

Now Here's the Proposition

THE PATIENT IS IMPROVING

By Haws
While prosperity emerges everywhere on the ground. With the merchants yelling "murder" and the farmers howling "ouch."

Though the times are pointed upward we must pull the same old bluff.

Once we hadn't any money, now we haven't got enough.

For we are a big free country and our way was ever thus. We must demonstrate our freedom and maintain our rights to cuss.

But we're surely getting better—this is just our little way—Once we all cussed Herbie Hoover, now we cuss the NRA.

SARAH'S WEAKNESS
Sarah, the official stamp lick on the postoffice, called our attention to the signs on Front street last night, the big "Soda" sign in front of the DeWey's being directly above the "That's My Weakness" sign in front of the Hollywood.

MERELY CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE

Friday evening we saw Deputy Sheriff Clarence Dunbar, a gun, and a fine brace of mallard ducks in the same car at the same time, the coincidence being called to our attention as proof that Clarence had had a successful afternoon. Well, if Clarence should find us and a case of moon in the same car at the same time we suppose that he would consider it sufficient proof we were guilty, which he always seems to think anyway without any proof. But in his case it would take more than circumstantial evidence to convict.

NO FIRE RECORD

The old Buchanan fire horse, Tenny Bunker, was rewarded on Friday morning for over six months of watchful waiting when the siren shrieked for a blaze at the Clark Equipment Co. tin shop on Days avenue. The fire was confined to the vicinity of a stove in the rear and did little damage. Chief Bunker says that this constitutes a record during his thirty years of service with the fire department, there having been no fire alarms for six months and fifteen days previous.

HANK'S GREETING

When H. R. Adams came to Buchanan to enter the mercantile business, he recalls an encouraging greeting from Whit Redden, a pioneer merchant. Adams met Redden in the lobby of the Lee Hotel. Redden recalled a number of former wealthy merchants of the town, including Tom Fulton, Jacob Luther, and others.

"They all came here with money," he said, "in fact a lot of fellows have come to Buchanan with money but I never knew one to leave it with a dollar."

P. T. A. Notes

The regular P. T. A. meeting will be held Monday evening, Nov. 27, in the junior assembly room of the high school. Through Dr. Waldo, W. H. Berkley, editor of the Cassopolis Vigilant and a very able speaker has been secured to give the address on some educational problems.

The entertainment part of the program will be furnished by pupils from Miss Ahola's and Miss Riker's rooms and will be some Thanksgiving plays.

The P. T. A. wishes to acknowledge with thanks the gifts made recently for the Free Milk Fund by the following people and organizations: Mr. G. Cook, local Indiana and Michigan Electric Co. employees, and the Odd Fellows, also the donation of day old bread for the dinners being served to needy, undernourished children and given by The Ward Co. of South Bend, and The Wonder Bread Co. of Gary. This would amount to about $12 a month if it had to be bought.

Hollywood Theatre Host to Grid Team and School Officials

H. C. Monroe of the Hollywood theatre was host Friday evening to the Buchanan high school football team, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bradford, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Knoblauch at the presentation of the famous grid film "Saturday's Millions."

Mrs. F. R. Montague and son, Richard, left yesterday morning for Charleston, West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cassier have moved from their farm north of Buchanan to their residence at 206 McCaslin Ave.

HARKBACK OR TWO TO DAYS WHEN 2ND ST. WAS ELITE SECTION; EVERY HOUSE SURROUNDED BY PICKET FENCE

Main Street Was Business Section in Fifties; Swell Houses on Second St. Slater Residence Built for Wagon Factory.

Gentility, it is known, often falls to a state of more or less decay and in every city of any expanse of past the precincts of the proud shift restlessly, which is preliminary to telling how back in the fifties, the swell residence street of Buchanan was Dewey Avenue, then "Second Street," between Main and Portage streets.

Main street was then the business street, Days Avenue was unknown, and Front street was just a sort of borderline of settlement, crocheting slowly around the corner from Main.

But old Second Street was then an avenue flanked by new, well-painted houses set behind old-fashioned saw-toothed picket fences, with ornamental gates and corner posts, mostly painted white. Behind these fences the children played decorously in their own yards, and every gate had a latch and a heavy spring that pulled it shut "bang," rapping your heels smartly if you failed to step lively on your way. Well-kept backyard gardens then flanked McCoy's creek, which was bordered by weeping willows.

One of the pioneer residents of the street was Nathaniel Jennings Slater, the father of George, who moved there in the early fifties. '53 or '54 and lived in the house now occupied by Smith.

Slater bought the house and a strip of land clear through to Front street. On the corner where the Royal Wagon Works were built later there stood a large, white house with the gable end on Main street. Where Philip Frank now lives was the home of Nicholas Arney, father of E. S. and J. E. Arney, and behind the house was the Arney cooper shop. Then came N. J. Slater. Next east was the Lem Beardsley home and on the corner where Mrs. Mate Boyle now lives was the home of Jonas Threaskill. All of these houses are yet standing, and were constructed in the early fifties or perhaps in the late forties.

One house that was certainly built before 1850 was the old red residence now standing on the north side of the drive entering the River grade from Portage. Here lived a Knight family.

On the north side of Second St. beginning at Portage, was the home of the Rev. Philip Holler, a pastor of the Advent Christian faith. Rev. Holler, a mild and sincerely pious man, notwithstanding the misfortune of his name, "an the grist mill on week days so that he might support himself to serve the Lord on Sundays. The old yellow grist mill stood on the east side of Portage street, nearly opposite the present location of the Frank store. Mrs. Libbie "Luff now lives in the old Holler residence. Next west was the home of Joe Bliss, who married a daughter of Robert Mead, and of the River pioneer and one of the founders of the local Advent Christian church. Next was the home of the Demont's of which family Dick DeMont, Civil war veteran and later county sheriff, was a member. Next was the home of a widow, Mrs. Ellen Gleaner, and finally on the corner where the Cities Service Filling Station now stands was a large brown house.

In 1857 N. J. Slater bought clear through to Front street and immediately built the structure where his daughter, Mrs. Nella Slater, now lives.

Slater, now lives. This was originally built as a wagon and carriage shop. Here for over fifty years Jennings Slater carried on this business, with Charles L. Bulhand as partner. Slater built a bridge across McCoy's creek between his house and the wagon shop. In the middle of the bridge was a turn style. The first floor of his shop was used for making the vehicles, the upper story was a paint shop, and in the rear was a blacksmith shop. In the winter of 1874 Slater turned this structure into a residence, moving his family into it.

Oriole Club to ### Elect Officers

All Day Tomorrow

The Oriole Athletic Club will hold an election of officers Friday, a ballot box having been installed at the club quarters over the G. E. Smith store, where the members may vote during the entire day until 6 p. m. All members in good standing are urged to attend and vote that day. Those nominated are: president, Jack Berry, Don Fette; vice president, Robert Rinker, DeLos Proseus, Joe Howard; secretary, Ed Rinker, Walter Pfingst; treasurer, Frank Chain, H. S. Hollenbach.

Basil LeCave to Open Floral Shop In Niles Saturday

Basil LeCave, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. LeCave, is launching a new enterprise next Saturday in the form of the "LeCave Florists," a floral shop at 215 Main Street, Niles. Young LeCave was associated for some time in the Jewell Flower shop here, and also managed a shop in Chicago. He has a reputation here for artistic floral work and is thoroughly conversant with the business. The best wishes of his friends here go with him for the success in the venture.

Combined S. S., Church Service at Pres. Church

A combined Thanksgiving service in which the church school session and the morning worship period will be merged, is to be held at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. The service will begin at ten o'clock and last about an hour and a half altogether.

A variety of interesting features mark the program. As a token of individual thanksgiving each one is asked to bring some article of food—canned goods, vegetables, etc., which will be distributed to the needy. The presentation of these things at the service is in charge of Mrs. E. C. Pascoe. Another feature of the service will be the birthday observance for all whose birthday comes in October or November. Each one with a birthday in either of these months is requested, if possible, to bring a penny for each year of age. These arrangements are in charge of Mrs. A. L. Knoblauch. Other features will be in the nature of recitations, dialogues, songs by the primary department, etc. Robert Geyer and his class of boys will be responsible for the decorations. In the absence of the superintendent, Mr. A. J. George, Miss Georgia Wilcox will be in general charge of the program.

The service will conclude in a brief worship period, with a duet to be sung by Mrs. E. C. Pascoe and Mrs. A. L. Knoblauch, and a short Thanksgiving sermon by the pastor.

Locals Challenge Benton Harbor 11 For Title Contest

The Oriole football team has challenged the Benton Harbor independent team to play at Benton Harbor Thanksgiving day for the title of southwestern Michigan. The team will play next Sunday with the Logansport Independents at Logansport.

Purchase Bakery Equipment; Will Open Business Here

The bakery equipment in the store building at 107 Days Ave. has been sold to two out of town men who contemplate entering the business in the same building at an early date. Further particulars will be printed next week.

Local News

Donnabelle DeWitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul DeWitt, was taken to Pawating hospital Wednesday for an appendectomy operation.

Miss Hazel Hemphill is spending the week-end in Niles with her aunt, Mrs. Carl Hemphill. Mrs. Allen Matthews was brought to her home here Monday from Plainwell, Mich., where she had been in a hospital as the result of injuries incurred in an automobile accident the previous week. Mr. Matthews was unable to return with her, on account of an injury to a vertebra in his neck. He is able to be up and about the hospital.

William Young, of Porter, Ind., was here the first of the week looking for a house preparatory to moving back to Buchanan. Mrs. Florence Shook was receiving felicitations from her friends Monday at her home at 202 Hobart street, the occasion being her 52d birthday.

Mrs. Lloyd Sands will present a talk on "Training the Child to Accept Responsibility" at a meeting of the mothers of the pupils of the third and fourth grades at the high school at 2:30 p. m. today.

Mrs. A. W. Charles was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of the Wednesday Bridge club at a luncheon and afternoon at cards.

Last of Celestial Laundrymen Leaves; No Catchum Washee

Sam Toy, latest and perhaps the last representative of that time honored institution, the Chinese laundryman, is leaving this week, the rather inarticulate testimonial to the fact that the old hand industries can no longer compete in an age dominated by machinery.

Since the coming of the first slant-eyed representative of the Celestial kingdom, one Quong Lee back in the seventies, a number of Chinamen have come and gone, most of them taking with them a sizeable chunk of currency. But that was a thing of the past—it's no money, no work, for China boy now, according to Mr. Toy, China boy allee samee Melican boy, allee timee bloke. No catchum clounes. Belly bad business.

ARTICLE ON TAX PENALTY GETS COMMENT

Response to Communication Indicates Many in Agreement with the Protest Here.

The letter published last week in the Record in protest to the imposition of the 11 pct. penalty for delinquency in payment of the 1932 taxes aroused a large amount of comment in Buchanan, practically all who voiced any opinion being in agreement with the article. "I own twenty lots and some residence property in this town and 1932 was the first time I've ever missed payment of taxes," said one man, "now they're going to soak me and let those that defaulted in previous years go free. Is that what they call encouragement of taxpaying?"

Letters which came are printed below:

Pleased With Letter
Was very much pleased to read your article in the Buchanan Record of Nov. 16 regarding the penalty on unpaid taxes. My taxes have always been paid in time until last summer's village tax. Lack of employment and shortage of fruit crop on the place has caused the usage of all the savings and makes it impossible to meet the high taxes.

I do think it is very unfair to place the honest individual (who has always tried to help others and take care of his own) on the same basis with the one who does not care to do the right thing.

Place the advocate of such penalty in the same position of the one he wants to impose this penalty upon, probably his idea may change somewhat. This is a case of the appreciation the politician shows toward the people who support him. If the taxpayers stick together this may be stopped.

A TAXPAYER.

Another Taxpayer Takes a Fling at The 1932 Penalty

Buchanan, Mich. Nov. 16
Dear Taxpayer,

You have voiced my sentiments exactly and I will only add that penalties are punishments and punishments are for the guilty. If a person fails to pay his taxes because he is unable to do so I see in that, no evidence of guilt. We are more guilty because we have not all together said no more taxes to be paid until every person is taxed according to their ability to pay.

And then only for the support of ECONOMICAL form of government.

Another Taxpayer.

Six Children Quarantined for Whooping Cough

The following children are under quarantine at their homes on account of whooping cough; Dherie Voorhees, North Main street; Lorraine Gray, North Portage; Eleanor, Emily, George and Paul Seakan, North Portage.

One Broken Rib Is Net Result of Hunting Expedition

Frank Imhoff had the misfortune to incur a broken rib in an automobile accident on his hunting trip last week but that did not interfere with his hunting activities. The mishap occurred when the Imhoff car collided with two others on icy roads near Houghton lake. The party, consisting of Frank, Claude and Irene Imhoff, arrived home Sunday evening. They had no success in hunting.

FUNERAL RITES HELD TODAY FOR CARL MITCHELL

Lifelong Resident Buchanan District Passed Away Monday After Illness of a Week.

Carl Lloyd Mitchell passed away Tuesday morning at 1 a. m. following a week's illness with pneumonia, at his home four miles north of Buchanan on the Range Line road. Carl was born in Buchanan April 6, 1895, the son of I. S. and Lily Graham Mitchell. On July 4, 1927 he was united in marriage to Vera Bagley. To this union was born two children, a son, Lloyd D. Mitchell, and a daughter, Delma Lee, who with their mother survive, as do his parents and the following sisters and brothers, Lester, Claude, Gerald of Buchanan, Edw. of Waukegon, Mrs. Fern Burgoyne, Sturgis, and Mrs. Arlie Anderson of Niles. Mr. Mitchell was a member of the Brethren church. The funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from the Bagley home on Portage Prairie and at 3 from the Brethren church. Rev. Dewey Rowe will officiate and burial will be made in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

30 Club Studies Days and Ways of the Gay Nineties

The Thirty club met Monday at the home of Mrs. Charles Pears. The topic of the day being "The Gay Nineties." Those in charge of the program, in costumes of the time, gave a very clever dramatization of an afternoon in the Nineties. It was especially interesting as the Thirty club was organized during that time. Many happy times were recalled and the program for the afternoon was presented by Mrs. Pears and her "afternoon callers." Mrs. Sym talked on "Home and Furnishings," Mrs. Bishop of "Amusements." Mrs. Franklin read a paper entitled "Literature of the Nineties" and Mrs. Beardsley gave a review of "Music of the Nineties." In conclusion, the group sang a number of songs popular at that time. The Thanksgiving dinner will be held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Muir next Monday at 12:30 o'clock.

Force of 80 Men Begin Work This Morning on CWA Program of Improvements For Buchanan

FIRST GAME WITH BERRIEN SPRINGS HERE DECEMBER 5

Bradfield Starts Winter Cage Drill with Shortage First String Men; All Lost by Graduation.

By Dick Schram
With the close of the 1933 grid season Saturday, local sport interest turns to basketball.

The Buchanan High basketball season opens Dec. 5, the Bucks meeting Berrien Springs on the local floor.

This game will probably be very close as the ranks of the veterans on both teams have been thinned considerably by graduation.

Buchanan lost the entire first team by graduation, and building up a strong five from the second team of last year is one of Coach Bradfield's big worries.

Of this year's squad the only player of varsity experience is "Augg" Twosh, last year's relief pivot man.

The remainder of last year's squad, Leiter, Frame, Dreitzler, Deeds, Dan Topash, Batchelor, Denno, Rossow, Hattenbach and Brewer, all trained in fine games on the second squad but have not played varsity ball.

Of the first four games on the schedule, Berrien Springs, Niles, St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, the latter three have last season's regulars back again this year. Consequently the fighting Bucks will have to live up to their name to overcome the slight advantage in experience held by these three teams.

Last year's second team, which is being developed into a fast, hard playing varsity by Coach Bradfield, has won 25 of 28 cage encounters in the last two seasons. Last season they had a perfect record, losing no games.

Last year Bradfield used Leiter and D. Topash as forwards and Dreitzler and Deeds as guards, with Batchelor as center. Hattenbach and Brewer at forwards and Frame and Dennis at guards with Rossow at center were alternates.

As in past years, Bradfield will employ the method of offense known as a "fast-breaking" offense and will use a man to man defense, rather than a zone defense. A zone defense is the type practiced by Niles and is apt to prove ineffective on a large floor against a fast-breaking offense. For this reason, Buchanan uses the man to man type, which is effective against any style of offense.

This week and next will be spent in perfecting the offensive and defensive team play of the Bucks, and the Maroon quintette will be ready for the opening whistle of the 1933-34 cage season Dec. 5.

J. Holmes Rises Again on Point of Information

Editor Record,
Nathaniel B. Collins, the hardware merchant instead of "M."

Besides the ringing of the church bell by Jake Hahn, his was the duty to ring the fire alarm when necessary, and he was promptly on hand. Also he was the only man I ever saw who made black walnut coffins out of bass wood with such perfection that an expert would have to use a knife to detect the difference. The father of John Morris was Garrett Morris. Royal was the brother of John.

When the Himes people came to Buchanan, they built up what has since been "Himes" addition, at the west end of Front street and the sixth and seventh west from Detroit street were the homes of the Himes, the sixth has in the front gable the date 1866, the date of their coming.

Mr. Marhoof is mistaken about the Richards making zinc pads on Days Ave. near the Henry Marhoof shop. That Richards was Alfred, brother of the pad maker. The pad factory was first located on Berrien street just north of the M. C. depot, in an addition to Morley's foundry, from which the power was secured. When that foundry was burned, Morley rebuilt on Front street, east of Portage, and the pad factory on Oak. Alfred Richards made clothes racks and finally rented the building with the power to Spencer & Willard, afterwards Spencer & Barnes, who operated there until they moved to Benton Harbor. J. G. HOLMES.

Will Improve Cemetery, Athletic Park, Course of McCoy's Creek as Part of Program; Men Receive 50 Cents Per Hour and Work 30 Hours Per Week. Mrs. Florence Chubb and Edward Rinker in Charge.

Buchanan began to benefit this morning from the new Civil Works Administration dispensation with a force of 80 men at work at eight o'clock at Oak Ridge cemetery and at Athletic Park, the first of a succession of projects designed to improve and beautify the city and at the same time remove men from relief rolls to self support again.

The new administration relief plan moved swiftly, a meeting of the city commission having been called Saturday night to draw up

Orioles Defeat South Haven Grid Team Sunday 6-0

The Oriole football team defeated the South Haven Independent grid team at South Haven Sunday afternoon by a score of 6-0, getting the jump on their opponents in the first minute of play, and holding the lead for the remainder of the game. The Orioles kicked to the South Haven team on the latter's 20 yard line. The South Haven boys elected to throw a pass, which was intercepted by Walter Pfingst, who galloped for a touchdown. The rest of the battle was fought in midfield.

LAST RITES FOR EMMA SINGBEIL 2 P. M. TOMORROW

Passed Away Tuesday Morning at Pawating Hospital; Born in Germany; Lived Three Oaks 26 Years.

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Singbeil will be held at 2 p. m. Friday from the Hamilton Funeral Home, with Rev. F. W. Busse of the Apostolic church in charge. Burial will be made in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Emma Bramer Singbeil of 317 N. Oak St., passed away Tuesday morning in Pawating hospital at five o'clock. She was taken to the hospital Nov. 12 where a major operation was performed. She was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, June 15, 1881, and came to this country with her parents in 1892, and located in Chicago. Here she met and married Peter DeBore. To this union five children were born. They lived in Three Oaks for 26 years. Mr. DeBore met with a fatal accident six years ago by being electrocuted with a loose high tension wire.

August 25, 1928, Mrs. DeBore was again united in marriage to August Singbeil in Laporte, Ind. They lived for a short time in Detroit and four years ago came to Buchanan where they have since resided.

Beside the husband she is survived by two sons, Riner DeBore of Chicago, Ralph at home; and three daughters, Mrs. Edward Toll of South Bend road, Buchanan; Miss Alida DeBore, Oak Park, Ill., and Mrs. Helen Johnson, residence unknown.

Mrs. Singbeil was a member of the Apostolic church, South Bend.

Little Theatre Guild Issues a Call for Members

The Little Theatre Guild is issuing a blanket invitation to all who are interested in any angle of dramatics or of theatre production, to attend their weekly meetings which are being held until further notice at the Teresa White Dance Studio, 116 West Front St. Experience in acting is not required.

Initiate Plans For Community Christmas Tree

Plans were initiated at the meeting of the Civic Association Monday evening for a Community Christmas tree at the intersection of Main and Front streets, to take the place of the individual trees which have hitherto been placed by merchants in front of their places of business. A committee consisting of L. M. Desenberg, Bick Smith, and Joseph Roti Rito was named to solicit for funds for the tree.

a program of work, which was dispatched to Washington, D. C., and returned here with the stamp of the federal approval Tuesday. Yesterday was spent in lining up the force of men.

The improvement projects now approved for this city will provide 4,000 hours of labor and additional projects will be added as these are completed. A force of men and five trucks are engaged in hauling sod from the gravel pit to the cemetery to places where needed. Stones are to be straightened up, leveling work done where needed, and it is likely that the north entrance driveway will be lowered and improved. A force is at work at Athletic park under the direction of Chief Ed Mitchell.

Workers will be drawn first from those who have been on the relief rolls, married men with families being given preference. Each man will be permitted to work 6 hours per day, five days per week, a total of 30 hours at a minimum wage of 50 cents an hour. Any man eligible on the above counts who has not been notified is requested to report at the city hall for work at once.

Among the projects approved which has elicited much favorable comment is that of cleaning and beautifying the course of McCoy's creek through the city. The pavement of proposed Moccasin Bluff road from the north end of Portage street to the Ononoko township line was taken under advisement by the state public works board, objection having been raised to the expense of material. The commission approved the project of extending a water line to the cemetery on condition that the city furnish the materials.

Mrs. Florence Chubb began her duties this morning as local director of welfare under the Berrien County Emergency Relief commission. Edward Rinker is in charge of the activities of the CWA force in Buchanan. According to the county commission records, 150 families and 50 single persons have been on the relief rolls in Buchanan city and township.

The Niles district, comprising Niles city, and the townships of Niles, Berrien, Bertrand, Chokoming, Galien, New Buffalo, Niles township, Ononoko, Pipestone and Veesaw, is under the direction of Milo Webster. The city of Niles has 260 families and 59 single persons on the relief rolls. The district comprising the city of St. Joseph, and the townships of Baroda, Lake, Lincoln, Royaltown, St. Joseph, is under the direction of Miss Marie Diefenderfer. The city of St. Joseph has 180 families and 45 single persons listed on the relief rolls.

The expense of the Michigan CWA program will be divided between the national government, state and local units, it is estimated that approximately 1700 men will be placed at work in the country.

To the Berrien County Emergency Welfare Relief Commission:

The City Commission of the City of Buchanan submits to you the following work projects under the civil works grant for your approval.

Buchanan Cemetery

Laying 1000 feet of 3 inch water main.

Estimated cost of $1 per ft. for labor.

Estimated cost of material $500. Removing old grass from neglected lots, level and cover with top soil and prepare for seeding in the spring, and grade and gravel various drives in cemetery.

Estimated number work hours 2500 hours.

City Gravel Pit

Remove top dirt from pit for use at cemetery and screen 500 yds. of gravel for spring use.

Estimated number work hours 500.

City Park

Necessary improvements, grading and filling, and cleaning and beautifying McCoy creek through park.

Estimated number work hours 1000 hours.

The City Commission endorses the extension of county road No. 128 known as the Moccasin Bluff road, to the County Road Commission. The County Road Commission has submitted an estimate to the state highway commission, a copy of which is herewith enclosed, but no action has been taken on this project. This project is 5.03 miles in length.

Signed,

Frank C. Merson.

H. S. Organizes

First Aid Class

Upon Mr. Stark's suggestion a course in First Aid has been added to the curriculum of the high school. No extra credit will be given for the subject since the course is to be substituted for gym one day a week. The class includes both boys and girls from the 7-11 grades inclusive.

The text book to be used is the "American Red Cross First Aid Textbook." This book has been prepared by the American Red Cross especially for first aid and hygiene classes. Since it was copyrighted during this year the book is up-to-date, and is the last work in first aid.

The book offers a good training and teaches one how to meet serious emergencies. Some of the subjects that are treated are: first aid, its need and its use, anatomy and physiology of the body, injuries, wounds, shocks, and common emergencies.

Senior Class

Votes Issue of

H. S. Yearbook

A senior class meeting was called Tuesday, Nov. 14. A motion was made as to whether the senior class would sponsor an annual this year or not. The motion was carried by a unanimous vote. Mrs. Velma Dunbar, the class advisor, then explained the financial details of the project to the class and called a meeting of the executive committee for the next night. This committee consists of the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

CHILDHOOD AMBITIONS

Some of the students broiled down and fessed up about their childhood ambitions. Here they are:

Ruth Lightfoot, a toe dancer.
Shirley Rolan, a nurse.
Geneva Troutfetter, a movie star.
Mary Jane Zerbe, marry a rich man with hopes that he'd die.
Jack Dalenberg, a cowboy.
Virginia Briney, have a farm for cats.

Tom Kenton, a boxer.
Jean Russell, a dancer.
Lewie Leiter, a forest ranger.
Ray Juhl, a man.

Everett Deeds, a hero.
John Hattenbach, a gentleman.
Lillian Peacock, to be or not to be in love.

Marie Reese, aviatrix.

Leona Wolken, a married woman.

Wilson Crittenden, Prince of Wales.

Augie Topash, Coach like Sir Bradfield.

Dick Schram, President of the United States.

LOST SOMETHING?

"Finders keepers, losers weepers" is not the motto in B. H. S.

According to the senior high black board, which is fairly covered with "lost" signs, advertising for everything from fountain pens to diamond rings.

This must be a losing age for the students who vainly attempt to keep their possessions.

"Oh! Ah! Isn't she sweet?"

Doesn't she look handsome?"

Would you look at that tie?" Such were the exclamations around the halls as the seniors paraded around in their best. They had their pictures taken and they wanted to look nice. They are waiting with bated breath to see the proofs.

If, by any chance, you happened to see any of Miss Ann's journalism students run around after school last week peering cautiously into any of the class rooms, hastily glance at the teacher, then look at the paper in their hands and possibly give it a great big check, don't become alarmed in thinking them a bit snooty.

Out of a clear blue sky, or maybe it was grey, Miss Hanlin asked her class to write down everything they had observed that morning in each of their class rooms.

It seems Miss Hanlin was testing her students as to their powers of observation in connection with their journalism work.

"HAVE YOU NOTICED?"

How good looking some of the senior lads and lassies really are when they get all dressed up, as they were for their senior pictures?

Wilson Crittenden's new green sweater?

YOU SHOULD TAKE A

Editorial

Thousands of years ago, even before the day of the Grecian and Roman Empires, a government existed. Although at first only a form of home rule, there was a government. When various families banded together for protection there was some dominating individual whose influence was felt above that of any other. He was king, and his power was absolute.

Ancient Greece and Rome were the first to allow the people any voice in the government. However, when the barbaric people began their invasions, the country was retarded and once more the king was absolute.

Thus it remained until the newly formed United States adopted the Articles of Confederation. Nine years showed the weakness of the Articles and the present Constitution was adopted. The only improvements in the Constitution have been the extent of suffrage.

Country after country has followed in the wake of America until today but few monarchies remain.

As the system of government has strengthened so has the system of schools; the growth of the schools being considerably faster. But a few hundred of years ago only the rich were educated, and then only if the parents were able to read or write.

Soon people would train for the occupation of teaching others and still only the rich could receive an education. Soon religious schools grew up and from these emerged the early Eastern schools of the United States.

When the Northwest Territory was organized provisions were made for schools. Instead of religious colleges, secondary schools began to spring up all over the United States until today there is an abundance of schools.

From a kingdom of a few there has emerged a domain of millions. From a school of a few there has emerged universities of thousands.

Thomas Quirk

Editor in Chief of

1934 H. S. Annual

The officers of the senior class met Wednesday, Nov. 13, for the purpose of electing a staff for The Times, the Buchanan High School Annual.

Those elected were:

Editor in chief, Thomas Quirk; Business Manager, George Spatta; Assistant Business Manager, Donal Burrus; Literary Editor, Mary Donley; Society Editor, Jean Russell; Sport Editor, Richard Schram;

Who's Who

Mary Jane Heiermann was born at Edwardsburg, Mich., June 8, 1919.

She lived in South Bend before moving here at the age of 11. Consequently she has not always attended Buchanan schools.

At present Mary Jane is a freshman in high school. She enjoys attending school and likes algebra better than any other subject.

As Mary Jane is inclined to be athletic, she played on the soccer team this fall and intends to go out for volleyball ball.

Ted Lyon will be sixteen years old April 14. He was born in Buchanan and has always lived in this city.

This year he is a sophomore in high school. He is interested in all his subjects although he especially cares for geometry. He belongs to the Latin club and plays in the band and orchestra.

As Ted has a very agreeable personality, he is well liked by all who know him.

Ted intends to try out for the basketball team as he has considerable skill in the game.

CLASS ROOM BONER

Bob Willard, translating some French questions one day last week, came to the question in French, "How do the people go from one story to another in the department stores in France?"

Bob mused for a minute, then excitedly exclaimed, "I wonder if they mean tramways or omnibuses?"

SMALL HERO GOES

OVER BIG!

Amidst the noise of clicking keys in the first hour typing class last week, the door jerked open to admit a very business like youngster, who cried at the top of his small voice, as he stomped and strutted up to Miss Lucille Quade.

"Is this here Miss Ream's room?" All the typewriters stopped at the amazing spectacle, and remained silent until little Buddy Mills, who had unknowingly aroused suppressed giggles and broad grins, had slammed the door behind him.

Class Activities

Biology
Nutrition in the higher animals will be the subject of the biology class this week. This subject will be considered in relation to man.

Chemistry
The chemistry students are working on sodium and its compounds. Special emphasis is placed on the reactions of sodium compounds, as they are so useful in daily life.

The chemistry classes will soon take up dissociation, which is the chemical term for the action which is set up when a compound is dissolved.

Physics
Machinery and efficiency of simple machines furnish the work of the twelfth grade physics class.

The dental roll found in Mrs. Weaver's room is attracting much attention from the 7th and 8th grade students.

The race is in progress at the present time. The seventh grade is ahead with 35 persons on the list. The eighth grade have added more to their list in the last week, and they now have 33 on the roll.

Physical Education
Mr. Bradford's gym classes are cutting on calisthenics. They will also take up boxing and wrestling.

Music
The glee clubs, under the direction of R. B. Robinson, have been preparing the songs to be sung at the festival.

The boys' glee club has 13 new members and the girls eight new members.

There is a total of 40 members in the girls' glee club.

The band is preparing special feature stunts to play at the basketball games.

Symphonies and musical comedies will be the work of the orchestra.

History
The twelfth grade history classes have been working on all of the facts and details concerning the Civil War.

The work of the tenth grade has been the study of the life and work of Alfred the Great of England.

Citizenship
The students of the citizenship class have been concentrating on the study of comfort as an aid to happy living.

Physical Education
"Klapp, dans," a Swedish folk dance, has been practiced during the past week by the fifth grade. The sixth grade has been working on a clog number called "Reuben Taps."

The second hour class is drilling on a skit to be given between the halves at the basketball game on Dec. 5. All the junior and senior high classes are practicing marching tactics and are engaged in the indoor sport, volleyball ball.

Volley ball practices are held after school, and four are required for the girls to get their G. A. A. points.

Home Economics
Breakfast meats, such as bacon, ham, sausage, etc., are being prepared by the seventh grade girls. They have learned how to prepare various other types of breakfast foods, such as cereals, muffins, fruits and others. They are finding how many types of breakfast foods there are and how to make them.

Eighth grade girls are learning how to fix up luncheon desserts. They have had all the preliminary foods of the luncheon, that is, the main foods that come before the dessert.

Making desserts for after the dinner is being learned by the 9th grade girls.

Tenth grade girls are working on the garments they started some time ago.

English 9 and 10
In Miss Helen Hanlin's tenth grade English classes the students have been advancing into their mysterious field of "exposition."

Expository biographies, book reviews, essays and newspaper editorials have made up their course of study for this week.

Review over pronouns and work on sentences, that is, selecting proper case of pronouns and studying the agreement between the subject and predicate, has been the interesting topic of the freshmen English students' study.

Journalism
During the past week the journalism class has been gathering news articles to cover the chapter on "Using Descriptions in Stories," with special emphasis on vivid verbs. Their notebook work has covered, "The Press During the Struggle Between the Colonies and England, 1750-1783," concerning in particular, the work of Thomas Paine.

The short-hand class added the method of expressing y, ng, and nk to their list. Drills pertaining to phrases, suffixes and prefixes have been introduced.

Having completed the practice set, the bookkeeping class has started studying the special journals. Purchases and sales journals were studied this week.

Typing 11 students have been given a speed test each week along with their new derivative drills.

Writing business letters occupied the class periods for the students in typing 12 this week.

Grade 1

Group one have completed the Elson Pre-Primer and are now using the Primer.

Supplementary reading books are being made for each child. He will illustrate his own book and can take it home when able to read all the stories.

Grade 2
We entertained the mothers in the auditorium Wednesday afternoon. There were 20 mothers present and we were glad to see them. In art we tore pine trees out of drawing paper and drew stalks of wheat.

We are learning Thanksgiving songs.

Grade 3
The following is a poem written by Bonnie Jean Chain:

Snowflakes
The snowflakes look so pretty
As they dance along.
They seem to be singing
A joyful song.

Let us dance like the snowflakes,
It will help us pass the hours.
We will all be very happy
As the snow comes down in showers.

We have made original posters in cut outs for Book Week.

We are working on a food project at present.

We have sent a set of English papers to Mrs. Walton. The subject of the lesson was to write a friendly letter about the Pilgrims.

The children in Miss River's room will give three plays Friday afternoon to entertain our mothers. Two of them are Thanksgiving plays, and one is a health playlet.

Grade 6
We are beginning fractions and working on the parts of speech. We are sorry to lose Richard Paul.

We have been reading about Alaskan huskies.

Algebra 9
The first year algebra class is dealing with Properties of Equations and the solution of problems by means of equations.

Geometry
"Locus of Point" and "Concurrent of Lines" are being handled by the students in the geometry class.

Advanced Algebra
The members of the advanced algebra class are graphing equations that have more than one variable.

Languages
The Latin 9 class is studying expressions of place.

Participial and conditional sentences are the main study topics this week in Latin 10.

The main topics for French 11 are present tense of verbs and pronouns used as direct objects.

The students taking French 12 are studying "Paris Et Ses Environs," or the Suburbs of Paris and are reading the Nov. 15 issue of the French newspaper, "La Petit Journal," for which they have subscribed.

Miss Shriver is reading to the class from a book entitled, "Come with Me Through France."

There will be six weeks tests given to all of Miss Shriver's classes the first of next week.

Latin Club
The Latin Club holds its November meeting this week. The president, Cheryl Blossom Heim, appointed Una Kelley and Bill Habicht from the tenth grade class, and Herschel Gross and Margaret Huse from the ninth grade classes as a committee for all sorts of programs for meetings throughout the year.

Special News
Howard Monroe, proprietor of the Hollywood theatre, had the first twenty-two football men as guests Friday night at the show, "Saturday's Millions," a football picture which is one of the best sport pictures of the year. They all enjoyed the very much.

History
The eighth grades are discovering about the things that happened in Madison's and Monroe's time, especially the Monroe Doctrine. For Current Events, they dramatized "A Call to Arms." The purpose of this play was to illustrate the nation wide drive to make the people of our community realize its needs. A special committee was appointed to interview Mrs. E. C. Mogford and the agent for the County Red Cross and other social workers in our community. These various reports were read to the class.

The seventh grades are interested in the settlement of the different colonies. They were greeted with a true and false test over the colonization of Virginia, on which Juanita Luke made a perfect score.

John Schulz was elected secretary of the second section English Club. They are planning a special meeting for Thanksgiving.

Exhibits
During the first eight weeks of school the eighth grade history students made various notebooks. The subjects were very interesting: "Aviation and Great Aviation," "Century of Progress," "Lives of Great Inventors and Explorers." These notebooks were in the exhibit and Mary Mae Dreitzler won first prize. Her notebook was on "The Progress of the Navy." Betty Semple chose "Current Events." Sidney Deming's was centered in "The Century of Progress." Caroline Webb's notebook was on "Washington" and Sam McCormick's on "The Terrors of War." were very interesting.

The seventh grade history classes made Columbus notebooks. The first award was given to Betty Ann Miller. The second prize was given to Ruth Jean Taslett. The third ribbon was given to Rita Huebner, and honorable mention to Geneva Babcock.

English 8
The eighth graders entered note books in the exhibit. The first prize was given to Jeannette Flanagan and the third one to Daisy Reamer.

Another part of the English exhibit was the Rip Van Winkle projects. Jack Marble won first prize for his project. The second was given Orville Aronson and the third ribbon was awarded to a collection of poems written by Millie Miller, Dorothy Paul and Marion Glessel.

English 7, 11, 12
Shakespeare's tragedy, "Hamlet," was analyzed by the seniors last week. They also read plays from other foreign countries besides England.

Once more the juniors have turned their "Literature and Life" books to their exercise books. Clauses and kinds of sentences were covered last week.

Seventh graders began creative writing when they wrote stories from pictures and outlines. They also learned how to answer questions.

Fural boys who want the gym during the noon hour have been signing their names on a paper which is on the bulletin board.

The students of the upper six grades who live in the country are given the gymnasium during the winter.

Wisner's Column

When we go out of town to buy something, this may be all right if we can't get what we want here at home—and if we first try to get it here.

But everytime we buy elsewhere, a slice of our own prosperity goes to the other town.

The difference between what you pay for something and what the merchant pays the wholesaler or manufacturer is money that pays the merchant's rent, light, heat, salaries, and other store expenses, also net profits if any—and this difference is the part of your money that makes prosperity in your town.

Thus you actually give your town's prosperity away when you buy elsewhere.

When you think you can do better elsewhere, tell us, and we'll see to it that you can do as well or better here at home.

"This Day and Age" At Berrien Theatre

"Her Body Guard," coming to the Berrien theatre, at Berrien Springs, this Saturday and Sunday, shows Edmund Lowe in a position that would be welcomed by most men. He is paid to keep his eyes on a lovely actress day and night, and he would not trade jobs with the president, in fact he is in love with his work. This is a picture that will send you home smiling to yourself. Chapter 2 of "Tarzan, the Fearless" is scheduled along with "Her Body Guard." Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 29 and 30, the Berrien theatre will show "This Day and Age." Cecil B. DeMille's first great spectacle of modern times, starting in sweep, dramatic in intensity, it shows you how courage against evil corruption hurl their bombshell of defiance at the vultures who live on the fat of the land. It is a great story showing how youth won when corrupt politicians fail to do their duty.

"My Weakness" Acclaimed Superb Screen Entertainment

"My Weakness," the new Fox picture produced by Buddy DeSylva, opening Sunday for a three day run at the Hollywood, proves a fitting vehicle for the debut of Lillian Harvey in an American production. And to call a film fitting for so fine and versatile a performer as Miss Harvey is equivalent to presenting it with an accolade of enthusiastic acclaim. This young star has everything that you will ever want to see in a screen actress and in "My Weakness" she reaches heights seldom achieved either on the American or Continental screen.

As the young ugly duckling who is made ravishing on a wager, Miss Harvey goes through her sequences with a rare lightness of touch and an almost unbelievable charm of manner. As she moves from conquest to conquest until she finally lands the man who made the wagers, she could never be made attractive, you suddenly come upon the feeling that it is not the people on the screen that she is captivating. It is you yourself along with every other member in the audience who falls a victim to her wining qualities.

In casting Lev Ayres as the masculine lead opposite Miss Harvey, Buddy DeSylva has shown definite shrewdness. For this popular actor is nothing less than the perfect foil for the abilities of the new star. Charles Butterworth, Harry Langdon and Sid Silvers handle the comedy in an unsurpassable fashion. The picture presents three new song hits, "Gather Lip Rouge While You May," "Be Careful," and "How Do I Look?" A corps of consistently beautiful girls more than lend glory to the picture. And keep your eye on Mary Howard, who happens to be the daughter of Will Rogers. But by all means, keep a night open for "My Weakness." You'll love it!

"The Last Trail," the Zane Grey romance playing tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday at the Hollywood, must be put down as the finest film ever offered George O'Brien. It has sizzling speed, breakneck action, tender romance and hilarious comedy. Its theme, dealing with the transfer of racketeer activities from beer-running in the big city to cattle rustling on the western plains, is something decidedly new in adventuresome film fare. The hilarity is in the highly capable hands of Ed Evenden, and Trevor supplies the love interest. In addition to this feature, the cartoon and the comedy, an added feature is to be presented for twelve consecutive Fridays and Saturdays beginning this week. Its none other than our action favorite Buck Jones, in his new super-series, "Gordon of Ghost City." And kiddies attending this week Saturday's matinee will receive a membership card in the Buck Jones Club entitling them to free admission to the last episode by attending each episode regularly.

"This Day and Age" the first great spectacle of modern times by the master of spectacle, Cecil B. DeMille, is the Bargain Night feature next Wednesday and Thursday. In the large cast are Charles Bickford, Richard Cromwell, Eddie Nugent, Ben Alexander, Harry Green and George Barbier. The story concerns the battle of youth of an average community against a city's subversive influences after all efforts of the adult community have failed.

Christian Science Churches
"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world Sunday, Nov. 26. Among the Bible citations is this passage (Ezek. 13:6): "They have seen vanity and lying divinations, saying The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them; and they would confirm the world." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 80, 84): "Science dispels mystery and explains extraordinary phenomena, but Science never removes phenomena from the domain of reason into the realm of mysticism. . . . When sufficiently advanced in Science to be in harmony with the truth of being, men become seers and prophets involuntarily, controlled not by demons, spirits, or demigods, but by the one Spirit."

Seventh Day Adventist Sabbath School (Saturday) at 10 a. m. Lesson study, "The Betsey Diet."
Memory verse: "God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of the earth, and every tree in which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat." Gen. 1:29.
Key thought: In order to know what are the best foods, we must study God's original plan for man's diet. He who created man and who understands his needs appointed Adam his food.

Note: "The inhabitants of the antediluvian world were intemperate in eating and drinking. They would have flesh meats, although God had at that time given man no permission to eat animal food. They ate and drank till the indulgence of their depraved appetite knew no bounds, and they became so corrupt that God could bear with them no longer."
Preaching service at 11:15 will be in charge of the missionary volunteer society of E. M. College.

Evangelical Church
William F. Boettcher, Minister
10 o'clock a. m. Sunday School. 11 a. m. Morning worship. Sermon, "Why Unite with the Church?" Reception of members into church fellowship.
6 p. m. Christian Endeavor. Topic, "What Have We to Thank God For?" Leaders: adults, Mr. Surch, young people, Viola Boettcher.
7 p. m. Sermon, "The Young Man That Makes Good."

7:30 p. m. Wednesday evening, the union Thanksgiving service at this church. Rev. Rice of the M. E. church will preach the sermon. The Evangelical choir will sing the anthem, "A Good Thing to Give Thanks." Adams. This service will not interfere with any plans for family gatherings on Thursday, so come and join us in this annual service and give thanks unto God for His goodness and mercy.

The two weeks Evangelical campaign was concluded Monday evening, with most gratifying results. About 65 bowed at the altar of prayer during this season. Rev. Edgar S. Faust, of Detroit, rendered most efficient service during his sojourn in our midst and many

"Love, Honor and Oh, Baby!" Just had to be Funny

Speed and tempo are the most necessary things in directing a comedy, according to Eddie Buzzell, former stage star and stage director, who recently completed "Love, Honor and Oh, Baby!" the hilarious comedy of breach of promise suits starring Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts, coming Sunday and Monday to the Ready theatre, at Niles. Buzzell, known for his direction of both comedy and drama, as well as for his gift of "gagging" or making jokes on the spur of the moment, has successfully worked these into this latest Summerville-Pitts film. The house.

From the opening scenes until the fade-out, the story develops like a bunch of firecrackers in a tin pail. Critics who have seen the picture claim that it is the fastest moving comedy in which the ever popular comic acts have appeared.

Buzzell during the taking of the picture revealed his ability to ad lib—that is, to insert funny lines and gestures into the picture on the spur of the moment, and this is said to heighten the laugh climaxes. Slim appears as a lawyer who has a jail populated with his clients, and Zasu as a filing clerk who wants to save working girls from having to go to Rochester, a nearby town, with the local bank-er, a lecherous old vegetarian. The trial which results from her efforts and Slim's remarkable hand-ling of the situation brings down the house.
