACATE TEN THOUSAND JOBS FOR THE DESERVING DEMOCRATS

Will Complete Work in July
When Highway Commissioner and Supt. Public Instruction Take Office.

The long-delayed "housecleaning" of all moveable Republican employees of the state government was begun by Governor William Comstock Saturday, with the objective of 10,000 jobs for deserving Democrats in view.
Gov. Comstock served notice of the opening of his housecleaning by dismissing sixteen of the twenty members of the Board of Managers of Michigan state parks and by asking the remainder to resign, discharging Calvin A. Palmer, director of private employment agencies in Detroit, and Thorwald E. Thorsen, Upper Peninsula welfare director. Mrs. Mary Frank-hauser, state librarian, was notified that her salary will stop in spite of her refusal to resign.

It is anticipated that the housecleaning will be completed in July after Murray D. VanWagoner, the newly elected highway commissioner and Paul F. Voelker, new superintendent of public instruction, take office.

Among the state fair managers asked to resign was Ernest G. Lie-bold, secretary to Henry Ford. He and eleven others were appointed by former Governor Wilbur M.
Brucker, but their appointments were not confirmed by the Senate.
Brucker submitted these men with a list of forty other appointments to the Senate during the special session in December but the legislators refused to confirm the appointments, suspecting that the special session had been called for that purpose. Since they were not so confirmed, Gov. Comstock has authority to dismiss them.
The four appointments that were confirmed are those which the governor has asked to resign, and include Harry A. McDonald, Adolph Finsterwald, and James Werner, all of Detroit; and Isabella Kinch of Port Austin.

Among those dismissed was
Mr. Doris H. Stockman, East Lansing.

five principles for dealing with children.

a picnic lunch so that they can remain over for the evening session.

ed by Miss Catton.

All Sunday Schools of every denomination in the south half of Berrien county are urged to send large delegations of parents and teachers and older young people to this unusual and helpful institute.

J. G. Holmes Coins New Name for Democrats

Editor Record,

In my current copy of "Literary Digest," I find among the first of the adjuncts of the beer craze, in sudden appearance of a boom in the licensing of racing and breeding of horses, bookies, touts and their ilk, who are in the field with a rush. Already twelve states have legalized race track gambling and the entire paraphernalia will be in operation without delay.
Frankly, I believe the whole rumpus is a complete surrender by decency to the minions of King Pluto. The old fellow was in the last election and won.

Scouts Promote Musical Benefit Next Friday Eve.

Buchanan Boy Scouts are very busy this week selling tickets to the Musical program to be given Friday evening by the high school musical department. This program is a Scout benefit and the proceeds will be used towards Buchanan's quota in the council.

Saturday morning the patrol leaders and assistants met for elimination contests in boxing and wrestling, points in the inner patrol contest being given the winners. George Semple was found to be the best boxer of the assistant patrol leaders and Bob Strayer was the best wrestler of the patrol leaders.

The Hawk patrol was the winner of the indoor ball game held Saturday afternoon, the Bats not being able to overcome their slump in time to gain the ground lost in the first innings.

The stage was beautifully and tastefully decorated with a green
artificial grass covering and with the beautiful painting executed by the church by C. E. Koenigshof in the background.

This painting is an idealized
mountain and river scene in Palestine, and is to be placed permanently over the baptistry which is also a part of the addition.

The addition was constructed by the Men's Work organization, and comprises an extension of about 10 feet the full width of the building at the north end, affording the structure a commodious stage and a baptistry tank. Practically all of the work was donated.

The men's organization which is responsible is headed by the following officers: president, Fred Hagley; secretary, Clarence Ditto; treasurer, George Echeberger.

The accomplishment reflects the constructive work which has been effected by Rev. Dewey Rowe since he took over the local charge a year ago in December. It is that time the church had a roll of about fifty members and a very small attendance. Since that time eighty members have been added by conversion or letter, bringing the church roll up to about 130.

Rev. Rowe works six days per week as a driver for the Ward Baking Company in South Bend and preaches two sermons here Sunday. He has built up a very live church interest.

Very interesting Easter services were held at the church over the week-end, in the neighborhood of 140 members and friends of the organization participating in the communion service held there on Saturday evening, followed by the footwashing ceremony which the organization has long followed.
The church is a part of the old Dunkard church. The congregation met at the church at 6 a.
m. for Easter morning services, followed by a breakfast at the church at 7:30 a. m.

26 Breweries Incorporated in Michigan

In the last nine months, articles of incorporation have been granted 26 breweries, according to records of the Department of State.
Most of the applications have been received in the last two weeks since the question of legalizing the manufacture and sale of beer has been under consideration by the legislature.

Many other corporations licensed to manufacture or sell malt or malt products have made application to change their charters to permit them to handle beer. While most of the applications have come from the Detroit area, the brewery applications are well scattered over both upper and lower peninsulas.

also voted in favor of sponsoring a centennial celebration in observ-the founding of the city in 1933.

chairman. The meeting was confined to a discussion of the present financial situation confronting all schools of the state.

NEW ADDITION IS COMPLETED AT CHURCH BRETHREN

Rowe More Than Doubles
Membership in 18 Months;
C. E. Koenigshof Paints
Picture for Baptistry.

The new stage which has been added to the north end of the Church of the Brethren structure at Third and Cayouga, was used for the first time Sunday evening for the presentation of the cantata,
"Paeans of Victory," by a choir of 26 voices, directed by Prof.
George Heater, instructor in a South Bend high school.

The stage was beautifully and
tastefully decorated with a green
artificial grass covering and with
the beautiful painting executed by
the church by C. E. Koenigshof in
the background.

This painting is an idealized
mountain and river scene in Pales-

FOULKES ASKS ADDRESSES OF FED. MORTGAGES

Congressman Wants Names of All Farmers Who Have Federal Land Mortgages
on Their Farms.

April 13, 1933.

To the Editor:
The recent farm relief bills to be passed by Congress and known as the Administration Bills, will bring much relief to the farmers in my district who now have Federal Land Bank mortgages on their lands.

I would like to get the names and addresses of all farmers living in your district who have these farm mortgages and especially those who have been foreclosed or threatened with foreclosure.
Send me all of the information in the first letter and thereby save much expense and letter writing.
A group of Congressmen attacked the Agriculture Committee of which I am the Michigan member, will take prompt action to assist farmers now burdened with these mortgages and they will receive attention in the order in which they are received. Also farms now carrying private mortgage loans against them should be sent to me, as we have a plan to refinance these loans for the famers, which we hope will be advantageous to the mortgagee as well as the farmer. We are asking the local papers to carry this notice as a news item and thereby help their local people.
Georges Foulkes,
Congressman.

Olivet Coach Speaks Before H. S. Assembly

"You have to get ahead by hard work, making honesty the best policy," stated Mr. Sprandel, the coach of Olivet college, who spoke in general assembly Thursday afternoon.

That the principle of education is to do the best, the best in the game, were the words of Mr. Sprandel. This statement was well illustrated by a story of the Olympic games.

While attending the Olympic games, I watched the contestants in the six and one half mile run. There were runners from Finland, Poland, Japan and other countries. As everyone knows the Japanese are very small and with such short legs they are not well fitted for a race of this kind. The runners from Finland and Poland were in the lead. It was their last lap. The Japanese was far behind and when he heard the other runners approaching him he slowly drew out of their way, that they might not have to slacken their stride. At once all eyes were on the Japanese. When the others had crossed the line he did not stop, but ran to the finish. This boy did the best for his country.

Coach Sprandel also said that there is not so much danger of getting an education, but danger of the wrong kind, which he explained. A boy in the reform school, who later became a counterfeiter, learned the trade by reading books from the library of that school.

To be wise in picking others isn't what should be taught by education. Industry is a reward and practice makes perfect, which is learned in the game as well as in the classroom, were his closing words.

Schools or Prisons?
By Marjorie Weaver

The population of the United States is one hundred and twenty-one million. According to the report of the National Advisory Committee on Delinquency at the end of 1932, four million two hundred and fifty-three persons of this number can neither read nor write.

In 1932, thirty million children were enrolled in the schools of the United States. The cost of running these schools was two billion dollars. During the same year there were one hundred thousand persons in the United States prisons. The cost of running these prisons was one billion, five hundred million dollars.

Prison reports show that the large per cent of criminals are uneducated. With such a large number of people unable to read or write in the United States, it is up to every American citizen to see that the public schools are kept open. Education is the best crime prevention.

Free Milk, Meals and Clothing

(Mary Louise Beardsley)

Six years ago when Mrs. Lamb first started as school nurse, she was also made truant officer. In looking up absences or calling on the children, she found that they were often absent because of lack of shoes or clothing. She reported this to the P. T. A. and they appointed a committee to raise money to take care of these cases. The money was raised in various ways by entertainments, etc.

With the depression the work has grown to large proportions. A committee of which Mrs. E. C. Mogford is chairman has met each Monday afternoon all winter at the city hall for the purpose of giving clothing and shoes. Mrs. Lamb gives to children who are needy out of her loan cupboard (used clothing that has been given to her) if she has anything that will do for them. If not, she reports these children and those absent to the committee.

This committee also has charge of the free meals which are furnished by local families and organizations. Forty children, on the average, have been served all winter.

Another activity in the school is the milk which is given to underweight children at recess time. It was found that many of these most needing milk could not buy, so the P. T. A. has each winter raised money to furnish it free to the most needy.

Mrs. Lamb tries not to make public what she does for a child, but always tries to give out the things without letting the other children know it.

Guess Who

Did you "guess who" last week? This week we planned to give the male sex an even break and you would be surprised how anxious they are to be in the news. The boy to be interviewed is one of the outstanding boys in our student body, for two reasons. First, his blonde hair is something to envy and second that smile is a winning one. His eyes are light brown and he has a captivating style that is sensational. His only worry seems to be girls, and they bother him terribly!

He was born in Decatur, Ill., and came into our school as a fresh freshman. Although he enjoys football, his favorite sport is basketball. He played on his class team and was high point man for the season.

His hobbies are golf, stamp-collecting and jewelry. When asked about the said smile it was not caddy that he was interested in, but the game itself. A Bobby Jones in our school would be something new, wouldn't it?

Movies are all right, but of course he had to say this because he has been seen at them several times. Fruit salad makes his appetite soar but he said, but one couldn't blame him for that.

Haven't you guessed who he is yet? Just look in the typing room any night after school and if you find the person who answers to this description, you just won't have to guess anymore.

If It Should Fall Upon Us!
It is estimated that there are 30,000,000 tons of platinum in the sun in the form of a gas.

Stone of Destiny
The name Stone of Destiny has been applied to the Stone of Scone or the Coronation Stone which rests beneath the chair or throne occupied by a new king of England on the occasion of his coronation. It dates far back into Anglo-Scottish history, and is reputed to have been the very stone which Jacob used as a pillow. (Gen. 28:11).

Annual Basket Banquet Held in the High School

A week ago last Monday the annual basketball banquet was held in the high school cafeteria and home economics rooms. All members of this year's squad were present and several members of the faculty. Members of the faculty present were Mr. Stark, Mr. Knoblauch, Mr. Miller, Mr. Moore, Coach Harold Bradford and Donald Fette. The Misses Janet and Rosemary Thompson supervised the preparation of the food.

The supper was a pot luck arrangement with each party responsible for the presence of a dish of food of some sort. The boys were there long before the scheduled time, kicking their lips hungrily at the aroma of the food drifted hither and thither. The faculty members present worked like Trojans arranging the food.

At 7:15 p. m. the signal was given to fall in line and help yourself in cafeteria style. Believe it or not, the boys were hungry and ate vast amounts before they had enough. On one table were the more substantial foods: baked corn, baked beans, scalloped potatoes, salads, roast beef and sandwiches of all kinds. Everybody ate heartily of these choice dishes and then made a concerted rush for the other table which was piled high with jello and cake.

After the dinner, Toastmaster Donald Fette gave a short talk followed by a speech by Mr. Bradford, in which he awarded the year's basketball letters. Mr. Knoblauch, Mr. Miller, Mr. Moore, and Captain Glen Jesse of this year's team, spoke to round out the program of speeches. The boys' quartet, consisting of John Nelson, Robert Strayer, Edward Egan, and Jack Thompson, gave several pleasing numbers which were received in a whole-hearted manner. The program was thus completed.

Also in attendance were three well-known reporters, Alan Stevenson, Lloyd Kolhoff and Charles Blake.

A LINE OF CHATTER OF TWO
(By Chester G. Chatterton)

IT WAS REPORTED THAT Charlie Cripe was seen in Gallen attending a barn dance. It was an old-fashioned square dance affair, and it is reported that our versatile track captain had a very hard workout. Well, it's all right, "Sis," just so you get in early!

ON MONDAY NIGHT of last week, the basketball fellows enjoyed a swell feed as a reward for the fine year just completed. No complaints were heard and everyone must have had enough to eat. Some even went without eating all day which is not as hard to do these days as it used to be in order to be in great shape for the ordeal. An intense contest was held to see who had the greatest capacity. "Sleep" Ellis and "Ang" Topash have long disputed each other as to who could make the greatest quantity of food disappear in the shortest length of time. A line of chatter was supposed to decide the long debated question. However, gentle reader, you will have to wait for the judges to finish tabulating the foodstuffs disposed of, before we can make the results of the eating marathon public. Neither of the contestants can remember even a small amount of what he ate, so the judges have to work alone to decide the outcome. We suffer with you in this terrible suspense!

THE JOURNALISM class has been quite listless this week. The reason is that they have nothing more to look forward to. On Friday of last week they took the long anticipated trip to South Bend to visit the newspaper plants and this week the long-dreaded "Scholastic" test was given. Note books and exams will be needed to inject life into the class once more.

LAST WEEK the English class (seniors) was held spell bound by various versions as to how the first twelve lines of Chaucer's Prologue to the Canterbury Tales should be read and recited orally from memory. Even some of the students possessing a large quantity of German blood found it very difficult.

After the English seige on Thursday came Mr. Moore's long-heralded physics test. Those first two hours on this day (Thursday) were nothing short of nightmarish!

Reporting Inquirer
What do you think of the fact that we get out of school on June 2?

That's not such a bad idea. Of course these students in high school like school very much and enjoy studying, but I think getting out of school one week early during the year of a financial depression will help not only us but a lot of other people too.

I think it would be good idea if we were to get out on June 2 because we farmers always like to get out of school early.

This suits me fine. The sooner I can get out the better I like it.

"Elite" Pronounced "Ayloce"

The word "elite" is pronounced ayloce, with accent on second syllable.

Who's Who

One of our post graduates, with sparkling blue eyes and curly brown hair is a favorite individual among the students in our school. She is none other than Dorothy "Dot" Babcock and was born near Gallen, May 27, 1915. With the exception of one year spent in Florida Dorothy has attended Buchanan high school all her life. She is an excellent student and is especially interested in languages, secretarial and diplomatic work. She has traveled extensively in the east and south.

As to foods that suit her taste, "Dot" has always craved fruit. "Fruit dancing" is her favorite hobby and she is at present taking tap lessons.

Another well known student is a member of the junior class. She also has blue eyes and brown, wavy hair, and has a dimple much envied by Maxine. "Max" Howe was born on the prairie near the fair city of Buchanan, March 16, 1916.

"Max" is fond of all sports but basketball is preferable. Her pastime is eating strawberry short cake and hamburgers, a nice combination.

As to her other likings, Maxine tells me that they are certain people in Dayton and those enjoyable week-ends spent in Niles. She enjoys dancing, especially square dancing.

Edna Holmes was born in Bensenville, Ind., Nov. 26, 1914. She is a junior, has blonde curly hair and blue eyes. Edna likes all kinds of sports, but prefers swimming, dancing and sleeping to anything else.

THIS AND THAT
(By Bob Ellis)

A couple of weeks ago when Niles high school's scholars were having a long vacation and Buchanan students had finished their vacation and were sent back to school several interesting characters of Niles visited here.

Among the more famous of the visitors was Howard Kraft, famous basketball, football and track star. He was the tall and handsome Leonard Thompson, social leader.

Stretch Gladwish, humorous reporter of the Microphone and a great columnist, has been drafted to the duties of the editor-in-chief.

Mr. Gladwish was very modest in the appointment and remarked that he did not think he was properly groomed yet for such an important position. Gladwish, alias Chester G. Chatterton, finally accepted the task, but announced that he would not disappoint his readers because he is still going to continue writing his great column, "A Line of Chatter or Two."

Have you taken time to watch some of the track aspirants dash around school in pursuit maybe of a letter and (who knows?) maybe a heart? Or have you listened to the locker room duo, Glen Jesse and Eddie Rolan, annihilate some of our good old tunes we hold reverently in our hearts?

Did you see the masterly manner in which Lyle Bachman handles the shot around? He says he's going to make August Topash step this year in hurding the heavy mistle.

Class Activities

8th History
Plans are being made by the civics class to co-operate with the Buchanan Civic club to do clean up work around the school property.

Financial problems of government at the time of the Civil war have been compared with the present financial problems, by the eighth grade history class.

Recitations and tests have been held in the form of an old-fashioned spellingdown. Last week the five at the head of the class in the first division were: Charles Wesner, Robert Neal, Ruth Babcock, Eugene Kelly and Marian Miller. Those at the head of the second division were: Margaret Brewer, Max Beadle, Ross Leazenby, Tom Yurkovic and Harriet Welsh.

The Senior Class News has been picked and they have started practicing. Members of the cast are as follows: Marvin Gross, Marjory Campbell, Alene Riley, Doris Campbell, Eddie Rolan, Glen Jesse, Helen Mogford, Marjorie Weaver, Bob Ellis, Charles Blake, Dee Weaver and Vivianne Wissler.

Money for senior caps, caps and gowns and invitations are being collected by the following persons: Freddie Portz, Lee Donley and Josephine Dunlap.

In the seventh grade spelling class this week the honors were won by John Schultz, Betty Semple, Bessie Crothers and Phyllis Lamb.

They are writing proverb stories and fables and illustrating them. Some very good ones are being handed in.

Work in outlining will be continued.

Commercial Department Beginning typists' honor roll for speed tests this week has only two girls on it, Marjorie Hamilton and Audrey McEllen. Each of these girls typed over 50 words a minute. One is supposed to be able to type 40 words a minute at the end of this year.

It must run in the Hamilton family as Margaret, the other twin, has passed the "Competent Typists' Test." She isn't the only people on the beach though, as Jennie Smith passed this test also. In order to pass this test one has to type 60 word a minute.

During the past week the Short-hand class has read articles on Inflammation, Postural, Dress and Self Control. To break the monotony they're studying antonyms and synonyms, also.

History Classes
A test over the affairs of the U. S. government was given the 12th grade history class Monday. From this point a study of the state government will be made. The 10th grade history class has finished work pertaining to the Industrial Revolution.

Government political parties, how and where laws are made and who makes and enforces them have been the work of the citizenship class for the past week.

A continuance of trimming and pruning trees has been the work of the horticultural class. The school lawns, both the Dewey avenue and the high school, have been taken care of by the horticultural class.

In animal husbandry, the main topic for study has been Unit 6, which is "Determining the Best Marketing Procedures for the Livestock Producers."

Mathematics
The algebra students will find this a hard harder one than they have started the study of simultaneous linear equations. These equations contain two unknowns which may be solved by elimination of one of the unknowns by addition or subtraction. They may also be worked by substitution.

All students taking plain geometry must prepare for some hard studying. This week's work covers "Similarity in its Relationship to Proportional Sides to Triangles."

A test was given in the solid geometry class over the work studied this semester so far. The remaining days are being spent on the studying of prisms and polyhedrons.

Physical Education
At the end of the first round of girls' indoor baseball tournament, the juniors have the only undefeated team. They are captained by Russ Cripe.

The outcome of the games is as follows: 8th grade beaten by the 7th and 10th; 7th grade beaten by 9th and 10th; 9th grade was defeated by 11th; 10th grade was beaten by 9th; 12th was beaten by 9th and 10th.

The second round of the tournament will start Monday. Captains of the 7th and 8th grades are Betty Semple and Leo Wyman.

Third Grade
A report of physical examination of Miss Simmons' third grade:

5 have decayed permanent teeth
17 have decayed temporary teeth
13 have had all dental work completed by a dentist.
9 have enlarged tonsils and adenoids.

1 has had tonsils and adenoids removed this year.
2 have had defective vision.
2 have draining ears.
7 are 10 per cent underweight or more.

30 were examined.
We have been drawing a Dutch scene and Dutch boys and girls in the art class. We are multiplying and dividing by eight in arithmetic. We are specializing on the paragraph in the English class. Today we had a dictation exercise.

Many Jean Scheetz brought a pointed daffodil to school, which we are enjoying very much. We are reviewing the tables.

In the English class we are writing original paragraphs and letters; also we are reading Eastern stories.

In the art class we drew Easter bunnies and the bluebird.

1st Grade, High School
The following received A's for last week's work in spelling, Robert Borah, Betty Donley, Martha Fagras, Helen Hanover, Gayle Holmes, Evelyn Johnson, Betty Jo Lauer, Adrian Maxson, Bonnie Metzger, Janice Pierce, Elizabeth Rohan, Marian Rohl, Jack Slate, Bobby Yoeman and Bomer Grass.

Musical Review
Many students, both from the grades and high school, are still practicing for the musical revue to be given at the Buchanan school, April 21, in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Robinson, musical director in this school, will be in charge of this review.

Science
The nature of sound and how it is transmitted has been the subject of study for the students of physics.

Chemistry for this week has covered the study of fats, perfumes, starches, sugars and the methods by which they are produced.

The biology class has completed the work on higher and lower plant and animal life, and their methods of reproduction.

Kindergarten
Health authorities are coming more and more to think of preventing disease rather than to just cure it. Last fall a clinic was held for the purpose of having every child entering kindergarten receive a physical examination by a physician. It was sponsored by the P. T. A. and all the local doctors co-operated.

16 new and old children have availed themselves of this opportunity. The rest of the children have been examined since by the school nurse. Teeth were examined by the dentist from the children's Funds of Michigan. Following is a report of the conditions found in these combined examinations:

77 children were examined.
42 have decayed first teeth.
9 have had all dental work completed.

16 have enlarged tonsils and adenoids.
3 have had tonsils and adenoids removed.
15 are more than 15 per cent underweight.
4 have ear trouble.
6 have heart defects.

Home Economics
Work on garments is being finished by the girls of the clothing classes in their preparation for the exhibit.

Seventh, eighth and ninth grade girls in the clothing classes are making various garments, while the girls of the tenth grade are specializing in color in relation to home and dress.

Friday, April 21, there will be an exhibit of all the work done since February in the clothing department. Refreshments will be served. Written invitations are being sent to the mothers of girls in the departments which are participating; however, anyone interested will be very welcome.

New projects, which will be samplers, will be started by the 7th grade girls. In this work they will become acquainted with and learn all the various kinds of embroidery stitches. Each girl will be given a card on which they will begin work on a gift of their own choice.

Eighth and ninth grade girls will be allowed to make anything they need for personal use. Already some of the girls have begun linens, towels, dresses and overalls.

Girls of the tenth grade class are having a great struggle, according to the remarks passed by some of the group, in painting various types of complexions, including blondes, brunettes, red heads, and gray-haired women. (Sounds amusing and is.)

French Classes
French students are learning two verses of the national anthem, La Marseillaise.

All foreign language classes are having their six weeks examination this week.

7th grade History
Mrs. French's 7th grade classes are studying the French experiment. A test was given over this work this week. Beryl Weaver was the only one receiving 100 in the test. They will begin to study the Revolutionary war next week.

8th grade English
Eighth grade English classes have finished the study of verbs. The past week has been devoted to applying the study of verbs to writing. Tests were also given each day in grammar.

Shop
Mr. Miller wishes to announce that Friday afternoon, April 21, there will be a display of projects by the 7th, 8th and 9th grade shop classes. There will also be some drawing projects displayed by the 11th and 12th grade classes in mechanical drawing.

Each boy is to display at least one project. This exhibition will be all day Friday until 8 o'clock Friday night. The public is invited to attend.

7th Arithmetic
The 7th grade arithmetic class has been studying circles and the original designs of these and the rectangles, while the measurements of the height of trees, figured from the length of their shadows, and the distance across rivers has been the work of the 8th grade class.

Balloon and the carrying of cargoes has been the discussion of the commercial law class.

Journalism
A test over all the important news from September 1, to March 1, was given to the Journalism class on Wednesday. Test blanks were furnished by the Scholastic Magazine.

"Special Feature Writing" is the chapter now being studied by the class.

Friday afternoon, April 14, the Journalism class journeyed to South Bend where they visited the News Times and Tribune plants. Many interesting facts were discovered about the newspaper business.

For instance: if any important event happens, 45 minutes after the event is received from the Associated Press, papers are written on the typewriter of South Bend; the linotype machines contain about 6,000 parts, more parts than any other machine of its size; the News Times press turns out 72,000 copies per hour; the paper used for printing is bought in Canada and the rolls of paper weigh one ton; 8 to 10 of these rolls of paper are used for a 16 page paper.

All news comes to the "news room" first. News is prepared here and sent to the composing room. Foreign news comes by telegraph. These telegrams contain only the frame work of the story which is filled in by copy writers.

The morgue is a reference room which contains pictures and stories of all persons, who have figured in the news the past 30 years.

Students were also shown the broadcasting room of WSET.

1934 License Plates Black on Canary Background

The 1934 motor vehicle license plates will have black numerals on a canary yellow background. It was announced by Secretary of State Frank D. Fitzgerald, at the year and the word Michigan will be at the top of the plate. In order to prevent the counterfeiting and reprinting of plates of previous years the year will be divided so that the top line of the plate will read "19 Michigan 34"

Princess Shows History-Making Film of South

Some books and plays entertain—but on the other hand some reshape the currents of life and make history.

Such a book was "Uncle Tom's Cabin," throwing the white light of publicity on the slimes of slavery. And such a film drama is "I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang," appearing at the Princess April 23 and 24, and revealing the equally shameful conditions in the convict labor camps of the south.

One of the most enthralling stories filmed for the stage in years, the drama has the added interest of truth, since the author, James Allen, actually endured the experiences which he detailed in his story.

The Story
James Allen is determined to get into the construction business. Opportunity is his, however, and he is more often out of work and broke. Hungry, he is persuaded by Pete, a tramp, to handle a hand-out at a lunch wagon. But Pete draws a gun and holds up the proprietor telling Allen to take the money out of the cash register. Allen does so only when the gun is pointed at him. Just then, the police enter. Pete is shot, Allen flees. He is caught and sentenced to ten years at hard labor in a chain gang.

His experience in the chain gang is so horrible, he is flogged for the slightest pretext, compelled to work to the point of exhaustion, the food is nauseating. Unable to bear it any longer, he makes his escape. After untold hardships, he manages to cross the state line.

Under a new name, he finally gets a job as a laborer and works his way up to an important position in an engineering office. Marie, his landlady, has discovered through a letter, that he has escaped from a chain gang. Realizing his growing importance, she threatens him with exposure unless he marries her.

Eventually, Allen meets Helen, a fine woman with whom he falls in love. He offers Marie everything he possesses if she will free him. She refuses. They quarrel and she informs the police. He is arrested, but the business men with whom he was associated believe in him and make a fight against his return to the chain gang.

Officials of the state from which he has escaped offer to pardon him if he will serve 90 days in a clerical position. Hoping to buy up his past record and marry Helen, he consents. However, the authorities are angered at his exposure of the horrors of the chain gang and he is returned to the same prison and the same hardships. At the end of the 90 days, he is informed that if he is a model prisoner for another year, he will be unconditionally pardoned.

Still hoping for a full pardon, he works out his year. But another excuse is made. Desperate, realizing he is never to be pardoned, he plots with another prisoner. When they get out, they escape by force of a truck after tricking the guards. But the publicity has made him a marked man. The state authorities dodge his every footstep; there is no chance to change his name and start over again; he skulks from town to town, always in fear of capture.

Finally he reaches the town in which he made good and sees the woman he loves. Allen tells her to forget him as he knows he will be hounded to his grave. After a final farewell, he slips off in the night, a hunted fugitive.
