

Now Here's the Proposition

Lines to An NRA Barber
Any time a barber thinks He can hold me up
For a quarter or so
To get
Shaved,
He can take another think For I haven't got the quar-

Still the

Centennial Goes Over Big Well, folks, our first Centennial celebration is over and on the face of the returns the favorable vote is practically a landslide, with enough heavy precincts in to insure its election, not counting some small rural precincts like South Bend, Niles, and St. Joseph which are still to be heard from.

The comments we heard on the street were universally approving.
Some of them were:
"Who is that tall handsome man with the marvelous voice at the mike now? I think he's wonderful!"

"What a darling chief of police so courteous, so accommodating!"

"Who is that handsome fellow in the second row back in the band playing the alto horn? Doesn't he put his whole heart into it?"

"Aren't the antiques wonderful?"

"Whadda you mean antiques?"
"Where can I buy a glass of beer?"

"Where is A. Preston Sprague?"
"Where is my pocket book?"

So you can readily see from the above that the Centennial went over like nobody's business and it was a wonderful success and everybody is satisfied except some fellows that got their bills paid that swore they never expected to.

Of course there were a few little slip-ups but you got to expect that with a crowd of 5,000 people on the streets at one time like there was Saturday afternoon.

And you got to hand it to the police, too, the way they took care of that crowd of 7,500 with never a slip-up. When you got 10,000 people all crowded into four blocks on Front and Main streets I tell you it means something.

I went up on top of the Rough opera house and as I looked down on that vast, seething throng of 20,000 people swarming down the Midway I just wished Rufus E.
Davies could see it and get a few pointers on how to run a Centennial.

He Won't Be So Prominent From Now On
The Record prints with deep regret the news in another column that a prominent young business man has been charged on by an Elkhart girl and that consequently the local aspirants are outta luck.
There'll be some sad hearts in Buchanan after the paper gets out. Just so some of them sad hearts don't sue for bailm.

A. & P. Stores
Are Swell Hosts
Says Bob Strayer

That the A. & P. Stores are the best of hosts and that the 150 boys from Michigan were their guests at the Century of Progress exposition had the time of their lives were the expression of Robert Strayer, who was elected to represent Berrien county district in the excursion. The excursion was directed by Lieut. Jack Rohr of Chicago and was supervised by Stan Boynton of W.J.I. Detroit.
The boys were quartered at the beautiful North Side Y. M. C. A. building, where five large trucks called for them each morning and delivered them each night. A doctor and a nurse went with the excursion to look after the well-being of the boys. They were taken through the entire exposition and over the city as well. Bob wishes to thank his many local friends who aided in his election for the excursion.

W. F. RUNNER LAID AT REST HERE MONDAY

Business Houses of City Close for Last Rites of Pioneer Druggist, Who Died Saturday, Age 83.

Business houses were closed on Monday afternoon while the city paused for an hour in deference to a former esteemed citizen and business associate, William Franklin Runner, whose funeral was held at 2 p. m. that day from the Methodist church, with Rev.
Thomas Rice in charge.

A large congregation of his old friends and neighbors were in attendance. A special feature of the music was the rendition by Franklin Kidd of Chicago of two songs, "Abide with Me," and "Jesus, Lord of Mercy." Mr. Kidd was accompanied by Louis Runner in the Plaza Hotel at Austin, a suburb of Chicago, and became a friend of Mr. W. F. Runner while the latter was at the hotel. He is a very fine singer. The pall bearers were: P. C. Hathaway, D.
L. Boardman, Glenn Haslett, Will Lester, Chris Lentz, A. H. Hartz, and Mr. Runner came to Buchanan in 1886, buying the drug business then located in the State Bank building and owned by Stephen Wood. It will be remembered by old timers as the W. A. Severson Drug store previous to the purchase by Mr. Runner. He remained in business there 24 years, until 1910, serving the city and community in many capacities during that interval. He was a clerk of the village for one term and clerk of the school board for several terms.

In 1910 he retired from the drug business here and went to Chicago, later going to Montana, where for nine years he lived on a homestead near Belmont. He returned to Chicago in 1919 and remained there until 1925, when he returned to Buchanan and remained until his death.

Previous to his residence here he had lived in the vicinity of Shelby, Mich. He was born at Jerusalem, N. Y., Feb. 18, 1850, the son of James S. and Nancy Sears Runner. The family moved to Shelby when he was fourteen years old, settling on a farm near that place.
He completed the schools there and began teaching at the age of 18, continuing in that profession for twelve years. For two years he was principal of the schools at Hesperia. Two years before he quit teaching he joined with his brother, Wallace Runner, in the purchase of a half interest in a drug store at Shelby. At the age of 30 he quit teaching to enter the drug store, where he continued six years in partnership with his brother, until coming to Buchanan.

He was married March 18, 1875, to Frederika Rapp at Kalamazoo, Mich. Five years ago the Runners celebrated the golden anniversary of this wedding, together with Mr. and Mrs. C. Rapp of Chicago, and burg, who had been married with them in a double ceremony. The observance of the fiftieth anniversary of this double wedding with all principals alive received nation-wide attention. He is survived by his widow; by two sons, Louis of Chicago and Clarence of Buchanan; by four brothers, James, Wallace, Runner of Long Beach, John M. Runner of Shelby, Ezra H. Runner of Muskegon, and Charles Fremont Runner of Bellingham, Wash.

Philip Karling
Placed in Charge of Credit Union

Philip Karling has been employed to take charge of the Farmers Credit Union at the St. Joe Valley Shipping Association, beginning his new duties there Aug. 1. The scope of the Credit union operations and of the check cashing service which it offers has grown until the services of a man experienced in banking to give it full time attention are required. Mr.
Karling was in the employ of the local First National Bank four years and with the City National bank of Niles a year.

Inlaid Checker
Hand Carved, is Shown by A. Mead

A handsome checker board made by Henry Mead, the father of Arthur Mead, was on display in the Treat building during the Centennial.
The board was made of white maple, inlaid with black walnut squares, and with a black walnut rim. Several imitations of the old style wooden passenger coaches carved very cleverly by Mead out of black walnut was also

Mrs. Sanders Has Fine Display in Hamilton Window

A lovely display of antique furniture and dishes and glassware of rare material and workmanship was displayed by Mrs. Ada Dacy Sanders in the window of the Hamilton Furniture store. The exhibit included a number of beautiful pieces of solid rosewood, mahogany and walnut furniture, including an old melodian. A number of pieces of beautiful Belle-flower, Majolica and Sandwich glass were displayed, and several fine brass candle sticks of Roman and English make. Miss Augusta Huebner had a beautiful tea set and several pieces of fine old German pottery in the Hamilton window. Mrs. Mattie Grafford had several china and luster pictures and Mrs. Henry Binns had two rare old Hitchcock and Stearns

HUSBANDRY OF WAY BACK WHEN AT CENTENNIAL

Cradles—Grain and Baby; Primitive Typewriters,
Sewing Machines, Crude
Household and Farm Implements.

The household and farm husbandry of the founders of Buchanan and even generations back of them was illustrated by many exhibits in store windows during the three-day anniversary of the hundredth birthday of the town.

A primitive sewing machine, one of the first made, which was operated by hand by turning a small crank, was on display in one of the windows. It had been used by the grandmother of Mrs. Mary Ravish, 55 years ago.

Andrew Huss had on display a grain cradle and a large crout cutter made from several scythe blades.

There were several hatchets, for which the dialect term in the middle west was "hetchel," porcelaine-like assemblies of pointed spikes set in a board, and used for combing wool and flax.

A charcoal foot stove such as enabled the forbears of several generations back to endure the long winters in unheated churches was to be seen in one window.

In the Allen Hardware window was a primitive potato parer, with a pulley and belt.

In the Boardman window was a wooden board, the property of W. R.
Tuttle.

In the E. N. Schram window was a curious set of dental tools whose savage appearance reconciled one to the comparative "civilness" of modern dentistry.

Mrs. Donald Hanlin displayed a candle lantern 112 years old. Two Hall typewriters, the earliest made, were exhibited, each nearly half a century old. One, in the window of the Evans store, was the property of R. W. Montross, one-time partner in a fork and shovel handle factory in Galien.
The other was the property of Marvin Cathcart, father of Nellie Cathcart. There were at least two old-fashioned side saddles, one the property of Miss Elsie Kingery, and the other was used by Mrs.
P. M. Weaver, the mother of Mrs.
Tourje, Mrs. Emerson and Miss Helen Weaver, when she was a child in school.

A pair of candle snuffers brought by the parents of A.
Nutt from Ohio, were shown and a number of candle moulds.

Bradfield Has Fine Window of Athletic Trophies

In the window of the Glenn Smith store Coach Bradfield had a fine display of athletic trophies, centered around an array of baseballs autographed by Babe Ruth, Lefty Grove, George Earnshaw and a score of other great diamond stars, and two boxing gloves worn by Primo Carner and Jack Dempsy, loaned to the Centennial by Dr. Fred Bonine of Niles, the state boxing commissioner. A portrait of Harry Niles at the beginning of his great baseball career was included. Other pictures ranged from the first foot ball team in 1895 down to the present day. A fine collection of athletic trophies won by the high school was also shown.

Antique Bath Tub Is Illustration of Old-Time Plumbing

An antique bath tub which was recently found by Charles Pears in the attic of the Front Street apartments was on display in the window of the Treat building during the Centennial. The bath tub was canoe-shaped and was made of canvas on a wooden frame. It is believed to have belonged to Captain George Richards, a pioneer manufacturer of this city. Mr.
Pears stated that he planned to send it to a museum, possibly to Henry Ford.

beautiful inlaid table, the top of which is inlaid with mother-of-pearl.

PICTURES OF THE OLD TIMERS DRAW MUCH ATTENTION

Many Paintings and Old Photographs of Pioneer Characters and Scenes Provoke Interest.

No department of the antique and relic display of the Centennial attracted more attention than did the pictures of former residents and old-time citizens, of which there were several score on display in various windows in the business section.

Among them were two pictures of "Jacob Baker, the Harness maker," of old-time fame, who kept a shop on Main street about where the Roti Roti shoe store now is. A picture of his shop includes him and his two employees, Harry Hanover and Al Roakley.

A portrait of Mrs. Caroline Hamilton who lived in a log house opposite the present Howard Roe house on West Fourth street was on display.

Bernard Brown had a fine old Currier & Ives original "The Yo-Semite" on display.

A fine oil portrait of Nathan (California) Johnson was displayed by his widow, Mrs. Samantha Johnson.

Exhibits of Guns In Store Windows Draw Many Eyes

Displays of modern and antique gun collection in the windows during the Centennial were popular, especially with the younger element. The fine collection of Harvey Sherwood in the window of the Allen hardware was the focus of attention throughout the entire Centennial. Mr. Sherwood was at the window several afternoons to answer the flood of questions which were asked. Walter Taylor had several antique guns on display in the window of the Smoke House. Clarence Spaulding had on display an old flintlock to which tradition ascribed the repute of having killed Voges, a chieftain of the Sac Indians in Maine 130 years ago.

The father of Mrs. L. P. Alexander, a belle of the fifties and sixties, was in one window. It was the fan she carried at her wedding in 1861. There was the wedding shawl of "Aunt Nell" Hopkins.
Mrs. W. R. Tuttle displayed a homespun linen chemise. Mrs. G.
H. Stevenson had a beautiful silk shawl 100 years old. Mrs. Ella French loaned several beautiful pieces including a basque and wrap and an antique Persian shawl.

And finally the baby clothes of a number of worthies of the city were the centers of great interest, including the christening robe of A. S. Webb and long dresses of Harry Graham, J. C. Funks and others.

Richards Shows 3 Ballots from the Last Century

One of the most interesting displays was a historic point of view consisted of the three ballots exhibited by Will Richards, which were used in Buchanan township during the elections of 1849, 1852, and 1868. The first ballot, that of 1849, was for a local election only and contains the names of a number of founders of present-day families.

Model Buchanan Windmill Shown in Racket Window

In the window of the Racket store was a model of the Buchanan windmill, which was patented in the eighties by A. J. Kooztz and manufactured by Rough Bros. in the Wagon Works building. The model is made very cleverly to scale. The Buchanan windmill won a first award at the exposition held at Melbourne, Australia, in 1889.

Clark Equipment Already On NRA Schedule of Hours And Wages, Says Official

ANTIQUE DRESS DISPLAYS DRAW MUCH ATTENTION

Brilliant Silk Vest of 100 Years Ago; Boots Made with Wooden Pegs, Long Baby Dresses on Exhibit.

Unsurpassed in the interest among the exhibits of the products of the past on display at the Centennial were the assemblies of antique clothing, from rarely beautiful old silk and lace shawls of famous make to worn little shoes, reminiscent of the babyhood of a vanished generation.

In the Allen Hardware window was a boot worn by Henry Far-ran, maternal grandfather of Harvey Sherwood, when a fortyniner, which was put together entirely by wooden pegs.

There was the wedding coat of John G. Schultz, great grandfather of Miss Aleta Harner, worn at his nuptials in 1837.

Two silk vests of brilliant pattern illustrated the sartorial elgance of young gentlemen of 120 years ago.

A center of interest for those who were looking for beautiful old shawls and clothing of the past was the window of the D. L.
Boardman store, where Mrs. Alice Tourje, Mrs. Ida Emerson and Miss Helen Weaver had a large and beautiful assortment on exhibition. Here was Mrs. Tourje's wedding dress of over sixty years ago. Here was an exhibit that brought a heart pang to middle-aged gents—a picture hat such as worn by the belles of 20 years ago and more since. This picture hat was made by Mrs. Orma Chamberlain, who then conducted the Paris millinery shop.

There was a lovely hand woven shawl made in 1728, the loan of Mrs. Earl Anderson. Mrs. Bert Montgomery contributed a beautiful shawl 150 years old. Mrs.
Nettie Vincent displayed a fine silk shawl over 100 years old. Mrs.
Nora Sparks displayed a quaint bonnet 98 years old. Here was the wedding vest of Crville B. Glover, a variegated silk affair, which he wore at his wedding 99
years ago.

The father of Mrs. L. P. Alexander,
a belle of the fifties and sixties,
was in one window. It was the
fan she carried at her wedding in
shawl of "Aunt Nell" Hopkins.
Mrs. W. R. Tuttle displayed a homespun linen chemise. Mrs. G.
H. Stevenson had a beautiful silk
shawl 100 years old. Mrs. Ella French loaned several beautiful
pieces including a basque and
shawl.

And finally the baby clothes of
a number of worthies of the city
were the centers of great interest, including the christening robe
of A. S. Webb and long dresses
others.

Riverside Park to Hold the Annual Clean-up Day Aug. 9

The annual clean-up day for Riverside Park, Evangelical camp, will be held Wednesday, Aug. 9.
All are requested to meet at the church not later than 7:30 a. m., equipped with cleaning utensils and food for pot luck dinner.
Coffee will be served by the Woman's Auxiliary.

Last year there were about 50 people in attendance from Eari-bridge, Benton Harbor, St. Joseph, Scottsdale, Kalamazoo, Niles, Portage Prairie and Buchanan. A good time was enjoyed besides a splendid sum of money saved for the camp. Let us again have a large attendance.

Spring Creek School To Hold 9th Annual Picnic August 20 miles southeast of Three Oaks.

tended school there are cordially invited to come and bring their family or friends and a basket of eats and enjoy a good picnic dinner and a good social time. A Scout Troops Display Work in Centennial

The local Scout Troops 41 and 81, had a very attractive display of their handiwork on exhibit during the Centennial in the room formerly occupied by the E. N.
Schram insurance agency on Main street with Acting Scoutmaster Tony Gancer in charge.
The exhibit included placards illustrating the various kinds of knots, the samples of some 35 different varieties of wood native to this district, and some excellent handiwork. Albert Webb assisted in charge of the room.

1200 INSPECT QUILT DISPLAY IN CENTENNIAL

Guests from Atlantic and Pacific Coast and States Between Register in the Pres. Church

The quilt display at the Presbyterian church proved to be a popular part of the Centennial, in spite of the fact that the display was transferred outside of the Midway "loop" district on account of the heat in the building first assigned.

A registration book was kept for visitors, in which 1128 names were written in the three days.
Since the attendants did not ask the men and children to sign the first day, it is believed that well over 1200 actually came and saw the quilts. Visitors expressed their appreciation of the fact that they were able to sit down in a cool place and rest while in attendance.

Among the registrants were residents of the states of Washington, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, Nebraska and possibly other states, in addition to scores from South Bend, Niles, Galien, Three Oaks, St. Joseph and Benton Harbor.

These cuts have been made on the assumption, which was true, that workmen had no alternative but to accept. That the Clark Equipment Company has not made similar cuts is due mainly to the ideas of E. B. Clark, who has stated in many meetings of stockholders that the ideal plan for general support of industry and prosperous business would be a general adherence to the principle of short hours and high wages. One company could not adopt such a principle alone. Clark stated, however, it would be unable to bid against competitors, but a general adoption of the policy would mean more business for all.

Centennial Com. Expresses Thanks For Assistance

Members of the Centennial and Home Coming committee wish to express their appreciation for the splendid assistance of the young ladies who helped with the office and stenographic work before and during the big event. The girls served without pay, as did members of the committee. They are:
Zelda Frank, Ruth French, Dorothy Hines, Florence Franklin, Minabelle Reese, Mildred Bremer, Thelma Howard, Alma Shaffer. For three months one or more of the girls were in the headquarters office daily giving their time and service free.

In addition the committee wishes to thank Mr. M. Gross for the use of his building on Front street for

To the Buchanan City Band

(Written by "Babe" Merrill June 22, 1932.)
Well wife, I've been to the city And seen most every sight From all of the parks so grand To the much-heard-of prize fight. I even went to the theater, I tell you that was grand; But the greatest thing I chanced to see Was the city's big brass band.

Sixty men in line was there Dressed in uniforms immense; They looked more like monkeys Than men with common sense. I heard them play one piece Which spread my face with smiles As I remembered when our little band Started under Prof. Fields of Niles.

I could almost see those boys As on the streets they gathered round. I thought of how they used to be The hope and pride of the town, I thought of that tuba player I think they called him "Stub" He looked when he was playing As if his mouth was full of grub.

How Roberts used to play after-time Upon the big bass drum And how he always held his piece (peace) By simply keeping mum, Well do I remember how Jake Used to play so low and soft And how Claude used to break him up By trying to show off.

I fancied I saw Mait In his favorite position And his eyes would have that far off look As if on earth he had no mission How Clayton on the piccolo Would do his best to play And when he would make a mistake Would always holler "hey."

How Whitman on the clarinet Used to play so soft and sweet He was the admiration Of all the boys on the street. How Noble used to do his best Upon his valve trombone But try with all the might he could He could not make a tone.

And how Charwood used to play Upon his silver coronet And the tones he often made I never can forget. And I remember how Smith and Rouse Used to play the alto, They always were a little fast Or else a little slow. And all the other boys on their parts Would do their level best Fields would press the button And they all did the rest.

"Midnight Mary" is Story of Girl Who Faces Electric Chair

The melodramatic career of a New York tenement girl who comes perilously close to the electric chair is depicted in "Midnight Mary," a new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture opening next Sunday at the Ready theatre at Niles.

The picture was filmed from an original story by Anita Loos and features Loretta Young, Ricardo Cortez, Franchot Tone, Andy Devine and Una Merkel.

The story centers on Mary Martin, a young girl who grows up in adverse circumstances and is finally induced to join a group of crooks, who progress rapidly from petty larceny to robberies on the grand scale. She falls in love with a wealthy young attorney and tries desperately to start a new life on an honest footing. The gangster who has dominated her youth threatens to kill the man she loves, and against her will Mary Martin is forced back into the underworld.

The story starts with the tense, dramatic moment in which a jury is deciding on the fate of Mary Martin. Did she kill the gangster and if so why? It is during this suspenseful interlude in which this jury deliberates that the past life of the girl is unraveled in a series of highlighted incidents. William Wellman, who directed "Midnight Mary," is said to have filmed his story from an entirely different angle than the usual crook drama. Wellman has achieved a scoring reputation as a director of the raw side of humanity with his productions of "The Public Enemy" and "The Conquerors."

Greyhounds Break Even in Double Header Sunday

The Portage Prairie Greyhounds lapped temporarily to lose a game to Lyddick Sunday 8-2, their second loss of the season, and the first loss in 13 games, but they came back with the same line-up to defeat the McKane Shoe Company of South Bend 15-0.

Breaks of the game and an adverse decision which was decided on a new ruling not understood by the Greyhound players cost them the first game, although the boys were obviously off their usual batting form.

D. Pierce of Lyddick fanned ten Greyhounds, and Sebasty struck out seven Lyddick batted one home run with two men on.

The Portage Prairie nine came back with a vengeance in the second to defeat the McKane Shoe Company nine of South Bend 15-0. In this game Sebasty struck out twelve men and Bulgarch of McKane's three.

Chevrolet Raises Pay of Employees

Eighteen thousand more men are at work in Chevrolet and Pontiac plants today than at the same time a year ago, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, stated in discussing the employment situation.

In emphasizing this picture of rising employment, Mr. Knudsen also pointed out that payroll figures of the two companies are now at a higher stage than in any year since the boom period of 1929. In the single week from July 8 to July 15, inclusive, the number of men employed increased by approximately 4,000 at the 20 plants throughout the United States and from the 15th to the present, approximately 2,000 more men had been added to the pay rolls. Since June 10, declared Mr. Knudsen, as he analyzed the figures, a small army of 11,000 men have found employment with Chevrolet and Pontiac. Total employment today is above 46,000. Thousands had been added to the rolls before the proclamation of the President calling on the country to shorten hours and raise wages in order that the workingmen, on whom the prosperity of the country depends, might have additional funds to maintain the American standard of living.

"Statisticians tell us," Knudsen stated, "that the average family is composed of four persons. This means that approximately 184,000 persons are benefited by either wages or salaries from the Chevrolet and Pontiac plants. The addition of 11,000 men alone has done much to spread the wave of employment in the cities where these men are employed."

That his companies have wholeheartedly participated in the progress of the President is shown by the fact that a salary raise of 10 per cent was granted all factory wage earners effective August 1, making a total increase of 20 per cent over March, 1933, since a 5 per cent increase was announced in May. In addition, Mr. Knudsen also raised the pay of all salaried workers receiving under $1,300 per year by 10 per cent.

It is estimated that these increases will place more than a million and a quarter dollars at the disposal of Chevrolet and Pontiac employees, for the balance of the year.

Political Payrolls Tilted To Prosperity Heights

HIGH OFFICIALS IGNORE DEFICITS AND GRAB FOR PLUNDER, STATE RECORDS DISCLOSE.

July 1 Sees "New Deal" Administration Back to Prosperity Levels, Election Promises Ignored While Taxpayers Groan.

The action of the legislature during its 1933 session in striking from the statutes a large number of salaries fixed by previous legislatures is already recognized as having been a wise move. There are a number of salaries fixed by the constitution which are beyond reach of the legislature. Then there are a number of bills introduced to strike the statutory salaries and places the responsibility of officials before each session when the biennial budget is being prepared failed of passage. In practically every instance where the fixed salary was not stricken, the present incumbents have gone back to the high levels which prevailed before the special session of 1933 decreed reductions ranging from 10 to 25 per cent.

The constitution provides salaries of $2,500 each for the secretary of state, auditor general and state treasurer while the statutes set up for the creation of the state administrative board provide additional pay in the sum of $2500 each. The governor is entitled to draw $5000. Each of the incumbents in 1933 following the action of the legislature and the recommendation of the governor voluntarily reduced their pay checks to $4500, Governor Wilbur M. Brucker setting the example by taking a voluntary cut to $4,000. Under the new deal all these salaries are now back to their boom time levels.

Webster Pearce, former superintendent of public instruction, was entitled under the law to a salary of $6,000 but he evidently thought that too much to extract from the pockets of the hard-pressed taxpayers so he took a voluntary cut of 25 per cent and ordered his check drawn for the remainder of his term at the rate of $4,500. Paul E. Voelker assumed office on July 1 and about the first official act he performed was to order his pay boosted to the top figure which might legally be drawn. He is now being paid at the rate of $500 a month or $20 per day or $6000 per year.

Grover C. Dillman also could have insisted that he be paid as drawn at the statutory rate of $7500 set by a profligate legislature back in the halcyon days when property owners still had incomes from which taxes might be paid. Realizing the distress of the taxpayer and the condition of the treasury Mr. Dillman voluntarily reduced his salary to $6750 with years of experience in developing Michigan's highway system to his credit. A county drain commissioner was elected to the office last April and one of his first official acts was to order his pay check drawn at the full rate of $7500.

Every effort was made during the session to reach the five republican members of the public utilities commission. Not only were their salaries considered to be excessive but it was also believed that three good men could do as good or better a job. Politics prevailed by reason of the fact that a few democrats yielded to offers of patronage and joined the standpat republicans in saving their "pep." The commission stood as it existed before the new deal took hold. At one time the commissioners accepted a slight reduction from their $7000 salary scale. Now they are back and blithely signing checks for their own pay at top notch figures.

Patrick Henry O'Brien was a warm advocate of the new deal. Even at the inaugural ceremony he could not refrain from making a speech on its possible benign influence upon the happiness of the people of Michigan. His was the first of the departments to go 100 per cent democratic. Even the old messenger who had worked faithfully during all previous regimes and whose pittance was too small to permit him accumulating a competence, was thrown out in his old age and told to go. Again it may be said that about the first official act of the new incumbent was to scan the payroll with disfavor and order all salaries of his chief assistants as well as his own back to the top figures. He immediately demanded $5000 while his son was jotted down in second place at $4500. A year ago it cost Michigan taxpayers close to $81,000 a year to pay off his department of lawyers. Today the schedule calls for an annual expenditure of $125,000 in salaries alone. How this is to be accomplished on a budget set by the legislature at a total for all purposes of $117, about. They attacked the problem from the other end, in order to whip their budget into balance and keep their faculty forces intact, the higher-ups were asked to accept a slash of 20 per cent while others were asked to take a leave of absence until times get better. All above $7500 are being cut one-fifth while all employees below $1500 are not being disturbed.

Other institution heads have as difficult a task before them as have the regents. Hospital heads have an especially troublesome job to retain their personnel and keep the tables of their institutions supplied with food. The budgets set for them must be adhered to. They have no statutory salaries to hide behind. If wages outside are increased in keeping with the Nira program it may be possible that the purpose for which the government may first be forced to call a special session will be that of increasing the wages set for employees of institutions and to provide food and clothing for the unfortunate wards of the state.

No figures are yet easily obtainable regarding the free methods adopted by the beer control commission in helping themselves to the revenues obtained from the tax in 3.2 beverages. The beer bill which finally runs the gauntlet of controversy which raged in house and senate during its turbulent passage, places the responsibility for fixing the salary of the chief of staff only. All other employees have their salaries and their emoluments set by the commission and rumors are that they are paid plenty. Until some reports are filed it will be impossible to determine just how much is being paid or just how generous the commission is in the matter of expense accounts.

The sales tax commission also has a free hand in dipping into the rich treasuries of that new revenue measure. It is expected that when the reports of that body are available there may be some startling discoveries. Perhaps the greed with which the members of this commission are seeking every possible article or piece of intangible personal property which they can claim is being sold at retail may be induced by a desire to have plenty of money to spend on their respective departments and to be certain that there are no payless pay days.

The blanket Barber code for N. R. A. has been set for St. Joseph Valley district, to take effect beginning Monday, Aug. 7. While we feel that the present code may seem a little drastic, yet the law says a majority rules, therefore we must abide by same both hours and prices, or lay ourselves liable to a fine of $500 or imprisonment. At the N. R. A. meeting Aug. 1st the hours and prices were set as follows:

Shop hours, 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. each day except as follows: Thursday 8 o'clock till 12 noon, Saturday, 8 o'clock a. m. to 8 o'clock p. m. Prices: shave, 25c; hair cut, 50c.

This Blanket Code becomes law Monday, August 7th and remains so until the final government code is set which may change both the hours and prices.

'Crime' Waves Do Spread

Jud Tunkids says there's a crime wave in his town so big that the old place is beginnin' to feel a sort o' pride in bein' so much like a regular big city.

Big Bells Passing Huge bells, bell towers, massive clock movements, according to Na-speakers and other equipment amplify sound impulses from tiny bells or chime tubes, imitating perfectly the sound of heavy bells.

"Oxford Movements"

The Oxford movement in the Church of England originated at Oxford university in 1833 in an endeavor to "bring the Anglican church back to the principles of the early Christianity of the Fathers." Its foundational principles were laid down in a series of 90 pamphlets known as "Tracts for the Times," and to which Newman, Pusey, Foulde and others contributed. One of them, written by Newman, declared the articles of the church might be so interpreted as to be consistent with the doctrines of the Council of Trent. This was condemned by the Anglican bishops in 1841 and Newman, with other leading tracta-rians, thereupon joined the Catholic church.

County Gets $7,266 Road Fund Remit Under McNitt Act

Remittance of Highway funds owing to the county of Berrien was forwarded last week to the county treasurer from the State Highway Department in the amount of $7,266.75. This remittance covers the amount due to the county as a refund, under the McNitt Act, and represents the third quarter of the total amount due to the county, under this Act, for the year 1933.
Because of the serious financial situation, created for the state by heavy real estate tax delinquencies of the past, delays have been experienced in forwarding to the several counties the monies due from the State Highway funds. The new State Highway Administration consequently found large arrearages in the accounts owing to the several county governments.
State Highway Commissioner VanWagoner, in co-operation with the Auditor General and the State Treasurer, has been able to secure release of the third quarter of the McNitt money, as well as other sums, due to the counties, and these remittances have now been forwarded.

Rare Candelabra on Exhibition in Swank's Window

Fire Scare at Main St. Home

History Buchanan Odd Fellow and Rebekah Chapters

Buchanan Lodge No. 75 I. O. O. F. was organized Aug. 2, 1855 with the following charter members: J. M. Mathews, David Beard, A. J. Wagner, Samuel Graham, and John Fraggins.

When Jeremiah Slater joined in 1860 the lodge was meeting in its present quarters on the third floor of the bank building, then known as the Dr. J. M. Roe building. The lodge bought the third floor from Dr. Roe, with the understanding that it would be responsible for keeping the roof in condition. Later the lodge bought the third floor of the Desenberg building adjoining and moved the lodge room there, turning the former quarters in the Roe building to club rooms.

The first Rebekah lodge was organized in 1871 as the Sunny Side Rebekah Lodge No. 46. Charter members were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coplin, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. J. Binns, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Niles, J. L. Marshall, F. C. Warren, Mrs. Nancy Rinker, Mrs. J. D. Ross, Mrs. A. Long.

Another lodge, Bayleaf Rebekah 248, was organized May 1, 1895. Lady charter members were Mary Hanover, Hattie Marble, Minnie Smith, Jane Wagner, Florence Coveny, Minnie Sennott. Last meeting July 1, 1896.

The third lodge was organized Jan. 29, 1908, same name used because the old seal was available. Charter members were Louise Eldridge, Nellie Hubert, Rose Hess, Carrie Dickinson, Ella Stevens, Cora Cauffman, Florence Murphy, Fred Eldridge, William Hulbert, H. D. Stevens, George I. Slater. Cigar Cabinet of H. W. Pfahler at Centennial

One of the finest specimens of hand carving displayed at the Centennial was the cigar cabinet made by the late H. W. Pfahler of Gallien, which was in the window of the Smoke Shop. The cabinet resembled an old style German chateau, the roof being a lid and the front a drawer. It was carved by Pfahler during his college days in Germany.

MANY THOUSAND PEOPLE ATTEND THE CENTENNIAL

Good Weather Aids Success of Occasion; Throngs Orderly, Police Handle Crowds Without Trouble.

The Centennial celebration and Home Coming of 1933 are now past and their happenings were too varied and voluminous to bear entire reproduction in print. However, it appeared to be the general opinion that the celebration had been well-handled, on the whole and well worth while. The committee in charge worked long and unselfishly for the success of the event, and they deserve at least the thanks of the community for their efforts.

The splendid public address system contributed very largely to the success of the event. Every provision was made for the comfort and convenience of the guests that the committee were able to forecast.

Chief Mitchell also deserves a word of praise for his success in maintaining order. The entire three-day and four-night program was practically unmarred by "rough stuff." Not a drunk was to be seen, or if a few overindulged they were not obnoxiously in evidence. Pick pockets worked for the first two days, gathering a small harvest, but through good police work their efforts were discouraged and they did not bother the last day when the heaviest attendance was present.

The committee in charge of collecting and displaying the antiques deserves commendation, for the exhibits were large and very well arranged. Their excellence was the subject of much comment. Mrs. J. F. Viele had charge of this department. Mrs. Pearl Carothers did some excellent work at the receiving room on Days ave. The other committee members, including Mrs. Charles Pears, Mrs. Lura French, Miss Lilly Abell, Mrs. Mae Whitman, Mrs. Ida Emerson, Mrs. J. C. Fulk, Mrs. H. V. Riley, Miss Georgia Wilcox, contributed to the success of the display.

The notices contained elsewhere in this paper cannot cover all of the displays, since there were thousands of articles. The stories are intended only to afford those who were not fortunate enough to witness the exhibits, some idea of their character. Many of the finest displays we were unable to comment on.

As to the attendance—one guess is as good as another, 15,000, 20,000, 30,000. But if there was ever a bigger, better celebration in town in the past we are sorry we missed it.

Carl Walters Wins High Grade Tube Bursting Contest

Carl Walters proved his ability as a good guesser by carrying off the prize in the tube bursting contest sponsored by the High Grade Oil Company in which a National Smer-Tread tube was burst with 463 strokes of an air pump. Walters guessed 464 strokes. About 500 guesses were made.
