Notice, Prize Award

Spurred on by the life prophecies as to the first date of frost this fall, most of which are based on rapid atmospheric pressure fluctuations or when the first katydid was heard, the Record is offering an attractive prize to the person who will guess the nearest to the exact date of the first killing frost which will visit the city. The base of the award will be as follows: The group of canons in front of the Babcock & Coleman filling station must be frozen down.

The prize will be a steam-heated thermometer. Think what this will mean. It will save you practically all your winter's fuel bill. You can keep the thermometer in your home right where you want it all winter by means of this steam-heated, thermostatically-controlled thermometer. Why heat your house when it will be so much cheaper to heat the thermometer? Send your guess to the Record at once. (Any way before frost.)

Clark Installs Dial Exchange

Installation of an automatic telephone exchange was completed at the Clark Equipment Co. last week, the service being switched over Saturday while a "light load" was on. The installation was made necessary by the heavy increase in telephone business during the past year. By this new dial service anyone in the offices or plant can dial anyone else, or can dial the Buchanan exchange without troubling the Clark operator, Miss Frances Tabor, who will continue to handle the incoming calls. A telephone directory for the plant was printed at the Record print shop.

CAST OF 85 TO TAKE PART

Evangelical Church to Sponsor Unique Production.

Buchanan is to have an opportunity next week to witness something new in entertainment in the form of the dramatization of scriptural stories, entitled "The First Commandment," to be given at the Clark theatre Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Sept. 17 and 18, under the sponsorship of the Evangelical church, with Miss Edith Thompson of the American Educational Company directing.

"The First Commandment" is a Biblical dramatization in which many of the most prominent people in this community are taking part. The production is staged with a large number of authentic costumes, unusual and special lighting equipment, and a great amount of other special properties, such as armor, beads, etc. It combines the finest in music, drama, lighting effects and costumes, to give Buchanan the most unusual and sensational type of entertainment that it has ever had. "The First Commandment" is a dramatization of the most interesting and important events leading up to and connected with the giving of the Ten Commandments. It can only be compared to such productions as the gigantic motion picture, "The Ten Commandments," and the well known Passion Play. When "The First Commandment" was produced in Keokuk, Ia., Mr. Dale Carroll, editor and owner of the newspaper stated: "Two packed houses saw the production and the audience sat entranced with what they saw and heard. It is necessary to actually see the production to appreciate the intense dramatic situations and its sensational entertainment."

"Realizing the magnitude of 'The First Commandment,' the prominent people of the entire community are co-operating in this production. The actual cast includes 80 of the business and professional people of Buchanan. These people will wear authentic costumes of over 4000 years ago. They consist of long, flowing robes and beards that reach to the waist and many other unique and special paraphernalia. The costumes consist of over 600 yards of material, 75 different types of cloth, running up to $1 to $2 a yard in cost. The costumes include the spectacular and popular dress of the court of ancient Egypt, of King Tut's time, together with many other unusual and sensational types of dress and costume.

Another important part of the production is the choir of 25 voices that will play an important part in the production. Unusual and beautiful music is rendered, and adds much to the entire staging of "The First Commandment." Music is interspersed among the various scenes and it is very appropriate and highly entertaining, and awe-inspiring. Mr. Howard N. Barbour, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Pascoe, will direct this group.

Army Truck Burns East of Buchanan

A contingent of 450 regular army soldiers representing the First Battalion, 2nd U. S. Infantry, passed through Buchanan in a detachment of 25 trucks Monday afternoon, en route from Camp Custer to Fort Sheridan. One of the trucks caught fire and was reported to have burned up on the road between Niles and Buchanan. There were no casualties.

Sept. 15 Closing Date Tax Payment

With Sept. 15 as the legal date for closing the 1935 city tax roll, there remains, according to the city treasurer, approximately 23% of the tax unpaid. Inasmuch as the 15th falls on Sunday, the office will be open Saturday afternoon preceding and Monday following.

Round About Buchanan

Concerning Prophets and Their Own Countries

Ora Cadwallader, Toledo, O., a cousin of Billy VanMeter, was a visitor in Buchanan over the Labor Day week-end, viewing this city for the first time, and he was outspoken in his opinion of the place. "It's the prettiest little place I ever saw," he said. "Here the town lays in a natural grove, just like a big park. I never saw a town of the size with so many fine trees and so many well-kept flowers and lawns."

Mr. Cadwallader looked out of the window of Kelling's store up Days avenue at the shaded street with the green crest of the Chamberlain hills hanging like a cloud on the horizon and the silvery-green billow of willow trees over the top of the vine-covered Clark plant.

"Did you ever see the like," he said. "It's like an oil painting."

All of which was true, but for one reason and another it is seldom seen and remarked by the inhabitants of the town, who have lived here for years, and who grouch about the place with the usual attitude of people towards their home town.

"Do you know what strangers passing through say about Buchanan?" asked one woman. "They say it is the prettiest town between Detroit and Chicago."

It's somewhat a poser whether you would call this a case of kidnapping or of catnapping, but here is a case of where a cat that had been heartlessly deprived of her offspring went out and stole another family.

The feline in question is Fuzzy, the eight-year-old tabby cat at the home of F. E. Hall, north of Buchanan. Now Fuzzy, after the nature of tabby cats, acquired a family of four kittens. But when it comes to cats F. E. has a theory that enough is enough, and he took Fuzzy's family and drowned them.

Fuzzy did not hold it against him, apparently, but she was not to be so easily deprived of the pleasure of raising a family. She left home and was gone two weeks. At the end of that period she returned with a family of three kittens of about the same age as those drowned. Leading catologists declare that the only manner in which she could possibly have acquired a family in that length of time is by catnapping.

Of course, it may be that F. E. only drowned the cats once, and they still have eight lives to go.

Another Turtle Tale

Clarence Coleman has a turtle story for the books.

Some twenty years ago when he was a lad of 12 or 13 years of age, he was sitting on a small bridge crossing a streamlet on his grandfather's farm near Bakertown. Seeing a turtle in the water he picked it up, carved his initials, "J. C. C." with a knife on the bottom of the shell, and released it. Last week, his grandfather, William Coleman, still living at an advanced age, heard a confusion in his chicken coop and went out, finding them gathered around a turtle. He turned the turtle over and there were J. C. C.'s initials. Clarence went out and examined the turtle, and stated that he is positively the same. The turtle is of the box species, is about the same size as it was when he carved his initials on it, and was found about 60 rods from where the inscribing occurred.

Calling the Dept. Was Just Gesture

"Curses, foiled again!" was the exclamation of Fire Chief Bunker when he and his trusty crew of smoke eaters arrived at the scene of the fire at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Batchelor, Jr., at 314 Main St., Friday morning, to find the fire already extinguished—and by a woman at that!

Mrs. Alce Loos, who was at the Flanar home saw the smoke coming from the Batchelor home and rushed over to give the alarm. She resolved herself into a one-woman bucket brigade, climbed out a window on the roof and put the fire out.

Boy Scouts

The first two games which Berrien-Cass troops plan to attend are the Michigan State college vs. Grinnell college game Saturday, Sept. 28, and the Notre Dame vs. the Kansas University game on the same date. Last season over 1,000 Scouts and Scouters attended the game of the University vs. Texas. This year the office plans on approximately 1500-1800 Scouts and Scouters to witness the Kansas-Notre Dame game.

The University of Michigan has invited the local council to select 25 first class scouts to usher at all home games of the University. These games will include the Michigan State College on Oct. 6th, Indiana University on Oct. 12th, University of Pennsylvania on Nov. 2nd, University of Minnesota on Nov. 16, and Ohio state on Nov. 23.

CO-OPS TO PLAY BLUES SUNDAY

Series of Two Out of Three to Decide City Title.

A post-season baseball game of more than usual interest will be held at the Letcher diamond next Sunday when the Buchanan Co-ops of Portage Prairie cross bats with the Buchanan Blues to decide the city title.

The Co-ops defeated the Little Arrows in two successive games. They ranked as a strong team last summer, but have been weaker this summer because of the setback from the injury to Lester Sebasty, their veteran pitcher. The Blues made a whirlwind start at the beginning of the present season, leading the Community League during the first half of the season, but falling by the wayside as the summer drew toward the end. However it remained in the upper half of the League roster and the competition should be hot Sunday.

The title will go to the team which wins two out of three games.

Provides Cool Sleep on Sultry Nights at Moderate Cost.

Fifty years ago Buchanan was one of the centers of the bed-making industry, and now after all these years bed-making is coming into its own again here, according to the recent announcement by the Clark Equipment Co. of its "Clark-Air" conditioned bed, in which cool sleep is available the year round.

The air-conditioned bed is to be a product of the air-conditioning plant on Days Avenue, together with devices for cooling limited areas of offices and workrooms. The mattress of the bed lies in a fabric sack, airtight, at sides and bottom but open at the top. This fabric hangs from a bar suspending about 2 1/2 feet above the level of the mattress by standards at each end of the bed.

At one end of the bed a small refrigeration unit is enclosed in a box, and a coil attached to it is dropped from a standard over the edge of the fabric enclosing the bed. When the unit is operating this coil cools the air in the fabric sack. The cool air displaces the warm air and remains within the sack by the force of gravity. The bed is guaranteed to maintain a temperature of 65 degrees Fahrenheit, regardless of the temperature outside.

This bed operates effectively without regard to open doors, windows or other ventilation and is not dependent on house insulation. Since only the air within the sack enclosing the bed is conditioned, the cost is much less than the conditioning of a bedroom would be. The cost of the operation is about that of two ordinary light bulbs during the time of operation. The first cost of the bed will be about half of the price of a low-cost car. The noise made by the refrigeration unit is equivalent to that of an electric fan.

The bar from which the enclosing fabric is suspended may be swung down on either side to get in or out of bed, or it may be arranged so that it may be lowered to the level of the bed and covered with the spread when the bed is not in use.

Or the fabric sack and the mattress may be used entirely apart from a regular bed, set on blocks on the floor.

A silk fabric is used for the sack and the entire device is an attractive piece of bedroom furniture, once the conservative attitude of the average housekeeper to radical changes in appearance of furniture is offset.

The refrigeration device is now in use for cooling limited areas of an office or work room, airtight walls about five feet high enclosing a small space about a desk or bench.

C. Conrad Gives Books to Library

Clayton Conrad, former Buchanan man, who is operating a chain of rent libraries, has donated a case of 155 books to the city library here. Conrad stated that inasmuch as he established his first library in Buchanan six years ago and as this is his "home town" he wished to give the books here. He is a son of the late William Conrad of Buchanan township, was born and reared here and is a graduate of the Buchanan high school.

I. O. O. F. Picnic is Good In Spite of Rain

Chairman Jerome Sebasty reported a very satisfactory attendance at the 23rd annual Dayton I. O. O. F. picnic, considering the rainy day. The entertainment was handicapped by the fact that the WLS entertainers were held up by fog conditions and heavy traffic on the highways and did not arrive until nearly 5 p. m. The various races and games were well contested and those attending enjoyed themselves in spite of the weather. Miss Overstreet, the WLS "Little Maid" had started that day from LaSalle, Ill., and was obliged to come from Michigan City by taxi.

Is Honored For Service Record

Mrs. Bertha Hanover, night operator at the local exchange, was cited for her service record in the September number of the Michigan Bell, house organ for the company. She will complete fifteen years of service here on Sept. 20. Mrs. Hanover's picture was run in the issue.

ATTEND FARM BUREAU MEET

Farm Co-ops Report 46 Pct. Increase Business in Year.

Miss Lena Koenigshof, F. A. Koenigshof and A. J. George of Buchanan, representing Buchanan Co-ops were at Lansing Tuesday Sept. 10, for the annual meeting of the Farm Bureau Services, Inc., which includes as stockholders 113 farmers' elevators, creameries, fruit, potato, live stock and other farmer owned merchandising and marketing associations.

Secretary Clark L. Brody in his annual report to the 300 delegates at the Farm Bureau Services annual meeting, said they have built a powerful commercial-public service relations organization to bring the influence of many thousands of farmers to bear on farm supplies problems and legislative, transportation and taxation matters of interest to farmers.

Leading example for 1935, said Mr. Brody, was the successful culmination to the two year fight waged by the Farm Bureau and associated co-operatives to exempt farmers from the 3% sales tax on goods for agricultural production. Following a favorable verdict in circuit court, the Bureau supported the Flynn sales tax amendments, signed by Gov. Fitzgerald May 24, 1935. The Flynn act is saving Michigan farmers about $1,000,000 a year, Mr. Brody said. The Farm Bureau and co-operatives also supported the bill providing about $22,000,000 annually of State aid for local schools, Mr. Brody said.

Buying by farmers has been increasingly better for two years, said Mr. Brody in reporting the commercial activities of the Farm Bureau with its affiliated co-operatives. He said that the Farm Bureau's 1934-35 season showed a 46% increase in volume over previous year, and with substantial earnings. The Farm Bureau reported much better business in all of its major lines, including: field seeds, mixed feeds, fertilizers, farm machinery, fence, binder twine, spray materials and petroleum products.

Secretary W. R. Ogg of the American Farm Bureau in an address urged support for the Agricultural Adjustment program.

A. A. TO ELECT OFFICERS TUES.

Places City Athletics on Responsible Basis in 1st Year.

Members of the Buchanan Athletic Association are asked to meet at D's Cafe at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday for the election of officers for the coming year.

The Association is closing its first year of existence with a very successful record behind it. During that year it managed independent football, an inter-city winter basketball schedule, in which some 60 players took part, a summer softball schedule in which nearly 100 players were engaged. The club fulfilled the purpose for which it was organized by responsible management throughout, for which much credit is due to the officers, comprising President George Wynn, Vice President, C. E. Detrick, Treasurer Fred Smith and Secretary Paul Wynn. Treasurer Smith has a special vote of thanks coming to him for his accurate and painstaking financial records, a department where former organizations have not been so successful.

As the result of this management a delinquent independent football bill of $40 was paid, an additional $40 was spent for grid materials, all bills consequent to the basketball and softball season were paid and a balance of $53.06 remains in the treasury.

Treasurer Smith has made the following monthly report:

Month	Income	Expense	Bal.
October	$153.09	$56.12	$96.97

William Maggert was picked up by officers Tuesday and returned to the state prison at Jackson, charges having been brought that he had violated a ten-day parole given for the purpose of permitting him to visit his mother here. Maggert was sentenced to 15 years in Jackson about a year ago for breaking and entering the Cammelfield home north of Buchanan. His wife charged that while here he became intoxicated and beat her. About six months after he was imprisoned in Jackson he was paroled out as a trusty to work for a farmer near Jackson.

What Are We Going to Do About Automobile Accidents?

Automobile accidents are increasing. They are increasing right here in Buchanan as well as in Maine, California and Texas and the states in between. Everybody who reads the newspapers knows that. But the question that confronts every American citizen is "What are you going to do about it?" Lots of things have been done in certain communities with some local success but over the country, automobile accidents are increasing instead of diminishing.

In spite of all that has been done one can scarcely drive five miles without seeing one or more examples of unsafe driving. It was recently that a driver going forty miles per hour was seen to pass a load of hay on the curve just south of the Michigan Central railway station. If someone had been driving north around that curve at that moment it would have been just too bad and another accident would have been recorded for Buchanan and vicinity.

In an attempt to encourage safe driving in Buchanan, it is planned to appoint a number of trained observers who will report such unsafe driving. They will have no authority to make arrests but if one driver is reported a number of times, certain methods will be employed to persuade him to drive safely.

North Buchanan

Last Sunday closed this conference year at Ononoko church. If there are any best sermons, Rev. Rice gave one or them on "Striving After Goals." We were pleased to welcome some old friends, Dr. and Mrs. J. Howard Sloan of Hollis, Long Island, N. Y., who sung for us and gave their personal testimony. Dr. Sloan is district superintendent and Mrs. Sloan is a well known evangelist of the Nazarene church. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith also of New York, attended the service. As we start the new year, this little church at the cross roads invites you to come and worship with us. This is a sign we read on our recent trip east: "He who rises from prayer a better man, that prayer is answered."

Portage Prairie

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season was solemnized Saturday evening at 8:30 in the Portage Prairie church when Miss Mary M. Kandupa, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver York, became the bride of Harold P. Widdis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Widdis of Bridgman. The bride's attendants were Miss Dorothy Kell, maid of honor, and Miss Jennie Smith, bridesmaid. Miss Kell wore a pink organdy, floor length dress. Miss Smith wore an ankle length gown of blue satin and both carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums, yellow roses and blue delphiniums. The bride's gown was of white satin with accessories to match, with a full length veil. Roberta Vite carried the bride's train and veil. Her arm bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and roses.

The groom was attended by Bruce Graham of Niles and John Kandupa, brother of the bride. Miss Trella Rough played Lohengrin's wedding march at the entrance of the bridal party. Beverly Jean vite carried a large white lily containing the ring. Barbara Baldwin of Plymouth, was flower girl.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. W. E. Baker sang "O Promise Me." Rev. C. Truemel, pastor of the church read the single ring ceremony, after which Mrs. Baker sang "I Love You Truly." Mendelsohn's wedding march was played for the recessional.

Refreshments were served in the basement of the church to the 300 guests that were present, many from a distance.

The church was beautifully decorated with small cedar trees and pink and white gladiolus. The basement was decorated with pink and white crepe paper and mixed table bouquets of flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Widdis left for their home near Scottsdale, where the groom is employed. Mr. Widdis is also owner of the Widdis Gardens, Buchanan.

The Moving World

Rocking Chairs Going Out—Almost gone—is that once great American institution, the rocking chair. Such is the sad tale told last week by Laurence H. Whiting. As he is the president of Chicago's Furniture Mart, where manufacturers from all over the country show their wares, he should be in a position to know whereof he speaks.

Rockers certainly no longer hold sway in New York City. Women who furnish their homes in early American antiques occasionally buy Colonial rocking chairs, partly to be true to a period and partly to mollify their husbands by giving them at least one comfortable seat. A few modern copies may be seen in the big department stores where they are kept to cater to the dwindling legion of placid folk who still survive. In most standardized furniture stores of today, however, no real rockers are in sight, and one who asks for them gets only a pitying smile.

Although the rocking chair is undoubtedly of native origin, the name of the inventor is not known. The credit has been given to Benjamin Franklin. The link to him is not so definite, however, as is the connection of the office swivel chair with Thomas Jefferson, who was the inventor on record of that device. The ascription to the Philadelphia sage is from a letter written by a man who visited him and found him sitting in a huge rocking chair equipped with a leaf arm for a book and an overhead gadget for shoeing away flies. In 1763 Franklin did contrive iron rockers for the rocking chairs of his day, for as he grew stouter he found metal ones less likely to give way under his weight than the wooden curved skids.

According to such authorities as Mrs. Esther Stevens Fraser and Walter Dyer, the rocking chair came into being in New England. Probably the design was inspired by the thousand-and-one cradles which arrived on the Mayflower and were landed at Plymouth Rock.

There is some indication that rocking chairs were being made and sold in quantities in this country in 1725. C. and D. bills of sale dated in 1774 mention plenty of them.

Try New Style Bus Detroit to Chicago

With many developed features, including increased comfort, more room, better vision, improved ventilation, greater passenger capacity and less weight, a new bus has been put in service between Detroit and Chicago by the Greyhound Lines, it is reported. It will be operated for a trial period, during which its details of construction will be checked, and then it is expected that hundreds of the tested units will supplement and replace the present Greyhound equipment.

The motor of the bus is at the rear, and this permits the driver to sit well up in front, where he is afforded a complete view of the road. The rear engine mounting is also said to mean less vibration, quieter operation and freedom from

Mother! Attention

What to do for baby's diaper rash, chafes, eczema, nits, etc. is safe, sure, kind to baby. Depend on tender, soothing, cooling ZENZAL, a specialist's formula. Just say ZENZAL at Corner Drug Store. So effective for grownup's eczema, rashes, pimples. Many think it magic. Satisfaction or money back.

gas fumes. The passenger deck is raised and passengers in their seats may look out over tops of passing private cars. In spite of this construction, however, it is said that the centre of gravity of the bus has been lowered. The bus seats thirty-six persons and their cushioned, individual chairs can be adjusted to four positions.

"Les Miserables" at Hollywood Theatre

Victor Hugo's immortal classic, "Les Miserables," comes to the Hollywood theatre starting Sunday for a two day run, in Darryl Zanuck's lavish production of the novel for 20th Century Pictures, starring Frederic March, Charles Laughton and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, under the direction of Richard Boleslawski.

The role of Jean Valjean, celebrated convict hero who spends 5 brutalizing years in the galleries of a French prison ship for the theft of a loaf of bread and finds his whole future life darkened by the petty crime, is the greatest undertaking of March's brilliant screen career. Laughton, as the fanatical detective, Javert, who has dedicated his life to the literal interpretation of the law, offers a characterization which affords a psychological glimpse into the strange workings of the mind of a man-hunter.

Sir Cedric Hardwicke, distinguished stage and screen star, is seen as the beneficent Bishop Blenven, whose faith raises the hunted Jean Valjean from an unfeeling beast to a noble and prosperous man.

The story reveals vividly the social conditions in the France of Hugo's day, against which his stirring novel was a dramatic protest. Rochelle Hudson, John Beal and Frances Drake supply a love theme that forms a romantic counterplot to Jean Valjean's desperate career. Alice Tisdale Hobart's best selling novel, "Oil for the Lamps of China" comes Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Hobart spent a large part of her life in China, and after years of collecting her data, spent five years in writing her story of the romance, sacrifice and hardship endured by the men and their wives who are the pioneers in introducing American oil into the Orient.

The picture sweeps from the snow wastes of Manchuria, through picturesque Chinese cities and villages to the torrid interior. There are shots also in the cherry blossom land of Japan and in New York.

Pat O'Brien, Josephine Hutchinson and Jean Muir head the cast which includes John Eldredge, Lyle Talbot, Arthur Byron, Henry O'Neill, Donald Crisp and Ronnie Cosby.

Four California universities furnished the composite campus for Paramount's "College Scandal," at the Hollywood Friday and Saturday. Kent Taylor, Arline Judge and Wendy Barrie are featured. Guy Kibbee and Alice MacMahon appear on the same program in "Mary Jane's Pa."

There's lots of room in the FORD V-8

EVERY ONE who steps into the Ford V-8 for the first time is surprised at its roominess. There's exceptional seat room, leg room and head room in all body types — the whole car gives you a feeling of substantial size.

The Ford gives you extra body room because of the compact design of the V-8 engine — an exclusive Ford feature at a low price. This V-8 engine takes up less space in the hood and permits more of the car's length to be used for passenger comfort. Many a car selling at a higher price does not give you as much interior room as the Ford V-8.

Rear seats are wide and restful . . . three people can ride comfortably in the front seat of the Fordor Sedan, Fordor Touring Sedan, Convertible Sedan and Phaeton, and in the Coupes and Roadster. The seat of the Ford V-8 Roadster is 52 inches wide. A ride in the Ford V-8 will show that it combines unusual body room with fine-car performance, safety and comfort.

Christian Science Churches
"Substance" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all the Christian Science churches throughout the world Sunday, Sept. 15.

Among the bible citations is this passage (1 Tim. 6:12): "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 297): "Faith is higher and more spiritual than belief. It is a chrysalis state of human thought, in which spiritual evidence, contradicting the testimony of material sense, begins to appear, and Truth, the ever-present, is becoming understood."

Holmes Writes of An Opportunity

Editor Record,

In the last Record you speak of "Story of a neglected opportunity." I have no way yet to know what it may be, but you will have to look a long time to find any opportunity than exists in that bed of fine quality blue clay that lies under all that part of town bordering the river from McCoy's creek and the dam.

The Blodgett family used to have a brick yard just north of Portage street, where they made "slop" brick, where they stirred the clay into a thin slop so they poured it into molds, emptied them on their yard to dry, when they stacked them up into an "updraft" kiln and burned, and were sold for $4.50 per M. That class of brick are in the partitions and back walls of buildings.

Next to this comes "stiff-mud" in which the mud is pressed through the machine like the meat through a sausage stuffer, and is the kind mostly made for the cheap class.

Following this comes the "dry-press" brick, such as the smooth brick used for the costly store fronts on Front street, which were brought from Porter, Ind., made by the Hydraulic Brick Co. To make that kind requires a quality which must be so dry that if the finely ground clay be taken in the hand and the hand closed and opened the clay will remain in form, and when the brick is put under several tons pressure, is placed directly into a "down draft" kiln and burned.

Many years ago John Perrott and some one else tried to make brick of some of that bed, somewhere near the old Excelsior works and made a failure of it because they tried to make them by the Blodgett plan. I understand the vari-colored bricks in the wall of the upper two stories of the Rough opera house were that kind.

When we were building the dam we uncovered that bed of clay, made considerable study of it, but so far have been unable to find anyone who would do anything but "phoo" at it because it was not of the Blodgett style. Bricks made from such clay in the dry press are being sold right now in Cedar Rapids for $20 per M.

"Why go West, young man?"
J. G. HOLMES.

Ten Years Ago

J. G. Holmes, former editor of the Berrien County Record, visited the erstwhile scene of his labors this week and told the new editor of the days when he took farm produce for his paper.

Everybody in Buchanan knows Frank R. (Shorty) Sanders, attorney and good fellow, who has been serving since May 1, 1924, as assistant attorney general of Michigan, and was on July 1, 1925, appointed chairman of the Board of Labor and Industry. The Lansing "Capitol Times" says: "The Administration of the Workmen's compensation law requires much legal skill and rare judgment and it is evident that Gov. Groesbeck had this in mind when casting about for a chairman of this highly important board."

Ed. note Sept. 9, 1935: During Atty. Sanders incumbency, no decision of the State Board of Labor and Industry was overruled.

Two men were arrested Saturday after their automobile had crashed into another driven by Mrs. George H. Batchelor. They were released after agreeing to a settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sherwood have returned from an 8,400 mile automobile trip through the West, which they began June 21.

Buchanan filling stations announced Tuesday a one-cent cut in gasoline, immediately following a two-cent cut. The price is now 20.2 cents per gallon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tennie Bunker and son, Keith, and Samuel Bunker drove to Grand Haven last Saturday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis until Monday, when they went to Grand Rapids where the elder Mr. Bunker stopped off to attend the G. A. R. reunion, the rest of the party coming home Tuesday.

Construction of the new golf course on the Niles-Buchanan club's property is progressing. I week the greens are to be planted.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Drie and the latter's brother, C. H. Smith of Chicago, spent the week-end with their parents in Kendallville, Ind.

By persistent study of the offerings of the producers, Phay Graft, local movie impresario, has succeeded in securing for Buchanan pictures which are shown in the suburban theatres of the cities weeks later.

Sugar Beets in Extreme South
The sugar beet requires a temperate climate and climatic condition in the extreme South. Sugar beets will grow, but in a warm climate the tops continue their vegetation growth too long and the roots do not ripen off so as to give the proper sugar content. There is also more likelihood of attack by disease.

County News

New Buffalo Gets Fruit Station
The large 36,000 bushel capacity fruit selling and storage station just completed by Emil Michalski local fruit grower who is well known throughout Berrien county is being opened this week to the public at the intersection of US-12 and M-60.

The new two-story building is entirely of steel and cement block construction and is 40x60 feet in dimension. The second floor will be used as a packing house.

New Buffalo Bank Pays 45% to Depositors
A 25 per cent dividend is being paid this week by the closed New Buffalo State bank.

Since its close in 1932, the bank has paid two five per cent dividends and one 10 per cent dividend, making thus far 45 per cent paid to depositors since its closing.

Herbert E. Roe, who has been the receiver at the bank, has been succeeded by T. Fletcher Gore of Benton Harbor, who is also filling that capacity at the Bridgman bank.

The change was made in order to save expenses in the bank's liquidation.

Sheriff Miller Takes Over Liquor Enforcement

Liquor laws in Berrien county will be enforced by the sheriff's officers, and local police in the cities until further notice, Sheriff Charles L. Miller announced Saturday following a conference at Grand Rapids, Friday, attended by the board of directors of the Michigan Sheriff's association and other law enforcement officers of the state.

"All liquor law violators will be arrested and prosecuted," Sheriff Miller said.

"From the information I obtained at the conference in Grand Rapids, the liquor situation in Berrien county is good compared with conditions in other counties, and I intend to keep it good," the sheriff added.

The resolutions passed by the sheriff's association were in part as follows:

1. Uniform midnight closing hour throughout the entire state.
2. Uniform licenses and regulation.
3. Prohibit patrons and employees under 21 years of age.
4. Prohibit dancing in places where liquor is sold.

Approval by sheriff and prosecutor of all licenses granted in the county, and the approval of the chief of police and prosecutor of all licenses issued in cities.

It was the consensus of most of the officials present at the Grand Rapids meeting that more licenses should be revoked as the strongest weapon of control, and that more rigid investigations should be made of applicants requesting licenses. Mr. Miller stated that authorities reported many greedy license holders selling beer and liquor to minors, and that this practice has been the source of the largest amount of trouble.

Sheriff Miller again issued a warning to bootleggers and liquor law violators that his men would make as many arrests as possible to protect license holders against so-called "chiselers."

County Retires Bond Debt
Michigan's 83 counties are gradually retiring their bonded indebtedness and improving their roads with funds that formerly were used for the construction of state trunkline highways.

Murray D. VanWagoner, state highway commissioner, has estimated that 57c out of every dollar of state highway revenues this year will be returned to the counties. There the money is expended for road purposes under the complicated Horton Act of 1931.

Under the Horton Act 50 per cent of the weight tax is spent by the counties for general maintenance and construction. The other 50 per cent is expended by the counties on the basis of five priorities.

These priorities in order are:
1. Retirement of Covert road bonds. 2. Retirement of general county road and bridge bonds. 3. Retirement of township highway bonds. 4. Maintenance of additional township roads absorbed by the county beyond the 20 per cent annual minimum required by the McNitt law. 5. Balance divided between the county and the cities and villages on a direct population basis.

In addition to the entire weight tax, $2,550,000 is returned to the counties from gasoline tax revenues. The statute requires that the counties spend the first 50 per cent of these funds under the Horton Act priorities. The second half is spent for general highway purposes unless the county board of supervisors directs this money be used for the retirement of bonded indebtedness on roads and bridges.

July Shows Nice Insurance Gains

The agents of the Hastings Windstorm Insurance Co. during July added $5,690,240 of new insurance to the growing volume of that company's insurance risks.

When it is considered that July is ordinarily a dull month for getting new policies, it can be seen that this is a splendid record. Farmers were very busy during July, and it is among the farmers that the great bulk of the Windstorm Co. insurance is secured. This splendid increase in volume of business of this big and successful insurance company during one of the busiest seasons of the year speaks more eloquently than words of the standing of the company throughout the state.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST PENNY

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC CO.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Ask the Physics teacher up at the High School to define a kilowatt-hour. He will tell you that it is equivalent to the work that can be done by about 10 strong men in an hour.

At our low electric rates the average customer pays less than 5 1/4 cents a kilowatt-hour. For a penny he secures approximately the equal of two strong men working for an hour.

Where else can you get such a large penny's worth?

State News

Exempt Cafes from Chain Tax The state chain store tax division has declared that restaurants and other lines of business which it holds, deal more in service than in goods are exempt from the levy. Types of establishments which may have one or more branches without falling under the chain store tax law are: restaurants, beauty parlors, farmers, garages, cash and carry ice stations, laundries, music conservatories, professional firms such as opticians and so forth, plumbers, shoe repairers, taxicabs lines, undertakers and used car lots.

Little was done toward collecting the tax for almost two years because of litigation. The state supreme court recently upheld the act, however, and all chain stores are to be brought under its provisions. Grove M. Rouse, director of the division announced yesterday.

It has been estimated that the chain store tax will yield the state $2,000,000 a year in revenue. The levy ranges from $5 a store on a two-store chain up to $250 a store, depending upon the size of the chain.

Cut State Relief Force in Half State emergency relief director, William Haber, said that he expected to reduce the administrative personnel of his department 50 per cent as WPA gets in full swing in Michigan.

Haber explained that around 4,300 persons have been employed in counties throughout Michigan administering emergency relief. The Lansing office had 225, he said, and that figure has been cut to 125.

A large organization will be maintained to care for the 40,000 unemployed relief cases in Michigan after WPA has its complete program under way. He expects that will be by Nov. 1. He added that WPA now has 7,000 men in Michigan on its employment lists.

Municipal Owned Plants Subject to State Tax

Subscribers to the services of municipal electric and gas plants will pay the three per cent sales tax under an order issued by the state board of tax administration.

Power plants in southwest Michigan affected by the ruling are: Niles, South Haven, Paw Paw, Kalamazoo and Holland.

Chevrolet Sets All-Time August Record

Chevrolet delivered to retail consumers 99,018 new cars and trucks in August, eclipsing its July sales by 4,979 units and setting an all-time August record, it was announced recently by W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co.

August sales were 33,623 greater than in the same month last year, an increase of over 51 per cent, and exceeded every other August in the history of the company including August 1928. This August's sales exceeded the 1928 record by 4,100 units, Mr. Holler said.

Commenting on the heavy volume registered in a month which normally sees a slackening off of automobile business, Mr. Holler cited the Chevrolet sales record as added evidence of improved business. "The fact that our volume increased so sharply over its total for July—itsself an excellent month—shows unmistakably that the country's buying power is increasing, and that there is not only the ability but also a universal willingness on the part of the public to buy," he said.

"We were especially gratified at the uniformity of the improvement in conditions. Every one of the nine Chevrolet regions showed a splendid increase, and this fact forecasts further favorable developments for the remainder of the year."

Foulkes Trampled by Steer George Foulkes, former Fourth Michigan district congressman from Hartford, Mich., was in a critical condition Friday after being trampled by cattle on his farm near Cando, N. D.

He was working with a herd of cattle on one of his farms when the animals bolted.

U. S. About to Complete Isle Royale Purchase

The government's plans for acquiring land for a park on Isle Royale, far out in Lake Superior off the coast of Michigan, had progressed to the point where options on privately owned property are expected in Washington within the next few days.

Since President Roosevelt signed an executive order several weeks ago authorizing the use of $700,000 to buy land and $5,000 to defray the cost of carrying out the purchase plans, work has been carried on quietly and completion of the program is in sight.

"Non-Immigrants"

Generally speaking, "non-immigrant" is applied to any non-citizen who seeks to enter the United States temporarily for business or pleasure. The temporary period is usually limited to six months, but may be extended by authorities for good cause. Non-immigrants are not counted in the quota.

City Approves $189,000 Project

The City commission has approved a WPA project for the installation of approximately 5 1/2 miles of sewers, including trunk lines on Chicago street, Smith street east from Days avenue, Front street, Fourth street and also several sewers on the north and south streets on Liberty Heights and on Days avenue, Oak, Detroit, Lake, Clark, Chippewa and Cayuga. The estimated cost of the entire project is $189,000, the government furnishing all of the labor at the estimated cost of $149,000 and the city all of the materials and engineering at an estimated cost of $40,000. If the project is approved, the city will issue special assessment bonds for its share of $40,000.

Attractive Home Grid Schedule

Buchanan high school offers grid fans one of the best programs of home games to be offered in many years for the 1935 season, with South Haven, Niles, Cassopolis, St. Joseph and State High playing at Athletic field.
