Our Weekly Fairy Tale
There was once a man who objected to spending money on any public improvement that would not pay for itself who was so consistent in his attitude that he refused to wash his neck and ears unless he got paid for it.

The Dirt Thrower
Wild reports about town Monday that a volcano had broken out and was in active eruption in the bed of McCoy's creek north of Front street were found to have their source in the dirt-heaving activities of C. K. Detrick, who was giving FERA men a demonstration of how he used to move dirt when he was an I. & M. grunt down at old Fort Wayne. Mr. Detrick moved a lot of dirt Monday afternoon, acquiring two blisters and skinning a knuckle on Mickey's cement wall. He was busy in the restaurant Tuesday.

Hold Advanced Aircraft Class Montague Garage

Plans for the establishment of the advanced Michigan Board of Aeronautics Ground School, including studies in navigation, meteorology, and aircraft engine work, at the Montague Motor Company of this city, were announced today by Richard Schram, Niles aviation ground school instructor.

The advanced class is composed of the graduates of the first course and members of the new course just starting. The members of the new course are to be divided into two groups, one group meeting with the advanced students on Wednesday evenings at seven o'clock, and the other group meeting Friday evenings at five, at the Montague garage.

A Curtiss aircraft engine of 90 h. p., which will be used for class work, is now on display in the Ford showroom. This engine, an OX-5 model, is an eight cylinder vee type, water-cooled, developing its full power at 1450 to 1550 revolutions per minute. It weighs almost four hundred pounds complete. The members of the advanced class will disassemble and completely overhaul the motor, and assemble it ready for use for C. "Duke" Muller, Niles Municipal Airport manager.

An interesting fact is that the 1935 Ford V-8 automobile engine, of the same general design as the aircraft engine, develops fully as much power, with only half the size and engine displacement, as the Curtiss motor.

The vee type engine, used extensively in military and commercial aircraft throughout the world, is one of the most efficient and powerful models built, and a study of this type of engine will familiarize students with the construction and operation of modern airplane motors.

The new classes will not conflict with the classes meeting Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights at the Niles High School. The course is still open to all interested in av-

H. C. MONROE SELLS THEATRE TO E. HOFFMAN

Duluth Man, Once Known as "Youngest Movie Owner in Michigan" Takes Charge.

E. C. Hoffman, veteran theatre manager of the opera or of moving picture theatres for the past 25 years in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, purchased the Hollywood theatre from H. C. Monroe April 17, announcement to that effect having been made yesterday.

Hoffman comes to Buchanan from Duluth, Minn., where he had operated a theatre. He has rented the Binns house on South Oak street and plans to bring his family consisting of a wife, a son and a daughter, here in about ten days.

In the days of the silent pictures Hoffman was known as the youngest theatre proprietor in Michigan, having owned his own theatre at the age of 19 and being in charge of a string of three theatres at the age of 22. He was the first to run a moving picture theatre in the copper country of the upper peninsula.

He states that he is coming to Buchanan for the milder climate of this section and for the advantages of proximity to Chicago, as well as for the business advantages of this location.

The theatre is now owned by the Hoffman Amusement Co. with E. C. Hoffman as manager. He plans extensive alterations and redecoration.

Monroe purchased the theatre two years ago and in the intervening time has furnished the community with an excellent and up-to-date minute film service which has been reflected in the success of the business. He has been very liberal in promoting any and every worthy cause which has solicited his aid. He leaves soon for Los Angeles, Calif., and states that his plans are indefinite. His many friends here wish him future success.

lation, and students may enroll at any time with Richard Schram, instructor.

WLS Minstrels I. O. O. F. Auspices, Proves Good Show

The WLS minstrels, presented Thursday and Friday evenings under the auspices of the local Odd Fellows, drew a fair house the first night and a good house the second, the show making an excellent impression. Failure of sound effects to function properly the first evening detracted from the impression made by the choruses, which had been very well drilled and were securing surprisingly good results in rehearsals. However, the second evening the radio sound technique proved more effective and the show made an excellent hit.

MAKE LANDSCAPE DEMONSTRATION ON MC COY'S CREEK

City Donates Use Trucks; Boyce & Schwartz Give Tufa Rock; Detrick Directs.

A demonstration of the possibilities of McCoy's creek as a scenic asset rather than a liability to the town is being made between the Haffner 5 and 10 and the Slater building.

A force of men has been engaged there one and one half days under the direction of C. K. Detrick, leveling off the banks, trimming the edges of the stream and setting the edge of the bank with tufa rock donated by Boyce & Schwartz from their Moccasin Bluff quarry for the special purpose. The city street department aided in the project by kindly permitting the use of a truck. It is likely that the project will be completed Friday. In the meantime a request has been made for shrubs of any kind suitable for banking and for a screen for the dumps which form a remote background. Anyone with such shrubs to give should notify C. K. Detrick at D's cafe.

Arthur L. Knoblauch, a member of the Buchanan high school faculty for the past six years, and principal for four years, announces this week his resignation, effective Aug. 1, and his acceptance of the superintendency of the Cassopolis schools.

Knoblauch has carved a niche for himself in Buchanan not only in the high character of his work in the school but as a community leader who will be missed. He came to Buchanan in 1929 as Smith-Hughes instructor in agriculture. He acted as coach of stock and crop judging teams and as coach of interscholastic debate teams, his products in both departments winning high honors in district and state competition. He is president of the local Lions club and was elected this spring to the presidency of the Berrien County Teachers Association.

The new position at Cassopolis will mean valuable experience for Knoblauch, and his many friends here wish him success.

Seniors Present 3-Cornered Moon Commencement Play

Just under what circumstances the moon may be three-cornered may not be generally known, but the Buchanan high school graduating class of 1935 will clear up the mystery on the evening of May 10, or at least its dramatic representations will do so.

A play of the stock market crash, funny but not farcial, "Three Cornered Moon" is only two years off Broadway, where it was a distinct hit. It will be presented by a cast of nine seniors in the high school auditorium on the evening of May 10.

HOLD INQUEST ON CHARLWOOD DEATH TODAY

Native Resident Killed In- stantly While Walking Along M-178 Saturday Night.

Charles E. Charlwood, 63, lifelong resident of Buchanan, was instantly killed when he was struck by a car driven by Howard Edwards, Niles, while he was walking south along M-178, just south of the Michigan Central Crossing.

Witnesses state that Charlwood was walking about three feet from the east side of the pavement when Edwards crossed the tracks from the north and "cut the corner" of the curve. Apparently Charlwood heard the car coming and turned around, for he was struck on the side of the chest, and was buried 60 feet across the pavement, striking against a mailbox on the opposite side of the highway.

Coroner Louis J. Korlikowski was summoned and set the time for inquest at 9 a. m. Monday. This was later postponed until 4 p. m. Thursday, at the Buchanan city hall.

CITY INSTALLS BACKSTOP ON TENNIS COURT

To Spread Fertilizer and Re- sow Grass Seed on Athletic Park Gridiron.

The city street and park department is installing the backstop at the tennis courts this week, using second hand pipe painted with aluminum paint, and wire netting which form a very substantial stop for the cannonball services of the future Bill Tidens and Helen Moody, who will be developing on the courts this summer. The courts were built late last summer by FERA labor, at a cost in excess of $1200 for labor and materials.

A power lawn mower is being used on the new gridiron turf, on which fertilizer and a second sowing of grass seed is to be applied. Clay is being hauled with the city truck on the softball field preparatory to the opening of play for the summer series on May 6.

PLAYBOX PLAYERS PLAN TO PRESENT 'BY CANDLELIGHT'

Cast of Seven Will Present Play from German at Clark Theatre on May 25th.

The Playbox Players will celebrate their second birthday as a Little Theatre group, May 25, with a presentation of the play, "By Candlelight," adapted from the German of Sierfried Geyer by P. G. Wodehouse. The play was first produced in America at the Empire theatre, New York, by Mr. Gilbert Miller with Gertrude Lawrence and Leslie Howard in leading roles. Later the play was produced in motion pictures starring Paul Lukas and Elissa Landi.

Heading the cast in the local production are Jack Boone, Kathryn Portz, and Robert Geyer. They are ably assisted by a very talented cast composed of Ruth Pierce, Fred Smith, Dorothy Holmes and Robert Bowers.

The play concerns an ambitious valet and an equally ambitious parlor maid, who carry on a flirtation under the disguise of a prince and a baroness each quite successfully deceiving the other. The arrival of the real prince and baroness on the scene brings them out of the disguise in a hurry.

"By Candlelight" is regarded as one of the smartest comedies of the recent Broadway successes. Critics say the following about it: "With and with a quality that can best be described as smartness."—Baltimore Post.

"The most adroit and smart comedy this town has had a chance of laughing at in many seasons."—New York Evening Post.

"A ripple of gay lines—you can count on a pleasant evening!"—Robert Benchley.

With the production of "By Candlelight" the Playbox Players will close their season. They announce, however, the instituting of a summer theatre group known as "The Vagabond Players." This group of players will be composed of members of The Playbox, college students home for summer vacation and recent high school graduates. The Vagabonds will be under the direction of Harry Banke, present director of The Playbox.

Melvin Campbell, Dale Lyon Chosen to Go to Washington

Tuesday evenings meeting of Troop 41 was one of vital interest to at least two members of the Troop.

Sometime in February, questionnaire ballots were filled out by each Scout and were placed, unread, into an envelope and sealed, to be opened only when the necessary funds were secured to finance the trip.

Tuesday at a special meeting of the troop staff the sealed ballots were examined and the scout delegates were chosen accordingly so that the boys themselves selected their representatives.

Melvin Campbell and Dale Lyon both have outstanding records in scout work to prove that their fellow scouts chose wisely.

April Flirts With Jack Frost During Past Week

The Buchanan community had escaped frost and consequent damage to fruit crops by a narrow margin yesterday, the mercury reading 34 above zero at 5 a. m. Wednesday and 36 above the previous morning. Frost at this time would result in damage to strawberry crops and to plums and pears.

U. of M. Band to Head Parade Bands 25 Schools and Cities to March May 11.

Miss Marybeth Kemp, statuette brunette from Battle Creek, was returned as the queen of the Blossom Fete of 1935 as the result of the elimination held last night at the Liberty theatre, Benton Harbor. Miss Betty Brady, Benton Harbor, was runner-up.

Miss Flossie Van Gorder of Watervliet and Miss Phyllis Winchell of Grand Rapids tied for third place for five ballots, when the latter was finally eliminated.

Miss Buchanan was eliminated on the third ballot. She presented a very charming appearance in peach colored taffeta, with shoes to match.

Miss Kemp flew from Battle Creek to Benton Harbor by plane yesterday. She is the second queen selected from Battle Creek.

Indications are that the floral parade that perennially features Michigan's Blossom festival, the midwest's greatest spectacle, will be bigger than ever this year, and it is believed that fully four miles of gorgeously decorated floats, representing a cost of a round million dollars, will be in the line of march when the parade proceeds from its starting point in St. Joseph, through the business sections of St. Joseph and Benton Harbor.

The Blossom Festival opens on Sunday, May 5, and continues for eight days, ending Sunday, May 12. The parade will take place Saturday afternoon, May 11.

Professional and amateur float makers from as far north as Traverse City and as far as Lansing are building elaborate equippages for this year's floral procession. Included, too, will be 25 bands from midwest colleges, high schools, cities and industrial plants, with the famous University of Michigan band leading the parade.

Included in the parade will be the regal queen of the festival and her court and a varied array of comics to give the parade a genuine mardi gras spirit. A section of the parade has been reserved for members of the two houses of the State Legislature who will be guests of honor of the festival committee for the occasion.

Next to the parade, in order of importance in the Blossom Festival program, is the crowning of the queen at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, May 8, by Frank D. Fitzgerald, governor of Michigan, in a beautifully impressive ceremony at Shadowland ballroom, St. Joseph. The queen's ball will follow the coronation.

For music lovers there is provided a monster music festival at the House of David park, Benton Harbor, Tuesday evening, May 7, with Miss Rose Hampton, brilliant young contralto of the Metropolitan Opera company, featured as soloist, together with a massed chorus of some 400 Berrien county singers, under the direction of Foster Krake, former choral director of the national music camp at Interlochen, and with instrumental music provided by the "Twin City" Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Charles E. Bacon.

Sport lovers will have their day Sunday, May 12, the closing day of the festival, when a large field of racers will compete in the Festival's outboard motorboat race in the St. Joseph river from South Bend, Ind., to St. Joseph, on Lake Michigan, a distance by river of almost 100 miles. Excellent vantage points are provided along the route at Niles, Buchanan, Berrien Springs and St. Joseph. The racers are provided obstacles in the race as they must portage their boats around dams at Niles, Buchanan and Berrien Springs.

Program
The complete program for the thirteenth annual Blossom Festival to be held in the twin cities of St. Joseph and Benton Harbor from May 5 to 12, inclusive, follows:
Sunday, May 5—Opening of Blossom week with drives over 150 miles of chartered routes through Berrien county's beautiful fruit belt. 7:30 p. m. Blossom Time musical symphony, Benton Harbor high school auditorium.

PORTAGE STREET SPEEDWAY

With a major highway accident that may be credited to traffic violation on the books in the past week, the question arises as to whether Buchanan is not ready for a real campaign for decent driving.

The curve on M-178 approaching the Michigan Central railway tracks from the south, is a promising location for major accidents. There have already been several. There will likely be more. For some reason Portage street and the curving road about the Chamberlain hills seems to be a favorite stretch for the boys to see how much the old cars will do.

One of the railway gatemen told the writer that two young men living south of town made a regular practice of racing there almost daily. Both drive new models of the same makes of cars. Regularly at the end of the day's work on the farm—the AAA days work is not very long—they wind up their buggies and start for the bright lights of Front street, whirling the time en route by speed tests.

Recently fresh zest has been lent to their appetites for speed by the sign painted in white on the pavement immediately north of the railway crossing, "Speed Limit 20 Miles Per Hour."

The sight of that sign acts like a tonic. If they have not been speeding before they suddenly lean to the right and jam the accelerator to the floor. They want to see if it's really so.

"Dad, I passed my last exam today!"

Across plains and mountain ranges, hurdling rivers and towns, a human voice speeds along a wire. And so incredibly swift is its flight that even while the words are still sounding in a far-distant room, the voice is flowing into a Michigan home, a welcome guest—and a familiar one.

From a miracle, long-distance communication by telephone has developed into an integral part of every-day American life.

It is the quickest way to relieve anxiety; it is an unequalled means of sending congratulations or condolences; it can reunite scattered members of a family; it can bring together friends who have been parted by the intervening miles.

There is no way of estimating the human value of this modern necessity; for there is no way of measuring the joy and reassurance and satisfaction which—by the mere lifting of a receiver—can be derived from the sound of a well-remembered voice.

It is a tribute to modern telephone service that such long-distance communication by word of mouth is no longer considered something at which to marvel. In a few short years the miracle has become a commonplace. It is now accepted as a matter of course even by those whose memories go back to a day in which long-distance conversation was utterly unknown.

One of the functions of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is to supply this modern necessity to the people of Michigan; and to supply it at the lowest rates that will adequately provide for the maintenance and improvement of the service.

Over Breakfast Coffee

(By A. C. Clapp)
Chicago—Between Gary and South Chicago the great Calumet industrial district spreads out like a smoky fan pierced here and there by big plants belching black smoke.

Still a long drive through dusky East Chicago, Whiting, South Chicago and then Chicago welcomes graciously through her South Shore Drive and Jackson Park. The parks are as usual well kept up and beautiful, leaves and buds a bit further advanced than here in Cass and Berrien counties.

Your correspondent visited one of his old discussion clubs yesterday and will attend tonight again. Economic, ethical, social questions come in for debate. Picking flaws in arguments and trying to set up better—its great fun.

Next I promptly forgot this dialectic and this morning took a drive through memory lanes in my old home town. Drove by the fine homes I lived in during a 30 year period. Lots of memories of pleasure and some of regret trooped by as I made the rounds thru a square mile or two. These old homes and their neighbors had all run down. This region of isolated homes had become one of flats; and this section of apartments had filled with cheap boarding houses.

Like most Chicagoans in the past, my neighbors moved mostly into superior quarters, many to the gold coast and the northern suburbs.

Well, well, the past does somehow remain and these old residences I looked at and closely examined when vacant, were all still home to this writer.

Kidneys Must Clean Out Acids

The only way your body can clean out acids and poisons wastes from your blood is through the kidneys. Kidneys filter out acids, poisons, and wastes from the blood. If they become weak, the acids and poisons build up in the blood, causing various diseases. It is important to keep the kidneys clean and healthy. The best way to do this is by taking a course of treatment with the 'M-Coy's' Kidney Tablets. These tablets are made from natural ingredients and are completely safe. They will help you to clean out your kidneys and keep them healthy for the future.

NEVER NOTICED IT, HUH?
Senior annuals came Tuesday, and what a job these upper classmen have had to sign their "John Henry's on the dotted line."

About all of the students are wearing spring outfits. Spring is a swell season!

Report cards were given out last Wednesday during the home room period. There were quite a few smiling faces. What could be the reason? You guess.

Why the raid on the library? Seems to be having extra work—or maybe, no work. Perhaps it's extra at this time of the year. Anyway, they are excused this time!

WILLING AND HOW!
Spring is here!

At least, that is what it looked like Thursday in English class.

It seems that Clarence Bradley was sort of warm, and so as a way to cool off a little, he asked Mayda Myers to roll his shirt sleeves up.

You know how willing Mayda is to help the other person. Well, she did just that and was quite contented at the job.

Whenever you have a job, just call on Mayda. She'll always be at your assistance.

JUST A BUG STORY
There was quite some commotion in study hall the other day when a certain seventh grade boy brought a nice large beetle to school. All went well until Harold Jackson decided to take charge of the ferocious bug.

Taking the bug very carefully into his hands, Harold threw it very quickly over on John Dimen's magazine; and as the bug was crawling down John's back, he became wiggly and wondered what was crawling on him.

Putting his hand on the back of his neck, he caught the bug and threw it back to Harold. Harold seeing that the bug was pretty dizzy by this time and almost standing on end, gave it back to its owner and continued on with his studies with a "well, that's done" look.

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: (p. 404): "Healing the sick and reforming the sinner are one and the same thing in Christian Science. Both the cures require the same method and are inseparable in Truth. Hatred, envy, dishonesty, fear and so forth, make a man sick, and neither material medicine nor mind can help him permanently, even in body, unless it makes him better mentally, and so delivers him from his destroyers."

Language Without Words
In Gomera, Canary Islands, the natives use a language without words which is whistled. It is said to have developed because of the physiography of the island with its impassable gorges. The aboriginal inhabitants discovered that whistling would carry farther than shouting and a whistling code grew from necessity.

AT THE THEATRE

Pulsing Film Reunites Two Popular Stars

Movie lovers who remember the enjoyable screen entertainment that resulted from the juxtaposition of the talents of Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter, will delight in the announcement that this team of screen lovers are again co-starring. The picture is "One More Spring," and starts a three day engagement beginning Sunday matinee at 2:30 at the Hollywood theatre.

These stars, who made such a screen furor of "Paddy" and "Daddy Long Legs," appear in a poignant and tender romance of today, adapted from the acclaimed best-seller from the pen of Robert Nathan.

Janet Gaynor has a deeply emotional role as a courageous girl alone in the world, and Warner Baxter is the romantic adventurer who clings to the right to dream. Advance reports from cities where "One More Spring" has played and is now playing, hail the performances of these stars as extraordinary and memorable.

This vibrant romance set in a snow-coated park is said to be packed to the hilt with excitement. It is different from any role either star has yet had, and affords each a rare opportunity to reach new emotional heights.

The third issue of "The March of Time," the latest issue just released March 28th, is all new and different and by far the best of these subjects that has been released. Those who saw the second issue of the "March of Time," a few weeks ago will remember the intensely interesting coverage of world events during the twenty minutes of its showing. This subject plays Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in addition to "One More Spring" and the Hollywood's regular short subject program.

An engrossing story that in book form thrilled sixteen million American readers from the magical pen of Harold Bell Wright, has been transposed to the screen. It is "When A Man's A Man," and starts tomorrow (Friday) as feature one of another two-day double feature bill. The producers have done a splendid job in making a picture to do justice to the book masterpiece. Starring in the picture is George O'Brien, with Dorothy Wilson, Paul Kelly, Jimmy Butler and others.

Feature two at the Hollywood Friday and Saturday is King Vidor's newest picture, "Our Daily Bread," with such players as Tom Keene, Karen Morley and Barbara Pepper. Taking a simple theme as his keynote, King Vidor has again duplicated his previous motion picture successes, some of which were "The Crowd," "Street Scene," "Hallelujah." It is the story of farmers and farm life in the great wheat and agricultural belts; magnificent entertainment—rich in drama, pathos, romance and comedy. Chapter eight of "Tailspin Tommy" and a "Buddy" cartoon completes this bill.

"The Secret Bride" is Barbara Stanwyck's finest dramatic production. It will be shown locally at the Hollywood as feature one of another mid-week double-feature program next week Wednesday and Thursday. Warren William, Glenda Farrell and Grant Mitchell are the principal supporting players. And for the second big mid-week feature, there's enough thrilling action, suspense, laughter and romance in "The White Cockatoo" to supply the plots for half a dozen ordinary film melodramas. Jean Muir has the leading feminine role, with Ricardo Cortez, Gordon Westcott, Ruth Donnelly, Minna Gombell and Pauline Garon in the chief supporting roles.

Here's a midweek dual program worth seeing!

Its products meeting successfully the most rigid set of requirements yet imposed by government departments, Kelvinator Corporation has been awarded blanket contracts for nine out of fifteen sizes of electric refrigerators to lead all other companies in the 1935 competition, according to information from Washington received by C. L. Houswerth of Houswerth Radio Sales, local Kelvinator dealers.

In the awards, which were for purchases of electric refrigerators by the government this year, Kelvinator was given contracts for supplying four, five and eight cubic foot lacquer finished refrigerators, and a thirteen cubic foot porcelain finished model, all for shore use. In addition, Kelvinator was awarded the contract for all five sizes of porcelain finished cabinets for marine installation. No bid was submitted for lacquer finished marine units.

Paralleling a noticeable public insistence upon higher performance and greater value, the United States itself made in 1935 electric refrigerator contract awards on the basis of overall operating expense over a ten year period, Mr. Houswerth said. Among points taken into consideration were initial cost, economy of operation, current consumption and operating efficiency under extreme heat conditions.

"The fact that of the many companies competing for government approval this year, Kelvinator Corporation was awarded nine contracts out of the fifteen bids it submitted is the best proof of the quality of efficiency which is built

PRIMA DONNA SINGS AT BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

Rose Bampton

Metropolitan opera company's young, colorful contralto, Rose Bampton, who will be soloist with a supporting cast of 400 singers and a symphony orchestra of sixty pieces at the music festival Tuesday evening, May 7, in the House of David Park, at Benton Harbor, during the Blossom Festival, which will be held from Sunday, May 5, to Sunday, May 12, inclusive, and which will be climaxed on Saturday afternoon, May 11, by a monster, four mile floral parade.

Steeplechases were originally, as their name implies, cross-country races, in a straight line regardless of obstacles, the course being marked by prominent landmarks, usually church steeples.

Community Sport

Here to Stay, Says Coach H. Bradfield

"We might as well make up our minds to it that community athletics are here to stay," said Harold (Curly) Bradfield, former sport mentor at the Buchanan high school in the course of a talk made at the banquet held at D's Cafe on Wednesday evening for the award of gold basketballs to the B. A. A. winter tournament champions and of bronze basketballs to the members of the runner-up squad.

Bradfield congratulated the Buchanan Athletic Association for its work during the past winter, lamenting the fact that no such community organization exists in Niles as yet as a basis for organized recreation for young men out of school.

Supt. H. C. Stark and Principal A. L. Knoblauch of the Buchanan schools were guests and each spoke in praise of the work done by the Athletic Association in placing adult athletics for young men on a responsible basis here. George Wynn acted as toastmaster.

Senate Votes Down Postponement Date For Payment Taxes

The biennial attempt to postpone the date of the payment of taxes met defeat in the senate. Fifteen senators, two short of the necessary majority, voted for the Nichols house bill permitting taxpayers to meet their levies by Nov. 1 without general penalties and interest charges. Amendments to the measure, however, had provided that interest charges would not be canceled on special assessments and that a four per cent collection fee would be levied for all late payments.

Senator Don VanderWerf, Republican, Fremont, led the opposition to the measure. He charged that the legislature "has been postponing the collection date so long that the people have begun to expect action. We will never get people to pay their taxes on time unless we call a halt to this practice."

Minority Leader Leon D. Case also spoke against the measure. The bill passed the house with a collection date fixed for Dec. 1, but the measure was amended before its defeat to advance the date one month.

Parent Teachers Hold Last Meet of Current Year

The last regular meeting of the Buchanan Parent-Teachers Association for the current year was held last Monday evening at the high school with a very fine attendance.

Pupils of Teresa White's Dancing School presented a very pleasing dance number after which Miss Ethel Kelble of St. Joseph, who is affiliated with the Federal Housing Commission, gave an interesting talk on the Federal Housing Act.

The main feature of the program was the splendid panel discussion of the subject, "Guidance for Life," which dealt with the pre-adolescent child. Members of the panel who very capably discussed the topic were: Walter Zabel, principal of Niles High School; Miss Ella Champion, Grade Supervisor, Niles; Rev. Thomas Rice, pastor Buchanan M. E. church; and A. L. Knoblauch, Principal Buchanan High School, who acted as chairman of the panel. Ralph Tyndall, Principal of the Dowagiac High School, who was to have taken part in the discussion was unable to be present.

The new president, Mrs. F. M. Moyer, named the various committees for the ensuing year. Delegates who will attend the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers at Bay City, May 15-16-17 will be Mrs. Moyer and Mrs. George Chain who is chairman of the program committee. A special meeting will be called for May 27th in the afternoon to afford members and others interested the opportunity of hearing reports of these delegates.
