

I. & M. OFFERS CITY BETTER CONTRACT

To Present "The Bishop Misbehaves" at Clark Theatre Tonight

City to Act Monday Night

Now Here's the Proposition

Uncle Hank of Hills Corners Sez:

Trubbel with a lot o' bizness men they think their standing rekwires them to set down all the time.

Essential People. Go and tumble in the river—the ripples cease to shiver. There'll be one to draw your pay and kiss your girl. For the world is not your debtor—though you're good there's twenty better. Who will take your job upon a merry whirl.

Is it business in a minute if there's any money in it? There's a score to take it up and make it go; Jobs? They're waiting by the dozen, everybody and his cousin. To improve on any job that offers dough.

All except—there is no other can step in the shoes of mother. Working payless from the early morn till night, Mending clothes and washing faces, kissing sundry injured places— There is only one on earth to do it right.

But The Chances Are He Won't Give You Any. Just in case one of your acquaintances pulls up in his car and beckons you out mysteriously and says, "You wanta see something? Just come here," and mysteriously hauls out a gunny sack and lets you peer down into its baggy folds—why you will of course know before hand what you are going to see. It will be mushrooms. If you are a mushroom hound, as all the native sons are around here, you will be overcome with a vast enthusiasm, and if you are not, but are afflicted with politeness like we are you will simulate the same enthusiasm, while secretly hoping that there is a toadstool in the mess.

Sewer Dope. We can't quote anybody on this side but we have on it direct on the authority of a man who knows a man who knows a man who's brother-in-law is an engineer that next Friday will be Critics' Day on the local PWA sewer project at which time all unofficial sewer experts of the city will be permitted to take over the shovels and give the PWA force an honest-to-John demonstration of throwing dirt as dirt ought to be throwd. And we got some real shovelers if we can get them on a shovel. Another report still unverified is that the trenches on Front street will not be filled at all so that they will be available to the Republicans and Democrats when the heavy street fighting starts next fall.

At that it is kind of dangerous to leave all these bricks piled up in front of the business houses, with trenches in between. Some of us boys that have been sniping away might stop quarreling and go to fighting.

And another thing the matter with us, according to Fannie, the Front street flapper, is that we are a generation of men who don't know the meaning of the word "stop".

Triangle Track Meet Here Friday. A triangular meet between track teams representing Benton Harbor, New Buffalo and Buchanan will be held at Athletic Field, in place of the county meet which was scheduled for Friday afternoon, May 8, but which did not materialize.

Civic Theatre Presents Comedy

Given as Benefit for American Legion Lot at Oak Ridge Cemetery.

"The Bishop Misbehaves," a comedy hit on Broadway last season, will be presented at the Clark Theatre this evening by the Buchanan Civic Theatre, as a benefit for the completion of the raised mound in the American Legion lot at Oak Ridge.

The curtain will rise for the opening of the three-act play at the Clark Theatre at 8:30 p. m. with a cast of ten, including some of the best amateur talent in the community, well known locally through appearances in former Clark and WLS productions. The cast is: Red Eagen—Kermit Washburn, Donald Meadows—Jack Boone, Hester Grantham—Allie Henry, Guy Waller—A. B. Muir, Mrs. Waller—Mayme Prose is Bishop of Broadminster.

Arthur Johnston, Lady Emil Lyons—Harriet Conrad Collins—Maynard Post Frenchy—James Everingham, Mr. Brooke—Earl Rizzo.

The bishop, an elderly and quite saintly dignitary, stops by accident with his equally mild old sister, in an ugly "pub" tea room just after there has been a serious hold-up and robbery. The Bishop has always had a secret love of the wickedness on display in detective stories, and here is his holiday. He gobbles up clues like an old black rooster among beetles. More than that, he snatches the swag. He leaves the evil place with the stolen jewels in his own pocket. He knows the highwaymen will follow him to the Bishop's Palace. He hides the swag in the nearest humid and awaits his fate. The fate consists of several ruffians, a masked hero and an attractive heroine. Sometimes these enemies have the Bishop at bay, sometimes he has them. It is a game of turning the tables, turning out lights, pistol-pointing, knife-brandishing, out-guessing and out-confessing, until the hero and heroine have won the Bishop's amen and the rumpus is finally over. Not that you don't regret that its over.

You are strongly urged to see this excellent play and support your newly organized Little Theatre. Buchanan needs this type of an organization and with your backing it will have. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the American Legion Post 51 and reserved at Glenn Smith's store. Get your tickets now!

A quiet wedding was solemnized Sunday, May 3, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shepardson of Glendora, when their daughter, Esther, was united in marriage to Robert Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Payne of Three Oaks.

At the appointed hour, Miss Marjorie Wolkins, cousin of the bride, played "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and with the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" the bride and groom, with their attendants, took their places beneath an arch trimmed with spring blossoms. The bride's attendant was her sister, Miss Vera Shepardson, and the groom's brother, Leland Payne, acted as best man.

The impressive ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Louis Kling of Three Oaks in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom. After a buffet luncheon the happy couple left for their newly furnished home on the farm of the groom's father.

Co-ops Win Opening Game

Portage Prairie Boys Defeat Montague's A. C.'s; Sebasty Shows Old Form in Box.

A costly error and a walk cost the South Bend Montague Motor A. C.'s a close fought game with the Buchanan Co-ops at Letcher field Sunday afternoon, the final score being 2 to 0.

Straub, Co-Op second baseman, scored the first run in the fifth when he reached first on a walk, was advanced to second by a sacrifice bunt by Sebasty and driven home by Sellers' single in center field. L. Stroup scored later when he reached first on an error by the South Bend short stop, and was advanced by timely hits by his team mates.

Sebasty was back in his old form in the box and fought his way out of a couple of pinches with fine control. The closeness of the game is revealed by the fact that each team scored five hits and made two errors. Sebasty walked only one man, two being advanced when they failed to dodge close inshoots.

Mill, Pattern Works Are Sold

Co-ops Buys Mill to Renovate; Earl Bristol Buys Pattern Works.

The wheels of change spun around a little faster in Buchanan in the past week, in appearance at least, with changes in management and in appearance in several of the historic buildings of the town, including the Pears Mill, the Bristol Pattern Works, and the Rough Wagon Works building.

One of the interesting landmarks of the town, the old Pears mill, was purchased by the Buchanan Co-ops, Incorporated, for the purpose of renovation into a modern feed grinding establishment. A. J. George, manager of the Co-ops Incorporated, stated that the company plans to replace the old turbine wheel with a 30 horse power turbine wheel, and will do a general feed grinding and mixing business. The Co-ops will prepare and blend their own stock and poultry feeds there. Frank Hamilton of the Buchanan Coops Incorporated force, will be in charge as manager, and Ben Metzgar, who has operated feed grinding business in the mill for several years, will remain as his assistant.

Although full information is not available at the present time, the old structure has a story of over 75 years in extent. Back in the days when Buchanan was a wheat growing district, there were four mills in the town, and the old mill which was built back in Civil war days by William Bainton; father of the late Charles and William Bainton, was a main center of interest for the farmers after harvest time. An easement was secured from Andrew C. Day, whose farm then comprised most of the southern part of the present city, to build the mill race. When the old mill was built a large overshot wheel was used. The capacity was from 60 to 75 barrels per day.

There was then an alley extending south from the intersection of Main and Front streets, where the present Hollywood theatre now is, where the farmers drove their teams drawing loads of wheat across an old bridge to the mill.

At that time there was a third story on top, which was later taken off as a fire hazard for the business district. The story is that in the nineties a new fire fighting apparatus was bought by the village with the understanding that it could throw a stream of water over any building in town. As a test it was found that it could not throw water over the mill, so the village fathers ordered the building cut down to its size. Or so the story goes.

Several wellknown brands of flour were made in the mill, including the Diadem flour. The old mill stones were used, the roller method which superseded it in the early eighties having never been installed. After the milling of flour was discontinued in the nineties, the ground floor of the structure was used for a time as a livery stable by William House.

Of equal interest in the past of town is the old Advent Christian church, built in 1887 and housing the Bristol Pattern Works for the past twenty years.

This company and the building were sold last week by H. S. Bristol to his son, Earl Bristol, who also has a pattern-making establishment at Battle Creek, which he will maintain in connection with the plant here.

H. S. Bristol is terminating over 50 years in the pattern business in Mishawaka, Sherman, Tex., Ft. Smith, Ark., St. Louis, Mo., Chicago, Ill. (Continued on Page 6)

New Contract Offers 21% More Street Lighting at 11% Less Total Cost.

A new 10-year contract for city street lighting to supersede the ten-year contract which has yet two years to run was presented to the city at the May meeting of the City Commission by officials of the Indiana & Michigan Electric company and will be finally acted on at an adjourned meeting to be held Monday, May 11.

The new contract is liberal in its terms, offering 21% additional street lighting service at a decrease of 11% in cost, or an actual decrease in rate of over 30%. The actual saving annually to the city over the contract in effect the past eight years is $750.84, notwithstanding the large service increase.

The City Commission states that action on the contract was deferred until Monday evening in order to give the public an opportunity to express themselves at that time if they desire. This will be the last chance to object.

Sweeney and the granddaughter of Dr. Foster, both deceased, and both former residents of Buchanan.

To Install Cash Carry Ice Office

He will move his station from his home on Chippewa Street to the new location, to be open for business May 15. He is leasing the location from Mrs. Lucy Beistle.

Blues Take On 11-3 Varnishing

The Buchanan Blues lost their opening game to the O'Brien Varnish nine of South Bend by a score of 11-3 Sunday. The locals suffered mainly in the hitting department, although the line-up was short of the services of Johnnie Miller at second, Perry Richter at catch, and Loren and Louis Morse in the field. The visiting nine showed excellent form.

Reamer states that his complete line-up will go to Bangor next Sunday and that they expect to give a much better account of themselves.

ROUND ABOUT BUCHANAN

Mister Dooley in Buchanan
 Although ten days have passed since the death of Peter Finley Dunne, creator of the character "Mister Dooley," it may be of interest to know that Dunne was an occasional visitor from 1900 to 1902 at the D. L. Vanderslice farm on the Niles Road. He came as the guest of William H. Turner, a former manager of the Chicago Journal, who had bought the farm then and retired to it. Turner had made a record in newspaper management under the Booth interests in Grand Rapids, and they had bought the Chicago Journal and sent Turner there. During the Spanish-American war he furthered his reputation. In 1900 he retired, and for two years he was a familiar figure in Buchanan. He made plans to build a beautiful home in the lovely natural park on the river on the north end of the farm, and had actually started it when business reverses overtook him. He went to Grand Rapids, started a paper there, was further involved and died penniless. While on the farm here he dissipated much of his fortune by sizeable social activities at which many of the journalistic headlights of Chicago were his guests, Dunne among them.

DOBBIN ON MOTOR TRANSPORTATION
 You can tell more about a horse's intentions by the way he lays back his ears than by listening to what an auctioneer says about him, according to the experience of Alec Varygas, South Bend, who acquired his knowledge Saturday at the expense of a broken leg, but then Mr. Varygas is a specialist in motor transportation and wouldn't know about that. Varygas came in contact with Dobbin when he contracted with Bert Stover, Berrien Springs, to haul him to his farm 15 miles away in a horse crate on a truck. Stover had bought him at the Hanley Bros. auction. Farmers are so bitten with the speed bug that they have no stomach for personally conducting a trip of 15 miles with a horse on the hoof.

So after much spanking and tail twisting Dobbin was installed in the truck and Varygas, after securely tying his head, started carelessly down the gangway, with the auctioneer's recommendations of his gentleness still as it were, in his ears. Dobbin turned his head and followed the truck driver with a boding eye. When he was about eight he let drive with a powerful hind leg and cracked his tibia and fibula at one smack.

New Features For Parade This Year

Committee Makes Innovations in 1936 Blossom Parade to Eliminate Faults of Former Years.

The 1936 Blossom parade, which will be held Saturday, May 9, will have at least two new features, which it is thought by the committee will assure its moving throughout the line of march in a smooth, efficient manner.

Most important of these is the change in the line of march. The parade will form in St. Joseph this year, and will proceed down State street, to Ship, down Ship to Wayne, then proceed in Benton Harbor on Main street, straight through the business district. The parade will break up on East Main street. This change has been thought advisable by the parade committee because it will eliminate several turns in the line of march . . . the cause of many of the "breaks" in former parades.

As Blossom Week draws near, interest in this most important event of the week is becoming keener, and indications point to a parade which will be outstanding in its beautiful floats, and numerous bands. Twenty-three bands have signified their intention of participating in this event, and the many outstanding musical organizations which come from long distances, sometimes, are always one of the features of the affair.

Promptly at 1 p. m. the parade will begin its four mile trek along streets lined with thousands of persons. Another added feature to facilitate the procedure of the floats is the loud speaking system which will be installed. Connections will be made with the judge's stand, in front of Preston's Lumber Co., and immediately after the parade starts to move, word will be broadcast at the judge's stand. From other points along the line of march, news of the parade's advance can be announced.

Another innovation this year will be the placing of a band at the judge's stand, which will play a concert before the parade. It is said the DeKalb State Teacher's College band is the one selected to play at this location. Members of the parade committee are H. H. Crow, Victor Palenske, George Burchfield, Collins Gillespie, Dean Hogue, and O. G. Brewitz.

Dept. of Ag. Men Accomplish High Average

Looking over a job in the marl pit east of Millburg, which is being worked by the Soil Conservation Department, it was found that the men were accomplishing a big job in a short while. Nine men have aeraged 150 and 166 square yards of marl per day since being on this job. This is an average of 2-3 sq. yards of dirt per hour, per man.

The tractor on the job makes a round trip every six minutes. Farmers of this community buy the marl direct from the pit, at contract prices. It is used as fertilizer extensively throughout this region.

Alert Operator Summons Help for Wounded Man

Mrs. Nina Tait, telephone operator at South Haven, Mich., has been commended by the community for an unusual service which she rendered recently, resulting in saving a man's life after a hold-up. Shortly before 2 a. m. she answered a line signal on her switchboard from a local store, but received no response. Repeating her efforts to get a response, she finally heard sounds which led her to believe that the telephone had been knocked over. Finally she heard heavy breathing and moaning and a few mumbled words, "I am all to pieces."

She then telephoned the store owner and the police. The latter, upon investigating, found the store watchman lying prostrate, gunshots and badly beaten. The physician who removed him to the hospital declared that Mrs. Tait's persistence and prompt action undoubtedly resulted in saving the watchman's life.

Inland Lake Fish to be Protected by State

Beginning May 1, three well-known varieties of game fish will have a legal immunity from fishing for a period of almost two months.

The law declares that no bluegills, sunfish or warmouth bass shall be caught between the dates of April 30 and June 25 in any of the inland waters of the state.

No Wonder Everyone Is Saying: "My next refrigerator will be KELVINATOR"

We, too, say the 1936 Kelvinator is a fine refrigerator. We like the way the company has answered the questions wise buyers ask—about temperatures, operating cost, and service. It has answered with Visible Cold—a Built-In Thermometer shows you that your food is being kept stably, safely, dependably cold. It has answered with Visible Economy—for not only does the you can have a Kelvinator for as little as $1.25 a week.

new Kelvinator use one-half to one-third the current—but a Certificate of Low Cost of Operation shows you, in advance, that current consumption will be amazingly low. It has answered with Visible Protection—for a 5-year Protection Plan gives you signed assurance of long years of service. And the 1936 Kelvinator is a beautiful refrigerator . . . designed with the aid of Count Alexis de Sakhnoffsky. Furthermore, it has dozens of conveniences to lighten the work of preparing meals. So come in and see the 1936 Kelvinator. It will pay for itself and the terms are so easy that it just seems foolish not to own one.

Toppling Trees Hinder PWA Work

37 Men Transferred to Niles; Will Move Hand Force to Main St. Next Week.

Sewer installation on Moccasin Avenue has been slowed down greatly in the past weeks by difficulties with the gas lines, which had to be moved from the center to the side of the street, and by the threatened toppling of the maple trees in the middle of the street. The side roots on the east and west were severed by the trenches and two trees threatened to fall. They were secured by cables.

The force has again been reduced by the transfer of 37 men to Niles, leaving about 175 men now on the local force. Engineers in charge state that the work on Front street is now progressing satisfactorily and the hand excavation on Front should be completed to Oak street next week, where the trench digger will continue excavations up the hill. The hand force will be transferred to the block on Main between Front and Dewey.

Okapi a Forest Animal
The okapi is a forest animal of shy, secretive and nocturnal habits and is found only in a limited area of the Congo, inhabited mainly by pygmy black men who are extremely hostile to white people.

Use for Reindeer
Reindeer are used not only for pulling sledges, but also as an important source of clothing. Every well-dressed Laplander—and his wife as well—has a reindeer suit.

Meaning of "C. I. F."

Tri-Co. Funeral Men Meet Here

Local Directors Hosts at Session at Masonic Hall Tues.

The May meeting of the Tri-County Funeral Directors Association embracing Berrien, Cass and Van Buren counties, was held in Buchanan Tuesday evening, May 5, with the local Funeral Directors acting as hosts. About forty members of the profession were in attendance at the meeting which opened with a three-course dinner served by the ladies of the Eastern Star.

The entertainment feature of the evening was an excellent musical program rendered by Mrs. H. B. Thompson accompanied by Mrs. Josephine Kelley. Mrs. Thompson sang a group of three songs, "Minor and Major" by Spross, "Big Brown Bear" and "I Love Life" by Mona-Zuca. And among those given in response to encores were "By the Bend of the River" by Edwards and "Indian Love Call" by Frihl.

The ladies present formed a theatre party with the wives of the local Funeral Directors acting as hostesses.

The business session was in charge of the President, A. A. Bowerman of Eau Claire. This was followed by several reels of moving pictures showing the progress of manufacturing certain metal used in funeral merchandise.

The speaker of the evening was Bonnie O'Brien of Grand Rapids, who discussed proposed changes in the by-laws of the State Association and the forthcoming convention of the State Association which is to be held in Grand Rapids next week.

The next meeting of the Tri-County Association will be held in St. Joseph on Tuesday, July 7th.

EDITORIAL

Home sweet home. What could be sweeter, dearer to a home, than a mother? She is the one that understands, she solves the problems, always doing more than her share to make everyone happy.

As the cogs of time race along, Mother's value grows so that it is indispensable. Her hair may show shadows of silver but she still maintains her position as a lighthouse in a stormy sea, where all may seek forgiveness and shelter.

But then, Mother has her problems, too, and sometimes she isn't treated with the loving manner to which she is entitled. She always keeps her troubles to herself, never complaining, but trudging on, working out difficulties the best way possible, carrying others burdens as well as her own.

Folk songs of Russia, Italy, Switzerland, Holland, America, Eskimo and Indian songs will be sung by the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Dancers with gay costumes of the countries will be represented, as there are six dancers from every grade.

Those who will be outstanding and who will announce for the grade representing a particular country are Vanessa Paul, Jack Frank, Robert Baulaw, Arthur Elbers, Gomer Dale Gross, Willa Mae Miller, Hadley Borders and Norma Vergon.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE

The agricultural classes are getting ambitious lately! The students under the supervision of Mr. K. Washburn have been cleaning up around the school for the past two or three weeks.

Two improvements they have made are; they planted evergreen trees on the east side of the school building and little plants down by the pool. This work will build up the grounds around the school and be very beneficial to its looks.

SENIORS' FAREWELL

Graduation is drawing nearer and nearer as each day passes by. Within twenty-seven days the seniors will be marching down the aisle ready to receive the receipt for their four years of high school.

This year more than forty seniors will graduate from B. H. S. Although many do not realize it, four of the happiest years of their lives have been spent in this school.

Graduation will come on June 4. After this date the 1936 class will have no more connections with Buchanan high school, except for the memories they carry with them.

MAKE BIRD BOOKS

Miss Bohl's third grade completed part of their project for the school exhibit to be given May 15. The work was bird books in which there were pictures of birds and also their language work concerning birds.

The binding of the books was called Japanese form of binding. The pupils selected blue, green, or orange for the cover of their books. A bird house was mounted on the front of the books.

BAND NEWS

On May 11, the members of the high school band will travel to Watervliet to participate in the band festival. Buchanan will be represented by about fifty pieces. The band has the advantage of two new sousaphones which the school board recently purchased.

Berrien county was the first county in the State of Michigan and one of the first counties in the United States to begin the music festivals.

The festivals are the outgrowth of the contest and their main object is to bring the different high school bands together to play excellent musical literature.

Students also have the experience of meeting the guest conductor, who is, usually, well known in musical circles.

Day after day, I inspect the lines, covering thousands of miles in a year. Rainy days are best for my work for then a serious condition may be revealed by a flash or a hum if the current is leaking. I pack a telephone set so that when the trouble is serious I can attach my phone to the telephone wire that runs with the transmission line and call for immediate repairs.

"It's connected now, Madam"

A TELEPHONE, the moment it is connected, brings definite benefits to a home. Large or small, in city or country, that home is improved by the presence of a telephone.

Of foremost importance is the benefit of protection. A telephone is a form of insurance against fire and theft. It has saved Michigan homes by the speed with which it has brought firemen to the scene. It has routed burglars by its promptness in flashing an alarm to the police. And in times of illness—during those dread hours when there is sickness in the house—a single telephone call can give help of a kind that no one could appraise in terms of dollars and cents.

Another benefit of the telephone shows itself in the work of the housewife. It reduces the drudgery in her daily routine, saves her many steps. Particularly in bad weather does she appreciate the privilege, made possible only by the telephone, of doing her shopping without leaving the house.

In social matters the installation of a telephone can mark a new era in the family life. No longer are the various members of the household out of reach of their friends and relatives. A telephone in the home instantly puts them "in touch." It makes social gatherings and many of the pleasures of friendship available both to adults and children.

The telephone is one of the most worth-while of present-day conveniences. Dependable and economical, the genuine value of its service has made it an accepted feature in the modern Michigan home.

Niles, the nearest branch of the Salvation Army field service, handles not only cases from Niles, but much surrounding territory. Our Women's Home and Hospital at Grand Rapids cares for girls from all over this area. The Salvation Army knows no difference in man, but offers a ready and helping hand to all regardless of creed or race or color. Will you help us help those who need help?
Buy a tag, Saturday, and help the Salvation Army in its practical application of the teaching of the Christ, who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."
