Fremont's Cane
Ed. Note: Since Atty. Fremont Evans has been presented with the walking cane carried by Grover Cleveland through two successful political campaigns, a hillbilly trio comprised of Jack Baily, Fred Cook and Rev. Williams of Benton Harbor has been organized to sing the following song in the interests of his campaign for the office of circuit judge.

Hand me daouwn-n-n-n mah walkin' cane
Hand me daouwn-n-n-n mah walkin' cane
Hand me daouwn mah walkin' cane for if I catch that judgeship train
All your sins are gonna be pardoned away.

If you get drun-n-n-nk and get in jail,
If you get drun-n-n-nk and get in jail,
If you get drun and get in jail, I'll get some one to go your bail.
All your sins are gonna be pardoned away.

If you get ma-a-a-a and beat your wife,
If you get ma-a-a-a and beat your wife,
If you get mad and beat your wife, I won't give you more than life
For all of your sins are gonna be pardoned away.

Hand me daouwn-n-n-n mah walkin' cane
Oh, hand me daouwn-n-n-n mah walkin' cane
Hand me down that cane from Maine—I'm gonna catch that judgeship train
All of your sins are gonna be pardoned away.

Auto Figures Show

Interesting Trends

The year 1934 saw more than a million passenger automobiles on the highways, again, according to complete tables just compiled by the Secretary of State's office on automobile registration figures. In 1933, total passenger car registration had dropped below the million mark for the first time since 1927, when there were 999,915 cars licensed. The total for 1934 was 1,027,064; for 1933, only 958,784 were licensed. The year 1929 still marks the high tide in passenger car registrations, with 1,220,848.

There were approximately 2,000 more trucks on the highways in 1934 than for the year previous; trailers jumped to the highest number in the state's history with a better than 13.0% increase over 1933's previous record of some 79,000. Few people stop to realize that as recently as 15 years ago,

INDEPENDENT SPORTS PLACED ON PAYING BASIS

Club Has Over $100 on Hand After Paying Back Oriole Bills and Financing Football and Basketball.

Evidence that the experiment of community sponsored athletics has been successful for the first half year at least is contained in a financial report by the treasurer of the organization, Fred Smith, showing a balance of $100.45 on the black side of the ledger, after the association had discharged the debt of the defunct Oriole club of $43.15 for football equipment.

Had it not been for the organization of the association there would have been no independent football last fall.

Buchanan amateur athletics would have been discredited by failure to pay its obligations to a sporting goods house. There would have been no winter basketball league.

It is anticipated that the finances will be built up during the coming summer by softball, which is the best drawing card in independent athletics.

The officials in active charge of the association, including President George Wynn, Secretary Harold Boyce and Treasurer Fred Smith, deserve the thanks of all those who are interested in the promotion of clean athletics for the young men of the community.

PLAYBOX PLAYERS TO GIVE STEPPING SISTERS MARCH 9

Hilarious Humor Keynote of Third Little Theatre Production of This Season.

Buchanan will be honored Saturday evening by three of the best little stepping troupes that Broadway has seen in many a day. The Playbox Players will introduce them to the local audience in the play "Stepping Sisters", their third production of the season.

The play "Stepping Sisters" is one of the funniest plays to be given in this community so far this year. The plot hinges on the endeavor of a former burlesque queen to cover up a perfectly innocent past. Through her endeavors she nearly loses her husband, is ostracized by the social set, almost causes a break between her daughter and her fiancé and very nearly breaks up a life long friendship with her closest friends. However it all works out to a novel ending and everyone is happy.

The Playbox Players feel that this play is a sure gloom chaser and this community is due for some whole-hearted chuckles Saturday evening.

Robert Montgomery is in charge of the staging of the play and Mrs. Glenn Jesse has charge of the ticket sales. Seats can be reserved at Glenn Smith's Store. All desiring good seats for the performance are urged to reserve them immediately. Tickets may also be purchased at the Portz Food Shop.

The cast for the play is as follows:

Jepson — Norman Barbour
Herbert Ramsey — Robert Ellis
Cecelia Ramsey — Alene Riley
Norma Ramsey — Kathryn Portz
Jack Carleton — Ray Barbour
Lady Lynde — Dot Roe
Rose LaMarr — Mayme Proseus
Nettie Donaldson — Ruth Pierce
Teddy Donaldson — Robert Geyer
Frank Chambers — Robert Bowers
Mrs. F. Chambers — Frances Barbour
Lucille Dawson — Esther Bradley
Mrs. Tremaine — Marjorie Campbell

Between acts Miss Phyllis DeNardo will present a dance solo. She will be accompanied by Miss Frances DiGiacomo.

The High School ensemble, under the direction of Ralph Robinson, will furnish the music.

Rev. Gilbert Cox, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of South Bend, was the speaker at the annual Fathers and Sons banquet at the Methodist church Monday evening, taking as the theme of his address "Pioneers of the Future". Rev. Cox is a noted student of social conditions, and has been selected as one of a board of three to adjudicate labor troubles at the Oliver plant. His address dealt with the problem of pioneering in social fields.

Dr. E. T. Waldo acted as chairman with the able assistance of his son, who came to the rescue with a few well chosen words at a crucial moment. James Semple spoke for the fathers, and was very competently answered by his son, George Semple. Rev. Thomas Rice introduced the speaker. Walton Becker gave a number of entertaining selections. Con Kelley led the community singing.

BIRD FAMILY GOES OUT OF TRANSFER BUSINESS AFTER 70 YEARS OF CONTINUOUS SERVICE WITH BUS, DRAY

George Bird Started Carrying Mail in 1861; Ed. Bird Carried on From 1893 Until 1933.

Buchanan's oldest business firm with a record of 74 years of consecutive service came to an end last week with the sale of the Bird transfer business to Alfred Deeds.

Mrs. E. I. Bird has managed the business since the death of her husband July 18, 1933. E. I. Bird had carried it on since the death of his father, George Bird, in 1893. The latter had started the business in 1861.

Costs $7,800 to Keep County Roads Open During Winter

The Berrien County road commission made use of 18 snowplow trucks, employed 8,152 man hours of labor and spent almost $7,800 in keeping the highways of the county open during the past winter, according to a recent statement by John Bateman, county engineer-manager.

The work started the week of Nov. 2, 1934, with the putting up of fences to prevent snow from drifting and collecting upon those parts of the road system exposed to open stretches of surrounding country.

The greatest expenses in winter road maintenance was the operation of the trucks and scrapers used to push snow from the highways. This cost $4,298.13.

Labor was the second greatest expense. Total costs for this season are $3,295.42, divided as follows: placing snow fence, $627.35; plowing snow, $1,413.22; sanding roads, $1,204.72.

Materials were the cheapest of all expenses. Calcium chloride cost $187.18 and sand $15.10, making a total of $202.28. The calcium chloride is used to melt ice and snow. It is also used in the summertime on dirt roads to settle the dust by absorbing moisture from the air.

Mr. Bateman and the road commission had 18 snowplow trucks stationed in the following ten communities: Benton Harbor, 3; Coloma, 1; Spinks Corners, 2; Eau Claire, 2; Niles, 2; Derby, 1; Baroda, 2; Gallien, 1; Three Oaks, 2; Buchanan, 2.

The road commission now has under its jurisdiction 932 miles of county and township roads in Berrien. Five hundred and two miles of this total belongs to the original county road system and 430 miles were once part of the township system, now being taken over by the county.

The McMillan act, passed by the Michigan legislature in 1931, provides that the counties shall assume maintenance and control of township road systems at the rate of 20 per cent of the mileage annually. The road commission now operates 60 per cent of the former township system in Berrien county, and will have assumed complete charge by Jan. 1, 1937.

Scouts to Silver Jubilee Contest During Next Year

Instructions were released today to all troops covering the "Silver Jubilee Roundup". The contest which is being sponsored by the President of the Council is the most elaborate project ever attempted by the Movement. The booklet which each troop is receiving carries a complete program covering every phase of a well-balanced troop program. Troops are required to set objectives for the year in membership, advancement, hiking, camping, civic work, parents nights, council picnics and special trips.

All troops are required to set up the troop budget system, and the training work which is necessary for successful troop operation, is also required.

In working out the plan the Troop committee plays an important part. They assist in the organization of the eighteen sections and co-operate with the Scoutmasters in putting the plans in operation and seeing that they are carried through to a successful conclusion. The Courts of Review which are established, will be conducted by the troop committees in troops that rate "standard", those which do not rate standard must appear before the District Courts of Review. All Star, Life and Eagle Scouts will appear before the Courts of Review in the Districts and the Eagle Scout candidates will have their final review before the Area Court of Honor chairman, Dr. Howard A. Blanning, Benton Harbor. A special list of merit badge counselors is now being made up in all districts to assist in this part of the work. The Executive Board feels that Advancement is one of the main features of the work and feels that a thorough check up on the work as well as the contact with the experts in the many phases of Scout work which the Scouts will get will be of great value to them.

Troops will also be required to do some outstanding service either for the institution sponsoring them or for the community in which they operate. Parents nights with programs of different phases of Scouting will also be main features throughout the year. Special emphasis will also be made in the "good appearance". Two very special troop inspections will be held during the year by the Troop Committees. Correct wearing of uniform and insignia is one of the most important features and stress is being laid on this because of the 25th Anniversary of Scouting and the National Jamboree.

Mr. Upton is listing some very fine awards for the contest which will include a beautiful leather scroll as first place, special individual awards to the outstanding Scout of each troop, and many beautiful streamers for the different standards reached. The contest operated during the entire year and closes January 31st, just before the Anniversary week celebration, the first of next February.

Large Plantings of Redbud Trees and of Other Native Trees and Shrubs Planned.

The cooperative landscaping on the Redbud trail, sponsored by the Buchanan Lions club, will be carried out on Monday, April 15, at which time Prof. O. A. Gregg, landscape specialist from Michigan State College, will be here to direct the work.

Professor Gregg was in Buchanan Friday and went over the Redbud Trail, to get an idea of the work required, and will later forward a list of the materials required. The plantings will be almost entirely of native growth. The work will in part be the elimination of brush and trees which obstruct the view at intervals. While the main planting will consist of redbuds, dogwoods, sumacs and other native trees and shrubs will also be used.

Prof. Gregg stated that the project would require five years before the full results of the work would be in evidence, but that it represented an ideal project not only for the development of a scenic attraction that would be of value to the town, but also a recreational resort for many, and eventually a substantial stimulant to real estate values adjacent to the trail.

The project is now in the hands of the state for endorsement as an FLRA project.

AT THE THEATRE

Gary Cooper Heads Cast of Film, "Lives of a Bengal Lancer"

The soldiers of the king, not as Kipling sang of them, but as Francis Feats-Brown described in his remarkable book "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer"—are the heroes of the stirring, remarkable and colorful picture of warfare and heroism in India which comes to the Hollywood Theatre beginning next Sunday matinee for a three day run. Produced by Paramount, "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer" features Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell and Sir Guy Standing in the leading roles.

It is a picture replete with the grand and sights of the mysterious East, as authentic as the Himalayas themselves and equally thrilling. And, although it has more to offer in the pictorial sense than any recent Hollywood offering, "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer" is particularly remarkable for its fine dramatic story of four great soldiers.

Cooper and Tone contribute the outstanding portrayals of courage and romantic campaigners. And the entire cast, including Monte Blue, C. Aubrey Smith, Kathleen Burke and Akim Tamiroff in the supporting roles, render sterling performances.

"Lives of a Bengal Lancer" is a film to see and hear! It should not be missed by anyone who loves the romantic and adventurous in film fare.

Little four-year-old Jimmy Fay literally dances and sings his way into the hearts of his audience in "Million Dollar Baby," the new Friday-Saturday feature now offering at the Hollywood. For Jimmy, playing the title role in the guise of a blond girl, another Shirley Temple who crashes Hollywood and hits, will carry you away, especially while singing "I'm on a Diet of Love and Kisses." Jimmy's parents in the film are Ray Walker and Arline Judge, with George E. Stone and Jennette Lon in supporting parts.

A dashing, spicy, actionful romantic comedy of love and politics—that's Jack Holt's newest, "I'll Fix It," coming to the Hollywood as feature two Friday and Saturday. Holt strides leisurely through the web of political intrigues with a smiling assurance of power, but meets his first real obstacle when a winsome young school teacher refuses to be bribed into altering Holt's kid brother's algebra marks. Mona Barrie is the school-marm, and Jimmie Butler plays the kid brother. Winnie Lightner and Edward Brophy are in the more rollicking parts. The final chapter of Buck Jones in "The Red Rider" plus a Betty Boop cartoon completes the program.

Another double-barrelled double feature bill comes to the Hollywood next Wednesday and Thursday with number one a mystery melodrama as tight in construction, as vivid and tense as any that the screen has offered in months, "Gambling," which has as its principal star the one and only Broadway stage and radio favorite, Geo. M. Cohan. Dorothy Burgess and Wynne Gibson play the feature feminine roles opposite Cohan.

"Wednesday's Child" is the second feature—a modern domestic drama that leaves one thrilled and a bit awed. It brings a lump in your throat, but no bitterness or feeling of depression. It is the story of little Bobby Phillips and the sorrow that comes to him when his parents separate and each turns to a new love and environment in which Bobby is relegated to second place. Frankie Thomas, a youngster worth watching, plays the part of the boy, with Edward Arnold and Karen Morley in the parental parts.

two billions per month in buying the necessities of life, paying rent, taxes, interest and even back subscriptions to newspapers, would do this job.

The billions in hiding would venture out. If these transactions figures are correct, this plan is sane and practical, and has at least as fair a chance of success as most of the experiments we have seen tried during the last two years.

Plan Production 160,000 Ford Cars During Next Month

The largest domestic production of Ford V-8 cars and trucks since the V-8 engine was introduced by the Ford Motor Company three years ago has been scheduled for March. It is revealed at the company's home office. Production of 160,000 units is planned. Under the March schedule, the Ford company will build more than 5,000 units a day in order to keep pace with continued increasing demand for the 1935 Ford V-8 cars and trucks. March production this year will be more than twice as great as Ford's domestic production last March, when 77,947 units were built.

Since the new cars were announced late last December, Ford production has moved steadily upward. Production in January totaled 100,793 units, and February's production will approximate 130,000 units. With the March schedule set at 160,000 units, the Ford company by the end of March will have produced more than 400,000 1935 model cars and trucks in the United States alone.

Only Bird Hospital in U. S. The only bird hospital in the United States is at Portland, Ore. It is under the supervision of a woman who has administered to ailing birds from all parts of the country.

Combination Weapon Back in Sixteenth-century England, a maker of hand weapons produced a most unusual instrument of combat. It was a combination pistol, dagger and knuckle-duster, or brass knuckles. Apparently it was designed to be useful in any emergency. If the pistol misfired, the user could resort to the dagger. If the dagger broke, he still had the knuckle-duster.—Collier's Weekly.

and every line of business, thus making jobs for another million, at least. That makes 13 million. The Arizona legislature in sending its memorial to the congress states that in 26 states the cost of upkeep of poor houses with 775,000 inmates is $2,500,000,000 per year. All forms of relief work 36 billions. About 80 per cent of the people in poor houses are over 60 years, and could be removed to private homes, hire a private nurse and doctor. If necessary, thus providing for another million, to say nothing of those in hospitals. Thus there are at least 14 million provided for.

Fearing the spending of this two billions every month would give every person who wanted it a job, and start a business activity in the whole country which has never been seen before. All this could be accomplished in 90 days, not 20 years. Two billion turning over every month is of more benefit to the country than 100 billion frozen in banks.

The cost is the main objection to the plan, which proposes to tax all transactions made for cash. It is therefore, not sectional nor class taxation. Many do not understand the difference between a sales tax and a transaction tax. A sales tax means a single tax to the consumer, one sale, while a transaction tax is a tax on every sale made. For example, suppose a farmer sells a hide to a dealer for $1.50 and pays a tax say of 10 per cent or 15 cents. The dealer sells to a wholesale dealer for $2.00 and pays a tax of 20 cents. The wholesale dealer sells to a tanner for $2.50 and pays 25 cents tax. The tanner sells to a wholesale leather dealer for $3.50 and pays 35 cents tax. The wholesaler sells to a retail dealer for $4.00 and pays 40 cents tax. The retail dealer sells to a shoemaker for $5.00 and pays 50 cents tax. The shoemaker makes up the hide into 100 pairs of heels and sells them for 50 cents per pair and pays a tax of 5 cents per pair or $5.00.

In this case the transactions on the hide amount to $18.50, and the government would collect a tax of $3.50. When you state the turnover of the government is 40 billions per year, it evidently means the single sales.

The 55th statistical abstract of the government gives the total turnover transactions for the year 1933 the astounding sum of 12 hundred billion, and according to the Congressional Record, a congressman states that the total turn over in the U. S. for 1923 at 13 hundred billions. Basing calculations on 12 hundred billions to keep the Townsend plan in active operation for a year would only require less than a 1-2-3 per cent tax. This does not include a tax on salaries and wages, and millions in small transactions not counted.

Even 10 per cent would not be excessive. It is easier to pay $5 for a pair of shoes if you have got the five than to pay $4.00 for a pair of shoes if you haven't got the four, and that would be 25 per cent. There was no kick on prices

When you put into circulation two billions of new money each month, factories will have to have more help, as well as merchants

Iowa Writer Offers Defense of Townsend Plan

The following article is reprinted by request, having been published in the "Manchester Press" of Manchester, Iowa, in answer to criticisms of the Townsend Pension plan by the editor. It is written in defense of the Townsend plan and gives quite adequately the viewpoint of those who favor it.

In the issue of The Press of Dec 6th reference is made to the Townsend old age revolving pension. To a person who is not familiar with the plan your comments might be somewhat misleading. You state that "it is the brain child of a California nut." Possibly so. However, he has succeeded in interesting some twelve million people who have signed petitions to the U. S. congress requesting it to pass this bill, to say nothing of five states whose legislatures have sent a memorial to said congress requesting the same. Further, many of these millions are Iowa people, who are generally considered pretty level headed.

The coming congress probably will not pass the Townsend bill. If not, and it passes a bill for a small amount, this Townsend plan may become a very live issue at the next election. If so, the voters will probably like to hear of its merits, as well as defects.

Only three major nations are now without an old age pension law. They are China, India and the United States. It is a big proposition involving vast sums of money, but anything that will end this depression will cost vast sums. The government in the last two years has spent about nine billion dollars on the proposition and has hardly made a dent in it. It now proposes to spend 105 billions in the next 20 years. They evidently think the depression is to last 20 years.

As to the Townsend plan, there are 10,300,000 persons over 60 years of age. It is estimated that 2,250,000 have property of no business, so they would not apply for pension, leaving 8,000,000, who would at $200 each this would require say two billion dollars per month. The plan is charged up with two billion as to the credits, 1st eight million are provided for. It is estimated that at least two million of this eight million have jobs or a business. Under the plan they must quit all work, turn the job or business over to a younger person, thus making new jobs for two million men. That provides for ten million.

Each pensioner has from one to six relatives he could take off the charity list, if necessary, thus relieving the county or state of at least two million more, making twelve million that couldn't ask for charity.

ONLY 6% PAY HEAD TAX IN MICHIGAN

Berrien County Collects None of the Head Taxes, in Common with 27 Counties of State.

More than 2,750,000 Michigan taxpayers were liable to arrest under state law for failure to pay the $2 head tax required by the state law to finance the old age pension, according to Grover C. Dillman, Welfare Director, who stated that he had no intention of requesting county officials to enforce the law.

The number who failed to pay before the March 1 deadline was $7,755,100 out of the 2,999,409 in the state who were liable.

Meanwhile no less than nine bills are before the Michigan Legislature, now in session, to revise the old-age pension act, and most of them provide for elimination of the $2 fee.

One measure would finance the pensions from corporation tax revenues. Representative Hans C. Clines of Ludington, is author of another, which would finance the pensions by a $10,000,000 appropriation from the general fund.

None of the bills is entirely satisfactory to the Welfare department. Mr. Dillman said, although he agreed that the head-tax feature should be discarded.

The director said that old-age pensions funds would be exhausted by July 1, on the basis of the present rate of collections. The State now is granting pensions to fewer than 10 per cent of the applicants, and individual pensions are about one-third of the maximum monthly amount provided by the present law.

They are being paid only in counties where collections of the tax are made. In six counties payments exceeded collections up to Feb. 15.

Berrien county does not collect the tax and consequently no pensions are paid.

The pension act has become an expensive one to administer. Collections to Jan. 1 were $365,613, while $382,664 was paid out. Registration of the applicants cost $164,195, while $103,093 was paid as pensions. Under the item of personal service the State has paid $175,705.

This included fees to enumerators, salaries to investigators for county boards and expenses of the State office.

At the first of the year the State was paying $85,544 a month to the aged of 56 counties. Nothing was being paid in 27 counties.

A. A. A. Alters Requirements of Corn-Hog Contracts

Corn-hog contracts to be signed by Michigan farmers this year differ in several essential features from the contracts which were in use last year, according to the administrator for this state.

Last year, the corn contract asked that the farmer reduce his acreage 20 per cent below the base acreage grown by him. This year the reduction required is only 10 per cent. The benefit payments made to holders of corn contracts will be 35 cents per bushel on the estimated yield of the land taken out of production instead of the 30 cents per bushel which was paid in 1934.

Signers of Michigan hog contracts are asked to reduce the numbers of hogs grown for market 10 per cent instead of 25 per cent, as asked last year. The number of hogs does not have to be reduced this season if the 10 per cent reduction can be obtained in other ways. Payments for hog reductions are fifteen dollars per head instead of last year's five dollars.

Land owners who quit farming last year and collected benefit payments now will find themselves out of luck because they cannot obtain contracts. The benefits of the agricultural adjustment act are for bona fide farmers only.

Payments on hog contracts will be made in two installments this year. Previously, the hog benefit payments were made in three installments. No change has been made in the number of corn payments.

History History is that part of human experience which is no longer actual.

CAUCUS NOTICE A Republican caucus will be held at Wagner Grange hall, Sat. afternoon, March 9, 2:30 p. m. for the purpose of nominating Buchanan township officers and any other business that may come before the meeting.

Taking the Mystery out of Banking

No air of mystery hangs over the way we do business in this bank. While we admittedly do follow very strict rules in the handling of many transactions, there are good reasons for these rules, and our officers take especial pains to see that these reasons are explained and understood.

As a result, we find that our depositors and those who have occasion to borrow money, are ready and willing to work in friendly harmony with us. We say "yes" to borrowers as frequently as conditions permit. But, when we do have to say "No," we do not lose a friend.

There is no mystery in banking at this bank.

Mich. Gets First Return From Corp. Privilege Tax Law

The first financial return to the state, as the result of the recent upholding of the constitutionality of the state's corporation privilege tax law, by the United States supreme court, was received recently. It was a check for $7,526.50 from the Detroit International Bridge company for 1933 and 1934 corporation privilege fees. This is the firm which appealed the prior ruling of the state supreme court, contending that it was exempt from the law on the ground it was engaged in foreign commerce. The firm operates Ambassador bridge at Detroit. Many corporations owning property used in carrying on commerce, including bridge, tunnel and dock firms, would have been exempt had the high court not acted in the way it did.

In the fast moving stream of applications for 1935 car licenses, one for a 1912 White Steamer roadster, was noted. Its owner Frances N. Watkins, 591 Lakewood Avenue, Birmingham, reports the car as running well. The applicant received license F-1912, appropriately.

Grade Children

Present Program

at Art Exhibit

A few of the more famous paintings were reproduced in real life by children from the different grades Friday afternoon in the junior high assembly room. These little scenes were featured as an added attraction of the Art Exhibit which has been held here during the past week.

A little box-like stage provided with a curtain presented the different pictures, the curtain being pulled between changes of scene. Appropriate music fitting the mood of the picture portrayed was played during each scene. Also, a poem dealing with the subject of the picture was read by a child as the picture was presented.

The program was in charge of and directed by Mrs. Alma Fuller with the co-operation of the other teachers. The full program is as follows:

Ted Lyon A Handy Chemist
Did you know that Ted Lyon was a chemist? He is surely a handy one at that. Tuesday, while working in the laboratory, he picked up a bottle of sulphuric acid which flew from his hands so quickly he didn't know what had happened. Low and behold, there lay the bottle of acid on the floor. Ted dived to the floor and picked up the bottle as soon as possible, so as no one would see it, but Mr. Moore saw it and rushed to the rescue. He poured chemicals upon it, to prevent the acid from eating the floor.

It wasn't long until Ted was on the floor on his hands and knees, wiping the acid from the floor. While eager crowds looked on, Ted scrubbed with all his might.

Along the Corridors

My, my have you noticed some of the seniors taking crazy pictures for the annual? Some of them didn't turn out well and they blamed it on the camera. Poor camera.

Two of our high school students got permanents this week. Did you see Louise Howe's and Eva Kovich's? Pretty nice.

Then came the day when Harold Jackson and Evelyn Dolph were separated. It seems that they were talking too much in study hall when Mr. Miller decided to change their seats. He seated Evelyn up by Grey Best and Don Blaney. It looks like another move for Evelyn pretty soon.

The girls will never keep their girlish figures if they eat as much candy as they did when the sophs had their candy sale. The girls seemed to be the only ones buying the candy. What's the matter, boys? Saving your money for rainy weather?

Prosperity must be here at last. Have you seen all the new suits worn by the men teachers. They surely look nice, don't they? I mean the teachers, of course.

G. O. P.'S CLAIM HOUSE GAINS IN SPECIAL POLLS

Win Four Seats in Special
Elections to Fill Places of Victims of Hotel
Kerns Fire.

Republicans claim control of the state house of representatives as a result of special elections held on Monday to fill vacancies.

Four Republicans were named to fill house vacancies caused by deaths in the recent Kerns' hotel fire. When they are sworn in which will be as soon as the vote is certified, the count will be 51 Republicans, 49 Democrats. The roll call has been 49 Democrats and 47 Republicans. It takes 51 votes to enact measures.

To make the changes contemplated by the administration immediately effective a two-thirds majority or 67 votes will be needed. Floor leaders admitted this may be impossible. If blocked in that director, however, measures may be made operative 90 days after adjournment of the regular session by a bare majority. Possible delay, rather than prospective defeat, was the picture left by the election.

Surprised and Elated
Party leaders frankly were surprised and elated. Governor Fitzgerald declared the Republican victory should accelerate legislative action. Democrats had predicted they would win at least two of the seats—enough to continue their majority. Republicans had viewed with unconcealed alarm the Genesee and Midland districts, where preliminary reports had not been too favorable.

It was not considered likely the Republican group will attempt to unseat George A. Schroeder, Democratic speaker. Although the speaker appoints the committees, and administration leaders would not like to see any of their important bills die in committee, there was no indication of efforts to force the hand of either the speaker or the committees. Whether such action comes later may depend upon what progress is made.

The legislature reconvenes tonight after a week-end election recess.

A bill was prepared for introduction providing for an annual Michigan State college appropriation "measured" on a mill tax basis.

The proposal would give the college an appropriation equivalent to 3-10 of a mill on each dollar of the total state valuation. On the basis of the 1934 equalized valuation, the appropriation would amount to about $1,700,000 a year.

A similar measure is before the legislature for the University of Michigan. It provides an appropriation of 7.100 of a mill. Friends of the two measures say they are sought as a guaranty of "permanence" for the institutions' appropriations.

Governor Fitzgerald is opposed to the principle of the two bills.

Schools Show Increase in Property Tax Levy for 1934

A recent report of the State Tax Commission shows that the total amount of property tax levied for school districts for the current year is approximately the same as that of 1933-34.

The new levy is approximately $30,000,000 less than the amount assessed in 1930-31. A slight rise in the average tax rate for 1934-35 is offset by a decrease in valuations. The report further shows that many school districts include within their allocation under the 15-mill limitation levies for debt service which might have been levied in excess of the limitation.

The school property tax levy for the current year is $50,821,299.49 as compared with the total sum of $49,443,035 in 1933-34. Operation levies increased from $34,909,402.81 to $37,998,648.69.

While the debt service, levied above the 15 mill limitation, decreased from $14,553,632.30 in 1933 to $12,822,580.80 for the current year, the decrease is partially accounted for by the inclusion of debt service levies in many instances within the 15-mills allotted to the state, county, township and school districts. This inclusion of some debt service within the 15-mills makes possible a lowering of the total tax spread by the school district. The normal expenditures for debt service on outstanding obligations which total $160,000,000 requires approximately $16,000,000 a year for principal and interest, while only $12,822,580.80 is so recorded.

Early Orchard, Garden Loans Now Available To Michigan Farmers

Farmers who grow Michigan's apples, peaches, pears, cherries and grapes will this year find individual credit available through co-operative channels for the earliest financing of the season's operations. Growers have been handicapped in times past because adequate financing was not readily available, and even last year the new credit co-operatives were so recently organized that they were not ready to furnish needed credit early in the spring.

This year, however, there is a different story. Not only growers of fruits, but growers of vegetables who specialize in supplying the fresh market and in growing quantities for canning later in the year, have the opportunity to join one of Michigan's 15 Production Credit Associations and procure such early spring necessities as fertilizer and spray material.

The Production Credit Corporation of St. Paul which supervises these local organizations has taken cognizance of the large place that fruit and vegetable growing occupies in the agricultural set-up of Michigan and instructions have gone to all the locals in regard to making these loans. Hard and fast rules have not been laid down, but each grower will stand on his own merits in seeking admittance to one of the co-operatives and applying for his loan. The applicant's own experience in the particular kind of production he asks the loan for, the location of his place, availability to market, and prospects for his paying off the loan with the proceeds of the crop will be considered.

The interested farmers will apply to the Production Credit Association serving the area in which they live and have their orchards or truck gardens, and the loans when granted will be disbursed on a budget basis from time to time throughout the season. The grower pays interest (5 per cent) only on such sums as he uses and for the time used and makes final payment when the crop is marketed.

Cherries, peaches, pears, apples, grapes, potatoes, beans, cabbage, celery, cucumbers and onions are among the products on which loans may be obtained. Among the purposes for which loans may be made are preparing the ground for cultivation, spraying, pruning, harvesting, for containers and for marketing.

Increase Drunk Arrests Since Repeal

An increase of over 400% in arrests in Berrien county on drunk charges in the year since repeal is indicated in the report of Turnkey William Hedrick of the Berrien county jail.

The number arrested for drunkenness in February, 1935, was 23 as compared with eight in February, 1934.

During the past month 23 persons were arrested on drunk charges, seven on charges of drunk and disorderly, and one on a driving while drunk charge. The report also shows that 19 were booked for investigation, five for breaking and entering, five petty larceny and the remainder on various minor charges.

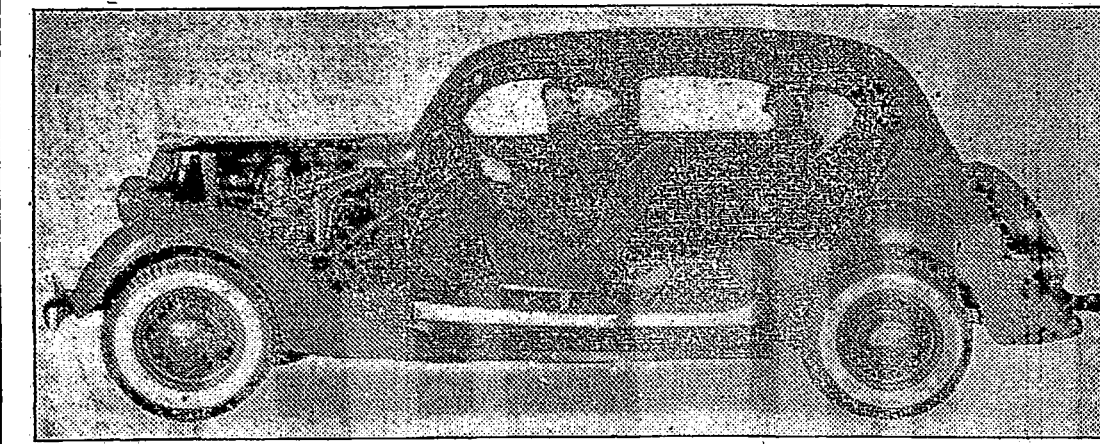

There were 77 prisoners arrested during the month and 86 discharges, leaving a balance of 21 in the county jail today. Of this number 16 are serving jail sentences, four are being held for examinations in justice court, and one for arraignment in circuit court.

Of the 77 arrested during the month, 33 were taken into custody by the sheriff's officers, 28 by Benton Harbor police, eight by St. Joseph police, three by state authorities and five by constables. Four prisoners were removed to state prisons and two to state hospitals during the past month.

Ford V-8 "Sawed in Two" to Show New Features

TO DEMONSTRATE how the new Ford V-8 for 1935 has been redesigned to bring greater riding comfort both to front and rear seat passengers, as well as greater seating capacity, this new Ford V-8 literally was "sawed in two" for display in Michigan and Northern Ohio automobile shows and in Ford dealer showrooms. Thousands of persons have seen the display while other thousands will view it in future showings throughout the Michigan and Northern Ohio territory of the Ford Motor Company.

Business Men of Gladstone, Mich. Sponsor Building

Buchanan and 304 other Michigan communities participating in Michigan Better Housing Month, a five weeks' campaign which started Tuesday, are given an inspiration by the action of a group of 55 residents of Gladstone, a city of 5,100 on the shore of Little Green Bay in Delta County, Upper Peninsula.

"We propose the Gladstone plan for rehabilitation of the nation, believing that the launching of this move will, if successful mean the re-introduction of prosperity. Let Gladstone take the lead!" concludes a full page ad in the Gladstone paper to which is affixed the names of the 55 sponsoring the movement, ranging from cashiers of both banks to the manager of the local theater and including the superintendent of schools, physicians and attorneys.

A specific agreement in the Gladstone document is as follows: "As an assurance of co-operation and as an incentive to others, the members of this committee have agreed among themselves forthwith to undertake certain improvements to their properties and to urge all their friends, associates and employees to do likewise and avail themselves of the loan privileges of the National Housing Act."

The proposal is the immediate initiation of a $50,000 construction program in the Gladstone area.

The day the pledge was published it was 25 degrees below zero in Gladstone and snow was 10 feet deep, while in Detroit and through the southern tier of Michigan counties the air was springlike.

The "committee of 55" also expressed the hope that "the community as a whole will rise to the challenge that is offered and that a campaign of Liberty Loan properties will be instituted to make the Federal Housing Administration's loan plan popular not only with those who need it in order to repair the ravages of deterioration and obsolescence but with those financially able to do the needed new and remodeling work without it."

Gladstone's hope of setting a nation-wide example is anything but a fleeting one. Raymond M. Foley, state director of the Federal Housing Administration said. He studied the plan carefully and then immediately advised national headquarters in Washington.

"The Gladstone pledge indicates what the hustling smaller community can do," he said. "I venture to say that if other communities took the same action and bucked it up relief rolls would practically disappear in Michigan within the next few months and that Michigan would enjoy a prosperity such as it has not known in years."

Ranges of Smoothbore Cannon
Maximum ranges of the smoothbore cannon of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries, weapons that had been made mobile by placing them on carriages employing wheels probably were not more than 4,000 yards, many shooting to distances far less than that, says the Chicago Tribune. So long as smoothbore cannon were used in land and naval warfare, maximum ranges increased very little. It was the development of the rifled cannon that boosted ranges in artillery fire.

ROUND ABOUT BUCHANAN

ON MR. GIVER'S CANDIDACY

Considerable furor has been aroused in the city this week over the launching of the candidacy of John S. Givers for city commissioner.

There is no question of the right of Mr. Givers to run for the office. He is 24 years old, and doubtless as free as it is possible for a married man to be in a depression. We would not care to question his fitness for the municipal governing body.

There is only one aspect of the matter that is really open to criticism, as far as we can determine and that is the openly admitted fact that the nomination is made in jest. A joke is a joke, but we question whether jokes ought to be printed on the ballots at the taxpayers' expense. If Mr. Givers runs, it will tend to add to the duties of the election board. He will get some votes and they will have to be counted. It will cost money to count them.

We have always admired Mr. Giver's singing ability. We have admired the pep and hustle which he puts into a number of jobs. He has been a law-abiding citizen of the town. In our opinion he is as good as anybody. However, we know a number of people who are "as good as anybody" whom we would not vote for for public office. It requires a certain type to be a good official. Although Poland elected Mr. Paderewski president, it is a general rule that people of the artistic type do not make the best administrators. Mr. Givers is of that type.

They add much to the pleasure of life and they deserve a high place—but not on city commissions. If you should ask the average singer or other public entertainer to run for office he would tell you, and quite rightly, that he had no time to monkey with it.

If we wanted a good song we would vote for John S. Givers. But if we wanted a good city commissioner we would vote for some steady, matter-of-fact, responsible citizen such as Frank Merson, with a good record of office behind him, even though he could not carry a tune in a wheelbarrow. We have always liked Mr. Merson as a public official, even though he turned down our application for the post of inspector of beer parlors. After all you can't expect a public official to show a perfect record of good judgment.

Over Breakfast Coffee

(By A. C. Clapp)
Sir Thomas Moore, English statesman in Henry VIII's reign wrote "Utopia," his description of an ideal, imaginary commonwealth which parallels amazingly the New Deal plan of President Roosevelt. In his time, too, production and distribution tangled up, small farms were appropriated and widened out into large sheep ranches and depression prevailed. All Sir Thomas could do about it, however, was to write his book which President Roosevelt will agree set forth some blame good ideas.

Utopia was presented as an island well isolated from the maddening world, and bore a crescent shape which produced one long land locked harbor to facilitate inter-costal commerce. The Utopians had dealings with other nations, but never entered into a league with them. Leagues with other nations they regarded as scraps of paper. Sounds familiar doesn't it. Other constitutional features included universal suffrage with elected sovereigns, schools open to all citizens, free public lectures, no slums allowed in cities and no poverty.

Perhaps Utopia was up in the air; perhaps it can never come down.

But his dream forestalls "later Socialists. By permitting no idlers and by vigilant maintenance of construction and repair the working day was reduced to six hours, and hours were to be further reduced when supply exceeded demand. Excess labor was put on the highways, but (listen to this), no unnecessary labor was permitted.

The Utopians believed in giving people time to improve their minds in which they thought the happiness of life consists. An annual exchange of residence took place between urban and rural people. Was a gay life always somewhere to go? He doesn't mention automobiles.

Well, Mr. Roosevelt and Brain trusters, there was no forgotten man—in "Utopia," by Sir Thomas Moore.

Question: Should we or should we not pass notes? Why?

Senior: Sure, we should be able to pass notes. It isn't doing any harm. If we didn't do anything but study in school, we'd soon dry up and blow away. What's more if we didn't do something besides studying, we would be teaching the teachers.

Junior: I think we should be allowed to pass notes in school if it is done between classes. They take comparatively little time away from school work and help to give a little life to a dull school day. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, you know.

Junior: I think we should be able to pass notes. They most certainly do break the monotony and we need something. They help a lot to keep some type of students out of other mischief. It has gone a long way in making new friends.

Seyfred to Fight Theft Charge

Will Seyfred, 42, prominent Galien farmer was arrested Feb. 13, by Deputy Sheriff Kubath on complaint of John Batten for whom Seyfred has hauled milk to the Galien Condensing plant for several years. There were three charges, as follows: That on Feb. 14th Seyfred stole 16 lbs milk, on Feb. 15th, 17 lbs. milk and on Feb. 16th, 19 lbs. milk. Seyfred was held in the county jail over night and arraigned before Justice Joseph R. Collier, where he admitted pouring milk out of Batten's can that was spilling over into another of Batten's cans which was only partially filled. He stated that Batten had repeatedly been filling one or two cans so full that it spilled out and leaving his other cans partially filled. Whereupon Seyfred asked him not to fill the can so full that it slopped over the truck, other cans and the canvas, and Batten told him to pour it over, which he claims was merely a trap he was trying to set for Seyfred. Seyfred appealed to the Circuit Court and has secured Attorney Stuart E. White as counsel.

Seyfred is well known and respected in this community. He is serving his seventh year as treasurer and finance officer of the Galien American Legion Post; he is a member of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges of that village.

Mildred, Betty, William and Ruby Hall were not at school the first of the week because of the death of their aunt, Mrs. Poeschel.

Junior Snider is absent because of measles.

Dorothy Richter and Jane Rotzien had the best drawing for Washington's birthday. Ruby Hall and Bruce Snider had the best scene of the Washington monument seen thru the cherry trees. Myra Lindgren had honorable mention.

The Science class is going to make wind indicators and a kite this month. They are making plans for ideal gardens, using their home garden as their dimensions.

Statues Endowed With Life
When a Buddhist statue is consecrated in China or Tibet, it is usually endowed with "life" by having a living creature such as a bird, spider, snake or frog sealed up in it.

Brilliantly Colored Fish
One brilliantly colored member of the Cichlid family is the jewel fish, which bears the long scientific name Hemichromis bimaculatus. It comes from that part of Africa around the upper reaches of the Nile and Congo rivers.

Former Buchananites Hold Golden Wedding

D. D. Pangborn received word in the past week of the observance of the Golden wedding of his cousin, E. J. Helmick and wife, Pomona, Calif. E. J. Helmick's name was originally Pangborn, but his parents died in his infancy and he was adopted by the late John Helmick, brother of Alice Helmick Clark. He lived until he was grown north of Buchanan in the neighborhood of Berrien Springs, going from here to the Dakotas, and about 13 years ago to California.

The following item was published in the Pomona Press Bulletin: In honor of the event, Mr. and Mrs. Helmick entertained with an open house from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 to 9 in the evening in the parlors of Trinity Methodist church. They invited all their friends, members of the church and others who cared to attend.

The couple come to Pomona 13 years ago last fall. They were married on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, 1885 in Jones, Mich. From Michigan they went to South Dakota, where they held a claim in Hand county, near Redfield, South Dakota, for some time. After leaving South Dakota, they made their home in Minnesota for about 50 years, living in Worthington and then in Fulda. Later the couple moved to Iowa and established a home at LaMar, where they lived until coming to Pomona.

They have one son, Lloyd P. Helmick of Claremont, and two granddaughters, Beth and Jean Helmick. Both Mr. and Mrs. Helmick are interested in church activities. Mrs. Helmick is a member of the Eastern Star Social club.

Car Owners May Make Deductions From Income Taxes

Income tax deductions as affecting Michigan automobile owners have been outlined in a brief summary by John C. Burkhardt, president of the Automobile club of Michigan.

When making out 1934 income tax returns, Michigan motorists are entitled to list certain deductions for sums paid out or losses sustained in connection with the ownership and operation of motor cars.

Deductions allowed in computing taxable incomes, according to the A. A. A. executive, are: All sums paid during the calendar year as registration fees, personal property taxes, and municipal taxes.

The state gasoline tax of three cents. (The Federal one-cent tax cannot be deducted.)

Interest on money borrowed for the purchase of an automobile. The amount of financing charges on automobiles purchased which covers the interest on the loan, when specifically set forth in the contract, but not the amount covering the premium on insurance to protect the finance company's interest.

All operating and maintenance expense, including depreciation, on automobiles used wholly for business, or a pro rata share of such expenses representing business use where a passenger car is used chiefly (more than 50%) for business. Depreciation usually is figured at 25% per annum. Cars used at proportionate rates of one-half for business and one-half for pleasure may deduct twelve and a half per cent.

Automobile insurance on automobiles used for business purposes. Uncompensated losses sustained by reason of damage to automobiles used for business or pleasure. Damage paid for injuries to persons or for destruction of property provided the automobile at the time of the accident was being used for business.

Loss sustained when a car used for business is sold out right at a price less than its depreciated value. (Loss sustained when an automobile used for business is traded in for a new car cannot be deducted, but such loss can be considered as part of the cost when computing depreciation for the ensuing year.)

No deduction can be made for the amount paid for an automobile used for either business or pleasure, this being a capital expenditure and subject to claim for depreciation where the automobile is used for business.

Where an employee receives an allowance or mileage from the employer for automobile operation, unless such allowance is declared as part of income, no claim can be made by the employee for deduction on account of operating expenses.

There are, however, important exceptions to the list of allowable deductions.

Allowable deductions do not include the Federal gasoline tax nor the Federal taxes on lubricating oil, tires, tubes, accessories, new cars and trucks. A Department of Internal Revenue ruling holds that these taxes are imposed by law upon the manufacturer or distributor and are not to be considered as taxes paid by the consumer. The state sales tax is not deductible.

Toy to Address

Niles B. & P. W.

at Dinner March 21

State Attorney General Toy will be the speaker at the annual Public Relations dinner to be given by the Niles Business and Professional Women's club at the Four Flags on the evening of March 21.

How Clams Propagate

Clams propagate by means of eggs which hatch into minute free-swimming larvae. After a short period of life in this stage the young clams become fixed and begin to grow a shell.

River Clyde Once Tricks

A century and a half ago, anyone might have waded the River Clyde at Glasgow, the depth being but two feet. Deepening of the Clyde first got under way in 1773 when engineers bit upon a scheme for narrowing the channel and making the stream dig its bottom deeper.

The North Carolina Route

The so-called North Carolina route runs west from Blowing Rock, N. C. south of Linville City, along the Blue Ridge, Mount Mitchell and Craggy ranges, which lie east of Asheville, thence into the Mount Pisgah range, heading northwest on a line along the range west of Waynesville, with an entrance into the park at a point where it will connect with the Newfound Gap highway near Cherokee, N. C.
