

Now Here's the Proposition

BEFORE AND AFTER

Bi Haws
The farmer's paid in thanks When he markets his corn and oats
But they speak up rash for the good hard cash
When he goes to pay his notes But after the wheat is popped After the oats are rolled There's a great big spread for the overhead
And they're worth their weight in gold.

He feeds up his corn and hay Till his hogs and his steers are fat
And drives them to town and the price goes down
And leaves him broke and flat; For after the steers are steak After the pigs are pork They sell way high to the city guy And the cash goes to New York.

THOMAS MARSH, LOCAL PIONEER, BURIED TUESDAY

Born in Bertrand Township in 1852; Died Saturday at Home near Madron Lake.

Last rites for Thomas Alonzo Marsh, native and pioneer of the Buchanan district, were held on Tuesday afternoon, a service being held at 1:30 p. m. from his home, five miles northwest of Buchanan, and a service from the Evangelical church at 2:30 p. m. Rev. W. F. Boettcher officiating. Interment was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

Obituary
Thomas Alonzo Marsh was born in Bertrand township Berrien Co., Michigan, April 8, 1852.
He was united in marriage to Margaret Fedore on Oct. 13, 1878. To this union were born 6 sons and 3 daughters.
He was converted and united with the Evangelical church of Buchanan in 1897, under the pastorate of Rev. F. C. Burger, and remained faithful to the end.
Mr. Marsh spent his entire life in this community and state as a respected citizen and neighbor.
Three sons and one daughter preceded him in death.
Mr. Marsh lived to a good old age. His health has been in his favor. About two years ago his health began to fail and for over a year he was confined to his home.
The end came Saturday morning Nov. 4, at his home, where he has resided for 36 years.
He leaves to mourn, his widow, three sons, Willard, of Bendon, George and Henry of Buchanan; two daughters, Mrs. Anna May Conrad and Mrs. Mabel Keller; twenty grandchildren, ten great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Nettie Pitcher of Buchanan; a nephew in Washington, D. C., and a host of friends.

MAROONS WIN FROM STOVE CITY IN FINAL DRIVE

Bucaneers Outplay and Outfight Big Six League Leaders to Win by Margin of 1 Touchdown.

By Dick Schram
Led by a fighting Maroon line, the backfield quartette of Buchanan high ripped through center and drove off tackle to conquer Dowagiac, recognized Big Five Conference champions, 13 to 7.
The Buchanan line, outweighed by at least fifteen pounds to the man, clearly outplayed the heavier and more experienced Dowagiac forward wall.
"Aug" Topash, Buck center, supported by a pair of fighting guards, Lee Frame and J. Morris, tore holes in the Dowagiac line large enough for the entire Buchanan backfield to plunge through, and they did.

Claude Denno and "Bill" Frame tackles, turned back the charges of the 180 and 220 pound Dowagiac tackles, who tried in vain to penetrate the Buck line.

The Buck ends, Penwell and Brewer, were responsible for the success of many of the Maroon's plays, blocking out the opposing flanks and covering punts perfectly.

Proud, Jewell and Rossow reliever some of the regulars and all played splendid football, the Dowagiac eleven making no gain through these three.

In the backfield "Louie" Leiter and Lowell Batchelor starred, Leiter slicing off tackle for several long gains and Batchelor ripping through center, fighting for every extra yard to make nine of the sixteen first downs chalked up by the Maroons.

Deeds and Dan Topash, remaining two backfield men, also played outstanding football, and were aided by Dreitzler. Topash's accurate punts kept Dowagiac from gaining and Deeds' blocking contributed largely to the success of the backfield plays.

Dowagiac scored first in Saturday's clash, by means of Frontczak's 30 yard dash around left end early in the first quarter. Langley went over on a delayed line buck for the extra point, making the score 7 to 0.

Immediately following this score the Maroon eleven unleashed a furious attack that netted them seven first downs before the half ended, 7 to 0. Buchanan prevented from scoring by a fifteen yard penalty on the sixteen yard line.

Buchanan's first score in the last half came when Topash passed to Deeds for about fifteen yards and the touchdown. A line buck failed to net the extra point and the Bucks still trailed 7 to 6, although the Bucks' yardage gained was four times that of Dowagiac.

The winning score resulted in the last minute of play when Topash hurled a 30 yard pass to Brewer, who dashed the remaining yards for the final touchdown. Deeds' kick for extra point was good, and the Bucks led, 13 to 7. The game ended a few seconds later.

This Saturday the Bucks face Western State high, powerful eleven from Kalamazoo in a game that promises to be the Class C headliner in lower Michigan, at the local field.

The Western State backfield, consisting of Dibble, quarterback Hale Mackay, fullback, and Vanderbeck and Vanderberg, halfbacks, may prove troublesome to the Bucks Saturday.

When State played Wayland last Saturday, Mackay, by his plunges through center and off tackle, figured largely in the State victory. Mackay weighs about 175 and will be a hard man to stop.

Vanderberg's passes also netted State much of the yardage gained in the Wayland tilt.

As the Bucks conquered State's last year, the Kalamazoo eleven will be out for revenge in this season's game.

Saturday is Armistice Day and Booster day, and the day's program includes the ceremonies and parade in the morning, parade by the student body at 1:34 and the Class C clash between State and Buchanan at 2 p. m.

Football fans who attend the State-Buck tilt Saturday will see the Class C champions of lower Michigan emerge as victors, and will witness a brand of football seldom seen on high school gridirons, as both teams employ college style of formation shift and play. Buchanan employs what is popularly known as the Notre Dame system, developed by the late Knute Rockne, while Western State uses the shift and general type of play characteristic of the University of Michigan.

Saturday's game at 2 p. m. will cost 35c at the gate and will see these two systems employed to greatest advantage.

ATTENDANCE IN BUCHANAN SCHOOL STEADILY GROWS

Registration in Upper Grades is Index of School Efficiency; Ratio on Increase Locally.

When some of the attendance reports of past years are compared with those of this year several interesting facts regarding registration and attendance come to light. To most persons in any discussion of this sort the two most interesting divisions of the public schools are the intermediate division, seventh, eighth and ninth grades, and the higher division, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

It is found in a comparison of this sort that the registration in the Buchanan public schools has been steadily increasing. In 1927 there were 203 pupils registered in the intermediate division, in 1929 the number rose to 213, and this year the number has risen to 243. A similar increase is noted in the higher division where the totals were 150 in 1927, 168 in 1929, and 177 this year. Although no mention is to be made here of the grades a similar increase has occurred there.

During the month of October for these three years the average per cent of attendance shows little fluctuation. In the intermediate division the average per cent of attendance was 96.9 per cent in 1927, 96.2 per cent in 1929, and 95.9 per cent this year and in the higher divisions it was 97.9 per cent in 1927, 97.8 per cent in 1929, and 97.9 per cent this year. From these figures it can be seen that despite the increased registration the average per cent of attendance has been kept at an even figure.

A subject closely related to attendance is tardiness, a constant thorn in the side of every teacher. In the school year 1931-32 the regulations concerning tardiness were made somewhat stricter in the upper grades and appropriate punishments have been devised for tardy individuals. These changes have had their effect on the students as a comparison of aggregate tardiness shows. In the same period of these three years the aggregate tardiness of the intermediate division was 21 in 1927, 25 in 1929, and 25 in 1933. In the higher divisions, however, the aggregate tardiness was 15 in 1927, 19 in 1929 and in 1933 when the stricter rules were in force it was only 8. Thus the stricter rules, complained about by many as producing some very satisfactory results.

From this brief comparison it can readily be seen that the Buchanan public schools have become more efficient in that they handle an increasing number of students in a more satisfactory manner.

Praise Service at Presby. Church Monday Evening

The Annual Praise service of the Presbyterian church will be held Monday evening, Nov. 13, instead of on the evening of Nov. 15, as first announced.

There will be special music by the Vesper Singers under the direction of Mrs. H. B. Thompson. The guest speaker will be Dr. Rhys Paul of the Westminster Presbyterian church of South Bend. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m. A silver offering will be taken.

Miss Blanche Proud has joined the clerical force at the local Ind & Mich. Electric Co. offices.

Buchanan Will Observe Fifteenth Anniversary of Armistice On Saturday

Morning Program with Rev. H. W. Staver, Principal Knoblauch as Speakers.

The completion of the fifteenth year since the close of the World War in 1918 will be observed Saturday in Buchanan with observances more complete and elaborate than anything seen in the city since the beginning of the customs of the day.

The program will begin at 10 a. m. with a parade forming at the high school building and led by the high school band in uniform.

It is planned that the porch of the Carl Hamilton home at the corner of Oak and Front will be utilized as a speakers' platform. Rev. H. W. Staver will present an address at 10:50 a. m. A grave will be excavated in front of the Hamilton home between the sidewalk and curb and a simulated barbed wire entanglement placed around it. The high school band will play several selections after which the firing squad will discharge a volley over the grave at 11 a. m. sharp. John Hess will then play taps, and the rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the band will close the program.

After dinner the first event will be a demonstration and snake dance by the high school pupils in the business section, preliminary to the game with Western State high school of Kalamazoo at the Athletic Park diamond.

At 6 p. m. a pot luck supper will be served at the Legion hall for all ex-service men and their families. The meat, potatoes and gravy for the occasion will be furnished. A special invitation is extended to veterans of the Civil War and the Spanish-American war and their families. Those attending the supper are requested to bring their own table service. After the supper Arthur Knoblauch will address the meeting. The evening will then be closed with entertainment and dancing.

The completion of the fifteenth year since the close of the World War in 1918 will be observed Saturday in Buchanan with observances more complete and elaborate than anything seen in the city since the beginning of the customs of the day.

HOW ARTHUR LOST TOPCOAT AND FRED HAD A LEG PULLED

St. Joe Valley Executives Have Narrow Escape from Burning Car in Auto Entanglement Thursday.

Arthur J. George is a man of action, and a forehanded man as well, which explains why he is manager and purchasing agent for three farm co-operatives and also why he got some quick action in a car deal last Thursday.

Messrs. George and Fred Koeninghof started for LaPaz, Ind., to buy oats for the St. Joseph Valley Shipping Company. As they passed through South Bend, George stopped at an automobile sales agency and dickered for a new car. He was given an allowance on his old Essex and paid a deposit. Then he resumed his journey in the old Essex.

Taking State Census Here to Provide Old Age Pension Funds

Fred Lardner of Niles is taking the state census of Buchanan this week. This census is being taken as a basis for the application of the poll tax of $2 which is to be assessed on all males and females between the ages of 21 and 70 years, to provide funds for the old age pension. The county clerk will receive applications for pensions after the first of the year but there will be no funds available for several months after that. The $2 tax must be paid by March.

After determining that no one was injured, he went to a nearby telephone, and called the auto agency in South Bend, asking immediate delivery of his new car. Which explains why he returned in a shiny light blue coach. The old car was insured. However there was no coverage for the overcoat or for Mr. George until he bought a new one.

DETROIT PASTOR TO CONDUCT EVAN. REVIVAL SERVICE

Minister of Calvary Evangelical Church and Frequent Radio Broadcaster to be Here Nov. 13-21.

Rev. Edgar S. Faust, minister of the Calvary Evangelical church at Detroit, comes to the Buchanan Evangelical church to conduct the evangelistic meetings from Nov. 13 to 21. Rev. Faust is well known as a radio broadcaster of his services, and also for the Detroit Council of churches over station WWJ on numerous occasions.

He holds prominent offices as secretary of the Michigan conference for over eight years, and is president of the board of examiners of the union ministers in the conference, also represents the conference on the board of trustees of North Central College at Naperville, Ill. He is a graduate of North Central and of the Evangelical Theological Seminary.

He comes to Buchanan as a forceful speaker, with a pleasing personality, and a living gospel message. If you hear him once, you will want to hear him again. He made a trip to the Holy Land a few years ago. Monday evening, Nov. 13, he will speak on "A Pilgrimage to Palestine," in motion picture. The reels were taken by himself. He will present three reels. The first will show the northern limits of Bible history, including Damascus and other points in Syria. The second, the southern limits including Egypt. The third reel centers in and around the city of Jerusalem, including Bethlehem, the Dead Sea, the Jordan River, Calvary and Christ's tomb. A free will offering will be taken.

His subject for Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, "Five Smooth Stones;" Wednesday, "He Took a Towel;" Thursday, "Shaking Off Vipers;" Friday, "The Gird of the Lost."

On Sunday, Nov. 19, his subject will be "The Marks of a Christian." Sunday evening, "The Eternal Building." Rev. Faust reserves the right to change the subjects if advisable. All week-day services begin at 7:30 p. m. The Sunday evening service at 7:00 o'clock, slow time.

County Chairman Asks Communities to Contribute as Many Dollar Members as Needy Families Aided.

The following letter was received by Mrs. E. C. Mogford, chairman of the Red Cross for the city of Buchanan, relative to the coming roll call and the expectations of the county organization from this community:

As chairman of the ladies' organization for the handling of the Red Cross goods in your township, I am asking you to support in every way possible the Roll Call for the Red Cross for 1933.

Enclosed you will find a statement of the garments, flour, and cloth that has gone to your township from the American Red Cross. Britain's Rights in Egypt

When the British protectorate over Egypt was terminated Great Britain reserved to its discretion four subjects: Safety of the British Empire communications, defense of Egypt against foreign aggression, direct or indirect; protection of foreign interests in Egypt and of minorities, and guarantee for British interests in the Sudan.

dual life, and presents a number of interesting high-lights teetered around a large broadcasting studio. Baby LeRoy, the cute baby of "A Bedtime Story," again receives a principal part. "Moanin' Low," "Please," and "Here Lies Love," are new song hits which will be presented in the picture by Miss Colbert.

The Great Deserts In physiographic, geologic and climatic aspects the great American and the Sahara deserts are alike. The Sahara is larger, but does not have the mineral resources of the American desert. Through mechanical means, the wastes of the American desert have been made to yield considerable wealth.

It is a notable and magnificent production, said to exceed in dramatic quality even the far-famed "Disraeli" and marks the high spot of the career of the world's most distinguished actor.

The picture "Voltaire" features one spectacular incident in the life of the brilliant poet-philosopher, who was a frigidly principled in Europe, but a champion of the common people of his native land.

FINANCE

A project approved by the federal government may be finance in two ways:

a. Purchase of the bonds issued to finance the project. b. Lease by the government which would then hold title to project until paid for through rental or payment of purchase price.

In the case of bond issuance, the government will bid, provided that the bonds bear four per cent interest.

The government recommends financing such projects by the sale of general obligation bonds, where possible.

Where such bonds are issued, they must be advertised and opened for bids according to the regular procedure.

The municipality may issue bonds to the full estimated cost of the project, or less the amount of the federal grant.

Although the government will pay 30 per cent of the cost of labor and material, this grant does not include overhead costs such as right-of-way, legal and engineering fees, etc., which ordinarily constitute about 10 per cent of the total. The actual grant of the government is ordinarily in the neighborhood of 25 per cent of the total cost.

Where the municipality has not the authority to borrow the funds, the government may finance the cost of the approved project and enter into a contract with the city whereby the latter may purchase the property on the installment plan.

LABOR

The labor shall be selected from qualified workers who are unemployed.

All employees shall be paid a just and reasonable wage, which shall be compensation sufficient to provide, for the hours of labor as limited, a standard of living in decency and comfort.

In selecting from the unemployed, preference shall be given to ex-service men with dependents, and after that selection, to residents of the district or unit within which the work is to be performed, in case a sufficient supply of qualified labor is there available.

The maximum of human labor shall be employed in lieu of machinery wherever practical and consistent with sound public advantage.

A thirty hour week shall be the rule, wherever practicable and feasible.

When time is lost through inclement weather, such time may be made up in succeeding weeks.

(NOTE: The amount designated as a "just and reasonable wage" is determined in schedules furnished the state engineer. Unofficial statements to the effect that this would be 50 cents per hour for unskilled and $1.25 per hour for skilled labor for Buchanan have not yet been confirmed here.)

PENALIZING THE SELF-SUPPORTING

"I'm beginning to think I will have to apply for help from the town in order to get a job," said a competent and well-educated young fellow who dropped into the office last week. "I've never applied for any help yet, and just for that reason I'm shut out of a lot of jobs."

"I haven't had a job for two years. I lost my regular chance for a job here because three years ago I followed what looked like a good lead and took a job in another town. But when the depression got tighter, the firm I was working for began to turn off men, and since I was one of the last ones on, I was one of the first to be let go."

"So I came back here and by hook and crook and by some private help I have kept off public aid. But what was the use? They built a state highway here last summer—nothing but dole help. They talk about building sewers here—nothing but dole help. They send in around the country for help in the berry and fruit season—the dole men get it. So it begins to look like it would be policy for me to get on the list. Instead of putting a premium on trying to earn your own living, this dole policy is driving men to become public wards."

"If a man is fighting for his own economic existence, it seems to me that it would be good sense to help him keep off public aid as far as possible."

Callahan Gives Six Reasons for Present Plight of Prohibition Patrick H. Callahan of Louisville, secretary of the Association of Catholics Favoring Prohibition was the speaker at the banquet closing the annual meeting of the National Catholic Total Abstinence Union, held recently at the Stevens hotel in Chicago, and gave the following reasons in the order named for the present plight of Prohibition.

The depression or economic breakdown beginning in 1929 and creating a psychological unrest in Washington and Governors in states did not appreciate or comprehend the potential benefits of a liquorless nation.

Law enforcement was never at any time what it should have been. Poor observance at the top was responsible for poor enforcement by the officials put in charge.

The newspapers of the large cities and other educational mediums such as radio broadcasting programs and likewise the movie performances were our opponents from the beginning.

Race and Religious Prejudices must be recognized that we have inherited the habits and customs of many races, and religious customs in regard to Prohibition becoming very intense.

The influence of large sums of money and a very smart direction of the movement to bring about the return of liquor. Prohibition Means Greater Safety Gasoline and liquor don't mix.

"Safety first" demands holding the 18th Amendment. Repeal would mean an invitation to liquor drinking being openly before the more than 50 million drivers of cars and trucks on the streets and roads.

"No one wants any drinking man to be at the mercy of machinery and no one wants to be at the mercy of machinery in the hands of a drinking man."—Henry Ford in Colliers, June 1932.

From 2 to 4 hours after taking as much alcohol as is in 2 ounces of whisky, average American highball or pint of beer, the mental processes necessary to carry a danger signal to the eye and respond in movement of hand or foot take 2 to 3 times as long as the normal.—Dr. A. V. Stocks, Medical Research Com., England.

The driver who normally can stop his car in 10 feet goes 20 to 30 feet after he's had "a drink or two."

The Currency Medium Outside of the United States and certain island possessions, United States currency is the currency medium in British Honduras, Dominican Republic, Hawaii, the northern part of Honduras, Liberia, Panama and Puerto Rico. Cuba employs United States currency in conjunction with the peso, the national unit of currency.

Bimetallism in About 1790 Alexander Hamilton established American bimetallism in about 1790, at a ratio of 15 to 1. This overvalued silver, however, and our gold was drained away to mints in other countries which bid higher. In 1834 the ratio was changed to 16 to 1, which overvalued gold and most of our silver disappeared.

MANY EXCELLENT EXHIBITS SHOWN AT FALL FESTIVAL

Walls of School Rooms Lined with Work Testifying to High Grade Instruction of Local Schools.

Among the colorful rooms at the exhibit, Mrs. Dunbar's was an outstanding one. The walls and windows were covered with bright and attractive travel posters done by the junior classes. These posters formed a literary travel bureau, advertising good books to read. In the realm of books, everything was covered from Chaucer to Halliburton.

An especially fine poster, illustrating the characters of the "Canterbury Tales" in hand-drawing and painting, was done by Geneva Troutfetter. A clever project of a scene from "Robinson Crusoe" was entered by Donald Roti Roti.

Among the other things of interest were the original poems contributed by the seventh grade on the subject of October and Halloween. Exceptionally good poems were written by Ruth Jean Haslett, Rita May Huebner, Burdett Walter, Lewis Pascoe, Phil Pierce, and Robert Habicht.

The outstanding essays done by the seniors were "Elevators and Escalators" by Mary Irvin; "Insects, Glory of Nature," Clarence Rice; and "Is Private Ownership of Real Property Dying out in Michigan because of Taxation?" by Thomas Quirk.

A group of senior notebooks on Contemporary Literature were also shown. Noticeable notebooks from the seventh grade were won by Betty Anne Miller, Ruth Montgomery, Falava Rohl, Karol Dunlap and Ruth Jean Haslett.

Other entries were a series of book reviews by the juniors, our folk ballads collected by the juniors and seniors, and alumni creative writings.

The business course exhibit was shown in Miss Quade's room where specimens of penmanship in short-hand, cursive and other styles of bookkeeping work, first year typing drills, and second year typing designs, legal papers and bills lined the interior.

Miss Shriver's bookcase was filled to its capacity with all sorts of projects from her Latin group. Among these were wooden instruments of war, the construction of Casca's bridge, a chariot, and the ancient Coliseum, all hand work done by this class.

The Latin Club exhibited a large map of the city of Rome on which were miniature buildings carved of soap. Many other soap carvings were shown also.

Very interesting notebooks were contributed by the Latin 9 classes. An illustration was made for each letter in the alphabet.

French 11 students exhibited papers of their daily work, and French 12 entered some very well drawn maps, of which Chester Wessendorf's was the most outstanding.

Another very attractive room was Miss Hanlin's, which displayed many colorful projects of interest. The sophomores entered posters and projects from the story, "The Tempest." Among these were a moss covered treasure chest filled with many humorous articles by Theda Strunk and Ruth Babcock. Howard McClellan had a clever clay cave scene, and likewise Clyde Shaffer's plaque done in paint. An exceptionally neat map of the Spanish Main was drawn by John Dale.

Very interesting stories describing covers from the Saturday Evening Post magazine were done by the freshmen. Notebooks were entered from the 7th to 9th grades.

Miss Thompson's exhibit proved to be of especial appeal to the mothers and women visitors. The "daughters" of domestic science turned out a lot of interesting competitive work.

Muffins made by their own vol-unters competing in the show. Posters were also made giving the rules in the preparation and in the setting of the breakfast table.

The eighth grade competed in the luncheon salad, made from their own recipes. Good cake and luncheon posters and the setting of a luncheon table posters also were exhibited.

Competitive cake making was done by the freshmen, and also posters on the setting of a dinner table.

The nature study consisted of vegetables, fall leaves, flowers and insects. Miss Genevieve Carnagan's first grade had an interesting sand table with the barn yard animals set up on card board cut outs. They also had a special continuous story, in poster form, of the three bears made by Bobby Mitchell, Jack Russell, Kenneth Mitchell, Harry Lintner, David Cocitas, and Lowry Mills.

Free hand drawings, cuttings and colorings were the interesting work of Miss Belle Miller's first grade exhibit. These drawings consisted of fruit posters, Halloween cut outs, and autumn leaves.

The third grade under Miss Nina Fischer's supervision had an interesting display of nature drawings, penmanship papers, and a series of deep sea fish. Buddy Matthews had an exceptional study of one fish. All of this work was done free hand.

Mrs. Wilcox's second grade made some very interesting health books and free hand drawings of Indian life. The exhibit was cutting and arranging it in bowls was also very pleasing.

In the opportunity room, which takes in second and third grades, instructed by Miss Johanna Desenberg, they set up an amateur Indian wigwam made out of gummy sacks, but nevertheless very exceptional. They also had a sand table demonstrating the Indian life. Thelma Flannagan, Merion Lee Hanlin, and George Marks did outstanding work in free hand Indian drawings.

The fourth grade under the instruction of Miss Ida Ahola, had some very fine health and transportation posters on display. Geographical drawings of the zones of the earth had also a distinctive place in their exhibit.

In the manual training exhibit of the ninth grade, the first prize was won by Jack Dalenberg with a fernery. The second prize was won by Bill Kuntz, who exhibited a footstool. Charles Cronin won the third prize with a corner shelf.

There were no ribbons awarded in the mechanical drawing exhibit but some very good work was on display.

The physics laboratory took the aspect of a miniature World's Fair with its exhibits of many different types of phenomena. There were experiments on sound, light heat, electricity, air pressure, gravity, and time. The experiments were set up by Mr. Moore, the physics instructor, with the assistance of George Spatta, Chandos Jackson, John Godfrey and Carson Donley.

The exhibit of the chemistry department was very comprehensive and explained with clearness, many of the finer points of chemistry. There were experiments on carbon dioxide, electrolysis, distillation, and the preparation of hydrochloric acid.

There was also an exhibit of the elements and the preparation of jewelers rouge.

The exhibits were set up by Albert Webb, Edwin Donley, and Fred Riley under the direction of Mr. Moore.

The general science exhibit was made up of papers written on the simple machines and illustrations of these machines.

The advanced algebra class had an exhibit of graphs of different equations.

Many geometrical designs and geometry papers made up the exhibit of the tenth grade geometry class.

First prize in the exhibit of maps by the tenth grade history class was won by Caroline Hattenbach. Second prize was won by Bernadine Reinke.

The sophomore notebook first prize was won by Frances Hamilton, with Vivian Sanford's notebook second. There was no third prize. Helen Spatta exhibited her notebook made last year.

Chandos Jackson won first prize with his map in the twelfth grade history class exhibit. Hope Kelly's map was second and Donald Burrus' was third.

nelpers were Betty Burgoyne and Marilyn Staver.

H. S. Students Present 2 Plays At P. T. A. Exhibit

Two one-act plays were presented in the high school auditorium Friday night.

A light one-act comedy, "Speaking to Father," written by George Ade was given under the direction of Miss Helen Hanlin. George Spatta portrayed a fatherly pickle king, Septimus Pickering, and Cherry Heim, his wife, Luella Pickering.

The love element occurred between Pickering's daughter, Caroline, Una Kelley, and a young college graduate, Chandos Jackson.

Prof. Blics, apostle of repose, Ben Franklin, was Lucile Pickering's choice of a husband for her daughter.

An entirely different type of play, "The Bishop's Candlesticks," by Normal McKinnel, directed by Mrs. Velma Dunbar, was given as the second play. The time of the action was at the beginning of the last century.

The portrayal of the escaped convict, by George Remington proved to be a bright spot in the action.

The bishop was Thomas Quirk and Persone, the bishop's sister, was played by Mary Irvin. Winifred Shafer was Mary and Sergeant of Gendarmes, Robert Stevens.

The orchestra practiced for a concert during the banquet sponsored by the P. T. A. Friday evening of last week.

The program consisted of: "Valse" by Schmidt. J. Widdel "Fair Maid of Perth" "Les Adieux", Phablo de Sarastoe "A French melody

"Dance of the Crickets" Sorely "Chanson Papulaire" G. Bizet "Selection" G. Bizet

From the opera "Carmen" The glee clubs are preparing for the annual festival to be held at St. Joseph this year. The boys are singing: "Come to Me in My Dreams" by Noble Cain, while the girls are singing "River, River," a Chilean folk song.

3rd, 4th Grade Mothers Meet at Dewey Ave School

There was a fine attendance of Mothers at the third and fourth grade group meeting at Dewey Avenue school, Oct. 26. Two very interesting class demonstrations were given and a talk by Mrs. J. R. Semple that brought out much discussion.

Delicious refreshments were served during which time opportunity was given for further questions to be answered. It is desired that all mothers of pupils of the third and fourth grades in the high school building will plan to be present at their group meeting. Remember the date, Nov. 23.

Velmarian Lit Gives Program Impersonations

The Velmarian Literary Society sponsored impersonations Thursday afternoon. They impersonated characters in fiction and authors.

Outstanding characters portrayed were as follows: Omar Khayyam, Lowell Batchelor; Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm, Marie Reese; Lady Macbeth in her sleep walking scene, Helen Spatta; Jane Eyre, Martha Dellinger; Tom Sawyer and Paul, Anna Grace Rannahan and Lucille Lightfoot; Romeo and Juliet, Edna Holmes and Robert Willard; and Huckelberry Finn by two groups.

Editorial

With the signing of the Armistice on November 11, 1918, the worst war the world has ever known, ended. Next Saturday we honor those persons who risked and who gave their lives to protect the nation they loved.

During this time of the year when remembrances of the "Great War" come back, it is the tendency of the majority to put the blame upon Germany. Whether or not Germany was primarily responsible for starting the war cannot be said, but it is known that the statesmen of that country declared that war was inevitable, and that Germany was preparing for it financially by creating a fund known as the "War Chest."

Because of the "Great War" many billions were lost in money, millions of lives were lost, and great areas of land devastated. Great Britain was the largest monetary loser. Her total expenses including those incurred by loans to allies, amounted to $44,029,011,868. Germany's total expenditures were approximately $40,150,000,000. The burden placed upon France because of the World War was set at $24,265,582,800.

The burden of the United States, even though in the war but a short time, ranked fourth with expenses totaling $22,625,282,842.

Besides this great loss in capital there were 9,998,771 known to have been killed, and 2,991,800 presumed to have died in the various armies. Of these total 7,553,600 were killed in action, while the total number wounded in action has been placed at 16,937,907.

School Slants

Mr. Moore, chemistry and physics expounder of knowledge, seems to be returning to childhood. For several days during the last week he has been playing with marbles, steel ball bearings and a long board. He would stand with a ball in his hand, place it on the inclined board, and let it roll. Although the result seemed the same to the casual observer, the ball merely rolling down the board, Mr. Moore seemed unusually pleased at some of the results and rubbed his palms together in great glee.

When questioned, Mr. Moore regrettably left his pen to explain. It seems he was demonstrating and proving some of Galileo's laws of gravitation and falling bodies and was really quite serious about it all.

DID YOU KNOW— That Richard Schram has an aeroplane plate in mechanical drawing? That "Curly" Bradfield's picture was in the paper? That Geneva Troutfetter won two first prizes in the general exhibit?

That Max Dreitzler and Max Penwell are together again? That Bebe Neal's present big moment has lasted two months? That Frances DiGiacomo has gone in for bangs in a big way?

DO YOU KNOW— Which Senior boy makes eyes at a certain sophomore girl in sixth hour? Who the excellent cartoonist is in the senior class? Look at our rouge's gallery, for instance.

HAVE YOU NOTICED? How excited and tense everyone was when he entered the different rooms to look for the happy persons who won prizes. That Donna Bird has gone back to Berrien Springs again?

LET UNCLE DO IT Herschel Gross thinks the year books of the United States department of agriculture are wrong. They should put totals where Herschel can see them. It seems that Herschel was looking through one of these books to find the effect of rainfall upon the production of wheat for the last ten years. The results were given by month rather than by year. Herschel thinks the United States should do the adding rather than he.

ROUGES' GALLERY If you've never had the opportunity to witness the expressions of the fighting Bucks in action, go to the bulletin board on the second floor and see a never-to-be forgotten scene. The meekness and determination of our ever-famous half-back is cleverly portrayed. A well-shaped nose and clean cut chin is displayed on the left tackle, while the savageness of the quarter-back is shown.

After looking at this Buchanan team you will cease to worry one minute about the outcome of any game to be played.

5th grade We have completed our South American product map and are now beginning the study of Europe.

We have drawn and colored a sunrise scene with the Mayflower in the foreground.

Class Activities

Home Economics The seventh grade home economics classes have been working on breakfast breads. This week they will be working on the seven different ways toast is used. Examples of the ways toast is used are dry, buttered, creamed, milk toast, French and toast prepared with meat.

Making vegetable luncheon dishes and their accompaniments has been the work of the eighth grade. They have also been working on creamed and escalloped dishes.

The preparation of dinner meats and their accompaniments has been the work of the ninth grade. Examples are: They have prepared that with lamb, peas and mint sauce are served with ham, serve beans or pineapple and orange sauce; with pork, apple sauce is served and with veal, tomato sauce.

The tenth grade has been working on their different garments. Most of the girls are now working on the sleeves which are very attractive.

Miscellaneous The seventh graders have been working on the colonization period in America.

The freshmen were defeated by the seniors 3-0 in the soccer game played for the tournament. The freshmen were led by Margaret Huss, and the seniors were led by the captain, Mary Donley.

The freshmen were defeated by the juniors who had only seven of players on the field. The score was 2-0; the juniors were led by their captain, Lillias Peacock.

The freshmen were defeated by the sophomores 1-0. The sophomore captain was Stella Smith. The juniors were defeated, 1-0 by the sophomores. This and the senior game was the hardest game of the season for the juniors.

The juniors were defeated 1-0 by the seniors. The sophomores and seniors tied 1-1 in the last soccer game.

This completes the soccer tournament. The winners, the sophomores and seniors, will play the winners of the Niles tournament. After school the girls have been practicing volleyball.

They have been practicing stunts in their gym classes. History 12 The seniors in history are working with the chapter entitled Jacksonian Era. The Spills System is also connected with this subject.

"The Barbarian Invasions of Rome" is being studied by the tenth graders. They are finding out how the Roman Empire met destruction by the invasions of these barbarian tribes.

Citizenship 9 and 10 The freshmen and sophomores in the citizenship class are discussing the part beauty plays in influencing people to better living conditions, as to homes, streets, etc.

English 9 and 10 The ninth grade is beginning a new text book. This book is used by some of the leading schools of the United States. It is written in an interesting form with clever illustrations. The class will begin the book by reviewing parts of speech.

The work of the sophomores has been the study of narration, emphasizing the types, as the anecdote, tale, news story, biography, autobiography and diary.

Journalism The journalism class will begin the chapter dealing with effective sentences.

Mechanical Drawing The mechanical drawing class has some very good displays. Chester Wessendorf has two booklets on the plans for a bungalow, explaining the sizes and material of the houses.

The rest of the classes have motor drawings, vises and angles. Shop George Remington has made a very nice lawn chair; also, Jack Dalenberg has a nice fern stand.

worth Maxson, Ruth Toll, Alford Widing, Evelyn Wolford, Betty Bennett, Vivian Bennett, Betty Myers, John Huff, Marilyn Myers, Winnie Ross, Lois Gridley.

Robert Bailey, who had scarlet fever several weeks ago is still quite ill. The children are collecting money to take him some fruit.

In art we are drawing all kinds of vegetables. We are learning the first verse of "The Star Spangled Banner." We have also learned all of "America."

English 7, 11, and 12 The Courtship of Miles Standish was finished by the 7th grade. English classes last week. They also memorized passages from "The Landing of the Pilgrims."

Juniors continued work on the Tragedy of Macbeth, and outside of class each student is reading one of Shakespeare's tragedies. Different speeches from the plays are being memorized.

Short story writing held the interest of the seniors last week, and they also studied dramatic poetry.

Mathematics Algebra students are finding the solution of problems by multiplication. They will have a test at the end of the week.

Polynomials and finding the number of degrees in the angles of them is the work of the geometry students. They will also have a test.

The advanced algebra students are studying special products and factoring.

Science Physics classes are finishing composition and resolution of the factors that must be considered in the construction of a machine or building.

Boyle's law and Charles' law is the work of the chemistry classes. Boyle's law deals with the volume of gas with regard to pressure.

Charles' law deals with the volume of gas with regard to temperature. Common application of both of these laws is the blow-out on an automobile tire.

Biology classes are running a growing test on plants to find the effect of temperature, moisture types of soil and method of application of fertilizers. Also they are starting a growing test on rabbits, donated to the school by Mary Jane Heierman. Aldis Bank is feeding them and running the experiments, while Richard Ellis weighs them.

The first rabbit is getting just a minimum amount of food. The second is getting a maximum amount. The types of food are the same. The object is to notice the effect of the amount of food consumed to the rate of growth of the animal.

Minna Wagner has given the biology department four gold fish and a snail, which are certainly welcome additions to the aquarium.

By Una Kelley Here's a new recipe to serve breakfast with your "bread and butter." Wise boy friend to sweet young thing: "How about a merger between you and me?" S. Y. T. "Would it be like when you merger someone?"

Then there's the reward a certain B. H. S. student who is "Uno" about a girl in Niles made to his friend about said girl friend. "Our relations are purely platonic," he averred. "Yeh!" grunted his cynical pal. "Play for you and tonic for her."

This happened in Geometry class. Mr. Hyink: "Ted Lyon, what do you think geometry is?" Ted: "Well, some of it's common sense."

Mr. Hyink (with meaning inference) "That might not be the fault of the geometry you know." Was little Teddy taken down a notch or two? Just ask him!

A light in an ice-coated summer house... a lover who was a fugitive... a peck of Minky Black hats clutched in a dead woman's hands. All these figure in a mysterious and sinister murder in Chicago. Be sure to start "The Dark Garden"—the most fantastic murder mystery ever written—in The Chicago Herald and Examiner. Mrs. Glenn Swaim states that she has received two letters from her sister, Miss Ruth Comer, since the latter's arrival at Havana, Cuba. Miss Comer writes that there is still much disturbance and the detonation of bombs can be heard nightly but that Americans are not being molested at present.

George Arliss as Voltaire is seen here denouncing Gordon Westcott in a dynamic scene from "The Affairs of Voltaire," which comes to the Hollywood Theatre next Sunday for three days.

Library of Congress' Busts There are five busts over the main entrance to the Library of Congress. That in the center is of Benjamin Franklin. On the left stand Washington Irving and the German poet, Goethe. On the right are Lord Macaulay and Nathaniel Hawthorne. Capitals of French Territory Mobile was the capital of the French province of Louisiana until 1720. For several years also in the early part of the Eighteenth century Biloxi was the capital of the French territory in this part of North America.

Wool Used for Roads In Australia when there is usually a surplus of wool crop, low-grade wool is used for road building. A layer of wool is laid and covered with earth, the long wool fibres holding the soil together and permitting it to pack down solidly. Australia also uses large ropes for automobile tires. Animals' Way to Beat Fleas Some naturalists have claimed that wild animals rid themselves of fleas by taking a piece of moss or like substance in the mouth, and slowly backing into the water. The fleas quickly leave the body and take refuge in the moss. Just before the animal becomes entirely submerged it releases the moss and is relieved of the fleas.

GALIEN COUPLE TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN ANNIV.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Payne Were Wedded in Galien Nov. 10, 1883; Always Lived There.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Payne will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at their home on Friday, Nov. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne are well known in Berrien county. Mr. Payne or "Ted" as all call him, was born in Weesaw, Nov. 16, 1831, the son of Thomas and Lydia Payne, and lived in a house surrounded by woods.

Mrs. Payne was Bertha Roberts, and was born in Hudson Co., Ohio, and emigrated to Michigan in the spring of 1870 with her parents, who settled on a farm in Galien Wood's and lived in a log house for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne were married Nov. 10, 1883, at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. Sidney Davis, of the Baptist church of Galien, of which Mrs. Payne was a member. They have always lived on a farm in Weesaw and Galien townships except five years spent in a hotel in Galien.

From there they moved to the present farm in Weesaw. One son, LeRoy Payne of Galien, and one daughter, Mrs. Maude Toland of Benton Harbor, with their families consisting of 11 grandchildren and two great grandchildren, compose the happy couple.

Sunday, Nov. 12, there will be open house from one to five, for relatives and friends, at the home of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Payne.

Helen Hall, Age 7, Daughter Lyle Hall, Expired on Friday

The sad news arrived here on Friday of the death of Miss Helen Hall, 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hall, who died at the home of her parents at Jackson, after an illness of ten days.

Helen was a very bright child, the joy of the home and a great favorite among her school chums. Besides her bereaved parents, she leaves a brother, three years old, and a host of relatives and friends, who join with the Record in extending their deepest sympathy.

Mr. Hall was born and raised in Galien.

The funeral services were held Monday at 2 o'clock at the Galien cemetery.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. R. Voss of Iowa, (parents of Mrs. Hall); Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Voss of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller of Hillsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Hinkham of Jackson, Mrs. Myra Hess of Buchanan, Mrs. Rosebelle Spaulding and children of Glendora.

Culture Club Has Program on Century Progress

The Culture Club held their meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Renbarger. "Century of Progress" was the afternoon subject, and was given by Mrs. D. W. Ewing, Mrs. Clyde Swank and Mrs. C. Renbarger.

Mrs. Carl Guettler says a banner is being given to the rural school having the best exhibit. There are also ribbons to be given to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prize winners in the different exhibits shown by individuals from the various schools.

The girl scouts will be there with a fish pond where you may fish and not have to tell a fish story about your catch as you are guaranteed to get something.

The classes in high school including the band have been working on their various booths making them attractive with many things you are sure to want.

If you care to find something useful as well as beautiful, plan to visit the fancy work booth under the direction of Mrs. H. Harper.

The men as well as the ladies and children will be glad to hear that the corn game is to again be a feature of the Festival. All kinds of presents are to be presented and the chairman, Mrs. John Woods and Mrs. Charles Osborn, are prepared for a crowd so come and get something useful.

The New Troy Agricultural show will be held in connection with the Festival this year. Exhibits of grain, fruit and apples will be shown by farmers and students.

The entertainment for each evening has been planned by Miss Beatrice Mills, music instructor, who promises good programs for each evening.

The P. T. A. cordially invites you to come from far and near to attend these evenings of fun and frolic.

Miss Irene Shinn Weds Benny Kaiser On Saturday evening, Oct. 14, at 7:30 in St. John's Lutheran church at Whiting, occurred the pretty wedding of Miss Irene Shinn, daughter of Mrs. Edith Shinn, and Benny Kaiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kaiser of Whiting. Rev. John Bopp read the service before a number of relatives and friends.

Miss Shinn chose as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Evelyn Shinn, while Miss Louise Fandrei of Hammond attended her as bridesmaid. Mr. Kaiser chose as best man, his brother, William Kaiser and Lyle Williams served as usher.

Mrs. John Bopp at the organ played Lohengrin's wedding march and Mrs. Howard Cobb sang, "Because" and "At Dawning." The bride was beautifully gowned in white chiffon velvet fashioned along Princess lines and her veil was a Julie, cap studded with seed pearls. Miss Shinn carried a bouquet of Cala lilies.

Miss Evelyn Shinn was attractively dressed in a gown of olive green satin with brown velvet hat and carried yellow tea roses. Mr. Fandrei wore a gown of sumach satin with brown velvet hat and carried tallman roses.

After the ceremony the bride and groom and their immediate families and bridal party were served a wedding dinner at Levent's. Relatives and friends of the bride and groom were entertained at a reception during the evening.

Following the reception the bridal couple left on a motor trip to Florida. Upon their return they will make their home with the bride's mother. Mrs. Kaiser is a graduate of the Whiting high school and has been employed at the Standard Oil Co. Mr. Kaiser is associated with his father in the ice and coal business. Both of the young people are popular in Whiting and have many friends who extend their best wishes.

Out of town guests were the bride's sister, Mrs. R. Gentelon, and family of Chicago, and Mrs. Alfred Fienar, a cousin, of Buchanan. Mrs. Kaiser was a former Buchanan resident and has a number of friends here, who will wish her happiness.

Weekly Parade MR. KLEHN IS A PHILA—YOU TELL 'EM, WE STUTTER Among the philatelists (a two dollar word, which we furnish free to our subscribers, all included in the subscription price of $1.50 per year and whose baby do you vote for?) of this, our city, is A. H. Klehn, and in case you are in doubt what that may be, it is a man who stamps around and collects stamps. Which explains the letters which Klehn receives at the way from Friedrichshafen, via the Graf Zeppelin.

STATE POLICE ARE PARTIAL Seems like the state police have been showing a little partiality in whose slot machines they knock off in Buchanan. They blew into town the first of the week and carried off one, when we know of eight or ten going full blast elsewhere. But then human nature is human nature and we suppose they went broke trying to get the jack pot and carried the machine off to get their money back.

READ AND CONSIDER

The following anecdote has seen the light of print before but its application is perennial, universal and never more forcible than at the present juncture. We thank Mr. Monroe, the picture man, for calling it to our attention: It is reported that one of the fastidious newly-married ladies of this town kneads bread with her gloves on. This incident may be peculiar, but there are others. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on, and uncles some of the delinquent subscribers to this "Old Rag" pony up before long, he will need bread without a damn thing on, and Wisconsin is no Garden of Eden in the winter time.—Wisconsin Rural paper.

MR. OLSON WAITS FOR BREAK

And now, boys and girls, you will please come to attention for the class in physical hygiene. This tall, strapping young man is John Olson, former circus strong man, who is now working at the Clark Equipment company until he gets a break under the big tops again. Show us your muscle, John, that's the stuff. Doesn't even have to take his coat off—you can see the big muscles pop up all over him.

Now some years ago John got his start in the strong man and acrobat business when he won a lifting contest over 150 others in a Boston gymnasium. It was just an easy little workout, taking 100 pound dumbbells in one hand and seeing how many times you could raise them over your head and lower them, and the like. Then after that he got some entertainment engagements, a look-in at vaudeville, and finally under the big tops with Sells Floto. Came the depression and the wages went down, down, down until a strong man was no more in demand than a mere banker. So Olson found a berth here. But still he keeps himself fit—no fried stuff, no smoking, no beer. Waiting for a break.

BUCHANAN HOLDS ITS OWN

We've heard considerable speculation lately to the effect that Buchanan had lost population since the depression, the main argument being how much. But the other day we were in Wonderlich's real estate office and heard some figures that sounded different. Six months ago, said E. C., there were in the neighborhood of 80 houses empty in Buchanan. Now all are practically full, allowing for the dozen or so that are normally empty on account of changing tenants. Collection of rentals over the city is fully fifty per cent better than it was last spring and winter, — stated.

ROOSEVELT LOOSING GROUND WITH HOBOES

Tuesday a stalwart, good-looking young fellow from the west came through the path between the Indiana & Michigan and Remington's blacksmith shop and canvassed Days avenue for the wherewithal of an alleged meal. After the initial request for a dime, he pursued the following line of inquiry: "Say, whatta you think of this Roosevelt guy we got for president. Me, I been readin' for six months about all these billions of dollars he is borrowin' to restore prosperity but I never see any of it. Every paper I pick up, he's borrowed another billion, but never a dime of it gets to me. Say, the guys on the road don't think much of this Roosevelt."
