

P. T. A. PLAN ANNUAL MILK FUND DRIVE

County Sun. School Rally at Presbyterian Church Today, Tomorrow

Free Milk Served Here Nine Years

Now Here's the Proposition

There's a lot o' racket made over big deals when the only thing at stake is, who gets the dollar.

Incorrigibly Human I do full many a ratty thing Which often causes me to doubt me At times I scarce know what to do About me And when I do things most unwise I rarely stand and face my breaks But chose to plead the other guy's Mistakes. I hate to take the blame myself; When I can shove it on another, I always do—and how about You, brother? What endless grief they bring us to, Those two incorrigible elves Whose actions plague our waking hours— Ourselves!

Kelley Sisters In M. S. C. Orchestra

Janet and Hope Kelley, of Buchanan, play the violin and cello, respectively, in the Michigan State College symphony orchestra, which is under the direction of Michael Press, internationally known concert violinist, composer, and conductor. Janet is a sophomore and Hope is a junior. The orchestra will present its first concert of the season on December 2 in the auditorium of Eastern high school, Lansing. The soloist of the evening will be Agnes Hemstreet, former student at Michigan State and now a teacher in the Michigan school for the Blind, located in Lansing. Selections by the Orchestra will include Tchaikowsky's Fifth Symphony, Beethoven's Overture to Lenore (from Fidelio) and "Un voce poco fa" from Rossini's "Barber of Seville." One or two short selections will also be included. Mr. Press, the conductor of the orchestra, is head of the violin department of Michigan State. He has directed orchestras in Europe and was at one time professor of violin at the Moscow Imperial Conservatory. He has appeared as guest conductor with the Boston, Philadelphia, and Detroit orchestras.

Boy Qualifies For Movie Double

Kenneth Walkden, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Walkden of the Bend of the River, made a flying change of mounts Saturday that would have done credit to any daredevil film actor, only it was entirely involuntary on the part of young Mr. Walkden. He was bound for the store maintained at the Vergon filling station on River street for a loaf of bread, riding his bicycle. He was met by a motorist who, noticing a slight uncertainty of direction on the part of young Mr. Walkden, had almost brought his car to a stop when the two vehicles collided and Kenneth left the saddle of the bike and landed on the fender of the car. He was not hurt but his bicycle was not so fortunate. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rizer and family and Henry Swem will spend the coming week-end in Oak Park, Ill., the guests of the latter's brother, C. E. Swem.

Noted Speakers To Be on Program

Olivet College Orchestra To Be Heard Friday Night

One of the best programs in recent years is in store for the 57th annual convention of the Berrien County Sunday School Association, according to officers of that group. The meeting will be held Thursday and Friday, Nov. 12 and 13, in the Presbyterian church at Buchanan, with the exception of the final Friday evening meeting which will be held in the high school auditorium. Main speaker for the afternoon and evening sessions on Thursday will be Rev. Roscoe Wilson of South Bend, who has gained national prominence from his extraordinary success as a Sunday School builder. Dr. Stewart Cole, new president of Kalamazoo college, will conduct a forum discussion on Friday afternoon on the topic, "Do Youth and Adults Understand Each Other in the Church?" One of the highlights of the convention will be the Young People's banquet at 6 p. m. Friday. Superintendents report reservations are already being made. Dr. Cole will be the banquet speaker and will give his final address at the final session Friday evening in the high school auditorium. Lloyd Zoschke, president of the association, announced today that the Olivet orchestra, under the direction of Pedro Pax, has been secured for a concert at 9 o'clock Friday evening preceding Dr. Cole's address. The engagement was arranged by J. N. Klock, trustee of the association. Last year they played to a capacity audience of 1,000 people in the concluding session and was the unanimous choice again this year. Another outstanding addition to the program will be the appearance on Friday of Mrs. Charles E. Tomkins, a missionary to China since 1902. Mrs. Tomkins is an expert in child education, having taught in the kindergarten in SuiFu, China, for 34 years. Rev. R. B. Spurlock, Berrien Springs, will have charge of the devotions on Thursday and Friday afternoons and Rev. Thomas Rice of Buchanan, will conduct the service Thursday evening. The song services will be in charge of Rev. W. H. Brunelle, pastor of the Buchanan Presbyterian church. Superintendents, pastors, and the officers and trustees of the association will hold their business meeting Thursday afternoon and the annual election of officers will be held at 4:15 on Friday afternoon.

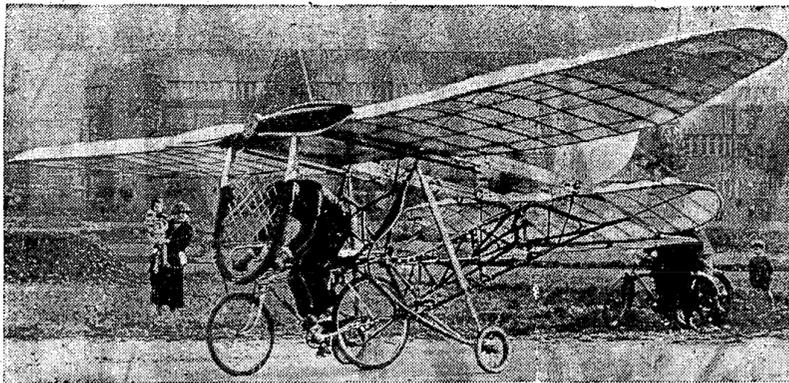

3rd Case Infantile Paralysis Appears

Stringent measures were instituted Monday to safeguard the pupils of the Buchanan schools against outbreaks of infectious diseases by sending home all children with colds and sore throats, as the result of the appearance of another mild case of infantile paralysis. Robert Yoder, 9-year-old student in the fourth grade room taught by Mrs. Alma Fuller, went home ill with a cold Thursday. Saturday his case was pronounced a form of infantile paralysis, as one arm was paralyzed. He has a sister who has been attending the ninth grade. This is the second case pronounced infantile paralysis which has appeared among Buchanan children this fall, the first being the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fairman. Following an arm fracture, the injured member was pronounced by physicians to be infected with infantile paralysis.

Aerial Bicycle Flies—When It's in the Mood

A flight over the English channel is the ambition of M. Francois Baudot, ex-chief engineer of the Bleriot airplane works, who has created this aerial bicycle. The "plane" is shown in a trial run at Issy-les-Moulineaux near Paris. This run was just to "assert" the patents, and because of weather conditions and improvements that are still needed in propulsion, the flying bicycle had to satisfy itself with merely taxiing just above the ground.

Bucks Lose to Dowagiac 26-7

Locals Gain in Midfield, Lack The Scoring Punch

(By Chuck Wesner) When the smoke of battle cleared away last Saturday afternoon Buchanan's Bucks were left holding the bag on the short end of a 26-7 count. As has happened quite a few times this year the Bucks grabbed the pigskin and started a touchdown drive. The boys drove the oval to the 3 yard stripe and then Smith committed a costly fumble giving the ball to the Chiefs. They punted and Buchanan returned the ball to the "Jacks" 20. Jesse dropped back and heaved a short pass intended for Virgil however Taggart, chief signal backer, intercepted the pass and dashed 80 yards behind a six man interference to a touchdown. Dowagiac determined to roll up a large score left her veterans in and in the second stanza shoved over another score. Kehrer, "Jack" left half, reeled off several sizeable gains of about 19 yards which put the oval in scoring position on the two yard marker. Taggart was given the ball on the next play and he plunged over center. Dowagiac's third goal came in the same canto. The Chiefs passing game started clicking with Helmstra doing the tossing; Kasniak got in the open over the Buck goal line and Helmstra rifled a 25 yard pass into his outstretched arms. Kehrer converted the extra point from placement. Buchanan broke into the scoring column midway in the last stanza as a result of a 50 yard scoring drive. Earl Stevens hit the Chief line on the 3 yard line and broke through for the score. Smith booted the extra marker from placement. With scarcely three minutes to play the Dowagiac mentor sent in his regulars whom he had taken out at half time. They opened up to get revenge for the one score chalked up by the Bucks aided by a 15 yard penalty on Buchanan they placed the ball on the 7/2 yard line. Taggart scored, it being his third of the fray. Kehrer kicked the extra point. Score by quarters: Buchanan 0 0 0 7-7 Dowagiac 6 13 0 7-26 Touchdowns: Taggart (3), Kasniak, Stevens. Point after touchdown: Smith, Kehrer (2).

Published The Record for 19 Years; Built City Light and Power Plant

The Record lost an old friend last week in the person of John G. Holmes, its former owner and editor, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. J. Hansen, 1132 J Avenue Northwest, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Wednesday, Nov. 4, at the age of 84. Holmes entered into partnership in 1875 with Will Kingery, a brother of Miss Kathryn Kingery and H. F. Kingery, in the publication of the Record. On the death of his partner soon after he became sole owner and publisher, continuing in the business until 1894, when he sold out. Meanwhile he had pioneered in the development of a dam and light and power plant here, building Buchanan's first light plant and operating it for a time. Holmes had persistently championed the idea of developing the light and power resources for more than a decade before he finally embarked in promotion himself. He also promoted the erection of the city water works. He later disposed of his light and power plant here and went to Boone, Iowa, where he secured a franchise for the Boone Gas company of which he was the superintendent for several years. After disposing of his interests there he had lived the last seventeen years of his life at Cedar Rapids. Mr. Holmes, youngest son of Enos and Louisa Adams Holmes, was born Oct. 4, 1852, in Berrien county, Mich., where he grew to manhood, receiving his education at Hillsdale college, Hillsdale, Mich. On Dec. 27, 1876, at Dayton, Mich., he was united in marriage to Juliette Scidmore, who preceded him in death in 1919, after which he went to Cedar Rapids to make his home with his daughter. In 1899 he removed to Boone, Iowa, where he had secured a franchise for the Boone Gas company, of which he was superintendent for a number of years, later disposing of his interests. For the last seventeen years he resided in Cedar Rapids. He is survived by his two daughters, Mrs. Grace Hansen, 1132 J avenue NW, and Mrs. Clara Pope, 1212 Fourth avenue SE; also two granddaughters, Margaret and Jeanice Eddy, daughters of Mrs. Pope. Services were held at the Moeen funeral home Saturday at 9 a. m. in charge of Dr. A. A. Brooks. Burial was made at Linwood Park East, in Boone.

Florence Philips Expires in Texas

Remains of Mrs. Florence Philips, 29, are expected to arrive today from Mercedes, Texas, where she died about 1 p. m. Monday, according to wires received here. Mrs. Philips was the daughter of Charles Hoffman, and was born in Buchanan Oct. 3, 1907. For several years she was employed and made her home in Niles. No definite word has been received regarding the cause of death. Relatives here received a letter from her two weeks ago stating that she was then well. She was married last spring to Archie Phillips, who survives her, and the couple went to Texas to live. In August she returned for a visit and to accompany back her daughter, Dionne Dittmar, aged 8 1/2 who had been making her home there since. In addition to the relatives mentioned above she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Maurice Dalrymple. It is expected that the funeral will be held Saturday but definite arrangements have not been made.

Present Vesper Service Sunday

A vesper service of drama and music will be presented at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, Nov. 15, at 5 p. m., with a program featured by a musical and a sparkling comedy, "Soup and Sage Brush," given under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society.

Dry-Zero To Open in Month

The local plant of the Dry Zero corporation will be ready for production in about a month, according to General Superintendent Norman Easter, who was in from Chicago yesterday in company with J. E. Ulrich, who will be superintendent of the local plant. Ulrich stated that the initial employment would amount to about 60, of who two thirds would be women. Mrs. B. Holman of the Chicago office was in the commission chamber at the city hall registering applicants for employment. Three women were to be selected to go to Chicago for a month's course of instruction. Installation of the overhead sprinkling system was completed this week and the structure is being wired. One line of machines has been installed and another line will be ready when the plant opens. It is planned that more lines may be installed as production is shifted here.

Andrew Huss Tells Tale of Days When They Harvested Primeval Forest

Marvin Cathcart Took Picture of Whitewood Log Six Feet Through Butt

Over sixty years ago a 14-year-old boy hove in sight at the brow of Front street hill in Buchanan, hauling a huge log on a sled drawn by horses. Marvin Cathcart, the village photographer, was standing in front of the Tremont House, where the Legion building now is. "His eyes opened wide as he saw the log the boy was hauling. 'Wait a minute, son,' he sung out, 'I want to take your picture.'" So young Andrew Huss, for he it was, waited in front of the Tremont House, perched on his big whitewood log, six feet through the butt, which he was hauling from his father's farm six miles west of Buchanan to the Weisgarber sawmill where the pickle receiving station now is. Cathcart brought out his old-fashioned picture-taking outfit and took his shot and if any of the prints exist they will give you an idea of the size of the trees of the primeval forests around Buchanan. Then young Huss swung down Oak street to the Weisgarber mill. Weisgarber saw him coming and his eyes also popped. "Son, I can't see that log in my mill," he said, "you'll have to get your daddy to blow it before my saw mill will take it." So Mathias Huss had to come to town and drill a hole in the log and tamp it with powder, setting it off and splitting the log with the blast. The great log sawed out 1616 feet from its twelve-foot length, which is sizeable enough. Mathias Huss had hired Pat Whalen to cut off the twelve-foot section, paying him a dollar for the job. And if you go out to the old Huss farm, now owned and occupied by Frank Wright, you may see some of the whitewood boards sawed out of that huge log in the ceiling of the attic.

A. F. Peacock Is Called By Death

Albert F. Peacock, one of Buchanan's best known older men, passed away early a Saturday morning at the home of his daughter in Detroit. He was born at West Walworth, Wayne county, New York, September 7, 1851. In 1855 he moved to Corunna, Michigan, with his parents where he grew to manhood. In April of 1879 he went to Ann Arbor where he entered the employ of the Michigan Central railroad as cashier and freight clerk in the freight office in that city. In the summer of 1882 the company transferred him to Buchanan to be their freight and ticket agent here. He occupied this position until November 1903. He then engaged in the contracting and building business for a number of years until his health forced his retirement. On May 18, 1883, he was united in marriage to Miss Jennie A. Mead of Buchanan, and to this union was born two children, Albert Peacock, now of Peoria, Illinois and Miss Marion Peacock, a teacher in Detroit. Besides these two he leaves an adopted son, Harold Peacock, also of Peoria, Illinois. Mrs. Jennie A. Peacock passed away at their home on Days Avenue, January 2, 1923. On July 5, 1925, Mr. Peacock was married to Miss Anna Mead of Buchanan, who passed away January 24, 1936. He is also survived by two grandchildren. Funeral services were held Monday at the Childs Funeral Home conducted by Rev. Thomas Rice of the Methodist Episcopal church of which Mr. Peacock had been a member for many years. Interment was made in Oak Ridge cemetery.

Heavy Increase In R. R. Freight Here

The month of October was the best in recent years in terms of in-going and out-going freight from the local Michigan Central Station, according to station agent Hansen. A total of 153 carloads of freight were received and 52 were shipped out, as compared with a total of 92 received and 49 shipped out during October of 1935. The outgoing shipments of October, 1935, were swelled by a shipment of 20 carloads of apples sent to Milwaukee by the House of David apple farm on the Range Line Road, which brought the total much closer to the mark of this year than it would otherwise have been. During the current year, up to Nov. 1, 1227 cars had been received and 303 shipped out, as compared with 776 received and 181 shipped out last year.

Maroons Set For State High Upset

Kalamazoo Team Undefeated Since Loss to Locals Two Years Ago

Buchanan fighting Bucks are determined to upset Western State High School's powerful undefeated eleven when they meet them Nov. 14 on the Western State College field. Western State High possesses a passing attack of forwards and laterals that some college teams do not attempt. They haven't been defeated since Buchanan trounced them two years ago. The State boys took St. Joe's hopes of an unblemished season and drug it through the dirt. Buchanan has been off and on all season sometimes a quarter and again a whole game. The law of averages seems to foretell that the Bucks can emerge victorious if they play heads up ball. It will be the last game for a certain group of seniors namely, Captain, Joe Bachman, Virgil, Jesse, Polley, Boyce, Hansen, Yurkovic, Kelley and Kuntz. These seniors are going to do their very best and to end their career they're going to win. They have it all talked up and have a good chance of carrying out their statements.

Seats Reserved For Faculty Play

Those wishing reserve seats for "The Youngest," the play which is to be given by the Buchanan Faculty Club, will be able to reserve them at Glenn Smith's store on and after Monday, November 9. The cost of reservation will be ten cents. The play is to be given at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium on November 20. The cast includes the following members of the school faculty: Mrs. Winslow ---- Eunice Miller Oliver Winslow ---- John Elbers Mark Winslow ---- Earl Rizer Augusta Winslow Martin, Genevieve Carnagan. Alan Martin ---- Claude Carter Martha Winslow, Allegra Henry Richard Winslow, Kermit Washburn. Nancy Blake ---- Emma Bohl Katie ---- Orpha McNeil The play is being coached by Velma E. Dunbar, assisted by Lucille Quade.

Two Roof Fires on Charles Court

The fire department answered two calls for roof fires on Charles Court Tuesday, one at the Treat flat in the morning and the other at the Dempsey house, occupied by Bert Metzgar. The damage in the first fire was negligible. A hole about 4 feet across was burned in the roof of the Dempsey home, and some damage was done by chemicals.

State Police Have 224-ft Radio Tower

State Police continued to move forward in their fight to control crime and to make the State a safer place in which to live. The latest step in their advance is the new 224-foot radio tower, built in conjunction with the new Fifth District headquarters at Paw Paw. Building and tower were dedicated Oct. 29, and the tower is expected to be ready for use this month.
The Paw Paw tower was needed to augment that at East Lansing because unknown geological conditions in the western part of the State interfered with the signals of the State Police. The new tower is expected to erase that trouble. It has a power of 1,000 watts.
Its construction presented a novel engineering problem in the radio field. The only available area for the tower was the center of a lake. Accordingly, the lake was drained, the tower erected and its copper radiating wiring buried in the lake bed. It is an unusual sight, looming into the sky from its wavy surroundings.
A third tower is being built at Houghton Lake, along with another State Police building. This tower is to be 324 feet high and will have a power of 5,000 watts, equal to that of the East Lansing station. It is expected to be completed next spring and will relay police signals into the northern part of the State.
State Police radio officers point out that the new equipment is the most up-to-date that money can buy. It has been purchased to put a stronger guarantee on the safety of Michigan residents. It is not just State Police equipment, but is provided for the use of all police departments in the State, officials emphasize.
Many police officers in smaller communities have neglected to invest in radio equipment. State officers stress the fact that a crime committed in Monroe County—just for an example—is of vital interest to Cheboygan officers as it is to the Monroe sheriff, because dangerous criminals, using speedy autos, can be in Cheboygan a few hours after committing their crime in Monroe.

For Michigan SUGAR BEETS

How To Get Your Share

Nature has been unusually kind to the growers who farm in the sugar beet areas of Michigan. Your natural soil is just about "made to order" for a profitable planting of Sugar Beets.

Naturally incomes vary from season to season. Circumstances control them. One year they are good—another not so good, etc. But that is true of any business.

In this matter of making a living, we must consider the long pull.

The essential consideration, from every standpoint, in the profitable growing of Sugar Beets, is to stick to a regular acreage in beets every single year. If you do that you will make more money in the long run.

Here's why: Sugar Beets fit into your rotation program admirably.

For you grow beets not only to make money but also for the beneficial effect on your soil.

The growing and proper cultivation of beets gives to your soil those necessary properties required to keep it healthy, fertile and productive of other crops in the natural cycle of rotation.

Your rotation might be clover, corn, then Sugar Beets, then oats or barley, but whatever might be the best rotation for your locality, you'll be money ahead if you plant beets every single year.

Now here is another important point: Beets are unusually "tough". They can "stand the gaff". As a matter of fact, beets, more than any other crop, develop in wet weather, in dry weather, in hot weather and in cold weather.

This means that when you grow beets and get up against adverse weather conditions, you are more certain of a good yield than you are with any other cultivated crop.

You can make more money on Sugar Beets on a year in and year out basis than you can from any other crop, and there are ample facts to back this statement.

You'll always get your just share of Michigan's $10,000,000 Sugar Beet crop if you stick to a regular Sugar Beet planting year after year, after year.

WHY GAS IS EVERYWHERE THE PREFERRED COOKING FUEL

- 1 Gas Cooking Is Completely Modern
Gas is the modern fuel for cooking. No other fuel can match its unique combination of speed, efficiency and economy. And now, the attractive new ranges make gas, more than ever, the perfect cooking fuel.
- 2 Gas Cooking Is Fastest
With gas, you get quick, instant heat that saves time and gives you extra leisure.
- 3 Gas Cooking Is Most Flexible
With gas, you can have any speed you want, from slow simmering to fast boiling. This means less pot watching and more leisure.
- 4 Gas Cooking Is Clean
Gas is a clean fuel, and with a modern gas range, spic-and-span cleanliness is always assured.
- 5 Gas Cooking Requires No Special Vessels
Because gas is a simple, practical, easy-to-use fuel, no costly, specially designed vessels are needed. Round bottom vessels, square bottom, flat, or dented—it makes no difference to gas.
- 6 Lower First Cost Of Gas Ranges
Because of large volume production—with over a million gas ranges sold each year—you can buy a high quality modern gas range at a very low cost. We invite you to make your own price comparisons.
- 7 Lower Upkeep Cost Of Gas Range
Average upkeep or maintenance cost of the modern gas range is estimated at $1.00 for the life-time of the range—or only 5c per year. You know this from your own experience.
- 8 Gas Ranges Are More Attractive
A greater variety of types and colors to choose from insures the gas range matching your color scheme and your kitchen arrangement.
- 9 Gas Cooking Is More Economical
Modern gas cooking is far and away the most economical of all automatic cooking methods.

See the Modern Gas Ranges

If you haven't seen the new gas ranges, you have no idea how beautiful, efficient and convenient they are! Come in and inspect them. They will delight you with their many new convenience features, and they will convince you, as nothing else can, that gas is now, as it always has been, and always will be, the ideal cooking fuel.

HOW TO COOK a Turkey

GIVE your family and guests roast turkey as it should be by roasting it in the moist even heat of an Electric Oven.

See how easy it is: Prepare turkey with salt and butter, place in shallow oblong pan (not a covered roaster—moist, even electric heat does away with the need for clumsy utensils). Place roast in oven, turn switch to "Bake"; set temperature to 275°-325°; Time 25-30 minutes per pound. And believe it or not, that's all there is to it—no basting, no turning, no watching. The turkey will have a crackly, glistening brown skin and the meat will have a luscious juiciness that only electric roasting can give.

Rats Take False Teeth, Then Get Silverware

Orville, Calif.—When trade rats carried away a set of false teeth from a cupboard bowl P. W. Wallace thought the limit had been reached. He didn't expect they would carry off the silverware as well, he said. Near the chimney in the attic of his home Wallace found three spoons, three knives, two forks and a collection of sunflower seeds. How the rats managed to carry the silverware into the upper part of the house was a mystery.

Cost 30 Lashes in 1723 New York.—Before you swear at a judge for fining you $1 for not obeying a "Keep off the grass" sign, consider the case of Hector, a mullatto, who trespassed in the year 1723.

According to a document recently unearthed by the research workers of the Historical Records survey, Hector was fined 30 lashes—to be absorbed in three different sections of the town, 10 at a standing.

Glamorous Star in "The Gorgeous Hussy"

Presenting to filmgoers the glorious new dramatic team of Joan Crawford and Robert Taylor, with Lionel Barrymore as the third co-star, and a magnificent supporting cast which includes such screen headliners as Franchot Tone, Melvyn Douglas, James Stewart and Allison Skipworth, "The Gorgeous Hussy" comes Sunday to the Hollywood Theatre for three days as one of the outstanding productions from the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.
The picture, filmed by that directorial genius, Clarence Brown, is based on the best-selling novel of the same name by Samuel Hopkins Adams, and presents Miss Crawford in her first costume role in the part of the historically famous Peggy O'Neal, innkeeper's daughter, who became one of the most glamorous and influential women in Washington social and political circles.

Friday and Saturday Bill
An arrest for speeding and a fatal traffic accident open the Paramount thriller-romance, "And Sudden Death," coming Friday. The picture is inspired by the Reader's Digest article which made a national sensation when it appeared recently.
Frances Drake appears as the speed-loving, irresponsible daughter of a wealthy citizen. Arrested for reckless driving, she falls in love with Randolph Scott, police official who is leading a battle against highway killing.

Now comes Dick Foran, the "Singing Cowboy," in a new type of Western, one without a single cowboy, the First National melodramatic thriller, "Trailin' West." There are "Injuns" in it, however, and even more thrills than in the ordinary Western, with a stage coach hold-up and the capture of a U. S. pack train, loaded with gold, by bad Indians led by whites.

Wednesday and Thursday
A sympathetic romance, featuring two of the most capable dramatic players of the screen. Gertrude Michael and Walter Abel, forms the basis of "Second Wife," the love story of a widower who seeks to make a new home for himself and his young boy, and of a girl who accepts him in preference to a younger and wealthier suitor. This story is told in a timely and sympathetic fashion that makes the picture of unusual interest to all women.
"I'd Give My Life," with Sir Guy Standing, Tom Brown, Frances Drake and Janet Beecher, was adapted from "The Noose," outstanding Broadway stage success of ten years ago. "The Noose" was written by H. H. Van Loan and Willard Mack.

George Vanderbilt, the donor (left), is shown presenting the new Vanderbilt cup to Tazio Nuvolari, Italian driver, who won it recently, on the new corkscrew Roosevelt raceway, in competition with 44 of the world's most noted daredevils of the jalopi sport. In the 300-mile race, on the 4-mile twisting track, Nuvolari led all the way and got all lap prizes except one.

Michigan To Send Second Democrat To U. S. Senate in Over 80 Years

Election Records Show State Reflects National Tendencies
Michigan deserves the name of being a national political barometer much more than Maine if you actually consider the record.
A survey of the elections of the state shows that it was normally Democratic before the middle fifties, when its opponent, the Whig party, went out of existence in the disintegration of political parties caused by the appearance of the slavery issue. After the Republican party was organized under the Oaks at Jackson, Michigan, became normally Republican, and has since remained in that camp, save for occasional defections which have always accurately reflected the trend over the nation.

The first defection from the Republican ranks was the election of Begole by the Fusion party, an alliance of the Democrats and Greenbackers in the state. That was apparently an accident for at the next election Begole was defeated. But in 1890 the upsurge of the Democratic party under Cleveland was reflected by the election of a Democrat, Winans, in Michigan. In 1892 Michigan swung back in the G. O. P. ranks and remained there until 1912 and 1914, when a Democrat, Ferris, became a beneficiary of the Bull Moose split in the Republican ranks and was elected for two terms.
In 1916 a Republican, Sleeper, was elected, and Michigan thenceforth voted Republican by increasingly huge majorities. The high mark in Republican majorities was the election of Green to the Governorship in 1928 with a plurality of 556,633 over his Democrat rival.
In 1932 William Comstock rode the Roosevelt landslide into the governor's chair. The state went back to its accustomed moorings in 1934, but this year Murphy coasted in to the office.
The election of Brown to the federal senate marks the second Democrat to be elected from Michigan in the 83 years since the organization of the Republican party in 1854. The first was Ferris, who took his seat in 1923 and held it until death when he was succeeded by the appointment of Vandenberg.

Corn Meal Fund Low, Street Dances Wait

Santa Barbara, Calif.—On eve of starting a program of weekly street dances on the pavement the city council finds itself unable to locate a fund from which corn meal money may be drawn legally.
The meal is needed to slicken up the asphalt paving so that it gains dance floor semblance. City Engineer Moore issued an appeal to shoe merchants to contribute a fund that would allow the expenditure of $1 a week for corn meal. Increased shoe sales as result of the wear and tear of weekly dancing was cited as argument in favor of shoe dealers footing the bill. The orchestra plays as a WPA project.

New Cooling System For Fruit Hauls

Method Will Help Berrien County Fruit Crop Reach Market in Good Condition.

New methods of refrigeration for short hauls, which may make pre-cooling available to fruit growing regions of the midwest, are described in an article in "Agricultural Engineering," journal of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, which is published in St. Joseph. The method described was worked out by engineers at Purdue University.

Pre-cooling is not new to the produce industry. California alone shipped 60,000 refrigerated cars of fruit in 1935. The type of refrigeration practiced on the west coast, however, requires too big an investment in machinery and buildings to make it practicable for the midwestern regions, where the growing seasons are short, and the freight haul to the terminal markets is short.

The Purdue method does not require the use of buildings in which to pre-cool consignment. The older method required considerable time for the "field heat" of the berries to be overcome by the ice in refrigerator cars, as it depended on the slow, natural circulation of air within the car. With such perishables as strawberries and raspberries, the fruit towards the top of the car became too ripe or began to mould unless the air circulation is stimulated.

In the Purdue method electric fans are put in the cars which have been supplied with ice, properly salted to intensify the cooling action. Electric fans are placed in the car to stimulate circulation of the air. The process has been perfected, according to the magazine, so that sufficient chilling has been accomplished in four hours. One of the principal problems in this method is the placing of the fans to get the maximum benefit from their power and their location inside the car.

Another new method is the use of a portable refrigerating machine, mounted on a truck and driven by a power take-off from the truck motor. This machine is attached to the door of the refrigerator car and cold air is circulated by a large blower. The portability of the machine makes it possible for use at different seasons and in widely different localities. It avoids the high investment and the limitations of the building type of pre-cooling equipment.

Pre-cooling experiments of the Purdue engineers indicated, substantial financial returns for fruit growers, if it should be adopted generally. They began working on it in 1933 for the aid of the Indiana strawberry growers.

One car of strawberries, shipped by refrigerator car from Indiana to Minnesota, commanded an extra profit of $63, which Minnesota buyers were willing to pay for fresh berries. In addition, the Minnesota buyers paid the pre-cooling fee of $15 a car. The new pre-cooling methods birds any to have things pointed out to them. If they can't take it they had no business getting into politics."

Local weather prophets are talking exception to the caterpillars as prognosticators, saying that a hard winter is in store. They call attention to the big nut crop—walnuts, you know, and so forth. The old belief is that providence provides for the squirrels by furnishing plenty of nuts in advance of a hard winter. Also they claim the robins left unusually early and the rabbits turned white early.

F. R. Montague (the F. stands for Ford) is reported to be progressing very satisfactorily from the effects of the knee injury which he received recently, and he is expected back in his place of business in a few days.

Atty A. A. Worthington has been back at his office part of the time in the past week after an illness of seven weeks.

We've said it before, and we repeat that Gottlieb Thumm has the most interesting winter hangout we know of, at Captiva Island off the west coast of Florida, where the old Buccaneers of the Spanish main used to hold their captives, and possibly bury their gold. If we could find an island where we could dig up enough gold we could go south for the winter too. Mr. Thumm has never said anything about gold, but you ought to hear his fish stories.

can be adapted to the fruit growing sections of Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Georgia and other states, the magazine says. Its advantages are that consumers get more and finer fruit, growers get better prices, and there can be a minimum of waste in fruit that is grown and shipped, but which is in such condition when it reaches its destination that it cannot be eaten.

"This cooling in the car promises vast, though as yet, indefinite gains," the magazine says. "If the $63 premium is applied to a total of greater than the present amount of pre-cooling in California alone, it means $3,780,000.00 more money for farmers."

"At the rate of $15 a car for the pre-cooling fee, it means $900,000 a year to filter back to operators; to makers of electric fans, trucks and refrigerating machinery; to producers of electric power, gasoline and lubricants."

The experiments were announced by T. E. Hinton, agricultural engineer and project leader in rural electrification, and by K. I. Fawcett, a horticulturist. Both are connected with the Purdue university agricultural experiment station.

Tombstone of First Wife Pays for Second Wedding

Belgrade.—By selling his first wife's tombstone to raise funds for his second wedding, Achim Gavrilovitch, in the town of Valyeva, lost his new fiancée. Gavrilovitch, a fifty-year-old peasant, after the death of his first wife, fell in love with another woman, but lacked the money for the marriage license. He, therefore, agreed with a stonemason to sell him the tombstone of his first wife for $3. The two men crept into the churchyard at night and carted the heavy stone away. The deal became known, and the fiancée was so shocked that she refused to marry Gavrilovitch.

Girls Outspend Boys

Napa, Calif.—Girls are heavier spenders than even boys. Miss Parker, school teacher, requires her pupils to keep accounts of all money spent. Over a five-month period boys spent $1,166.46 or an average of about $10.50 a month, while the same number of girls averaged $11.53 each.

Dog Buried Eight Days Rescued by Boy Comrade

Santa Cruz, Calif.—A wire-haired dog, buried for eight days, was rescued here by his playmate, Jack English, nine, from death in a rabbit hole. The boy and others searched for the dog for eight days without result. While visiting a remote part of a neighbor's yard the English boy heard a faint whine which seemed to come from underground. He investigated, and found a rabbit hole caved in. It was believed the dog pursued a rabbit too far into its hole.

Responsibility Act Gets Mostly Drunks

The recent expiration of the first three years operation of the Financial Responsibility Act has revealed several interesting developments, according to records in the Department of State. In the first place, while the act was framed to curb the driving of those who fail to satisfy damage judgments returned against them, actually less than 200 drivers were involved for this reason during the three year period. More than 10,000 drivers ran afoul of the act during this time. While those failing to meet judgments returned against them for damages, are barred from the highways until the judgment is satisfied, others involved for a considerable list of other reasons—all violations of the motor vehicle act—are barred for three year periods, unless they meet rigid requirements. Less than 15 per cent of all drivers involved have been able to meet these conditions.

The 1935 legislature amended the Financial Responsibility Act, removing 1,552 drivers from the barred group, leaving 3,874 barred by the act. Of these, 8,162, or nearly 91 per cent were barred from driving on conviction of drunk driving charges.

The three year suspension period for those first under the act, convicted for motor vehicle violations, expired October 17, third anniversary of its effective date.

COMBATS SILICOSIS

New sand-blasting helmet invented by William P. Biggs, safety engineer of the Navy department, is said to afford complete protection against silicosis. The helmet consists of a rubberized silk hood slipped over the mask covering the head and shoulders and extending to the stomach. The entire helmet weighs only 43 ounces.

Legion Gives American Flags to Schools

In one of the most far reaching patriotic movements ever attempted in Michigan, three state organizations have joined forces in bringing to each rural school room in Michigan an American Flag. Under the guidance of the State Department of The American Legion, the Michigan Works Progress Administration has completed the manufacture of nearly eight thousand American Flags and it is through the co-operation of Dr. Eugene Elliott and the Department of Public Instruction that the plan of manufacture and distribution has been successfully organized.

The plan was first suggested by Henry Sullivan, a District W. P. of the American Legion. When the idea was suggested to the officers of The Legion early in the fall of 1935 Everett DeRyke, newspaper editor, who for many years has been interested and active in the work of Americanism and patriotic movements was persuaded to take active charge of the program.

Louis Nims, State Director, and Miss Catherine Murray, Supervisor of the women's and professional work of the Works Progress Administration, immediately saw the possibility of placing work in the hands of hundreds of women in the state. Not only has the program developed into work for women, but other sections of the W. P. A. have furnished work for many people in the dyeing, packing and shipping of material and in the shipping of flags.

The flags are made of a cotton bunting, dyed in the Bay City project center of a material that will permit the flag to be used indoors and displayed on the walls of the school rooms of the state. The flags were manufactured in Grand Rapids, and strangely enough, the supervisor assigned to organize the women in actually sewing the flags was Mrs. Annice Starr and to Mrs. Starr goes the credit for much of the success of the program.

Flags To Be Distributed
On Friday, November 13th, the rural school room in the state will be visited by a group of members of the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary and representatives of the W. P. A. and in a short but impressive ceremony will be presented with a flag. Mr. DeRyke, who also has charge of the distribution program, estimates that about thirty thousand former service men and women in the state will take part in these presentations.

Groups of Legion members will visit the schools in their own community, become acquainted with the children in their neighborhood schools and impress on them that the flag is a peace time emblem as well as a banner to be followed through the danger and hardships of war.

Coming during the week of the celebration of the Armistice that closed the actual fighting of the World War, the Legionnaires, will make this pilgrimage into the rural schools with the thought of peace and a continued hope that the youngsters will not be called upon to bear arms.

Cat Wails Alarm

When Home Burns
Hartford, Conn.—Dr. C. W. Stephenson's pet cat got an extra platter of cream for being a hero in a fire which destroyed the physician's $300,000 home. Tabby wailed so loud she aroused the doctor who, thinking she wanted to go out, opened the door into the hall. Smoke and flames shot into the room. Doctor Stephenson aroused other members of the family, helped them to safety and then rescued the cat.

EDITORIAL

Why don't our athletic teams receive the recognition which they deserve? Most of us take our football, basketball, and track teams so much as a matter of course that we never stop to realize what a lack of them would mean to our school and community. This is practically the only tangible relationship now existing between different schools, and it does much to promote friendship and good sportsmanship between them. Athletic contests also serve as a much needed link connecting school and townspeople. And yet, some people think that it is the actual duty of qualified boys to play on the team, and they think only of the one-night-a-week when the players in their satin uniforms surrounded by glamour, play before crowded houses; they forget the long, weary hours of practice which are so necessary, and the strict training rules which must be observed. People forget these hours of work, and heap abuse and insult upon the players who although they may have lost, have done their best. They forget the injuries and risks the players face, and that it is not easy for them to accept defeat in front of a large crowd of spectators. Let us only remember to give our athletic teams the recognition they deserve whether they win or lose, and resolve to advertise and praise them for the sacrifices which they have made to uphold the fame of their school.

I WONDER

When the teachers will have another Institute?
 How the faculty play will be?
 Why we don't have more good parties?
 How the students will turn out for basketball games?
 Where the students will spend their Thanksgiving vacation?
 How many girls are going in for Industrial Arts?
 How the journalism class will ever find cars to go to South Bend?

SCHOOL SLANTS

There should be some rather scarlet faces in Mrs. Dunbar's senior English class now that election is over.
 I hear that the band is going to sponsor social hour.
 Wonder if it's true that "Lizzie" is getting married?
 Have you noticed the beautiful expressions on the faces of everyone now that the snapshot editors have their cameras at school?
 Two freshman girls certainly have a lot of business to do in the library second hour every day.
 "Toad" Smith was certainly squelched when he attempted to crash Journalism club the other day.
 Where did Joe Bachman get the beautiful black eye he was sporting the other day?

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF:

Kenneth Luke stayed away from Niles?
 Everyone was full of pep Monday morning?
 Imogene Russell didn't sneeze first hour?
 Bill Poorman didn't go to Dayton?
 The boys home economics class was really serious?
 "Jerry" White made no mistakes in typing?
 "Don" Jerue studied his government?
 Daisy Reamer didn't chew gum?
 Mabel Bennitt would quit talking?
 Marion Miller wouldn't laugh?

JUNIOR HIGH OPENS SEASON

Coach Doc Miller's fighting Junior High Bucs are in drill for their '37 schedule reason with Harry Hemphill and Carl Backus last year regulars failing to report for practice. Boys out for practice are: Jack Hess, Lazell Norton, Jerry Bowman, Harve Hinman, Chuck Fish, Harold Bordens, Dick Hablich, George Fish, Paul Morton, Lee Marks and Warren Virgil.

CLUBS

A business meeting of the Library club was held last week in the gym. Problems of the library were discussed and some revision to the present rules were made.
 One rule was made by which a person may renew a book once after he has had it one week. Another rule is that if a person takes out more than one book at a time he will be fined 25c for each book over one.
 The Library club is going to join the Journalism club in various trips to libraries and newspaper plants in the vicinity of Buchanan.
 Members of the Journalism Club held a business meeting Monday, November 1. They decided to purchase club pins and discussed trips to South Bend, Benton Harbor, and Niles to visit different print shops. The next meeting will be held November 16 with the Library Club, Geraldine McGowan, Mildred Miller, Ivan Price, and Thelma Heckathorn will be in charge.
 The Velmarian Literary Society held a meeting November 6 in Mrs. Dunbar's room.
 A debate was given, the question being, resolved: That All Electric Utilities Should Be Government Owned and Operated. Edward Smith was chairman, Marion Miller, Wright, and Dean Criffield, the negative; Robert Squier, Jeanette Levin, and Melvin Campbell.
 Mr. Eibers judged the debate and he announced the affirmative as the winner.

LIZZIE, THE LOVER'S ADVISER

Dear Lizzie,
 A very good looking young lady is my girl, only she doesn't know it. How can I inform her of the fact in a very tactful way?
 Very patiently waiting,
 O. S.

Dear O. S.,
 The old saying still goes, "Our eyes have it, our lips not yet; don't worry, old kid, I'll get you yet."
 Lovingly,
 Lizzie.

Dear Lizzie,
 What shall I do? My red headed girl friend left me last week and moved about 500 miles away. My problem is: How am I going to visit her at regular intervals?
 Worried,
 R. N.

Dear R. N.,
 Your problem seems to be a serious one, I'm sure. I gather from your letter you have no car or any other possible means of transportation. My suggestion to you is to get out the red paint and brush up your thumb. If you don't take this advice, just remember, "Absence makes the heart grow fonder."
 Lovingly,
 Lizzie.

Dear Lizzie,
 I am simply red headed about a little junior, and she doesn't even tumble. She wears some punk's track sweater and that nearly burns me up. Please send me some advice on the matter.
 Yours truly,
 K. L.

Dear K. L.,
 My advice to you K. L. is to get a bigger and better sweater with a letter and five stripes on it (preferably a basketball sweater). The extra stripe would be for her and the others for you. Any guy who can earn five stripes is, in my opinion, a big he-man. If she doesn't tumble then, she isn't worth your efforts.
 Lovingly,
 Lizzie.

Dear Lizzie,
 I am going with a girl in Niles and a girl in Buchanan keeps writing notes to me. What shall I do?
 Unhappy,
 A. T.

Dear A. T.,
 I'm afraid I can't help you, you know it's still leap year. But you might save the notes and paper your nursery.
 Lovingly,
 Lizzie.

Who's Who

SENIOR
 Virginia Blake. A quiet, unobtrusive girl who rarely volunteers an answer, but never fails to know the answer when asked a question. She's an excellent student as is attested by the fact that there are only two people above her in the senior class. Her hair is blonde, and she has blue eyes. She is a very punctual person. I'm sure she's never been late to school. At times one can catch the merest trace of a southern accent in her voice. It is believed Virginia plans to go south to college next year. It is hoped she continues her music there, because she plays the piano very delightfully.
 Edward Smith has always attended school in Buchanan, but previously lived in Chicago. "Ed's" birthday is January 21, and he's seventeen now. He's taking five subjects this year and seems to excel in French. He'll graduate about fifth in his class. He says his favorite book is Anthony Adverse (it's doubtful if he ever finished it) and the best movie he's seen this year is "The Great Ziegfeld." Edward is quite tall, and who will ever forget his manly figure as he rolled a peanut down the hall with his nose at the Latin Club initiation! This year he is a member of the Velmarian Literary Society and the French Club. If Edward could choose one dish for a final repast, it would be chop suey.

JUNIOR
 Gerald White. No, there isn't a new boy in school. Does "Jerry" solve the problem—Jerry's a very tall fellow with brownish hair. You'd never guess his age. And that's not intimidating that he's nearly twenty, either! He has a very keen sense of humor, and can be seen dancing most any time. He played drum in the band for several years. He can be seen sporting around in his dad's maroon colored "chevie" after school—and far into the night. Jerry has very good choice as far as girls are concerned, at least his present one is an excellent baton twirler. He was president of his class last year.

Phyllis Lamb is fairly tall, has light brown hair, and blue eyes. She was sixteen about three weeks ago. Sweet sixteen! She is not a member of any clubs at school, but is an active Girl Scout. She holds the rank of a First Class Girl Scout, and is a patrol leader. Phyllis plays interclass basketball, and swimming and tennis are her favorite occupations in the summer. She seemed quite thrilled about the new movie, "Ramona," and said it was the best she's seen this year. She's a faithful member of her church choir in which she sings alto. She says, "I believe Honey in the Horn" is the best book I've read this year, and there can be no doubt that swiss steak is my favorite food."

Ruth Jean Haslett. Short, dark and vivacious, prefers to be called by her whole name, Ruth Jean. She's a very thin person, athletically inclined, and takes part in all school sports. She enjoys swimming very much. She's been an active Girl Scout for a number of years, and sings in the church choir. She plays flute in band and orchestra. Her hair is naturally curly and like all the rest of those blessed individuals, doesn't half appreciate it. She enjoys ball room dancing, and although she hasn't done a great deal of it before, this year will be full of it. Take it from one who knows.

Leland George has attended school in Lansing, Cassopolis, Kalamazoo, Niles and Buchanan. Not bad for a boy of 15 with light brown hair and blue eyes, is it? Leland agrees with Edward Smith in naming the best movie of the year as "The Great Ziegfeld." He likes to play baseball and enjoys watching both football and basketball games. His favorite football player is Bill Shakespeare, and Lou Gehrig claims all honors in baseball. He says his favorite book is "Flying Carpet," by Haliburton, and he models airplanes and boats as a hobby.

"Dick" Dilley. Just to be conventional for a change Dick's birthday is June fifth, and he'll be fifteen when that date rolls brown eyes. Learned how to swim a few years ago at a Boy Scout camp, and now swims all summer—when he isn't riding a bike or learning to drive a car. Plays a trombone in band. Ask Dick how he got his black eye at the Notre Dame game! Also about his girl friend in the seventh grade.

Virginia Arnold has brown hair, brown eyes, and is an extremely thin person. Her birthday is on July 4, and she's fourteen years old. She recently acquired a new dog which she proceeded to name "Buster." Virginia has been a Girl Scout (she's no longer active) and she sings in the choir for the first time this year. A saxophone was the instrument she played in band last year. She also plays the piano, at least her duets with her neighbor would indicate as much. Virginia likes to swim, ride bikes, take in all the new movies, and eat candy.

Bill Kuntz would get a date with Virginia Logan of Niles?
 Imogene Russell really went steady with her boy friend?
 Ruth Babcock couldn't get to drive any more DeSoto's?
 Dale Boyce quit chiseling?
 "Toad" Smith forgot his line to the girls?
 Bill Kuntz could really sing?
 John Diment would let George Ernst's girl have a night off?
 Jerry White forgot to go to the Avalon Friday night?
 Chuck Wesner forgot his bicycle lock?
 Geneva Babcock didn't date farmers with V-8's?
 Thelma Hackathorne would forget a young man with a V-3?
 Max Beadle began his second childhood soon?
 No one was ever tardy or late for school?
 Everyone really studied their lesson?
 Students stayed in Buchanan on Friday nights?
 "Doc" Miller didn't give his annual basketball talk?
 We won every basketball game?

MA'S BUFFET
 When ma and I work hard all day And pa comes in, we only say, Can't you, pa, ever obey? By keeping your feet off that ole' buffet.
 He only looks up with a chestnut grin,
 Now ma, I don't see that an awful sin,
 You never let me take a sip of gin,
 Now can't ya' see the fix I'm in.

Never can take a taste of gin Ma thinks it a great deal of sin But all I hear from day to day Is keep your feet off that ole' buffet.
 By Dorothy Skinner.

AUTUMN AND WINTER (A Ballad)
 Autumn is here, the leaves are falling
 Winter is coming, the west winds calling,
 The wind is whistling through the trees,
 The Children running through the breeze.
 It won't be long till the fires burn bright,
 Children all cuddled in their beds so tight,
 Mother's have been canning all the season,
 For food in the winter, she had her reason.

In the churches, I can hear them sing,
 Lead us on, "Our Eternal King,"
 Some stay at home where the fires burn low,
 While children play cheerfully in the snow.
 When night approaches they homeward go,
 With sleds trailing behind them in the snow,
 Return to the fire that burns so low,
 And to the ones, that love them so.
 —Dorothy Skinner.

IS ZAT SO THAT—
 A blackeye epidemic has been going around school?
 "Toad" Smith stepped out on his steady to go to an election party with M. M.?
 The junior and senior class rings have really been ordered?
 Don Virgil is going to be a bachelor?
 Some of the teachers have turned out to become actors?
 Betty Ann Miller is "stepping out"??
 Imogene Russell's—was a little peeved election night?
 Dale Boyce turned out to be Bill Kuntz's chauffeur?
 All the senior pictures turned out—wonderful?
 Phyllis De Nardo fell for Art Trapp in a big way at Plym Park, last week?
 "Lovellorn Lizzie" is quite the popular adviser around school?
 Most of the seniors have hopes of going away to school next year?

The tenth grade girls are working with the seams on their work dresses.

Contributor's Column

MY MAN
 He's not a great big battling hero, One of those big shots, I mean. He's not a great big football player, Just a "sub" on the second team.

He can't keep a team from losing, But he never has a broken nose, He's not one of those ugly brutes Who dances on your toes.

You can have your "he-man" boyfriend, With his battered face and hands, I'll take my pretty bench sitter, With no cheering from the stands.

I know his skin is fairly white, But he doesn't care for tan. He may be just a "Sissy" to you, But he's my all-American man.
 —Shirley Trapp.

SENIOR PICTURES

Did you notice the seniors down-cast faces Thursday? They had just received the proofs of their pictures from Mrs. Dunbar. It's too bad, seniors, but after all, Mr. Frank is only a photographer, not a magician.

SECOND OR FIRST CHILDHOOD
 Robert Squires and Victor Vigansey were seen out on the playground playing with a group of first graders. We can't say whether they are going into their second childhood or coming out of the first, but we do think that they were right down to their own level.
 By Max Beadle.

VERY CONFUSING
 The other day in sixth hour study hall several students tried to open the double doors, but found it impossible. After trying it a couple times they went to the back door.
 After vainly attempting it many times, they were rescued by "Doc" Miller. "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again."

MR. MOORE'S OFFICE
 The boys on the basketball squad will sell pencils in the near future to help finance the purchase of basketball shoes.

The eighth grade girls are making vegetable salads.
 The ninth grade girls are making pies.
 The boys home economics class is making cakes.

Performance, Beauty and Safety Mark Chevrolet's Completely New Cars

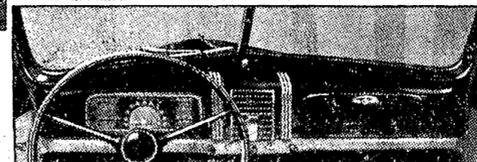

Chevrolet's 1937 engine is completely new, but adheres closely to time-proven Chevrolet engineering principles. It is of six-cylinder valve-in-head type, smoother, more powerful, more economical, and lighter.

Luggage capacity in Chevrolet's new trunk models has been greatly increased, as has interior luggage space in other models.

A representative model from Chevrolet's new line, typifying its beauty and grace—the Master De Luxe Sport Sedan with trunk. Note the distinctive "speed line" extending back from the side of the hood.

Unsteel construction joins the floor, cowl assembly, panels, and Turret Top of Chevrolet's all-steel, all-steel body, to form one integral structure, welded in all joints, and reinforced and braced for permanent silence and safety.

Beauty and utility mark the new Chevrolet instrument panel. The windshield is of greater area, with narrow corner posts, affording better vision.

New power, economy, durability, safety and comfort, coupled with striking new beauty, characterize Chevrolet's new models for 1937. They are offered in two series, Master and Master De Luxe, virtually identical in appearance.

Chevrolet's fully-enclosed Knee-Action is furnished at no extra cost on the Master De Luxe models; and new Syncro-Mesh transmission, and safety plate glass all around at no extra cost, feature all models of both series.

HELP BLADDER MAKE THIS 25c TEST

Drink six glasses boiled or distilled water daily. You know what hard water does to a teakettle. If poor bladder action causes getting up nights, frequent desire, scanty flow, burning or backache, help flush out excess acids and impurities by improving the elimination. Use buchu leaves, juniper oil and 6 other drugs made into green tablets. Just say Bukets to any druggist. In four days if not pleased go back and get your 25c. Wisner's Corner Drug Store.

Taquamenon Falls To Be State Park

Steps have been taken by state land authorities to consummate the arrangement by which Michigan will acquire the upper and lower falls of Tahquamenon river in exchange for lands now held by the state within the Hiawatha and Huron national forests. State men hope they can complete the exchange and gain title to the frontage for the state by spring.

Purchase of between four and five miles of Tahquamenon river frontage, including the upper and lower falls, was approved by the national forest reservation commission at its last meeting. It was understood the state would accept the 2,200 acres of frontage and uplands involved in exchange for state lands now within the Hiawatha and Huron national forests, and which are desired by the National Forest Service to help block in their administered areas. "Any exchange of this kind takes time to complete because of the detailed appraisals and technicalities involved," said Fred P. Struhsaker, chief of the lands division, department of conservation. "All state acreages involved must be examined, appraised and approved given. We expect that around 80,000 acres of scattered parcels of state land will be required to consummate the exchange on a value-for-value basis. "We hope we can complete all formalities by spring, so that the state can have title to the falls and the river frontage. We're going to try to do so."

13 as House Number Was Unlucky for This Family
Tilbury, England.—Attached to a large number plate was a note. It read: "Herewith goes No. 13. For 18 years we have been stricken with the accursed thing."
The sign was received by the local council, when the number of the house was changed to 115, after being 13 for 18 years.
Its occupant is Mrs. H. Kane, and this is the "luck" she has had during that time. Her husband died soon after they moved in. Their son was invalided out of the army with shell-shock.
Since then they have had to live on his dole and Mrs. Kane's pension, for he has only done three months' work in the last two and a half years. Once they threw the number plate away, but somebody brought it back.
