

FARM LEADER TO SPEAK HERE OCT. 10

Buchanan Co-ops Lay Claim to Southwestern Berrien Baseball Title

BUCHANAN CO-OPS.

AND LEGISLATIVE CLUB TO SPONSOR

Waldo Phillips, Representative State Farm Bureau, to Talk on Proposed Amendments.

A very important meeting will be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 10th at 7:30 o'clock, in the room over the Co-ops store in Buchanan.

This meeting is being sponsored by the Buchanan Co-ops Inc., in connection with the Berrien county Legislative club.

Waldo Phillips, representing the Michigan State Farm Bureau, is to be the main speaker. County Agent Lurkins is expected to be present and add his usual good word.

The subject to be discussed is "Our Constitutional Amendments." There will be seven amendments to be voted on at our next election. Some of them are of vital importance to the farmers, especially of Berrien County. Do you favor reducing the gas tax to 2c? What about the so-called home rule? In order to vote intelligently on these matters it is necessary to thoroughly understand all that is contained in these very important items. You can not afford to miss this important meeting. Townspeople as well as farmers are welcome to attend. Ladies are especially invited to come and enter into the discussion.

Candidate of Farm Labor Withdraws in Favor Foulkes

Don Alderdyce, the State Secretary of The Farmer Labor Party, and candidate for governor of that party, has forwarded resolutions recently passed by its State Central Committee withdrawing its candidate for Congress in this district in favor of the present Democratic member George Foulkes of Hartford, and requesting all of its members to support Mr. Foulkes. It will be recalled that 4th Farm Labor group nominated Mr. Foulkes for their candidate for Governor at the State convention last spring, but that the Congressman refused to lead that party, owing to the fact that he is a member of the National Agriculture Committee and as such is intensely interested in farm legislation, especially the Farm Loan Act and Farm moratorium bill which was passed by the Congress in its closing days.

Mr. Alderdyce explained that Congressmen Foulkes was a progressive of a pronounced type and had rendered valuable service to the farm group and a friend of labor. It was thought that a farmer labor member running for the same office with the Congressman would take votes from the Democratic congressman whose legislative career met with the full approval of their party platform. Hence it was decided to withdraw their party candidate in favor of Mr. Foulkes and request that the support of the farmer labor group be thrown to the Democratic nominee.

The regular nominee of that party, Frank Bennett, has withheld his name at the request of the State Central Committee of that party and will campaign for Mr. Foulkes, our present Congressman.

Now Here's the Proposition

Business as Usual
There was nothing serious but the series in town yesterday. All business was off while the boys grouped in front of the radios.

We went into Fred Mead's tonorial parlor, and collapsed in one of his luxurious chairs.

"A shave, Mr. Mead," we announced.

"Yeah and a close one the way it looks now," said Mr. Mead, who was reported to have some important money on Detroit.

"I'm talking about a shave for myself," we said sternly.

"Gwan," growled Fred, "There's other barbers in town."

So we went into the bank. There was a radio there too.

"If you'll get that note out that you've been telling about," we stated, "We might consider paying a little down."

"Down," howled Mr. Ewing. "Two down and three on, and Greenburg up! Oh, man, what a ball game!"

"How about extending that loan then," we inquired hopefully. "Sure," I'll loan you anything you want," said the banker, "but bet it all on St. Louis."

We went over to Glenn Smith's. There was a radio there, too.

"I'd like to look at some socks," we announced.

"Socks!" boomed Glenn, "I'll say it was a sock!"

So then we socked him.

After all, there's no use carrying things too far.

Does That Answer Ewe?
Mr. Will Beardsley, the distinguished Bend of the River subcommittee, wants to know how come there could be a yearly ewe that won a prize at the International in 1930, like in our sheep story last week.

Well, Mr. Beardsley, if you could parse the gender of the noun "ewe" you wouldn't ask such foolish questions.

Hardy Perennial
A reader sends us the following workover of the 23d Psalm with applications to the present administration. In 1932 the Record printed exactly the same, with the exception of the final paragraph, with reference to Hoover. It might not be a bad idea to keep the type set up in case some reader comes in in 1938 and applies it to President Roosevelt or President Vandenberg or President Thomas or President Borah.

Here it is:
"The 1934th Psalm"
F. D. R. is my shepherd. I am in want.

He maketh me to lie down on park benches.

He leadeth me beside the still factories.

Ho disturbeth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of destruction for his party's sake.

Yea, tho I walk thru the valley of the shadow of depression, I anticipate no recovery. For he is with me.

He prepareth a reduction in my salary and in the presence of mine enemies.

He annointeth my small income with taxes and my expenses runneth over.

Surely, unemployment and poverty shall follow me all the days of my life.

And I shall dwell in a mortgaged house forever.

When he gets thru with his CWA, TERA, and AAA and gets down to his XYZ's, he will need the GOP to pay his IOU's.

STERLING WORK PITCHER SEBASTY ADDS TO SUCCESS

Conquerors of Blues, Arrows, Glendora Issue Defi to Community League Title Holders.

By virtue of an 8-3 victory over the Buchanan Blues at the Letcher diamond Sunday afternoon, the Buchanan Co-op emerged as the class of the baseball teams of southwestern Berrien county having eliminated the Blues from claim by winning two of a series of three games, by defeating the Buchanan Arrows twice, and by defeating the Glendora nine, title holders of the Community League.

The Co-ops are fairly entitled to a claim to the title, inasmuch as they have consistently played their own team members in all contests, and have confined their players to the home talent. The team is made up largely of Portage Prairie men, and are the successors of the Portage Prairie Greyhounds, which have been dispensing to their customers a bang-up brand of baseball for several years.

They owe much of the success to the ability of their pitcher, Lester Sebasty. Sebasty carried the burden of delivery in almost every game of the season, and while a few games have been lost, they were all by narrow margins. He has never "cracked" or been driven from the box during the season in which his team won 17 out of a total of 22 games. He appears awkward in delivery, but has a puzzling ball which is hard to hit with any results to speak of. He also has an effective change of pace that throws opposition pitchers off balance. Much credit goes to the entire team for their consistent support.

Challenge Glendora
The management of the Co-ops state that they wish to thank all who contributed to the support of the team. They also state that if the title winners of the Community League are not satisfied with conceding the title they will play them again either at the Letcher diamond or at Glendora.

The score book tells the following story for the game with the Blue, Sunday:

Mrs. E. Willard and C. Ellis Elected County Lodge Heads

Mrs. Edith Willard was unanimously elected secretary of the Berrien County Association of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs at the annual organization meeting held at the I. O. O. F. hall at Baroda on Wednesday evening. Charles Ellis of this city was elected second vice president. Other officers named were: president, Mrs. Edna E. Schwark, Three Oaks, first vice president, Harry Pierce of Niles, and treasurer, Samuel Woollett of Glendora.

The Buchanan high school grid-ders turned back the Watervliet eleven in a fast game at the Athletic park Saturday, by a score of 12 to 0. The Bucks out-numbered their opponents in first downs, getting 7 first downs to their 4. There were quite a number of penalties against both of the teams, and the punts of the Watervliet team were exceedingly poor. Line play was ragged on the Buchanan team and unless this situation improves before next Saturday, the grid-ders may suffer their first setback from South Haven.

Buchanan made their first touchdown when Topash on an end run carried the ball from the 40 yard line up to the 1 yard line, and Mangold circled the end for the touchdown. The placement was not good.

The Bucks made their second touchdown when a pass from Topash to Dreitzler was completed to the 1 yard line. Mangold failed to gain on a line plunge, and Deeder went off tackle for the touchdown. The placement was no good, making the score 12-0.

REASONS FOR JOINING THE BUCHANAN ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION
Canvassers for the Buchanan Athletic Association are soliciting memberships this week and it may be that there are still some in the community who are not entirely aware of what the shouting is all about.

Questions are being asked as to the difference between it and other organizations which have been started in the past. For the benefit of those who want information, the following reasons for membership are listed:

1. The Buchanan Athletic Association is being planned as carefully as possible to avoid the mistakes of previous organizations, and on the model of such successful organizations functioning elsewhere.

2. A first consideration has been the provision of responsible leadership and supervision by experienced men. To that end the following officers have been named: president, George Wynn; vice president, C. K. Detrick; secretary, Harold Boyce; treasurer, Frederic Smith; directors, W. M. Brodick, C. J. Wilson, M. L. Hanlin, Harry Boyce, Dr. Harold Fredrickson. All the directors have accepted their election with the exception of Mr. Hanlin, who is out of the state.

3. It is the intent of the organizers to strive to unify the athletic resources of the community and put them on a business basis, so that they will support themselves rather than depend on donations and subscriptions.

4. It is true that a dollar membership fee is being asked but the organizers believe that this is not so much a donation as an investment in the recreational resources of the community, and that by the provision of volleyball and gymnasium classes in the winter and tennis and horseshoe tournaments for the older men in the summer every member will have a chance to get his dollar's worth.

5. The association plans to sponsor independent football, a city basketball league, summer softball and hardball, volleyball, and perhaps tennis, and horseshoes. An investigation of the feasibility of opening the bowling alleys in the Rough Wagon Works building will be made. In case that supervision of any particular line of sport is found to be impracticable, it may be dropped. The board of directors was elected to have discretion in such matters.

6. It is believed that the Association, if properly developed, will conduce to better teams representing Buchanan, more athletics for everyone, self-sustaining athletics instead of subscription athletics and a development of the recreational resources of the community that should aid in finding entertainment at home.

CITY CHURCHES
HOLD FAREWELL
FOR REV. STAVER

350 Attend Goodbye Reception for Popular Pastor at Church of Christ on Tuesday Night.

There were 350 people, representing the various churches of the city who attended a reception given by the churches for Rev. Harry W. Staver, who is soon leaving Buchanan to take up his work at Marshall. This reception was held at the Church of Christ on Third Street at 7:30, on Tuesday evening with Paul Carpenter, minister of the Church of Christ, presiding.

The program was as follows: Welcome by Paul Carpenter. Group of three songs by the high school glee club under the direction of Mr. Robinson.

Frank Merson brought words of greeting from the city.

Two vocal solos by Arthur Johnston of the Methodist church: "On the Road to Mandalay," "Smile Through."

Arthur Knoblauch spoke in behalf of the city schools in appreciation of the work of Rev. Staver.

Piano solo by Miss Marian Van Every of the Evangelical church. Rev. Thomas Rice of the Methodist church, brought words of greeting and appreciation of Rev. Staver.

Special number by the robbed choir of the Presbyterian church under the leadership of Mrs. E. C. Pascoe, with Mr. Strayer as the soloist.

Rev. W. F. Boettcher of the Evangelical church then spoke.

The Montgomery sisters, assisted by a violin obligato and accompanied by Mr. Robinson sang, "A Perfect Day."

Paul Carpenter then spoke in behalf of the Church of Christ.

Response by Rev. Staver. Closing prayer and adjournment to the basement.

At the close of the program itself, all adjourned to the basement where tables were spread and sandwiches, doughnuts, and coffee were served. Each family brought sufficient sandwiches for themselves and coffee and cream was furnished by the Ladies Aid Society of the Church of Christ.

The church was decorated with a host of flowers. The basement was decorated with red and white crepe paper. On each table was a vase of flowers which added cheer to the already pleasant meeting.

This meeting was called in honor of Rev. Staver, the minister of the Presbyterian church. The churches of the city thought it fitting to show our appreciation for the fruitful ministry that Rev. Staver has had for the past eight and one half years of service here in Buchanan. As he leaves our midst, although we regret to see him and his family go, we all wish him God speed on his onward and upward climb in the wonderful service of the Christ to whom he has given his heart and life. Our prayers follow him and may the richest blessings of our Heavenly Father and the guidance of the Holy Spirit be his ever-present help and counsel.

Tut! Tut! John—
After All Maybe
Demos are Human

Editor Record,
I wonder what portion of the Record readers are aware of the fact that it is unlawful for any one to sing or play the tune, "Yankee Doodle," in the state of North Carolina, under severe penalty. Such a law was passed by the legislature in 1861.

Or how many know that no part of the South celebrate the Fourth of July, but instead march to the drum corps on Christmas day? These two acts are the methods the Democrats take of expressing their contempt for this country. So far as I know there is no code law for the latter act but it is universal practice without any code.

TWO HURT WHEN
CARS COLLIDE
ON NILES ROAD

Max Smith and Mrs. J. J. Hickey incur Painful Injuries in Accident on Saturday Night.

All those injured in the collision between the cars of J. J. Hickey and Max Smith are reported to be recovering satisfactorily and out of the hospital, with the release of Mrs. J. J. Hickey from Pawating hospital Tuesday.

The accident occurred about 9:30 p. m. Saturday evening a half mile east of the country club. J. J. Hickey was returning from Niles in company with his wife and daughter, Mary. The visibility was poor on account of rain. He found himself suddenly confronted by a loose horse walking on his side of the pavement. He swerved to the left to avoid the horse, and crashed head-on into the car driven by Max Smith, who had Marshall Dreitzler with him. The Smith coupe was overturned and Smith incurred a blow on the head which rendered him unconscious for about an hour. He incurred a gash on the side of the head, and contusion in one eye which caused a hemorrhage of the optic nerve, temporarily obscuring vision. Dreitzler was not hurt to speak of.

Mrs. J. J. Hickey was thrown forward, striking her chin against something which loosened all the lower teeth and bruised and cut her chin badly. She also incurred a gash on one knee and an injured hand. Mary Hickey was unhurt. Worse injuries were avoided by the fact that neither car was going fast.

Miss Reba Alene
Simpson is First
Baby in October

The Lucky Baby to be the first born in Buchanan in the month of October is little Miss Reba Alene Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris Simpson, born at 2:10 a. m. Monday, Oct. 1. It was just one of those whims of fate that Miss Simpson happened to win all the prizes offered by the Buchanan merchants, for if it had not been that the clocks of the city were turned back the previous night the honors would have gone to the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Rozelle Wallace, who arrived in this vale of smiles and tears at 11:10 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 30, just three hours ahead of Miss Simpson and just 50 minutes too soon to qualify. Miss Simpson will now proceed to collect from Buchanan merchants through her regular constituted agent, Charles Harris Simpson. Watch for the notices regarding the Lucky Baby for November.

AT THE THEATRE

Sparkling Musical, "Romance in the Rain" at Hollywood Theatre

One of the most typical, romantic and tuneful comedies of the year is coming to the Hollywood next Sunday for three days when "Romance in the Rain," begins its engagement. It's fast, breezy and colorful, providing more mirth than a circus sideshow. Universal has again brought forth an extravagant production, which will tickle the risibilities of any audience.

If you remember "Moonlight and Pretzels" you can be sure this one is even funnier and more lavish. It has the same authors and the same leading man.

Roger Pryor, who became a star in "Moonlight and Pretzels" is featured in this film, with Heather Angel, Victor Moore of the New York stage, Esther Ralston and Ruth Donnelly.

The story deals with a modern Cinderella who wins a contest and loses her heart to the man who gave her the opportunity but was blind to her charm. He goes as far as providing a Prince Charming for her and she rebels.

Never has there been such a delightful comedy, served with such beautiful girls, romantic romances and disappointed lovers.

And what's more! It's all clean fun and entertainment. And that's something!

The sweethearts of "Jimmy and

Lupe is ingratiatingly tempestuous and as peppery.

Mark the dates of Oct. 10th and 11th with a red star and keep them open. These are the dates on which Margaret Sullivan's first starring picture, "Little Man, What Now!" comes to the Hollywood, on Bargain Night next week Wednesday and Thursday.

Her tremendous success in "Only Yesterday," her very first motion picture, demanded that Miss Sullivan be starred, for Margaret Sullivan's fame has now become world-wide. In "Little Man, What Now!" which is a Frank Borzage production, Miss Sullivan is supported by Douglass Montgomery as the "little man" of the film.

Three regular members of the Buchanan Blues will play on the All Star team of the Community League which faces the All Star team of the Fruit Belt League at the House of David park, Oct. 14. Local players selected are Richter (catcher), Poplar (shortstop), and Starr (fielder). It is possible that Richard Montague, Boston Brave recruit, will accompany the Buchanan contingent. Further announcement will be printed next week.

Introducing Mrs. Willie Westinghouse

How to fix a stubborn door has been perplexing to Mrs. Whitman for the past few weeks. In futile attempts she made pleas to the boys in three of her history classes. So at length, she took it upon herself to find a way to close that door when she was on the inside.

During the 5th hour she secured a nail, found a piece of board, and began pounding the nail in an unobserved place on the woodwork in the doorway opposite the knob.

After she had hit and missed for a few minutes, she produced an inner tube rubber cut like a cap rubber. Next, she fastened the inner tube to the nail and then hooked it to the door knob. And, low and behold, the door was securely closed.

SLEEPING STARS

It seems that the football season has had an effect on the boys' sleeping habits. During the six-hour assembly Tuesday Mr. Miller, who was in charge, gazed around the room and noticed several persons that were in dreamland. The only person that survived the laughter and noise, however, was Marvin Mangold, who slept soundly on.

Editorial

What has happened to our assembly programs? This question is to be heard repeatedly, asked by the student body. And it's a fair question. What has happened to our assembly programs? Where have the pleasing entertainments that used to make assembly day a joy to be looked forward to, vanished? I can remember the time, and so can most of the upper classmen, when the students rushed down to the auditorium, eager to see what had been planned for them. This is not quite such a common sight now-a-days.

Perhaps you wonder just what reasons can be given for good assembly programs stopping. They seem to have stopped the year the gymnasium was adopted. Everyone said that the 25 minute home room period was too short a time to stage a good program. The other and more important reason is that there was no form of effective organization. Before that year the teachers had always been assigned one assembly program. That year they were assigned none. However, it is not as interesting to discuss what the cause were, as it is to discuss what can be done about it now.

Twenty-five minutes is ample time to put on a program. Everyone will agree to that now, so the only obstacle is organization. The teachers put on splendid programs. This practice did not allow others to have a chance. It would be much better if each home room were obliged to put on one assembly a year. This would guarantee a different group of people at every assembly and would give everyone in school a chance to take part.

Students, do you agree with this plan? Do you really want assembly programs? It can be done if only you, the students, co-operate. Are you willing?

LIBRARY

A few changes being made in the library this week are still in effect.

When these changes have been completed all fiction books will be in their own grade group. The same change will take place with the non-fiction books.

The librarians have on display non-fiction books which are as interesting as fiction. This group of books isn't on any particular list, therefore any student can choose from this list. These books are not to be used for book reports. They are merely to encourage reading.

For display next week the librarians will have a list of books entitled "The New Books."

A BEAUTY HINT

Yoo-hoo, girls, something new! Finger nail polish is just a back number now for 4th hour Home Ec class. Cunning little pictures administered with the fountain pen have taken the place of the deep red tints.

It's to be very smart this fall—draw on the top of each nail a face. Use a little economy, girls. Try it. (By the way, this isn't a Sanford Ink advertisement.)

BLOND GENIUS

Albert "Fly-Catcher" Webb, the only male member of the senior class officers, has begun the strenuous job of ridding Mrs. Whitman's room of flies (yes, house flies).

He sits perfectly still while the black pests buzz around him, innocently searching for a resting place. After the insect has landed, he hurriedly brings his hand, cup-shaped, on the creature.

Although his method enables him to catch but one fly at a time, he is confident of great success.

THE VELVET HAND

Small but not small enough to be overlooked, Melvin (Fagen) Campbell, a studious young chap, was seated in the library endeavoring to get his studies. He felt a feminine touch on his shoulder. To Melvin's surprise he was asked if his name was Melvin Campbell.

Melvin replied in a soft, tender voice, "Yes, Miss Boyer." The only answer that he received was, "Come out in the assembly, and clean the peanuts off your desk!"

Guess Who

One of the persons this week is a boy who was born in Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 28, 1916. As you'll notice he has just had a birthday. He plays football and is on the

This girl was born in South Bend, Ind., Oct. 28, 1918. She has brown eyes and blonde hair and is about 5 ft. 6 inches in height. She is quite an active member of her class, and she surely can pop popcorn. We won't neglect to say that she lives on S. Portage St., and on week-ends you would probably see her in a certain store in town.

Last week's Guess Who names: Albert Webb and Elouise Squares.

Ag Club Holds First Meeting
The Ag club held its first meeting of the year last Friday at 7 p. m. in the agricultural laboratory.

The new officers elected for the year are as follows:
President, Claude Denno.
Vice president, Gilbert Collings.
Secretary, Arthur Trapp.
After the meeting adjourned, refreshments were served.

Velmorian Literary Society
(By Bob Strayer)

The first annual meeting of the Velmorian Literary Society was held Friday, Sept. 28, 1934, in the English room.

The officers of the year elected at this meeting were: President, Clarence Bradley; vice president, Margaret George, secretary-treasurer, Bob Strayer; literary critic, Albert Webb. The voting was close and many ties occurred.

A program committee was elected comprising Fred Riley, chairman; Pauline Topash and Geneva Troutfetter. They will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 2.

A motion was carried to sponsor a creative writing contest. Plans were also made to award a trophy for the most outstanding literary work and to produce three one-act plays written by and acted by the seniors.

The rules regarding the trophy will be made at a later meeting.

THE SOCIAL WHIRL

(By Sally Scoop)

Here I am! Sally Scoop in person! But before I really start in on what I have to report, I'd better make some explanatory remarks.

You see, I'm writing a social column. I'm the one that's supposed to find out all about your social activities such as parties, trips, etc., and jot them down for the "Mic." Let me know, won't you, if you like the idea? If you do you'll sort of help me along by letting me know of all the parties you have and other interesting social things you do.

So much for explanation. Now I'll tell you about the delightful "going away" party Miss Vivian McGoff gave in honor of Miss Joyce Bonner. Joyce, you know, is attending Knox this year, and probably by the time you read this will have already left.

The hostess wore a charming silk crepe dress, bottle green in color, while the guest of honor appeared her best in black and white silk crepe.

Dainty fancy sandwiches and ginger ale were served later in the evening. It appears that "Schmozz," a game started by the boys ran the day in a hard contest for popularity. As to an explanation of just what "Schmozz" is, you'll have to ask Bob Strayer or Ted Lyons.

Miss Shirley Rolan has been all thrills the last week. The reason is that she has visited in Chicago and while there attended the Tri-union ball room and danced to the heavenly music of Jan Garber and his orchestra.

Well, cheerio for now, but remember, don't forget to send your social items in. Just tell them to Miss Hanlin or write them on a piece of paper, if you wish, and hand them in that way. She will see that I get them.

ALONG THE CORRIDORS

(By Izzat So)

Has anyone noticed how happy Mr. Moore (P. J.) has been this last week? It is just because Detroit won the American league pennant.

Jean Russell's brothers have been playing postman with Ray Juhl and Jean.

Students are requested to bring a crutch to school. The strongest will be presented to Deeds.

There was a lot of graft implied in the senior elections this year. The trouble was that the boys were outnumbered two to one by girls.

If anyone noticed that some of the boys weren't as dry as possible it was because they had to swim to their lockers Wednesday morning.

If you notice any of the girls with bruised faces, arms, and legs, don't be shocked. They are just trying to learn how to ride their bicycles in spare moments. What these women won't do!

It seems that Harold Jackson can't study very well in 6th hour study hall. I wonder if Evelyn Dolph has anything to do with it.

It looks as though Fred Riley is getting thinner since he's been cooking his own meals—don't tell us it's as bad as all that, Fred.

Ruth Strunk has finally discarded her 1934 Chevrolet. She has taken up bicycling.

WILSON PLAYS SOCCER

(By Una Kelley)

Before Mrs. Whitman's fifth hour senior history class took up last week, a girl rushed into her room and asked her to announce to the seniors present that Mrs. Dunbar had a sale for two Literature and Life books. This Mrs. Whitman duly did.

The girl then proceeded to leave the room, but as she started to go through the door she bumped smack—into Wilson Crittenden!

We Will Return

The flowers return another year;
The leaves will come again;
The grain will bear its ripened fruit
When comes the summer rain.
The day will come when night is gone,
Then night shall follow day;
The sun will shine tomorrow
To light this earthly day.
Though birds go South, they come again,
And ships return from sea;
Though winds arise, the calm hours come;
The bonded soon are free.
Today we're here—tomorrow there—
On wings of death we're gone,
But we'll return as do all things;
Though eternity be long.
