

Now Here's the Proposition

THE SKELETON IN ARMOUR'S
(Food Products)
(Lines written before Treat's Window)

Bi Haws
Speak, speak, thou fearful guest
Tell what is on thy chest,
Out from thy casual rest
There mid the groceries,
What is it strikes thine eye
When the swift crowd goes by
As they were geared in high—
Is it the hostility?

Come on, speak up, old Pot-Awatome, tell us what Strikes you as being hot—
As by we waddle!
How do you like the view
There up Days avenue
How do you like the new Thirty-four models?

Sudden I saw in awe
Parting of bony jaw,
Muttering: "Too much squaw,
Not enough blanket.
Indian no like see—
In days that used to be Takum across um knee, Heap plenty spank it!"

ACREAGE REDUCTION
Speaking of acreage reduction, there's nothing in the government program that compared with the voluntary acreage reduction that I remember some of the farmers used to carry through every year when I was a boy," stated Hiram Hardscrabble, mayor of Baker-town, in the course of a visit at the Record office Saturday. "Why, I remember when Uncle Billy Smith used to be braggin' in the spring how much land he plowed.
He always reckoned one field at fifteen acres, and then, come next fall, when he was comparin' notes with other farmers on the number of bushels of wheat to the acre, that same piece would only have eleven acres in it. Something funny about it, but every summer it shrank four acres between plow-in' time and harvest. Probably the hot weather did it!"

BIG EXPOSE CWA SCANDALS!
Well, folks, all we know is just what we hear at the barber shop, but we had the dope on all this big CWA shake-up days and days and days before it happened, and here's something for you—it's not through yet. We got the dope right straight from the horse's mouth, on this CWA, and here's what they're gonna spring in about another week.

1. Differential wage scale as per follows: Democrats, 50c per hour; Socialists, 40c per hour; Communists, 30c per hour; Republicans, 20c per hour. Bonus of 10 cents per hour to any Democrat who can prove he voted the ticket in 1928.

2. Nobody permitted to work unless he can show he has taxable property to the value of $10,000 and an income of $1,500 per year.

3. Democrats permitted to draw pay for 40 hours a week. Republicans can work all they damn please but will be paid for only 15 hours a week.

Great changes are due in projects at athletic park baseball diamond to be moved forth south and home plate will be across the creek, making a water hazard as the player slides for home. The grandstand will be placed on the south side of the diamond and facing the other way toward the railway track so the fans can count the box cars.

This dope comes straight from the President, via Mrs. Ann Parasol and the City Barber Shop.

Portage Prairie Evangelical Church Holds Revival

The Portage Prairie Evangelical church is now in the second week of a revival meeting. This is the second series of meetings this church has sponsored this winter.
Evangelist Harry Hayes, Marion, Ind., is stirring the church and community with heart searching messages of gospel truth. On Sunday night 12 earnest seekers responded to the altar call. Cries of penitents and prayers for heart purity were answered with definite experiences. Miss Louise Lear of Robinson, Pa., preached the first five messages the first week of the campaign. During that time six seekers bowed at the altar of prayer.

Evangelist Hayes will preach each evening this week, the Lord's day at 10:30 and at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. next Sabbath. The pastor, Rev. H. A. Frye, and the members of the church extend a cordial welcome to the public to attend these services.

RANCE CALVIN BURIED SATURDAY; WAS ILL A YEAR

Brought to Buchanan as Servant by Dr. J. M. Roe Nearly Half Century Ago; Was Familiar Figure Here.

Rance Calvin, 57, died at his home on Fulton street late Thursday evening after an illness of a year, six months of which was spent in bed. The cause of his death was cancer of the stomach.
Calvin had been a familiar figure around the town for nearly a half century. He was born at Reddick, Fla., March 16, 1876. He came to Buchanan at the age of 12 years with Dr. J. M. Roe, who was operating a sawmill there in partnership with E. H. Clark. Dr.
Roe took a fancy to the lad for his willingness and industry in running errands and other small jobs, and brought him to Buchanan. He lived in the Roe home for several years. He settled in Buchanan and spent the remainder of his life here, working as a janitor in the business district and as a house cleaner and utility man for a number of families.

He is survived by his widow; by three children, Richard, Mrs. Eva Mae Poole, Mishawaka, and Ruth; by a stepson, George Hayes, and by four brothers and three sisters who live at Reddick, Fla.

The funeral was held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday from the Childs Funeral Home with Rev. O'Shea in charge and interment was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

horns, 100 Barred Rocks and other

Hatfield Speaks At M. E. Church on Delinquent Problem

The Methodist church was packed Sunday evening for the address by Probate Judge Malcolm Hatfield, who spoke on conditions of delinquency among the youth of the nation. Judge Hatfield stated that 250,000 boys and girls under age are at the present time roaming the country on trains and highways. The cause to a great extent, he stated, is poor home conditions, which he detailed as brutal or callous parents, parents more mindful of their social obligations than of their duties to their children, poverty in the home, the home broken by divorce, and the illegitimate child.

Judge Hatfield stated that the probate court is now in charge of a dozen girls between the ages of 14 and 17 years who are the mothers of illegitimate babies. The broken home, he charged, is responsible for 50 per cent of this delinquency, the divorce mills turning thousands of children into the streets annually.

He gave an interesting analysis of the types of motion picture films, and the effect on youth as indicated by reports from institutions for the delinquent.

Marvin Gross to Appear in Recital Before Niles Club ture by Rabbi Philip Greenstein of South Bend, who will speak on

Find String of Indian Beads in Highway Excavation

Among the interesting finds of Indian curios in the CWA excavations on the Moccasin bluff road was a necklace of flint spearheads and sections of antlers about four inches long taken from an exhumed grave by Loran Voorhees Friday. The bones of the inmate of the grave were almost entirely consumed, but about the place where the neck had been was the circle described above. All the pieces were perforated for stringing but the thong which had united them had disappeared.

ROOSEVELT BALL AT BENTON HARBOR TUESDAY, JAN. 30

1,000 Couples to Celebrate President's 52nd Birthday in Gand Ball at Naval Armory.

Berrien county will join with other localities throughout the country next Tuesday night, Jan.
30, in honoring President Roosevelt and in raising funds for the Warm Springs Foundation, an institution located at Warm Springs, Ga., for the relief of sufferers from infantile paralysis.

At the Naval Armory in Benton Harbor, next Tuesday night, at least a thousand couples will celebrate the President's 52nd birthday and a minimum of a dollar from each ticket of admission will be contributed to the national committee which is promoting the Presidential parties throughout the country.

It is a non-partisan and non-political affair and yet to Berrien County it is an occasion for celebration and jubilee and party leaders, workers and others from all over Berrien will be present to participate in the affair.

At 9:30 the grand march will lead off and from then on until long after midnight, the Armory will be the scene of a brilliant social event.

The program calls for a program of dancing and other entertainment from 8:30 to 9:30; a dozen bands and orchestras will furnish music, while from 11 until midnight there will be a national radio broadcast in which the President himself will participate and felicitate the dancers in all parts of the country.

The Armory will be brilliantly decorated especially for the occasion, while electrical and other scenic effects will be used to add color and gaiety to the occasion.

Tickets to the President's ball are $1.50. While a dollar goes to the national committee for the Warm Springs Foundation, the balance will be used to defray expenses and for a fund that will be devoted to the relief of Berrien's crippled children. Most of the cost of the big ball will be donated so it is hoped that a considerable sum will be raised for Berrien's crippled youngsters.

The Benton Harbor affair of which Mrs. Anne Parsal, head of the county welfare work and CWA agency, is chairman, is county-wide in its scope. Arrangements have been in charge of a general committee representing all communities in the county.

Boxes are being sold at $10 per box and early this week some 25 boxes had been disposed of to various notables who will be hosts to party affairs at the President's ball.

150 AT FATHER AND SON BANQUET AT METH. CHURCH

County Probate Judge Hatfield Talks on Responsibility of Fathers for Their Sons.

One hundred and fifty guests assembled at the basement of the Methodist church last night, the assembly consisting of boys and their "dads" at the annual Father and Son banquet.

The principal speaker of the evening was Judge Malcolm Hatfield of the County Probate court, whose activities in behalf of youth have been placed in the forefront of the news for some past several weeks. Walter Hayes acted as toastmaster and toasts were responded to by Arthur Rose, who spoke in behalf of the fathers, Harold Rose, who spoke in behalf of the sons, and by A. A.
Worthington and Arthur George.
Included among the guests was a large representation from the Lions club. Arthur Johnston was leader of the community singing and an orchestra of high school boys led by Howard Lentz furnished the music.

In his address Judge Hatfield emphasized the fact that the relationship between father and son was of vital importance. He also stated that the father, nearly always, becomes the son's masculine model, that his model shapes his life and moulds his character. The nobler the father, the greater will be the son's trust in him and the more inspiring will be the father's influence.

Judge Hatfield also stated that the father's attitude toward his son is of great influence. If, for instance, he is of the domineering type, he may cause the boy to develop a rebellious reaction toward all authority. Or again, the young man may become timid and extremely sensitive, or a shut-in type of personality. Estrangements between father and son may start a boy in life with an equipment of antagonism that may color his whole emotional existence. The possibilities for evil, as well as for good, are tremendous. Thus, in the seclusion of the home, the boy may be blighted for life or made one of the greatest productions of life—an upright, virtuous citizen.

trick dog, "Spot," has received an appointment as deputy sheriff of Lake County, Ind., the appointment coming from Mrs. Lillian Holley, who has been sheriff since her husband was killed by a criminal. He states that his appointment came as a result of a decision of the Lake county sheriff to increase her staff because of the operations of the Dillinger gang there. Mr. Parks is a crack rifle shot. Mr. and Mrs. Parks

P. WESTON, FAMOUS WALKER, HERE IN 1869

Buchanan Had Walking Marathon at Old Skating Rink in 1887; Dr. McLin Won $100 Bet on Walk to Niles.

The present interest in the "walkathon" now in progress in Gary and stimulated by radio broadcasts, recalls the time some 65 years ago when Buchanan was favored with a visit from the most famous pedestrian of all time, Edward Payson Weston, who staged an exhibition at the old race track on the present site of the Clark Equipment company, Sept. 25, 1869.

Weston died only a few years ago at the age of almost ninety years, and was consequently in his young manhood when he walked here. The following notice of his coming which appeared in the Record indicates that he was not then accepted as a bona fide performer.

WESTON, THE HUMBBUG
"It is singular how people will be humbugged by the professed great walkist, Weston. Some of our exchanges presume him to be one of the veriest humbugs extant.
Let those spend their money to see him who desire to buy if the good of the people of Berrien county is taken into account, if he should visit this county as it is reported they will give him a ride worth a fine thing. It is high time that the local press of this county was raising its voice against all such humbugging and against all people who travel to gull people out of their money. It is supposed that the local press is awake to the interests of the people. As far as the Record is concerned it does not propose to be made a tool for the benefit of any person or set of persons at the sacrifice of the interest of the masses; but will expose humbuggists in whatsoever department they may appear."

Perhaps with a view of mollifying the editorial dudgeon, Weston ran an advertisement in the Record of Sept. 16, 1869, billing his walk here for Sept. 25, at which time it was stated that "Edward Payson Weston, the Great American Walker, will undertake the stupendous feat of walking fifty miles in ten and a half hours, including the most difficult task, (in fact, against nature) of walking one half mile backward, at the Buchanan Park Grounds. Mr.
Weston, in this occasion, will wear the splendid uniform presented to him by the people of Westchester county, N. Y., and will commence his arduous duties at 8 a. m., walking one half mile backward between three and four o'clock p. m. Arrangements have been made by the Park Association with Mr. Weston to make his fifteenth trial of this nature at the above named place, that the people of Buchanan and the surrounding territory might witness the wonderful powers of endurance and locomotion of the greatest pedestrian in the world. Admission 25 cents; seats in grandstand 10 cents. A sufficient police force will be present to maintain order on the grounds."

In the later seventies a walking craze struck the town, and much interest was aroused by the proposal of one, Dr. McLin, to walk from the Dunbar house (now the Hotel Rex) to the Pike house in Niles in one hour, for a side bet of $100. At the set time Dr.
McLin set out over Niles hill at a high rate of speed and arrived at the Pike House, Niles, in 49 minutes, collecting the bet. It was afterward averred that the doctor never walked the distance at all, but was picked up by a team and buggy on the other side of Niles hill and only resumed walking at the edge of Niles.

"The first walking marathon at Buchanan was advertised for the Skating Rink on March 4, 1887, a certain Mr. Lake proposing to walk 68 miles continuously, in the course of which he was to step the 27th quarter mile in one minute and fifty seconds."

During the following weeks a walking mania struck the school, one Harry Rough attaining some distinction by walking around the old Union school building 100 times in 55 minutes.

The Buchanan Bucks meet their traditional rivals, the Niles Cardinals, on the local floor Friday night in what promises to be the major cage attraction in southwestern Michigan this week-end.
Both cage squads have been pointing for this game, the Bucks determined to avenge their previous defeat, 27 to 25, at the hands of the Redbirds on the Niles floor.
This last game, an overtime, kept the spectators on their feet the entire last half.

Considerably strengthened by their recent victories over Coloma and Bridgman, the Bucks will be at their best when they take the floor against the Cards.

As evidence of the importance of this game, a noted Big Ten basketball referee has been engaged to officiate at the Buck-Cardinal clash Friday. "Pie" Warren who has refereed at games between practically all the universities in the Big Ten Conference, will referee the game. Warren

"New "Knee-Action" Chevrolet Gives Passengers" Ride Like a Glide

In the design and development of the new 1934 Chevrolet, particular attention has been given to driver and passenger comfort, all annoying sensations of discomfort and feeling having been eliminated. The upper photo shows the new Chevrolet, with its long, sleek lines. Wind noise has been eliminated by the Fisher No Draft Ventilators and the new streamlined body. Chevrolet's "Knee-Action" wheels enjoy the advantage of being completely enclosed in a weather-tight housing; the coil springs and shock absorbers ride in a tubed unit. William F. Heller, Chevrolet's general sales manager, is shown at the left holding a chart which shows the internal construction of the system.

The driver and passengers in the new 1934 Chevrolet get a ride like the glide of an airplane. One of the main factors in improving the riding qualities of the new car to such a great extent is the "Knee-Action"—or independently sprung front wheels, to use the technical term.

So much has been written about independent springing that the public has doubtless concluded that it is something too technical to understand. As a matter of fact, there is nothing complicated about either the principle involved or the construction of the system. Chevrolet's "Knee-Action" enjoys the advantage of being enclosed in a welded weather-tight housing in which the entire spring mechanism and shock absorbers ride up and down in a bath of oil.

An automobile gives a perfect ride when both the front and rear springs have the same "frequency," or rhythm. Actually this has been impossible to carry out in the past because the front springs had to be over twice as "stiff" as the rear springs in order to hold the front axle, wheels and brakes in place. In independent springing, the wheels and spring mechanism are rigidly attached directly to the frame and there is no front axle. By relieving the front springs of the task of carrying wheels and axle, therefore, it became possible to make the front springs as "soft" as the rear springs. When the new Chevrolet strikes an irregularity in the road, both front and rear move up and down with the same frequency—there is no inclination on the part of the rear end of the car to leap into the air and throw the passengers forward and upward.

Chevrolet's "Knee-Action" has additional advantages all contributing to a comfort in riding never before thought possible in a motor car. There is a decided improvement in handling, steering, safety at high speeds and tire economy.

In design, the front spring is a neat, compact and efficient unit as Mr. Heller points out in the above picture. The entire spring mechanism is attached rigidly to the frame. From this enclosed unit the wheels spring vertically at the ends of strong, steel horizontal arms.

Through camera-craft and mechanical ingenuity the motion picture screen becomes a gigantic kaleidoscope on the presenting of spectacular musical ensembles in "Dancing Lady," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production which opens next Sunday, Jan. 28th at the Ready theatre with Joan Crawford and Clark Gable co-starring.

In one of the scenes each of the chorus beauties, revolving through a maze of mirrors, can be seen thirty times at once, the effect created being an endless parade of pulchritude. In other scenes complete changes of costume and setting are witnessed, as though by magic, right before the eyes of the spectator. Still other scenes whirl upon the screen in a dozen different angles simultaneously.

The most thrilling scene of all, perhaps, is the finale in which Miss Crawford dances through an impressionistic number of modern tempo. In this some eight thousand dancing figures—if you could possibly count them—appear upon the screen.

Although camera-craft secrets are carefully guarded, it is declared that while these scenes are actually photographed by the camera as they appear on the screen, the trickery lies in optical illusions scientifically computed by a corps of engineers. Six hundred mirror units and nineteen tons of fabricated steel were used in the shooting of one of the gorgeous dance ensembles, it is said.

Sales Tax Averages $2,600,000 Per Month All Michigan sales taxpayers whose fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 1933, will be required to file an annual sales tax return, showing their gross business from July 1, 1933 to Dec. 31.

In this report should be indicated the total tax paid for the six months. In cases where it is evident that the state has been overpaid, the state will refund the excess.

The state board of tax administration reports that in the six months ending Dec. 31, over $13,000,000 was collected, an average of over $2,600,000 per month. Of this a million dollars a month goes to welfare, and another million to the support of the state educational and other institutions.

Through the sales tax the state of Michigan has reduced its property tax from $3.57 a thousand to less than 60c per thousand and aims eventually to abolish the entire state property tax, as Illinois has done.

It is believed by leaders that the sales tax is here permanent. The outstanding recommendation is that it cannot become delinquent as is the case with the property tax. It produces a steady stream of income as long as retail sales are made. Many sales tax advocates are in favor of raising the tax to 5 per cent or 6 per cent and do away with all other forms of taxation.

To Compete with Foulkes A number of Republicans of the fourth congressional district are already looking longingly at the office of U. S. Representative George Foulkes, according to the county seat papers. To date only one announcement has been made, that of State Representative Earl L. Burnham of VanBuren. But John Ketcham is reported to be in a receptive mood, as is also former State Senator James Gordon Bonine of Cassopolis. Bonine is a member of the state liquor commission and counts on his known wealth as an asset. Atty. Clare Hoffman, Allegan, is another who is believed to have congressional aspirations.

Berrien County republicans who are suspected of having congressional hankers are Atty. John J. Sterling, Benton Harbor; Atty. Wilbur Banyon, Niles; Atty. C. W. Gore, Stanley Banyon, M. E. Burkett, George Barnard, Atty. Wilbur Cunningham, and O. A. Baldwin of Bridgman.

Possible opponents of Congressman Foulkes within the ranks of his own party are State Senator Leon Case, Watervliet, who states, however, that he would prefer to remain in the state legislature, Atty. Fremont Evans, Roman, Jarvis, and the latter's nephew, State Representative Harvey Hope Jarvis.

Increase State Liquor Income Estimates Estimates of a total business of from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 from state liquor stores were made by Chairman Frank A. Picard last week on the strength of receipts from nine state stores during January greatly in excess of estimates. Yields of the volume indicated above would mean revenues of from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 for distressed school districts. Picard's estimate was based on receipts from 100 state stores plus those from the business of specially designated merchants.

H. G. Wells "Invisible Man" at the Hollywood Sunday and Monday

The strangest character ever created by the screen makes his debut at the Hollywood theatre on Sunday and Monday when Universal's startling picturization of H. G. Wells' sensational novel, "The Invisible Man," opens its featured engagement there. Giving "Frankenstein," cards and upades, this uncannily fascinating green drama promises local theatregoers the most exciting evening in years, according to Manager Montec.

Its unseen star is a scientist who has succeeded in conquering light and shadow to make himself invisible. How his frantic attempts to rule the world plunge a nation into a frenzy of suspense and fear, and how the invisible madman employs his invisibility to gain his ends and how he manages a fervid love affair, supplies this amazing picture with a quick succession of high spots.

James Whale, known for his "Journey's End" and "Frankenstein" directed this weird picture. Claude Rains, William Harrigan, Gloria Stuart, and Dudley Digges head the cast of players who bring the Wells story to life on the screen.

The frontier town of Tombstone, Arizona, makes its last stand against the onrush of civilization in "Frontier Marshall," the latest Fox film release which comes to the Hollywood tomorrow (Friday), and Saturday of this week. Tombstone is the town that was overrun by lawlessness and banditry until that famous peace officer, Wyatt Earp, made his appearance on the frontier and brought it law and order.

George O'Brien plays the title part, with Irene Bentley and George E. Stone in support. Chapter 10 of "Gordon of Ghost City" plus a 2 reel Mickey McGuire comedy, completes this program.

Tuesday evening, Jan. 30th, at 8 o'clock the Buchanan Little Theatre Group, The Playbox, presents its first of a planned series of plays entitled, "Attorney for the Defense," with a brilliant cast of home-talent players. The play has had long runs in leading cities and its excellent make-up, combined with the fitting role of each individual in the production, assures local theatregoers an evening of thoroughly enjoyable entertainment. Be there!

The two Jacks of comedy, Oakie and Haley, together with Ginger Rogers, Thelma Todd, Gregory Ratoff and Lew Cody make up the feature section of the all-star singing, dancing, laughing cast in Paramount's screen musical, "Sitting Pretty," which plays at the Hollywood on Bargain Nights next week Wednesday and Thursday. Crammed with new tunes, eye-fill-

Scrip for the Journey

"I Never Lose Heart" 2. Cor. 4:16 In a day when all about is "the wreck of matter and the crash of worlds," it is heartening to read a word like that. No matter how trying the situation, how cruel the circumstance, how charged with punishment the scroll, it is enervating to know that a man can stand up to it all and say, "I never lose heart."

When we read the story of the man who spoke these words, we learn that his life was filled with difficulties and dangers and disasters far beyond the experience of most of us who lose heart over the most trivial things. He knew hunger and hardships and human hatreds; he suffered beatings, stonings, riots, ridicule, prisons and "deaths often." He knew, if any man can know, the things, which give the right of way, have power to uproot men and fling the spirit within men headlong into the dust. Yet he stands in the midst of it all to say, "I am not depressed on every side, but never cut off; perplexed, but not driven to despair; routed, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed." Nothing can make him "lose heart."

What was Paul's secret of triumphant endurance no matter what happened? He lived in the dynamic of a great vision. He was motivated by a great purpose. He was held by a great hope. He was energized by great persuasions. He was "anchored to the infinite." Let any man get these things of Paul in his soul and he can say with Paul: "I never lose heart."

Co-Operation is Chief Hope Small Town Says Knoblauch

"The chief hope for the future for the small town lies in that brand of co-operation which is tested by your ability to work for the other fellow," stated A. L. Knoblauch in the course of a pertinent talk on "Co-Operation" before the members of the Civic Association and their guests at the Ladies Night program Monday evening.

Without that co-operation which is rooted in an intent at least in disinterestedness or at least in the concession of mutual advantages, Knoblauch stated, the small town is on its way to extinction as a business center. Knoblauch cited the case of a merchant in a town of 28 people in Michigan who had built a $10,000 home with his profits from his store in the past year. On being questioned, the merchant stated that he had prospered thru-out the depression by basing his business on the principal that his first duty was to make money for the other fellow. Since he had begun to operate on that basis he said, he had made money continuously.

In a short business session before the talk, the Civic Association voted to send a wire to the Michigan congressmen requesting appropriations to continue CWA work.

Fred Mead acted as chairman. An orchestra of high school boys led by George Remington, enlivened proceedings by some near music which went far towards establishing a resistance record both for drum heads and ear drums. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Say It With Songs

Since exams and report cards have become a part of the dim past, our crooners, warblers, whistlers and blues singers are at it again.

Helen Kane's popularity soon died after Geneva Troutetter began her version of "Aintcha." When she rolls her big brown eyes and says, "Oh—h—h, you dreat big he-man!" they all fall. She succeeds in gaining quite an audience when she gets started.

If you should chance to hear a romantic tenor crooning "The Shadow Waltz" with deep feeling, you will know Bob Willard is near. Many a feminine heart has skipped a beat at the sound of his voice.

The one time that everyone displays his or her vocal talents is in the locker room just before or after a gym class. Blanche Depyl yodels "The Last Roundup" while Annie Delenberg sings in her dignified operatic tone, "Annie Doesn't Live Here Any More." Alice Ruth screams at the top of her voice "Ain't Gonna Rain No More," and Anna Yurkovic whistles "Say It Isn't So." Frank Di Gincimo sings in her well-known style "I'll Be Faithful," while "Lilacs" Peacock entertains fellow players during basketball games with "Where's Elmer?" and Margaret Richter "struts her stuff" with "Jimmy Had a Nick-el."

To and from school, Leona Wolkins sings "Goodnight Little Girl of My Dreams."

"Tarzan of the Grapes" Upham whistles "The Torch Song" to pass away his time.

With a "come hither" look in her eyes, "Scotty" Russell sings her version of "Come Up and See Me Sometime." They're all going "West!"

Harold Jackson, the sophomore jester, whistles, hums and attempts singing, "The Chicken in the Hay!"

NOTED MEN AND WOMEN BORN IN JANUARY

Many noted men and women were born in the month of January. To recall the names of some of the more important, a group of questions are published below. Can you answer them?

1. In what tragic way did Joan of Arc die?

2. With whom did Hayne hold his famous debate?

3. Who was one of the earliest printers and journalists as well as an inventor and statesman?

4. Who is famed for his invention of the steam engine?

5. The most famous Southern general during the Civil War was

6. What man won a decisive victory at New Orleans several weeks after the close of the War of 1812?

7. Who played an important part in the conquest of the West during the Mexican War?

8. President who served while Theodore Roosevelt was Vice-President was

9. Who was the composer of "The Unfinished Symphony"?

REPORT CARDS!

The class advisors last Wednesday, Jan. 17, spent a busy fifteen minutes handing out report cards to eager students. This was done between 1 o'clock and 1:15 p. m. The reason for the expectancy written all over the waiting students' faces was that the report cards held the semester's grades.

Mechanical Drawing

The advanced class in mechanical drawing is making working drawings of machine parts. The first year drawing class has just begun to make tracings of their drawings. A tracing must be made of every drawing that is to be blueprinted.

SNOOPY SNOOPS

Did you know that while "Remy" played his drums in Three Oaks, a red head almost made him fall off his stool? Ask more about her, fellows.

Bill Frame has sophomore interests at the present time. The junior play is in its first stages of production, namely memorizing parts.

Helen Spatta has changed her hobby recently for some unknown reason, and now she spends some of her time collecting photographs of famous people!

Code Unsatisfactory!

A small punch in the back, "Pest! Was the show ever good last night, did yuh go?"

"Sh! No, better keep quiet. Miss Negus'll hear you."

"Ho-hum, I wanted to go to the library this hour, but I can't be bothered getting up now that I'm down."

"Sh! Quit your talking or we'll have to stay after school tonight."

These and similar remarks may be heard round-about sixth hour study hall since the new talking and library rules went into effect.

Students can no longer go into the library for the sole purpose of "visiting."

Well, by and by, we'll get use to it.

Editorial

Since the beginning of time the source of power has always been a constant problem which vast multitudes have tried to solve. One of the most successful of the inventors was James Watt, whose birthday was celebrated this past week.

Although scorned by classmates and others, who believed James was "not quite right," he overcame this social obstacle and emerged a genius. His revision of the reciprocating type of steam engine was perhaps one of the greatest single inventions in the field of power machinery.

Success did not come all at once even to this great engineer. Many times he seemed to be on the verge of success but everytime failure followed in his footsteps. He tried desperately to guard against losses of all kinds but did not succeed. Finally when on the verge of despair he actually found success and began to prosper.

Mr. Watt had held to his task by sheer determination and had succeeded. He proved that real success can only grow out of repeated trials and determination. He showed that it was possible to transform seemingly defeat into sure victory and for that we honor him.

CWA MAKING IMPROVEMENTS
And is Buchanan high school beginning to look like something! Well, we'll say so!

The CWA workers are certainly doing a great deal for the school, redecorating the auditorium, plastering and painting, even washing windows.

A new cinder track and athletic field is being built, also, for the disposal of the school.

Our athletes ought to do big things now!

Manual Training

The students in the manual training classes are taking a week off from their shop work and are learning how to mix and apply paints. This subject is important in shop work, because a good project may be spoiled by a poor finish.

They're Goin' West!

Those ever-fad-crazy boys have gone feminine for a change to demonstrate to the modern miss how she appears to them!

Russell Froud wears his nails a beautiful tone of rose, and flashes his fiery finger tips about, catching an envious maiden's glance.

"May I borrow your mirror?" sighs Bob Willard, and he squints into a three-inch compact. Thrusting his head from one side to another, the desired pose is finally attained, and his proud vanity is satisfied.

Incidentally, Danny Topash prefers being "a lady's man," for he doesn't get a bit lonesome in English class, being surrounded all by his lonesome, with no noisy co-eds!

Who's Who

Max Penwell was born at Flint, August 9, 1915. While living there he began his school career as he spent his first grade in a Flint school. The next year he came to Buchanan with his parents to their present home, which is on the River Road.

Max is known as one of the strongest boys and also the best wrestler in school. He has displayed this ability several times at gym shows and halves of basketball games.

Football is his favorite sport. He has been out of it for three years and played "end" on the regular team.

Max is also a member of the Ag club.

One of the best all around girls of the senior class this year is Helen Spatta.

Helen came here from Baltimore approximately seven years ago. She attended a Baltimore school in the first five grades. Before that time, however, she lived in New York, where she was born Jan. 19, 1917.

As Helen is industrious in all phases of work, she has made for herself a very good scholastic and, also, athletic record.

She belonged to the Latin club both her freshman and sophomore grades and the Usher Club during the past two years. Helen has also been a very diligent member of the G. A. A. for four years.

Class Activities

History

Mrs. Whitman's sophomore history classes have been attempting to master that ever-puzzling Reformation period of their English ancestors.

Progressive movement has been filling the senior students minds during the past week.

In the citizenship class, the pupils should make good business men and women, because they have been learning the fundamentals in the management of business.

Girls' Physical Education
The high school girls are drilling on basketball fundamentals.

Nine court basketball has been introduced into the eighth grade classes. This establishes better passing and guarding.

The G. A. A. went on a breakfast h'ke early Saturday morning out to the country club.

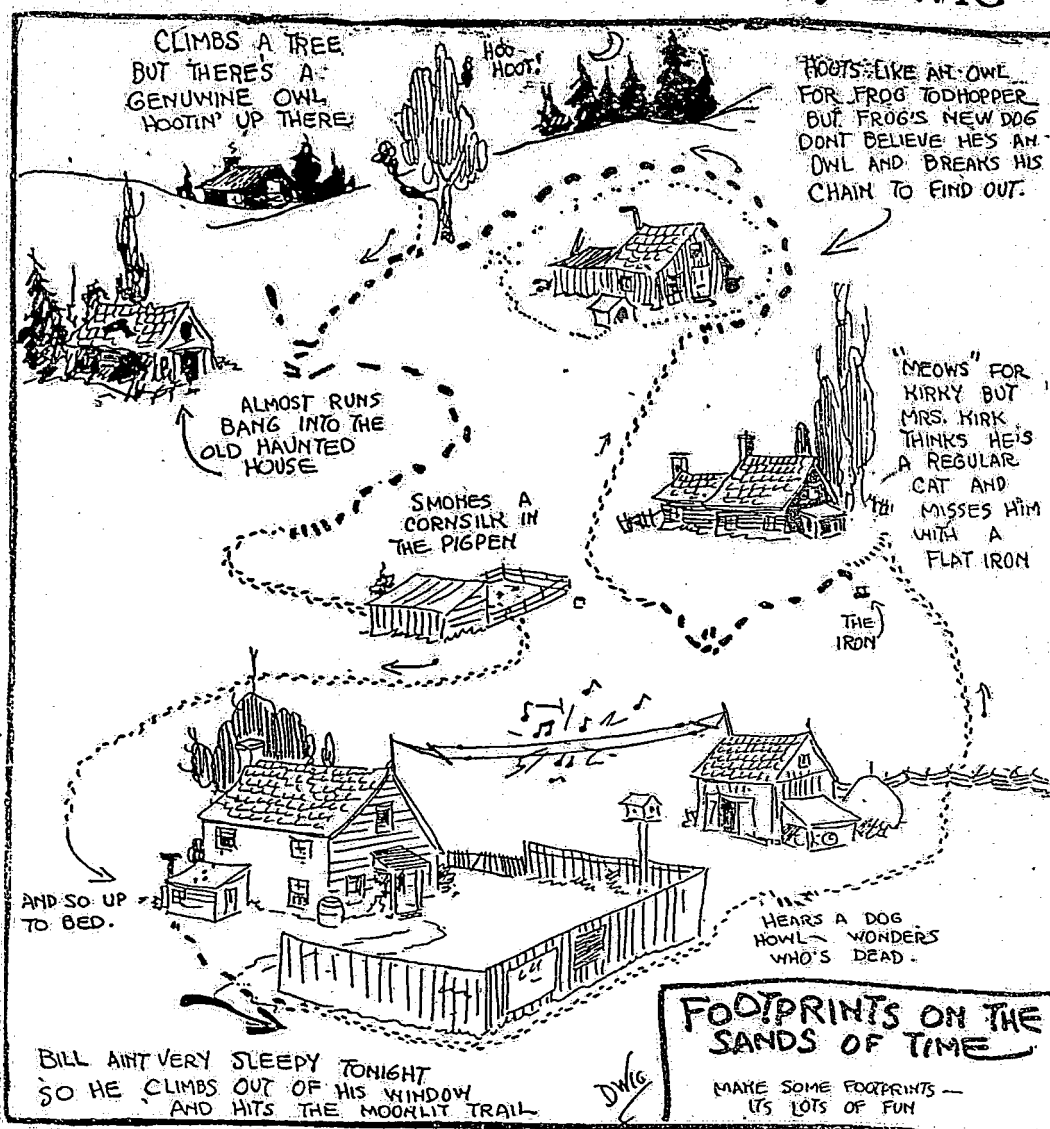

A big ten basketball tournament has been started by G. A. A. Each team has chosen some college name.

English 7, 11 and 12
Students in the 7th grade English classes studied direct objects, transitive and intransitive verbs, and appositives last week.

"The Age of Dryden and Pope" contained perplexing problems for the junior English classes. The Study Unit included a two hundred word essay on "Modern Politics," "Education for Women at Present" or "Modern Warfare as Contrasted with that of the Period of Restoration."

A continuation of library study was made by the Senior English class which included biographical selections and literary subjects. The Dewey Decimal system as used in the library is also under observation.

Their Velmorian Literary program of this month was held last week. Roll call was answered by New Year's resolutions. The following reports were given:

Zona Yule—Robert Willard; Pearl S. Buck—Anna Grace Rananah; Negro Literature—Jack Truman; Spenser—Clarence Rice.

Home Economics
All classes in home economics are working on their first project and are discussing patterns preparatory to making the project.

General Science
Static electricity and magnetism are the subjects being discussed this week in the general science classes. They are also learning how an electric current may be produced by the use of a magnet.

Languages
Miss Shriver has started to read to the Latin 9 classes, the book, "The Unwilling Vestal" by W. W. W. The classes are also learning the use of the complementary infinitives.

"Roman Superstitions," "Public Games" and other stories about Roman life have been translated and read to the class by different students of the Latin 10 class.

Those boys and girls who are taking French 11 have come in contact with a small French book that makes its appearance about this time each year entitled "Pas a Pas" which means "Step by Step." This book has short stories about French life and in the back of the book is a French vocabulary.

Waterloo has been met by the French 12 students, for they have come upon the hardest problem yet. They are obliged to write, every Friday, themes written in their best possible French. The topic of this week's theme is a description of the class room. They are also using their grammars for class work.

Physical Education
The boys in the gym classes, under the direction of Mr. Bradfield, are still working very hard on the coming gym show and are hoping that this event will be a greater success than ever before.

The events that are being drilled upon now are tumbling, marching, and various tricks on the parallel bars, buck and the horse.

Journalism
The journalism class has been working on the chapter "Playing Up the Feature." This means emphasizing news value so as to attract the casual reader. The work has also been on newspaper study over rewrite stories.

English
The English nine classes have continued with word study. This includes disacritical markings of words, proper syllabification of words, prefixes, suffixes and the history of words.

The English ten classes have worked on the chapter, "The Colonies Become a Nation," in their literature books. They have been studying the different authors of this period namely: Paine, de Crevecoeur, Frenau, and the Hartford Wits.

Commercial Dept.
Many a paper was ripped from the machine and discarded to the disgust of first year typing students, making brave attempts to type perfect business letters this week.

The second year class is centering manuscripts, title pages, programs and reports.

In the shorthand division, prefixes and rules for phrasing were undertaken. They are writing sentences in shorthand, and are having a test over brief forms.

A test over business forms and special journals was administered to the bookkeeping class. They are ready to begin work on practice sets which contain business papers and transactions for two months.

Routine work has been practiced this week by the glee clubs.

The band and orchestra are preparing for the Berrien County concert and festival to be held in Niles, Feb. 7.

There will be a guest conductor to conduct the entire assembly. No charge will be made for spectators as far as it is known at present.

First Grade
Part of the work in the first grade includes learning the names of the days of the week in their order.

To do this we are correlating it with art work by illustrating each day by drawing activities pertaining to the day. Monday is wash day, Tuesday, ironing; Wednesday, sewing; Thursday, baking, Friday, cleaning; Saturday, marketing; and Sunday, church.

Third Grade, Dewey Avenue
At the end of the first semester we found the following pupils had not been absent: Emogene Abbott, Ruth Baker, Bernice Hartline, Anna Moore, Stella Mosier, George Roberts, Gerald Smith and George Zupke.

Condon Himmelberger is in school again after a three week's absence.

We are making an illustrated health book. Each pupil finds pictures to illustrate two or three health rules.

Kindergarten
The Victrola was placed in our room for our music class. Margery Bouws brought several records added to our Dental Honor Roll. Clifford Kingery's name has been added to our Dental Honor Roll. Clifford's teeth being in perfect condition.

Forty-six children were immunized against diphtheria.

Dale Florey, Arthur Mayhew, and Donald Metzger have been neither absent nor tardy during the last semester.

Sixth Grade
Our Forest Rangers have been Marilyn Staver and Jimmy King. They have done a very excellent job in reporting the people for walking on the school lawn or on other lawns. We chose new Forest Rangers last week. They are Marion Hansen and James Heiermann.

We have been studying the Southern States in geography. Today we told what route we would take to Florida and what we would take with us.

English 8
"Alphabet Soup," a dramatized review of the events occurring in 1933, was presented in Mrs. Lura French's room by the eighth grade class this week. It was taken from a Current Events issue. This class has also been studying relative pronouns, adjectives and clauses.

History 7 and 8
In the eighth grade history division, slavery and conditions leading up to the Civil War were discussed. Reports on Eli Whitney and John Quincy Adams were given by Dale Lyon, Clifford Kelley, and Vella Gray.

Also dealing with warfare, reports on the Stamp Act, Townsend Act, and Intolerable Acts were made concerning the Revolutionary War in the seventh grade division.

Mathematics
The eighth grade arithmetic classes are interested in finding the number of board feet, buying lumber by the lineal foot, finding out how much is needed for picture molding, banister, and porch rails. They have also been working on finding the volumes of prisms.

Time and distant problems have been interesting work for the 7th grade arithmetic classes.

Commercial law class has been discovering all about the legality and illegality of contracts, gambling contracts, and the reality of consent.

The practical use of the functions of acute angles has made the students of trigonometry class sit up and take more interest in the puzzling subject.

The geometry class has been studying angle measurements in circles, and these angles are formed by tangents, secants and chords, also the location of points which meet certain given conditions.

The algebra classes have been working on solving problems by the use of quadratic equations. They were greeted with a test on this work. They have started to work on solution of fractions and reducing algebraic fractions to their lowest terms.

Latin 9
Although it has never been known for Miss Shriver to actually get "mad," it was an indisputable fact that she was thoroughly disgusted with the Latin 9 class one day last week. She had given an assignment to the class to translate a Latin story orally. The following day when the assignment was due, not a person in the class seemed to have his lesson.

Finally Miss Shriver asked if there was a person in the class that could translate one of the sentences. When no one raised his hand, the story was added to the assignment of the following day.

Chemistry
The action of sulphur and the way it combines with metals such as zinc, copper, silver, and lead is the chemistry work for this week. The class is also studying hydrogen sulphide, which is very useful to the analytical chemist. With this gas he can precipitate the sulphides of many metals, many of them having different colors by which he distinguishes them.

Sulphur dioxide, sulphur trioxide, and sulphuric acid will be studied soon. The class will attempt to duplicate the old chamber process of making sulphuric acid.

Many of the copper ores of the west are sulphide ores. When these are refined, great volumes of sulphur dioxide are given off. This gas is very destructive to all plants. To overcome this bad feature, the copper companies work out the contact process for making sulphuric acid, which uses the sulphur dioxide rather than wasting it. A film on sulphur from the Texas Gulf Sulphur Co., was shown to the chemistry class.

Physics
Reciprocating type of steam engines is the topic of study for the physics class. They are studying the Watt type and Corliss type of steam engine. An interesting report will be made on steam turbines by Donald Burrus. Thomas Quirk will give a report on the reciprocating or Watt type of steam engine.

Margaret and John have lots of friends—and are well-liked by all. But they have no telephone to enable friends to reach them easily.

So Margaret and John just sit around, night after night, missing many good times. Yet, for only a few cents a day, they could have the countless advantages of telephone service.

Besides being a social asset, a telephone helps in finding employment... in keeping in touch with one's work... in "running" errands. And it offers

CHARGE STATE PENAL SYSTEM IS INEFFICIENT

Natl. Prison Reform Assoc. Reports Mich. Penal Institutions in Incomplete Hands; Parole, Trusty Systems Abused.

Michigan state penal system is crippled by politics, by inexperienced management and the trusty and parole systems are both abused, according to a supplemental report issued by the Osborne Association, Inc., of which President Roosevelt is a sponsor.

The report just issued is supplemental to one issued in 1931, which it brings up to date, virtually repeating the charges made at that time.

Main criticisms are: 1—"There has been no significant improvement in discipline, punishment, medical service, education, classification, employment opportunities, and care of the insane at Jackson. Political changes have placed this, the largest prison in the United States, under the direction of a prison commission and warden entirely without previous experience in the difficult and hazardous business of administering a prison. Inexperienced men have been appointed to important subordinate positions. Only the deputy warden has had experience in prison management.

2—"From the point of view of general discipline and supervision of the inmate population, the prison impressed us as distinctly inferior to such institutions as the Wisconsin State Prison and the Detroit House of Correction. An unusually large number of 'trusties' move about with apparent freedom, which is dangerous as well as destructive to morale. This is particularly undesirable in an institution where idleness is so prevalent and where there is so little reliable information upon which to base the selection of 'trusties'.

3—"The large amount of idleness in Jackson prison is a grave menace to the safety of the institution.

4—"Neither at Jackson nor in the state prison system is any serious effort being made at the individual study and classification of the inmates. Mass treatment flourishes at its worst.

5—"Parole is at best a matter of clemency rather than a means of assisting men to readjust to the problems which face them upon release from prison. The responsibility for administering parole in Michigan falls to a man without previous experience who was appointed solely for political reasons. It is rather obvious that the present commissioner cannot give sufficient time to the existing duties of Parole Commissioner in view of the heavy demands made upon him as chairman of his party's state central committee.

(Editor's note—The commissioner is W. Alfred Debo.)

The Association's investigators noted favorably a decrease in the use of "semi-circular" cages as a form of punishment, though they observed that Michigan is one of the two remaining states using this punishment. It expressed satisfaction that the Deputy Warden, who administers the punishment, "seems to recognize that the cages yield more in satisfaction to the guard who reports the inmate than in corrective benefit to the offending prisoner."

Christian Science Churches

"Truth" will be the subject of Lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world Sunday, Jan. 28.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Matt. 13: 16, 17): "But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 117): "Our Master taught spirituality by similitudes and parables. As a divine student he unfolded God to man, illustrating and demonstrating Life and Truth in himself and by his power over the sick and sinning."

Seventh Day Adventist

Sabbath School (Saturday) at 10 a. m. Lesson study, "Personality of the Holy Spirit."

Memory verse, "Great is the mystery of Godliness." 1 Tim. 3:16

Note: "The nature of the Holy Spirit is a mystery. Men cannot explain it, because the Lord has not revealed it to them. Men, having fanciful views may bring together passages of Scripture and put a human construction on them but the acceptance of these views will not strengthen the church. Regarding such mysteries, which are too deep for human understanding, silence is golden.

We cannot rightly understand or appreciate divine revelation without the aid of that Spirit by whom the word was given.

That which happened historically must take place experimentally. In each of us Jesus Christ must be born through the direct action of the Holy Spirit. Gal. 4:1-5.

"That is what we mean by the new birth and when He has so entered our hearts, our Lord will become our Saviour, not merely from the penalty but from the love and power of our sins.

"The union of the divine with the human nature is one of the most precious and most mysterious truths of the plan of redemption. It is this of which Paul speaks when he says, 'Without controversy great is the mystery of Godliness. God was manifest in the flesh.'"

Preaching service at 11:15.

Try to Keep Your Shirt on When You Are Reading This

Wait a minute folks—hold on to the paper a minute, there was something we wanted to tell you, if we can just think. Oh yes, when are you going to pay your dog tax? What's that—do you have to pay a tax on your head and your dogs both? You bet you do. And what about what's in between—oh, well, most of that is covered by the personal property tax. But we can't argue the matter—go and see the city treasurer. Mrs. Sanders says it isn't so bad this year—male dog cut from $2 to $1 and female tax from $4 to $2, but you have to pay it by Mar. 1st, or you'll be going around here singing "Where, oh where, has my little dog gone"—doggone if you won't.
