CHIEF VOUCHSAFES OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON LOSS OF TEETH

The fish may be biting this week but Chief of Police Ed Mitchell isn't—or not very heavy, anyway.

Announcement of Truck Chasers' Contest

"The meeting will now come to order," announced William Randolph Bean, the well-known president of the Buchanan Order of Fire Truck Chasers, as he hammered on the table with the nozzle of a city fire hose, the trophy of one of the city's most successful fires.

"I have, fellow chasers, an important announcement to make. Beginning as of the present date and from now on the order will hold a contest for an important prize, so that the distinguished work of our members shall not go unrewarded.

"This system of merit awards will be offset by the following deductions: Attendance at fires 10 First at fire 10 Beating fire truck to fires 10 Parking closest to scene fire 25

"During each fire a meeting of the members of the order will be held on the fire truck, at which the rate cards of the members will be scored. It is to be hoped that the attendance will be increased and that members will be more prompt on arrival and in the observance of the duties of a good fire truck chaser.

"On several occasions, due to the absence of non-performance of the members, fires have been extinguished in lamentable haste and with a corresponding lack of the spectacular elements which go to the making of a good fire.

The meeting was then closed with the singing of the official song of the order: "Twas ever thus from childhood's hour, A statement which has stood the test The fires from which I've stayed away Always turn out to be the best."

PROMISING ARRAY OF YOUNG TALENT TOPS SAWYER ACES

D. Topash Pitches Fine Game to Shut Out Aces; Allows Four Hits, Strikes Out Twelve.

Playing one of the best arrays of young baseball talent gathered under one management in several years, the Buchanan Blues took the measure of the crack Sawyer Aces at the Liberty Heights baseball diamond, Sunday afternoon, emerging temporarily at least at the top of the heap in the Community Baseball League, with two wins and no losses.

All other teams in the league had won one and lost one, except Glendora, leader of the league last year which has lost two.

The Blues include some of the best players in three teams last year, the Blues, Little's Grays, and Dayton. If the combination of talent can be maintained intact throughout the season, it should make a creditable showing and remain near the top of the league.

Robert Reamer, former business manager resigned recently, turning over the helm to August Topash, who also alternates with Richter of Dayton as catcher. The complete line-up is: pitchers, Jesse, D. Topash; catchers, Richter, A. Topash; first base, Leiter; second base, Mangold, Sparr; third base, Dellinger; short stop, Deeds, Sparr; left field, Ellis; center field, Schmidt; right field, Helemann; utility, F. Reamer, R. Juhl.

The following report of the game Sunday was written by the team's official scribe, August Topash: Behind the brilliant pitching of Dan Topash, the Buchanan Blues set down the slugging Sawyer Aces last Sunday at the Liberty Heights diamond to the tune of 3 to 0, before a fair sized crowd.

It was a very fine contest all the way through with both teams playing heads-up ball all the time. This win puts the locals on top in the Community League standing, having won both of their league games over Baroda and Sawyer. All the rest of the seven entries in the league have won one and lost one, with the exception of Glendora who has dropped two contests.

Dan Topash had a fine day on the mound with practically everything going his own way. He allowed only four scattered hits and struck out 12 batters. Lunog went the route for the Aces allowing 8 hits and sitting down nine batsmen by the strike-out method.

The Blues garnered two of their runs in the fourth inning when Lewie Leiter reached first as a result of an error. At this point Everett Deeds slammed a triple in deep right field and scored Leiter. Deeds then scored on a pass ball which got away from Sawyer's catcher. Their last run came in the fifth inning, when Bob Ellis started the inning off with a single. Aug Topash then sacrificed him down to second with a bunt, and "Dingy" Dellinger drove Ellis home with a single to make the total score 3 to 0.

Deeds, short stop, led the locals in hitting with a triple and a single. Knight, Sawyer catcher, led the losers with a double and a single. Next Thursday afternoon the Buchanan Blues will play the Berrien Springs Reds on the Liberty Heights diamond. The tilt is scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock and is a non-league game. A large crowd is expected to witness the fray.

Next Sunday the Blues will journey to New Buffalo to seek their third Community League win.

SCHRAM HOME IS BADLY DAMAGED BY ROOF FIRE

Upper Story and Furnishings Damaged by Water, Chemicals and Flames.

Fire which started on the roof as the result of sparks from a rubbish fire in the furnace practically destroyed the roof and badly damaged the structure and furnishings of the home of E. N. Schram, 212 Cecil Avenue, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Schram had been cleaning the basement and burning rubbish in the furnace, when sparks fell on the roof, rendered tinder-like by the dry weather of the preceding week, ignited the shingles. The blaze had gained considerable headway, burning a strip clear across the roof, before it was noticed by the neighbors and an alarm was turned in.

Before the blaze was extinguished, most of the roof was burned or badly damaged, and the upper story and furnishings were damaged by flames, water and chemicals. Included in the loss were some antique furnishings in the upper rooms highly prized, and a set of airplane drawings by Richard Schram. The lower rooms were also damaged by water. The loss was covered by insurance. Edward Hess has the contract for repairs.

Survey Finds 7 Cases Tuberculosis in Buchanan Schools

As a result of its final recordings of the x-ray survey recently given in Buchanan, the Michigan Tuberculosis Association reports 6 cases of the childhood type tuberculosis and one adult type tuberculosis. In itself, the childhood type is not dangerous, but it is sometimes necessary to restrict the activities of the child having that type.

After the findings of the x-ray survey were tabulated, a report was sent to the family physician of each child. Besides the reports of his patients, the Michigan Tuberculosis Association suggests certain health regulations to be observed according to the condition of the child. In the letters to physicians, no restrictions were placed on the 6 Buchanan children having the childhood type; sanatorium care was recommended for the adult type. A total of ten children were x-rayed. Of the 6 teachers who were x-rayed, all were negative.

The x-ray technician from the Michigan Tuberculosis Association was assisted by Mrs. Reba Lamb, school nurse. The testing was done by members of the Berrien County Medical Society and the cost of testing and x-ray work was supported through funds from the annual Christmas Seal Sale held from Thanksgiving to Christmas day.

DIRECTOR OF FAIR PAGEANTS IS INTERESTED

Howard Tooley, Former Director Pageants for Colonial Village, Wants Information.

The development of an annual pageant opera which should serve as an advertisement to the people of southwestern Michigan not only the beauty of St. Joseph river valley section but the forgotten glories of its historic past was the proposition broached to the people of Buchanan by Howard Tooley, who is known to local people as the director of the WLS Minstrel show recently sponsored by the local Odd Fellow lodge, and who is widely known in the entertainment world as a director of high grade theatrical productions for years.

Mr. Tooley has the prestige of having conducted the pageants of the Colonial Village at the Century of Progress, and as having been associated with the builders of the Wings of a Century pageant which was rated by many as the high spot of the 1933-34 World's fair. While here he visited the river section along the Redbud trail and stated that he found locations splendidly adapted to the staging of a production which, if properly supported, would serve as an advertisement of the highest grade, similar to the Holland tulip festival and the Twin City Blossom festival, which has served to make those cities the mecca of thousands annually.

In order to arrive at some idea of the resources, Mr. Tooley has requested that local people who know the whereabouts of the following equipment which would be useful in the production, report to the Berrien County Record office:

Any sort of travel equipment such as old style buggies, surreys, phaetons, gigs, buses, stages, high-wheeled bicycles, old style bicycles of any sort, old wagons, especially such as were manufactured in the St. Joseph valley by the Studebaker Bros., Rough Wagon Works, etc. Old costumes typical of the past century.

Mr. Tooley stated in his visit last week that he would return in about three weeks and that he hoped to bring with him William

LOCAL WOMAN TREASURES PERSONAL LETTER WRITTEN BY HAND OF FAMOUS FOUNDER OF HULL HOUSE, JANE ADDAMS

Lack of Control of Hands Caused by Spinal Fever in Youth Made it Difficult For Noted Leader to Write.

Mrs. Walter C. Hawes, 204 Third street, is in possession of what is said to be a rarity, a personal letter written and signed by the hand of Jane Addams, famous founder of Hull House, Chicago, who died last week.

Miss Addams wrote with difficulty, her control over her hands having been affected by a spinal fever which rendered her an invalid in early life. She usually dictated all letters to secretaries. Because of this lack of muscular coordination of her hands, she was unable to write straight across a page, and in both the inscription on the envelope and in the body of the letter the lines trail diagonally across the page.

Miss Addams had reared a niece, Esther Linn, later Mrs. Esther Hulbert, and had retained careful watch over her and her family later. While Mrs. Hulbert's children were small, Mrs. Hawes, then Miss Alma C. Nelson of Augustana hospital, was summoned whenever a nurse was needed for them. She was called several times by Miss

Memorial Day 1935

Sixty-seven years ago our country began the formal observance of an occasion devoted to the memory of its heroic dead, who laid down their lives that the priceless privileges of free Government might be established and perpetuated for the citizenship of the Republic.

A growing zeal should mark the annual observance of this day, because of the additional sacrifices that have been made since then, and because, from the ever-deepening well springs of memory, arise those proud ideals which keep alight the fires of patriotism and form the very foundation upon which our future as a people must rest. "Lord God of Hosts be with us yet, lest we forget, lest we forget."

It is most fitting that our observance of Memorial Day should have come to include in its bestowal of flowers and tears, the sacred ashes of all of our loved ones who have passed from earth to the beautiful realm where God reigns in infinite love and understanding. They, too, in the homes and the quiet pursuits of peace, have earned the undying gratitude of our nation.

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor, I hereby proclaim Thursday, May 30, Memorial Day, and request its traditional observance by the people of the commonwealth.

FRANK D. FITZGERALD, Governor.

HOUSING ACT PROVIDES WAY OF BUYING HOME

Govt. Does Not Loan Money; But Insures Bank Loans; Mortgage May Run 20 Years.

A number of Buchanan people have expressed interest in the opportunities presented under Title Two of the Federal Housing Administration for the purchase or the construction of homes to be paid for on terms similar to rent. Many have the new plan confused with the HOLC. The Federal Housing Administration plan is radically different as the government loans no money, but merely insures in part private loans. The home purchase plan differs from the Modernization and Repair plan which provide for loans solely on the basis of income and credit.

In case of construction or purchase of an entire property, the mortgage must be able to put up 20 per cent or one fifth of the purchase price. He must borrow the money of a bank or other financial agency, giving satisfaction that he is able to pay the monthly installments required. While there is no set rule that the income must be four times as much as the monthly payment, it is not considered good budgeting if the cost of shelter constitutes more than 25 per cent of the income.

The following is taken from a bulletin published by the Federal Housing Administration: Under the terms of the National Housing Act, insured mortgages have been made available to you. You can now build your own home with the certainty of actual ownership before you. Today you can build a home or purchase a new home that will be yours in 12, 15 or 20 years.

Local financial institutions such as banks, mortgage companies, life insurance companies, and building and loan associations, are in a position to finance the purchase if you are able to make a down payment or establish an equity of at least 20 per cent of the total cost. It is, of course, to your advantage to make a larger down payment if convenient, but your borrowing capacity on this new plan, as sponsored by the Federal Housing Administration, is 80 per cent of the total value—offered in one mortgage—and repayment exactly like rent.

Berrien County Record

Published by THE RECORD PRINTING COMPANY A. B. McClure, Managing Editor Entered as second class matter November 20, 1919 Suchman, Michigan, under the act of March 3, 1879

WHAT THE BETTER HOUSING CAMPAIGN MEANS

In view of the fact that there is much misunderstanding of the scope and purpose of the Better Housing Campaign, the following statement of the essentials of the program is presented:

1. No loans or grants of money are being made to builders either directly or indirectly by pursuance of the program. Any and all advances of money are being made by banks or other financial agencies as a part of their customary business, to those who are considered acceptable credit risks in the ordinary meaning of the term.
2. It is the intention of the act that the banks shall make such loans on the basis of assured income of the borrower adequate to meet payments, and on such other considerations of intention and ability as enter into ordinary banking business.
3. The government enters the financial picture only as it is pledged to support the banks in making the loans by insuring each loan which they make to the extent of 20 per cent, thus protecting the bank in part against loss. It will be necessary for the banks to further protect themselves by a careful consideration of the dependability of the loan prospect.
4. The government has attempted to serve the public by enabling the banks to offer favorable discount rates on installment loans to borrowers as a result of the partial insurance protection which they receive.
5. The maximum discount rate which a bank loaning under the Better Housing Administration plan may levy is 5 per cent on the face of the note, which is equivalent to an annual interest charge on the average outstanding balance due the bank of 9.7156 per cent interest.
6. This interest rate is arrived at in the following manner: If a borrower should secure $120 from the bank, $6 would be deducted as discount, and the borrower would then pay a year (if that be the required time) in equal monthly installments on the face of the note, amounting to $10 monthly. It is assumed that the borrower is actually repaying monthly on the principal the sum of $10 less an average of 50 per cent per month discount, and that the actual repayment to the bank on the amount actually received ($114) is $9.50 per month. Deducting $9.50 monthly from $114, the average outstanding balance of the banks funds is $61.75, on which it is assumed that $6 interest is paid, which would require the above rate of 9.7156 per cent.
7. The maximum loan under the terms of the Better Housing program is $2,000 and the minimum loan is $100. The bank or other lending institution may loan amounts less than $100 if they care to incur the fixed charges for set-up and service that are incident to all such accounts.
8. The maximum time permitted under the terms of the act is three years, but an amendment permits the lending institution to extend the period to five years at its own discretion. In any event the loan must be repaid within the life of the improvement and should be paid as quickly as the borrower's income warrants.
9. The borrower is not limited in any way as to the materials used or the workmen employed, provided that the construction and the form of expenditure meets the approval of the lending institution. (The statement that architects plans are required for Better Housing projects is untrue.) A borrower may make his own improvement if the lending institution approves.
10. The duty of the local committee in charge of the Better Housing campaign is limited entirely to a campaign of public education informing potential builders of the terms of the act and where loans may be secured and on what terms. The committee has no authority in passing on construction or approving loans, which are within the province of the contractor and the lending institution.

THIS KELVINATOR FOR ONLY $148.50

You'll wonder how it can be priced so low. Enormous demand, enormous volume, a great, modern manufacturing plant—these explain the price. Twenty-one years of experience explain the quality. Greater ice capacity—a cabinet that is beautifully designed, strong and rugged, built to last for years—the same precision-made Kelvinator mechanism that is used in higher priced models—are some of the reasons why this low priced Kelvinator is regarded as the outstanding bargain in electric refrigeration today. Alma Mater The usual pronunciation of alma mater, says Literary Digest, is alma ma-ter—first a as in fat, second and third a's obscure, as in final, e as in prey. This is based on the older English mode of Latin pronunciation. The so-called Continental system is now largely followed in America in the teaching of Latin, and the Continental values or the vowels have replaced the English values. By the Continental system, the phrase is pronounced al-ma ma-ter—first and third a's as in art, second a and e obscure. One sometimes hears alma pronounced in the English system and mater in the Continental. This mixture is incorrect.

Injury From Bullheads Experienced fishermen pay little attention to the feelers, or "whiskers," about the mouth of a bullhead when they are handling this species of fish, for despite the belief of many persons to the contrary, there is no danger of injury from possible contact with these, according to old-time fishermen. But anyone who knows anything about bullheads does take care to grasp a squinting, slippery specimen in a manner to avoid the first back fin and the two side fins or pectorals, for with these the bullhead is capable of inflicting a really painful wound.

News of Buchanan Schools
Collected and Edited By Members of the Student Body

To Mr. Knoblauch

Mr. Knoblauch, you have been with us for three years. You have been principal of Buchanan schools for three years. In that time you have been strict when you knew what was best. You have been fair and just when you wanted to do good. You have been kind and willing to help us when we most needed help. Above all you have been reasonable and willing to see the other person's side.

You have a knowledge of boys' and girls' problems, and what is still more important, a knowledge of how to deal with those problems with sympathy and understanding. All these things make you a very brilliant and excellent principal but I really believe the grandest thing about you is your sense of humor! And there's where you have all other principals beaten. It is not only the type of humor that is able just to laugh at a joke either. It's bigger than that. It is real humor—a funny bone that is big enough to laugh at itself as well as someone else.

At the end of this year you are leaving us, Mr. Knoblauch. We all ways knew that it would happen someday, but somehow we never realized it could come so soon. We want you to know we are very glad about it for you—but we want you to know also that we are going to miss you and that we will always remember you as our principal. We hope you will be as successful as you have been here. We hope you will be as happy as you have been here. We hope you will be as kind and willing to help us as you have been here. We hope you will be as reasonable and willing to see the other person's side as you have been here.

The Microphone Staff of 1935 wishes to express its great appreciation and gratitude to the Record for their kindness in giving the Staff the use of this page throughout the year.

To The Seniors
The end of the year is here and, as usual, with all the gladness and joy there is a certain indefinable sadness. For one thing it is the sense of loss. The seniors are glad, of course, to be graduating, yet, in a way, they feel defenseless. All their life there has been school to be their mast, to steady them, to retreat from when the amazing storms that is life seemed so much for them. But now this rudder, this die, is to be taken from them. They are suddenly no longer children, school children, almost over night it being they find themselves men and women with a definite place in society, and definite obligations to that society. Evening performances

Graduation means the "end" of many things. It means the end of being able to excuse oneself with "I'm just a school kid. I've a right to be carefree, to make the same mistake over and over again." It means the end of prodding.

In school a teacher keeps you busy, keeps your initiative up. After graduation it is up to you, whether you will sink or swim; whether you will reach on for higher and finer things, or whether you will get stuck in the mud of your own listlessness.

Seniors, you will be getting a great deal of advice at this time. This editorial wishes to tell you only one thing—to attempt always to live up to the highest and finest in you.

Niles Municipal Judge Writes of The Redbud Trail

The following verses were read by Charles Warner, municipal judge of Niles, in the course of an interesting program of entertainment which he presented before the Lions club. He read a series of poems composed by himself, concluding with the one given below:

We speak of Heaven as a place—a city bright and fair,
Where "the wicked cease from troubling" and only good is there.
From every church's pulpit we hear the story told
That "the walls are all of jasper and the streets are solid gold."
They paint a pretty picture, and they tell a wondrous tale—
But how about Buchanan, where we start the Redbud Trail?

We speak of Eden's Garden as Earth's only paradise,
Where the eating of an apple made our parents worldly-wise.
But, when that tale was written I doubt if they had seen
The old St. Joseph Valley in the spring, when things are green
And the orchards are in blossom on the hill and in the vale,
Or the city of Buchanan, where we start the Redbud Trail.

I like to sit and dream, at times, of beauties I have seen;
Of mountains high, of canyons deep, and rolling prairies green
But, when I think of lakes and streams it's pleasing to confess
Our valley has some beauty spots the others don't possess.
What a story might be written? What an interesting tale
Could be told about Buchanan—where we start the Redbud Trail?

Gov. Fitzgerald Signs Flynn Bill Exempting Farm and Industrial Supplies From Sales Tax

Gov. Fitzgerald on May 23 signed Senator Felix H. Flynn's bill to exempt from the 3 per cent sales tax goods purchased for consumption or use in industrial processing or agricultural production. The Flynn Act will eliminate $500,000 or more in sales taxes paid by farmers and manufacturers on supplies and machinery annually, according to the Michigan State Farm Bureau. The Farm Bureau and 180 associated farmers' elevators and creameries and manufacturers were at odds with the State Board of Tax Administration in the courts and elsewhere for nearly two years before the dispute about pyramiding sales tax was settled amicably in the legislature. The Flynn Act is now in effect.

You may borrow the balance (up to 80 per cent of the appraised value but not more than $10,000) from an approved lending institution, covered by Government insurance, and repay the entire amount on a monthly basis. You may take up to 20 years to pay. You may pay in 12 or 15 years, if you like. Each month you pay an installment which not only includes the interest and a part of the principal sum borrowed, but includes also a twelfth part of the annual taxes, mortgage insurance premium, and the fire and other hazard insurance premiums.
What does it cost? Less than the old method of home financing, because you may borrow up to 80 per cent of the appraised value of your home.
Under the terms of the National Housing Act, insured mortgages have been made available to you. You can now build your own home with the certainty of actual ownership before you. Today you can build a home or purchase a new home that will be yours in 12, 15 or 20 years.

Thus, there is today placed before you a broad highway to home ownership. A way that enables you to pay for your home, as you go, at a lower cost, with all the elements of safety, convenience and assurance.
Today you can buy or build a home, knowing that you are able to make the monthly payments, and that at the end of the monthly payment period the home will be yours.

Emergency Relief Announces Policy Handling Clothing

In the future, all men's and boys' work clothes, shoes, etc., as well as ladies and misses house dresses, underwear, hosiery, etc., and infants' wear will be handled in the same manner that groceries and milk are now handled. That is, no particular firm name will be designated in the purchase order, but the client may have his orders redeemed at any store holding a permit by the Berrien County Emergency Relief Administration.
It will be necessary for any merchant desiring to secure his share of this business to make application to the Relief Headquarters at Benton Harbor, Mich., either by mail or telephone, and a permit will be issued authorizing such merchant to redeem such orders as may be presented to his store.
A stabilization committee representing widely separated areas in the county, consisting of prominent merchants handling these lines met recently with J. G. Bryant, acting administrator and other representatives of the Berrien County FEPA and worked out an approved list of wearing apparel as well as a fair price list on same which will be mailed each merchant in the county who apply for and receive a permit for handling these lines.

New Tube Makes Driving Safer

The last word in safety in event of a blowout driving at high speed is now available to motorists in Buchanan, according to Earl F. Beck, local dealer for The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.
The new development is a tube for automobile tires that eliminates the danger of serious accident following a blowout by changing the sudden blowout into a slow leak.
"It is a known fact that a blowout at 60 miles per hour is twice as dangerous as one at 40 miles per hour, and at 80 miles per hour is four times as dangerous," Mr. Beck explained. "With new cars having extremely high top speeds being placed on the market the need for such a tube is increasingly apparent."
"Goodyear engineers have been working on this 'safety insurance' problem for several years and the new Goodyear Life Guard tube is the result. It is in reality a double tube, one inside the other and joined together at the base. The two air chambers are connected only by a single small vent hole which allows the air to pass from the inner chamber to the outer chamber."
"The tire then drops slightly to ride on the inner carcass, allowing the driver to bring the car to a stop under perfect control. He can pull off to the side of the road without endangering himself, his car or the lives of other motorists."
"Police and fire department officials and heads of safety organizations who have seen the tube demonstrated are unanimous in the opinion it is one of the most important contributions to the safety of motoring that has been made in a decade," Mr. Beck concluded.

First Microbe Hunter
Antony Van Leeuwenhoek, who lived from 1632 to 1723, discovered the minute capillary circulation of the blood in various animals, according to Adolph Bellin, in Hygiea, the health magazine. Leeuwenhoek, called the first microbe hunter, opened new fields in the study of human diseases.

George Jennings, Heir to Millions, Stamped by Dames

Evidence that George Franklin Churchill Jennings, self-styled heir of millions, who left Berrien county several weeks ago by request, is still active and gleaming his customary harvest of publicity is contained in the following article from Buffalo, N. Y., carried in dailies a few days ago:

George Franklin Churchill Jennings, gold-nugget-carrying Alaskan sourdough miner, who claims to possess a fortune of $12,000,000 was missing from his usual haunts today, after announcing publicly yesterday that he was seeking a wife.

Exhibiting a bulky legal document which he asserted was a copy of the will of his late half-brother, Edwin B. Jennings, wealthy Chicagoan, who died in 1923, leaving $3,000,000 to him and another $3,000,000 if he married before July 25, 1935, Jennings appeared in Erie county hall yesterday to look up some legal records.

Waxing confidential, Jennings, 67, and a trifle stooped, vouchsafed to the record clerk whom he was. Immediately he was besieged by a crowd of young women employes of the county clerk's office.

He outlined his qualifications of his ideal woman, saying she must be between 25 and 40 years old; must like to travel, hunt, fish and ride horseback and must be able to handle money wisely. He promised lavish fits to the woman he finally selected.

But today, whether he feared his sales resistance would melt under feminine wiles before he could use his sober judgment, Jennings had disappeared.

Annual Convention Christian Legion Pontiac June 29-30

The annual convention of Zion's Christian Legion will meet at Pontiac, Michigan, June 29 and 30. It is anticipated that 1,500 will be present to participate in the proceedings. Zion's Christian Legion is an organization within the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. It is composed largely of young people who possess the directing power with supervision by pastors, district presidents and general church officers. The church has a congregation in this community and it is expected that a good delegation will attend this general convention in Pontiac.

Persons of chief interest who will be guests of honor and guest speakers for the occasion are President Frederick Madison Smith, D. D. L. D., Bishop G. L. DeLapp, one of the presiding bishops of the church, Miss Agnes MacPhail, the only woman member of the Federal Parliament of Canada, and Albert N. Hoxie of Philadelphia, Pa., a musician of international note who entertains radio audiences with the fine performance of his splendid harmonica band.

Doctor Smith, president of the church is a powerful speaker of strong qualifications for his public work and an orator of distinction along social lines, says Apostle Williams, who has the responsibility of arranging the program which brings these people of influence to the platform of this great convention. Miss MacPhail has kept her place in the Canadian Federal Parliament for almost a dozen years and despite the imminent election which threatens to swoop many out of power, she stands a splendid possibility of maintaining her position of influence, says Mr. Williams.

The banquet to be served Saturday night, June 29, will accommodate five hundred guests. The speakers mentioned above will be the guests of honor on this gala occasion. The Sunday sessions of the convention will be held in the Central high school auditorium and the banquet in the Odd Fellows banquet hall.

Loose Dogs are Menace to Young Pheasants, Rabbits

With pheasants, partridge and quail now nesting in lower Michigan, dog owners are reminded by the Game Division, Department of Conservation, that they should not let their dogs run loose in the woods.

Nesting game birds are easily disturbed by dogs running wild. Hunting dogs, as well as dogs of other varieties, have been known to kill young rabbits, nesting pheasants and young pheasants discovered in the fields.

THE FAR-OFF GRAVES
In silent ministrations
Our hearts outreach our hands
To graves we must remember
In far and distant lands,
Where tender grasses cover
In green memorial
Sister and friend and lover
Beneath an silent pall.
There tenderly above them
The green winds of the spring
Scatter beyond all number
The flowers we may not bring,
And May's blue skies bend over
Above them where they sleep
And green ranks of the clover
Cover them still and deep
And guard them as our hearts would
Where on far distant hills
They rest in dreamless quiet,
Yet loved, remembered still.

Valiant Americans
A MEMORIAL DAY THOUGHT

The soldiers of three wars, who will march on Memorial Day, loved peace, but gave up the pursuits of peace, because they loved their country more.

It is the fervent wish of every American today that the future may ask no similar sacrifices of our sons, but we honor those brave ones, living and dead, who did have the courage and the patriotism to serve their country in times of need.
